

TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD MANUAL OF PROCEDURE (TBMP)

Second Edition
June 2003

Revision 1
March 2004

United States Patent and Trademark Office

PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION

When we issued the first edition of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board Manual of Procedure (TBMP) in 1995, we expressed the hope that it would serve as a comprehensive and ready resource for practitioners. That has proved to be so, if we can judge by the enthusiastic reception the TBMP has received. With this second edition, we hope to make a good thing better.

This edition of the TBMP reflects changes in TTAB practice resulting from statutory changes and new rules promulgated since 1995 and, in particular, from the changes made in many of the TTAB rules in 1998. We have revised the format of the manual to add a comprehensive table of contents for each chapter. We have shifted case citations to footnotes to make the text easier to read and have enhanced case citations to include parenthetical explanations of the significance of the cited cases. We have added appendices with additional case law citations. We have reorganized some of the chapters to help users locate relevant information more quickly and have expanded some sections to explain TTAB practice more clearly or to reflect changes in practice.

This edition of the manual reflects also the Office's commitment to electronic government. We will not publish this edition of the TBMP in paper form but will make it available only on line at the TTAB web page of the USPTO web site. By using electronic technology, we can update the manual more quickly and, we hope, enhance its ultimate value to practitioners.

Special thanks to TTAB Interlocutory Attorney Linda Skoro and Administrative Trademark Judge Terry Holtzman, whose countless hours of work and applied creativity have made this edition of the TBMP not a mere update of the first edition but, in many respects, a new and even more useful guide to TTAB practice.

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this manual is to provide practitioners with basic information generally useful for litigating cases before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board. The manual does not modify, amend, or serve as a substitute for any existing statutes, rules, or decisional law and is not binding upon the Board, its reviewing tribunals, the Director, or the USPTO. Cf., In re Wine Society of America Inc., 12 USPQ2d 1139 (TTAB 1989).

Rather, the manual describes current practice and procedure under the applicable authority, as of the date the manual is issued.

The manual is devoted primarily to opposition and cancellation proceedings, the two most common types of inter partes proceedings before the Board. Nonetheless, the manual includes a chapter of general information useful for all proceedings and chapters on interference proceedings, concurrent use proceedings, and ex parte appeals to the Board.

The manual will be updated periodically. In particular, after implementation of the Madrid Protocol, the Board will update the manual to reflect the resulting changes in Board practice.

The Board welcomes suggestions for improving the content of the manual. Suggestions and comments should be addressed as follows:

Commissioner for Trademarks
Attention: Chief Administrative Trademark Judge
2900 Crystal Drive
Arlington, Virginia 22202-3514

The title of the manual is abbreviated as "TBMP". A citation to a section of the manual may be written as "TBMP § ____" (e.g. "TBMP § 110.01," "TBMP § 113.06," etc.).

Chapter 100 GENERAL INFORMATION

101.01 Statute and Rules of Practice

All proceedings before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board ("TTAB" or "Board") are governed by the Lanham Trademark Act of 1946, as amended, ("Act of 1946" or "Act"), 15 U.S.C. § 1051 et seq.; the rules of practice in trademark cases (commonly known as the Trademark Rules of Practice), which may be found in Parts 2 and 7 of Title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations ("CFR"); the rules pertaining to assignments in trademark cases, which may be found in Parts 3 and 7 of 37 CFR; and the rules relating to representation of others before the United States Patent and Trademark Office which may be found in Part 10 of 37 CFR. The United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO" or "Office") rules governing procedure in inter partes proceedings before the Board are adapted, in large part, from the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, with modifications due primarily to the administrative nature of Board proceedings.¹

A copy of Title 37 of the CFR may be obtained at a nominal cost from the U.S. Government Printing Office. Title 37 of the CFR may also be found on the Internet at the Government Printing Office web site at: www.access.gpo.gov/nara/cfr or at the USPTO web site at: www.uspto.gov.

Information regarding proposed and final rule changes to Title 37 is also posted on the Office web site at www.uspto.gov.

101.02 Federal Rules

Inter partes proceedings before the Board are also governed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure ("Fed. R. Civ. P."), except as otherwise provided in the Trademark Rules of Practice, and "wherever applicable and appropriate";² and by the Federal Rules of Evidence ("Fed. R. Evid.").³

Cir. 1989) (In applying the burden of proof provisions of Fed. R. Evid. 301, the court stated "[t]he Federal Rules of Evidence generally apply to TTAB proceedings.").

Chapter 100 GENERAL INFORMATION

There is no provision in the Trademark Rules of Practice concerning the applicability of the Federal Rules of Evidence to ex parte appeals before the Board. However, certain of the principles embodied in the Federal Rules of Evidence are applied by the Board, in practice, in evaluating the probative value of evidence submitted in ex parte cases.⁴

101.03 Decisional Law

Proceedings before the Board are also governed, to a large extent, by precedential decisions in prior cases. These decisions include those of the Board itself, as well as the decisions of the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (which determines appeals from decisions of the Board); the Court of Customs and Patent Appeals (predecessor of the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit); and the Director of The United States Patent and Trademark Office (formerly the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks), who determines petitions seeking review of Board actions on procedural matters.

Decisions of the Board, the Director, and the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit appear in the United States Patent Quarterly ("USPQ"), a periodical publication of The Bureau of National Affairs, Inc., Washington, D.C., and may also be found in Reed Elsevier, Inc.'s "LEXIS" legal database, and in the Intellectual Property Library of West Publishing Company's WESTLAW database.

Decisions that are designated by the Board "citable as precedent" or "for publication in full" are citable as precedent. Decisions which are not so designated, or which are designated for publication only in digest form, are not citable authority.⁵ A nonprecedential or digest decision will, however, be considered in determining issues of claim preclusion, issue preclusion, judicial estoppel, law of the case, or the like, provided that (1) a party to the pending Board proceeding, or its privy, was also a party to the prior proceeding, and (2) a complete copy of the decision is submitted.⁶

101.04 Director's Orders and Notices

Occasionally, the Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office or another USPTO official acting under the Director's authority, publishes in the Official Gazette an Order or Notice relating to a particular Office policy, practice, procedure, or other such matter of interest to the public. Some of these Orders and Notices affect practice and procedure before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board. Such notices are also posted on the Office's web site at www.uspto.gov.

102 Nature of Board Proceedings

102.01 Jurisdiction of Board

The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board is an administrative tribunal of the United States Patent and Trademark Office within the Office of General Counsel. The Board is empowered to determine only the right to register.⁷

The Board is not authorized to determine the right to use, nor may it decide broader questions of infringement or unfair competition.⁸

⁸ See Enterprise Rent-A-Car Co. v. Advantage Rent-A-Car Inc., 62 USPQ2d 1857, 1858 (TTAB 2002), aff'd, 300 F.3d 1333, 66 USPQ2d 1811 (Fed. Cir. 2003) (no jurisdiction to decide issues arising under state dilution laws); Person's Co. v. Christman, 900 F.2d 1565, 14 USPQ2d 1477, 1481 (Fed. Cir. 1990) (cannot adjudicate unfair competition issues); Carano v. Vina Concha Y Toro S.A., 67 USPQ2d 1149 (TTAB 2003) (no jurisdiction to determine copyright infringement; opposer's claim that applicant neither owns nor is entitled to use mark was not separable from opposer's copyright claim); Ross v. Analytical Technology Inc., 51 USPQ2d 1269, 1270 n.2 (TTAB 1999) (no jurisdiction over unfair competition claims); Paramount Pictures Corp. v. White, 31 USPQ2d 1768, 1771 n.5 (TTAB 1994) (no jurisdiction over claims of trademark infringement and unfair competition) aff'd (unpub'd), 108 F.3d 1392 (Fed. Cir. 1997); Kelly Services Inc. v. Greene's Temporaries Inc., 25 USPQ2d 1460, 1464 (TTAB 1992) (not empowered to render declaratory judgment); Andersen Corp. v. Therm-O-Shield Int'l, Inc., 226 USPQ 431, 432 n.5 (TTAB 1985) (may not entertain any claim based on Section 43(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. 1125(a)); Electronic Water Conditioners, Inc. v. Turbomag Corp., 221 USPQ 162, 163-64 (TTAB 1984) (unfair competition and Section 43(a) claims are outside the Board's jurisdiction); Hershey Foods Corp. v. Cerreta, 195 USPQ 246, 252 (TTAB 1977) (determination of whether opposer is guilty of unfair business practices is not within the province of the Board); Yasutomo & Co. v. Commercial Ball Pen Co., 184 USPQ 60, 61 (TTAB 1974) (no jurisdiction to address anti-trust issues); and American-International Travel Service, Inc. v. AITS, Inc., 174 USPQ 175, 179 (TTAB 1972) (no jurisdiction to determine whether opposer violated criminal statute).

But see Loglan Institute Inc. v. Logical Language Group Inc., 962 F.2d 1038, 22 USPQ2d 1531, 1534 (Fed. Cir. 1992) (Board may have erred in stating that it lacked jurisdiction over equitable defenses which were based on allegations of trademark infringement and unfair competition); Selva & Sons, Inc. v. Nina Footwear, Inc., 705 F.2d 1316, 217 USPQ 641, 647 (Fed. Cir. 1983) (regarding Board's authority to consider an agreement, its construction, or its validity if necessary to decide the issues properly before it, including the issue of estoppel); and Knickerbocker Toy Co. v. Faultless Starch Co., 467 F.2d 501, 175 USPQ 417, 423 (CCPA 1972) (Board is not precluded from passing on the validity of a copyright if it is necessary to do so in the course of the exercise of its statutory

GENERAL INFORMATION

Similarly, the Board, being an administrative tribunal, has no authority to declare any portion of the Act of 1946, or any other act of Congress, unconstitutional.⁹

102.02 Types of Board Proceedings

The Board has jurisdiction over four types of inter partes proceedings, namely, oppositions, cancellations, interferences, and concurrent use proceedings.

An opposition is a proceeding in which the plaintiff seeks to prevent the issuance of a registration of a mark on the Principal Register. "Any person who believes that he would be damaged by the registration of a mark" may file an opposition thereto, but the opposition may be filed only as a timely response to the publication of the mark, under Section 12(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1062(a), in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office.¹⁰

A cancellation proceeding is a proceeding in which the plaintiff seeks to cancel an existing registration of a trademark. A petition for cancellation may only be filed after the issuance of the registration. A petition for cancellation may be filed by "any person who believes that he is or will be damaged by the registration" of the mark.¹¹ jurisdiction); M-5 Steel Mfg. Inc. v. O'Hagin's Inc., 61 USPQ2d 1086 (TTAB 2001) (contractual estoppel considered); Boral Ltd. v. FMC Corp., 59 USPQ2d 1701, 1702 (TTAB 2000) (noting that by rule change effective August 5, 1999, the 1946 Act was amended to allow parties to bring dilution claims under Section 43(c) in opposition and cancellation proceedings); and British-American Tobacco Co. v. Philip Morris Inc., 55 USPQ2d 1585, 1589 (TTAB 2000) (a claim under Article 8 of the Pan American Convention is within the jurisdiction of the Board since it pertains expressly to the registrability of marks and provides for the cancellation of registrations).

United States Distilled Products Co., 13 USPQ2d 1711, 1715 (TTAB 1989), recon. denied, 17 USPQ2d 1240, 1243 (TTAB 1990) (Board cannot consider claims of unfair competition standing alone, but can consider such claims in determining the registrability of a mark, that is, in determining a separate, properly pleaded ground for opposition or cancellation), dismissed, 18 USPQ2d 1391, 1394 (TTAB 1991) (where petitioner did not plead a separate ground on which to base the petition to cancel, petitioner's claims under Articles 10 and 10bis of the Paris Convention could not be considered), rev'd on other grounds, 952 F.2d 1317, 21 USPQ2d 1145 (Fed. Cir. 1991).

An interference is a proceeding in which the Board determines which, if any, of the owners of conflicting applications (or of one or more applications and one or more registrations which are in conflict), is entitled to registration.¹² The proceeding is declared by the Office only upon petition to the Director showing extraordinary circumstances therefor, that is, that the party who filed the petition would be unduly prejudiced without an interference.¹³ Ordinarily, the availability of an opposition or cancellation proceeding is deemed to prevent any undue prejudice from the unavailability of an interference proceeding.¹⁴ An interference that has been declared by the Director is not instituted by the Board until after all of the marks that are to be involved in the proceeding have been published in the Official Gazette for opposition.¹⁵

A concurrent use proceeding is a proceeding in which the Board determines whether one or more applicants is entitled to a concurrent registration, that is, a registration with conditions and limitations, fixed by the Board, as to the mode or place of use of the applicant's mark or the goods and/or services on or in connection with which the mark is used (usually, a concurrent registration is restricted as to the territory which it covers).¹⁶ The proceeding may be generated only through the filing of an application for registration as a lawful concurrent user, and is instituted by the Board only after each of the one or more involved applications has been published for opposition in the Official Gazette, and all oppositions thereto (if any) have been withdrawn or dismissed.¹⁷

The Board also has jurisdiction over ex parte appeals, that is, appeals from an examining attorney's final refusal to register a mark in an application.¹⁸

102.03 General Description of Board Proceedings

An inter partes proceeding before the Board is similar to a civil action in a Federal district court. There are pleadings (at least in an opposition or cancellation proceeding); a wide range of possible motions; discovery; and briefs, followed by a decision on the case.¹⁹ However, because the Board is an administrative tribunal, its rules and procedures necessarily differ in some respects from those prevailing in the Federal district courts.²⁰ The principal difference is that proceedings before the Board are conducted in writing, and the Board's actions in a particular case are based upon the written record therein. For example, the Board does not preside at the taking of testimony. Rather, all testimony is taken out of the presence of the Board during the assigned testimony periods, and the written transcripts thereof, together with any exhibits thereto, are then filed with the Board. Indeed, a party to a proceeding before the Board need never come to the offices of the Board at all, unless the Board requests that the parties meet with the Board at its offices for a pre-trial conference pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.120(i)(2), or unless the party wishes to argue its case at oral hearing (an oral hearing is held only if requested by a party to the proceeding).

An ex parte appeal, being appellate in nature, is a much simpler and shorter procedure, involving only the filing of briefs by the applicant and examining attorney, and, if requested by the applicant, an oral hearing.

The Board includes both interlocutory attorneys and administrative trademark judges (known also as Board members). Interlocutory motions, requests, and other matters not actually or potentially dispositive of a proceeding may be acted upon by a single Board judge or by a single interlocutory attorney to whom such authority has been delegated.²¹ Decisions on the case, and on complex or contested motions that are potentially dispositive of the case, are rendered by a panel of at least three Board judges.²² Stipulations or consented (or uncontested) motions to dispose of the proceeding in a certain manner may be decided per curiam by the Board.

103 Location and Address of Board

The Board is located at 2900 Crystal Drive, Ninth Floor, Arlington, Virginia 22202-3514. The mailing address of the Board is Commissioner for Trademarks, 2900 Crystal Drive, Arlington, Virginia 22202-3514.²³

104 Business to be Conducted in Writing

37 CFR § 2.191 All business with the Office should be transacted in writing. The personal appearance of applicants or their representatives at the Office is unnecessary. The action of the Office will be based exclusively on the written record. No attention will be paid to any alleged oral promise, stipulation, or understanding in relation to which there is disagreement or doubt.

All business with the Board should be transacted in writing. The personal attendance of parties or their attorneys or other authorized representatives at the offices of the Board is unnecessary, except in the case of a pre-trial conference as provided in 37 CFR § 2.120(i)(2), or upon oral argument at final hearing, if a party so desires, as provided in 37 CFR § 2.129. Decisions of the Board will be based exclusively on the written record before it.²⁴

105 Contact With Board Personnel

37 CFR § 10.93(b) In an adversary proceeding, including any inter partes proceeding before the Office, a practitioner shall not communicate, or cause another to communicate, as to the merits of the cause with a judge, official, or Office employee before whom the proceeding is pending, except:

- (1) In the course of official proceedings in the cause.*
- (2) In writing if the practitioner promptly delivers a copy of the writing to opposing counsel or to the adverse party if the adverse party is not represented by a practitioner.*
- (3) Orally upon adequate notice to opposing counsel or to the adverse party if the adverse party is not represented by a practitioner.*
- (4) As otherwise authorized by law.*

Parties or their attorneys or other authorized representatives may telephone the Board, or come to the offices of the Board, to inquire about the status of a case or to ask for procedural information, but not to discuss the merits of a case or of any particular issue. The telephone number of the Board is (703) 308-9300. If an inquiry involves a particular case, the person making the inquiry should be prepared to give the number of the proceeding or application in question.

106 Identification, Signature, and Form of Submissions

106.01 Identification of Submissions

A document filed in a proceeding before the Board should bear at its top the heading "IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD," followed by the name and number of the inter partes proceeding (or, in the case of an ex parte appeal, the application) to which it relates.²⁵ The document should also include a title describing its nature, e.g., "Notice of Opposition," "Answer," "Motion to Compel," "Brief in Opposition to Respondent's Motion for Summary Judgment," "Notice of Reliance."

Documents filed in an application which is the subject of an inter partes proceeding before the Board should be filed with the Board, and should bear at the top of its first page both the application serial number, and the inter partes proceeding number and title. Similarly, requests under Section 7 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1057, to amend, correct, or surrender a registration which is the subject of a Board inter partes proceeding, and any new power of attorney, designation of domestic representative, or change of address submitted in connection with such a registration, should be filed with the Board, and should bear at the top of its first page both the registration number, and the inter partes proceeding number and title.²⁶

37 CFR § 2.119(e) Every paper filed in an inter partes proceeding, and every request for an extension of time to file an opposition, must be signed by the party filing it, or by the party's attorney or other authorized representative, but an unsigned paper will not be refused consideration if a signed copy is submitted to the Patent and Trademark Office within the time limit set in the notification of this defect by the Office.

37 CFR § 10.14(e) No individual other than those specified in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section will be permitted to practice before the Office in trademark cases. Any individual may appear in a trademark or other non-patent case in his or her own behalf. Any individual may appear in a trademark case for (1) a firm of which he or she is a member or (2) a corporation or association of which he or she is an officer and which he or she is authorized to represent, if such firm, corporation, or association is a party to a trademark proceeding pending before the Office.

37 CFR § 10.18(a) For all documents filed in the Office in patent, trademark, and other non-patent matters, except for correspondence that is required to be signed by the applicant or party, each piece of correspondence filed by a practitioner in the Patent and Trademark Office must bear a signature, personally signed by such practitioner, in compliance with § 1.4(d)(1) of this chapter.

(b) By presenting to the Office (whether by signing, filing, submitting, or later advocating) any paper, the party presenting such paper, whether a practitioner or non-practitioner, is certifying that-

(1) All statements made therein of the party's own knowledge are true, all statements made therein on information and belief are believed to be true, and all statements made therein are made with the knowledge that whoever, in any matter within the jurisdiction of the Patent and Trademark Office, knowingly and willfully falsifies, conceals, or covers up by any trick, scheme, or device a material fact, or makes any false, fictitious or fraudulent statements or representations, or makes or uses any false writing or document knowing the same to contain any false, fictitious or fraudulent statement or entry, shall be subject to the penalties set forth under 18 U.S.C. 1001, and that violations of this paragraph may jeopardize the validity of the application or document, or the validity or enforceability of any patent, trademark registration, or certificate resulting therefrom; and

(2) To the best of the party's knowledge, information and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances, that-

(i) The paper is not being presented for any improper purpose, such as to harass someone or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of prosecution before the Office;

(ii) The claims and other legal contentions therein are warranted by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law or the establishment of new law;

(iii) The allegations and other factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery; and

(iv) The denials of factual contentions are warranted on the evidence, or if specifically so identified, are reasonably based on a lack of information or belief.

(c) Violations of paragraph (b)(1) of this section by a practitioner or non-practitioner may jeopardize the validity of the application or document, or the validity or enforceability of any patent, trademark registration, or certificate resulting therefrom. Violations of any of paragraphs (b)(2)(i) through (iv) of this section are, after notice and reasonable opportunity to respond, subject to such sanctions as deemed appropriate by the Director, or the Director's designee, which may include, but are not limited to, any combination of-

- (1) Holding certain facts to have been established;*
- (2) Returning papers;*
- (3) Precluding a party from filing a paper, or presenting or contesting an issue;*
- (4) Imposing a monetary sanction;*
- (5) Requiring a terminal disclaimer for the period of the delay; or*
- (6) Terminating the proceedings in the Patent and Trademark Office.*

(d) Any practitioner violating the provisions of this section may also be subject to disciplinary action. See § 10.23(c)(15).

37 CFR § 2.193(c)

- (1) Each piece of correspondence that requires a person's signature, must:*
 - (i) Be an original, that is, have an original signature personally signed in permanent ink by that person; or*
 - (ii) Be a copy, such as a photocopy or facsimile transmission (§ 2.195(c)), of an original. In the event that a copy of the original is filed, the original should be retained as evidence of authenticity. If a question of authenticity arises, the Office may require submission of the original; or*
 - (iii) Where an electronically transmitted trademark filing is permitted or required, the person who signs the filing must either:*
 - (A) Place a symbol comprised of numbers and/or letters between two forward slash marks in the signature block on the electronic submission;*
 - or*
 - (B) Sign the verified statement using some other form of electronic signature specified by the Director.*
- (2) The presentation to the Office (whether by signing, filing, submitting, or later advocating) of any document by a party, whether a practitioner or non-practitioner, constitutes a certification under § 10.18(b) of this chapter. Violations of § 10.18(b)(2) of this chapter by a party, whether a practitioner or non-practitioner, may result in the imposition of sanctions under § 10.18(c) of this chapter. Any practitioner violating § 10.18(b) may also be subject to disciplinary action. See §§ 10.18(d) and 10.23(c)(15).*

37 CFR § 2.193(d) When a document that is required by statute to be certified must be filed, a copy, including a photocopy or facsimile transmission, of the certification is not acceptable.

Every document filed in an inter partes or ex parte proceeding before the Board, and every request for an extension of time to file an opposition, must be signed by the party filing it, or by the party's attorney or other authorized representative, as appropriate.²⁷

Documents filed through the electronic filing systems available at the Board do not require a conventional signature. Electronic signatures pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.193(c)(1)(iii) are required for electronic filings.²⁸ The party or its representative enters a “symbol” that has been adopted as a signature. The Board will accept any combination of letters, numbers, space and/or punctuation marks as a valid signature if it is placed between two forward slash (“/”) symbols.²⁹

A party may act in its own behalf in a proceeding before the Board, or an attorney or other authorized representative may represent the party.³⁰ When an individual who is a party to a Board proceeding elects to act in his or her own behalf, the individual must sign any documents that he or she files with the Board. If a party which is a partnership elects to act in its own behalf, a partner should sign documents filed by the partnership. If a party which is a corporation or association elects to act in its own behalf, documents filed by the corporation or an officer thereof who is authorized to sign for the corporation or association should sign for that corporation or association.³¹

If a document is filed on behalf of a party by the party's attorney or other authorized representative, it must bear the signature of, and be signed by, that attorney or other representative, unless it is a document required to be signed by the party. An attorney or other authorized representative who signs a document, and then files it with the Board on behalf of a party, should remember that his or her signature to the document constitutes a certification of the elements specified in 37 CFR § 10.18(b), and that a knowing violation of the provisions of that rule by an attorney or other authorized representative will leave him or her open to disciplinary action.³²

It is not appropriate for one person to sign a document for another person, as, for example, "John Smith, for John Doe" or "John Doe, by John Smith."³³

GENERAL INFORMATION

A document filed in a proceeding before the Board should include the name, in typed or printed form, of the person who signed; a description of the capacity in which he or she signed (e.g., as the individual who is a party, if the filing party is an individual; as a corporate officer, if the filing party is a corporation; as the filing party's attorney); and his or her business address and telephone number. The inclusion of the signing person's address and phone number on the paper itself is vital because mail sent to the Office is opened in the Mail Room, and ordinarily the envelopes are discarded there before the mail is sent on to its ultimate destination within the Office. Thus, the Board rarely sees the return addresses on the mailing envelopes of papers filed in Board proceedings.

In accordance with 37 CFR § 2.193(c) either the original of the signed document, or a legible copy thereof, may be filed with the Board. If a paper copy is filed, the original should be retained as evidence of authenticity. If a question as to the authenticity of a filed copy arises, the Office may require submission of the original.³⁴

Notwithstanding the requirement that a document filed before the Board be signed, an unsigned document will not be refused consideration if a signed copy is submitted to the Board within the time limit set in the notification of this defect by the Board.³⁵

37 CFR § 2.126 Form of submissions to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

(a) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board on paper where Board practice or the rules in this part permit. A paper submission, including exhibits and depositions, must meet the following requirements:

- (1) A paper submission must be printed in at least 11-point type and double-spaced, with the text on one side only of each sheet;*
- (2) A paper submission must be 8 to 8.5 inches (20.3 to 21.5 cm) wide and 11 to 11.69 inches (27.9 to 29.7 cm.) long, and contain no tabs or other such devices extending beyond the edges of the paper;*
- (3) If a paper submission contains dividers, the dividers must not have any extruding tabs or other devices, and must be on the same size and weight paper as the submission;*
- (4) A paper submission must not be stapled or bound;*

and In re Cowan, 18 USPQ2d 1407, 1409 (Comm'r 1990) (Section 8 declaration in name of sole proprietor, but signed for him by his attorney, not acceptable).

Chapter 100 GENERAL INFORMATION

- (5) All pages of a paper submission must be numbered and exhibits shall be identified in the manner prescribed in § 2.123(g)(2);
- (6) Exhibits pertaining to a paper submission must be filed on paper or CD-ROM concurrently with the paper submission, and comply with the requirements for a paper or CD-ROM submission.

(b) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board on CD-ROM where the rules in this part or Board practice permit. A CD-ROM submission must identify the parties and case number and contain a list that clearly identifies the documents and exhibits contained thereon. This information must appear in the data contained in the CD-ROM itself, on a label affixed to the CD-ROM, and on the packaging for the CD-ROM. Text in a CD-ROM submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced. A brief filed on CD-ROM must be accompanied by a single paper copy of the brief. A CD-ROM submission must be accompanied by a transmittal letter on paper that identifies the parties, the case number and the contents of the CD-ROM.

(c) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board electronically via the Internet where the rules in this part or Board practice permit, according to the parameters established by the Board and published on the Web site of the Office. Text in an electronic submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced. Exhibits pertaining to an electronic submission must be made electronically as an attachment to the submission.

(d) To be handled as confidential, submissions to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board that are confidential in whole or part pursuant to § 2.125(e) must be submitted under a separate cover. Both the submission and its cover must be marked confidential and must identify the case number and the parties. A copy of the submission with the confidential portions redacted must be submitted.

Submissions may be made to the Board on paper, CD-ROM, or electronically over the Internet, as permitted by the rules or Board practice. For example, the rules provide that an opposition against a Section 1 or 44 application, or a request for extension of time to oppose a Section 1 or 44 application, may either be filed on paper or through ESTTA, but that an opposition against a 66(a) application, or a request for extension of time to oppose a 66(a) application, may only be filed through ESTTA.³⁶ The rules do not permit the filing of any extension of time to oppose or any notice of opposition on CD-ROM. Similarly, Board practice does not permit the filing of any petition for cancellation on CD-ROM. A petition for cancellation must be filed either on paper or through ESTTA.

³⁶ See 37 CFR § 2.101(b) regarding the filing of oppositions, and § 2.102(a) regarding the filing of extensions of time to oppose.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Trademark Rule 2.126 also specifies the requirements for each form of submission to the Board, including a confidential submission. The requirements for paper submissions are set out in part (a) of 37 CFR § 2.126. A paper submission must be 8 to 8.5 inches wide and 11 to 11.69 inches long, and printed in at least 11-point type and double-spaced, with the text on one side only of each sheet. If a paper submission contains dividers, the dividers may not contain tabs or any devices that extend beyond the edges of the paper, and must be on the same size and weight paper as the submission.

In addition, a paper submission must not be stapled or bound. This is important because all paper submissions are scanned electronically into the Board's electronic information system and removing staples or binding prior to scanning is difficult and time-consuming, especially where papers have been bound by machine. Moreover, disassembling stapled or bound papers can damage pages, resulting in misdeeds to the scanning equipment and increasing the likelihood that pages will become disordered during scanning.³⁷

A paper filed with the Board may be either the original or a legible copy thereof, on good quality paper.³⁸ Extra copies of a paper should not be submitted.³⁹

CD-ROM submissions are governed by part (b) of 37 CFR § 2.126, and the requirements for electronic submissions over the Internet can be found in part (c) of 37 CFR § 2.126. Submissions over the Internet are made through the Board's electronic filing system, ESTTA (Electronic System for Trademark Trials and Appeals) which is available on the USPTO web site.⁴⁰ Using ESTTA, a person can complete and submit forms, with attachments and/or exhibits, to the Board over the Internet, making an official filing online. ESTTA gives step-by-step instructions for properly completing a form.⁴¹ Available forms and instructions can be found at: <http://estta.uspto.gov>. The Board's electronic filing system is also available to the public in the Trademark Library Search Room.

Exhibits to a submission are also subject to the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.126. Exhibits pertaining to a paper submission must be filed on paper or CD-ROM and must comply with the requirements for a paper or CD-ROM submission.⁴² Exhibits pertaining to an electronic submission must be filed electronically as an attachment to the submission and conform to the requirements for electronic submissions.⁴³

As with any paper submission, paper exhibits may not contain tabs, dividers or any such devices that extend beyond the edges of the paper, and moreover, may not be stapled or bound. However, it is acceptable to use binder clips or rubber bands, or similar devices that would allow for easy separation of the papers for scanning.

Exhibits that are large, bulky, valuable, or breakable may be photographed or otherwise reproduced so that an appropriate paper or digitized image of the exhibits can be filed with the Board in lieu of the originals. Exhibits consisting of videotapes or audiotapes of commercials, demonstrations, etc., may be transferred to an appropriate electronic format for submission to the Board.

The requirements for confidential submissions are specified in part (d) of 37 CFR § 2.126. To be handled as confidential, and kept out of the public record, submissions to the Board that are confidential must be filed under a separate cover. Both the submission and its cover must be marked confidential and must identify the case number and the parties. A copy of the submission with the confidential portions redacted must also be submitted.⁴⁴ Confidential materials filed in the absence of a protective order are not regarded as confidential and will not be kept confidential by the Board.⁴⁵

The Board, in its discretion, may refuse to enter and consider submissions filed in violation of 37 CFR 2.126.

Format of submissions. Apart from the identification, signature, and form requirements referred to above, there is no particular format that submissions to the Board must follow. Nor does the Office have printed forms for any documents filed in Board proceedings.⁴⁶ As an aid to litigants, however, suggested formats for certain types of documents filed in Board proceedings can be found in the Appendix of Forms to this manual as well as in the section where the particular type of document is discussed. These include a notice of appeal to the Board, designation of domestic

37 CFR § 2.195 Receipt of trademark correspondence.

(a) Date of receipt and Express Mail date of deposit.

Trademark correspondence received in the Office is given a filing date as of the date of receipt except as follows:

- (1) The Office is not open for the filing of correspondence on any day that is a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday within the District of Columbia. Except for correspondence transmitted electronically under paragraph (a)(2) of this section or transmitted by facsimile under paragraph (a)(3) of this section, no correspondence is received in the Office on Saturdays, Sundays, or Federal holidays within the District of Columbia.*
- (2) Trademark-related correspondence transmitted electronically will be given a filing date as of the date on which the Office receives the transmission.*
- (3) Correspondence transmitted by facsimile will be given a filing date as of the date on which the complete transmission is received in the Office unless that date is a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday within the District of Columbia, in which case the filing date will be the next succeeding day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday within the District of Columbia.*
- (4) Correspondence filed in accordance with § 2.198 will be given a filing date as of the date of deposit as "Express Mail" with the United States Postal Service.*

(b) Correspondence delivered by hand.

In addition to being mailed, correspondence may be delivered by hand during hours the Office is open to receive correspondence.

(c) Facsimile transmission.

Except in the cases enumerated in paragraph (d) of this section, correspondence, including authorizations to charge a deposit account, may be transmitted by facsimile. The receipt date accorded to the correspondence will be the date on which the complete transmission is received in the Office, unless that date is a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday within the District of Columbia. See § 2.196. To facilitate proper processing, each transmission session should be limited to correspondence to be filed in a single application, registration or proceeding before the Office. The application serial number, registration number, or proceeding number should be entered as a part of the sender's identification on a facsimile cover sheet.

(d) Facsimile transmissions are not permitted and if submitted, will not be accorded a date of receipt, in the following situations:

- (1) Applications for registration of marks;*

Chapter 100 GENERAL INFORMATION

- (2) Drawings submitted under § 2.51, § 2.52, § 2.72 or § 2.173;
- (3) Correspondence to be filed with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, except notices of ex parte appeal; and
- (4) Requests for cancellation or amendment of a registration under Section 7(e) of the Trademark Act; and certificates of registration surrendered for cancellation or amendment under Section 7(e) of the Trademark Act.

(e) Interruptions in U.S. Postal Service.

If interruptions or emergencies in the United States Postal Service which have been so designated by the Director occur, the Office will consider as filed on a particular date in the Office any correspondence which is:

- (1) Promptly filed after the ending of the designated interruption or emergency; and*
- (2) Accompanied by a statement indicating that such correspondence would have been filed on that particular date if it were not for the designated interruption or emergency in the United States Postal Service.*

An increasing number of documents can be filed with the Office through its web site at www.uspto.gov. For those documents that are being delivered to the Office, the specific requirements are set out below.

Documents relating to proceedings before the Board, and not accompanied by a fee, may be filed during regular office hours by hand delivery or by courier service to the Board at 2900 Crystal Drive, South Tower Building, Ninth Floor, Arlington, Virginia 22202-3514; or at the Intake Processing Unit at 2900 Crystal Drive, South Tower Building, Arlington, Virginia 22202-3514; or at the Customers' Window at 2011 S. Clark Place, Crystal Plaza Building 2, First Floor, Arlington, Virginia 22202; or (by courier delivery only) to the Patent and Trademark Office Mail Room (Correspondence and Mail Division) at 2011 S. Clark Place, Crystal Plaza Building 2, First Floor, Arlington, Virginia 22202 (delivery of documents intended for the Board to one of the Crystal Plaza Building 2 locations is NOT recommended, because documents delivered to these locations, rather than to one of the South Tower Building locations, may take considerably longer to reach the Board). Such papers may also be filed by depositing them in the mail addressed to the Board's mailing address (Commissioner for Trademarks, 2900 Crystal Drive, Arlington, Virginia 22202-3514).

Documents relating to proceedings before the Board, and accompanied by fees may be filed by mailing them to the Board's mailing address, i.e., Commissioner for Trademarks, 2900 Crystal Drive, Arlington, Virginia 22202-3514. Papers with fees may also be filed during regular business hours by hand delivery to the Finance Window at 2900 Crystal Drive, South Tower Building, Arlington, Virginia 22202-3514 (where the fee will be "received" or "posted" immediately and the paper then forwarded to the Intake Processing Unit on the same floor); or to the Customers' Window on the first floor at 2011 S. Clark Place, Crystal Plaza Building 2, Arlington, Virginia 22202; (delivery of papers intended for the Board to the Crystal Plaza Building is NOT recommended, because papers delivered to this location, rather than to one of the South Tower Building locations, may take considerably longer to reach the Board).

Fee papers filed in person must be filed at one of the locations identified above because the Board does not have the mechanism to process financial transactions.

With the exception of the notice of ex parte appeal to the Board, or in the absence of a specific request by the Board, documents to be filed with the Board may not be filed by facsimile transmission ("fax").⁴⁷ If documents other than the notice of appeal in an ex parte appeal are filed with the Board by fax transmission, they will not receive a filing date.

However, the Board will accept, and give filing dates to, documents that had been faxed to, for example, local counsel, when the fax copies are, in turn, hand delivered to the Board, or are sent to the Board by mail or courier service. In addition, the Board may request that a party send by fax transmission a copy of a document that has already been filed in the Office by one of the acceptable methods described above, such as by mail, but which document has not yet been received by the Board and/or entered in the proceeding file for which it is intended. The Board may make such a request when, for example, (1) a Board attorney needs a copy of the document in order to make an immediate ruling, by telephone conference, on a motion, or (2) the Board needs to see a copy of a document that was assuredly filed in the Office, but which the Board does not have or cannot locate. When the Board requests that a copy of a document be sent to the Board by fax transmission, the name of the Board employee making the request must appear on the cover sheet of the transmission, so that the Board staff member receiving the transmission will know that the transmission is authorized, and can immediately give the paper to the employee who requested it. If the name of the requesting Board employee does not appear on the cover sheet, the staff member receiving the transmission will presume that the transmission is unauthorized, and the paper will be disregarded.

When a fax transmission is authorized, the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.195(c) should be met. In addition, it is recommended that the fax cover sheet specify the number of pages being transmitted, and the name, address, fax number, and telephone number of the transmitting party, as well as the proceeding number to which the document pertains.

A document transmitted by fax must be legible. The document that is used as the original for the fax transmission should be retained by the sender as evidence of the content of the transmission.⁴⁸

⁴⁸ See 37 CFR § 2.193(c).

GENERAL INFORMATION

Correspondence filed by fax transmission should be transmitted to the fax number of the USPTO location for which it is intended. Transmission of correspondence to the fax number of the wrong USPTO location will cause delay in matching the correspondence with the file to which it pertains. The Board itself has several different fax numbers. The Board fax number to be used for a notice of ex parte appeal to the Board is (703) 308-9333. In those cases where the Board requests that a party send a copy of some other paper by fax transmission, the party will be provided with the appropriate fax number.

The Board's fax machines are attended between the business hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, Monday through Friday, excluding holidays. Normally, the machines may be accessed 24 hours a day. However, there may be times when reception is not possible because of equipment failure or maintenance requirements. Accordingly, persons transmitting correspondence to the Board by fax should be cautious about relying on the availability of this service near time deadlines, such as the end of the six-month period for filing a notice of appeal in an ex parte appeal to the Board.⁴⁹

108 Filing Receipts

When a document (with or without a fee) intended for the Board is filed in the Office, it is possible to obtain a receipt evidencing the date of such filing. In the case of a document sent by mail, a receipt may be obtained by submitting with the document a stamped, self-addressed postcard with sufficient information to identify clearly the document, the party in whose behalf the paper is being filed, and the proceeding or application in connection with which the document is being filed. When the Office receives the document and the postcard, it will date-stamp both of them and mail the postcard back.

Correspondence transmitted electronically through ESTTA is stamped with the date and time the Office receives the transmission or, if a fee is required, the date and time the payment process is completed.⁵⁰ Eastern time controls the filing date. Once a request is transmitted electronically, the system immediately provides the sender with an e-mail acknowledgement of receipt.

If a document intended for the Board is delivered by hand or by courier service to the offices of the Board, or to the Intake Processing Unit at 2900 Crystal Drive, South Tower Building, Third Floor, Arlington, Virginia 22202-3514, or to the Finance Window on the same floor of that building, the receipt may take the form of a postcard bearing appropriate identifying information, or a duplicate copy of the document, or a duplicate copy of the transmittal letter with appropriate identifying information. The receipt and the document will be date-stamped and the receipt will be handed back to the person who delivered the paper. If a paper is delivered by hand or by courier service to the Customers' Window at 2011 S. Clark Place, Crystal Plaza Building 2, Room 1B03, Arlington, Virginia 22202, the receipt may be in the form of a postcard, or, alternatively, a handwritten receipt will be furnished. If a document is delivered by courier service to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office Mail Room (Correspondence and Mail Division) at 2011 S. Clark Place, Crystal Plaza Building 2, Room 1A-01, Arlington, Virginia 22202, the postcard receipt must be used.

When a document is submitted to the Board by fax transmission, the Board will not formally acknowledge receipt of the document. However, the Board fax machine usually will confirm to the sending unit that the transmission is complete. Parties are reminded that, with the exception of the notice of ex parte appeal to the Board, or unless otherwise specifically authorized by the Board, documents intended for the Board may not be filed by fax transmission.⁵¹

37 CFR § 2.195 Receipt of trademark correspondence.

(a) Date of receipt and Express Mail date of deposit. Trademark correspondence received in the Office is given a filing date as of the date of receipt except as follows:

(1) The Office is not open for the filing of correspondence on any day that is a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday within the District of Columbia. Except for correspondence transmitted electronically under paragraph (a)(2) of this section or transmitted by facsimile under paragraph (a)(3) of this section, no correspondence is received in the Office on Saturdays, Sundays, or Federal holidays within the District of Columbia.

(2) Trademark-related correspondence transmitted electronically will be given a filing date as of the date on which the Office receives the transmission.

(3) Correspondence transmitted by facsimile will be given a filing date as of the date on which the complete transmission is received in the Office unless that date is a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday within the District of Columbia, in which case the filing date will be the next succeeding day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday within the District of Columbia.

(4) Correspondence filed in accordance with § 2.198 will be given a filing date as of the date of deposit as "Express Mail" with the United States Postal Service.

