

CLASS D26, LIGHTINGSECTION I - CLASS DEFINITION

This class provides for design patents claiming ornamental designs for:

1. Light Source
2. Candle Holder
3. Light Fixture

- (1) Note. Design patents in this class are classified by what is claimed and shown in full lines only. Broken, hatched, or stippled lines, which may be included in design patent drawings, are considered as environment only.

SUBCLASSES1 LIGHT SOURCE:

This subclass is indented under the class definition. Design for element or material that provides visual illumination.

- (1) Note. Examples of a light source are an electric light bulb, candle, or torch.
- (2) Note. A signal-type light source is excluded from this class.

LIGHT FIXTURE:

This subclass is indented under the class definition. Design for article for holding a source of light.

- (1) Note. If a claimed design can function as a light fixture as it is shown by the addition of (a) a light source, (b) a receptacle, (c) a modifier, or (d) a power source, it is classified as a light fixture in this and in indented subclasses. If some element other than those specified must be added to complete the design, it is considered an element and must be classified in subclasses so specified.

Example of a design for a lamp or light fixture.
