

First, I believe that the topic submitted by Mr. Kirk Williams is an excellent one: A primary or supervisor examiner should not sign off unless having read and understood the underlying paper(s)/arguments.

My submissions propose a study of examinations/examiners in which:

2) An impermissible hindsight reconstruction of a reference is used.

J. Carl Cooper
Reg. 34,568