(b) Correspondence delivered by hand. In addition to being mailed, correspondence may be delivered by hand during hours the Office is open to receive correspondence.

(c) Facsimile transmission. Except in the cases enumerated in paragraph (d) of this section, correspondence, including authorizations to charge a deposit account, may be transmitted by facsimile. The receipt date accorded to the correspondence will be the date on which the complete transmission is received in the Office, unless that date is a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday within the District of Columbia. See §2.196. To facilitate proper processing, each transmission session should be limited to correspondence to be filed in a single application, registration or proceeding before the Office. The application serial number, registration number, proceeding number should be entered as a part of the sender's identification on a facsimile cover sheet.

(d) Facsimile transmissions are not permitted and if submitted, will not be accorded a date of receipt, in the following situations:

- (1) Applications for registration of marks;*
- (2) Drawings submitted under § 2.51, § 2.52, § 2.72 or § 2.173;*
- (3) Correspondence to be filed with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, except notices of ex parte appeal; and*
- (4) Requests for cancellation or amendment of a registration under section 7(e) of the Trademark Act, and certificates of registration surrendered for cancellation or amendment under section 7(e) of the Trademark Act.*

(e) Interruptions in U.S. Postal Service. If interruptions or emergencies in the United States Postal Service which have been so designated by the Director occur, the Office will consider as filed on a particular date in the Office any correspondence which is:

- (1) Promptly filed after the ending of the designated interruption or emergency; and*
- (2) Accompanied by a statement indicating that such correspondence would have been filed on that particular date if it were not for the designated interruption or emergency in the United States Postal Service.*

Correspondence transmitted electronically through ESTTA is stamped with the date and time the Office receives the transmission or, if a fee is required, the date and time the payment process is completed.⁵² Eastern time controls the filing date. Once a request is transmitted electronically, the system immediately provides the sender with an e-mail acknowledgement of receipt.

Mailed or hand-delivered correspondence is stamped with the date of receipt in the Office (i.e., the "filing" date) unless the correspondence is filed by the "Express Mail" procedure provided in 37 CFR § 2.198.⁵³ The "date of receipt" of correspondence mailed to the Office is the date stamped by the Post Office on the mailbags in which the correspondence is delivered to the Office.⁵⁴

When correspondence intended for the Board is filed by the "Express Mail Post Office to Addressee" service of the United States Postal Service the document will be stamped with the "date in" as the date of receipt (unless the "date in" is a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday within the District of Columbia). If the deposit date cannot be determined, the correspondence will be stamped with the date of actual receipt.⁵⁵

If correspondence which is permitted to be filed by fax transmission to the Board is filed by that method with a certificate of transmission in accordance with 37 CFR § 2.197(a), the transmission date specified in the certificate of transmission is used for purposes of determining the timeliness of the correspondence.⁵⁶ The date of receipt of the transmission, as described in 37 CFR § 2.195(a)(3), is used for all other purposes.⁵⁷

When correspondence intended for the Board is filed by first-class mail with a certificate of mailing, in accordance with the procedure described in 37 CFR § 2.197(a), it is stamped with the date of receipt of the correspondence in the Office, i.e., the date on the mail bags in which the correspondence is delivered to the Office. The mailing date specified in the certificate of mailing is used for purposes of determining the timeliness of the correspondence. The date of receipt is used for all other purposes.⁵⁸

110 Certificate of Mailing or Transmission Procedure

37 CFR § 2.197 Certificate of mailing or transmission.

(a) Except in the cases enumerated in paragraph (a)(2) of this section, correspondence required to be filed in the Office within a set period of time will be considered as being timely filed if the procedure described in this section is followed. The actual date of receipt will be used for all other purposes.

(1) Correspondence will be considered as being timely filed if:

(i) The correspondence is mailed or transmitted prior to expiration of the set period of time by being:

⁵⁵ See 37 CFR §§ 2.195 and 2.198. See 37 CFR § 2.198 regarding procedures for petitioning the Director for any filing date discrepancy.

⁵⁷ See 37 CFR § 2.197(a). For further information concerning correspondence that may be filed by fax transmission to the Board, see TBMP § 107.

Chapter 100 GENERAL INFORMATION

(A) Addressed as set out in § 2.190 and deposited with the U.S. Postal Service with sufficient postage as first class mail; or

(B) Transmitted by facsimile to the Office in accordance with § 2.195(c); and

(ii) The correspondence includes a certificate for each piece of correspondence stating the date of deposit or transmission. The person signing the certificate should have reasonable basis to expect that the correspondence would be mailed or transmitted on or before the date indicated.

(2) The procedure described in paragraph (a)(1) of this section does not apply to the filing of a trademark application.

(b) In the event that correspondence is considered timely filed by being mailed or transmitted in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section, but not received in the Office, and an application is abandoned, a registration is cancelled or expired, or a proceeding is dismissed, terminated, or decided with prejudice, the correspondence will be considered timely if the party who forwarded such correspondence:

(1) Informs the Office of the previous mailing or transmission of the correspondence within two months after becoming aware that the Office has no evidence of receipt of the correspondence;

(2) Supplies an additional copy of the previously mailed or transmitted correspondence and certificate; and

(3) Includes a statement which attests on a personal knowledge basis or to the satisfaction of the Director to the previous timely mailing or transmission. If the correspondence was sent by facsimile transmission, a copy of the sending unit's report confirming transmission may be used to support this statement.

(c) The Office may require additional evidence to determine whether the correspondence was timely filed.

Except in certain instances, specified in 37 CFR § 2.197(a), as amplified by 37 CFR § 2.195(c), correspondence required to be filed within a set period of time will be considered as being timely filed, even though the correspondence is not received by the Office until after the expiration of the set period, if, prior to the expiration of the set period, (1) the correspondence is mailed to the Office by first-class mail, with the proper address, or (for correspondence which is permitted to be filed by fax) is transmitted to the Office by fax, in accordance with 37 CFR § 2.195(c), and (2) includes a certificate of mailing or transmission which meets the requirements specified in 37 CFR § 2.197(a).⁵⁹

⁵⁹ See 37 CFR § 2.197(a) and In re LS Bedding, 16 USPQ2d 1451, 1452-53 (Comm'r 1990) (certificate of mailing procedure is used to determine timeliness, while the actual receipt date is used for all other purposes, such as an application filing date). See also Hornblower & Weeks Inc. v. Hornblower & Weeks Inc., 60 USPQ2d 1733, 1734 n.2 (TTAB 2001) (no certificate of mailing).

GENERAL INFORMATION

In effect, the certificate of mailing or transmission procedure permits certain types of correspondence, as specified in 37 CFR §§ 2.197(a) and 2.195(c), to be sent to the Office by first-class mail, or by fax transmission, even on the due date for the correspondence and still be considered timely, notwithstanding the fact that the mailed correspondence will not be received in the Office until after the due date, or that the fax transmission may not, because of equipment failure or maintenance requirements, be completed until the next day.⁶⁰

However, the Office, in its discretion, may require additional evidence to determine if correspondence which bears a certificate of mailing or a certificate of transmission was timely filed, i.e., was mailed or transmitted on the date stated in the certificate.⁶¹

The certificate of mailing procedure applies to the filing of all types of correspondence in Board proceedings.

The certificate of transmission procedure is available in Board proceedings only for the filing of a notice of ex parte appeal to the Board.⁶²

110.02 Requirements for Certificate

37 CFR § 2.190 Addresses for trademark correspondence with the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

(a) Trademark correspondence -- in general

All trademark-related documents filed on paper, except documents sent to the Assignment Services Division for recordation and requests for copies of trademark documents, should be addressed to:

*Commissioner for Trademarks
Arlington, Virginia 22202-3514*

(b) Electronic trademark documents. An applicant may transmit a trademark document through TEAS, at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

⁶⁰ See Luemme Inc. v. D.B. Plus Inc., 53 USPQ2d 1758, 1759 n.1 (TTAB 1999) (motion to extend filed by a certificate of mailing dated next business day was timely).

⁶¹ See 37 CFR § 2.197(c); S. Industries Inc. v. Lamb-Weston Inc., 45 USPQ2d 1293 (TTAB 1997) (where prima facie proof of certificate of mailing is rebutted by other evidence, person signing certificate must submit an affidavit specifying the date of actual deposit); and In re Klein, 6 USPQ2d 1547, 1551-52 (Comm'r 1987), aff'd sub nom. Klein v. Peterson, 696 F. Supp. 695, 8 USPQ2d 1434 (D.D.C. 1988), aff'd 866 F.2d 412, 9 USPQ2d 1558 (Fed. Cir. 1989).

Chapter 100 GENERAL INFORMATION

(c) Trademark Assignments. Requests to record documents in the Assignment Services Division may be filed through the Office's web site, at <http://www.uspto.gov>. Paper documents and cover sheets to be recorded in the Assignment Services Division should be addressed to:

*Mail Stop Assignment Recordation Services
Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450*

See § 3.27 of this chapter.

(d) Requests for copies of trademark documents. Copies of trademark documents can be ordered through the Office's web site at www.uspto.gov. Paper requests for certified or uncertified copies of trademark documents should be addressed to:

*Mail Stop Document Services
Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office
Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450*

The requirements for filing trademark-related documents (except for trademark-related documents sent to the Assignment Services Division for recordation and requests for certified copies of trademark application and registration documents) by the certificate of mailing or transmission procedure are as follows:⁶³

1. Prior to the expiration of the set period, the correspondence must be either (i) deposited with the U.S. Postal Service, with sufficient postage as first-class mail, addressed to the Commissioner for Trademarks, 2900 Crystal Drive, Arlington, Virginia 22202-3514, or (ii) (for correspondence which is permitted to be filed by fax) transmitted to the Office by fax, in the manner described in 37 CFR § 2.195(c); and
2. Each piece of correspondence must include a certificate which states the date of deposit or transmission, and is signed (separate and apart from any signature for the piece of correspondence itself) by a person who has a reasonable basis to expect that the correspondence will be mailed or transmitted on or before the date indicated.

Trademark-related documents sent to the Assignment Services Division for recordation should be addressed to: Mail Stop Assignment Recordation Services, Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, PO Box 1450, Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450. If a certificate of mailing is used on such correspondence, it should specify that address.

Requests for copies (certified or uncertified) of trademark documents pertaining to applications and registrations are handled by the Certification Division, Office of Public Records. The address for all such requests mailed to the Office is: Mail Stop Document Services, Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, PO Box 1450, Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450.⁶⁴

The Assignment Services Division of the Office of Public Records also has an electronic trademark assignment recording form on the Office web site. The system is called ETAS (Electronic Trademark Assignment System) and allows customers to create and submit a Trademark Assignment Recordation Coversheet by completing on-line web forms and attaching the supporting legal documentation. The form and additional information can be accessed by going to www.uspto.gov, going to “Trademarks” and then “File Assignment Documents On-line.”

The certificate of mailing procedure may not be used for mail sent to the United States Patent and Trademark Office from a foreign country, because U.S. Postal Service first-class mail services are not available in foreign countries.

A certificate of mailing or a certificate of transmission should be clearly labeled as such and should include a reference to the proceeding number to which it pertains, the date of transmission, and the signature of the person attesting that the document is being transmitted on a certain date. When possible, the certificate should appear on the paper being transmitted, rather than on a separate sheet of paper.

110.03 Suggested Format

Shown below is a suggested format for a certificate of mailing, under 37 CFR § 2.197, for trademark-related mail (except for trademark-related documents sent to the Assignment Services Division for recordation and requests for certified copies of trademark application and registration documents)

110.04 Location of Certificate

If one of the simple certificate of mailing or certificate of transmission formats shown in TBMP § 110.03 is used, it may be applied by rubber stamp to the first page of the correspondence, if feasible. Otherwise, it should be stamped or typed in its entirety on the last page of the correspondence to which it pertains. If the certificate is typed, and there is not enough room on the last page to type the certificate in its entirety, it should at least be started on the last page, so that only part of it continues over to another page. The simple certificate of mailing or certificate of transmission format should never be used by itself on a separate page at the end of the correspondence. If it is, and the page becomes detached from the rest of the submission, there will be no way of determining the identity of the correspondence to which it relates, and the benefit of the certificate will be lost.

Chapter 100 GENERAL INFORMATION

In some cases, there may not be room for a certificate of mailing or a certificate of transmission on a piece of correspondence. In such a case, the certificate may be typed on a separate sheet of paper securely attached to the correspondence.

However, the simple certificate formats shown in TBMP § 110.03 are not appropriate for use on a separate sheet of paper. Rather, a certificate placed on a separate sheet of paper must include additional information, namely, a description of the nature of the correspondence to which it pertains, as well as the identity of the application, registration, or Office proceeding in connection with which the correspondence is being filed. If there is any doubt concerning the identity of the correspondence to which a certificate of mailing or certificate of transmission on a separate sheet pertains, the certificate will not be accepted.

110.05 Loss of Certificate of Mailing

If a certificate of mailing is typed on a separate sheet of paper attached to a piece of correspondence, and the certificate becomes detached, after the correspondence is filed in the Office, and does not contain identifying information sufficient to enable the Office to associate the certificate with the appropriate piece of correspondence, the Office will accept, as evidence that the certificate was filed with the specified correspondence, a postcard receipt (see TBMP § 108) which identifies the separate certificate of mailing sheet and the correspondence to which it was attached; accompanied by a copy of the certificate of mailing sheet as originally mailed.

110.06 Nonreceipt of Correspondence Bearing Certificate

In the event that correspondence intended for the USPTO is timely filed with an appropriate certificate of mailing or certificate of transmission, pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.197, but is not received in the Office, and there is a resulting Office action, in a proceeding or an application, which is adverse to the submitting party, the correspondence will be considered timely if the party which submitted it (1) informs the Office of the previous mailing or facsimile transmission of the correspondence promptly after becoming aware that the Office has no evidence of receipt of the correspondence, (2) supplies an additional copy of the previously mailed or transmitted correspondence and certificate, and (3) includes a statement attesting, on a personal knowledge basis or to the satisfaction of the Director, to the previous timely mailing or transmission. The statement must be verified if it is made by a person other than a practitioner, as defined in 37 CFR § 10.1(r). If the correspondence was appropriate for filing by fax transmission, a copy of the sending fax machine's report confirming transmission may be used to support the statement.⁶⁵ If the document is not one authorized to be filed by facsimile transmission, the document will not be accepted.

Chapter 100 GENERAL INFORMATION

For lost or misplaced correspondence intended for the Board, the evidence required by 37 CFR § 2.197(b) should be submitted to the Board for consideration. If the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.197(b) cannot be met, the only alternative is a petition to the Director.

110.07 Excluded Filings

The certificate of mailing procedure is not applicable to the filing of a trademark application. The certificate of mailing procedure is applicable to all types of filings in Board proceedings, including a notice of opposition; a petition to cancel; a request for an extension of time to oppose; a notice of appeal to the Board from a final refusal of registration; a notice of appeal to the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit from a decision of the Board; and a notice of election (in an inter partes proceeding) to proceed by civil action under Section 21(a)(1) of the Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. § 1071(a)(1), in response to another party's appeal to the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

At present, the certificate of transmission procedure is not applicable to any correspondence intended for the Board, except for the notice of appeal in an ex parte appeal to the Board.⁶⁶

110.08 A Certificate of Mailing or Transmission is Not ...

As is evident from the requirements for a certificate of mailing, specified in 37 CFR § 2.197(a), the certificate of mailing procedure is not the same as mailing by certified mail. Correspondence sent to the Board by certified mail, and not in compliance with the 37 CFR § 2.197(a) requirements for a certificate of mailing, will be stamped with the date of receipt of the correspondence in the Office, and that date will be used for all purposes, including the timeliness of the filing of the correspondence.⁶⁷

Further, a certificate of mailing or certificate of transmission is not the equivalent of a certificate of service. A certificate of mailing or certificate of transmission indicates when correspondence was sent to the Office pursuant to the provisions of 37 CFR § 2.197(a). The mailing date recited in a certificate of mailing, or the transmission date recited in a certificate of transmission, is used for purposes of determining the timeliness of the filing of the correspondence bearing the certificate. A certificate of service, on the other hand, indicates the date when a copy of the correspondence was served (by hand delivery, first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier) upon another party. A certificate of service cannot be used to prove the timeliness of the filing of the correspondence.⁶⁸

⁶⁶ See 37 CFR § 2.195(d). See also TBMP § 107 (How and Where to File Papers and Fees).

⁶⁸ See TBMP § 113 for information concerning a certificate of service.

Chapter 100
GENERAL INFORMATION

111 "Express Mail" Procedure

37 CFR § 2.198 Filing of correspondence by "Express Mail."

(a)(1) Except for documents listed in paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (ii) of this section, any correspondence received by the Office that was delivered by the "Express Mail Post Office to Addressee" service of the United States Postal Service (USPS) will be considered filed with the Office on the date of deposit with the USPS. The Express Mail procedure does not apply to:

- (i) Applications for registration of marks;*
- (ii) Amendments to allege use under section 1(c) of the Act;*
- (iii) Statements of use under section 1(d) of the Act;*
- (iv) Requests for extension of time to file a statement of use under section 1(d) of the Act;*
- (v) Affidavits of continued use under section 8 of the Act;*
- (vi) Renewal requests under section 9 of the Act; and*
- (vii) Requests to change or correct addresses.*

(2) The date of deposit with the USPS is shown by the "date-in" on the "Express Mail" label or other official USPS notation. If the USPS deposit date cannot be determined, the correspondence will be accorded the date of receipt in the Office as the filing date.

(b) Correspondence should be deposited directly with an employee of the USPS to ensure that the person depositing the correspondence receives a legible copy of the "Express Mail" mailing label with the "date-in" clearly marked. Persons dealing indirectly with the employees of the USPS (such as by deposit in an "Express Mail" drop box) do so at the risk of not receiving a copy of the "Express Mail" mailing label with the desired "date-in" clearly marked. The paper(s) or fee(s) that constitute the correspondence should also include the "Express Mail" mailing label number thereon. See paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) of this section.

(c) Any person filing correspondence under this section that was received by the Office and delivered by the "Express Mail Post Office to Addressee" service of the USPS, who can show that there is a discrepancy between the filing date accorded by the Office to the correspondence and the date of deposit as shown by the "date-in" on the "Express Mail" mailing label or other official USPS notation, may petition the Director to accord the correspondence a filing date as of the "date-in" on the "Express Mail" mailing label or other official USPS notation, provided that:

- (1) The petition is filed within two months after the person becomes aware that the Office has accorded, or will accord, a filing date other than the USPS deposit date;*
- (2) The number of the "Express Mail" mailing label was placed on the paper(s) or fee(s) that constitute the correspondence prior to the original mailing; and*

(3) The petition includes a true copy of the "Express Mail" mailing label showing the "date-in," and of any other official notation by the USPS relied upon to show the date of deposit.

(d) Any person filing correspondence under this section that was received by the Office and delivered by the "Express Mail Post Office to Addressee" service of the USPS, who can show that the "date-in" on the "Express Mail" mailing label or other official notation entered by the USPS was incorrectly entered or omitted by the USPS, may petition the Director to accord the correspondence a filing date as of the date the correspondence is shown to have been deposited with the USPS, provided that:

- (1) The petition is filed within two months after the person becomes aware that the Office has accorded, or will accord, a filing date based upon an incorrect entry by the USPS;*
- (2) The number of the "Express Mail" mailing label was placed on the paper(s) or fee(s) that constitute the correspondence prior to the original mailing; and*
- (3) The petition includes a showing that establishes, to the satisfaction of the Director, that the correspondence was deposited in the "Express Mail Post Office to Addressee" service prior to the last scheduled pickup on the requested filing date. Any showing pursuant to this paragraph must be corroborated by evidence from the USPS or evidence that came into being within one business day of the deposit after the correspondence in the "Express Mail Post Office to Addressee" service of the USPS.*

(e) If correspondence is properly addressed to the Office pursuant to § 2.1990 and deposited with sufficient postage utilizing the "Express Mail Post Office to Addressee" service of the USPS, but not received by the Office, the party who mailed the correspondence may petition the Director to consider such correspondence filed in the Office on the USPS deposit date, provided that:

- (1) The petition is filed within two months after the person becomes aware that the Office has no evidence of receipt of the correspondence;*
- (2) The number of the "Express Mail" mailing label was placed on the paper(s) or fee(s) prior to the original mailing;*
- (3) The petition includes a copy of the originally deposited paper(s) or fee(s) showing the number of the "Express Mail" mailing label thereon, a copy of any returned postcard receipt, a copy of the "Express Mail" mailing label showing the "date-in," a copy of any other official notation by the USPS relied upon to show the date of deposit, and, if the requested filing date is a date other than the "date-in" on the "Express Mail" mailing label or other official notation entered by the USPS, a showing pursuant to paragraph (d)(3) of this section that the correspondence was deposited in the "Express Mail Post Office to addressee" service prior to the last scheduled pickup on the requested filing date; and*
- (4) The petition includes a statement that establishes, to the satisfaction of the Director, the original deposit of the correspondence and that the copies of the correspondence, the copy of the "Express Mail" mailing label, the copy of any returned postcard receipt, and* any official notation entered by the USPS are true copies of the originally mailed correspondence, original "Express Mail" mailing label, returned postcard receipt, and official notation entered by the USPS.

(f) The Office may require additional evidence to determine whether the correspondence was deposited as "Express Mail" with the USPS on the date in question.

Certain papers or fees to be filed in the Office, including any paper or fee intended for the Board, can be filed utilizing the "Express Mail Post Office to Addressee" service (not the "Express Mail Post Office to Post Office" service) of the United States Postal Service, and be considered as having been filed in the Office on the date of deposit with the USPS.⁶⁹

In effect, the "Express Mail" procedure permits all types of correspondence intended for the Board to be sent by the "Express Mail Post Office to Addressee" service even on the due date for the correspondence and still be considered timely, notwithstanding the fact that the mailed correspondence may not be received by the Board until after the due date. This filing procedure applies only to the "Express Mail" of the United States Postal Service, not any third-party carrier that offers overnight delivery.⁷⁰

111.02 Requirements for "Express Mail"

Trademark Rule 12.198(b) provides that prior to the original mailing, the "Express Mail" mailing label number should be placed on correspondence filed under Rule 2.198. The number of the mailing label should be placed on each separate submission and each fee transmitted, either directly on the document or on a separate paper firmly and securely attached to the document.

A party that wishes to send mail to the Board by the "Express Mail" service of the U.S. Postal Service should be careful to use the "Express Mail Post Office to Addressee" service, rather than the "Express Mail Post Office to Post Office" service.

111.03 Questionable Date of Mailing

If the "date-in" appearing on the "Express Mail" label is illegible, the filing date will be the actual receipt date by the Office. If there is a discrepancy between the filing date assigned by the Office and the date of deposit, the person who filed the correspondence may petition the Director to accord the “date-in” date by providing the evidence set forth in 37 CFR §§ 2.198(c), (d) and (e).⁷¹

⁶⁹ See 37 CFR § 2.198(a)(1) and TMEP § 305.03 for "Express Mail" procedures for the Trademark Examining Operation.

112 Times for Taking Action

37 CFR § 2.196 Expiration on Saturday, Sunday or Federal holiday

Whenever periods of time are specified in this part in days, calendar days are intended. When the day, or the last day fixed by statute or regulation by or under this part for taking any action or paying any fee in the Office falls on a Saturday, Sunday or Federal holiday within the District of Columbia, the action may be taken, or the fee paid, on the next succeeding day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or a Federal holiday.

For example, if, as set by the Board, an answer to a complaint falls due on a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday within the District of Columbia, an answer filed on the next business day will be considered timely. If, as set by the Board, the close of discovery falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday within the District of Columbia, written requests for discovery (i.e., interrogatories, requests for production of documents, and requests for admission) may be served, and discovery depositions may be taken, on the next business day. Similarly, if, as set by the Board, the close of a testimony period falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday within the District of Columbia, testimony depositions may be taken, and other evidence may be offered, on the next business day.⁷²

If, because of some unscheduled event, such as adverse weather conditions, the Office is officially closed by Executive Order of the President or by the Office of Personnel Management for an entire day, that day will be regarded by the Office as a federal holiday within the District of Columbia. Any action due to be taken, or fee due to be paid, on that day, will be considered timely if the action is taken, or the fee paid, on the next succeeding business day on which the Office is open. If, because of an unscheduled event, the Office is closed for part of a business day, but is open for business for some part of the day between 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., any action due to be taken, or fee due to be paid, on that day remains due on that day.⁷³ Notification of any change in this policy, given the particular circumstances of an unscheduled event, will be posted on the Office web site at www.uspto.gov.⁷⁴

⁷³ See "Filing of Papers During Unscheduled Closings of the Patent and Trademark Office," 1076 TMOG 6 (March 10, 1987).

Chapter 100
GENERAL INFORMATION

113 Service of Papers

37 CFR § 2.119 Service and signing of papers.

(a) Every paper filed in the Patent and Trademark Office in inter partes cases, including notice of appeal, must be served upon the other parties except the notice of interference (§ 2.93), the notification of opposition (§ 2.105), the petition for cancellation (§ 2.113), and the notice of a concurrent use proceeding (§ 2.99), which are mailed by the Patent and Trademark Office. Proof of such service must be made before the paper will be considered by the Office. A statement signed by the attorney or other authorized representative, attached to or appearing on the original paper when filed, clearly stating the date and manner in which service was made will be accepted as prima facie proof of service.

(b) Service of papers must be on the attorney or other authorized representative of the party if there be such or on the party if there is no attorney or other authorized representative, and may be made in any of the following ways:

- (1) By delivering a copy of the paper to the person served;*
- (2) By leaving a copy at the usual place of business of the person served, with someone in the person's employment;*
- (3) When the person served has no usual place of business, by leaving a copy at the person's residence, with a member of the person's family over 14 years of age and of discretion;*
- (4) Transmission by the "Express Mail Post Office to Addressee" service of the United States Postal Service or by first-class mail, which may also be certified or registered;*
- (5) Transmission by overnight courier.*

Whenever it shall be satisfactorily shown to the Director that none of the above modes of obtaining service or serving the paper is practicable, service may be by notice published in the Official Gazette.

(c) When service is made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier, the date of mailing or of delivery to the overnight courier will be considered the date of service. Whenever a party is required to take some action within a prescribed period after the service of a paper upon the party by another party and the paper is served by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier, 5 days shall be added to the prescribed period.

* * * *

113.01 Requirement for Service of Papers

Every document filed in an inter partes proceeding before the Board, including a notice of appeal from a decision of the Board, must be served by the filing party upon every other party to the proceeding. The only exceptions to this rule are the notice of opposition and petition for cancellation, which are sent by the Board to the defendant or defendants.⁷⁵

The requirement for service applies not only to documents filed in an inter partes proceeding before the Board, but also to documents filed in an application or registration which is the subject of such a proceeding, if the documents could have an effect on the inter partes proceeding. For example, a request to amend or correct an application or registration which is the subject of an inter partes proceeding; an abandonment of the application; or a voluntary surrender of the registration, must all be served by the defendant upon every other party to the proceeding.

113.02 Requirement for Proof of Service

When a party to an inter partes proceeding before the Board files a document required by 37 CFR § 2.119(a), to be served upon every other party to the proceeding, proof that the required service has been made ordinarily must be submitted before the filing will be considered by the Board. Occasionally, in order to expedite matters, and when the interests of the other party or parties would be served thereby, the Board itself will serve, along with an action of the Board relating thereto, a copy of a document that does not include the required proof of service. For example, if an applicant in an opposition files an abandonment of its involved application without the written consent thereto of the opposer, and the abandonment does not include proof of service upon the opposer, the Board does not send out an action stating that the abandonment will not be considered until proof of service has been submitted. Rather, the Board itself mails a copy of the abandonment to the opposer, along with a copy of an action by the Board entering judgment in popover's favor pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.135 (which provides, in part, that after the commencement of an opposition, if the applicant files a written abandonment of its application or mark without the written consent of every adverse party to the proceeding, judgment shall be entered against the applicant).⁷⁶

113.03 Elements of Certificate of Service

The Board will accept, as prima facie proof that a party filing a document in a Board inter partes proceeding has served a copy of the document upon every other party to the proceeding, a statement signed by the filing party, or by its attorney or other authorized representative, clearly stating the date and manner in which service was made. The statement should also specify the name of each party or person upon whom service was made, and the address. The statement must appear on, or be securely attached to, the document being filed. If the statement is on a separate sheet attached to the filing, it should clearly identify the submission and proceeding to which it relates.⁷⁷

Chapter 100 GENERAL INFORMATION

Suggested Format

Shown below is a suggested format for a certificate of service:

I hereby certify that a true and complete copy of the foregoing (insert title of submission) has been served on (insert name of opposing counsel or party) by mailing said copy on (insert date of mailing), via First Class Mail, postage prepaid (or insert other appropriate method of delivery) to: (set out name and address of opposing counsel or party).

113.04 Manner of Service

When a party to an inter partes proceeding before the Board files a document required by 37 CFR § 2.119(a), to be served upon every other party to the proceeding, service may be made in any of the ways specified in 37 CFR § 2.119(b). They are: (1) by hand delivering a copy of the submission to the person being served; (2) by leaving a copy of the submission at the usual place of business of the person being served, with someone in the person's employment; (3) when the person being served has no usual place of business, by leaving a copy of the submission at the person's address, with a member of the person's family over 14 years of age and of discretion; (4) transmission by the "Express Mail Post Office to Addressee" service of the United States Postal Service or by first-class mail, which may also be certified or registered; and (5) transmission by overnight courier. In addition, whenever it is satisfactorily shown to the Director that none of the specified modes of service is practicable, service may be made by notice published in the Official Gazette of the USPTO.

When service is made by mail, pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.119(b)(4), the Board considers the mailing date of the paper to be the date when the paper is deposited with the United States Postal Service, i.e., the date when custody of the paper passes to the Postal Service. As provided in 37 CFR § 2.119(a), the Board ordinarily accepts, as prima facie proof of the date of mailing, the statement signed by the filing party, or by its attorney or other authorized representative, as to the date and manner of service. However, where the prima facie proof of the certificate of service is rebutted by other evidence, and the paper would be timely served if mailed on the date specified in the certificate of service, but untimely served if not mailed until the date indicated by the rebutting evidence, the Board may request that the person who signed the certificate of service submit an affidavit specifying the date when the paper was actually deposited with the United States Postal Service.

A party filing a document in a Board inter partes proceeding may always, as a courtesy, send a copy to an adverse party by telephonic facsimile transmission ("fax"). However, transmission of the document by fax does not constitute "service" thereof under the provisions of 37 CFR § 2.119.

Notwithstanding the fax transmission, the paper must still be served upon the adverse party by one of the methods specified in 37 CFR § 2.119(b), and the date of service of the paper upon the adverse party is the date when service is made by one of those specified methods.

113.05 Additional Time for Taking Action After Service by Mail

Whenever a party to an inter partes proceeding before the Board is required to take some action within a prescribed period of time after the service of a paper upon that party by another party to the proceeding, and the paper is served by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier, the time for taking action is enlarged by 5 days.⁷⁸

For example, if one party to a proceeding serves, upon another party to the proceeding, a motion to compel discovery, and service of the motion is made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier, the served party's time for filing a response to the motion will be 20 days from the date of service of the motion, that is, from the date of mailing or of delivery to the overnight courier. Because the service was made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier, 5 days are added to the 15-day period prescribed in 37 CFR § 2.127(a) for filing a response to a motion.

Trademark Rule 2.119(c), 37 CFR § 2.119(c), applies only when a party has to take some action within a prescribed period after the service of a paper upon it by another party, and service of the paper was made in one of three specified ways. It does not apply to an action that must be taken by a party within a time set in a communication from the Board. Thus, for example, when a Board action notifying a defendant of the filing of an opposition or petition to cancel allows the defendant 40 days from the date of the notification in which to file an answer to the complaint, the answer is due on or before the 40th day, not on the 45th day.

113.06 A Certificate of Service is Not...

A certificate of service is not the equivalent of a certificate of mailing or transmission for any purpose.⁷⁹

114 Representation of a Party

37 CFR § 10.14 Individuals who may practice before the Office in trademark and other non-patent cases.

(a) Attorneys. Any individual who is an attorney may represent others before the Office in trademark and other non-patent cases. An attorney is not required to apply for registration or recognition to practice before the Office in trademark and other non-patent cases.

(b) Non-lawyers. Individuals who are not attorneys are not recognized to practice before the Office in trademark and other non-patent cases, except that individuals not attorneys who were recognized to practice before the Office in trademark cases under this chapter prior to Jan. 1, 1957, will be recognized as agents to continue practice before the Office in trademark cases.

(c) Foreigners. Any foreign attorney or agent not a resident of the United States who shall prove to the satisfaction of the Director that he or she is registered or in good standing before the patent or trademark office of the country in which he or she resides and practices, may be recognized for the limited purpose of representing parties located in such country before the Office in the presentation and prosecution of trademark cases, provided: the patent or trademark office of such country allows substantially reciprocal privileges to those permitted to practice in trademark cases before the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Recognition under this paragraph shall continue only during the period that the conditions specified in this paragraph obtain.

(d) Recognition of any individual under this section shall not be construed as sanctioning or authorizing the performance of any act regarded in the jurisdiction where performed as the unauthorized practice of law.

(e) No individual other than those specified in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section will be permitted to practice before the Office in trademark cases. Any individual may appear in a trademark or other non-patent case in his or her own behalf. Any individual may appear in a trademark case for (1) a firm of which he or she is a member or (2) a corporation or association of which he or she is an officer and which he or she is authorized to represent, if such firm, corporation, or association is a party to a trademark proceeding pending before the Office.

⁷⁹ Cf. TBMP § 110.08 (A Certificate of Mailing or Transmission is Not...).

114.01 Party May Represent Itself

A party may represent itself in an ex parte or inter partes proceeding before the Board, or the party may be represented by an attorney or other authorized representative.⁸⁰

If a partnership which is a party to a Board proceeding elects to represent itself, the partnership may act through an individual who is a partner. If a party electing to represent itself is a corporation or an association, the party may act through any individual who is an officer of the party and who is authorized to represent it.⁸¹

However, because the governing practices and procedures in proceedings before the Board are quite technical and highly specialized, it is strongly recommended that an attorney familiar with trademark law represent a party.

114.02 Selection of Attorney

The Board cannot aid a party in the selection of an attorney, nor does the Office maintain a register or list of trademark attorneys.⁸²

114.03 Representation by Attorney

Any attorney, as that term is defined in 37 CFR § 10.1(c) [i.e., "an individual who is a member in good standing of the bar of any United States court or the highest court of any state"], is eligible to represent others before the Office in trademark cases, including proceedings before the Board, and in other non-patent cases. Such an attorney is not required to apply to the Office for registration or recognition to practice before the Office in trademark and other non-patent cases.⁸³

An attorney, as defined in 37 CFR § 10.1(c), will be accepted as a representative of a party in a proceeding before the Board if the attorney (1) signs a document that is filed with the Office on behalf of the party and satisfactorily identifies himself or herself as an attorney,⁸⁴ (2) appears in person, or (3) files a written power of attorney signed by the party the attorney represents.⁸⁵

When representation has been established by the filing of a paper, a new notice of appearance is sufficient to change the attorney of record. However, if representation has been established by the filing of a power of attorney, and thereafter another attorney or other authorized representative appears on behalf of the party, a new power of attorney is required to change the attorney of record.⁸⁶

When an attorney, as defined in 37 CFR § 10.1(c), acting in a representative capacity signs a paper or appears in person in a proceeding before the Board, his or her personal signature or appearance constitutes, inter alia, a representation to the Office that, under the provisions of 37 CFR § 10.14 (which specifies the types of individuals who may practice before the Office in trademark and other non-patent cases) and the laws of the jurisdiction where the attorney is licensed to practice that he or she is authorized to represent the particular party in whose behalf he or she acts. If there is some question as to whether an individual who makes such an appearance is authorized to act in a representative capacity, further proof of his or her authority may be required.⁸⁷

If a formal power of attorney is filed in a proceeding before the Board, it should state the name and address of the individual or individuals to whom the power is granted, identify the party granting the power, indicate the power being granted (e.g., "to represent Opposer in this proceeding, with full power of substitution and revocation, and to transact all business in the United States Patent and Trademark Office in connection therewith"), and be signed by the party granting the power. The Office requires that a power of attorney specify the names of one or more individuals. A power that specifies both the names of one or more individuals and the name of a firm will be regarded as a power to the individual(s).⁸⁸ A power that specifies only the name of a firm will be regarded not as a power to the firm but rather simply as a designation of an address to which correspondence is to be sent.⁸⁹

114.04 Representation by Non-lawyer (i.e., "Other Authorized Representative")

The only non-lawyers permitted to represent others in trademark cases before the Office, including proceedings before the Board, are those who were recognized to practice before the Office in trademark cases under Chapter 1 of 37 CFR prior to January 1, 1957.⁹⁰ Before such a representative may take any action of any kind in a proceeding before the Board, however, the representative must file in the proceeding a written authorization from the party that he or she represents, or from another person entitled to prosecute the case (e.g., the party's appointed attorney of record).⁹¹

114.05 Representation by Foreign Attorney or Agent

37 CFR § 10.14(c) Foreigners. Any foreign attorney or agent not a resident of the United States who shall prove to the satisfaction of the Director that he or she is registered or in good standing before the patent or trademark office of the country in which he or she resides and practices, may be recognized for the limited purpose of representing parties located in such country before the Office in the presentation and prosecution of trademark cases, provided: the patent or trademark office of such country allows substantially reciprocal privileges to those permitted to practice in trademark cases before the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Recognition under this paragraph shall continue only during the period that the conditions specified in this paragraph obtain.

Under certain conditions, specified in 37 CFR § 10.14(c), a foreign attorney or agent who is not a resident of the United States may be recognized for the limited purpose of representing, in trademark cases before the Office, parties located in the country in which the attorney or agent resides or practices. For information on how to meet the specified conditions, contact the USPTO's Office of Enrollment and Discipline. When a foreign attorney is recognized to practice before the Office, the parties are reminded that the certificate of mailing procedure is not available for use on mail that originates in a foreign country.

Currently, Canada provides substantial reciprocal privileges to attorneys in the United States to practice before its trademark office. Therefore, the USPTO's Office of Enrollment and Discipline recognizes Canada as qualifying for the limited exception provided in § 10.14(c) permitting the Canadian attorney to represent a Canadian party before the Office. The Office of Enrollment and Discipline maintains a list of attorneys who are registered or in good standing with the Canadian Intellectual Property Office.

⁹⁰ See 37 CFR § 10.14(b); Weiffenbach v. Klempay, 29 USPQ2d 2027, 2031 (Dep't Comm. 1993) (patent agent, admitted to practice before the Office in patent cases after January 1, 1957, was excluded from practice before the Office); and Weiffenbach v. Frank, 18 USPQ2d 1397, 1400 (Comm'r 1991) (patent agent engaged in unauthorized representation).

Chapter 100 GENERAL INFORMATION

However, the certificate of mailing procedure is not available for use on mail that originates in Canada, as it is not deposited in the United States mail as required by the certification.

114.06 Individual Not Entitled to Represent Others

An individual who is not entitled, under 37 CFR § 10.14(a), (b), or (c), to practice before the Office in trademark cases, will not be permitted to represent a party in a proceeding before the Board.⁹²

If it comes to the attention of the Board that an individual who is not entitled, under 37 CFR § 10.14(a), (b), or (c), to practice before the Office in trademark cases, is attempting to represent a party in a Board proceeding, the Board will notify the individual that he or she is not entitled to do so. If the individual signs and files a paper on behalf of a party to a Board proceeding, the paper will not be considered unless a new copy thereof, signed by the party or by an authorized representative who is entitled to practice before the Office in trademark cases, is filed.

Moreover, no Board correspondence intended for the party will be sent to that individual. Rather, the Board will send such correspondence to the party itself, or to the party's attorney or other authorized representative entitled to practice before the Office in trademark cases.⁹³

114.07 Designation of Domestic Representative

37 CFR § 2.24 Designation of representative by foreign applicant.

If an applicant is not domiciled in the United States, the applicant may designate by a document filed in the United States Patent and Trademark Office the name and address of some person resident in the United States on whom may be served notices or process in proceedings affecting the mark. If the applicant does not file a document designating the name and address of a person resident in the United States on whom may be served notices or process in proceedings affecting the mark, or if the last person designated cannot be found at the address given in the designation, then notices or process in proceedings affecting the mark may be served on the Director. The mere designation of a domestic representative does not authorize the person designated to prosecute the application unless qualified under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of § 10.14 of this subchapter and authorized under § 2.17(b).

