I'm an inventor with multiple issued patents and patent pending applications.

I support the 2019 Revised Patent Subject Matter Eligibility Guidance. The 2019 revised guidance clarifies many uncertainties and positively impacts innovations in America. For example, without the Revised Patent Subject Matter Eligibility Guidance, patent examiners will continue to reject valuable inventions as being abstract ideas without having a correct and clear definition for an abstract idea. The 2019 Revised Patent Subject Matter Eligibility Guidance effectively defines what an abstract idea is and therefore is helpful for examiners and inventors like myself.

Thank you, Nader Kamrani
