Application No. 12/842,281

Attorney Docket No. TSM09-0553

: DECISION ON REQUEST
: FOR REDETERMINATION OF
: PATENT TERM ADJUSTMENT

This is in response to patentee's "APPLICATION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF PATENT TERM ADJUSTMENT PURSUANT TO 37 C.F.R. § 1.705" filed April 17, 2014, which is being treated under 37 CFR 1.705(b) as a request that the Office correct the patent term adjustment determination ("PTA") from 103 days to 232 days.

The request is DENIED.

This redetermination of patent term adjustment is the Director's decision on patentee's request for reconsideration within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 154(b)(4) that triggers a 180-day period for applicant disagreeing with the Office redetermination to commence a civil action in the District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia.

Relevant Procedural History

On February 18, 2014, this patent issued with a PTA of 103 days. On April 17, 2014, patentee timely filed the present request for redetermination of patent term adjustment within two months of the issue date of the patent.

Patentee seeks 232 days of PTA. Patentee solely disputes the calculation of "B" delay. Patentee requests 129 days of "B" delay based on the Federal Circuit's interpretation of 35 U.S.C. § 154(b)(1)(B) set forth in Novartis AG v. Lee, No. 2013-1160 (Fed. Cir. Jan. 15, 2014). Patentee calculates the period of "B" delay as follows:

Under 35 U.S.C. § 154(b)(1)(B) and 37 C.F.R. §§ 1.702(b) and 1.703(b) as modified by the Federal Circuit's decision in Novartis, a delay of 129 days (e.g., the period between July 23, 2013 (e.g., the day after three years after the filing date listed in paragraph 1) and February 18, 2014 (e.g., the issue date listed in paragraph 18), but excluding the period between November 20, 2012 (e.g., the filing date of the Request for Continued Examination listed in paragraph 9) and October 8, 2013 (e.g., the mailing date of the Notice of Allowance listed in paragraph 16)). Before Novartis, the Office excluded the period between October 8, 2013 and February 18, 2014 in the calculation of delay under 35 U.S.C. § 154(b)(1)(B) and 37 C.F.R. §§ 1.702(b) and 1.703(b).

Request, 04/17/14, pp. 2-3.

Decision

The Office has carefully considered patentee's arguments. Upon review, the Office finds that patentee is entitled to 103 days of PTA. The Office and patentee are in agreement regarding the calculation of 103 days of "A" delay, 0 days of "C" delay, 0 days of overlap, and 0 days of applicant delay. The Office has revisited the determination of the amount of "B" delay in view of the Federal Circuit's decision in Novartis AG v. Lee, 740 F.3d 593 (Fed. Cir. 2014).

As to the amount of "B" delay, the Office notes that the interpretation of the "B" delay was based upon 37 CFR 1.703(b)(1) which excluded from the amount of "B" delay the period beginning on the date of filing of the continued examination and ending on the date of the issuance of the patent. However, the Federal Circuit reviewed the statutory interpretation of 35 U.S.C. § 154(b)(1)(B)(i) and issued a decision regarding the effects of a Request for Continued Examination ("RCE") on "B" delay in the Novartis appeal. In Novartis, the Federal Circuit agreed with the Office that "no ["B" delay] adjustment time is available for any time in continued examination, even if the continued examination was initiated more than three calendar years after the application's filing." Novartis, 740 F.3d at 601. However, the Novartis court found that if the Office issues a notice of allowance after an RCE is filed, the period after the notice of allowance should not be excluded from the "B" delay period but should be counted as "B" delay. Id. at 602. The Federal Circuit issued its mandate in the Novartis appeal on March 10, 2014.

Pursuant to the Novartis decision, the USPTO has determined patentee is entitled to zero (0) days of "B" delay. In this case, applicant filed the application on July 23, 2010, and the patent issued on February 18, 2014. Thus, the application was pending for 1307 days. During this time, applicant filed the first RCE on November 20, 2012. The Office mailed a Notice of Allowance on October 8, 2013. Under 35 U.S.C. § 154(b)(1)(B)(i), the time period consumed by continued examination ("RCE period") began on November 20, 2012, and ended on October 8, 2013 – i.e., 323 days. Subtracting the RCE period from the total number of days the application was pending results in 1307 – 323 = 984 days. Thus, for purposes of "B" delay, the application was pending for 984 – 1097 [i.e., 3 years (including a leap year) from the actual filing date] = 0 days beyond the three-year anniversary of the filing date.

Overall PTA Calculation

Formula:

“A” delay + “B” delay + “C” delay - Overlap - applicant delay = X

USPTO’s Calculation:

$103 + 0 + 0 - 0 - 0 = 103$

Patentee’s Calculation

$103 + 129 + 0 - 0 - 0 = 232$

Conclusion

The Office affirms that patentee is entitled to PTA of one hundred three (103) days. Using the formula “A” delay + “B” delay + “C” delay - overlap - applicant delay = X, the amount of PTA is calculated as following: $103 + 0 + 0 - 0 - 0 = 103$ days. A correction of the determination of patent term adjustment under 35 U.S.C. § 154(b) to 232 days is not merited. As the front page of the patent properly reflects the PTA determination of 103 days, no further action is required. Accordingly, the request for redetermination of patent term adjustment is denied. This decision may be viewed as a final agency action. See MPEP 1002.02(b).
