

2017 World Intellectual Property Day

Innovation – Improving Lives

#worldipday

Join us for a World Intellectual Property (IP) Day celebration @ the Silicon Valley U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

Event Highlights:

- Technology Showcase: Talk to innovators from our community and discover how their technologies make our lives healthier, safer, and more comfortable.
- Speakers: Hear from national and regional IP leaders and learn how the intellectual property system supports and encourages innovators to share and develop their ideas.

Keynote Address:

- Mary Boney Denison, Commissioner for Trademarks, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office

This event is free and open to the public. Space is limited.
