

Gary Welch

Gary Welch started his career at the USPTO in June of 1998. He graduated from The University of Maryland at College Park with a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering. He was an Examiner in Art Unit 3765, Apparel and Textile Manufacturing, for 8 years before becoming a Supervisory Patent Examiner in Technology Center in October of 2006. In February of 2012, Gary accepted a detail in the Office of Patent Training as a Class Manager and in August of 2012, Gary became the Academy Class Manager in the Office of Patent Training running the day to day operations of examiner training.