PTAB judicial law clerk program
Goals

• Create a stronger patent bar
  – Train individuals to have specific PTAB ex parte appeal and AIA trial experience
  – Infuse private sector with PTAB judicial law clerks

• Develop future PTAB practitioners through training

• Mentor junior practitioners
Polling question #1

Which of the following best characterizes your familiarity with PTAB judicial clerkships?

A: I have applied to the PTAB judicial law clerk position.
B: I remember hearing about PTAB judicial clerkships while I was in law school.
C: I heard about the law clerk position through social media or through colleagues/friends.
D: My understanding of PTAB judicial clerkships is what I have learned in this Boardside Chat so far.
Similarities with traditional clerkships

• Term limited position — one year
• Paid clerkship
• Learn about the inner workings of the judicial system
• Work closely with a judge
• Hone legal experience and writing skills
  – Conduct legal research
  – View oral hearings
  – Draft bench memos, orders, and decisions
  – Discuss cases with judges
Differences from traditional clerkships

- Work with multiple judges — different judicial writing styles
- Patent law only
- Specialize in PTAB trial practice — experience complete life cycle of an AIA proceeding
- Potential rotation with the Under Secretary and Director of the USPTO
PTAB judges

• Technically and legally trained — in addition to Bachelor and J.D., other degrees include Ph.D., M.D., LLM, and M.S.

• Extensive previous experience in private practice, corporate, or other government organizations

• Based in USPTO offices (Alexandria, Detroit, Denver, Dallas, San Jose) and nationwide under the USPTO Telework Program
PTAB judge dockets

• Adjudicate ex parte appeals and AIA trials

• Ex parte appeals — determine whether the examiner correctly rejected the claims of a patent application

• AIA proceedings — determine whether to institute an AIA trial, and if instituted, whether the petitioner established the unpatentability of the challenged claims in an issued patent
Law clerk responsibilities

- Assist PTAB Judges
  - Review briefs
  - Conduct legal research
  - Attend hearings and pre/post hearing conferences
  - Draft bench memos, orders, and decisions
  - Verify citations and proofread judges’ decisions

Judicial law clerk experiences

Kyla B.: “The PTAB judicial law clerk program allows a firsthand look at how the patent legal system is portrayed through the eyes of those who have been senior associates, partners, patent examiners, and are now administrative patent judges.”

Lu L.: “If you are looking to gain hands-on experience and build a solid foundation in patent law, I don’t think there are many better positions than working at where it all starts—the USPTO.”
