

Eddie Lefkowitz
Director, Technology Center 2100
United States Patent & Trademark Office

Eddie Lefkowitz is a US Patent and Trademark Office Group Director of Technology Center 2100 and oversees patent examination operations in the areas of Computer Architecture and Software.

Eddie joined the USPTO in 1991 to examine in the electrical communication art areas. In 2001, he was promoted to Supervisory Patent Examiner, and in 2012 he was promoted to Technology Center Director.

Eddie, a native of New York, holds an electrical engineering degree from The City College of New York.