

China's Shifting IP Landscape and the Consequences for Rights Holders

Wednesday, November 20, 2019

Global Intellectual Property Academy, Berne and Paris Rooms
Madison Building, United States Patent and Trademark Office
600 Dulany Street, Alexandria, Virginia 22314

Upon entering the Madison Building from the north, please proceed to the left and through the glass doors entering into the Public Search Facility/Global Intellectual Property Academy (GIPA). GIPA is directly across the atrium floor from the National Inventors Hall of Fame Museum.

METRO

and PARKING: King Street Station (Yellow and Blue Lines)
Parking information can be found here.

TO REGISTER: Registration closed as of 11/15/19

MODERATORS

John M. Whealan, George Washington University Law School
Chen Wang, American Intellectual Property Law Association
Elaine T.L. Wu, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO)
Michael Diehl, USPTO

PANELISTS

Robert D. Atkinson, Information Technology and Innovation Foundation
Claire E. Reade, Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholar
Matthew Margulies, US-China Business Council
Jeffrey Moon, China Moon Strategies, LLC
Jack Chang, Quality Brands Protection Committee
Jacob Parker, US-China Business Council
Dan Prud'homme, EMLV Business School
Dan Harris, Harris Bricken and China Law Blog
Scott Tatlock, U.S. Department of Commerce
Thomas T. Moga, Dykema
Letao Qin, Rimon Law Firm
Michael Mangelson, USPTO

UNITED STATES
PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

uspto

AGENDA

---

- 9:15 – 9:45 a.m.      Security Screening and Registration
Guests should bring a valid government-issued photo ID, be prepared to power up laptops, and allow at least 15 minutes for security screening and registration.
- 9:45 – 10:00 a.m.    Opening Remarks by Andrei Iancu
Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Director of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office
- 10:00 – 12:00 p.m.   First Roundtable: China's Changing Economic, Political and Technical Development Needs: Implications for Intellectual Property Policy
- 12:00 – 1:00            Lunch to be provided
- 1:00 – 2:30             Second Roundtable: Developments in Securing Intellectual Property Rights in China: Tinkering at the Margins or Real Reform?
- 2:30 – 2:50             Coffee Break
- 2:50 – 4:20             Third Roundtable: Developments in the Enforcement of Intellectual Property Rights in China
- 4:20 – 4:30             Concluding Thoughts
- John M. Whealan, George Washington University Law School
  - Elaine T.L. Wu, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office