

The proposed rule gives an applicant of a USPTO-lost file the option to make its record available for copying rather than provide copies to the USPTO. It would seem fair to also reimburse the applicant for copying expenses (if the applicant provides copies) and delivery of the copies (or the applicant's record) to the USPTO.

Donald W. Banner and

Paul M. Rivard
Banner & Witcoff, Ltd.
rivard@bannerwitcoff.com
(202) 508-9124

IMPORTANT/CONFIDENTIAL: This message contains information from the law firm of Banner & Witcoff, LTD. which may be privileged, confidential, or exempt from disclosure under applicable law. If the reader of this message is not the intended recipient, or the employee or agent responsible for delivering the message to the intended recipient, you are hereby notified that any dissemination, distribution, retention, archiving, or copying of the communication is strictly prohibited. If you have received this communication in error, please notify us immediately by return E-mail.