

PUBLIC SUBMISSION

As of: 12/1/20 11:09 AM
Received: November 26, 2020
Status: Posted
Posted: November 30, 2020
Tracking No. 1k4-9kb8-ppxi
Comments Due: December 03, 2020
Submission Type: Web

Docket: PTO-C-2020-0055

Request for Comments on Discretion to Institute Trials Before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board

Comment On: PTO-C-2020-0055-0001

Discretion to Institute Trials Before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board

Document: PTO-C-2020-0055-0721

Comment from Robert Sneed

---

Submitter Information

Name: Robert Sneed

---

General Comment

I am a subscriber to a software program whose author has been subject to "Patent Mining" and the only recourse he had to fight was the Inter-Partes Review. If that ability is removed, injured parties will have no other recourse to declare their innocence and fight the injustice and reverse the complaint that is dubious to begin with. Thanks