37 CFR § 2.119(d) If a party to an inter partes proceeding is not domiciled in the United States and is not represented by an attorney or other authorized representative located in the United States, the party may designate by document filed in the United States Patent and Trademark Office the name and address of a person resident in the United States on whom may be served notices or process in the proceeding. If the party has appointed a domestic representative, official communications of the United States Patent and Trademark Office will be addressed to the domestic representative unless the proceeding is being prosecuted by an attorney at law or other qualified person duly authorized under § 10.14(c) of this subchapter. If the party has not appointed a domestic representative and the proceeding is not being prosecuted by an attorney at law or other qualified person, the Office will send correspondence directly to the party, unless the party designates in writing another address to which correspondence is to be sent. The mere designation of a domestic representative does not authorize the person designated to prosecute the proceeding unless qualified under § 10.14(a), or qualified under § 10.14(b) and authorized under § 2.17(b).

Shown below is a suggested format for the designation of a domestic representative (the suggested format should appear below information identifying the proceeding in connection with which it is filed):

If the party has not appointed a domestic representative and the proceeding is not being prosecuted by an attorney at law or other qualified person, the Office will send correspondence directly to the party, unless the party designates in writing another address to which correspondence is to be sent.⁹⁵

114.08 Adverse Parties Represented by Same Practitioner

37 CFR § 10.66 Refusing to accept or continue employment if the interests of another client may impair the independent professional judgment of the practitioner.

(a) A practitioner shall decline proffered employment if the exercise of the practitioner's independent professional judgment in behalf of a client will be or is likely to be adversely affected by the acceptance of the proffered employment, or if it would be likely to involve the practitioner in representing differing interests, except to the extent permitted under paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) A practitioner shall not continue multiple employment if the exercise of the practitioner's independent professional judgment in behalf of a client will be or is likely to be adversely affected by the practitioner's representation of another client, or if it would be likely to involve the practitioner in representing differing interests, except to the extent permitted under paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) In the situations covered by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section a practitioner may represent multiple clients if it is obvious that the practitioner can adequately represent the interest of each and if each consents to the representation after full disclosure of the possible effect of such representation on the exercise of the practitioner's independent professional judgment on behalf of each.

(d) If a practitioner is required to decline employment or to withdraw from employment under a Disciplinary Rule, no partner, or associate, or any other practitioner affiliated with the practitioner or the practitioner's firm, may accept or continue such employment unless otherwise ordered by the Director or Commissioner.

As a general rule, a practitioner (i.e., attorney or other authorized representative) may not represent parties with conflicting interests in proceedings before the Office. That is, a practitioner normally may not accept proffered employment, or continue multiple employment, if the exercise of the practitioner's independent professional judgment on behalf of one client is likely to be adversely affected by the practitioner's representation of another client, or if the employment would be likely to involve the practitioner in representing differing interests.⁹⁶

However, a practitioner may represent multiple clients under the particular circumstances specified in 37 CFR § 10.66(c).

If it comes to the attention of the Board that two or more parties whose interests are in conflict appear to be represented by the same practitioner, or by different practitioners within the same firm, each of the parties and their practitioner(s) will be notified by the Board, in writing, of the possible conflict of interest.

It is the responsibility of a practitioner to ensure that there is no violation of the rules cited above. If an impermissible conflict exists, a practitioner should take appropriate action immediately. A practitioner who fails to do so may be subjected to disciplinary action.⁹⁷

115 Conduct of Practitioner

115.01 Applicable Rules

The conduct of an attorney or other authorized representative in proceedings before the Board is governed by Part 10 of 37 CFR. Part 10 contains both Canons (set out in Rules 10.21, 10.30, 10.46, 10.56, 10.61, 10.76, 10.83, 10.100, and 10.110) and Disciplinary Rules (set out in Rules 10.22-10.24, 10.31-10.40, 10.47-10.57, 10.62-10.68, 10.77, 10.78, 10.84, 10.85, 10.87-10.89, 10.92, 10.93, 10.101-10.103, 10.111, and 10.112). Canons are "statements of axiomatic norms, expressing in general terms the standards of professional conduct expected of practitioners in their relationships with the public, with the legal system, and with the legal profession," while Disciplinary Rules are "mandatory in character and state the minimum level of conduct below which no practitioner can fall without being subjected to disciplinary action."⁹⁸

GENERAL INFORMATION

(b) Petitions to disqualify a practitioner in ex parte or inter partes cases in the Office are not governed by §§ 10.130 through 10.170 and will be handled on a case-by-case basis under such conditions as the Commissioner deems appropriate.

By rule change effective December 1, 1997, 37 CFR § 2.193(c)(2) was amended to provide that by presenting a paper to the Office, the signer makes the certifications set forth in 37 CFR § 10.18(b), and is subject to sanctions under 37 CFR § 10.18(c) for violation of 37 CFR § 10.18(b)(2), regardless of whether the party is a practitioner or non-practitioner.⁹⁹

The rules governing disciplinary proceedings are set out in 37 CFR §§ 10.130-10.170. Such a proceeding is instituted only under the circumstances specified in 37 CFR §§ 10.131-10.132.

115.03 Petitions to Disqualify

37 CFR § 10.130(b) Petitions to disqualify a practitioner in ex parte or inter partes cases in the Office are not governed by §§ 10.130 through 10.170 and will be handled on a case-by-case basis under such conditions as the Commissioner deems appropriate.

Petitions to disqualify practitioners representing parties in ex parte or inter partes cases before the Board are not disciplinary proceedings and hence are not governed by 37 CFR §§ 10.130-10.170. Rather, petitions to disqualify are governed by 37 CFR § 10.130(b).¹⁰⁰

When a petition to disqualify is filed in connection with a proceeding pending before the Board, the Board immediately issues an action suspending proceedings in the case and advising the parties that no additional papers should be filed by the parties until further notice, pending consideration of the petition.

For further information concerning petitions to disqualify, see TBMP § 513.02.

⁹⁹ For examples of cases involving disciplined practitioners, see Klein v. Peterson, 866 F.2d 412, 9 USPQ2d 1558, 1560 (Fed. Cir. 1989) (patent attorney excluded from practice for certificate of mailing violations); *Weiffenbach v. Chapter 100
GENERAL INFORMATION

116 Termination of Representation

116.01 Revocation of Authority

37 CFR § 2.19 Revocation of power of attorney; withdrawal.

(a) Authority to represent an applicant, registrant or a party to a proceeding may be revoked at any stage in the proceedings of a case upon notification to the Director; and when it is so revoked, the Office will communicate directly with the applicant, registrant or party to the proceeding, or with the new attorney or domestic representative if one has been appointed. The Office will notify the person affected of the revocation of his or her authorization.

Authority to represent a party in a proceeding before the Board may be revoked, at any stage of the proceeding, by filing a written revocation with the Board. Thereafter, the Board will not recognize that person as a representative in the case, or give any consideration to any papers which he or she may file therein, unless a new written authorization of that person, signed by the party, is filed in the proceeding.

116.02 Withdrawal as Representative--In General

37 CFR § 2.19(b) If the requirements of § 10.40 of this chapter are met, an attorney authorized to represent an applicant, registrant or party in a trademark case may withdraw upon application to and approval by the Director.

37 CFR § 10.40 Withdrawal from employment.

(a) A practitioner shall not withdraw from employment in a proceeding before the Office without permission from the Office (see §§ 1.36 and 2.19 of this subchapter). In any event, a practitioner shall not withdraw from employment until the practitioner has taken reasonable steps to avoid foreseeable prejudice to the rights of the client, including giving due notice to his or her client, allowing time for employment of another practitioner, delivering to the client all papers and property to which the client is entitled, and complying with applicable laws and rules. A practitioner who withdraws from employment shall refund promptly any part of a fee paid in advance that has not been earned.

(b) Mandatory withdrawal. A practitioner representing a client before the Office shall withdraw from employment if:

- (1) The practitioner knows or it is obvious that the client is bringing a legal action, commencing a proceeding before the Office, conducting a defense, or asserting a position in litigation or any proceeding pending before the Office, or is otherwise having steps taken for the client, merely for the purpose of harassing or maliciously injuring any person;*
- (2) The practitioner knows or it is obvious that the practitioner's continued employment will result in violation of a Disciplinary Rule;*

Chapter 100 GENERAL INFORMATION

- (3) The practitioner's mental or physical condition renders it unreasonably difficult for the practitioner to carry out the employment effectively; or*
- (4) The practitioner is discharged by the client.*

(c) Permissive withdrawal. If paragraph (b) of this section is not applicable, a practitioner may not request permission to withdraw in matters pending before the Office unless such request or such withdrawal is because:

- (1) The petitioner's client:*
 - (i) Insists upon presenting a claim or defense that is not warranted under existing law and cannot be supported by good faith argument for an extension, modification, or reversal of existing law;*
 - (ii) Personally seeks to pursue an illegal course of conduct;*
 - (iii) Insists that the practitioner pursue a course of conduct that is illegal or that is prohibited under a Disciplinary Rule;*
 - (iv) By other conduct renders it unreasonably difficult for the practitioner to carry out the employment effectively;*
 - (v) Insists, in a matter not pending before a tribunal, that the practitioner engage in conduct that is contrary to the judgment and advice of the practitioner but not prohibited under the Disciplinary Rule; or*
 - (vi) Has failed to pay one or more bills rendered by the practitioner for an unreasonable period of time or has failed to honor an agreement to pay a retainer in advance of the performance of legal services.*
- (2) The practitioner's continued employment is likely to result in a violation of a Disciplinary Rule;*
- (3) The practitioner's inability to work with co-counsel indicates that the best interests of the client likely will be served by withdrawal;*
- (4) The practitioner's mental or physical condition renders it difficult for the practitioner to carry out the employment effectively;*
- (5) The practitioner's client knowingly and freely assents to termination of the employment; or*
- (6) The practitioner believes in good faith, in a proceeding pending before the Office, that the Office will find the existence of other good cause for withdrawal.*

Under certain circumstances, a practitioner may withdraw from employment as the attorney or other authorized representative of a party to a proceeding before the Board. A practitioner who wishes to withdraw must file a written request with the Board for permission to do so. The practitioner may not withdraw until he or she has complied with the conditions specified in 37 CFR § 10.40(a).

116.03 When Withdrawal is Mandatory

Withdrawal from employment as the attorney or other representative of a party to a Board proceeding is mandatory under the circumstances specified in 37 CFR § 10.40(b).

116.04 When Withdrawal is Permissive

Withdrawal from employment as the attorney or other authorized representative of a party to a Board proceeding is permissive under the circumstances specified in 37 CFR § 10.40(c).

116.05 Request to Withdraw

A practitioner who wishes to withdraw from employment as the attorney or other authorized representative of a party to a proceeding before the Board must file a written request with the Board for permission to do so. The request to withdraw must be based upon one of the grounds for mandatory or permissive withdrawal listed in 37 CFR §§ 10.40(b) and (c). Moreover, the practitioner must comply with the requirements of 37 CFR § 10.40(a). See 37 CFR §§ 2.19(b) and 10.40.¹⁰¹

The propriety of a request for permission to withdraw as counsel in an application that is the subject of a potential opposition is determined by the Board, and not the examining operation.¹⁰²

For further information concerning the requirements for a request to withdraw as representative, and the action taken by the Board when such a request is granted, see TBMP § 513.01.

117 Correspondence - With Whom Held

37 CFR § 2.18 Correspondence, with whom held.

(a) If documents are transmitted by an attorney, or a written power of attorney is filed, the Office will send correspondence to the attorney transmitting the documents, or to the attorney designated in the power of attorney, provided that the attorney is an attorney as defined in §10.1(c) of this chapter.

(b) The Office will not undertake double correspondence. If two or more attorneys appear or sign a document, the Office's reply will be sent to the address already established in the record until the applicant, registrant or party, or its duly appointed attorney, requests in writing that correspondence be sent to another address.

¹⁰² See TBMP § 212.01 (Jurisdiction to Consider Amendment).

Chapter 100 GENERAL INFORMATION

(c) If an application, registration or proceeding is not being prosecuted by an attorney but a domestic representative has been appointed, the Office will send correspondence to the domestic representative, unless the applicant, registrant or party designates in writing another correspondence address.

(d) If the application, registration or proceeding is not being prosecuted by an attorney and no domestic representative has been appointed, the Office will send correspondence directly to the applicant, registrant or party, unless the applicant, registrant or party designates in writing another correspondence address.

37 CFR § 2.24 Designation of representative by foreign applicant.

If an applicant is not domiciled in the United States, the applicant may designate by a document filed in the United States Patent and Trademark Office the name and address of some person resident in the United States on whom may be served notices or process in proceedings affecting the mark. If the applicant does not file a document designating the name and address of a person resident in the United States on whom may be served notices or process in proceedings affecting the mark, or if the last person designated cannot be found at the address given in the designation, then notices or process in proceedings affecting the mark may be served on the Director. The mere designation of a domestic representative does not authorize the person designated to prosecute the application unless qualified under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of §10.14 of this subchapter and authorized under §2.17(b).

37 CFR § 2.119(d) If a party to an inter partes proceeding is not domiciled in the United States and is not represented by an attorney or other authorized representative located in the United States, the party may designate by document filed in the United States Patent and Trademark Office the name and address of a person resident in the United States on whom may be served notices or process in the proceeding. If the party has appointed a domestic representative, official communications of the United States Patent and Trademark Office will be addressed to the domestic representative unless the proceeding is being prosecuted by an attorney at law or other qualified person duly authorized under § 10.14(c) of this subchapter. If the party has not appointed a domestic representative and the proceeding is not being prosecuted by an attorney at law or other qualified person, the Office will send correspondence directly to the party, unless the party designates in writing another address to which correspondence is to be sent. The mere designation of a domestic representative does not authorize the person designated to prosecute the proceeding unless qualified under § 10.14(a), or qualified under § 10.14(b) and authorized under § 2.17(b).

Whenever the Board takes an action in a proceeding before it, the Board sends a copy of the action to each party or to the party's attorney or other authorized representative. Such correspondence will be sent to the party at the party's address of record in the proceeding, unless an appearance is made on behalf of the party by an attorney (as defined in 37 CFR § 10.1(c)), or a written power of attorney is filed, or written authorization of some other person entitled to be recognized is filed, or the party designates in writing another address to which correspondence is to be sent. If one of these events occurs, correspondence will be sent not to the party's address of record, but rather to the attorney who makes the appearance, or to the attorney designated in the power of attorney, or to the other person designated in the written authorization, or to the address designated by the party for correspondence.¹⁰³ If there is no attorney of record, but a domestic representative has been appointed, correspondence will be sent to the domestic representative, unless the party designates in writing another correspondence address. If there is no attorney of record and no domestic representative has been appointed, correspondence will be sent directly to the party. Correspondence will continue to be sent to such address until the party, or the party's attorney or other representative, indicates in writing that correspondence is to be sent to another address.¹⁰⁴

The mailing of correspondence in accordance with standard Office mailing procedures creates a presumption of receipt of correspondence.¹⁰⁵

117.02 When There is More Than One Attorney or Other Authorized Representative

If a power of attorney names more than one individual, and does not specify which of them is to have primary responsibility for the case and receive correspondence, the name(s) of the individual attorney(s) in the signature block of the covering transmittal letter will be used by the Board on the proceeding file, on correspondence for the party, and on the final decision of the Board, to identify counsel for the party, unless the party or one of the named attorneys requests otherwise in writing. If there is no transmittal letter, and no other indication as to which of the named attorneys is to have primary responsibility for the case and receive correspondence, the name of the first listed attorney will be used by the Board on the proceeding file, on correspondence for the party, and on the Board's final decision, unless the party or one of the named attorneys requests otherwise in writing.

The Board ordinarily will not undertake double correspondence, that is, the sending of correspondence to two addresses on behalf of a single party. If more than one attorney or other authorized representative makes an appearance on behalf of a party, the papers filed by the additional attorney(s) or other authorized representative(s) will be accepted, but the Board will send correspondence to only one of them, to be determined according to the circumstances in the case.¹⁰⁶

For example, if one attorney or other authorized representative ("A") makes an appearance on behalf of a party, and his or her address is thus established in the proceeding file as the correspondence address, following which a second attorney or other authorized representative ("B") makes an appearance on behalf of the party, and files a written request that correspondence be sent to him or her, the correspondence address in the proceeding file will be changed, and future correspondence will be sent to B, rather than A. No requirement will be made that B submit authorization, from the party or from A, for the change of correspondence address, nor will B be required to serve a copy of the request upon A. If B does not file a written request that correspondence be sent to him or her, correspondence will continue to be sent to A.

If a power of attorney from a party to one attorney ("A") has been filed, and thereafter another attorney or other authorized representative ("B") makes an appearance on behalf of the party and files a written request that correspondence be sent to him or her, B ordinarily will be required to submit authorization, from the party or from A, for the requested change in the correspondence address. However, if B's request for change of correspondence address bears proof of service of a copy thereof upon both the party and A, and neither files an objection to the request, the correspondence address will be changed, and future correspondence will be sent to B, rather than to A.

If a power of attorney from a party to one attorney ("A") has been filed, and thereafter a power of attorney from the party to another attorney ("B") is filed, the second power of attorney will be construed, even if there is no revocation of the first power, as a written request to change the correspondence address from A to B, unless the party or A directs otherwise. Cf. TMEP § 603. Likewise, if an attorney makes an appearance on behalf of a party, and thereafter the party files a written power of attorney to another attorney, the Board will send subsequent correspondence to the appointed attorney.

If a power of attorney from a party to one attorney ("A") has been filed, and thereafter A files an "associate power of attorney" to another attorney ("B"), the correspondence address will remain unchanged, and the Board will continue to send correspondence to A, unless A or the party directs otherwise.¹⁰⁷

If a power of attorney from a party to several attorneys ("A," "B," and "C") in the same firm ("XYZ") has been filed, and thereafter A leaves the firm but does not file a request that all future correspondence be sent to him or her, rather than to B and/or C, the Board will continue to send correspondence to B and/or C. If A, after leaving firm XYZ, does file a request that all future correspondence be sent to him or her, rather than to B and/or C, the correspondence address will be changed as requested. If, however, B and C object, and maintain that it is they, rather than A, who continue to represent the party and are entitled to receive correspondence, proceedings in the case will be suspended until a designation of correspondence address by the party has been submitted.

If oppositions or petitions for cancellation filed by different opposers or petitioners against the same application or registration are consolidated, or if an opposition or petition for cancellation is filed by joint opposers or petitioners, and the different plaintiffs are represented by different attorneys or other authorized representatives, rather than by the same one(s), the Board, in its discretion, may request that the plaintiffs appoint one lead counsel, to whom the Board may send correspondence intended for the plaintiffs.¹⁰⁸ After the lead counsel has been appointed, the Board will send one copy of any forthcoming Board order, decision, or other communication to the applicant or its attorney or other authorized representative, and one copy to plaintiffs' lead counsel. Lead counsel in turn will be responsible for making and distributing copies of such Board correspondence to each plaintiff or its attorney or other authorized representative. In these cases, the lead counsel is not substituted for the separate counsel of each plaintiff, but rather is responsible for coordinating the conduct of the plaintiffs' cases. A Board action requesting the appointment of lead counsel normally includes a detailed explanation of the anticipated duties and responsibilities of lead counsel.

In special circumstances, the Board, in its discretion, may send a particular item of correspondence to more than one address on behalf of a single party. However, the Board will not send correspondence to more than one address on behalf of a single party on a continuing basis.

117.03 Continuation of Correspondence With Representative in Application or Registration When Inter Partes Proceeding Commences

In the case of a party whose application is the subject of a Board proceeding, any appearance or power of attorney (or designation of other authorized representative) of record in the application file at the time of the commencement of the Board proceeding is considered to be effective for purposes of the proceeding, and correspondence will be sent initially to that address.¹⁰⁹ Thereafter, the correspondence address may be changed in appropriate circumstances.

¹⁰⁸ Cf. Internet Inc. v. Corporation for National Research Initiatives, 38 USPQ2d 1435, 1436 n.2 (TTAB 1996) (in three proceedings where defendant in one case was one of two plaintiffs in the two other cases, and where each plaintiff retained separate counsel, Board indicated that it would send correspondence to attorneys for the plaintiff which was a party to all three cases unless otherwise advised).

Chapter 100 GENERAL INFORMATION

However, in the case of a party whose registration is the subject of a proceeding before the Board, any representation which may be of record in the registration file at the time of the commencement of the Board proceeding is not considered to be effective for purposes of the Board proceeding. Rather, correspondence is sent to the registrant itself or its domestic representative unless and until an attorney makes an appearance in the Board proceeding in the registrant's behalf, or a written power of attorney is filed in the proceeding by the registrant, or written authorization of some other person entitled to be recognized is filed in the proceeding by the registrant, or the registrant designates in writing another address to which correspondence is to be sent.¹¹⁰

Changes of attorney addresses or powers of attorney in registration files are accepted by the Office when submitted with post-registration filings, such as those under Sections 7, 8, 9 or 15 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1057, 1058, 1059 or 1065; as well as in a cancellation or concurrent use proceeding before the Board. The attorney representing the registrant is responsible for insuring that registrant's correspondence address is updated. The Office accepts separate written address changes for registrants and domestic representatives, but global changes of address (when one paper is filed listing all involved registrations) will not be effective in changing the address in each file. A single TEAS¹¹¹ form for recording a change of address, found at www.uspto.gov/teas/index.html, can be used to notice a change of address for more than one application or registration. The TEAS form can be used to change the correspondence address only on applications or registrations that are currently active.¹¹²

117.04 Continuation of Correspondence with Representative of Potential Opposer After Opposition is Filed

When an attorney is appointed in a power of attorney accompanying an opposition, or makes an appearance by filing an opposition on behalf of the opposer, the Board will send correspondence to that attorney, notwithstanding the fact that another attorney or attorneys may have obtained one or more extensions of time to oppose on behalf of the opposer. If, however, a power of attorney filed with an opposition names several attorneys, and there is no transmittal letter and no other indication as to which of them is to have primary responsibility for the case and receive correspondence, but one of the named attorneys obtained an extension of time to oppose, correspondence will be sent to that attorney; if none of the named attorneys obtained an extension of time to oppose, correspondence will be sent to the first named attorney. Thereafter, the correspondence address may be changed in appropriate circumstances.

¹¹² See TMEP § 603.02(b).

GENERAL INFORMATION

117.05 Correspondence After Revocation or Withdrawal

If the authority of a practitioner (i.e., attorney or other authorized representative) to represent a party in a proceeding before the Board is revoked, or the practitioner is granted permission to withdraw upon request therefor to the Board, and the party is not represented by any other practitioner, correspondence will be sent to the party at its address of record unless another practitioner puts in an appearance, or a written appointment of another practitioner is filed, or the party designates in writing another address to which correspondence is to be sent.

117.06 Correspondence With Foreign Party

If a party to a Board proceeding is not domiciled in the United States and is not represented by an attorney or other authorized representative located in the United States, or by a foreign attorney or agent duly qualified under 37 CFR § 10.14(c), correspondence will be sent to the party's domestic representative, if one has been appointed. If the party has not appointed a domestic representative and the proceeding is not being prosecuted by an attorney or other qualified person, the Office will send correspondence directly to the party, unless the party designates in writing another address to which correspondence is to be sent.¹¹³

117.07 Change of Address

If a party to a Board proceeding or its attorney or other authorized representative moves, a separate written notice of the change of address should be filed with the Board and should reference the proceeding number. It is the responsibility of a party to a proceeding before the Board to ensure that the Board has the party's current correspondence address. If a party fails to notify the Board of a change of address, with the result that the Board is unable to serve correspondence on the party, default judgment may be entered against the party.

A party or its attorney or other authorized representative should not assume that the inclusion of a new address on a document directed to another matter, or on the envelope in which a paper is filed, is sufficient to notify the Board of a change of address. Mail sent to the Office is opened in the USPTO Mail Room, and ordinarily the envelopes are discarded there before the mail is sent on to its ultimate destination within the Office. Thus, the Board rarely sees the return addresses on the mailing envelopes of papers filed in Board proceedings. Moreover, while it is the normal practice of the Board to check the address on newly filed papers and to change its records to reflect any noted change of address, the Board has no obligation to do so. The responsibility for any failure to receive correspondence due to a change of address of which the Board has not been given separate written notice lies with the party or its attorney or other authorized representative.

117.08 Individual Not Entitled to Represent Others

An individual who is not entitled, under 37 CFR § 10.14(a), (b), or (c), to practice before the Office in trademark cases, will not be permitted to represent a party in a proceeding before the Board, and may not file papers on behalf of the party.¹¹⁴ If it comes to the attention of a Board attorney that such an individual is attempting to represent a party in a Board proceeding, the Board attorney will bring the matter to the attention of the Chief Administrative Trademark Judge, who will coordinate appropriate action with the Office of Enrollment and Discipline. Moreover, no Board correspondence intended for the party will be sent to the individual. Rather, the Board will send such correspondence to the party itself, or to the party's attorney or other authorized representative entitled to practice before the USPTO in trademark cases.¹¹⁵

118.01 Lists of Fees and Charges

A list of the fees and charges established by the USPTO for trademark cases may be found in 37 CFR § 2.6, and are usually posted on the USPTO web site at www.uspto.gov.

A list of fees and charges established by the USPTO for miscellaneous services may be found in 37 CFR §§ 1.21, as well as on the USPTO web site.

A list of fees and charges for processing correspondence relating to international applications and registrations under the Madrid Protocol may be found in 37 CFR § 7.6 as well as on the USPTO web site. International fees that may be paid to the International Bureau through the Office in connection with international applications and registrations may be found in 37 CFR § 7.7 as well as on the WIPO web site.

37 CFR § 2.206 Trademark Fees payable in advance.

(a) Trademark fees and charges payable to the Office are required to be paid in advance; that is, at the time of requesting any action by the Office for which a fee or charge is payable.

(b) All fees paid to the Office must be itemized in each individual trademark application, or registration file, or trademark proceeding, so the purpose for which the fees are paid is clear. The Office may return fees that are not itemized as required by this paragraph.

¹¹⁵ See 37 CFR § 2.18.

Chapter 100 GENERAL INFORMATION

118.03 Method of Payment--In General

37 CFR § 2.207 Method of payment.

(a) All payments of money required in Trademark cases, including fees for the processing of international trademark applications and registrations that are paid through the Office, shall be made in U.S. dollars and in the form of a cashier's or certified check, Treasury note, national bank note, or United States Postal Service money order. If sent in any other form, the Office may delay or cancel the credit until collection is made. Checks and money orders must be made payable to the Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (Checks made payable to the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks will continue to be accepted.) Payments from foreign countries must be payable and immediately negotiable in the United States for the full amount of the fee required. Money sent to the Office by mail will be at the risk of the sender, and letters containing money should be registered with the United States Postal Service.

(b) Payments of money required for trademark fees may also be made by credit card. Payment of a fee by credit card must specify the amount to be charged to the credit card and such other information as is necessary to process the charge, and is subject to collection of the fee. The Office will not accept a general authorization to charge fees to a credit card. If credit card information is provided on a form or document other than a form provided by the Office for the payment of fees by credit card, the Office will not be liable if the credit card number becomes public knowledge.

It is the practice of the Office to routinely accept, as "conditional" payment of a fee, a signed uncertified check. If such a check is returned for insufficient funds, the fee remains unpaid, and the filing date of the fee will be the filing date of any resubmitted adequate payment.¹¹⁶ An unsigned check will be returned to its sender, but the Director has the discretion to accept such a check, as "conditional" payment, upon petition showing sufficient cause therefor.¹¹⁷

The Office cannot accept U.S. Treasury checks that have been issued to the applicant or to another party as payment of Office fees. This is true for all refund checks whether issued from the Office or any other government agency. Office rules require that money orders and checks be made payable to the Director of Patents and Trademarks and do not permit the acceptance of U.S. Treasury checks endorsed by the applicant in payment of fees.

Papers accompanied by fees may be filed by delivery to the finance window at 2900 Crystal Drive, South Tower Building, Third Floor, Arlington, VA.¹¹⁸

¹¹⁶ See In re Cantatore, 231 USPQ 742, 744 (Comm'r 1986) (petition to revive was denied because filing fee check was returned for insufficient funds).

¹¹⁸ For further information concerning how and where to file fees, see TBMP § 107.

118.04 Method of Payment--Deposit Accounts

For the convenience of attorneys and the general public in paying fees and charges to the Office, deposit accounts may be established in the Office.¹¹⁹ The Office has an automated financial system, the Revenue Accounting and Management (RAM) system, that allows transactions to occur over the Internet through the Office web site at www.uspto.gov. Deposit accounts can be maintained through the Internet and funds replenished using a credit card.

The fees for filing an ex parte appeal to the Board, an opposition, and a petition for cancellation, may all be charged to a deposit account, provided that the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.208 are met. However, the charging of a fee against an account that does not contain sufficient funds to cover it cannot be regarded as payment of the fee.¹²⁰ Thus, the overdrawing of a deposit account may result in the loss of a vital date.¹²¹

The Office will not accept ex parte appeals if the notice of appeal is not accompanied by at least a $100 fee or specific authorization to charge the deposit account for that fee, as opposed to a general authorization which may have been provided when the application was filed. A general authorization to charge a deposit account will only be effective upon petition to the Director.¹²² Because the general authorization can only be invoked on petition, the Board itself cannot accept the general authorization as a basis for treating the appeal fee as timely submitted.

119 Papers and Fees Generally Not Returnable

37 CFR § 2.209 Refunds.

(a) The Director may refund any fee paid by mistake or in excess of that required. A change of purpose after the payment of a fee, such as when a party desires to withdraw a trademark application, appeal or other trademark filing for which the fee was paid, will not entitle a party to a refund of such fee. The Office will not refund amounts of twenty-five dollars or less unless a refund is specifically requested, and will not notify the payor of such amounts. If a party paying a fee or requesting a refund does not provide the banking information necessary for making refunds by electronic funds transfer (31 U.S.C. 3332 and 31 CFR part 208), or instruct the Office that refunds are to be credited to a deposit account, the Director may require such information, or use the banking information on the payment instrument to make a refund. Any refund of a fee paid by credit card will be by a credit to the credit card account to which the fee was charged.

(b) Any request for refund must be filed within two years from the date the fee was paid, except as otherwise provided in this paragraph. If the Office charges a deposit account by an amount other than an amount specifically indicated in an authorization (§ 2.208(b)), any request for refund based upon such charge must be filed within two years from the date of the deposit account statement indicating such charge, and include a copy of that deposit account statement. The time periods set forth in this paragraph are not extendable.

119.02 Papers and Fees--Ex Parte Cases

After an application has received a filing date, papers filed in connection therewith, including ex parte appeal papers, will not be returned.¹²³

If a notice of appeal to the Board from an examining attorney's final refusal is late filed, the appeal will not be entertained, the application will be abandoned, the notice of appeal will be retained in the application file, and any appeal fee submitted therewith will be refunded. If a notice of appeal is filed prematurely, the appeal will not be entertained, the notice of appeal will be retained in the application file, the application will be returned to the examining attorney for further appropriate action, and applicant will be advised that if a timely appeal is subsequently filed in the case, any fee submitted with the premature appeal will be applied thereto, or, if no timely appeal is filed, applicant may request a refund of any such fee.

If a final refusal to register is withdrawn by the examining attorney, and the application is approved for publication, following which the applicant, not knowing that the application has been approved for publication, files a notice of appeal, the appeal will not be instituted, the notice of appeal will be retained in the application file, and any appeal fee submitted therewith will be refunded. In such a case, the notice of appeal, and appeal fee, are considered to have been filed in excess, rather than by change of purpose, since at the time of its filing, the appeal was unnecessary. If, however, the examining attorney withdraws the refusal to register, and approves the application for publication, after an appeal to the Board has been filed, the appeal will be dismissed as moot, and the appeal fee will not be refunded (the appeal having been necessary at the time of its filing).

119.03 Papers and Fees--Inter Partes Cases

After an inter partes proceeding before the Board has been filed, papers and other materials filed in connection therewith, normally will not be returned. Exhibits to testimony and confidential materials filed under a protective order ordinarily are returned after the conclusion of a proceeding, including any appeal period, to the party that filed them.¹²⁴

If because of a defect in an opposition or a petition for cancellation filed with the Board, a proceeding is not instituted, any submitted fee will be refunded.

No proceeding will be instituted, and any submitted filing fee will be refunded in the following circumstances:

- (1) If an opposition filed during an extension of time to oppose is in the name of someone other than the person who obtained the extension, and the opposer is unable to show, pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.102(b), that it is in privity with the person who obtained the extension, or that the person in whose name the extension was requested was misidentified by mistake.
- (2) If an opposition or a petition for cancellation is filed prematurely (i.e., prior to publication of the subject mark in the Official Gazette for purposes of opposition, or prior to issuance of a registration of the subject mark, respectively, even if the registration has issued by the time of the Board's action).
- (3) If an opposition is filed after the time for opposing has expired; or, is filed unsigned, and a signed copy is not submitted within the time limit set in the notification of this defect by the Board; or is filed without the required fee; or if the opposed application was abandoned before the opposition was filed.¹²⁵

Electronic filings will not be accepted if any of the above-identified conditions exist.

Proceedings will be instituted, and the filing fee charged in the following circumstances:

- (1) If a petition to cancel a Principal Register registration that is more than five years old does not allege any ground upon which such a registration can be cancelled (see Section 14 of the Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. § 1064), the cancellation will be instituted and the Board will issue an order to show cause why the petition should not be dismissed for failure to state a claim.

¹²⁴ Cf. TBMP § 806 (Termination of Proceeding).

Chapter 100 GENERAL INFORMATION

(2) If a petition for cancellation is filed with respect to a registration which, at the time of the filing of the petition, was not a "live" registration (e.g., the time for filing an affidavit of use under Section 8 of the Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. § 1058, had expired, and no acceptable affidavit had been filed; the registration had already been cancelled as the result of a previous cancellation proceeding), the proceeding will be instituted, and then dismissed as moot.

(3) If a party files an opposition or a petition for cancellation, and immediately thereafter changes its mind, and requests that the opposition or petition for cancellation not be instituted and that the papers be returned, the request ordinarily will be denied, and the proceeding will be instituted, unless there is a defect in the opposition or petition for cancellation which precludes institution, in which case no proceeding will be instituted, and any submitted fee will be refunded.

When a proceeding is erroneously instituted, the proceeding will be dismissed as a nullity, rather than vacated, so as to maintain the integrity of the proceeding numbers. All documents will be retained by the Board.

120 Access to Files

37 CFR § 2.27(d) Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, after a mark has been registered, or published for opposition, the file of the application and all proceedings relating thereto are available for public inspection and copies of the papers may be furnished upon paying the fee therefor.

37 CFR § 2.27(e) Anything ordered to be filed under seal pursuant to a protective order issued or made by any court or by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board in any proceeding involving an application or a registration shall be kept confidential and shall not be made available for public inspection or copying unless otherwise ordered by the court or the Board, or unless the party protected by the order voluntarily discloses the matter subject thereto. When possible, only confidential portions of filings with the Board shall be filed under seal.

120.01 Nonconfidential Files

Except for materials filed under seal pursuant to a protective agreement, the files of applications and registrations which are the subject matter of pending proceedings before the Board, all pending proceeding files and exhibits thereto, and the files of applications which are the subject matter of "potential oppositions," are available for public inspection and copying at the offices of the Board.¹²⁶ The electronic files of the Board are accessible via the Internet at <http://ttabvue.uspto.gov>.

An individual who wishes to inspect and/or copy one of the paper files may come to the Board's reception desk, where the Board maintains an electronic log of file requests, and ask for the file. The individual must identify the file by its number, so that the Board may locate it. If the request is logged in before noon, the file is generally available that afternoon. When the individual returns, the file will be given to him or her for inspection and/or copying on the premises of the Board. Files or portions thereof may not be taken away from the offices of the Board, and a person who removes papers from a file for copying at the offices of the Board should always return the papers to the file in their proper order.

To save time, an individual who wishes to inspect a file that is in the possession of the Board may call and ask that the file be located. When the file has been located, the Board will call the individual back to tell him or her that the file is available.

Electronic images of Board proceeding files can be viewed using TTABVUE at <http://ttabvue.uspto.gov>. The electronic image files are also available to the public in the Trademark Library Search Room.

For information concerning access to the files of cases that are on appeal from a decision of the Board, see TBMP § 904.

120.02 Confidential Materials

Materials filed with the Board under seal pursuant to a protective order entered by any court or by the Board and filed in compliance with TBMP § 412.06, will be kept confidential and will not be made available for public inspection or copying unless otherwise ordered by the court or the Board, or unless the party protected by the order voluntarily discloses the matter subject thereto. These materials may be inspected only by those individuals who are entitled, under the terms of the protective order, to have access to the protected information.¹²⁷

To be handled as confidential, and kept out of the public record, submissions to the Board that are confidential must be filed under a separate cover. Both the submission and its cover must be marked confidential and must identify the case number and the parties. A copy of the submission with the confidential portions redacted must also be submitted.¹²⁸

¹²⁶ See 37 CFR § 2.27.

¹²⁷ See 37 CFR §§ 2.27(e); 2.120(f), and 2.125(e); and TBMP §§ 412.02 (Protective Orders Upon Stipulation), 526 (Motion for Protective Order) and 703.01(p) (Confidential or Trade Secret Material).

¹²⁸ See 37 CFR § 2.126(d).

GENERAL INFORMATION

Except for materials filed under seal pursuant to a protective order, the files of applications and registrations which are the subject matter of pending proceedings before the Board and all pending proceeding files and exhibits thereto are available for public inspection and copying. Therefore, only the particular discovery responses, exhibits, deposition transcript pages, or those portions of a brief, pleading or motion that disclose confidential information should be filed under seal pursuant to a protective order. If a party submits any brief, pleading, motion or other such filing containing confidential information under seal, the party must also submit for the public record a redacted version of said papers.¹²⁹ A good practice would be to stamp each page as “confidential” of a submission that contains such matter. Confidential materials filed in the absence of a protective order will not be kept confidential by the Board.¹³⁰

120.03 Files of Terminated Proceedings

When an inter partes proceeding has been finally determined, i.e., when the proceeding is over, the Office takes certain further steps based on the final decision, including those steps necessary to give effect to the decision. This process is referred to as the “termination” of the proceeding.¹³¹ The electronic files of terminated proceedings continue to remain available through the electronic databases.

Pursuant to the National Archives retention schedule, terminated paper inter partes proceeding files that result in a final decision by the Board, e.g., motion for summary judgment, motion to dismiss, or final decision on the merits, are transferred to a warehouse for 3 years, then to the Federal Records Center for 27 years and then to the National Archives for permanent retention. All other terminated paper proceedings are transferred to a warehouse for 3 years and then transferred to the National Records Center where they remain for 27 years before destruction. The paper files of existing registrations are also stored at the warehouse. The paper files of cancelled and expired registrations are destroyed two years after the date of cancellation or expiration; the paper files of abandoned applications are destroyed two years after the date of abandonment. In addition, the paper files of terminated opposition proceedings numbered from 30,000 through 53,999, and of terminated cancellation proceedings numbered from 1 through 9399, have been destroyed.

Pro-Football, Inc.*, 50 USPQ2d 1705, 1714 (TTAB 1999) (Board agreed to hold exhibits marked confidential for thirty days pending receipt of motion for protective order but advised that in absence of such motion the exhibits would be placed in the proceeding file), rev'd on other grounds, 284 F. Supp. 2d 96, 68 USPQ2d 1225 (D.D.C. 2003).

GENERAL INFORMATION

An individual who wishes to inspect and/or copy a paper file stored by the Office in a warehouse may go to the Trademark Search Library and place an order for the file. Within a few days, the USPTO will obtain the ordered file from the warehouse, and make it available to the individual for inspection and/or copying at the Trademark Search Library. The file may not be removed from the premises of the Trademark Search Library.¹³²

121 Copying of Files

The Board has, on its office premises, a photocopier that is intended for use by members of the public who wish to photocopy files, exhibits, or other materials in the possession of the Board. Payment for use of the machine is made by way of a magnetic card, known as a "copy card," which may be purchased at, inter alia, the USPTO Finance Window located on the third floor of the South Tower Building, 2900 Crystal Drive, Arlington, Virginia, or from a machine located in the Trademark Search Library on the second floor of the South Tower Building. The photocopier will not operate until such a card has been inserted in it.

Electronic files can be accessed by the public through the Internet and copies of the documents in the electronic files can be downloaded and printed out by the user through TTABVUE.

Paper files or portions thereof may not be taken away from the offices of the Board, and a person who removes papers from a file for copying at the offices of the Board should always return the papers to the file in their proper order.

Alternatively, the USPTO Office of Public Records will furnish photocopies (either certified or uncertified) of trademark application and registration files, or of one or more papers therefrom, or of papers from the files of Board proceedings, upon written request and payment of the fee prescribed in 37 CFR § 2.6. The Office will also furnish, upon written request and payment of the fee prescribed in 37 CFR § 2.6, printed copies of trademark registrations, certified copies of registrations with information as to the current status and title of the registration, and abstracts of title to trademark applications and registrations.

