Ask a Patent/Copyright/Trademark Attorney Program Going Strong

Ohio Intellectual Property Attorneys in the northwest part of the state have teamed up with the local Patent and Trademark Office (www.uspto.gov) Patent and Trademark Depository Library (<http://www.uspto.gov/products/library/index.jsp#heading-1>) to offer a free monthly program for trademark owners, inventors, entrepreneurs and other creative types. Several years ago, Barbara Stein of the Business Department at the Toledo Lucas County Public Library (<http://www.toledolibrary.org/default.aspx>) connected with intellectual property attorneys in the area and put together:

Ask a Patent/Copyright/Trademark Attorney is presented on the first Tuesday of each month, from 7:00 pm to 8:30 p.m. beginning September 7, 2010 through June 7, 2011 at the Main Library, 325 Michigan St., Toledo, Ohio. During this series, attorneys from Purdue Law Offices, LLC (www.purdue-law.com) and from MacMillan, Sobanski and Todd, LLC and from Fraser, Clemens, Martin & Miller, LLC provide an overview of intellectual property. These intellectual property attorneys explain the differences between patents and trademarks and copyright and answer questions. This program is free and open to the public. Free parking is available in the Main Library's underground parking garage. No registration is required to attend. On May 3, 2011, Dave Purdue, the Trademark Wahoo, will represent the Toledo intellectual patent, copyright and trademark bar in presenting the program. The remaining programs are listed below:

February 1, 2011:

J. Douglas Miller and Brenda J. Kruse of Fraser, Clemens, Martin & Miller, LLC
