As a Print on Demand seller I’m voicing my opposition to adding any fee to sending letters of opposition to the USPTO. There have been many frivolous Trademarks awarded to words and phrases that do not distinguish a business and it’s services which is the purpose of a Trademark. Commonly used words and phrases are now given Trademark status which are not in the spirit of Trademark law.

Robert Wahl

Sent from Mail for Windows 10