General Comment

I strongly support the Patent Trial and Appeal Board as they work towards preventing unfair patent invalidations and restoring the rights of Inventors in America to end the unfair attacks on Inventors. Inventors invested much time, effort, research & development, and money to solve problems and help the world. They need protection.