All requests for certified and uncertified copies of trademark documents relating to applications or registrations, including copies of papers from the files of Board proceedings, and abstracts of title, are handled by the USPTO's Document Services, Office of Public Records. A written request (with the required fee) for copies should be addressed to Mail Stop Document Services, Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, P.O. Box 1450, Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450. The written request, with fee, may also be hand delivered to the Public Service Window at 2900 Crystal Drive, South Tower Building, Second Floor, Arlington, Virginia 22202-3514; or to the Office of Public Records, Crystal Gateway 4, Third Floor, 1213 Jefferson Davis Highway, Arlington, Virginia 22202-3513; or to the Attorneys' Window at 2201 S. Clark Place,

Crystal Plaza Building 4, First Floor, Arlington, Virginia 22202. Finally, if the written request includes an authorization to charge the required fee to a deposit account, the request may be sent by facsimile transmission to (703) 305-8759.¹³³ Orders may also be placed over the Internet through the Office homepage at www.uspto.gov.

122 Certification

122.01 Court Requirements

If a copy of a Board proceeding file, or a portion thereof, is needed for use before a district court, the court may require a certified copy (which bears a seal). This may be obtained from the USPTO Document Services of the Office of Public Records.

A paper cannot be certified by the Office as being a true copy of a paper filed in a Board proceeding unless and until it has, in fact, been filed therein. The paper may be filed at the same time that the request for certification is made.

122.02 Certified Copies

Certified copies, bearing a seal, of Office proceeding files, including Board proceeding files, or portions thereof, may be ordered from the USPTO's Document Services, Office of Public Records, upon written request and payment of the required fee.¹³⁴

123 Status Information for Applications, Registrations and Board Proceedings

The Office maintains a Trademark Status Line which provides access, by push-button telephone, to current status, status date (i.e., the date that a record entered its current status), and status location information for all active Federal trademark application and registration records maintained in the automated Trademark Reporting and Monitoring (TRAM) System.¹³⁵ The line is available on (703) 305-8747 from 6:30 a.m. until midnight, Eastern Time, Monday through Friday (except for Federal holidays). The Trademark Assistance Center provides general information about the registration process and can also answer status questions. The Center can be reached at 703-308-9000. Trademark application and registration information can also be obtained through the Office web site at www.uspto.gov and through the Trademark Applications

124 Action by Assignee

When a mark which is the subject of a Federal application or registration has been assigned, together with the application or registration, in accordance with Section 10 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1060, any action with respect to the application or registration which may or must be taken by the applicant or registrant may be taken by the assignee (acting itself, or through its attorney or other authorized representative), provided that the assignment has been recorded or that proof of the assignment has been submitted.¹³⁶ Similarly, when a mark which is not the subject of a Federal application or registration, but which is owned and pleaded by a plaintiff in a Board inter partes proceeding, has been assigned, the assignee may act in the proceeding (either itself, or through its attorney or other authorized representative) in place of the assignor, provided that proof of the assignment has been submitted in the proceeding.¹³⁷

NOTE: Section 10 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1060, and part 3 of 37 CFR are not applicable to 66(a) applications and registrations.¹³⁸ Except in limited circumstances, requests to record assignments of 66(a) applications and registrations must be filed directly with the International Bureau.¹³⁹ The International Bureau will notify the USPTO of any changes in ownership recorded in the International Register. The USPTO will record only those assignments, or other documents of title, that have been recorded in the International Register.¹⁴⁰

EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO OPPOSE

201 In General

15 U.S.C. § 1063(a) Any person who believes that he would be damaged by the registration of a mark upon the principal register, including as a result of dilution under section 43(c), may, upon payment of the prescribed fee, file an opposition in the Patent and Trademark Office, stating the grounds therefor, within thirty days after the publication under subsection (a) of section 12 of this Act of the mark sought to be registered. Upon written request prior to the expiration of the thirty-day period, the time for filing opposition shall be extended for an additional thirty days, and further extensions of time for filing opposition may be granted by the Director for good cause when requested prior to the expiration of an extension. The Director shall notify the applicant of each extension of the time for filing opposition. An opposition may be amended under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Director.

37 CFR § 2.101 Filing an opposition.

(a) An opposition proceeding is commenced by the filing of an opposition together with the required fee, in the Office.

(b) Any person who believes that he, she or it would be damaged by the registration of a mark on the Principal Register may file an opposition, addressed to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board. The opposition need not be verified, but must be signed by the opposer or the opposer's attorney, as specified in § 10.1(c) of this chapter, or other authorized representative, as specified in § 10.14(b) of this chapter. Electronic signatures pursuant to § 2.193(c)(1)(iii) are required for oppositions submitted electronically under paragraphs (b)(1) or (2) of this section.

(1) An opposition to an application based on section 1 or 44 of the Act must be filed either on paper or through ESTTA.

(2) An opposition to an application based on section 55(a) of the Act must be filed through ESTTA.

(c) The opposition must be filed within thirty days after publication (§ 2.80) of the application being opposed or within an extension of time (§ 2.102) for filing an opposition.

37 CFR § 2.102 Extension of time for filing an opposition.

(a) Any person who believes that he, she or it would be damaged by the registration of a mark on the Principal Register may file in the Office a written request addressed to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board to extend the time for filing an opposition. The written request need not be verified, but must be signed by the potential opposer or by the potential opposer's attorney as specified in § 10.1(c) of this chapter, or authorized representative, as specified in § 10.14(b) of this chapter. Electronic signatures pursuant to § 2.193(c)(1)(iii) are required for electronically filed extension requests.

EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO OPPOSE

- (1) A written request to extend the time for filing an opposition to an application filed under section 1 or 44 of the Act must be filed either on paper or through ESTTA.*
- (2) A written request to extend the time for filing an opposition to an application filed under section 66(a) of the Act must be filed through ESTTA.*

(b) The written request to extend the time for filing an opposition must identify the potential opposer with reasonable certainty. Any opposition filed during an extension of time should be in the name of the person to whom the extension was granted. An opposition may be accepted if the person in whose name the extension was requested was misidentified through mistake or if the opposition is filed in the name of a person in privity with the person who requested and was granted the extension of time.

(c) The time for filing an opposition shall not be extended beyond 180 days from the date of publication. Any request to extend the time for filing an opposition must be filed before thirty days have expired from the date of publication or before the expiration of a previously granted extension of time, as appropriate.

(c) The time for filing an opposition shall not be extended beyond 180 days from the date of publication. Any request to extend the time for filing an opposition must be filed before thirty days have expired from the date of publication or before the expiration of a previously granted extension of time, as appropriate. Requests to extend the time for filing an opposition must be filed as follows:

- (1) A person may file a first request for either a thirty-day extension of time, which will be granted upon request, or a ninety-day extension of time, which will be granted only for good cause shown.*
- (2) If a person was granted a thirty-day extension of time, that person may file a request for an additional sixty-day extension of time, which will be granted only for good cause shown.*
- (3) After receiving one or two extensions of time totaling ninety days, a person may file one final request for an extension of time for an additional sixty days. The Board will grant this request only upon written consent or stipulation signed by the applicant or its authorized representative, or a written request by the potential opposer or its authorized representative stating that the applicant or its authorized representative has consented to the request, or a showing of extraordinary circumstances. No further extensions of time to file an opposition will be granted under any circumstances.*

Any person (whether natural or juristic--see TBMP § 303.02) who believes that he, she, or it would be damaged by the registration of a mark upon the Principal Register may, upon payment of the prescribed fee, file an opposition in the Office, stating the grounds therefor, within 30 days after the publication of the mark in the Official Gazette for purposes of opposition.¹

EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO OPPOSE

Similarly, any person who believes that he, she, or it would be damaged by the registration of a mark upon the Principal Register may file a written request to extend the time for filing an opposition.² Requests for extensions of time to oppose are determined by the Board.³

The time for filing a request for an extension of time to oppose is governed by Section 13(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1063(a), and 37 CFR § 2.102(c). Other requirements for a request for extension of time to oppose are set forth in 37 CFR § 2.102(a) and (b). Moreover, an extension of time to oppose must also meet the general requirements for submissions to the Board specified in 37 CFR § 2.126. Each of these requirements is discussed in the sections that follow.

U.S.C. § 1063(a) Any person who believes that he would be damaged by the registration of a mark upon the principal register, including as a result of dilution under section 43(c), may, upon payment of the prescribed fee, file an opposition in the Patent and Trademark Office, stating the grounds therefor, within thirty days after the publication under subsection (a) of section 12 of this Act of the mark sought to be registered. Upon written request prior to the expiration of the thirty-day period, the time for filing opposition shall be extended for an additional thirty days, and further extensions of time for filing opposition may be granted by the Director for good cause when requested prior to the expiration of an extension. The Director shall notify the applicant of each extension of the time for filing opposition. An opposition may be amended under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Director.

37 CFR § 2.102(c) The time for filing an opposition shall not be extended beyond 180 days from the date of publication. Any request to extend the time for filing an opposition must be filed before thirty days have expired from the date of publication or before the expiration of a previously granted extension of time, as appropriate. Requests to extend the time for filing an opposition must be filed as follows:

- (1) A person may file a first request for either a thirty-day extension of time, which will be granted upon request, or a ninety-day extension of time, which will be granted only for good cause shown.*
- (2) If a person was granted a thirty-day extension of time, that person may file a request for an additional sixty-day extension of time, which will be granted only for good cause shown.*

² See Section 13(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1063(a), and 37 CFR § 2.102.

³ See 37 CFR § 2.102(a) and Cass Logistics Inc. v. McKesson Corp., 27 USPQ2d 1075, 1075 n.2 (TTAB 1993) (Trademark Rule 2.102(c) delegates the authority to the Board to grant, ex parte, extensions of time to oppose).

EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO OPPOSE

(3) After receiving one or two extensions of time totaling ninety days, a person may file one final request for an extension of time for an additional sixty days. The Board will grant this request only upon written consent or stipulation signed by the applicant or its authorized representative, or a written request by the potential opposer or its authorized representative stating that the applicant or its authorized representative has consented to the request, or a showing of extraordinary circumstances. No further extensions of time to file an opposition will be granted under any circumstances.

A first request for an extension of time to oppose an application for registration of a mark must be filed prior to the expiration of the thirty-day period after publication of the mark in the Official Gazette, pursuant to Section 12(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1062(a), for purposes of opposition. Any request for a further extension of time to oppose must be filed prior to the expiration of an extension granted to the requesting party or its privy.⁴

The timely filing of documents in the Office requires that the documents actually be received in the Office within the set time period unless such documents are filed in accordance with 37 CFR §§ 2.197 and 2.198 that provide for filing of papers by certificate of mailing and Express Mail, respectively. Documents filed in accordance with these rules are considered as having been filed on the date of deposit as first class mail or Express Mail even though the mailed correspondence will not be received in the Office until after the due date.⁵ The Express Mail filing procedure applies only to the “Express Mail” of the United States Postal Service, not any third-party carrier that offers overnight delivery.⁶ For extension requests filed electronically through ESTTA, all time periods are calculated electronically and the filer is immediately informed of the timeliness of the filing.⁷

In the event that a particular extension request submitted on paper is timely filed with an appropriate certificate of mailing, pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.197, but is not received in the Office, the correspondence will be considered timely if the party that submitted it supplies an additional copy of the previously mailed extension request and certificate, and includes a statement attesting to the previous timely mailing. The statement must be verified if it is made by a person other than a practitioner, as defined in § 37 CFR 10.1(r).⁸ The only evidence accepted by the Office to prove deposit of the missing extension request is an exact copy of the disputed document including a copy of the executed original certificate of mailing.⁹ A reconstructed request and certificate of mailing will not suffice.

A potential opposer that has filed an extension request on paper should not wait until it has received notification from the Board of the grant or denial of the request before filing an opposition or a request for a further extension of time to oppose. If a request for an extension of time to oppose is granted, the length of the granted extension may be less than that sought in the extension request. The extension will run from the expiration of the thirty-day opposition period after publication. In the case of a subsequent extension, it will run from the date of expiration of the previously granted extension.¹⁰ While the Board attempts to notify a potential opposer of the grant of an extension request filed on paper before a granted extension expires, particularly when the length of the granted extension is less than that requested, the Board is under no obligation to do so, and in many cases cannot.¹¹

No more than three requests to extend the time for filing an opposition, totaling 180 days from the date of publication, may be filed.¹² A potential opposer may file a request for a thirty-day extension without a showing of cause, followed by a request for a sixty-day extension for good cause.¹³ Alternatively, the potential opposer may file a single request for a ninety-day extension of time for good cause. After one or two granted requests totaling 120 days from the date of publication, the potential opposer may request one final extension of time for an additional sixty days, but only with the written consent of the applicant or a showing of extraordinary circumstances.¹⁴

EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO OPPOSE

202.02 Date of Publication of Mark

The date of publication of a mark is the issue date of the Official Gazette in which the mark appears, pursuant to Section 12(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1062(a), for purposes of opposition.

202.03 Premature Request

Section 13(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1063(a), provides that an opposition to the registration of a mark upon the Principal Register may be filed "within thirty days after" the publication of the mark in the Official Gazette, pursuant to Section 12(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1062(a), for opposition. Section 13(a) also provides for extensions of this time for filing an opposition under certain conditions. Thus, any opposition, and any request for an extension of time to oppose, filed before the publication of the mark sought to be opposed, is premature, and the Board will reject the opposition even if the mark has been published by the time of the Board's action.¹⁵

202.04 Late Request

A request for an extension of time to oppose must be filed prior to the expiration of the thirty-day period after publication (for opposition) of the mark which is the subject of the request, in the case of a first request, or prior to the expiration of an extension granted to the requesting party or its privy, in the case of a request for a further extension.¹⁶ Because these timeliness requirements are statutory, they cannot be waived by stipulation of the parties, nor can the Director upon petition waive them.¹⁷ Accordingly, a first request filed after the expiration of the thirty-day period following publication of the subject mark, or a request for a further extension filed after the expiration of the previous extension granted to the requesting party or its privy, must be denied by the Board as late, even if the applicant has consented to the granting of the late filed request.

Moreover, once the time for opposing the registration of a mark has expired, the Office will not withhold issuance of the registration while applicant negotiates for settlement with a party that failed to timely oppose. This is so even if the applicant itself requests that issuance be withheld.

37 CFR § 2.102(a) Any person who believes that he, she or it would be damaged by the registration of a mark on the Principal Register may file in the Office a written request addressed to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board to extend the time for filing an opposition. The written request need not be verified, but must be signed by the potential opposer or by the potential opposer's attorney as specified in § 10.1(c) of this chapter, or authorized representative, as specified in § 10.14(b) of this chapter. Electronic signatures pursuant to § 2.193(c)(1)(iii) are required for electronically filed extension requests.

(1) A written request to extend the time for filing an opposition to an application filed under section 1 or 44 of the Act must be filed either on paper or through ESTTA.

(2) A written request to extend the time for filing an opposition to an application filed under section 66(a) of the Act must be filed through ESTTA.

(b) The written request to extend the time for filing an opposition must identify the potential opposer with reasonable certainty. Any opposition filed during an extension of time should be in the name of the person to whom the extension was granted. An opposition may be accepted if the person in whose name the extension was requested was misidentified through mistake or if the opposition is filed in the name of a person in privity with the person who requested and was granted the extension of time.

(c) The time for filing an opposition shall not be extended beyond 180 days from the date of publication. Any request to extend the time for filing an opposition must be filed before thirty days have expired from the date of publication or before the expiration of a previously granted extension of time, as appropriate. Requests to extend the time for filing an opposition must be filed as follows:

(1) A person may file a first request for either a thirty-day extension of time, which will be granted upon request, or a ninety-day extension of time, which will be granted only for good cause shown.

(2) If a person was granted a thirty-day extension of time, that person may file a request for an additional sixty-day extension of time, which will be granted only for good cause shown.

(3) After receiving one or two extensions of time totaling ninety days, a person may file one final request for an extension of time for an additional sixty days. The Board will grant this request only upon written consent or stipulation signed by the applicant or its authorized representative, or a written request by the potential opposer or its authorized representative stating that the applicant or its authorized representative has consented to the request, or a showing of extraordinary circumstances. No further extensions of time to file an opposition will be granted under any circumstances.

37 CFR § 2.126 Form of submissions to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

(a) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board on paper where Board practice or the rules in this part permit. A paper submission, including exhibits and depositions, must meet the following requirements:

- (1) A paper submission must be printed in at least 11-point type and double-spaced, with text on one side only of each sheet;*
- (2) A paper submission must be 8 to 8.5 inches (20.3 to 21.6 cm.) wide and 11 to 11.69 inches (27.9 to 29.7 cm.) long, and contain no tabs or other such devices extending beyond the edges of the paper;*
- (3) If a paper submission contains dividers, the dividers must not have any extruding tabs or other devices, and must be on the same size and weight paper as the submission;*
- (4) A paper submission must not be stapled or bound;*
- (5) All pages of a paper submission must be numbered and exhibits shall be identified in the manner prescribed in §2.123(g)(2);*
- (6) Exhibits pertaining to a paper submission must be filed on paper or CD-ROM concurrently with the paper submission, and comply with the requirements for a paper or CD-ROM submission.*

* * * *

(c) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board electronically via the Internet where the rules in this part or Board practice permit, according to the parameters established by the Board and published on the web site of the Office. Text in an electronic submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced. Exhibits pertaining to an electronic submission must be made electronically as an attachment to the submission.

* * * *

A request for an extension of time to oppose must be made in writing and must specify the period of extension desired.¹⁸

A request for extension of time to oppose a Section 1 or 44 application may either be filed on paper or through ESTTA.¹⁹ However, a request for extension of time to oppose a 66(a) application must be filed through ESTTA.²⁰ The requirements for paper and electronic submissions to the Board are specified in 37 CFR § 2.126(a) and (c), respectively. Chapter 200

No more than three requests to extend the time for filing an opposition, totaling 180 days from the date of publication, may be filed.²¹ A potential opposer may file a request for a thirty-day extension without a showing of cause, followed by a request for a sixty-day extension for good cause, if the first request was granted.²² Alternatively, the potential opposer may file a single request for a ninety-day extension of time for good cause.²³ After one or two granted requests totaling 120 days from the date of publication, the potential opposer may request one final extension of time for an additional sixty days only with the written consent of the applicant or a showing of extraordinary circumstances.²⁴

203.02(a) In General

An extension request filed on paper should bear at its top the heading "IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD," followed by information identifying the application to which the request pertains, namely, the name of the applicant, and the application serial number, filing date, mark, and date of publication in the Official Gazette.²⁵ The request should also bear an appropriate title describing its nature, such as "Request for Extension of Time to Oppose" or "Request for Further Extension of Time to Oppose."

203.02(b) Requirement for Identification of Potential Opposer

A request for an extension of time to oppose must identify the potential opposer with reasonable certainty.²⁶ If a request for extension of time to oppose fails to identify the potential opposer with reasonable certainty, the Board can allow the defect to be corrected only if the correction is made prior to the expiration of the time for filing the request, that is, before the expiration of the thirty-day opposition period following publication of the subject mark in the case of a first request, or of the previous extension in the case of a request for a further extension.²⁷

If a request for a further extension of time to oppose does not specifically name the potential opposer, but it is clear from the circumstances that the request is being submitted on behalf of the same potential opposer which obtained an earlier extension, the request may be construed by the Board as identifying the potential opposer with reasonable certainty. However, the better, and safer, practice is to specifically name the potential opposer in each request for an extension of time to oppose.

203.03 Signature

37 CFR § 2.102(a) Any person who believes that he, she or it would be damaged by the registration of a mark on the Principal Register may file in the Office a written request addressed to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board to extend the time for filing an opposition. The written request need not be verified, but must be signed by the potential opposer or by the potential opposer's attorney as specified in § 10.1(c) of this chapter, or authorized representative, as specified in § 10.14(b) of this chapter. Electronic signatures pursuant to § 2.193(c)(1)(iii) are required for electronically filed extension requests.

* * * *

A request for an extension of time to oppose must be signed either by the potential opposer or by its attorney, as specified in 37 CFR § 10.1(c) or other authorized representative, as specified in 37 CFR § 10.14(b).²⁸ A paper request should bear, under the written signature, the name, in typed or printed form, of the person signing; a description of the capacity in which he or she signs (e.g., as the individual who is the potential opposer, if the potential opposer is an individual; as a corporate officer, specifying the particular office held, if the potential opposer is a corporation; as potential opposer's attorney; etc.); and his or her business address (to which

Cf. In re Su Wung Chong, 20 USPQ2d 1399, 1400 (Comm'r 1991) (inadvertence is not extraordinary circumstance to waive rule requiring that statement indicating consent or showing extraordinary circumstances for extension over 120 days must be submitted at time extension request is filed, not after the fact); In re Societe Des Produits Nestle S.A., 17 USPQ2d 1093, 1094 (Comm'r 1990) (subsequently obtained consent is not sufficient and omission, in itself, is not extraordinary circumstance to waive requirement that consent accompany extension request); and In re Software Development Systems, Inc., 17 USPQ2d 1094, 1095 (Comm'r 1989) (inadvertent oversight does not constitute extraordinary circumstance to waive [former] requirement for proof of service).

correspondence relating to the request will be sent) and telephone number. This information is required on the electronic form as well.

An extension request filed electronically through ESTTA, does not require a conventional signature. Instead the party or its representative enters a “symbol” that has been adopted as a signature. The Board will accept any combination of letters, numbers, space and/or punctuation marks as a valid signature if it is placed between two forward slash (“/”) symbols.²⁹

While a request for an extension of time to oppose must be signed, an unsigned paper request will not be refused consideration if a signed copy is submitted to the Office within the time limit set in the written notification of this defect by the Board.³⁰ A extension request filed through ESTTA cannot be electronically transmitted to the Office unless all required fields, including the signature field, are completed.

A potential opposer that has submitted an unsigned paper request should not wait until it has submitted a signed copy of the request (in response to the Board's written notification of the defect), and the Board has acted on the request, before filing an opposition or a request for a further extension of time to oppose. If the extension request is ultimately granted, the length of the granted extension may be less than that sought in the extension request, and it will run from the expiration of the thirty-day opposition period after publication, in the case of a first request, or from the date of expiration of the previously granted extension, in the case of a subsequent request. If no opposition or request for further extension of time to oppose is filed prior to the expiration of any extension ultimately granted (after submission of a signed copy of the request) to the potential opposer, the time for opposing will be deemed to have expired, and the application that was the subject of the request will be sent to issue.³¹

203.04 Service

Trademark Rule 2.119(a), 37 CFR § 2.119(a), requires, in part, that with certain stated exceptions, every paper filed in the USPTO in inter partes cases must be served upon the other parties, and that proof of such service must be made before the Board will consider the paper. Trademark Rule 2.101(a), 37 CFR § 2.101(a), provides that the filing of an opposition in the Office commences an opposition proceeding. Inasmuch as a request for an extension of time to oppose is a paper filed prior to the commencement of the opposition, it is ex parte, rather than inter partes, in nature. Accordingly, the request need not include proof of service upon the applicant.³² Once the Board has acted upon a request for an extension of time to oppose, the Board will send the applicant a copy of the extension request together with the Board's action thereon.³³

203.05 Duplicate Requests

It sometimes happens that duplicate requests for an extension of time to oppose are filed on behalf of the same party by two attorneys from the same firm, or from differing firms, or by an attorney from a firm and in-house counsel. Attorneys should make every effort to avoid the filing of such duplicate requests, which waste the time and resources, both of the Board and the attorneys.

When duplicate requests have been filed and the first request has been granted, the second request is given no consideration, and the attorneys are notified in writing of the duplicate filings and are requested to take appropriate action to avoid filing duplicate requests in the future. If requests filed by different attorneys on behalf of the same party are duplicates but for the fact that the second request seeks a longer extension than the first, the second request will be granted, if otherwise appropriate, but the attorneys will be requested in writing to avoid the filing of further duplicate requests.

There is no fee for filing a request for an extension of time to oppose.³⁴

205 Mark on Supplemental Register Not Subject to Opposition

Although the mark in an application for registration on the Principal Register is published for, and subject to, opposition, the mark in an application for registration on the Supplemental Register is not.³⁵ If it appears after examination of an application to register a mark on the Supplemental Register, that applicant is entitled to the registration; a certificate of registration is

³² See 37 CFR § 2.102(c) and, for example, In re Docrate Inc., 40 USPQ2d 1636, 1638 (Comm'r 1996) (request for extension of time aggregating more than 120 days does not have to include proof of service on applicant or applicant's attorney when the request includes a statement that applicant has consented to the extension); and *La Maur, Inc. v. issued without any publication for opposition.³⁶ Upon issuance of the registration, the mark appears in the Official Gazette, not for opposition, but rather to give notice of the registration's issuance.³⁷

Accordingly, the Board must deny any request for an extension of time to oppose the mark in an application for registration on the Supplemental Register. The remedy of the would-be opposer lies in the filing of a petition to cancel the registration of the mark, once the registration has issued.³⁸

206 Who May File an Extension of Time to Oppose

37 CFR § 2.102 Extension of time for filing an opposition.

(a) Any person who believes that he, she or it would be damaged by the registration of a mark on the Principal Register may file in the Office a written request addressed to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board to extend the time for filing an opposition.

* * * *

(b) The written request to extend the time for filing an opposition must identify the potential opposer with reasonable certainty. Any opposition filed during an extension of time should be in the name of the person to whom the extension was granted. An opposition may be accepted if the person in whose name the extension was requested was misidentified through mistake or if the opposition is filed in the name of a person in privity with the person who requested and was granted the extension of time.

206.01 General Rule

Any person (whether natural or juristic--see TBMP § 303.02) who believes that he, she, or it would will be damaged by the registration of a mark upon the Principal Register may, upon payment of the prescribed fee, file an opposition in the Office, stating the grounds therefor, within 30 days after the publication of the mark in the Official Gazette for purposes of opposition.³⁹

³⁹ See Section 13(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1063(a), and 37 CFR § 2.101. For further information concerning the filing of an opposition, see TBMP chapter 300, generally, and § 303 regarding who may file an opposition.

Similarly, any person who believes that he, she, or it would be damaged by the registration of a mark upon the Principal Register may file a written request to extend the time for filing an opposition.⁴⁰ Moreover, a request for an extension of time to oppose must identify the potential opposer with reasonable certainty.⁴¹

An extension of time to oppose is a personal privilege which inures only to the benefit of the party to which it was granted and those in privity with that party.⁴² For this reason, a request for a further extension of time to oppose, or an opposition filed during an extension of time, ordinarily must be filed in the name of the party to which the extension was granted.⁴³ A request for a further extension, or an opposition, filed in a different name will be accepted if a person in privity with the person granted the previous extension files it, or if the person that requested the extension was misidentified through mistake.⁴⁴

206.02 Request for Further Extension Filed by Privy

A request for a further extension, or an opposition, filed by a different party will not be rejected on that ground if it is shown to the satisfaction of the Board that the different party is in privity with the party granted the previous extension.⁴⁵ The "showing" should be in the form of a recitation of the facts upon which the claim of privity is based, and must be submitted either with the request or opposition, or during the time allowed by the Board in its action requesting an explanation of the discrepancy. If the request for a further extension, or the opposition, is filed both in the name of the party granted the previous extension and in the name of one or more different parties, an explanation will be requested as to each different party, and the request will not be granted, or the opposition accepted, as to any different party which fails to make a satisfactory showing of privity.

⁴² See Cass Logistics Inc. v. McKesson Corp., 27 USPQ2d 1075, 1077 (TTAB 1993) (a party cannot claim the benefit of an extension granted to another, unrelated party).

⁴⁵ See 37 CFR § 2.102(b); TMEP § 1503.04; SDT Inc. v. Patterson Dental Co., supra (licensee, as party in privity with opposer, could have joined opposer in filing opposition during extension of time to oppose); and In re Cooper, supra (two unrelated entities that merely share same objection to registration are not in privity).

In the field of trademarks, the concept of privity generally includes, inter alia, the relationship of successive ownership of a mark (e.g., assignor, assignee) and the relationship of "related companies" within the meaning of Sections 5 and 45 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1055 and 1127.⁴⁶ It does not, however, include the attorney/client relationship.⁴⁷

If, at the time when a first request for an extension of time to oppose is being prepared, it is not clear which of two or more entities will ultimately be the opposer(s), the better practice is to name each of them, in that and any subsequent extension request, as a potential opposer, thereby avoiding any need for a showing of privity when an opposition or subsequent extension request is later filed by one or more of them.

206.03 Misidentification of Potential Opposer

A request for a further extension, or an opposition, filed in a different name will not be rejected on that ground if it is shown to the satisfaction of the Board that the party in whose name the extension was requested was misidentified through mistake.⁴⁸ The phrase "misidentification by mistake," as used in 37 CFR § 2.102(b), means a mistake in the form of the potential opposer's name or its entity type, not the naming of a different existing legal entity that is not in privity with the party that should have been named.⁴⁹

207 Requirements for Showing of Cause; Extraordinary Circumstances

37 CFR § 2.102(c) The time for filing an opposition shall not be extended beyond 180 days from the date of publication. Any request to extend the time for filing an opposition must be filed before thirty days have expired from the date of publication or before the expiration of a previously granted extension of time, as appropriate. Requests to extend the time for filing an opposition must be filed as follows:

- (1) A person may file a first request for either a thirty-day extension of time, which will be granted upon request, or a ninety-day extension of time, which will be granted only for good cause shown.*
- (2) If a person was granted a thirty-day extension of time, that person may file a request for an additional sixty-day extension of time, which will be granted only for good cause shown.*
- (3) After receiving one or two extensions of time totaling ninety days, a person may file one final request for an extension of time for an additional sixty days. The Board will grant this request only upon written consent or stipulation signed by the applicant or its authorized representative, or a written request by the potential opposer or its authorized representative stating that the applicant or its authorized representative has consented to the request, or a showing of extraordinary circumstances. No further extensions of time to file an opposition will be granted under any circumstances.*

207.01 In General

The time for filing an opposition will not be extended beyond 180 days from the date of publication.⁵⁰ No more than three requests to extend the time to oppose may be filed. A potential opposer may file a first request for a thirty-day extension without a showing of cause,⁵¹ followed by a request for a sixty-day extension for good cause.⁵² Alternatively, the potential opposer may file a single request for a ninety-day extension of time for good cause.⁵³ After one or two granted requests totaling 120 days from the date of publication,⁵⁴ the potential opposer may request one final extension of time for an additional sixty days with the consent of applicant or a showing of extraordinary circumstances.⁵⁵ No further extensions of time to oppose will be permitted.

207.02 Extensions Up to 120 Days From the Date of Publication

A first extension of time to oppose for not more than thirty days will be granted upon written request, if the request is otherwise appropriate (e.g., is timely filed, identifies the potential opposer with reasonable certainty).⁵⁶ No showing of cause is required for the first thirty-day extension.⁵⁷

Following the first thirty-day extension of time to oppose, the Board may grant a further extension of time for sixty days provided good cause is shown for the further extension and the request is otherwise appropriate (e.g., is timely filed before the first thirty-day extension expires, includes a showing of privity, if necessary).⁵⁸

Alternatively, a potential opposer may request a ninety-day extension of time in the first request, provided good cause for the extension is shown. If an otherwise proper first extension request seeks an extension of ninety days, but does not include a showing of good cause for the time in excess of thirty days, the potential opposer will be granted an extension of only thirty days.⁵⁹

A showing of good cause for an extension of time to oppose over thirty days must set forth the reasons why additional time is needed for filing an opposition. Circumstances that may constitute good cause include, applicant's consent to the extension, settlement negotiations between the parties, the filing of a letter of protest by the potential opposer,⁶⁰ an amendment of the subject application,⁶¹ the filing of a petition to the Director from the grant or denial of a previous extension,⁶² and civil litigation between the parties. The merits of the potential opposition are not relevant to the issue of whether good cause exists for the requested extension.

207.03 Extensions Beyond 120 Days From the Date of Publication

The time for filing an opposition will not be extended beyond 180 days from the date of publication. After one or two granted requests totaling 120 days from the date of publication,⁶³ and prior to the expiration of the previous request, the potential opposer may request one final extension of time for an additional sixty days.⁶⁴ No further extensions of time to file an opposition will be granted under any circumstances.⁶⁵

The Board will grant this request if the potential opposer submits one of the following: (1) a written consent or stipulation signed by the applicant or its authorized representative, or (2) a written request by the potential opposer or its authorized representative stating that the applicant or its authorized representative has consented to the request,⁶⁶ or (3) a showing of extraordinary circumstances.⁶⁷ Consent must be express, though it may be provided orally, and the extension request must state that such consent has been provided. It is not sufficient to indicate in the request that the parties are discussing settlement; the request must expressly state that applicant has consented to the extension.⁶⁸ In addition, the statement of consent should appear in the body of the request, not merely in the title (e.g. "Consented Request to Extend") of the filing.

If one of these elements (i.e., the showing of extraordinary circumstances, or applicant's written consent, or the statement that applicant has consented) is omitted from an extension request based in whole or in part upon the omitted element, the Board can allow the defect to be corrected only if the correction is made prior to the expiration of the time for filing the request, that is, prior to the expiration of the previous extension.⁶⁹

NOTE: The remaining portion of this section applies only to cases where a first request for extension of time was filed before November 2, 2003. The rules and Board practice governing extensions of time to oppose that were in effect at that time (that is, prior to the November 2, 2003 rule amendments) will continue to apply to all extension requests filed in that case.

In cases where the first extension request was filed prior to November 2, 2003, the time for filing an opposition may be extended beyond 180 days. However, the time to oppose generally will not be extended beyond 360 days from the date of publication pending, for example, the final determination of another proceeding between the potential opposer and the applicant, or the conclusion of unduly prolonged settlement negotiations, or the filing of a new application, and its prosecution to publication or registration by the potential opposer or applicant.

Moreover, in addition to the requirement for consent or a showing of extraordinary circumstances, the Board will not grant an extension of time over 120 days from the date of publication unless the potential opposer submits a showing of good cause required for extensions of time beyond the first thirty-day extension period.

⁶⁹ See In re Su Wung Chong, 20 USPQ2d 1399, 1400 (Comm'r 1991) (since potential opposer failed to submit required showing of extraordinary circumstances with extension request as required by Rule 2.102(c)(3), question on petition was not whether any such extraordinary circumstances existed at time of request but instead whether potential opposer showed extraordinary circumstances existed that prevented compliance with that rule); In re Software Development Systems, Inc., 17 USPQ2d 1094, 1095 (Comm'r 1989) (inadvertent failure to provide proof of service not extraordinary circumstance to waive [former] rule requiring proof of service); and In re Societe Des Produits Nestle S.A., supra at 1094 (extraordinary circumstances not shown to waive requirement that showing of extraordinary circumstances be submitted with extension request and subsequently obtained consent insufficient). Cf. In re Spang Industries, Inc., 225 USPQ 888, 888 (Comm'r 1985) (identification of potential opposer omitted).

If an acceptable showing of extraordinary circumstances is submitted in support of a request for an extension running beyond 120 days from the date of publication, the requirement for a showing of good cause is satisfied. If a request for an extension running beyond 120 days from publication is based upon applicant's consent, but includes no recitation of other facts relating to good cause, applicant's consent will be construed as good cause for that request, but the potential opposer will be advised by the Board, in writing, that any further extension request based upon applicant's consent must include also a recitation of circumstances showing good cause for the request.

When a potential opposer files repeated extension requests based upon applicant's consent coupled with an assertion that the parties are negotiating for settlement, the Board ordinarily will require, for extensions aggregating more than 180 days from the date of publication of applicant's mark, that the extension request include also a report on the status of their settlement negotiations. In such a case, the Board, in writing, will advise potential opposer that any further extension requests made on the basis of consent and settlement negotiations should include a summary of the progress of the negotiations. If the subsequent request fails to include this summary, the request may be denied.

As a general rule, the Board will not grant extensions of time to oppose beyond 360 days from the date of publication, unless settlement has been reached and only needs to be executed. The general rule, however, will be applied flexibly and reasonably, depending upon the circumstances in a given case. For example, if a foreign party is involved, or if parties are trying to settle several cases at once, or if numerous parties are involved, more time may be allowed.

208 Essential Element Omitted

If any element (e.g., identification of potential opposer, showing of good cause, showing of extraordinary circumstances, applicant's written consent, statement that applicant has consented) essential to a particular request for extension of time to oppose is omitted from the request, the Board can allow the defect to be corrected only if the correction is made prior to the expiration of the time for filing the request, that is, prior to the expiration of the thirty-day opposition period following publication of the subject mark, in the case of a first request, or prior to the expiration of the previous extension, in the case of a request for a further extension.⁷⁰

While a request for an extension of time to oppose must be signed, an unsigned paper request will not be refused consideration if a signed copy is submitted to the Office within the time limit set in the written notification of this defect by the Board.⁷¹ Extension requests filed through

209.01 Suspension Policy

The Board will not suspend the running of an extension of time to oppose for any reason. A potential opposer must either continue to file timely requests for extensions of time, if it wishes to preserve its right to oppose, or file the notice of opposition. Once the notice of opposition is filed, however, the Board will suspend the opposition under appropriate circumstances.⁷²

209.02 Determination of Extension Expiration Date

The extension expiration date stated in an action granting an extension, is the date upon which the extension actually expires, even if that date is a Saturday, Sunday, or a Federal holiday within the District of Columbia. If the expiration date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or a Federal holiday within the District of Columbia, an opposition, or a request for a further extension, filed by the potential opposer on the next succeeding day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or a Federal holiday will be considered timely.⁷³ However, the beginning date for calculating the further extension is the actual expiration date of the previous extension, regardless of whether the expiration date fell on a weekend or Federal holiday.⁷⁴

A potential opposer may file a first request for a thirty-day extension without a showing of cause,⁷⁵ followed by a request for a sixty-day extension for good cause that is filed prior to the expiration of the first thirty-day period.⁷⁶ Alternatively, the potential opposer may file a single request for a ninety-day extension of time for good cause.⁷⁷ After one or two granted requests totaling 120 days from the date of publication,⁷⁸ and prior to the expiration of the previous extension, the potential opposer may file one final extension request for an additional sixty days with the consent of applicant or a showing of extraordinary circumstances.⁷⁹

If a first request for an extension of time to oppose asks for a time which is longer than thirty days (or seeks an extension of "thirty days," but specifies an extension expiration date which is later than the expiration date of the requested "thirty days"), and good cause is shown, the extension, if granted, will be set to expire in ninety days.⁸⁰ If good cause for the time beyond thirty days has not been shown, the time will be set to expire on the thirtieth day.⁸¹

If a further request for extension of time to oppose (that is, beyond the first thirty-day request) asks for a time which is longer or shorter than sixty days (or asks for certain number of days, but specifies an extension expiration date which is longer or shorter than the expiration date of the requested number of days), and shows good cause, the extension, if granted, will be set to expire in sixty days.

If a further request seeks an extension of time to oppose beyond 120 days from the date of publication, but specifies a date which is longer or shorter than the prescribed additional sixty day period, the extension, if granted, will be set to expire in sixty days .

210 Objections to Request

Since a request for an extension of time to oppose is ex parte in nature, there is no requirement that a copy has to be served upon the applicant.⁸² For the same reason, an applicant is not notified of the filing of an extension request before the Board has acted on it. Not until after the Board has acted on an extension request does the Board send the applicant a copy of the request (if there is no proof of service by potential opposer), together with notification of the Board's action.

An applicant may learn of the filing of an extension request, and file objections thereto, before applicant receives anything from the Board about the request. This may happen, for example, when potential opposer serves a courtesy copy of the request upon applicant. If the Board receives objections before it acts upon the request, the Board will consider them. If the objections are received after action on the request, and the request has been granted, the objections will be treated as a request for reconsideration.

An applicant that receives notification from the Board that an extension request has been filed and granted may submit objections in the form of a request for reconsideration.⁸³

Further, an applicant who receives notification from the Board that a request for extension of time to oppose has been granted may submit objections to the granting of any further extensions of time to the potential opposer. In such a case, the objections will be considered by the Board in determining any subsequent request, filed by the potential opposer, for an extension of time to oppose. If the Board does not receive objections until after it has granted a subsequent extension request, they will be treated as a request for reconsideration of the Board's action.

Any document objecting to a request for an extension of time to oppose, or to the granting of any further extensions of time to oppose, should state clearly the reasons for objection. There is no requirement that the document be served upon the potential opposer. If there is no indication that service has been made, the Board will send potential opposer a copy of the document together with the Board's action on the extension request, or, if the document is treated by the Board as a request for reconsideration, with the Board's action on the request for reconsideration.

211.01 Request for Reconsideration

If an applicant or potential opposer is dissatisfied with an action of the Board on a request for an extension of time to oppose, it may file a request for reconsideration of the action, stating the reasons. The request should be filed promptly after the filing party receives the Board's action.

A request for reconsideration of a Board action relating to a request for an extension of time to oppose is examined by one of the Board's administrative staff members, who will prepare an action granting or denying the request. One copy of the action is entered in the file of the subject application, one copy is sent to the applicant, and one copy is sent to the potential opposer.

There is no requirement that a request for reconsideration be served upon the nonfiling party. If there is no indication that service has been made, the Board will send the nonfiling party a copy of the request together with that party's copy of the Board's action granting or denying the request.

⁸³ For information concerning a request for reconsideration of an action of the Board relating to a request for extension of time to oppose, see TBMP § 211.01.

EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO OPPOSE

The filing of a request for reconsideration of the denial, or the granting, of a request for an extension of time to oppose does not relieve the potential opposer of the responsibility of filing an opposition, or a request for a further extension of time to oppose, before the expiration of the relevant extension.⁸⁴

211.02 Relief after Institution of Opposition

If an applicant is dissatisfied with an action of the Board on a request for an extension of time to oppose and the opposition has been filed and instituted, the applicant may raise the issue by means of a motion to dismiss the opposition for lack of jurisdiction.⁸⁵

211.03 Petition to the Director

If an applicant or potential opposer is dissatisfied with an action of the Board on a request for an extension of time to oppose, it may file a petition to the Director, pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.146, for review of the action in question.⁸⁶

The petition to the Director must include a statement of the facts relevant to the petition; the points to be reviewed; the action or relief requested; and the requisite fee, as specified in 37 CFR § 2.6. Any brief in support of the petition must be embodied in or accompany the petition. If facts are to be proved, the proof must be in the form of affidavits or declarations in accordance with 37 CFR § 2.20, and these affidavits or declarations, with any exhibits thereto, must accompany the petition.⁸⁷

A petition from the grant or denial of a request for an extension of time to oppose must be filed within 15 days from the mailing date of the grant or denial of the request.⁸⁸ A petition from the denial of a request must be served on the attorney or other authorized representative of the applicant, if any, or on the applicant.⁸⁹ A petition from the grant of a request must be served on the attorney or other authorized representative of the opposer, if any, or on the opposer.⁹⁰ Proof of service of the petition must be made as provided in 37 CFR § 2.119(a).⁹¹ The potential opposer or the applicant, as the case may be, may file a response within 15 days from the date of service of the petition.⁹² A copy of the response must be served upon the petitioner, with proof of service as provided by 37 CFR § 2.119(a). No further document relating to the petition may be filed.⁹³

The filing of a petition by the potential opposer from the denial, or by the applicant from the granting, of a request for an extension of time to oppose, does not relieve the potential opposer of the responsibility of filing an opposition, or a request for a further extension of time to oppose, prior to the expiration of the extension which is the subject of the petition.⁹⁴ The filing of a petition will constitute good cause for extensions of time to oppose aggregating up to 120 days from the date of publication of the mark, but will not constitute extraordinary circumstances justifying an extension of time beyond 120 days from publication.

If the petition is resolved unfavorably to opposer during the running of an extension of time, any opposition or request for further extension of time to oppose filed during or after the extension period in question will be rejected as untimely.

If opposer files a timely opposition during the pendency of its petition to the Director, the Board will institute the opposition. At the same time, the Board will normally suspend the opposition pending resolution of the petition. If, along with the notice of opposition, the opposer files a motion to suspend the opposition, citing the pending petition as the reason for suspension, the Board will institute the opposition, grant the motion to suspend, and state that the opposition is suspended pending resolution of the petition to the Director. A copy of the Board's action will be sent to both parties and a copy of the notice, along with a copy of the motion to suspend, will be sent to the applicant.

If the decision on the petition is unfavorable to opposer, the opposition will be dismissed as a nullity, and the fee will be refunded.

Chapter 200 EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO OPPOSE

212 Amendment of Application During or After Extension

212.01 Jurisdiction to Consider Amendment

The Board has no jurisdiction over an application unless and until the application becomes involved in a Board inter partes proceeding.⁹⁵ In the absence of an inter partes proceeding, the Board has jurisdiction only over matters relating to any requested extension(s) of time to oppose.

Thus, if, in an application which is the subject of a request for an extension of time to oppose, an amendment or other paper (such as a request for republication, a request for reconsideration of a refusal to approve an amendment) relating to the application is filed by the applicant, and the application is not involved in any Board inter partes proceeding, it is the examining attorney who must determine the propriety of the amendment or other paper.⁹⁶

However, the Board does determine the propriety of a request filed by an attorney or other authorized representative to withdraw as applicant's representative, in an application which is the subject of a request for an extension of time to oppose. The Board has jurisdiction to consider the request to withdraw as representative in such a case, because applicant's representative of record acts in applicant's behalf in matters relating to the requested extension(s) of time to oppose.

Any amendment proposed by an applicant, whether of its own volition or to accommodate a concern of a potential opposer must be sent to the Board's attention, not to the examining attorney who approved the mark for publication. The Board will note the amendment and transfer the file to the examining attorney. Because the examining attorney eventually will consider the amendment, any phone inquiry for discussion of the content of the amendment should be directed to the examining attorney.

212.02 Conditions for Examining Attorney Approval of Amendment

During the time between the publication of a mark in the Official Gazette for opposition, and the printing of a certificate of registration or notice of allowance, an application not involved in an inter partes proceeding before the Board may be amended upon request by the applicant, provided that the amendment does not necessitate issuance of a refusal or requirement by the Examining Attorney. If a refusal or requirement by the Examining Attorney would be needed,

the amendment cannot be made unless applicant (1) successfully petitions the Director to restore jurisdiction over the application to the Examining Attorney for consideration of the amendment and further examination, and (2) is able to satisfy any requirement or overcome any refusal asserted in any Office action issued after the restoration of jurisdiction.⁹⁷

Examples of the types of amendments which may be made under the conditions described above include acceptable amendments to the identification of goods, to the drawing, to add a disclaimer, and (in the case of an application under Section 1(a) of the Act, or an application under Section 1(b) of the Act in which an acceptable amendment to allege use has been filed, or an application under Section 44 or 66(a) of the Act in which an appropriate allegation of use has been made), to convert an application for an unrestricted registration to one for concurrent use registration.⁹⁸

An applicant who files an amendment to its application during an extension of time to oppose need not have potential opposer's consent thereto.

212.03 Form of Amendment

An amendment or other paper relating to an application which is the subject of a request for an extension of time to oppose should be in the normal form for an amendment or other document relating to an application, except that it should be directed to the attention of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (i.e., Commissioner for Trademarks, 2900 Crystal Drive, Arlington, Virginia 22202-3514).

212.04 Action by Board -- Upon Receipt of Amendment

When an amendment relating to an application which is the subject of a request for an extension of time to oppose is received by the Board, a Board administrative staff member will issue an action acknowledging receipt of the amendment, transferring the application file to the examining attorney for consideration of the amendment, and explaining the effect the filing of the amendment has on the extension of time to oppose.⁹⁹

⁹⁸ See In re MCI Communications Corp., 21 USPQ2d 1534, 1539 (Comm'r 1991) (disclaimer). Cf. In re Little Caesar Enterprises, Inc., 48 USPQ2d 1222 (Comm'r 1998) (regarding request to divide certain items out of a class of goods during extension of time to oppose, and petition to waive rule requiring that request to divide be filed before application is approved for publication) and TMEP § 1505.01 regarding approval of amendments after publication.

EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO OPPOSE

If an amendment is filed during the running of a well taken request for an extension of time, the action will acknowledge receipt of the amendment; note that the amendment requires consideration by the examining attorney; approve the extension (or if already approved, note that potential opposer has been granted an extension of time to oppose until a specified date); indicate the application is transferred to the examining attorney for consideration of the amendment; instruct the examining attorney to act on the amendment (either by approving it for entry or by telephoning the applicant, explaining why the amendment cannot be approved, and placing a record of the telephone call in the file), and then return the application to the Board; and indicate that after the application has been returned to the Board, further appropriate action will be taken with respect to the potential opposition. The action will also advise potential opposer that the filing of the amendment does not relieve the potential opposer of the responsibility of filing an opposition, or, if appropriate, a further request for extension of time to oppose, prior to the expiration of the previous request.

If an amendment is filed after the expiration of potential opposer's extension of time to oppose, and no opposition or request for a further extension of time to oppose has been timely filed, the Board's action will acknowledge receipt of the amendment; note that the amendment requires consideration by the examining attorney; indicate that potential opposer's extension of time to oppose has expired, and that no opposition or request for a further extension of time to oppose has been timely filed; forward the application to the examining attorney for consideration of the amendment; and state that the examining attorney may treat the amendment in the same manner as any amendment after publication¹⁰⁰ and need not return the application to the Board after consideration of the amendment.

If an amendment is filed prior to action by the Board on a request for an extension of time to oppose, and the request is not granted, the action will acknowledge receipt of the request and the amendment; note that the amendment requires consideration by the examining attorney; deny the request; forward the application to the examining attorney for consideration of the amendment; and state that the examining attorney may treat the amendment in the same manner as any amendment after publication¹⁰¹ and need not return the application to the Board after consideration of the amendment.

If an amendment is filed after a request for an extension of time to oppose has been denied by the Board, but before the Board has forwarded the application to issue, the action will acknowledge receipt of the amendment; note that the amendment requires consideration by the examining attorney; indicate that potential opposer's request for an extension of time to oppose has been denied; forward the application to the examining attorney for consideration of the amendment; and state that the examining attorney may treat the amendment in the same manner as any amendment after publication¹⁰² and need not return the application to the Board after consideration of the amendment.

When the Board's action is complete, one copy is entered in the file of the subject application, one copy is sent to the applicant, and one copy each of the amendment and letter is sent to the potential opposer. The application is then forwarded to the examining attorney for consideration of the amendment.

If an amendment is filed prior to the Board's institution of a timely opposition, the Board will institute the opposition, and at the same time suspend the opposition pending consideration of the amendment by the examining attorney.

212.05 Action by Board -- During Consideration of Amendment by Examining Attorney

The filing of the amendment will be considered good cause for extensions of time to oppose aggregating up to 120 days from the date of publication of the mark, but it will not constitute extraordinary circumstances justifying an extension of time beyond 120 days from publication.

If a timely opposition is filed while the amendment is still pending before the examining attorney, the Board will institute the opposition, and at the same time the Board will normally suspend the opposition pending consideration of the amendment by the examining attorney. If, along with the notice of opposition, the opposer files a motion to suspend the opposition, citing the pending amendment as the reason for suspension, the Board will institute the opposition, grant the motion to suspend, and state that the opposition is suspended pending consideration of the amendment by the examining attorney. A copy of the institution order will be sent to both parties, and a copy of the notice of opposition and any motion to suspend will be sent to the applicant.

212.06 Action by Board -- After Consideration of Amendment by Examining Attorney

When an amendment in an application which is the subject of an extension of time to oppose is forwarded to the examining attorney for consideration, the examining attorney acts on the amendment, either by approving it for entry or by telephoning the applicant, explaining why the amendment cannot be approved and placing a record of the telephone call in the file.¹⁰³ The examining attorney then returns the application to the Board (unless the time for opposing expired prior to the filing of the amendment).

EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO OPPOSE

If the application is returned to the Board during the running of a well taken request for an extension of time, a Board administrative staff member will issue an action approving the extension (or, if already approved, noting that potential opposer has been granted an extension of time to oppose until a specified date); indicating whether or not the amendment was approved; and taking further appropriate action relating thereto.

For example, sometimes a potential opposer, in a request for an extension of time to oppose or in a separate document, states that it has agreed not to oppose if applicant's application is amended in a certain manner. If the amendment submitted by applicant conforms to the agreement and the examining attorney approves it, the Board's action will indicate that the amendment has been approved; that potential opposer has agreed not to oppose if the amendment is approved; and that the application is accordingly being forwarded to issue. If the amendment was not approved, the action will so state, and potential opposer will be advised that it will need to continue to file timely requests for extensions of time or file its notice of opposition.

If there is no statement by potential opposer that it will not oppose if the amendment submitted by applicant is approved, the Board's action will state whether the amendment was approved, and will advise the potential opposer that it will need to continue to file timely requests for extensions of time, or file its notice of opposition.

Sometimes an examining attorney considering an amendment to an application that is the subject of an extension of time to oppose, does not approve the amendment submitted by the applicant, but instead makes a different amendment by Examiner's Amendment.¹⁰⁴ In such a case, the Board, in its action, will so state; specify the amendment made by Examiner's Amendment; and advise potential opposer that it will need to continue to file timely requests for extensions of time, or file its notice of opposition.

When the Board's action is complete, one copy is entered in the file of the subject application, one copy is sent to the applicant, and one copy is sent to the potential opposer.

If an opposition was instituted prior to the examining attorney's action on the amendment, and the amendment is subsequently approved, the Board will prepare an action notifying the parties that the amendment was approved; advising the parties that the opposition will go forward on the basis of the application as amended; allowing opposer time to indicate whether it wishes to proceed with the opposition on that basis, or to have the opposition dismissed as a nullity and the fee refunded; and suspending the opposition (or continuing suspension) pending opposer's response to the Board's action. If opposer chooses to go forward, proceedings in the opposition will be resumed and appropriate dates will be set. If the amendment is not approved, the parties will be so advised, and proceedings will be resumed with appropriate dates set.

EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO OPPOSE

212.07 Amendment During Opposition

If an amendment is filed in an application that is the subject of an opposition, the Board has jurisdiction over the application and will determine the propriety of the amendment. Once an opposition has commenced, the application that is the subject of the opposition may not be amended in substance, except with the consent of the other party or parties and the approval of the Board, or except upon motion granted by the Board.¹⁰⁵

213 Effect of Restoration of Jurisdiction

If the Examining Attorney wishes to refuse registration or make a requirement in an application that is the subject of a request for an extension of time to oppose, the examining attorney must request the Director to restore jurisdiction over the application to the examining attorney for that purpose.¹⁰⁶ If the application is also the subject of an opposition, the examining attorney's request for jurisdiction must be directed to the Board.¹⁰⁷ It should be noted that because an application under Section 66(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1141f, is time-sensitive, the granting of a request to return a 66(a) application to the examination process is unlikely.¹⁰⁸

A request for jurisdiction that is granted during an unexpired extension of time to oppose, does not relieve the potential opposer of the responsibility of filing an opposition, or a request for a further extension of time to oppose, before the expiration of the previous request. After the Board learns that the examining attorney's jurisdiction has been restored, a Board administrative staff member will prepare an action advising potential opposer and applicant thereof and taking further appropriate action. Examples are described below.

If the restoration of jurisdiction occurs during the running of an extension of time to oppose, the action will inform the potential opposer and applicant that jurisdiction over the application has been restored to the examining attorney; approve the extension of time, if appropriate (or, if already approved, note that potential opposer has been granted an extension of time to oppose until a specified date); instruct the examining attorney that if the application is subsequently approved, and the mark is not republished, the application must be returned to the Board; and advise potential opposer that the restoration of jurisdiction does not relieve the potential opposer of the responsibility of filing an opposition, or a further request for extension of time to oppose, prior to the expiration of the previous request.

¹⁰⁷ See 37 CFR § 2.130 and TMEP § 1504.02.

¹⁰⁸ Should such a request be granted, the time to file a timely opposition continues to run.

EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO OPPOSE

The restoration of jurisdiction (or the filing of a request for jurisdiction) will constitute good cause for extensions of time to oppose aggregating up to 120 days from the date of publication of the mark, but will not constitute extraordinary circumstances justifying an extension of time beyond 120 days from publication.

One copy of the Board's action will be entered in the file of the subject application, one copy will be sent to the applicant, and one copy each of the Board's action and of the examining attorney's office action will be mailed to the potential opposer.

If, during the running of an extension of time, the examining attorney approves the application, and the mark is not republished, the Board administrative staff member will issue an action so advising the potential opposer and applicant. The action will also approve the extension of time, if appropriate (or, if already approved, note that potential opposer has been granted an extension of time to oppose until a specified date). If the mark is republished, or if registration is ultimately denied, the extension request, if not yet approved, will be moot. No further extension of the original opposition period will be granted. Rather, a potential opposer's time for opposing will recommence on the date of republication.

If a timely opposition is filed while the question of registrability is still before the examining attorney, the Board will institute the opposition. At the same time, the Board will normally suspend proceedings until the registrability of the mark has been finally determined. If, along with the notice of opposition, the opposer files a motion to suspend the opposition, citing the restoration of jurisdiction as the reason for suspension, the Board will institute the opposition, grant the motion to suspend, and indicate that the opposition is suspended pending final determination of the registrability of the mark. A copy of the Board's action will be sent to both parties and a copy of the notice of opposition, along with a copy of any motion to suspend, will be sent to the applicant.

If the examining attorney subsequently approves the application, and the mark is republished, and if the change reflected in the republication is one that might have an effect upon the opposition, the Board will issue an action notifying opposer and applicant of the republication, and of the reason therefor; explain that the opposition will be determined on the basis of applicant's correct (or amended) mark, goods or services, disclaimer status, etc.; and allow opposer time to indicate whether it wishes to proceed with the opposition on that basis, or to have its opposition fee refunded, and the opposition dismissed as a nullity. If opposer chooses to go forward, proceedings in the opposition will be resumed and appropriate dates will be set.

If registration is ultimately denied, the opposition will not be instituted, or if already instituted, will be dismissed as a nullity and the fee refunded.

214 Effect of Republication

The examining attorney may determine that an application filed under Section 1 or 44 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1051 or 1126, that is the subject of a request for an extension of time to oppose must be republished. This may happen, for example, when the mark was originally published in the wrong class; when the goods or services, although properly identified in the application itself, were published incorrectly; when a disclaimer was mistakenly included in the original publication; or when the application has been amended after publication (but before the filing of an opposition), and the amendment is of such nature as to require republication.¹⁰⁹ Republication may not be available to applications filed under Section 66(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1141f, due to the time requirements of the Madrid Protocol.¹¹⁰

If a mark is republished by order of the examining attorney, any opposition filed during the original thirty-day opposition period, or within a granted extension thereof, is considered by the Board to be timely. If the change reflected in the republication is one that might have an effect upon the opposition, the Board will issue an action notifying opposer and applicant of the republication, and of the reason therefor; explain that the opposition will be determined on the basis of applicant's correct (or amended) mark, goods or services, disclaimer status, etc.; and allow opposer time to indicate whether it wishes to proceed with the opposition on that basis, or to have its opposition fee refunded, and the opposition not instituted.

However, once the Board learns that a mark that is the subject of a request for an extension of time to oppose has been or will be republished by order of the examining attorney, no further extension of the original opposition period will be granted. Rather, a potential opposer's time for opposing will recommence with the republication of applicant's mark. Thus, if there is a pending request for an extension of time to oppose, a Board administrative staff member will issue an action notifying potential opposer and applicant of the republication and taking appropriate action with respect to the extension request. Normally, the extension request will be deemed moot. However, if the extension request was filed within thirty days after the date of republication, it may be treated as a request for an extension of the new opposition period.

If there has been an error in the first publication, or the application has been amended thereafter, republication is often necessary in order to give potential opposers fair notice of the registration sought by applicant. Sometimes, however, a mark that has been published correctly, and has not been amended thereafter, is republished not because there is any need for republication, but by inadvertence. When there is no need for republication, and a mark is republished solely by mistake (as, for example, when an application has survived an opposition, and is ready to go to issue, but is inadvertently sent to publication rather than to issue), the application may not properly be subjected to another opposition period.

¹⁰⁹ See TMEP § 1505.01. See also, for example, Groening v. Missouri Botanical Garden, 59 USPQ2d 1601, 1603 (Comm'r 1999) (mark originally published in wrong class may be amended by examining attorney to the correct class and republished in the correct class without either applicant's approval or a restoration of jurisdiction).

Accordingly, when it comes to the attention of the Board that an application has been republished by mistake, the Board will not entertain any opposition or request for an extension of time to oppose filed in response to the republication. An opposition filed in response to the inadvertent republication will be returned to the opposer, and the opposition fee will be refunded. The remedy of a would-be opposer or potential opposer in such a case lies in the filing of a petition for cancellation, under Section 14 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1064, after applicant's registration has been issued.

215 Effect of Letter of Protest

A third party that has knowledge of facts bearing upon the registrability of a mark in a pending application may bring such information to the attention of the Office by filing, with the Office of the Commissioner for Trademarks, a "letter of protest," that is, a letter that recites the facts and is accompanied by supporting evidence.¹¹¹ The Administrator for Trademark Identifications, Classifications and Practice (Administrator) will determine whether the letter of protest should be "granted," that is, whether the information should be given to the examining attorney for consideration.¹¹²

A letter of protest may be filed either before or after publication of the subject mark for opposition. However, a letter of protest filed after publication ordinarily must be filed within thirty days after publication in order to be considered timely.¹¹³ Moreover, even if the Director decides to grant a post-publication letter of protest, the examining attorney cannot consider the submitted information unless the Commissioner for Trademarks, upon written request by the Administrator, concurs in the decision to grant the letter of protest and restores jurisdiction over

¹¹³ See In re G. Heileman Brewing Co., Inc., 34 USPQ2d 1476, 1478 (Comm'r 1994) (letter of protest, filed more than a year after publication and accompanied by evidence of descriptiveness which was available 2 months prior to publication, was untimely); In re BPJ Enterprises Ltd., supra (filed 44 days after publication but before timeliness standard enunciated); In re Pohn, supra; and TMEP § 1715.03.

the application to the examining attorney.¹¹⁴ If the application is the subject of an opposition, the request for jurisdiction should be directed to the Board.¹¹⁵

The filing of a letter of protest does not stay the time for filing an opposition to the subject mark, regardless of when the letter of protest was filed.¹¹⁶ If a party that files a letter of protest after publication wishes to preserve its right to oppose in the event that the letter of protest is denied, it must file a timely request for an extension of time to oppose.¹¹⁷

If a potential opposer indicates, in a first or a subsequent request for an extension of time to oppose, that it has filed a letter of protest (not yet determined by the Administrator) with respect to the subject mark (even if filed more than thirty days after publication) such filing will constitute good cause for extensions of time to oppose aggregating up to 120 days from the date of publication of the mark. However, the filing will not constitute extraordinary circumstances justifying an extension of time beyond 120 days from publication.

The filing by a third party of a letter of protest (not yet determined by the Administrator), with respect to a mark that is the subject of a request for an extension of time to oppose, will not be considered by the Board to constitute good cause for the granting of an extension to the potential opposer.

Following determination of a letter of protest filed with respect to an application that is the subject of a request for an extension of time to oppose, the Board will take further appropriate action. Examples are described below.

Often, when the application comes to the Board for further appropriate action, the letter of protest has been granted; jurisdiction over the application has been restored to the examining attorney; and the examining attorney has issued an Office action asserting a refusal or a requirement. If a well-taken request for an extension of time to oppose is running at this time, a Board administrative staff member will prepare an action notifying the potential opposer and applicant that the letter of protest has been granted; that jurisdiction over the application has been restored to the examining attorney; that an Office action has been issued by the examining attorney; that the extension request is approved (or, if already approved, that potential opposer has been granted an extension of time to oppose until a specified date); that if the application is subsequently approved, and the mark is not republished, that the application must be returned to the Board; and that the filing of the amendment does not relieve the potential opposer of the responsibility of filing an opposition, or a further request for extension of time to oppose, prior to the expiration of the previous request.

If, during the running of a well taken request for an extension of time, the examining attorney ultimately approves the application, and the mark is not republished, the Board administrative staff member will issue an action so advising potential opposer and applicant and approving the extension of time (or, if already approved, noting that potential opposer has been granted an extension of time to oppose until a specified date). If the mark is republished, or if registration is ultimately denied, the extension request, if not yet granted, will be moot. No further extension of the original opposition period will be granted. Rather a potential opposer's time for opposing will recommence on the date of republication.

If, during the running of an extension of time, the letter of protest is denied, the Board will so advise potential opposer and applicant and take appropriate action on the extension request.

One copy of the Board's action will be entered in the file of the subject application, one copy will be sent to the applicant, and one copy each of the Board's action and of the examining attorney's Office action will be sent to the potential opposer.

If opposer files a timely opposition while its letter of protest is pending (or if the letter of protest is granted, while the question of registrability is still before the examining attorney), the Board will institute the opposition. At the same time, however, the Board will normally suspend the opposition until the letter of protest is decided (or, if the letter of protest has already been granted, until the registrability of the mark has been finally determined). If, along with the notice of opposition, the opposer files a motion to suspend the opposition, citing the filing of its letter of protest (or the restoration of jurisdiction) as the reason for suspension, the Board will institute the opposition, grant the motion to suspend, and state that the opposition is suspended pending a decision on the letter of protest (or if the letter of protest has already been granted, pending final determination of the application before the examining attorney). A copy of the Board's letter will be sent to both parties, and a copy of the notice of opposition along with a copy of any motion to suspend will be sent to the applicant.

If the examining attorney subsequently approves the application, and the mark is republished, and if the change reflected in the republication is one that might have an effect upon the opposition, the Board will issue an action notifying opposer and applicant of the republication. The Board will inform them of the reason for republication; explain that the opposition will be determined on the basis of applicant's correct (or amended) mark, goods or services, disclaimer status, etc.; and allow the opposer time to indicate whether it wishes to proceed with the opposition on that basis, or to have its opposition fee refunded and the opposition dismissed as a nullity. If opposer chooses to go forward, proceedings in the opposition will be resumed, and appropriate dates will be set.

EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO OPPOSE

If registration is ultimately denied, the opposition will not be instituted, or if already instituted, will be dismissed as a nullity and the fee refunded.

216 Inadvertently Issued Registration

Sometimes a registration is issued, mistakenly, from an application that, at the time of such issuance, is the subject of an unexpired extension of time to oppose, or a timely opposition. Such a registration is called an "inadvertently issued" registration.

The Board is without authority, within the context of either an extension of time to oppose, or an opposition proceeding, to cancel an inadvertently issued registration and restore it to application status. Rather, it is the Director who has such authority, and the Director exercises this authority with caution.¹¹⁸ A registration will ordinarily be deemed to have been issued inadvertently if a notice of opposition or a request for extension of time to oppose was timely and properly filed but inadvertently overlooked by the Board.¹¹⁹ The Director will not find that a registration issued inadvertently if (1) the notice of opposition was defective in some manner, and (2) that defect prevented the Office from identifying the application in question, and from withholding the issuance of a registration.¹²⁰

Accordingly, when it comes to the attention of the Board that a registration has issued inadvertently from an application that is the subject of an unexpired extension of time to oppose, the Board will issue an action approving the extension of time, if appropriate (or, if already approved, noting that potential opposer has been granted an extension of time to oppose until a specified date), and advising potential opposer that if it wishes to preserve its right to oppose should the registration be cancelled as inadvertently issued, potential opposer must continue to file further timely requests for extensions of time to oppose, or it must file the notice of opposition. The Board will then forward the registration file to the Director for such action, as the Director deems appropriate. The Director, in turn, may either cancel the registration as inadvertently issued, and restore it to application status, or decline to do so.

The inadvertent issuance of the registration will be considered good cause for extensions of time to oppose aggregating up to 120 days from the date of publication of the mark, but it will not constitute extraordinary circumstances justifying an extension of time beyond 120 days from publication.

¹¹⁹ See Quality S. Manufacturing Inc. v. Tork Lift Central Welding of Kent, Inc., 60 USPQ2d 1703, 1704 (Comm'r 2000).

¹²⁰ See Quality S. Manufacturing Inc. v. Tork Lift Central Welding of Kent, Inc., supra at 1704 (where notice of opposition misidentified the serial number of opposed application, Director declined to cancel registration finding that error which caused the registration to issue was made by opposer not as result of inadvertent act by the Office).

EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO OPPOSE

If, during the running of an extension of time, the Director cancels and restores to application status a registration that issued inadvertently during an extension of time to oppose, the potential opposer and applicant will be informed of the inadvertent issuance of the registration, its cancellation by the Director, and the status of the extension request in an action prepared by a Board administrative staff member.

If a registration that issued inadvertently during an extension of time to oppose is not cancelled by the Director and restored to application status, any opposition that may have been filed by the potential opposer will be returned, and any submitted opposition fee will be refunded. The potential opposer's substantive remedy will, under the statute, be through a petition to cancel the registration.

If a timely opposition is filed while the matter of the registration is pending before the Director, the Board will institute the opposition. At the same time, however, the Board will normally suspend the opposition until the matter is resolved. If, along with the notice of opposition, the opposer files a motion to suspend the opposition, citing the inadvertently issued registration as the reason for suspension, the Board will institute the opposition, grant the motion to suspend, and state that the opposition is suspended pending a decision on the matter of the registration. A copy of the Board's action will be sent to both parties, and a copy of the notice of opposition, will be sent to the applicant with a copy of any motion to suspend.

If the Director cancels and restores the registration to application status, the opposition will be resumed and appropriate dates will be set. If the Director declines to cancel the registration, the opposition will be dismissed as a nullity and the fee will be refunded.

If a registration issues inadvertently during a timely opposition, the Director normally will cancel the registration as inadvertently issued, and restore it to application status. However, if the opposition has already been finally determined in applicant's favor when the inadvertent issuance is discovered, applicant may either keep the registration, or request that it be cancelled as inadvertently issued, restored to application status, and then reissued.

217 Relinquishment of Extension

If a potential opposer whose request for an extension of time to oppose is pending, or whose granted extension has not yet expired, files a letter notifying the Board that it will not oppose, the Board will immediately forward to issue the application that was the subject of the request or extension.

If a potential opposer that has requested or obtained an extension of time to oppose thereafter agrees unconditionally in writing not to oppose, applicant may submit a copy of the agreement to the Board, with an appropriate cover letter bearing proof of service upon potential opposer, and the Board will immediately forward the subject application to issue.¹²¹

EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO OPPOSE

218 Abandonment of Application

If an applicant files an express abandonment of an application that is the subject of a pending or granted request for extension of time to oppose, or if a 66(a) application that is the subject of a pending or granted request for extension of time to oppose is abandoned by the Office as the result of cancellation of the underlying international registration,¹²² the application stands abandoned and any pending request for an extension of time to oppose is moot. An application that has been abandoned is no longer subject to the filing of a new opposition. Any opposition filed on or after the filing date of the abandonment will be returned by the Board to the opposer, and the opposition fee will be refunded.¹²³

The abandonment of an application that is not the subject of an inter partes proceeding before the Board (i.e., an opposition, interference, or concurrent use proceeding) is without prejudice to the applicant. It is not necessary that applicant obtain a potential opposer's consent thereto.¹²⁴

In contrast, after the commencement of an opposition, interference, or concurrent use proceeding, if an applicant files an express abandonment of its application (or if a 66(a) application is abandoned by the Office as the result of cancellation of the underlying international registration) without the written consent of every adverse party to the proceeding, judgment will be entered against the applicant.¹²⁵ However, if an application is abandoned after the commencement of an opposition, interference, or concurrent use proceeding, but before applicant has been notified thereof by the Board, the applicant will be given an opportunity to obtain the written consent of every adverse party, or to withdraw the abandonment and litigate the proceeding, failing which judgment shall be entered against applicant.¹²⁶

¹²¹ Cf. TBMP § 212.06 (Action by Board—After Consideration of Amendment).

¹²² If an international registration is cancelled by the International Bureau for any reason, the IB will notify the USPTO and the USPTO will abandon the corresponding 66(a) application. See 37 CFR § 7.30.

EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO OPPOSE

An applicant may expressly abandon its application by filing in the Office a written statement of abandonment or withdrawal of the application, signed by the applicant or by the applicant's attorney or other authorized representative.¹²⁷

When an applicant files an express abandonment of an application that is the subject of a pending or granted request for extension of time to oppose, or a 66(a) application is abandoned by the Office as the result of cancellation of the underlying international registration, a Board administrative staff member will prepare a letter acknowledging the abandonment, and notifying potential opposer that the application is no longer subject to the filing of a new opposition.

219 Amendment to Allege Use; Statement of Use

An amendment to allege use under Section 1(c) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(c), filed in an intent-to-use application (i.e., an application under Section 1(b) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(b)) after approval for publication, is late-filed.¹²⁸ Thus, an amendment to allege use filed during an extension of time to oppose or during an opposition is late-filed.

A statement of use under Section 1(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(d), is premature if it is filed in an intent-to-use application prior to the issuance of a notice of allowance under Section 13(b)(2) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1063(b)(2).¹²⁹ A notice of allowance is issued in an intent-to-use application (for which no amendment to allege use has been timely filed and accepted) only after the time for opposing has expired and all oppositions filed have been dismissed.¹³⁰ Thus, a statement of use filed during an extension of time to oppose or during an opposition is premature.

Any late-filed amendment to allege use or premature statement of use will be returned to the applicant, and any fee submitted therewith will be refunded.¹³¹

If an intent-to-use application has been published and is under a well taken request for an extension of time to oppose when a timely filed amendment to allege use (i.e., an amendment to allege use filed prior to approval for publication) is associated with the application, the Board will issue an action approving the extension of time (or, if already approved, noting that potential opposer has been granted an extension of time to oppose until a specified date) and advise the potential opposer that if it wishes to preserve its right to oppose should the amendment to allege use be ultimately withdrawn by the applicant or approved by the examining attorney, the potential opposer must continue to file further timely requests for extensions of time to oppose, or it must file the notice of opposition.

The Board will then return the application to the trademark examining attorney for appropriate action with respect to the amendment to allege use. The examining attorney, in turn, will process the amendment to allege use in the same manner¹³² as any other timely filed amendment to allege use that is not associated with the application file until after publication. In the event that the amendment to allege use is ultimately withdrawn by the applicant, or approved by the examining attorney, the examining attorney should return the application to the Board (before any scheduled republication of applicant's mark) for further appropriate action with respect to the extension of time to oppose.¹³³ If the application is abandoned while it is before the examining attorney, the Board should be notified.

The filing of the amendment to allege use will be considered good cause for extensions of time to oppose aggregating up to 120 days from the date of publication of the mark, but it will not constitute extraordinary circumstances justifying an extension of time beyond 120 days from publication.

If an intent-to-use application has already been published, and is the subject of an opposition, when a timely filed amendment to allege use (i.e., an amendment to allege use filed prior to approval for publication) is associated with the application, the Board normally will suspend the opposition and return the application to the trademark examining attorney for appropriate action¹³⁴ with respect to the amendment to allege use. In the event that the amendment to allege use is ultimately withdrawn by the applicant, or approved by the examining attorney, the examining attorney should return the application to the Board (prior to any scheduled republication of applicant's mark) for further appropriate action with respect to the opposition.¹³⁵ If the application is abandoned while it is before the examining attorney, the Board should be notified.

220 Inadvertent Issuance of a Notice of Allowance

Sometimes a notice of allowance is issued mistakenly in an intent-to-use application that, at the time of such issuance, is the subject of an unexpired extension of time to oppose or a timely opposition. If a notice of allowance is inadvertently issued in an intent-to-use application which is the subject of an unexpired extension of time to oppose or a timely opposition, and a statement of use is filed, the notice of allowance will be cancelled (by the Intent To Use Division of the Office of Trademark Services) as inadvertently issued. The statement of use will be returned, and the fee submitted therewith will be refunded. If the inadvertently issued notice of allowance has already been cancelled when the Board receives the statement of use, the Board itself will return the statement of use and refund the fee submitted therewith. If the inadvertently issued notice of allowance has not already been cancelled when the Board receives the statement of use, the Intent To Use Division will return the statement of use and refund the fee when it cancels the notice of allowance.

Sometimes a notice of allowance issues between the time an extension request is submitted but not yet approved. Additionally, by the time the Board receives the file for action the extension requested has expired, and no opposition or further extension requests have been filed. In that case, the Board will issue an action acknowledging the extension request; indicating that it was well taken but that time has since expired and no opposition or further request has been filed. The Board will also indicate that a notice of allowance was inadvertently issued during the requested extension period, but since the requested time period has run without subsequent action by the potential opposer, the notice of allowance will not be withdrawn.

301 Types of Board Proceedings

The Board has jurisdiction over four types of inter partes proceedings, namely, oppositions, cancellations, interferences, and concurrent use proceedings.¹

An opposition is a proceeding in which the plaintiff seeks to prevent the issuance of a registration of a mark on the Principal Register. "Any person who believes that he would be damaged by the registration of a mark" may file an opposition thereto, but the opposition may be filed only as a timely response to the publication of the mark, under Section 12(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1062(a), in the Official Gazette of the USPTO.²

Mark on Supplemental Register Not Subject to Opposition:

15 U.S.C. § 1092 [Section 24 of the Trademark Act] Marks for the supplemental register shall not be published for or be subject to opposition, but shall be published on registration in the Official Gazette of the Patent and Trademark Office. Whenever any person believes that he is or will be damaged by the registration of a mark on this register, including as a result of dilution under section 43(c), he may at any time, upon payment of the prescribed fee and the filing of a petition stating the ground therefor, apply to the Director to cancel such registration. ...

Although the mark in an application for registration on the Principal Register is published for, and subject to, opposition, the mark in an application for registration on the Supplemental Register is not.³

Accordingly, the Board must reject any opposition filed with respect to the mark in an application for registration on the Supplemental Register. The opposition papers will be returned to the person who filed them, and any opposition fee submitted will be refunded. The remedy of the would-be opposer lies in the filing of a petition to cancel the registration of the mark, once the registration has issued.⁴

A cancellation proceeding is a proceeding in which the plaintiff seeks to cancel an existing registration of a trademark. The proceeding may only be filed after the issuance of the registration. A petition for cancellation may be filed by "any person who believes that he is or will be damaged by the registration" of the mark.⁵

An interference is a proceeding in which the Board determines which, if any, of the owners of conflicting applications (or of one or more applications and one or more registrations which are in conflict), is entitled to registration.⁶ The proceeding is declared by the Office only on petition to the Director showing extraordinary circumstances therefor, that is, that the party who filed the petition would be unduly prejudiced without an interference.⁷

A concurrent use proceeding is a proceeding in which the Board determines whether one or more applicants is entitled to a concurrent registration, that is, a registration with conditions and limitations, fixed by the Board, ordinarily as to the geographic scope of the applicant's mark or the goods and/or services on or in connection with which the mark is used.⁸

37 CFR § 2.116(b) The opposer in an opposition proceeding or the petitioner in a cancellation proceeding shall be in the position of plaintiff, and the applicant in an opposition proceeding or the respondent in a cancellation proceeding shall be in the position of defendant. A party that is a junior party in an interference proceeding or in a concurrent use registration proceeding shall be in the position of plaintiff against every party that is senior, and the party that is a senior party in an interference proceeding or in a concurrent use registration proceeding shall be a defendant against every party that is junior.

37 CFR § 2.116(c) The opposition or the petition for cancellation and the answer correspond to the complaint and answer in a court proceeding.

An opposition proceeding is commenced by the timely filing of a notice of opposition, together with the required fee, in the USPTO.⁹ Similarly, a cancellation proceeding is commenced by the timely filing of a petition for cancellation, together with the required fee, in the USPTO.¹⁰

The notice of opposition, or the petition for cancellation, and the answer thereto correspond to the complaint and answer in a court proceeding.¹¹ The opposer in an opposition proceeding, or the petitioner in a cancellation proceeding, is in the position of plaintiff, and the applicant in an opposition proceeding, or the respondent in a cancellation proceeding, is in the position of defendant.¹²

An interference proceeding commences when the Board mails a notice of interference to each of the parties to the proceeding, as described in 37 CFR § 2.93.¹³

A concurrent use proceeding commences when the Board mails a notice of the proceeding to each of the parties thereto, as described in 37 CFR §§ 2.99(c) and 2.99(d)(1).

For further information concerning interference and concurrent use proceedings, see TBMP chapters 1000 and 1100, respectively.

303.02 Meaning of the Term "Person"

The term "person," as used in the Act, includes both natural and juristic persons.¹⁴ A juristic person is a "firm, corporation, union, association, or other organization capable of suing and being sued in a court of law."¹⁵

If an operating division of a corporation is not itself incorporated or is not otherwise a legal entity which can sue and be sued, it does not have legal standing to own a mark or to file an application for registration, an opposition, or a petition for cancellation.¹⁶ In such a case, the application, opposition, or petition for cancellation should be filed in the name of the corporation of which the division is a part. If an opposition or a petition for cancellation is filed in the name of a division, and there is no indication that the division is incorporated, the Board will make written inquiry as to whether the division is incorporated or is otherwise a legal entity that can sue and be sued. If the opposer or petitioner responds in the negative, the opposition or petition for cancellation will go forward in the name of the corporation of which the division is a part.¹⁷

The term "person" as used in the Act also includes the United States, any agency and instrumentality thereof, or any individual, firm or corporation which acts for the United States and with the authorization and consent of the United States, as well as any state, any instrumentality of a state, and any officer or employee of a state or instrumentality of a state acting in his or her official capacity.¹⁸

303.03 Meaning of the Term "Damage"

The term "damage," as used in Sections 13 and 14 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1063 and 1064, concerns specifically a party's standing to file an opposition or a petition to cancel, respectively. A party may establish its standing to oppose or to petition to cancel by showing that it has a "real interest" in the case, that is, a personal interest in the outcome of the proceeding and a reasonable basis for its belief in damage.¹⁹ There is no requirement that actual damage be pleaded and proved in order to establish standing or to prevail in an opposition or cancellation proceeding.²⁰

For a discussion of standing, see TBMP § 309.03(b).

The proviso at the end of Section 14 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1064, provides statutory standing for the Federal Trade Commission to cancel a registration on the Principal Register on the grounds specified in paragraphs (3) and (5) of the section.²¹

For information concerning the grounds for cancellation specified in paragraphs (3) and (5) of Section 14 of the Act, see TBMP § 307.01.

