If LLCs, corporations or individuals claiming to own patents on products or intellectual properties produced by others are allowed to sue it is only fair that those being sued are allowed access to the process of Inter Partes Review to defend themselves.