

PUBLIC SUBMISSION

As of: 12/1/20 8:40 AM
Received: November 21, 2020
Status: Posted
Posted: November 24, 2020
Tracking No. 1k4-9k7h-lpek
Comments Due: December 03, 2020
Submission Type: Web

Docket: PTO-C-2020-0055

Request for Comments on Discretion to Institute Trials Before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board

Comment On: PTO-C-2020-0055-0001

Discretion to Institute Trials Before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board

Document: PTO-C-2020-0055-0596

Comment from Clark Williams

---

Submitter Information

Name: Clark Williams

---

General Comment

DO NOT limit the ability to do Inter Partes Review. The Patent Office already issues questionable patents on things the reviewer can't possibly understand well enough to be making a decision about. Severely limiting the ability to defend by using Inter Partes Review smacks of political kickbacks and under-the-table payoffs. There is literally no need for this regulation/statute.

Please stop the stupidity.