303.05 Opposition Filed During Extension of Time to Oppose

37 CFR § 2.102(b) A written request to extend the time for filing an opposition must identify the potential opposer with reasonable certainty. Any opposition filed during an extension of time should be in the name of the person to whom the extension was granted. An opposition may be accepted if the person in whose name the extension was requested was misidentified through mistake or if the opposition is filed in the name of a person in privity with the person who requested and was granted the extension of time.

303.05(a) General Rule

An extension of time to oppose is a personal privilege which inures only to the benefit of the party to which it was granted and those in privity with that party.²² For this reason, an opposition filed during an extension of time to oppose ordinarily must be filed in the name of the party to which the extension was granted.²³ An opposition filed in a different name will be accepted only if the opposition is filed by a person in privity with the person granted the extension of time or if the person that requested the extension was misidentified through mistake.²⁴

303.05(b) Opposition Filed by Privy

A party in privity with a potential opposer may step into the potential opposer's shoes and file a notice of opposition or may join with the potential opposer as a joint opposer.²⁵ Thus, an opposition filed during an extension of time to oppose may be filed by a party other than the party to which the extension was granted, if it is shown to the satisfaction of the Board that the differing party is in privity with the party granted the extension.²⁶ If the opposition is filed both in the name of the party granted the previous extension and in the name of one or more different parties, an explanation will be requested as to each different party, and the opposition will not be accepted as to any different party that fails to make a satisfactory showing of privity.

The "showing" of privity should be in the form of a recitation of the facts on which the claim of privity is based, and must be submitted either with the opposition, or during the time allowed by the Board in its letter requesting an explanation of the discrepancy. If the opposition is filed both in the name of the party granted the previous extension and in the name of one or more differing parties, an explanation will be requested as to each differing party, and the opposition will not be accepted as to any differing party that fails to make a satisfactory showing of privity.

Once a timely notice of opposition has been filed, and the time for opposing has expired, the right to pursue the filed case is a right individual to the timely filer. While this right may be transferred to another party, as by an assignment of the mark with the associated goodwill, it may not be shared.²⁷

For information concerning the meaning of the term "privity" see TBMP § 206.02.

303.05(c) Misidentification of Opposer

If the name of the opposer, in an opposition filed during an extension of time to oppose, differs from the name of the party to which the extension was granted, the opposition will not be rejected on that ground if it is shown to the satisfaction of the Board that the party in whose name the extension was requested was misidentified through mistake.²⁸

Chapter 300 PLEADINGS

The phrase "misidentification by mistake," as used in 37 CFR § 2.102(b), means a mistake in the form of the opposer's name or its entity type, not the naming of a different existing legal entity that is not in privity with the party that should have been named.²⁹ The "showing" submitted in support of a claim of misidentification by mistake should be in the form of a recitation of the facts on which the claim of misidentification by mistake is based, and must be submitted either with the opposition or during the time allowed by the Board in its letter requesting an explanation of the discrepancy.

303.06 Joint Opposers or Petitioners

Two or more parties may file an opposition or a petition for cancellation jointly. However, the required fee must be submitted for each party joined as opposer or petitioner for each class in the application for which registration is opposed or for each class in the registration for which cancellation is sought.³⁰

When parties file jointly, the notice of opposition or petition for cancellation must name each party joined as plaintiff. In addition, the notice of opposition or petition for cancellation should include allegations concerning the standing of each party plaintiff and the ground or grounds for opposition or cancellation.³¹ If the case is ultimately determined on the merits, rather than by default, withdrawal, stipulation, etc., any joint plaintiff whose standing has not been proved cannot prevail, even though a ground for opposition or cancellation has been proved.³²

On the other hand, the fact that two or more parties may have an interest in a mark to be pleaded in a notice of opposition, or a petition for cancellation does not mean that each such party must be joined as opposer, or petitioner. Joint filing is elective, not mandatory.³³

304 Proceeding Against Multiple Class Application or Registration

When an opposition is filed with respect to an application which contains goods and/or services in multiple classes (see 37 CFR § 2.86(b)), or a petition for cancellation is filed with respect to a registration which contains goods and/or services in multiple classes, the class or classes opposed, or sought to be cancelled, should be specified in the plaintiff's pleading. In addition, the required opposition or cancellation fee must be submitted for each party joined as plaintiff for each class sought to be opposed or cancelled.³⁴

305 Consolidated and Combined Complaints

37 CFR § 2.104(b) Oppositions to different applications owned by the same party may be joined in a consolidated opposition when appropriate, but the required fee must be included for each party joined as opposer for each class in which registration is opposed in each application against which the opposition is filed.

37 CFR § 2.112(b) When appropriate, petitions for cancellation of different registrations owned by the same party may be joined in a consolidated petition for cancellation. The required fee must be included for each party joined as a petitioner for each class sought to be cancelled in each registration against which the petition to cancel is filed.

When appropriate, a party may oppose, in a single (i.e., "consolidated") notice of opposition, different applications owned by the same defendant. However, the required fee must be submitted for each party joined as opposer, for each class in which registration is opposed, in each application against which the opposition is filed.³⁵ When such a pleading is filed, the Board sets up a single opposition file, identified by a single opposition proceeding number, but bearing, the number of each application opposed in the consolidated notice of opposition.

Similarly, when appropriate, a party may seek to cancel, in a single ("consolidated") petition for cancellation, different registrations owned by the same defendant. Again, the required fee must be submitted for each party joined as petitioner, for each class sought to be cancelled, in each registration against which the petition for cancellation is filed.³⁶ When such a pleading is filed, the Board sets up a single cancellation file, identified by a single cancellation proceeding number, but bearing the number of each registration sought to be cancelled in the consolidated petition to cancel.

In addition, a party may file, when appropriate, a single pleading combining a notice of opposition to one or more applications, and a petition to cancel one or more registrations, provided that each subject application and registration is owned by the same defendant.³⁷ However, the required fee must be submitted for each party joined as plaintiff, for each class sought to be opposed or cancelled, in each application or registration against which the pleading is filed.³⁸ When such a pleading (referred to as a "combined" opposition and petition to cancel) is filed, the Board sets up both an opposition and a cancellation proceeding file, each with its own identifying number, and each marked "Combined with ____" followed by the number of the other proceeding. The opposition is treated as the "parent" case, and both proceeding numbers are placed on all documents relating to the combined proceedings.³⁹

A consolidated notice of opposition, or petition to cancel, or a combined notice of opposition and petition to cancel, is appropriate if the plaintiff's claims against each of the defendant's subject applications, and/or registrations, involve common (i.e., similar) questions of law or fact.⁴⁰

306 Time for Filing Opposition

15 U.S.C. § 1062(a) [Section 12(a) of the Trademark Act] Upon the filing of an application for registration and payment of the prescribed fee, the Director shall refer the application to the examiner in charge of the registration of marks who shall cause an examination to be made and, if on such examination it shall appear that the applicant is entitled to registration, or would be entitled to registration upon the acceptance of the statement of use required by section 1(d) of this Act, the Director shall cause the mark to be published in the Official Gazette of the Patent and Trademark Office....

15 U.S.C. § 1063(a) [Section 13(a) of the Trademark Act] Any person who believes that he would be damaged by the registration of a mark upon the principal register, including as a result of dilution under section 43(c), may, upon payment of the prescribed fee, file an opposition in the Patent and Trademark Office, stating the grounds therefor, within thirty days after the publication under subsection (a) of section 12 of this Act of the mark sought to be registered. Upon written request prior to the expiration of the thirty-day period, the time for filing opposition shall be extended for an additional thirty days, and further extensions of time for filing opposition may be granted by the Director for good cause when requested prior to the expiration of an extension. The Director shall notify the applicant of each extension of the time for filing opposition. ...

(a) An opposition proceeding is commenced by filing a timely opposition, together with the required fee, in the Office.

* * * *

(c) The opposition must be filed within thirty days after publication (§2.80) of the application being opposed or within an extension of time (§2.102) for filing an opposition.

* * * *

(d)(4) The filing date of an opposition is the date of receipt in the Office of the opposition together with the required fee.

Chapter 300 PLEADINGS

An opposition to the registration of a mark on the Principal Register must be filed prior to the expiration of the thirty-day period after publication of the mark in the Official Gazette for opposition, or within an extension of time to oppose granted to the opposer or its privy.⁴¹ The certificate of mailing by first-class mail procedure described in 37 CFR § 2.197 and the "Express Mail" procedure described in 37 CFR § 2.198 are both available for the filing of a notice of opposition; the certificate of (fax) transmission procedure described in 37 CFR § 2.197 is not.⁴²

The filing date of an opposition is the date of receipt in the Office of the opposition together with the required fee.⁴³

For information on opposition filing fees, see TBMP § 308. For information on how to file an opposition, see TBMP § 309.

For information concerning the effect of such matters as restoration of jurisdiction, republication, amendment, letter of protest, petition to the Director, abandonment, or the inadvertent issuance of a registration, on the filing of an opposition or a request to extend time to oppose, see generally, TBMP chapter 200.

306.02 Date of Publication of Mark

The date of publication of a mark is the issue date of the issue of the Official Gazette in which the mark appears, pursuant to Section 12(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1062(a), for purposes of opposition.

306.03 Premature Opposition

Section 13 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1063(a), requires that an opposition to the registration of a mark on the Principal Register be filed within a specified time after the publication of the mark in the Official Gazette.

Thus, any opposition filed prior to the publication of the mark sought to be opposed, is premature, and will be rejected by the Board, even if the mark has been published by the time of the Board's action. No proceeding will be instituted, and any submitted opposition fee will be refunded.⁴⁴

306.04 Late Opposition

Because the timeliness requirements of Section 13(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1063(a), for the filing of an opposition are statutory, they cannot be waived by stipulation of the parties, nor can they be waived by the Director on petition.⁴⁵

Accordingly, an opposition filed after the expiration of the would-be opposer's time for opposing must be denied by the Board as late. The opposition will not be instituted, and any submitted opposition fee will be refunded. The would-be opposer's remedy lies in the filing of a petition for cancellation, pursuant to Section 14 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1064, when and if a registration is issued.

307 Time for Filing Petition to Cancel

15 U.S.C. § 1064 [Section 14 of the Trademark Act] A petition to cancel a registration of a mark, stating the grounds relied upon, may, upon payment of the prescribed fee, be filed as follows by any person who believes that he is or will be damaged, including as a result of dilution under section 43(a), by the registration of a mark on the principal register established by this Act, or under the Act of March 3, 1881, or the Act of February 20, 1905:

(1) Within five years from the date of the registration of the mark under this Act.

(2) Within five years from the date of publication under section 12(c) hereof of a mark registered under the Act of March 3, 1881, or the Act of February 20, 1905.

(3) At any time if the registered mark becomes the generic name for the goods or services, or a portion thereof, for which it is registered, or is functional or has been abandoned, or its registration was obtained fraudulently or contrary to the provisions of section 4 or of subsection (a), (b), or (c) of section 2 for a registration under this Act, or contrary to similar prohibitory provisions of such prior Acts for a registration under such Acts, or if the registered mark is being used by, or with the permission of, the registrant so as to misrepresent the source of the goods or services on or in connection with which the mark is used. goods or services for which it is registered, a petition to cancel the registration for only those goods or services may be filed. A registered mark shall not be deemed to be the generic name of goods or services solely because such mark is also used as a name of or to identify a unique product or service. The primary significance of the registered mark to the relevant public rather than purchaser motivation shall be the test for determining whether the registered mark has become the generic name of goods or services on or in connection with which it has been used.

(4) At any time if the mark is registered under the Act of March 3, 1881, or the Act of February 20, 1905, and has not been published under the provisions of subsection (c) of section 12 of this Act.

(5) At any time in the case of a certification mark on the ground that the registrant (A) does not control, or is not able legitimately to exercise control over, the use of such mark, or (B) engages in the production or marketing of any goods or services to which the certification mark is applied, or (C) permits the use of the certification mark for purposes other than to certify, or (D) discriminately refuses to certify or to continue to certify the goods or services of any person who maintains the standards or conditions which such mark certifies:

Provided, That the Federal Trade Commission may apply to cancel on the grounds specified in paragraphs (3) and (5) of this section any mark registered on the principal register established by this Act, and the prescribed fee shall not be required.

15 U.S.C. § 1092 [Section 24 of the Trademark Act] Marks for the supplemental register shall not be published for or be subject to opposition, but shall be published on registration in the Official Gazette of the Patent and Trademark Office. Whenever any person believes that he is or will be damaged by the registration of a mark on this register, including as a result of dilution under section 43(c), he may at any time, upon payment of the prescribed fee and the filing of a petition stating the ground therefor, apply to the Director to cancel such registration. The Director shall refer such application to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board which shall give notice thereof to the registrant. If it is found after a hearing before the Board that the registrant is not entitled to registration, or that the mark has been abandoned, the registration shall be cancelled by the Director. However, no final judgment shall be entered in favor of an applicant under section 1(b) before the mark is registered, if such applicant cannot prevail without establishing constructive use pursuant to section 7(c).

(b) Any person who believes that he, she or it is or will be damaged by a registration may file a petition, addressed to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, for cancellation of the registration in whole or in part. The petition for cancellation need not be verified, but must be signed by the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney, as specified in § 10.1(c) of this chapter, or other authorized representative, as specified in § 10.14(b) of this chapter. ... The petition may be filed at any time in the case of registrations on the Supplemental Register or under the Act of 1920, or registrations under the Act of 1881 or the Act of 1905 which have not been published under section 12(c) of the Act, or on any ground specified in section 14(3) or (5) of the Act. In all other cases, the petition for cancellation and the required fee must be filed within five years from the date of registration of the mark under the Act or from the date of publication under section 12(c) of the Act.

* * * *

(c)(4) The filing date of a petition for cancellation is the date of receipt in the Office of the petition for cancellation together with the required fee.

307.01 Petition That May Be Filed At Any Time After Registration

A petition to cancel a registration may be filed at any time in the case of a registration issued on the Supplemental Register under the Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. § 1051 et seq., or under the Act of 1920, or a registration issued under the Act of 1881 or the Act of 1905 which has not been published under Section 12(c) of the Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. § 1062(c).⁴⁶

In addition, a petition to cancel any registration may be filed at any time on any ground specified in Section 14(3) or 14(5) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1064(3) or 1064(5).⁴⁷ As permitted by Section 14(3), a petition to cancel may be filed at any time on grounds that, for example, the mark has been abandoned; the registration was obtained by fraud; the mark is generic; the mark is geographically deceptive,⁴⁸ or disparaging, or falsely suggests a connection with a person's name or identity;⁴⁹ the mark comprises matter that, as a whole, is functional;⁵⁰ or the mark comprises

307.02 Petition That Must Be Filed Within Five Years from the Date of Registration

A petition to cancel a registration issued on the Principal Register under the Act of 1946, on a ground not specified in Section 14(3) or 14(5) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1064(3) or 1064(5), must be filed within five years from the date of the registration of the mark.⁵⁴ Similarly, a petition to cancel a registration issued on the Principal Register under the Act of 1881 or the Act of 1905, and published under the provisions of Section 12(c) of the Act of 1946, on a ground not specified in Section 14(3) or 14(5) of the Act, must be filed within five years from the date of publication under Section 12(c), 15 U.S.C. 1062(c).⁵⁵

Although a petition to cancel filed after the expiration of the five-year period, in the case of such a Principal Register registration, must recite one of the grounds specified in Section 14(3) or 14(5) of the Act, a petition to cancel filed prior to the expiration of the five-year period may be based on any ground which could have prevented registration initially.⁵⁶ The grounds for cancellation which are thus available in these cases for a petition filed within the five-year period, but not thereafter, include all of the grounds specified in Sections 14(3) and (5) as well as likelihood of confusion under Section 2(d) of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d);⁵⁷ all of the grounds specified in Section 2(e) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(e), including a claim that respondent's mark is merely descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive, that respondent's mark is geographically descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive, or that respondent's mark is primarily merely a surname; that respondent is not the owner of the registered mark; and that there was no bona fide use of respondent's mark in commerce to support the original registration. For additional information on selected grounds for opposition and cancellation, see TBMP § 309.03.

A petitioner may not seek to cancel a Principal Register registration over five years old on the ground of likelihood of confusion. However, under Section 18 of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1068, a petitioner may seek to partially cancel a registration over five years old by restricting the goods or services therein in order to avoid a likelihood of confusion. For a discussion of a petition to partially cancel a registration under Section 18 of the Trademark Act, see TBMP § 309.03(d).

The five-year period specified in Section 14(1), 15 U.S.C. § 1064(1), (i.e., "Within five years from the date of the registration of the mark under this Act") includes the fifth anniversary date of the registration.⁵⁸ Similarly, the five-year period specified in Section 14(2), 15 U.S.C. § 1064(2), ("Within five years from the date of publication under Section 12(c) hereof of a mark registered under the Act of March 3, 1881, or the Act of February 20, 1905"), includes the fifth anniversary date of the publication under Section 12(c).⁵⁹

"Express Mail" procedure described in 37 CFR § 2.198 are available for the filing of a petition to cancel.⁶¹

307.02(b) Sec. 14 Limitation Is Independent of Section 15 Affidavit

The five-year time limit specified in Section 14, 15 U.S.C. § 1064, barring certain attacks on a Principal Register registration, "is not dependent on the filing of a declaration under Section 15 which provides incontestable rights of use to a limited extent (15 U.S.C. § 1065)."⁶²

307.02(c) Factors Affecting the Five-Year Period

307.02(c)(1) Reliance on Registration By Plaintiff

If an opposer relies on a Principal Register registration of its pleaded mark, and the five-year period has not yet expired when the opposition is filed, the limitation does not apply to any counterclaim filed in response to the petition for cancellation of that registration. This is so even if the five-year period has expired by the time the counterclaim is filed. In such cases, the filing of the opposition tolls, during the pendency of the proceeding, the running of the five-year period for purposes of determining the grounds on which a counterclaim may be based.⁶³

Similarly, the limitation would not apply to a counterclaim to cancel such a Principal Register registration relied on by the petitioner in a cancellation proceeding, if the five-year period had not yet expired with respect to the registration at the time of the filing of the petition to cancel.

307.02(c)(2) Amendment of Registration

When a Principal Register registration has been amended, the registration is subject to attack under Section 14 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1064, to the extent that the amendment of the registration has in any way enlarged registrant's rights, as though the registration had issued on the date of the amendment. That is, even though the Section 14 five-year period following issuance of the registration, or publication under Section 12(c), 15 U.S.C. § 1062(c), may have expired, if a petition to cancel the registration is filed within the five years following the amendment of the registration, the petition is not limited to Section 14(3) or 14(5) (15 U.S.C. § 1064(3) or 1064(5)) grounds, to the extent that the amendment has in any way enlarged the registrant's rights. Rather, during the five years after the amendment, "the modified registration, not having been in existence for five years, may be challenged in a cancellation proceeding as long as petitioner states grounds [not limited to Section 14(3) or 14(5) grounds] for the cancellation indicating how he believes he is or will be damaged by the modified registration."⁶⁴

307.03 Premature Petition to Cancel

Sections 14 and 24 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1064 and 1092, provide for the filing of a petition to cancel "a registration of a mark." Until a registration actually issues, there is no registration.

Thus, if a petition to cancel a registration is filed prior to the issuance of the registration, it is premature, and will be rejected by the Board, even if the registration has issued by the time of the Board's action. The petition to cancel will not be instituted, and any submitted petition fee will be refunded. Petitioner's remedy lies in the filing of a new petition to cancel after the registration has issued.

307.04 Late Petition to Cancel

A petition to cancel a registration issued on the Principal Register under the Act of 1946 on a ground not specified in Section 14(3) or 14(5) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1064(3) or 1064(5), must be filed (with the required fee) within five years from the date of the registration of the mark. Similarly, a petition to cancel a registration issued on the Principal Register under the Act of 1881 or the Act of 1905, and published under the provisions of Section 12(c) of the Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. § 1062(c), on a ground not specified in Section 14(3) or 14(5) of the Act, must be filed within five years from the date of publication under Section 12(c).⁶⁵

If a petition to cancel one of these Principal Register registrations is filed after the expiration of the five-year period and does not plead one or more of the grounds specified in Section 14(3) or 14(5) of the Act, the petition is late, and will be rejected by the Board. The petition to cancel will not be instituted, and any submitted petition fee will be refunded. However, the rejection of the petition is without prejudice to petitioner's right to file, at any time thereafter, a new petition to cancel the registration, and to plead therein one or more of the grounds specified in Section 14(3) or 14(5).

For information concerning the effect of signature and fee requirements on the timing of a petition to cancel, see TBMP §§ 308.02(b) (Insufficient Fee) and 309.02(b) (Signature of Complaint).

308 Filing Fees

308.01 Fee for Filing Opposition

308.01(a) In General

15 U.S.C. § 1063(a) [Section 13(a) of the Trademark Act] Any person who believes that he would be damaged by the registration of a mark upon the principal register, including as a result of dilution under section 43(c), may, upon payment of the prescribed fee, file an opposition in the Patent and Trademark Office....

37 CFR § 2.101 Filing an opposition.

(a) An opposition proceeding is commenced by filing a timely opposition, together with the required fee, in the Office.

* * * *

Chapter 300 PLEADINGS

(d)(1) The opposition must be accompanied by the required fee for each party joined as opposer for each class in the application for which registration is opposed (see § 2.6).

(2) An otherwise timely opposition will not be accepted via ESTTA unless the opposition is accompanied by a fee that is sufficient to pay in full for each named party opposer to oppose the registration of a mark in each class specified in the opposition.

(3) If an otherwise timely opposition is submitted on paper, the following is applicable if less than all required fees are submitted:

(i) If the opposition is accompanied by no fee or a fee insufficient to pay for one person to oppose the registration of a mark in at least one class, the opposition will be refused.

(ii) If the opposition is accompanied by fees sufficient to pay for one person to oppose registration in at least one class, but fees are insufficient to oppose a registration in all the classes in the application, and the particular class or classes against which the opposition is filed is not specified, the opposition will be presumed to be against the class or classes in ascending numerical order, including only the number of classes in the application for which sufficient fees have been submitted.

(iii) If persons are joined as party opposers, each must submit a fee for each class for which opposition is sought. If the fees submitted are sufficient to pay for one person to oppose registration in at least one class, but are insufficient for each named party opposer, the first-named party will be presumed to be the party opposer. Additional parties will be deemed to be party opposers only to the extent that the fees submitted are sufficient to pay the fee due for each party opposer. If persons are joined as party opposers against a multiple class application, the fees submitted are insufficient, and no specification of opposers and classes is made at the time the party is joined, the fees submitted will be applied first on behalf of the first-named opposer against as many of the classes in the application as the submitted fees are sufficient to pay. Any excess will be applied on behalf of the second-named party to the opposition against the classes in the application in ascending numerical order.

The rules governing opposition fees are specified in 37 CFR §§ 2.101(d)(1)-(d)(4). The amount of the required filing fee is specified in 37 CFR § 2.6(a)(17). The required fee must be submitted with the opposition; the filing date of an opposition (and, hence, the date of commencement of the opposition proceeding) is the date of receipt in the Office of both the opposition and the required fee.⁶⁶

Chapter 300 PLEADINGS

The required fee must be submitted for each party joined as opposer for each class opposed, and if fewer than the total number of classes in the application are opposed, the classes opposed should be specified.⁶⁷

For information on how to pay fees, see 37 CFR §§ 2.206-2.208, and TBMP § 118. For information on fee refunds, see 37 CFR § 2.209, and TBMP § 119.

308.01(b) Insufficient Fee

A notice of opposition against an application based on Section 66(a) of the Trademark Act must be filed electronically through ESTTA.⁶⁸ An application based on Section 1 or 44 of the Act must be filed either through ESTTA or on paper.⁶⁹

An otherwise timely opposition will not be accepted via ESTTA unless the opposition is accompanied by a fee that is sufficient to pay, in full, for each named party opposer to oppose the registration of a mark in each class specified in the opposition.⁷⁰

If an otherwise timely opposition is submitted on paper, and if the opposition is not accompanied by any fee or a sufficient fee to pay for one person to oppose the registration of a mark in at least one class, the opposition will be rejected. If the opposition is accompanied by fees sufficient to pay for one person to oppose registration in at least one class, but less than sufficient to pay for all the opposed classes in the application and/or all party opposers, the opposition will be instituted and the fee(s) submitted will be applied in the manner set forth in 37 CFR § 2.101(d)(3)(i)-(iii). The institution notice will identify the parties and classes for which the required fees were submitted.⁷¹

308.02 Fee for Filing Petition to Cancel

308.02(a) In General

15 U.S.C. § 1064 [Section 14 of the Trademark Act] A petition to cancel a registration of a mark, stating the grounds relied upon, may, upon payment of the prescribed fee, be filed as follows by any person who believes that he is or will be damaged, including as a result of dilution under section 43(c), by the registration of a mark on the principal register established by this Act, or under the Act of March 3, 1881, or the Act of February 20, 1905....

15 U.S.C. § 1092 [Section 24 of the Trademark Act] Marks for the supplemental register shall not be published for or be subject to opposition, but shall be published on registration in the Official Gazette of the Patent and Trademark Office. Whenever any person believes that he is or will be damaged by the registration of a mark on this register, including as a result of dilution under section 43(c), he may at any time, upon payment of the prescribed fee and the filing of a petition stating the ground therefor, apply to the Director to cancel such registration. ...

(1) The petition for cancellation must be accompanied by the required fee for each party joined as petitioner for each class in the registration for which cancellation is sought (see §2.6).

(2) An otherwise timely petition for cancellation will not be accepted via ESTTA unless the petition for cancellation is accompanied by a fee that is sufficient to pay in full for each named party petitioner to petition for cancellation of the registration of a mark in each class specified in the petition for cancellation.

(3) If an otherwise timely petition for cancellation is submitted on paper, the following is applicable if less than all required fees are submitted:

(i) If the petition for cancellation is accompanied by no fee or a fee insufficient to pay for one person to petition for cancellation against at least one class in the registration, the petition for cancellation will be refused.

(ii) If the petition for cancellation is accompanied by fees sufficient to pay for one person to petition for cancellation against at least one class in the registration, but fees are insufficient for a petition for cancellation against all the classes in the registration, and the particular class or classes against which the petition for cancellation is filed is not specified, the petition for cancellation will be presumed to be against the class or classes in ascending numerical order, including only the number of classes in the registration for which sufficient fees have been submitted.

(iii) If persons are joined as party petitioners, each must submit a fee for each class for which cancellation is sought. If the fees submitted are sufficient to pay for one person to petition for cancellation of the registration in at least one class but are insufficient for each named party petitioner, the first-named party will be presumed to be the party petitioner. Additional parties will be deemed to be party petitioners only to the extent that the fees submitted are sufficient to pay the fee due for each party petitioner. If persons are joined as party petitioners against a multiple class registration, the fees submitted are insufficient, and no specification of parties and classes is made at the time the party is joined, the fees submitted will be applied first on behalf of the first-named petitioner against as many of the classes in the registration as the submitted fees are sufficient to pay. Any excess will be applied on behalf of the second-named party to the cancellation against the classes in the registration in ascending numerical order.

(4) The filing date of a petition for cancellation is the date of receipt in the Office of the petition for cancellation together with the required fee.

The rules governing cancellation fees are specified in 37 CFR §§ 2.111(c)(1)-(c)(4). The amount of the required fee is specified in 37 CFR § 2.6(a)(16). The required fee for a petition to cancel must be submitted with the petition; the effective filing date of a petition to cancel (and, hence, the date of commencement of the cancellation proceeding) is the date of receipt in the Office of both the petition to cancel and the required fee.⁷²

The required fee must be submitted for each party joined as petitioner for each class sought to be cancelled, and if cancellation is sought for fewer than the total number of classes in the registration, the classes sought to be cancelled should be specified.⁷³

For information on how to pay fees, see 37 CFR §§ 2.206-2.208, and TBMP § 118. For Information on fee refunds, see 37 CFR § 2.209, and TBMP § 119.

308.02(b) Insufficient Fee

A petition for cancellation must be filed either through ESTTA or on paper.⁷⁴

⁷³ See 37 CFR § 2.111(c).

⁷⁴ See TBMP § 309 (Form and Content of Oppositions and Petitions to Cancel). Board practice does not permit the filing of a petition for cancellation on CD-ROM.

Chapter 300 PLEADINGS

An otherwise timely petition for cancellation will not be accepted via ESTTA unless the petition to cancel is accompanied by a fee that is sufficient to pay in full for each named party petitioner to petition for cancellation of the registration of a mark in each class specified in the petition for cancellation.

If an otherwise timely petition for cancellation is submitted on paper, and if the petition is not accompanied by any fee, or a sufficient fee to pay for one person to petition to cancel the registration in at least one class, the petition will be rejected. If the petition to cancel is accompanied by fees sufficient to pay for one person to petition to cancel the registration in at least one class, but less than the required amount because multiple party petitioners and/or multiple classes in the registration are involved, the cancellation proceeding will be instituted, and the fee(s) submitted will be applied in the manner set forth in 37 CFR § 2.111(c)(3)(ii)-(iii). The institution notice will identify the parties and classes for which the required fees were submitted.⁷⁵

Except to the extent that the five-year period of Section 14 is applicable in a particular case, there is no time limit for the filing of a petition to cancel an issued registration. Thus, if the petition is rejected for failure to submit a fee, or a fee that is sufficient to pay for one person to petition to cancel the registration in at least one class, the rejection of the petition is without prejudice to petitioner's right to file, at any time thereafter, a new petition to cancel provided that the five-year period, if applicable, has not expired, or, if expired, that the petition recites a ground permitted after the expiration of the five-year period.⁷⁶

The responsibility for filing proper fees rests with the party filing them.⁷⁷

308.02(c) Petition Filed by Federal Trade Commission

There is no fee for a petition filed by the Federal Trade Commission to cancel a registration on the Principal Register.⁷⁸

308.02(d) Fee for Counterclaim

For information concerning fees for counterclaims, see TBMP § 313.02.

308.03 Fees for Joint Opposers or Petitioners

Two or more parties may file an opposition, or a petition for cancellation, jointly. However, the required fee must be submitted for each party joined as opposer, or petitioner, for each class in the application for which registration is opposed, or for each class in the registration for which cancellation is sought.⁷⁹

308.04 Fees for Proceeding Against Multiple Class Application or Registration

The required opposition or cancellation fee must be submitted for each party joined as plaintiff for each class sought to be opposed or cancelled.⁸⁰

308.05 Fees for Consolidated and Combined Complaints

When appropriate, a party may oppose, in a single (i.e., "consolidated") notice of opposition, different applications owned by the same defendant. However, the required fee must be submitted for each party joined as opposer, for each class in which registration is opposed, in each application against which the opposition is filed.⁸¹

Similarly, when appropriate, a party may seek to cancel, in a single ("consolidated") petition for cancellation, different registrations owned by the same defendant. Again, the required fee must be submitted for each party joined as petitioner, for each class sought to be cancelled, in each registration against which the petition for cancellation is filed.⁸²

In addition, a party may file, when appropriate, a single pleading combining a notice of opposition to one or more applications, and a petition to cancel one or more registrations,

37 CFR § 2.126 Form of submissions to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

(a) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board on paper where Board practice or the rules in this part permit. A paper submission, including exhibits and depositions, must meet the following requirements:

- (1) A paper submission must be printed in at least 11-point type and double-spaced, with text on one side only of each sheet;*
- (2) A paper submission must be 8 to 8.5 inches (20.3 to 21.6 cm.) wide and 11 to 11.69 inches (27.9 to 29.7 cm.) long, and contain no tabs or other such devices extending beyond the edges of the paper;*
- (3) If a paper submission contains dividers, the dividers must not have any extruding tabs or other devices, and must be on the same size and weight paper as the submission;*
- (4) A paper submission must not be stapled or bound;*
- (5) All pages of a paper submission must be numbered and exhibits shall be identified in the manner prescribed in §2.123(g)(2);*
- (6) Exhibits pertaining to a paper submission must be filed on paper or CD-ROM concurrently with the paper submission, and comply with the requirements for a paper or CD-ROM submission.*

* * * *

(c) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board electronically via the Internet where the rules in this part or Board practice permit, according to the parameters established by the Board and published on the web site of the Office. Text in an electronic submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced. Exhibits pertaining to an electronic submission must be made electronically as an attachment to the submission.

Submissions may be made to the Board on paper, CD-ROM, or electronically over the Internet, as permitted by the rules or Board practice. As required by 37 CFR § 2.101(b), an opposition to an application based on Section 66(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1141f, must be filed electronically through ESTTA, and an opposition to an application based on Section 1 or 44 of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1051 or 1126, must be filed either on paper or through ESTTA.⁸⁵ Moreover, Board practice does not permit the filing of a petition for cancellation on CD-ROM.⁸⁶ A petition for cancellation must be filed either on paper or through ESTTA.

⁸⁶ See, e.g., 37 CFR § 2.126(b) ("Submissions may be made to the...Board on CD-ROM where the rules in this part or Board practice permit.").

Chapter 300 PLEADINGS

The notice of opposition, or petition to cancel, corresponds to the complaint in a court proceeding.⁸⁷ For purposes of simplicity, the term "complaint" is often used hereafter to refer to a notice of opposition or a petition to cancel.

309.02 Form of Complaint

The form of a complaint must meet the general requirements for submissions to the Board as set forth in 37 CFR 2.126.⁸⁸ If a complaint is filed electronically through ESTTA, the text in the electronic submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced, and any exhibits pertaining to the electronic submission must be made electronically as an attachment to the complaint.⁸⁹

While an opposition against a 66(a) application must be filed through ESTTA, a petition for cancellation, or an opposition against a Section 1 or 44 application, may be filed either through ESTTA or on paper.⁹⁰ If the complaint is filed on paper, the submission, including any exhibits, may not be stapled or bound or have any extruding tabs or other such devices, and must otherwise comply with the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.126(a).

309.02(a) Format for Complaint

Using ESTTA, a person can complete and submit a notice of opposition or petition for cancellation over the Internet, making an official filing online or print out the completed form for mailing to the Board. ESTTA gives step-by-step instructions for properly completing a form. A complaint filed on paper need not follow a particular format, as long as it meets the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.126(a) for paper submissions and includes the necessary information. The complaint should include the following information:

Heading: The complaint should bear at its top the heading "IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD."

Identification of subject application or registration: The heading should be followed by information identifying the application or registration that is the subject of the complaint with the wording "Serial No. _____" for an opposition or "Registration No. _____" for a petition to cancel.

Name of proceeding: The application or registration number should be followed by the name of the proceeding (i.e., "ABC Corporation v. XYZ Company"), the wording "Opposition No. _____" or "Cancellation No. _____" (the Board will insert, in the blank space, the number assigned to the proceeding).

Title of Paper: The title should describe the nature of the paper (i.e., "Notice of Opposition" or "Petition to Cancel").

Plaintiff information: The complaint should also include plaintiff's name, entity type (i.e., individual, partnership, corporation, association, etc.), and business address; the names of the partners, if the plaintiff is a partnership, or the state or country of incorporation, if the plaintiff is a corporation.

Registrant information in petition to cancel: A petition to cancel should indicate, to the best of petitioner's knowledge, the name and address of the current owner of the registration.⁹¹ Petitioner may comply with this requirement simply by furnishing the Board with whatever information it has concerning the name and address of the current owner of the registration; a special investigation made solely for purposes of complying with the rule is not necessary. The purpose of the requirement is to provide the Board with whatever information petitioner may have concerning the name and address of the current owner of the registration, so that the Board can notify that party of the filing of the petition.⁹² If petitioner has no information concerning the name and address of the current owner of the registration, petitioner may simply use the name and address of registrant stated on the registration certificate.

Substance of complaint: The complaint must also include a pleading of the substance (i.e., standing and grounds) of the complaint.⁹³

Signature: The complaint must be signed and include a description of the capacity in which the signing individual signs, e.g., attorney for plaintiff, plaintiff (if plaintiff is an individual), partner of plaintiff (if plaintiff is a partnership), officer of plaintiff identified by title (if plaintiff is a corporation), etc.⁹⁴

309.02(b) Signature of Complaint

The complaint need not be verified, but it must be signed by the plaintiff or by the plaintiff's attorney, as specified in 37 CFR § 10.1(c), or other authorized representative, as specified in 37 CFR § 10.14(b).⁹⁵ Electronic signatures pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.193(c)(1)(iii) (Trademark correspondence and signature requirements) are required for complaints submitted electronically via ESTTA.⁹⁶

If an attorney signs the complaint, it need not be accompanied by a written power of attorney, but if a written power of attorney is filed, the plaintiff must sign it. If a plaintiff signing for itself is a partnership, the signature must be made by a partner. If a plaintiff signing for itself is a corporation or similar juristic entity, the signature must be made by an officer of the plaintiff who has authority to sign for the plaintiff and whose title is given. The signature should be accompanied by a description of the capacity in which the signing individual signs (i.e., as plaintiff, if plaintiff is an individual; as counsel for plaintiff; as a partner of plaintiff, if plaintiff is a partnership; as an officer of plaintiff identified by title, if plaintiff is a corporation; etc.).

Although a complaint must be signed, an unsigned complaint will not be refused consideration if a signed copy is submitted to the Board within the time limit set in the notification of this defect by the Board.⁹⁷ However, Section 14 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1064, limits, after a specified five-year period, the grounds on which certain Principal Register registrations may be cancelled.⁹⁸ If an unsigned petition to cancel such a registration is filed prior to the expiration of the five-year period, but a signed copy thereof is not filed until after the expiration of the period, the petition can be entertained by the Board only to the extent that it pleads a ground for cancellation permitted after the expiration of the five-year period.⁹⁹ Although the Board makes every effort to notify

The complaint need not be served by the plaintiff on the defendant. Rather, the complaint, and any exhibits thereto, will be forwarded to the defendant by the Board itself.¹⁰¹

309.03(a)(1) Scope of Opposition and Petition to Cancel

In an opposition, the registration sought by an applicant may be opposed in whole, or in part. Similarly, a petitioner may seek to cancel a registration in whole, or in part.¹⁰² However, geographic limitations will be considered and determined by the Board only within the context of a concurrent use registration proceeding.¹⁰³

The Board is an administrative tribunal that is empowered to determine only the right to register; it may not determine the right to use, or broader questions of infringement or unfair competition (-- see TBMP § 102.01).

309.03(a)(2) Elements of Complaint – In General

A notice of opposition must include (1) a short and plain statement of the reason(s) why opposer believes it would be damaged by the registration of the opposed mark (i.e., opposer's standing to maintain the proceeding (see TBMP §§ 303.03 and 309.03(b))), and (2) a short and plain statement of one or more grounds for opposition.¹⁰⁴

Similarly, a petition to cancel must include (1) a short and plain statement of the reason(s) why petitioner believes it is or will be damaged by the registration sought to be cancelled (i.e., petitioner's standing to maintain the proceeding -- see TBMP §§ 303.03 and 309.03(b)) and (2) a short and plain statement of the ground(s) for cancellation.¹⁰⁵

The elements of a claim should be stated simply, concisely, and directly.¹⁰⁶ However, the pleading should include enough detail to give the defendant fair notice of the basis for each claim.¹⁰⁷

All averments should be made in numbered paragraphs, the contents of each of which should be limited as far as practicable to a statement of a single set of circumstances.¹⁰⁸ Each claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence should be stated in a separate count whenever a separation would facilitate the clear presentation of the matters pleaded.¹⁰⁹ A paragraph may be referred to by number in all succeeding paragraphs, and statements in the complaint may be adopted by reference in a different part of the complaint.¹¹⁰

A plaintiff may state as many separate claims as it has, regardless of consistency; a plaintiff may also set forth two or more statements of a claim alternatively or hypothetically, either in one count or in separate counts.¹¹¹

When two or more statements are made in the alternative, the sufficiency of each is determined independently; the fact that one of them may be insufficient does not mean that the other(s) is (are) also insufficient.¹¹²

Evidentiary matters (such as, for example, lists of publications or articles in which a term sought to be registered by an applicant is alleged to be used descriptively) should not be pleaded in a complaint. They are matters for proof, not for pleading.¹¹³

In inter partes proceedings before the Board, as in civil cases before the United States district courts, all pleadings are so construed as to do substantial justice.¹¹⁴

309.03(b) Standing

Any person who believes it is or will be damaged by registration of a mark has standing to file a complaint.¹¹⁵ At the pleading stage, all that is required is that a plaintiff allege facts sufficient to show a “real interest” in the proceeding, and a “reasonable basis for its belief of damage."¹¹⁶ To plead a "real interest," plaintiff must allege a "direct and personal stake" in the outcome of the proceeding.¹¹⁷ The allegations in support of plaintiff's belief of damage must have a reasonable basis "in fact."¹¹⁸

Allegations in support of standing which may be sufficient for pleading purposes must later be affirmatively proved by the plaintiff at trial (or on summary judgment).¹¹⁹ However, there is no requirement that actual damage be pleaded or proved in order to establish standing or to prevail in an opposition or cancellation proceeding.¹²⁰

A real interest in the proceeding and a reasonable belief of damage may be found, for example, where plaintiff pleads (and later proves):

A claim of likelihood of confusion that is not wholly without merit;¹²¹
Plaintiff has been refused registration of its mark because of defendant's registration, or has been advised that it will be refused registration when defendant's application matures into a registration, or has a reasonable belief that registration of its application will be refused because of defendant's registration;¹²²

Plaintiff has a bona fide intent to use the same mark for related goods, and is about to file an intent-to-use application to register the mark, and believes registration of the mark will be refused in view of respondent's registration;¹²³

Defendant has relied on its ownership of its application or registration in another proceeding between the parties, or defendant has asserted a likelihood of confusion in another proceeding between the parties involving the same marks.¹²⁴

A counterclaimant's standing to cancel a pleaded registration is inherent in its position as defendant in the original proceeding.¹²⁵

A plaintiff need not assert proprietary rights in a term in order to have standing.¹²⁶ For example, when descriptiveness or genericness of the mark is in issue, plaintiff may plead (and later prove) its standing by alleging that it is engaged in the sale or the same or related products or services (or that the product or service in question is within the normal expansion of plaintiff's business) and that the plaintiff has an interest in using the term descriptively in its business.¹²⁷

309.03(c) Grounds

In addition to standing, a plaintiff must also plead (and later prove) a statutory ground or grounds for opposition or cancellation.¹²⁸ A plaintiff may raise any available statutory ground for opposition or cancellation that negates the defendant's right to registration.¹²⁹ Grounds for petitions to cancel a Principal Register registration that is more than 5 years old are more limited and are specified in Sections 14(3) and (5) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1064(3) and 1064(5).¹³⁰

A plaintiff cannot rely upon an unpleaded claim unless the plaintiff's pleading is amended (or deemed amended), pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a) or (b), to assert the matter.¹³¹

Examples of available grounds for opposition and for cancellation are listed below. [NOTE: The grounds identified in examples 3 and 4, and 12 through 14 are available for cancellation of a Principal Register registration over five years old.] This list is exemplary, not exhaustive.

