Authority for OED’s Regulation of Conduct

- 35 U.S.C. 2(b)(2)(D): “The Office may establish regulations, not inconsistent with law, which....
  - (D) may govern the ... conduct of agents, attorneys, or other persons representing applicants or other parties before the Office....”

- Attorneys and agents are subject to discipline for not complying with USPTO regulations. 35 U.S.C. 32; see Bender v. Dudas, 490 F.3d 1361, 1368 (Fed. Cir. 2007) (Section 2(b)(2)(D) and 35 U.S.C. 32 authorize the USPTO to discipline individuals who engage in misconduct related to “service, advice, and assistance in the prosecution or prospective prosecution of applications.”).
Practitioners are subject to discipline for not complying with USPTO regulations, regardless of whether their conduct was related to practice before the Office:

- Patent attorney reprimanded for litigation misconduct, i.e., filing and arguing a frivolous appeal and misstating district court record. 37 CFR 10.23(b)(4) (misrepresentation) and (b)(5) (conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice). See In re Allen Brufsky, Proceeding No. D09-09 (May 6, 2009); see also In re Kevin Imes, Proceeding No. D09-45 (March 15, 2011) (suspended for 3 months for engaging in malicious prosecution and abuse of process).

- Patent agent excluded upon consent for misappropriation of non-profit organization’s funds and use of organization’s credit card for personal use. 37 CFR 10.23(a) and (b)(3), (4), and (6). See In re George Reardon, Proceeding No. D2012-19 (June 4, 2012).
Changes to Representation of Others Before the United States Patent and Trademark Office

- Final Rule for new USPTO Rules of Professional Conduct published on April 3, 2013:
  - 78 Federal Register 20179.
  - Effective Date: May 3, 2013.
- Old rules (37 CFR Part 10) apply to activity prior to effective date.
Changes to Representation of Others Before the United States Patent and Trademark Office

- Based on 2011 Update to ABA Model Rules

- Included minor changes based on new 2012 updates, for example:
  - 11.1: used “electronic communications” instead of “email” and
  - 11.404(b): added “or electronically stored information” adjacent to “document.”
• Provides attorneys with consistent, updated professional conduct standards throughout the Nation.

• Some form of the ABA Model Rules have been adopted by 49 states and the District of Columbia. It looks as though California is also moving closer to the ABA Model Rules.
USPTO Rules of Professional Conduct: Comments

- OED Received Comments from 19 parties regarding the proposed rules.
  - Comments regarding a variety of provisions.
  - Crosswalk between ABA Model Rules and Final USPTO Rules showing insertions and deletions.

Deletions

Modifications
USPTO Rules of Professional Conduct: Fraud

- New definition of “Fraud or Fraudulent” (§ 11.1).
  - Different from ABA Model Rule Definition.
  - No Definition in Old Disciplinary Rules (Part 10).

- Declined to Define “Material Fraud”
  - Case of “Material Fraud” is to be referred to U.S. Attorney General under 35 U.S.C. § 257(e).
  - See Supplemental Examination rules, e.g., 37 CFR § 1.620.
USPTO Rules of Professional Conduct: Confidentiality

  - Modifies ABA Model Rule to expressly accommodate duty of disclosure before USPTO.
  - § 11.106(a): prohibition on revealing client information.
  - § 11.106(b): permissive disclosure of client information.
  - § 11.106(c): practitioner shall comply with the duty of disclosure before the USPTO.
USPTO Rules of Professional Conduct: Writings

• Explicit References to Writings:
  – § 11.105: Scope of representation and fee terms: “preferably in writing.”

• Writings have long been recognized as a best practice and in accord with numerous state rules.
  – Explicit writing requirements absent from old USPTO Code of Professional Responsibility.
USPTO Rules of Professional Conduct: Client Conflicts

• § 11.108 Conflict of Interest; Current clients; Specific Rules.
  – (a) Permits business transactions and adverse interests under certain conditions.
  – (b) Generally prohibits using information relating to representation of a client to the disadvantage of the client.

