Final Pretrial Conference (FPC) pilot

Final Pretrial Conference (FPC) pilot

- Trademark Alert email announced April 1 commencement of FPC pilot
- Pilot planning team has provided instruction to all TTAB interlocutory attorneys (IAs) and judges (ATJs)
- Attorneys and judges may now recommend cases for possible inclusion in pilot; recommendations reviewed by planning team

Benefits

- Goals are to save time and resources of parties and the TTAB, and foster effective presentation of case
- Parties will be strongly encouraged to dispense with extraneous claims, defenses, objections; to enter into stipulations on exhibits, agreed-upon facts, presentation of evidence; trial plan subject to Board approval

Steps

- Pilot planning team receives recommendation
- Assesses bases for recommendation and likelihood inclusion would be successful
- Assignment order issues (after close of discovery); parties discuss dates for orientation conference with IA and ATJ
- IA and ATJ explain parties' joint drafting of proposed FPC order and preparing for FPC

- Parties exchange lists of witnesses, copies of anticipated trial exhibits, discuss trial plan
- Parties file proposed FPC order
- Board reviews and schedules FPC
- ATJ will lead discussion of edits, amendments for FPC order
- Once order is finalized, Board issues it and it governs trial

Final Pretrial Conference Pilot

The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (TTAB) has begun a pilot program for holding Final Pretrial Conferences in certain inter partes (trial) cases to better manage and streamline opposition and cancellation proceedings that proceed to trial. The goal of the pilot is to save time and resources of parties and the TTAB, and to foster the effective and efficient presentation of evidence.