(15) That defendant's mark would dilute the distinctive quality of plaintiff's famous mark.¹⁵³

The following is a brief discussion of the elements of a claim of likelihood of confusion, the most frequently encountered issue in Board inter partes proceedings.

Pursuant to Section 2(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d), plaintiff must assert, and then prove at trial, that defendant's mark, as applied to its goods or services, so resembles plaintiff's previously used or registered mark or its previously used trade name as to be likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception.

A. Priority

A plaintiff must plead (and later prove) priority of use. In order to properly assert priority, a plaintiff must allege facts showing proprietary rights in its pleaded mark that are prior to defendant's rights in the challenged mark.¹⁵⁴ Such rights may be shown by, for example, ownership of an application with a filing date (or a registration with an underlying application filing date) prior to any date of first use on which defendant can rely;¹⁵⁵ prior trademark or service mark use;¹⁵⁶ or prior use analogous to trademark or service mark use.¹⁵⁷

However, priority is not in issue in an opposition where opposer pleads (and later proves) that it owns a registration for its pleaded mark,¹⁵⁸ provided that any counterclaim or separate petition to cancel the pleaded registration by the applicant is ultimately dismissed and the registration remains uncanceled.¹⁵⁹

Chapter 300 PLEADINGS

A plaintiff may be permitted to assert the proprietary rights or registration(s) of a third-party as a basis for a Section 2(d) ground if plaintiff can show a legitimate interest in preventing confusion between the pleaded mark(s) and the defendant's mark.¹⁶⁰

B. Likelihood of Confusion

The evidentiary factors the Board considers in determining likelihood of confusion are set out in In re E.I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., 476 F.2d 1357, 177 USPQ 563 (CCPA 1973). These factors include the similarity of the marks, the relatedness of the goods and/or services, the channels of trade and classes of purchasers for the goods and/or services, the number and nature of similar marks in use on similar goods, the nature and extent of any actual confusion, and the fame of the prior mark.¹⁶¹ The relevance and weight to be given the various factors may differ from case to case.¹⁶²

Direct or Hypothetical Pleading of Likelihood of Confusion: A plaintiff may plead likelihood of confusion directly or hypothetically.¹⁶³ A hypothetical pleading may consist of assertions that if, as the trademark examining attorney (or the defendant) contends, plaintiff's mark so resembles defendant's mark as to be likely, when applied to the goods and/or services of the plaintiff, to cause confusion, then plaintiff will be damaged by the registration of defendant's mark.¹⁶⁴ Of course, in order to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, a hypothetical pleading of likelihood of confusion must be coupled with a pleading of one or more grounds for opposition or cancellation, such as, that defendant's mark has been abandoned; that plaintiff has priority of use (here, the hypothetical pleading of likelihood of confusion serves both as a pleading of plaintiff's

Note: In cases where a plaintiff has relied on its ownership of a pleaded registration, any counterclaim or petition to cancel that registration is normally decided before the issues in the underlying opposition. See, for example, Marshall Field & Co. v. Mrs. Fields Cookies, 25 USPQ2d 1321, 1328 (TTAB 1992) and General Mills Inc. v. Health Valley Foods, 24 USPQ2d 1270, 1272 (TTAB 1992).

standing and as part of the pleading of a ground under Section 2(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. §1052(d)); etc. Thus, a plaintiff wishing to plead likelihood of confusion hypothetically in a proceeding based upon Section 2(d) might assert, for example, that if, as the trademark examining attorney (or the defendant) contends, plaintiff's mark so resembles defendant's mark as to be likely, when applied to the goods and/or services of the plaintiff, to cause confusion, then the registration sought by defendant should be refused (or defendant's registration should be cancelled) because plaintiff has priority of use.¹⁶⁵

Humanomics Inc.*, 3 USPQ2d 1696, 1698 (TTAB 1987) (applicant could have raised priority issue in a counterclaim by pleading likelihood of confusion hypothetically notwithstanding the inconsistency of that pleading with its position in the opposition that the marks are not confusingly similar); Home Juice Co. v. Runclin Cos., 231 USPQ 897, 899 (TTAB 1986) (pleading construed as hypothetical pleading of likelihood of confusion which is appropriate where petitioner's standing is based on its inability to secure a registration, notwithstanding that it is the senior user, because the subject registration has been cited as a reference by the examining attorney). See also, Taffy's of Cleveland, Inc. v. Taffy's, Inc., 189 USPQ 154, 156-57 (TTAB 1975) (fact that petitioner argued before examining attorney that its mark and that of respondent were not confusingly similar does not preclude petitioner from asserting likelihood of confusion as ground for cancellation); and *Revco, D.S., Inc. v. Chapter 300 PLEADINGS

37 CFR § 2.99(h) The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board will consider and determine concurrent use rights only in the context of a concurrent use registration proceeding.

37 CFR § 2.133(c) Geographic limitations will be considered and determined by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board only in the context of a concurrent use registration proceeding.

Under Section 18 of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1068, the Board has the authority to cancel registrations in whole or in part, to restrict the goods or services identified in an application or registration, or to "otherwise restrict or rectify...the registration of a registered mark."¹⁶⁶ (However, geographic limitations will be considered and determined by the Board only within the context of a concurrent use registration proceeding).¹⁶⁷ For example, a plaintiff may seek to partially cancel a registration, or partially oppose registration only as to specific items in the identification of goods or services, or only to the extent of restricting the goods or services in a particular manner in terms of type, use, customers, trade channels, etc.¹⁶⁸

A claim in which the plaintiff seeks to delete specific items on the grounds that the defendant is no longer using, and has no intent to resume use of its mark on those goods or services, is essentially a "straightforward" pleading of abandonment.¹⁶⁹

A claim in which the plaintiff seeks to restrict or modify the goods or services in a particular manner, that is, by the addition of wording that identifies the goods or services

¹⁶⁶ See Section 18 of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1068; 37 CFR §§ 2.111(b) and 2.133(b); Wellcome Foundation Ltd. v. Merck & Co., 46 USPQ2d 1478, 1479 (TTAB 1998); and Eurostar Inc. v. "Euro-Star" Reitmoden GmbH & Co. KG, 34 USPQ2d 1266, 1270 (TTAB 1994). Compare Seculus Da Amazonia S/A v. Toyota Jidosha Kabushiki Kaisha, 66 USPQ2d 1154 (TTAB 2003) (opposition based on applicant's alleged misconduct and unclean hands in its dealing with the U.S. Customs Service fails to constitute a claim that is cognizable under Section 18).

with greater particularity in terms of type, use, channels of trade, etc., is in the nature of an equitable remedy under Section 18 and does not require pleading and proof of specific grounds for cancellation or opposition, such as abandonment.¹⁷⁰ However, the Board will not permit an action to restrict or modify the goods or services in this manner where such a claim is divorced from the question of likelihood of confusion.¹⁷¹ Thus, a party seeking to restrict an opponent's broadly worded identification of goods or services, in a case involving likelihood of confusion, must plead and prove that (i) the entry of a proposed restriction to the goods or services in its opponent's application or registration will avoid a finding of likelihood of confusion and (ii) the opponent is not using its mark on those goods or services that will be effectively excluded from the application or registration if the proposed restriction is entered.¹⁷²

In considering a restriction of a registration, the Board will look to the nature of the use made by registrant as of the time the restriction is sought, not as of the time registration was sought.¹⁷³

A petition to partially cancel a registration by restricting the goods or services in a particular manner in terms of type, use, channels of trade, etc., in order to avoid a likelihood of confusion can be made against registrations over 5 years old as well as those less than 5 years old.¹⁷⁴ Such claim is in the nature of an equitable remedy and does not constitute an attack on the validity of a registration.¹⁷⁵

A petition to restrict or clarify the description of a mark in a registration would fall under the provision giving Board authority to "restrict or rectify" the register.¹⁷⁶ As in the case

¹⁷¹ See DAK, supra at 1437 and Eurostar, supra at 1270. [Note: To the extent that cases decided prior to Eurostar permitted a restriction petition in the absence of a pleading that the restriction sought will avoid a likelihood of confusion, and to the extent that those cases required the pleading and proof of a separate ground of nonuse or abandonment, those cases were expressly overruled by Eurostar.]

of a petition to restrict goods or services, a proper pleading to restrict the description of a mark could include allegations that, for example, the description of the mark in the registration is ambiguous or overly broad and not specific to the mark actually used by the defendant, and that the limitation would avoid a finding of a likelihood of confusion.¹⁷⁷

That same provision, along with the authority to "register the mark...for the person...entitled thereto," allows the Board to correct, respectively, a registration or application, to identify the true owner, if such correction is warranted.¹⁷⁸

As in the case of any other claim, a claim for partial opposition or partial cancellation ordinarily should be asserted prior to trial in order to give the defendant fair notice thereof.¹⁷⁹ In addition, the claim must be specific in nature so that the defendant has fair notice of the specific restriction being sought.¹⁸⁰ Any claim that is not pleaded in the complaint, as originally filed or as amended (or deemed amended) pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a) or 15(b), will not be entertained by the Board.¹⁸¹

A defense which seeks to restrict a plaintiff's pleaded registration will not be entertained in the absence of a timely counterclaim, or separate petition, to cancel the registration in whole or in part.¹⁸²

309.04 Defects in Complaint That May Affect Institution of Proceeding

No proceeding will be instituted, and any submitted filing fee will be refunded in the following circumstances:

- (1) If an opposition filed during an extension of time to oppose is in the name of someone other than the person who obtained the extension, and the opposer is unable to show, pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.102(b), that it is in privity with the person who obtained the extension, or that the person in whose name the extension was requested was misidentified by mistake.¹⁸³
- (2) If an opposition or a petition for cancellation is filed prematurely (i.e., prior to publication of the subject mark in the Official Gazette for purposes of opposition, or prior to issuance of a registration of the subject mark, respectively, even if the registration has issued by the time of the Board's action).¹⁸⁴
- (3) If an opposition is filed after the time for opposing has expired; or is filed unsigned, and a signed copy is not submitted within the time limit set in the notification of this defect by the Board; or is filed without the required fee; or if the opposed application was abandoned before the opposition was filed.¹⁸⁵

Proceedings will be instituted and the filing fee charged in the following circumstances:

- (1) If a petition to cancel a Principal Register registration that is more than five years old does not allege any ground upon which such a registration can be cancelled (see Section 14 of the Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. § 1064), the cancellation will be instituted and the Board will issue an order to show cause why the petition should not be dismissed for failure to state a claim. Any fee submitted therewith will not be refunded.

(2) If a petition for cancellation is filed with respect to a registration which, at the time of the filing of the petition, was not a "live" registration (e.g., the time for filing an affidavit of use under Section 8 of the Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. § 1058, had expired, and no acceptable affidavit had been filed; the registration had already been cancelled as the result of a previous cancellation proceeding), the proceeding will be instituted, and then dismissed as moot. Any fee submitted with the petition for cancellation will not be refunded.

(3) If a party files an opposition or a petition for cancellation, and immediately thereafter changes its mind, and requests that the opposition or petition for cancellation not be instituted and that the papers be returned, the request ordinarily will be denied, and the proceeding will be instituted, unless there is a defect in the opposition or petition for cancellation which precludes institution, in which case no proceeding will be instituted, and any submitted fee will be refunded.

When a proceeding is erroneously instituted, the proceeding will be dismissed as a nullity, rather than vacated, so as to maintain the integrity of the proceeding numbers. The Board will retain all papers.

310 Notification to Parties of Proceeding and Setting Time to Answer

310.01 Notification to Parties of Proceeding

37 CFR § 2.105 Notification to parties of opposition proceeding[s].

(a) When an opposition in proper form has been filed and the correct fee has been submitted, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board shall prepare a notification, which shall identify the title and number of the proceeding and the application involved and shall designate a time, not less than thirty days from the mailing date of the notification, within which an answer must be filed.

(b) The Board shall forward a copy of the notification to opposer, as follows:

(1) If the opposition is transmitted by an attorney, or a written power of attorney is filed, the Board will send the notification to the attorney transmitting the opposition or to the attorney designated in the power of attorney, provided that the person is an "attorney" as defined in §10.1(c) of this chapter.

(2) If opposer is not represented by an attorney in the opposition, but opposer has appointed a domestic representative, the Board will send the notification to the domestic representative, unless opposer designates in writing another correspondence address.

(3) If opposer is not represented by an attorney in the opposition, and no domestic representative has been appointed, the Board will send the notification directly to opposer, unless opposer designates in writing another correspondence address.

(c) The Board shall forward a copy of the opposition and any exhibits with a copy of the notification to applicant, as follows:

(1) If the opposed application contains a clear indication that the application is being prosecuted by an attorney, as defined in §10.1(c) of this chapter, the Board shall send the documents described in this section to applicant's attorney.

(2) If the opposed application is not being prosecuted by an attorney but a domestic representative has been appointed, the Board will send the documents described in this section to the domestic representative, unless applicant designates in writing another correspondence address.

(3) If the opposed application is not being prosecuted by an attorney, and no domestic representative has been appointed, the Board will send the documents described in this section directly to applicant, unless applicant designates in writing another correspondence address.

37 CFR § 2.113 Notification to parties of cancellation proceeding.

(a) When a petition for cancellation has been filed in proper form (see §§ 2.111 and 2.112), the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board shall prepare a notification which shall identify the title and number of the proceeding and the registration(s) involved and shall designate a time, not less than thirty days from the mailing date of the notification, within which an answer must be filed.

(b) The Board shall forward a copy of the notification to petitioner, as follows:

(1) If the petition for cancellation is transmitted by an attorney, or a written power of attorney is filed, the Board will send the notification to the attorney transmitting the petition for cancellation or to the attorney designated in the power of attorney, provided that person is an "attorney" as defined in §10.1(c) of this chapter.

(2) If petitioner is not represented by an attorney in the cancellation proceeding, but petitioner has appointed a domestic representative, the Board will send the notification to the domestic representative, unless petitioner designates in writing another correspondence address.

(3) If petitioner is not represented by an attorney in the cancellation proceeding, and no domestic representative has been appointed, the Board will send the notification directly to petitioner, unless petitioner designates in writing another correspondence address.

(c) The Board shall forward a copy of the petition for cancellation and any exhibits with a copy of the notification to the respondent (see §2.118). The respondent shall be the party shown by the records of the Office to be the current owner of the registration(s) sought to be cancelled, except that the Board, in its discretion, may join or substitute as respondent a party who makes a showing of a current ownership interest in such registration(s).

(d) When the party alleged by the petitioner, pursuant to §2.112(a), as the current owner of the registration(s) is not the record owner, a courtesy copy of the petition for cancellation shall be forwarded with a copy of the notification to the alleged current owner. The alleged current owner may file a motion to be joined or substituted as respondent.

(e) If the petition for cancellation is found to be defective as to form, the party filing the petition for cancellation shall be advised and allowed reasonable time for correcting the informality.

When a timely opposition in proper form has been filed, and the required fee has been submitted, the Board obtains the file of the opposed application and sets up an opposition proceeding file.¹⁸⁶ The defendant in the opposition is the party shown by the records of the USPTO to be the current owner of the opposed application, except that the Board, in its discretion, may join or substitute as defendant a party that makes a showing of a current ownership interest in the application.¹⁸⁷

When a timely petition to cancel in proper form, together with the required fee, has been filed (see 37 CFR §§ 2.111(a) and 2.113(a)), the Board obtains the file of the registration sought to be cancelled and checks the assignment records of the Office to determine whether there is any recorded assignment of the registration, and, if so, the identity of the assignee. After the title search has been completed, the cancellation proceeding file is set up.¹⁸⁸ The defendant in the cancellation proceeding is the party shown by the records of the Office to be the current owner of the registration sought to be cancelled, except that the Board, in its discretion, may join or substitute as defendant a party which makes a showing of a current ownership interest in the registration.¹⁸⁹

Next, the Board prepares a notification wherein it notifies the defendant of the filing of the complaint and both parties of the formal institution of the proceeding. The notification includes the identification information described in 37 CFR § 2.105(a), for an opposition, or in 37 CFR § 2.113(a), for a cancellation; states that proceedings in the case will be conducted in accordance with the Trademark Rules of Practice and specifies the due date for the filing of defendant's answer to the complaint. The notice also includes a trial order specifying the opening and closing dates for the discovery period and assigning each party's time for taking testimony.¹⁹⁰

One copy of the notification is sent to the attorney or other authorized representative of the plaintiff, or, if the plaintiff is representing itself, to the plaintiff itself. If the plaintiff is not represented by an attorney, but the plaintiff has appointed a domestic representative, the Board will send the notification to the domestic representative, unless petitioner designates in writing another correspondence address.¹⁹¹ In an opposition, a second copy of the notification is sent, together with a copy of the notice of opposition and any exhibits thereto, to the attorney or other authorized representative of the applicant, or, if the applicant is representing itself, to the applicant itself. If the applicant is not represented by an attorney but the applicant has appointed a domestic representative, the Board will send the notification to the domestic representative unless the applicant designates in writing another correspondence address.¹⁹² In a cancellation, a second copy of the notification is sent, together with a copy of the petition to cancel and any exhibits thereto, to the respondent itself, or to the respondent's domestic representative if one is appointed, even if there is an attorney or other authorized representative of record in the application file after the mark has registered.¹⁹³

The reason why the complaint and notification are sent to the defendant's attorney or other authorized representative, if any, in an opposition, but are always sent to the defendant itself in a cancellation, is that any appearance or power of attorney (or designation of other authorized representative) of record in an application file at the time of the commencement of an opposition is considered to be effective for purposes of the proceeding, whereas any representation which may be of record in an application file after the mark has registered at the time of the commencement of a cancellation is not considered to be effective for purposes of the proceeding. Typically, a power of attorney in an application appoints the named attorney "to prosecute this application to register, to transact all business in the Patent and Trademark Office in connection therewith, and to receive the certificate of registration." That is, the power extends only up to the issuance and receipt of a registration. As a practical matter, the representation in an application file usually is, of necessity, current and active, whereas often the attorney or other authorized representative of record in a registration file has not taken any action on behalf of the client registrant for some years, may no longer represent registrant, may not know where registrant is currently located or may no longer be in practice, etc. However, if the Board is unable to locate the registrant for purposes of serving a copy of the complaint and notification on it, and the registration file reflects that an attorney or other authorized representative has appeared therein on registrant's behalf within the last five years or so, the Board will, if necessary, contact the attorney or other authorized representative and ask for information concerning registrant's current address.¹⁹⁴

In a cancellation proceeding, if the party identified by the petitioner pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.112(a) as the current owner of the registration sought to be cancelled is not the record owner thereof, the Board will send to the alleged current owner a courtesy copy of the notification, together with a copy of the petition to cancel and any exhibits thereto. If the alleged current owner believes that it is, in fact, the current owner of the registration and wishes to defend the registration against the petition to cancel, it may file a motion, supported by a showing of its current ownership interest in the registration, to be joined or substituted as respondent.¹⁹⁵

310.02 Defendant's Copy of Complaint Returned as Undeliverable

If an applicant in an opposition is not represented by an attorney or other authorized representative, and the applicant's copies of the opposition and notification are returned to the Board as undeliverable, the Board will make all reasonable efforts to locate the applicant. It should be noted, however, that it is the responsibility of an applicant representing itself to keep the Office informed of its current address. If the applicant fails to do so, and the Board is unable to locate the applicant, the Board will continue to send correspondence relating to the opposition to applicant's last-known address, and when applicant fails to file an answer to the notice of opposition, the opposition may be decided as in case of default.

If, in a cancellation proceeding, the respondent's copies of the petition to cancel and notification are returned to the Board as undeliverable, the Board will send an inquiry to the petitioner asking the petitioner for information concerning respondent's current address. If the petitioner files a response indicating that the respondent is no longer in business, notice of the filing of the petition to cancel will be published in the Official Gazette, pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.118. If the petitioner fails to file a response to the Board's inquiry, or files a response indicating that it is unable to furnish respondent's current address, the Board will make all reasonable efforts to locate the respondent.¹⁹⁶ If the Board is unable to locate the respondent after reasonable investigation, notice of the filing of the petition to cancel will be published in the Official Gazette.¹⁹⁷

When notice of the filing of a petition to cancel is published in the Official Gazette, the published notice allows the respondent thirty days from the publication date thereof in which to appear in the cancellation proceeding. If respondent fails to appear within the time allowed, default judgment may be entered against respondent.

310.03 Setting Time for Filing Answer

37 CFR § 2.105 Notification to parties of opposition proceeding[s].

(a) When an opposition in proper form has been filed and the correct fee has been submitted, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board shall prepare a notification, which shall identify the title and number of the proceeding and the application involved and shall designate a time, not less than thirty days from the mailing date of the notification, within which an answer must be filed.

37 CFR § 2.113 Notification to parties of cancellation proceeding.

(a) When a petition for cancellation has been filed in proper form (see §§ 2.111 and 2.112), the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board shall prepare a notification which shall identify the title and number of the proceeding and the registration(s) involved and shall designate a time, not less than thirty days from the mailing date of the notification, within which an answer must be filed.

Trademark Rules 2.105(a) and 2.113(a), 37 CFR §§ 2.105(a) and 2.113(a), provide, in part, that the Board's notification of the filing of an opposition or petition to cancel "shall designate a time, not less than thirty days from the mailing date of the notification, within which an answer must be filed." A defendant is under no obligation to file an answer to the complaint in an opposition or cancellation proceeding until it receives the Board's notification setting the time for filing an answer.¹⁹⁸ It is the general practice of the Board to allow the defendant in an opposition or cancellation proceeding 40 days from the mailing date of the notification in which to file its answer.

For information on the time for filing an answer to a counterclaim, see TBMP § 313.06.

Chapter 300 PLEADINGS

310.03(b) Trademark Rule 2.119(c) 5-Day Addition Not Applicable to Deadlines Set by Board

Trademark Rule 2.119(c), 37 CFR § 2.119(c), provides, in part, that "[w]hen a party is required to take some action within a prescribed period after the service of a paper on the party by another party and the paper is served by first-class mail, 'Express Mail' or overnight courier, 5 days shall be added to the prescribed period." This provision, by its very terms, applies only when a party has to take some action within a prescribed period after the service of a paper on it by another party (and service of the paper was made in one of three specified ways). It does not apply to an action that must be taken by a party within a time set in a communication from the Board.

Thus, when a Board notification allows the defendant 40 days from the mailing date of the notification in which to file an answer to the complaint, the answer is due on or before the 40th day, not on the 45th day. Similarly, when the Board allows a counterclaim defendant 30 days from the mailing date of the Board's notification in which to file an answer to the counterclaim, the answer is due on or before the 30th day, not on the 35th day.

310.03(c) Extension of Time to File Answer

The time for filing an answer may be extended or reopened by stipulation of the parties, approved by the Board, or on motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board.¹⁹⁹ However, due dates for answers to complaints may not be extended beyond the close of discovery. A motion to extend the time to answer beyond the close of discovery, even if consented, will be denied. Thus, any extension request, which would reset the time to answer beyond the date presently set for the close of discovery, must also include a request for an extension of the discovery period.

311 Form and Content of Answer

311.01 Form of Answer

37 CFR § 2.126 Form of submissions to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

(a) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board on paper where Board practice or the rules in this part permit. A paper submission, including exhibits and depositions, must meet the following requirements:

(1) A paper submission must be printed in at least 11-point type and double-spaced, with text on one side only of each sheet;

¹⁹⁹ See Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b), and TBMP § 509 (Motion to Extend Time).

Chapter 300 PLEADINGS

(2) A paper submission must be 8 to 8.5 inches (20.3 to 21.6 cm.) wide and 11 to 11.69 inches (27.9 to 29.7 cm.) long, and contain no tabs or other such devices extending beyond the edges of the paper;

(3) If a paper submission contains dividers, the dividers must not have any extruding tabs or other devices, and must be on the same size and weight paper as the submission;

(4) A paper submission must not be stapled or bound;

(5) All pages of a paper submission must be numbered and exhibits shall be identified in the manner prescribed in §2.123(g)(2);

(6) Exhibits pertaining to a paper submission must be filed on paper or CD-ROM concurrently with the paper submission, and comply with the requirements for a paper or CD-ROM submission.

(b) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board on CD-ROM where the rules in this part or Board practice permit. A CD-ROM submission must identify the parties and case number and contain a list that clearly identifies the documents and exhibits contained thereon. This information must appear in the data contained in the CD-ROM itself, on a label affixed to the CD-ROM, and on the packaging for the CD-ROM. Text in a CD-ROM submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced. A brief filed on CD-ROM must be accompanied by a single paper copy of the brief. A CD-ROM submission must be accompanied by a transmittal letter on paper that identifies the parties, the case number and the contents of the CD-ROM.

(c) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board electronically via the Internet where the rules in this part or Board practice permit, according to the parameters established by the Board and published on the web site of the Office. Text in an electronic submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced. Exhibits pertaining to an electronic submission must be made electronically as an attachment to the submission.

(d) To be handled as confidential, submissions to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board that are confidential in whole or part pursuant to § 2.125(e) must be submitted under a separate cover. Both the submission and its cover must be marked confidential and must identify the case number and the parties. A copy of the submission with the confidential portions redacted must be submitted.

An answer to a notice of opposition or petition to cancel corresponds to an answer to a complaint in a court proceeding.²⁰⁰

The form of an answer must meet the general requirements for submissions to the Board set forth in 37 CFR 2.126.²⁰¹ If an answer is filed electronically through ESTTA, the text in the electronic submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced and any exhibits pertaining to the electronic submission must be made electronically as an attachment to the complaint.²⁰² If the answer is submitted on paper, the submission, including any exhibits, may not be stapled or bound or have any extruding tabs, and must otherwise comply with the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.126(a). Submissions made on CD-ROM are governed by 37 CFR § 2.126(b).

²⁰¹ See TBMP § 106.03 (Form of Submissions).

311.01(a) Format for Answer

An answer need not follow a particular format, as long as the answer meets the requirements for the particular type of submission to the Board (Rule § 2.126(a) for paper, 2.126(b) for CD-ROM, and 2.126(c) for electronic filings through ESTTA), and otherwise includes the necessary information. The format for an answer is similar to a complaint and should include the following information:

An answer should bear at its top the heading "IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD," followed by the name of the proceeding (e.g., "ABC Corporation v. XYZ Company"), the proceeding number (e.g., "Opposition No. 91156789" or Cancellation No. 92042567"), and a title describing the nature of the paper (e.g., "ANSWER," "ANSWER AND COUNTERCLAIM," etc.).²⁰³

Substance of answer: The answer must contain admissions and/or denials of the allegations in the complaint and may include any defenses to those allegations.²⁰⁴

Signature: The answer must be signed and include a description of the capacity in which the signing individual signs, e.g., attorney for defendant, defendant (if defendant is an individual), partner of defendant (if defendant is a partnership), officer of defendant identified by title (if defendant is a corporation), etc.²⁰⁵

311.01(b) Signature of Answer

An answer need not be verified, but it must be signed. Electronic signatures pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.193(c)(1)(iii) (Trademark correspondence and signature requirements) are required for answers submitted electronically via ESTTA. The signature may be made by the defendant or by the defendant's attorney or other authorized representative.²⁰⁶ If a defendant signing for itself is an individual, the individual must make the signature. If a defendant signing for itself is a partnership, a partner must make the signature. If a defendant signing for itself is a corporation, association, or similar juristic entity, the signature must be made by an individual who is an officer of defendant and who is authorized to represent it. The signature should be accompanied by a description of the capacity in which the signing individual signs (i.e., as defendant, if defendant is an individual; as counsel for defendant; as a partner of defendant, if defendant is a partnership; as an officer of defendant identified by title, if defendant is a corporation; etc.).

Although an answer must be signed, an unsigned answer will not be refused consideration if a signed copy is submitted to the Board within the time limit set in the notification of this defect by the Board.²⁰⁷

311.01(c) Filing and Service of Answer

One copy of the answer, and any exhibits thereto, must be filed with the Board. Another copy of the answer, with any exhibits thereto, must be served by the defendant upon the attorney for the plaintiff, or on the plaintiff if there is no attorney. The answer must bear proof (e.g., a certificate of service, consisting of a statement signed by the filing party, or by its attorney or other authorized representative, clearly stating the date and manner in which service was made) that such service has been made before the paper will be considered by the Board.²⁰⁸

For information on the time for filing an answer, see TBMP § 310.03.

311.02 Substance of Answer

37 CFR § 2.106(b)(1) An answer shall state in short and plain terms the applicant's defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the opposer relies. If the applicant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, applicant shall so state and this will have the effect of a denial. Denials may take any of the forms specified in Rule 8(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. An answer may contain any defense, including the affirmative defenses of unclean hands, laches, estoppel, acquiescence, fraud, mistake, prior judgment, or any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. When pleading special matters, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall be followed. A reply to an affirmative defense need not be filed. When a defense attacks the validity of a registration pleaded in the opposition, paragraph (b)(2) of this section shall govern. A pleaded registration is a registration identified by number and date of issuance in an original notice of opposition or in any amendment thereto made under Rule 15, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(2)(i) A defense attacking the validity of any one or more of the registrations pleaded in the opposition shall be a compulsory counterclaim if grounds for such counterclaim exist at the time when the answer is filed. If grounds for a counterclaim are known to the applicant when the answer to the opposition is filed, the counterclaim shall be pleaded with or as part of the answer. If grounds for a counterclaim are learned during the course of the opposition proceeding, the counterclaim shall be pleaded promptly after the grounds therefor are learned. A counterclaim need not be filed if it is the subject of another proceeding between the same parties or anyone in privity therewith.

(ii) An attack on the validity of a registration pleaded by an opposer will not be heard unless a counterclaim or separate petition is filed to seek the cancellation of such registration.

37 CFR § 2.114(b)(1) An answer shall state in short and plain terms the respondent's defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the petitioner relies. If the respondent is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, respondent shall so state and this will have the effect of a denial. Denials may take any of the forms specified in Rule 8(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. An answer may contain any defense, including the affirmative defenses of unclean hands, laches, estoppel, acquiescence, fraud, mistake, prior judgment, or any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. When pleading special matters, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall be followed. A reply to an affirmative defense need not be filed. When a defense attacks the validity of a registration pleaded in the petition, paragraph (b)(2) of this section shall govern. A pleaded registration is a registration identified by number and date of issuance in an original petition for cancellation or in any amendment thereto made under Rule 15, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(2)(i) A defense attacking the validity of any one or more of the registrations pleaded in the petition shall be a compulsory counterclaim if grounds for such counterclaim exist at the time when the answer is filed. If grounds for a counterclaim are known to respondent when the answer to the petition is filed, the counterclaim shall be pleaded with or as part of the answer. If grounds for a counterclaim are learned during the course of the cancellation proceeding, the counterclaim shall be pleaded promptly after the grounds therefor are learned. A counterclaim need not be filed if it is the subject of another proceeding between the same parties or anyone in privity therewith.

(ii) An attack on the validity of a registration pleaded by a petitioner for cancellation will not be heard unless a counterclaim or separate petition is filed to seek the cancellation of such registration.

37 CFR § 2.133(d) A plaintiff's pleaded registration will not be restricted in the absence of a counterclaim to cancel the registration in whole or in part, except that a counterclaim need not be filed if the registration is the subject of another proceeding between the same parties or anyone in privity therewith.

311.02(a) Admissions and Denials

The defendant should not argue the merits of the allegations in a complaint but rather should state, as to each of the allegations contained in the complaint, that the allegation is either admitted or denied.²⁰⁹ If the defendant does not have sufficient information to admit or deny an allegation, the defendant may so state, and this statement will have the effect of a denial as to that allegation. If the complaint consists of numbered paragraphs setting forth the basis of plaintiff's claim of damage, the defendant's admissions or denials should be made in numbered paragraphs corresponding to the numbered paragraphs in the complaint.

A denial of an allegation should fairly meet the substance of the allegation denied, and may take any of the forms described in Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b).²¹⁰ An answer that fails to deny a portion of an allegation may be deemed admitted as to that portion.²¹¹ Thus, if a defendant intends in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an allegation, the defendant should admit so much of the allegation as is true and material and should deny only the remainder. If a defendant intends in good faith to controvert all of the allegations contained in a complaint, the defendant may do so by general denial, subject to the obligations set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 11 (for a discussion of Fed. R. Civ. P. 11 in relation to pleadings, see TBMP § 318). If a defendant does not intend in good faith to controvert all of the allegations contained in a complaint, the defendant may make its denials as specific denials of designated allegations or paragraphs, or may generally deny all the allegations except those designated allegations or paragraphs which are expressly admitted.

In the absence of a general denial of some or all of the allegations in a complaint, admissions or denials should be made in numbered paragraphs corresponding to the numbered paragraphs in the complaint.

311.02(b) Affirmative Defenses

An answer may also include a short and plain statement of any defenses, including affirmative defenses that the defendant may have to the claim or claims asserted by the plaintiff.²¹² Affirmative defenses may include unclean hands, laches, estoppel, acquiescence, fraud, mistake, prior registration (Morehouse) defense, prior judgment, or any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense.²¹³ Such defenses may also include a pleading that defendant is at least entitled to a registration with a particular restriction (described in the pleading in sufficient detail to give plaintiff fair notice of the basis for the defense),²¹⁴ except that geographic restrictions will be considered and determined by the Board only in the context of a concurrent use registration proceeding.²¹⁵ A request by defendant to restrict its identification of goods or services under Section 18 of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1068, must be made either by way of

Strickland and Co.*, 407 F.2d 881, 160 USPQ 715 (CCPA 1969) (that defendant already owns a substantially similar registered mark for substantially similar goods and/or services such that the second registration (or second registration sought) causes no added injury to the plaintiff). an affirmative pleading in the answer (as originally filed, or as amended, or deemed amended) or by way of motion under 37 CFR § 2.133, in order to be considered by the Board.²¹⁶

Equitable defenses may not be available against certain grounds for opposition or cancellation or under certain circumstances. For example, the availability of laches and acquiescence is severely limited in opposition and cancellation proceedings because these defenses, in Board proceedings, start to run from the time of knowledge of the application for registration (that is, from the time the mark is published for opposition), not from the time of knowledge of use.²¹⁷ Moreover, for public policy reasons, the defenses of laches and acquiescence may not be available against claims such as genericness, descriptiveness, fraud, abandonment and functionality, and further, may not apply in a case of likelihood of confusion if it is determined in the case that confusion is inevitable.²¹⁸

Envirogard Ltd.*, 43 USPQ2d 1371, 1373 (TTAB 1991) (laches defense in an opposition may be based on opposer's failure to object to an earlier expired registration of substantially the same mark for substantially the same goods).

²¹⁸ See Saint-Gobain Abrasives, Inc. v. Unova Industrial Automation Systems, Inc., 66 USPQ2d 1355, 1359 (TTAB 2003) (it is within the public interest to have certain registrations removed from the register and this interest, quoting *W. D. Byron & Sons, Inc. v. Stein Bros. Mfg. See also, e.g., Callaway Vineyard & Winery v. Endsley Capital Group, Inc., 63 USPQ2d 1919, 1923 (TTAB 2002) (equitable defenses of laches, acquiescence and estoppel cannot be asserted against claim of descriptiveness); *Turner v. Chapter 300 PLEADINGS

Similarly, the "prior registration" or Morehouse defense, an equitable defense in the nature of laches or acquiescence,²¹⁹ is not available in all cases.²²⁰ In addition, the Morehouse defense will not be applied where defendant's prior registration is on the Supplemental Register, or if the prior registration did not issue until after commencement of the proceeding in which it is asserted as basis for this defense, or if plaintiff has petitioned to cancel the prior registration.²²¹

The elements of a defense should be stated simply, concisely, and directly.²²² However, the pleading should include enough detail to give the plaintiff fair notice of the basis for the defense.²²³ When one of the special matters listed in Fed. R. Civ. P. 9 (including, inter alia, capacity, fraud, and judgment) is pleaded, the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 9 governing the pleading of that special matter should be followed.²²⁴

A defendant may state as many separate defenses as it has, regardless of consistency; a defendant may also set forth two or more statements of a defense alternately or hypothetically, either in one count or in separate counts.²²⁵ For example, an applicant view of personal nature of claim with no overriding public interest precluding assertion of equitable defenses); and Treadwell's Drifters Inc. v. Marshak, 18 USPQ2d 1318 (TTAB 1990) (equitable defenses can be asserted against Section 2(a) claim of "false suggestion of a connection").

Cf. also Taffy's of Cleveland, Inc. v. Taffy's, Inc., 189 USPQ 154, 156-57 (TTAB 1975) (fact that petitioner argued before examining attorney that its mark and that of respondent were not confusingly similar does not preclude petitioner from asserting likelihood of confusion as ground for cancellation); and *Revco, D.S., Inc. v. Chapter 300 PLEADINGS whose application for registration has been opposed under Section 2(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d), on the ground of opposer's alleged prior use of its mark, coupled with an allegation of likelihood of confusion, might deny that there is any likelihood of confusion with respect to its mark and goods as set forth in the application. At the same time, the applicant might plead alternatively that it actually uses its mark only on a specific type (identified in the pleading) of the goods covered by the broad identification in its application; that there is no likelihood of confusion with respect to applicant's actual goods; and that even if the Board ultimately finds that opposer is entitled to judgment with respect to applicant's goods as broadly identified, applicant would be entitled to a registration of its mark with a restricted identification reflecting the actual nature of its goods.²²⁶

When two or more statements are made in the alternative, the sufficiency of each is determined independently; the fact that one of them may be insufficient does not mean that the other(s) is (are) also insufficient.²²⁷

Evidentiary matters (such as, for example, lists of third-party registrations on which defendant intends to rely) should not be pleaded in an answer. They are matters for proof, not for pleading.²²⁸

The Board will not entertain a defense that attacks the validity of a registration pleaded by a plaintiff unless the defendant timely files a counterclaim or a separate petition to cancel the registration.²²⁹ Moreover, a defense which seeks to restrict a plaintiff's pleaded registration as, for example, by limiting the goods or services therein, or by deleting some of the goods or services, will not be entertained in the absence of a timely counterclaim, or separate petition, to cancel the registration in whole or in part.²³⁰

When a defense is raised by way of a counterclaim, it should not also be pleaded as an affirmative defense, because the pleading of it as an affirmative defense is unnecessary and redundant.²³⁴

311.02(d) Other Affirmative Pleadings - Amplifying Denials

An answer may include affirmative assertions that, although they may not rise to the level of an affirmative defense, nevertheless state the reasons for, and thus amplify, the defendant's denial of one or more of the allegations in the complaint. These amplifications of denials, whether referred to as "affirmative defenses," "avoidances," "affirmative pleadings," or "arguments," are permitted by the Board because they serve to give the plaintiff fuller notice of the position which the defendant plans to take in defense of its right to registration.²³⁶

311.03 Reply to Answer Should Not be Filed

Although Trademark Rules 2.106(b) and 2.114(b) require that an answer to a counterclaim be filed, within the time designated by the Board, they specifically provide that a reply to an affirmative defense need not be filed.²³⁷ Similarly, Fed. R. Civ. P. 7(a) provides that there shall be a complaint and an answer and a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such; that certain other specified pleadings, not relevant to Board proceedings (and not including a reply to an answer), shall be allowed; but that "[n]o other pleading shall be allowed, except that the court may order a reply to an answer."

