Diversity Program goals

• Reach qualified jobseekers from every segment of the American workforce;

• Reduce/remove barriers to equality of employment opportunity;

• Provide guidance and education programs for hiring officials, supervisors, and employees to address soft skill gaps, implicit bias, and other issues pertaining to effective and fair personnel management, successful career management and outstanding employee engagement; and

• Establish and promote the agency as: 1) a leader in diversity recruitment and Diversity and Inclusion (D&I) practices; and 2) an employer of choice in the federal government.
Diversity Program: Areas of oversight
Areas of oversight: Affirmative employment and special emphasis programs

• Five VEOs are located in the Denver, San Jose, and Dallas Regional Offices

  – Only one affinity group, Women in Technology and Science (WiTS), is located in a regional office (Denver)

• Of the 30 VEOs, 18 are affinity groups

• The two newest affinity groups are:

  – American Romanian Cultural Society (ARCS)—established January 2019

  – Korean American Intellectual Property Organization (KAIPO)—established January 2020
Areas of Oversight: Affirmative employment & special emphasis programs (con’t)

- Dozens of special events are hosted or cohosted by VEOs, including special observance month flagship events, luncheons, happy hours, networking socials, concerts, health and fitness activities, trainings, coffee breaks, business meetings, the annual International Food Sample Festival, and more.
