General Comment

I implore you to consider all mediated methods to avoid entry into a process which is often simply a war of financial attrition. The fact is that without mechanisms to prequalify a reasonable legal case, numerous innocent parties will be financially crippled costing them their chance to compete and employ in a free market. To support this layer of fairness, to demonstrate a Justice System and not just a Legal System, will allow fairness and avoid a system that always financially wins regardless of who before them ends up losing