  – (e) Providing financial assistance

  – (i) Acquiring proprietary interest in proceedings
USPTO Rules of Professional Conduct: Former Clients

• § 11.109 Duties to former clients.
  – (a) Prohibition against representing others in matter adverse to former client.

  – (b) Prohibition against representing person adverse to client of former firm where practitioner acquired confidential information.

  – (c) Prohibition on use of information relating to representation former client to disadvantage of former client (unless as permitted elsewhere).
USPTO Rules of Professional Conduct: Imputation of Conflicts

• § 11.110 Imputation of conflicts of interest; General rule.
  – General prohibition on representing clients when a practitioner in same firm would be prohibited under §§ 11.107 or 11.109.

  – Outlines conditions wherein representation may be undertaken.

• Explicitly provides for ethical screens.
§ 11.115 – Safekeeping property.

Follows ABA Model Rules for Client Trust Account Records.

"Where the practitioner’s office is situated in a foreign country, funds shall be kept in a separate account maintained in that foreign country or elsewhere with the consent of the client or third person."

Provides “Safe Harbor” provision which enables many practitioners to follow their local state rules.

“Safe Harbor” for agents as well.

  “(a) A disciplinary proceeding based on conduct engaged in prior to the effective date of these regulations may be instituted subsequent to such effective date, if such conduct would continue to justify disciplinary sanctions under the provisions of this part.”

  “(b) No practitioner shall be subject to a disciplinary proceeding under this part based on conduct engaged in before the effective date hereof if such conduct would not have been subject to disciplinary action before such effective date.”
• Removed Practitioner Maintenance Fee Rules.
  – Deleted 37 CFR § 11.8(d).

• No CLE Reporting Requirement.
Ethics Enforcement
Sources of Grievances Against Practitioners

• An investigation may be initiated pursuant to information from any source suggesting possible grounds for discipline. 37 CFR 11.22(a).
  – External to USPTO
    • Clients, Colleagues, Others
  – Internally within USPTO
    • Patent Corps, Trademark Corps, Other
  – Other
    • Published Decisions, News Articles
Types of Disciplinary Complaints

• Predicated on “probable cause” determination by Committee on Discipline (COD) after Committee convenes. 37 CFR 11.32.

• Interim Suspension based on conviction of a serious crime. 37 CFR 11.25.
Four steps precede the filing of a complaint based on a “probable cause” finding by the COD:

1. Preliminary screening of allegations;
2. Requesting information from practitioner;
3. Conducting investigation after providing practitioner an opportunity to respond; and
4. Submitting complaint to COD for “probable cause” determination.
Potential Post-Investigation Outcomes

• Upon completion of the investigation, OED may:
  – Close the investigation without further action;
  – Issue a warning;
  – Enter into a proposed settlement agreement;
  or
  – Convene the COD to determine whether there is “probable cause” to file a disciplinary action against practitioner.
The Leahy-Smith America Invents Act (AIA) amended 35 U.S.C. § 32 to require disciplinary proceedings to be commenced not later than the earlier of:

- 10 years after the misconduct occurred, or
- One year from when the misconduct was made known to the USPTO, as prescribed in the regulations governing disciplinary proceedings.

“Grievance” means a written submission, regardless of the source, received by the OED Director that presents possible grounds for discipline of a specified practitioner. 37 CFR § 11.1.
Possible Ethics Impact of AIA Provisions

- Oath/Declaration Rules
  - Removal of “deceptive intent” language from various provisions.

- Best Mode
  - Revision of 35 U.S.C. § 282 to limit this defense in patent litigation.

- Supplemental Examination
  - Inequitable Conduct Implications.

- First-Inventor-To-File Rules
  - Old First-to-Invent rules remain for some applications.

- PTAB Pro hac vice
  - 37 CFR § 42.10.
  - Granted upon showing of good cause.
  - Lead Counsel must be Registered Practitioner.
  - Board has discretion to revoke pro hac vice status.
