 - See also 37 C.F.R. § 11.14 for details regarding individuals who may practice before the office in trademark and other non-patent matters

OED discipline: grievances and complaints

- An investigation into possible grounds for discipline may be initiated by the receipt of a grievance (see 37 C.F.R. § 11.22(a))
- Grievance: “a written submission from any source received by the OED Director that presents possible grounds for discipline of a specified practitioner” (37 C.F.R. § 11.1)
- In the course of the investigation, the OED Director may request information and evidence regarding possible grounds for discipline of a practitioner from:
 - i. The grievant
 - ii. The practitioner, or
 - iii. Any person who may reasonably be expected to provide information and evidence needed in connection with the grievance or investigation

(37 C.F.R. § 11.22(f)(1))

OED discipline: grievances and complaints

- Upon the conclusion of an investigation, the OED Director may:
 - Close the investigation without issuing a warning or taking disciplinary action
 - Issue a warning to the practitioner
 - Institute formal charges upon the approval of the Committee on Discipline, or
 - Enter into a settlement agreement with the practitioner and submit the same for approval of the USPTO Director.

(37 C.F.R. § 11.22(h))

OED discipline: grievances and complaints

- If investigation reveals that grounds for discipline exist, the matter may be referred to the Committee on Discipline to make a probable cause determination (see 37 C.F.R. § 11.32)
- 37 C.F.R. § 11.34(d) specifies that the timing for filing a complaint shall be within one year after the date on which the OED Director receives a grievance
- 37 C.F.R. § 11.34(d) also states that no complaint may be filed more than 10 years after the date on which the misconduct occurred
- Self-reporting is often considered as a mitigating factor in the disciplinary process

Other types of discipline

- Reciprocal discipline (37 C.F.R. § 11.24)
 - Based on discipline by a state or federal program or agency
 - Often conducted on documentary record only
- Interim suspension based on conviction of a serious crime (37 C.F.R. § 11.25)

Ethics scenarios and select case law

Patent agent privilege

- In re Queen's University at Kingston, 820 F.3d 1287 (Fed. Cir. 2016)
 - U.S. District Court granted Samsung's Motion to Compel documents, including communications between Queen's University employees and registered (non-lawyer) patent agents discussing prosecution of patents at issue in suit
 - Federal Circuit recognized privilege only as to those activities that patent agents are authorized to perform (see 37 C.F.R. § 11.5(b)(1))
- In re Silver, 540 S.W.3d 530 (Tex. 2018)
 - Lower court ruled that communications between client and patent agent were not protected from discovery because Texas law did not recognize patent agent privilege
 - Supreme Court of Texas overturned, citing patent agents' authorization to practice law
- Rule on Attorney-Client Privilege for Trials Before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board, 82 Fed. Reg. 51570 (Nov. 7, 2017)

Patent agent privilege

- Onyx Therapeutics, Inc. v. Cipla Ltd. et. al., C.A. No. 16-988-LPS (consolidated), 2019 WL 668846, (D. Del. Feb. 15, 2019)
 - U.S. District Court found that a group of documents it inspected in camera would “almost certainly be within the scope of attorney client privilege,” but not be “protected by the narrower patent agent privilege,” because they were not “reasonably necessary and incident to” the ultimate patent prosecution
 - Documents were communications between scientists referencing prior art found by an individual who performed a patent assessment at the direction of a patent agent
 - Email discussion among the scientists was found not to be protected by the patent-agent privilege “because the assessment was done as part of a plan to develop new chemical formulations, not to seek patent protection for already-developed formulations”

 - All statements made therein of the party's own knowledge are true...
 - To the best of the party's knowledge, information and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances...(iii) [t]he allegations and other factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery; and (iv) [t]he denials of factual contentions are warranted on the evidence, or if specifically so identified, are reasonably based on a lack of information or belief