Thus, while a plaintiff must file an answer to a counterclaim, a reply to an answer need not, and should not, be filed.

312 Default

312.01 In General

37 CFR § 2.106(a) If no answer is filed within the time set, the opposition may be decided as in case of default.

37 CFR § 2.114(a) If no answer is filed within the time set, the petition may be decided as in case of default.

If a defendant fails to file an answer to a complaint during the time allowed therefor, the Board may issue a notice of default. The notice states that neither an answer nor any extension of time to answer has been filed; that notice of default under Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a) is entered; and that defendant is allowed 20 days from the mailing date of the notice in which to show cause why default judgment should not be entered against it. If the defendant fails to file a response to the notice, or files a response that does not show good cause, default judgment may be entered against it.²³⁸

If the defendant fails to file a response to the notice, or files a response which does not show good cause in a case where the plaintiff is seeking to partially cancel a registration or partially oppose an application under Section 18 of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1068, default judgment will be entered only to the extent that the restriction requested by plaintiff will be entered.²³⁹

The issue of whether default judgment should be entered against a defendant for failure to file a timely answer to the complaint may also be raised by means other than the Board's issuance of a notice of default. For example, the plaintiff, realizing that the defendant is in default, may file a motion for default judgment (in which case the motion may serve as a substitute for the Board's issuance of a notice of default); or the defendant itself, realizing that it is in default, may file a motion asking that its late-filed answer be accepted.²⁴⁰ However the issue is raised, the standard for determining whether default judgment should be entered against the defendant for its failure to file a timely answer to the complaint is the Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(c) standard, that is, whether the defendant has shown good cause why default judgment should not be entered against it.²⁴¹

When a defendant who has not yet filed an answer to a complaint files a response to a notice of default, or to a motion for default judgment, the late answer normally should be submitted with the response. However, in some cases it may not be necessary for the defendant to submit its answer with the response. Examples include cases where the defendant has not received the copies of the complaint and notification letter sent to it by the Board, or where the parties have settled the case or agreed to an extension of the defendant's time to file an answer.

312.02 Setting Aside Notice of Default

If a defendant who has failed to file a timely answer to the complaint responds to a notice of default by filing a satisfactory showing of good cause why default judgment should not be entered against it, the Board will set aside the notice of default.²⁴² Similarly, if the defendant files such a showing in response to a motion by the plaintiff for default judgment, or in support of its own motion asking that its late-filed answer be accepted, default judgment will not be entered against it.

Good cause why default judgment should not be entered against a defendant, for failure to file a timely answer to the complaint, is usually found when the defendant shows that (1) the delay in filing an answer was not the result of willful conduct or gross neglect on the part of the defendant, (2) the plaintiff will not be substantially prejudiced by the delay, and (3) the defendant has a meritorious defense to the action.²⁴³ The showing of a meritorious defense does not require an evaluation of the merits of the case. All that is required is a plausible response to the allegations in the complaint.²⁴⁴

The determination of whether default judgment should be entered against a party lies within the sound discretion of the Board.²⁴⁵ In exercising that discretion, the Board must be mindful of the fact that it is the policy of the law to decide cases on their merits. Accordingly, the Board is very reluctant to enter a default judgment for failure to file a timely answer, and tends to resolve any doubt on the matter in favor of the defendant. Nevertheless, entry of default judgment may be necessary in some cases.²⁴⁶

312.03 Setting Aside Default Judgment

The standard for setting aside default judgment is stricter than the standard for setting aside a notice of default.

A notice of default may be set aside on a showing of good cause.²⁴⁷ However, once default judgment has actually been entered against a defendant pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b), the judgment may be set aside only in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b), which governs motions for relief from final judgment. The stricter standard reflects public policy favoring finality of judgments and termination of litigation.²⁴⁸

The factors considered in determining a motion to set aside notice of default are also considered in determining a motion for relief from a default judgment entered pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55.²⁴⁹ Among the factors to be considered in determining a motion to vacate a default judgment for failure to answer the complaint are (1) whether the plaintiff will be prejudiced, (2) whether the default was willful, and (3) whether the defendant has a meritorious defense to the action.²⁵⁰ However, the showing submitted by the defendant is likely to be viewed with less leniency when defendant seeks relief from default judgment than when defendant seeks to show cause why default judgment should not be entered against it.²⁵¹

Nevertheless, because default judgments for failure to timely answer the complaint are not favored by the law, a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(c) and 60(b) seeking relief from such a judgment is generally treated with more liberality by the Board than are other motions under Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b) for relief from other types of judgments such as default judgments entered against plaintiffs for failure to prosecute the case.²⁵²

37 CFR § 2.106(b)(2)(i) A defense attacking the validity of any one or more of the registrations pleaded in the opposition shall be a compulsory counterclaim if grounds for such counterclaim exist at the time when the answer is filed. If grounds for a counterclaim are known to the applicant when the answer to the opposition is filed, the counterclaim shall be pleaded with or as part of the answer. If grounds for a counterclaim are learned during the course of the opposition proceeding, the counterclaim shall be pleaded promptly after the grounds therefor are learned. A counterclaim need not be filed if it is the subject of another proceeding between the same parties or anyone in privity therewith.

(ii) An attack on the validity of a registration pleaded by an opposer will not be heard unless a counterclaim or separate petition is filed to seek the cancellation of such registration.

(iii) The provisions of §§ 2.111 through 2.115, inclusive, shall be applicable to counterclaims. A time, not less than thirty days, will be designated within which an answer to the counterclaim must be filed.

(iv) The times for pleading, discovery, testimony, briefs or oral argument will be reset or extended when necessary, upon motion by a party, to enable a party fully to present or meet a counterclaim or separate petition for cancellation of a registration.

37 CFR § 2.114(b)(2)(i) A defense attacking the validity of any one or more of the registrations pleaded in the petition shall be a compulsory counterclaim if grounds for such counterclaim exist at the time when the answer is filed. If grounds for a counterclaim are known to respondent when the answer to the petition is filed, the counterclaim shall be pleaded with or as part of the answer. If grounds for a counterclaim are learned during the course of the cancellation proceeding, the counterclaim shall be pleaded promptly after the grounds therefor are learned. A counterclaim need not be filed if it is the subject of another proceeding between the same parties or anyone in privity therewith.

(ii) An attack on the validity of a registration pleaded by a petitioner for cancellation will not be heard unless a counterclaim or separate petition is filed to seek the cancellation of such registration.

(iii) The provisions of §§ 2.111 through 2.115, inclusive, shall be applicable to counterclaims. A time, not less than thirty days, will be designated within which an answer to the counterclaim must be filed.

Chapter 300 PLEADINGS

(iv) The times for pleading, discovery, testimony, briefs, or oral argument will be reset or extended when necessary, upon motion by a party, to enable a party fully to present or meet a counterclaim or separate petition for cancellation of a registration.

The Board cannot entertain an attack upon the validity of a registration pleaded by a plaintiff unless the defendant timely files a counterclaim or a separate petition to cancel the registration.²⁵³

Although Trademark Rules 2.106(b)(2)(ii) and 2.114(b)(2)(ii) specifically permit a defense attacking the validity of a plaintiff's pleaded registration to be raised either as a counterclaim or as a separate petition to cancel, the better practice is to raise the defense as a counterclaim.²⁵⁴ If the defense is raised as a separate petition to cancel, however, the petition itself and any covering letter should include a reference to the original proceeding. Further, a defendant that fails to timely plead a compulsory counterclaim cannot avoid the effect of its failure by thereafter asserting the counterclaim grounds in a separate petition to cancel.²⁵⁵

The only type of counterclaim that may be entertained by the Board is a counterclaim for cancellation of a registration owned by an adverse party.²⁵⁶

As provided in Section 18 of the Trademark Act (15 U.S.C. § 1068) a counterclaim may seek to cancel a registration in whole or in part. In the latter case, the counterclaimant may seek to cancel the registration only, for example, as to some of the listed goods or services or only to the extent of restricting the goods or services in a particular manner (described in sufficient detail to

The Englander Company, Inc.*, 324 F.2d 186, 139 USPQ 285, 287 (CCPA 1963) (improper for Board to allow applicant to collaterally attack registration in opposition where, although registration had been directly attacked by applicant in separate petition to cancel, said petition to cancel had been dismissed); and *Giant Food, Inc. v. give the respondent fair notice thereof).²⁵⁷ However, geographic limitations will be considered and determined by the Board only within the context of a concurrent use registration proceeding.²⁵⁸ A counterclaim to partially cancel a registration by restricting the manner of use of the goods or services therein in order to avoid a likelihood of confusion is in the nature of an equitable remedy and does not constitute an attack on the validity of a registration.²⁵⁹

A counterclaim is the legal equivalent of a petition to cancel. Thus, the provisions of 37 CFR §§ 2.111 through 2.115, governing petitions to cancel, are applicable to counterclaims.²⁶⁰

When necessary to enable a party fully to present or meet a counterclaim or separate petition to cancel a registration, the times for pleading, discovery, testimony, briefs and/or oral argument will be reset or extended. A party that believes that such a resetting or extension is necessary should file a motion therefor with the Board.²⁶¹

313.02 Fee For Counterclaim

37 CFR §§ 2.106(b)(2)(iii) The provisions of §§ 2.111 through 2.115, inclusive, shall be applicable to counterclaims. A time, not less than thirty days, will be designated within which an answer to the counterclaim must be filed.

A counterclaim for cancellation of a plaintiff's registration is the legal equivalent of a separate petition to cancel. The required filing fee must be paid when a petition to cancel takes the form of a counterclaim, just as it must be paid when a petition to cancel takes the form of a separate proceeding.²⁶² That is, the required fee (see 37 CFR § 2.6) must be paid for each party joined as counterclaimant for each class sought to be cancelled in each registration against which the counterclaim is filed.²⁶³

If no fee is submitted with the counterclaim, or the fee is insufficient to pay for one person to counterclaim to cancel the registration in at least one class, the counterclaim will be rejected. If the counterclaim is accompanied by fees sufficient to pay for one person to counterclaim to cancel the registration in at least one class, but less than the required amount because multiple party counterclaimants and/or multiple classes in the registration are involved, the fee(s) submitted will be applied in the manner set forth in 37 CFR § 2.111(c)(3)(ii)-(iii). The Board, in its notice acknowledging the counterclaim, will identify the parties and classes for which the required fees were submitted.

313.03 Form and Substance of Counterclaim; Service of Counterclaim

A counterclaim should be generally similar in form to a petition to cancel (for information concerning the form of a petition to cancel, see TBMP § 309.02). However, a counterclaim filed as part of the counterclaimant's answer to the adverse party's complaint necessarily differs somewhat in format from a separate petition to cancel.

Moreover, a plaintiff filing a separate petition to cancel need not serve a copy thereof on the defendant(s).²⁶⁴ A counterclaimant, on the other hand, must serve a copy thereof (with any exhibits thereto) on every other party to the proceeding, and must make proof of such service before the Board will consider the counterclaim.²⁶⁵

The pleading of the substance of a counterclaim may also differ somewhat from the pleading of the substance of a separate petition to cancel. For example, a counterclaimant need not plead its standing to assert a counterclaim to cancel a registration pleaded by the plaintiff in its complaint. The counterclaimant's standing in such a case is inherent in its position as defendant to the complaint.²⁶⁶

In some instances, the grounds for cancellation available in the case of a counterclaim differ from those available in the case of a petition to cancel that are not in the nature of a counterclaim. Section 14 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1064, limits, after a five-year period, the grounds upon which most Principal Register registrations may be cancelled. If the plaintiff in a proceeding before the Board relies on such a registration and the five-year period has not yet expired when the plaintiff's complaint is filed, the limitation does not apply to a counterclaim filed by the defendant therein for cancellation of that registration. This is so even if the five-year period has expired by the time the counterclaim is filed. In such cases, the filing of the plaintiff's complaint tolls, during the pendency of the proceeding, the running of the five-year period for purposes of determining the grounds on which a counterclaim may be based.²⁶⁷

313.04 Compulsory Counterclaims

37 CFR § 2.106(b)(2)(i) A defense attacking the validity of any one or more of the registrations pleaded in the opposition shall be a compulsory counterclaim if grounds for such counterclaim exist at the time when the answer is filed. If grounds for a counterclaim are known to the applicant when the answer to the opposition is filed, the counterclaim shall be pleaded with or as part of the answer. If grounds for a counterclaim are learned during the course of the opposition proceeding, the counterclaim shall be pleaded promptly after the grounds therefor are learned. A counterclaim need not be filed if it is the subject of another proceeding between the same parties or anyone in privity therewith.

answer. If grounds for a counterclaim are learned during the course of the cancellation proceeding, the counterclaim shall be pleaded promptly after the grounds therefor are learned. A counterclaim need not be filed if it is the subject of another proceeding between the same parties or anyone in privity therewith.

Counterclaims for cancellation of pleaded registrations in Board proceedings are governed by 37 CFR §§ 2.106(b)(2)(i) and 2.114(b)(2)(i).²⁶⁸ If the defendant knows the grounds for a counterclaim to cancel a pleaded registration when the answer is filed, the counterclaim must be pleaded with or as part of the answer.²⁶⁹ If grounds are learned during the course of the proceeding, through discovery or otherwise, the counterclaim must be pleaded promptly after the grounds therefore are learned.²⁷⁰

A defendant who fails to timely plead a compulsory counterclaim cannot avoid the effect of its failure by thereafter asserting the counterclaim grounds in a separate petition to cancel. In such a case, the separate petition will be dismissed, on motion, on the ground that the substance of the petition constitutes a compulsory counterclaim in another proceeding, and that it was not timely asserted.²⁷¹

If a defendant confronted with a motion for summary judgment knows of grounds for a counterclaim that might serve to defeat the motion, the counterclaim should be asserted in response to the motion, even if no answer to the complaint has yet been filed.²⁷²

A plaintiff which fails to plead a registration, and later seeks to rely thereon, will not be heard to contend, if defendant then moves to amend its answer to assert a counterclaim to cancel the registration, or then files a separate petition to cancel the registration, that the counterclaim or separate petition is untimely because it was not pleaded when defendant filed its answer. A plaintiff may not, by failing to plead a registration on which it intends to rely, deprive a defendant of its right to petition to cancel the registration, either by counterclaim or by separate petition, at such time as opposer seeks to rely upon the registration. Even if the defendant knows grounds for cancellation of a plaintiff's unpleaded registration when the defendant files its answer, the defendant is under no compulsion to seek to cancel the registration unless and until the plaintiff pleads the registration.²⁷³

313.05 Permissive Counterclaims

A party may counterclaim to cancel a registration that is owned, but not pleaded, by an adverse party. A counterclaim to cancel a registration owned, but not pleaded, by an adverse party is a permissive counterclaim.²⁷⁴ The filing date of the counterclaim is the date of receipt in the Office of the counterclaim with the required fee.²⁷⁵

313.06 Answer to Counterclaim

37 CFR § 2.106(b)(2)(iii) The provisions of §§ 2.111 through 2.115, inclusive, shall be applicable to counterclaims. A time, not less than thirty days, will be designated within which an answer to the counterclaim must be filed.

37 CFR § 2.114(b)(2)(iii) The provisions of §§ 2.111 through 2.115, inclusive, shall be applicable to counterclaims. A time, not less than thirty days, will be designated within which an answer to the counterclaim must be filed.

37 CFR § 2.114(a) If no answer is filed within the time set, the petition may be decided as in case of default.

When a counterclaim (together with the required cancellation fee) is filed, the Board prepares an order acknowledging its receipt and allowing the plaintiff (defendant to the counterclaim) a set time, not less than 30 days, within which to file an answer to the counterclaim.²⁷⁶ In practice, the Board usually allows 30 days.²⁷⁷ A copy of the order is sent to each party to the proceeding, or to each party's attorney or other authorized representative. The order will also include a trial schedule and briefing dates to accommodate the counterclaim.²⁷⁸

If no answer to the counterclaim is filed during the time allowed, the counterclaim may be decided as in case of default.²⁷⁹

An answer to a counterclaim should be in the same form as an answer to a complaint. For information on the proper form for an answer to a complaint, see TBMP § 310.01.

An answer to a counterclaim, like any other answer, may include a counterclaim for cancellation of a registration owned by the counterclaimant. A defense attacking the validity of any registration pleaded by the counterclaimant is a compulsory counterclaim if grounds for such counterclaim exist at the time when the plaintiff's answer to the defendant's counterclaim is filed. If the plaintiff knows grounds for a counterclaim when the plaintiff's answer to the defendant's counterclaim is filed, the counterclaim must be pleaded with or as part of the plaintiff's answer. If, during the course of the proceeding, the plaintiff learns, through discovery or otherwise, that grounds for a counterclaim exist, the counterclaim should be pleaded promptly after the grounds therefor are learned.²⁸⁰

A plaintiff's counterclaim to cancel a registration owned by the defendant, but not pleaded in the defendant's counterclaim, is a permissive counterclaim.²⁸¹

For information on the fee for a counterclaim, see 37 CFR § 2.6(a)(16) and TBMP § 313.02.

For information on the form for a counterclaim, see TBMP § 313.03.

314 Unpleaded Matters

A plaintiff may not rely on an unpleaded claim. The plaintiff's pleading must be amended (or deemed amended), pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a) or (b), to assert the matter.²⁸²

In the case of an opposition against an application under 66(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1141f, however, the opposition cannot be amended (or deemed amended) to assert any new claim.²⁸³

Chapter 300 PLEADINGS

Except as provided in Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b) and (h)(2) (which allow a defendant to raise certain specified defenses by motion), the defendant may not rely on an unpleaded defense unless the defendant's pleading is amended (or deemed amended), pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a) or 15(b), to assert the matter.²⁸⁴

If, after the filing of its pleading, a party learns, through discovery or otherwise, of information which would serve as the basis for an additional claim (in the case of a plaintiff), or defense or counterclaim (in the case of a defendant), the party should move promptly to amend its pleading to assert the additional matter, to the extent such amendment would not be prohibited by 37 CFR § 2.107.²⁸⁵

A party may not obtain summary judgment on an unpleaded issue, nor may a party defend against a motion for summary judgment by asserting the existence of genuine issues of material fact as to an unpleaded claim or defense. However, a party that seeks to obtain, or to defend against, summary judgment on the basis of an unpleaded issue may, unless prohibited by 37 CFR § 2.107, move to amend its pleading to assert the issue.²⁸⁶ including any extension of time for filing an opposition, an opposition may not be amended to add to the goods or services opposed.

(b) Pleadings in an opposition proceeding against an application filed under section 66(a) of the Act may be amended in the same manner and to the same extent as in a civil action in a United States district court, except that, once filed, the opposition may not be amended to add to the grounds for opposition or to add to the goods or services subject to opposition.

37 CFR § 2.115 Amendment of pleadings in a cancellation proceeding.

Pleadings in a cancellation proceeding may be amended in the same manner and to the same extent as in a civil action in a United States district court.

As a general rule, pleadings in inter partes proceedings before the Board may be amended in the same manner and to the same extent as pleadings in a civil action before a United States district court.²⁸⁷ There is an exception to this rule, however. An opposition against a Section 66(a) application may not be amended to add to the stated grounds for opposition. Thus, an opposition may not be amended to add an entirely new claim or a claim based on an additional registration in support of an existing Section 2(d) claim.²⁸⁸ Other amendments, such as those that would amplify or clarify the grounds for opposition, are not prohibited by this rule.²⁸⁹

316 Motions Relating to Pleadings

In opposition and cancellation proceedings, there is a wide range of motions relating to pleadings, including motions to dismiss, for a more definite statement, to strike, for judgment on the pleadings, to amend pleadings, etc. For information concerning these motions, see TBMP chapter 500.

317 Exhibits to Pleadings

37 CFR § 2.122(c) Exhibits to pleadings. Except as provided in paragraph (d)(1) of this section, an exhibit attached to a pleading is not evidence on behalf of the party to whose pleading the exhibit is attached unless identified and introduced in evidence as an exhibit during the period for the taking of testimony.

²⁸⁷ See 37 CFR §§ 2.107 and 2.115. For further information concerning the amendment of pleadings, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 15, and TBMP § 507. See also Beth A. Chapman, TIPS FROM THE TTAB: Amending Pleadings: The Right Stuff, 81 Trademark Rep. 302 (1991).

37 CFR § 2.122(d) Registrations. (1) A registration of the opposer or petitioner pleaded in an opposition or petition to cancel will be received in evidence and made part of the record if the opposition or petition is accompanied by two copies (originals or photocopies) of the registration prepared and issued by the Patent and Trademark Office showing both the current status of and current title to the registration. ...

A plaintiff or defendant may attach exhibits to its pleading. However, with one exception, exhibits attached to a pleading are not evidence on behalf of the party to whose pleading they are attached unless they are thereafter, during the time for taking testimony, properly identified and introduced in evidence as exhibits.²⁹⁰

The one exception to the foregoing rule is a current status and title copy, prepared by the Patent and Trademark Office, of a plaintiff's pleaded registration. When a plaintiff submits such a status and title copy of its pleaded registration as an exhibit to its complaint, the registration will be received in evidence and made part of the record without any further action by plaintiff.²⁹¹

Exhibits submitted with a pleading must conform to the requirements of 37 CFR 2.126.²⁹²

Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides, in part, as follows:

(b) Representations to Court.

By presenting to the court (whether by signing, filing, submitting, or later advocating) a pleading, written motion, or other paper, an attorney or unrepresented party is certifying that to the best of the person's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances,--

(1) it is not being presented for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation;

- (2) the claims, defenses, and other legal contentions therein are warranted by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law or the establishment of new law;*
- (3) the allegations and other factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery; and*
- (4) the denials of factual contentions are warranted on the evidence or, if specifically so identified, are reasonably based on a lack of information or belief.*

(c) Sanctions.

If, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to respond, the court determines that subdivision (b) has been violated, the court may, subject to the conditions stated below, impose an appropriate sanction upon the attorneys, law firms, or parties that have violated subdivision (b) or are responsible for the violation.

The quoted provisions are applicable to pleadings, motions, and other papers filed in inter partes proceedings before the Board.²⁹³

319 Amendment to Allege Use; Statement of Use

For information concerning the handling of an amendment to allege use, or a statement of use, filed during an opposition proceeding in an intent-to-use application that is the subject of the opposition, see TBMP § 219.

401 In General

Through the use of the various discovery devices (i.e., discovery depositions, interrogatories, requests for production of documents and things, and requests for admission) available to litigants in inter partes proceedings before the Board; a party may ascertain the facts underlying its adversary's case. Discovery of these facts may lead to a settlement of the case, may simplify the issues, or may reveal a basis for a motion for summary judgment, an additional claim (in the case of a plaintiff), or an additional defense or counterclaim (in the case of a defendant). At the very least, discovery enables the discovering party to better prepare for trial.¹

The conduct of discovery in Board inter partes proceedings is governed by 37 CFR § 2.120. Discovery before the Board under 37 CFR § 2.120 is similar in many respects to discovery before the Federal district courts under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Ordinarily, the discovery provisions of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure are applicable in Board inter partes proceedings, except as otherwise provided in 37 CFR § 2.120. However, the provisions of the Federal Rules relating to automatic disclosure and pretrial conferences are not applicable in Board proceedings.² Specifically, the following provisions do not apply: Rules 16(b); 26(a)(1)-26(a)(4); 26(b)(4); 26(d) first sentence; 26(e)(1); 26(f); 26(g)(1); 30(a)(2)(C); 33(a) last sentence; 34(b) last sentence of first paragraph; 36(a) last sentence of first paragraph; 37(a)(2)(A); 37(c)(1); and 37(g).³

The differences that exist between the two discovery systems are due primarily to the administrative nature of Board proceedings.⁴

The Board expects parties (and their attorneys or other authorized representatives) to cooperate with one another in the discovery process, and looks with extreme disfavor on those that do not.⁵

Chapter 400 DISCOVERY

402 Scope of Discovery

The general scope of the discovery that may be obtained in inter partes proceedings before the Board is governed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1), which provides, in part, as follows:⁶

Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, that is relevant to the claim or defense of any party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. ... Relevant information need not be admissible at the trial if the discovery appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. ...

A party may take discovery not only as to matters specifically raised in the pleadings,⁷ but also as to any matter which might serve as the basis for an additional claim, defense, or counterclaim.⁸

A party may not, by limiting its own discovery and/or presentation of evidence on the case, thereby restrict another party's discovery in any way.⁹

Each party has a duty not only to make a good faith effort to satisfy the discovery needs of its adversary, but also to make a good faith effort to seek only such discovery as is proper and relevant to the specific issues involved in the proceeding.¹⁰

⁶ See Johnston Pump/General Valve Inc. v. Chromalloy American Corp., 10 USPQ2d 1671 (TTAB 1988) (admissibility not necessary). See also Fischer Gesellschaft m.b.H. v. Molnar & Co., 203 USPQ 861 (TTAB 1979); and Varian Associates v. Fairfield-Noble Corp., 188 USPQ 581 (TTAB 1975) (relevancy construed liberally).

⁷ See Varian Associates v. Fairfield-Noble Corp., supra and Mack Trucks, Inc. v. Monroe Auto Equipment Co., 181 USPQ 286, 287 (TTAB 1974) (opposer must answer interrogatories concerning allegations in notice of opposition).

⁹ See Crane Co. v. Shimano Industrial Co., 184 USPQ 691, 691 (TTAB 1975) (scope of discovery limited only by restrictions in Rule 26(b)(1) of Federal Rules).

Chapter 400 DISCOVERY

In addition, because the signature of a party or its attorney to a request for discovery constitutes, under the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(g), a certification by the party or its attorney that, inter alia, the request is warranted, consistent with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and not unreasonable or unduly burdensome, a party ordinarily will not be heard to contend that a request for discovery is proper when propounded by the party itself but improper when propounded by its adversary.¹¹ A contention of this nature will be entertained only if it is supported by a persuasive showing of reasons why the discovery request is proper when propounded by one party but improper when propounded by another.¹²

402.02 Limitations on Right to Discovery

The right to discovery is not unlimited. Even if the discovery sought by a party is relevant, it will be limited, or not permitted, where, inter alia, it is unreasonably cumulative or duplicative; or is unduly burdensome or obtainable from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, or less expensive; or "where harm to the person from whom discovery is sought outweighs the need of the person seeking discovery of the information."¹³

For example, in those cases where complete compliance with a particular request for discovery would be unduly burdensome, the Board may permit the responding party to comply by providing a representative sampling of the information sought, or some other reduced amount of information which is nevertheless sufficient to meet the propounding party's discovery needs.¹⁴

¹¹ See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(g). See also Miss America Pageant v. Petite Productions, Inc., 17 USPQ2d 1067, 1069 (TTAB 1990) (petitioner estopped to challenge respondent's interrogatories as excessive in number having served virtually identical set on respondent); Sentrol, Inc. v. Sentex Systems, Inc., supra (parties served identical discovery requests on each other and are constrained to answer each completely). See also Medtronic, Inc. v. Pacesetter Systems, Inc., supra (applicant, having served 114 interrogatories, is estopped from challenging opposer's 122 interrogatories as excessive); *Tektronix, Inc. v. Chapter 400 DISCOVERY

In addition, a party will not be permitted to obtain, through a motion to compel, discovery broader in scope than that actually sought in the discovery request(s) to which the motion pertains.¹⁵

The Board may refuse to permit the discovery of confidential commercial information, or may allow discovery thereof only under an appropriate protective agreement or order.¹⁶ Similarly, information protected by the attorney-client privilege is not discoverable unless the privilege has been waived;¹⁷ and documents and things prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party, or by or for that other party's representative, are discoverable only upon a showing that the party seeking discovery has substantial need of the materials in the preparation and otherwise objected to requests as cumulative or burdensome but opposer did not file motion to compel, modify discovery requests, or otherwise pursue material, objection to evidence introduced by applicant at trial was overruled); *Bison Corp. v. Chapter 400 DISCOVERY of its case and that it is unable, without undue hardship, to obtain the substantial equivalent of the materials by other means.¹⁸

403 Timing of Discovery

37 CFR § 2.120(a) ... The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board will specify the opening and closing dates for the taking of discovery. The trial order setting these dates will be mailed with the notice of institution of the proceeding. The discovery period will be set for a period of 180 days. The parties may stipulate to a shortening of the discovery period. The discovery period may be extended upon stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or upon motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board. If a motion for an extension is denied, the discovery period may remain as originally set or as reset. Discovery depositions must be taken, and interrogatories, requests for production of documents and things, and requests for admission must be served, on or before the closing date of the discovery period as originally set or as reset.

When a timely opposition or petition to cancel in proper form has been filed, and the required fee has been submitted (or at the time described in 37 CFR § 2.92 for an interference and 37 CFR § 2.99(c) for a concurrent use proceeding); the Board sends out a notice advising the parties of the institution of the proceeding.¹⁹ The notice includes a trial order setting the opening and closing dates for the discovery period and assigning each party's time for taking testimony.²⁰ The date set for the close of discovery is 180 days after the opening of discovery.

The discovery devices, namely, discovery depositions, interrogatories, requests for production of documents and things, and requests for admission, are available for use only during the discovery period.²¹ A party has no obligation to respond to an untimely request for discovery.

¹⁸ See, for example, Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(3) and (b)(5); Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. v. Tyrco Industries, 186 USPQ 207, 208 (TTAB 1975); and *Johnson & Johnson v. ²¹ See Smith International, Inc. v. Olin Corp., 201 USPQ 250, 251 (TTAB 1978) (although a specific time period is not provided in Rule 34, it is implicit that utilization thereof is limited to the discovery period) and Rhone-Poulenc Industries v. Gulf Oil Corp., 198 USPQ 372, 373 (TTAB 1978).

403.02 Time for Service of Discovery Requests

37 CFR § 2.120(a) ... Discovery depositions must be taken, and interrogatories, requests for production of documents and things, and requests for admission must be served, on or before the closing date of the discovery period as originally set or as reset.

Interrogatories, requests for production of documents and things, and requests for admission may be served on an adversary from the day the discovery period opens through the last day of the discovery period, even though the answers thereto will not be due until after the discovery period has closed.²² However, discovery depositions must be not only noticed but also taken during the discovery period (unless the parties stipulate that the deposition may be taken outside of the period).²³

403.03 Time for Service of Discovery Responses

37 CFR § 2.120(a) ... Responses to interrogatories, requests for production of documents and things, and requests for admission must be served within 30 days from the date of service of such discovery requests. ...

Responses to interrogatories, requests for production of documents and things, and requests for admission must be served within 30 days after the date of service of the request for discovery.²⁴ If service of the request for discovery is made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier, the date of mailing or of delivery to the overnight courier is considered to be the date of service, and five extra days are allowed for responding to the request.²⁵

Discovery in proceedings before the Board is not governed by any concept of priority of discovery or deposition. That is, a party which is the first to serve a request for discovery does not thereby gain a right to receive a response to its request before it must respond to its adversary's subsequently served request for discovery, and this is so even if its adversary fails to respond, or respond completely, to the first party's request for discovery. Rather, a party is under an obligation to respond to an adversary's request for discovery during the time allowed therefor under the applicable rules, irrespective of the sequence of requests for discovery, or of an adversary's failure to respond to a pending request for discovery.²⁶

A party which fails to respond to a request for discovery during the time allowed therefor, and which is unable to show that its failure was the result of excusable neglect, may be found, upon motion to compel filed by the propounding party, to have forfeited its right to object to the discovery request on its merits.²⁷ Objections going to the merits of a discovery request include claims that the information sought by the request is irrelevant, overly broad, unduly vague and ambiguous, burdensome and oppressive, or not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.²⁸ In contrast, objections based on claims of privilege or confidentiality or attorney work product do not go to the merits of the request, but instead to a characteristic of the information sought.²⁹

403.04 Extensions of Discovery Period and/or Time to Respond to Discovery Requests

37 CFR § 2.120(a) ... The discovery period may be extended upon stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or upon motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board. If a motion for an extension is denied, the discovery period may remain as originally set or as reset.

* * * *

... The time to respond [to interrogatories, requests for production of documents and things, and requests for admission] may be extended upon stipulation of the parties, or upon motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board. The resetting of a party's time to respond to an outstanding request for discovery will not result in the automatic rescheduling of the discovery

²⁶ See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d); Miss America Pageant v. Petite Productions, Inc., 17 USPQ2d 1067, 1070 (TTAB 1990) and Giant Food, Inc. v. Standard Terry Mills, Inc., 231 USPQ 626, 632 (TTAB 1986).

and/or testimony periods; such dates will be rescheduled only upon stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or upon motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board.

37 CFR § 2.121(a)(1) ... The resetting of the closing date for discovery will result in the rescheduling of the testimony periods without action by any party.

(d) When parties stipulate to the rescheduling of testimony periods or to the rescheduling of the closing date for discovery and the rescheduling of testimony periods, a stipulation presented in the form used in a trial order, signed by the parties, or a motion in said form signed by one party and including as statement that every other party has agreed thereto, shall be submitted to the Board.

The closing date of the discovery period may be extended by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or on motion (pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b)) granted by the Board, or by order of the Board. An extension of the closing date for discovery will result in a corresponding extension of the testimony periods without action by any party.³⁰ A stipulation or consented motion to extend discovery and trial dates must be filed with the Board and should be presented in the form used in a trial order.³¹

Mere delay in initiating discovery does not constitute good cause for an extension of the discovery period.³² Thus, a party which waits until the waning days of the discovery period to serve interrogatories, requests for production of documents and things, and/or requests for admission will not be heard to complain, when it receives responses thereto after the close of the discovery period, that it needs an extension of the discovery period in order to take "follow-up" discovery.³³

At the same time, a party which receives discovery requests early in the discovery period may not, by delaying its response thereto, or by responding improperly so that its adversary is forced to file a motion to compel discovery, rob its adversary of the opportunity to take "follow-up" discovery. Such a delay or improper response constitutes good cause for an extension of the discovery period. Therefore, the Board will, at the request of the propounding party, extend the discovery period (at least for the propounding party) so as to restore that amount of time which would have remained in the discovery period had the discovery responses been made in a timely and proper fashion.³⁴

The time for responding to a request for discovery may be extended or reopened by stipulation of the parties, or on motion (pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b)) granted by the Board, or by order of the Board. However, an extension of a party's time to respond to an outstanding request for discovery will not result in an automatic corresponding extension of the discovery and/or testimony periods.³⁵ Such periods will be rescheduled only on stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or on motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board.

A stipulation to extend or reopen only the time for responding to a request for discovery (that is, not to extend or reopen also the closing date for the discovery period and/or testimony periods) does not have to be filed with the Board. However, to avoid any misunderstanding between the parties as to the existence and terms of such a stipulation, it is recommended that the stipulation be reduced to writing, even if it is not filed with the Board.

403.05 Need for Early Initiation of Discovery

403.05(a) To Allow Time for "Follow-up" Discovery

If a party wishes to have an opportunity to take "follow-up" discovery after it receives responses to its initial requests for discovery, it must serve its initial requests early in the discovery period, so that when it receives responses thereto, it will have time to prepare and serve additional discovery requests prior to the expiration of the discovery period.³⁶

403.05(b) To Facilitate Introduction of Produced Documents

37 CFR § 2.120(j)(3)(ii) A party which has obtained documents from another party under Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure may not make the documents of record by notice of reliance alone, except to the extent that they are admissible by notice of reliance under the provisions of § 2.122(e).

³⁴ See Miss America Pageant v. Petite Productions, Inc., 17 USPQ2d 1067 (TTAB 1990) and Neville Chemical Co. v. Lubrizol Corp., 184 USPQ 689 (TTAB 1975).

³⁶ See TBMP § 403.04 (Extensions of Discovery and Time to Respond).

37 CFR § 2.122(e) Printed publications and official records. Printed publications, such as books and periodicals, available to the general public in libraries or of general circulation among members of the public or that segment of the public which is relevant under an issue in a proceeding, and official records, if the publication or official record is competent evidence and relevant to an issue, may be introduced in evidence by filing a notice of reliance on the material being offered. The notice shall specify the printed publication (including information sufficient to identify the source and the date of the publication) or the official record and the pages to be read; indicate generally the relevance of the material being offered, and be accompanied by the official record or a copy thereof whose authenticity is established under the Federal Rules of Evidence, or by the printed publication or a copy of the relevant portion thereof. A copy of an official record of the [United States] Patent and Trademark Office need not be certified to be offered in evidence. The notice of reliance shall be filed during the testimony period of the party that files the notice.

Documents produced in response to a request for production of documents may not be made of record by notice of reliance alone, except to the extent that the documents are admissible by notice of reliance as printed publications or official records under 37 CFR § 2.122(e). However, there are a number of different methods by which documents produced in response to a request for production of documents that do not qualify for submission under Rule 2.122(e) may be made of record.³⁷ Three of the easiest methods are available for use only if the request for production of documents is served relatively early in the discovery period.

First, if the discovery period has not yet expired, a party that has obtained documents from another party through a request for production of documents may serve on its opponent a request for admission of the genuineness of the subject documents, which should be attached as exhibits to the request for admission.³⁸ Then, during its testimony period, the propounding party may file a notice of reliance, pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.120(j)(3)(i), on the request for admission, the exhibits thereto, and its adversary's response.

Second, if the discovery period has not yet expired, the party which obtained the documents may make them of record by taking a discovery deposition of its adversary, marking the documents as exhibits thereto, and having the witness identify the documents during the deposition. The propounding party may then submit the deposition and identified exhibits during its testimony period under a notice of reliance.

³⁷ See TBMP § 704.09 (Discovery Depositions). For a full discussion of making evidence of record in a Board proceeding, see Chapter 700.

Third, the request for production of documents may be combined with a notice of the taking of the adversary's discovery deposition; that is, the combined request and notice may ask that the deponent bring the requested documents to his or her deposition. However, a party served with a request for production of documents has 30 days from the date of service of the request in which to respond thereto, plus an extra 5 days if service of the request was made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier.³⁹

Moreover, in proceedings before the Board, a discovery deposition must be both noticed and taken before the end of the discovery period.⁴⁰ Thus, a combined notice of deposition and request for production of documents normally must be served at least 35 days prior to the close of the discovery period.

404 Discovery Depositions

404.01 When and By Whom Taken

Discovery depositions must be both noticed and taken prior to the expiration of the discovery period (unless the parties stipulate that the deposition may be taken outside of the period).⁴¹ Discovery depositions generally may be taken by any party.

404.02 Who May be Deposed

A discovery deposition generally may be taken of any person, whether or not the person is a party, and whether or not the person resides in the United States. However, the Board's permission must be obtained under the following circumstances:⁴²

- (1) If the person to be examined is confined in prison; or
- (2) If, without written stipulation of the parties, (i) a proposed deposition would result in more than ten depositions being taken by the plaintiffs, or by the defendants, or (ii) the person to be examined already has been deposed in the case.

R. Civ. P. 45.⁴⁷ The subpoena must be issued from the United States district court in the Federal judicial district where the deponent resides or is regularly employed.⁴⁸

If a person named in a subpoena compelling attendance at a discovery deposition fails to attend the deposition, or refuses to answer a question propounded at the deposition, the deposing party must seek enforcement from the United States District Court that issued the subpoena; the Board has no jurisdiction over such depositions.⁴⁹

404.03(b) Person Residing in a Foreign Country – Party

37 CFR § 2.120(c) Discovery deposition in foreign countries.

(1) The discovery deposition of a natural person residing in a foreign country who is a party or who, at the time set for the taking of the deposition, is an officer, director, or managing agent of a party, or a person designated under Rule 30(b)(6) or Rule 31(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, shall, if taken in a foreign country, be taken in the manner prescribed by §2.124 unless the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, upon motion for good cause, orders or the parties stipulate, that the deposition be taken by oral examination.

The discovery deposition of a natural person who resides in a foreign country, and who is a party, or who, at the time set for the taking of the deposition, is an officer, director, or managing agent of a party, or a person designated under Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) or 31(a)(3) to testify on behalf of a party may be taken on notice alone.⁵⁰

However, if the discovery deposition of such a person is taken in a foreign country, it must be taken on written questions, in the manner described in 37 CFR § 2.124, unless the Board, on motion for good cause, orders, or the parties stipulate, that the deposition be taken by oral examination.⁵¹

For information concerning the procedure for taking discovery depositions on written questions, see TBMP § 404.07. For information on a motion to take a foreign deposition orally, see TBMP § 520.

The Board will not order a natural person residing in a foreign country to come to the United States for the taking of his or her discovery deposition.⁵²

Compare TBMP § 703.01(g) (Persons Before Whom Depositions May be Taken); the testimony deposition of an adverse party, unless obtained voluntarily, may be taken in a foreign country, if at all, only by the letter rogatory procedure or by procedures provided under the Hague Convention or other applicable treaties.

404.03(c) Person Residing in a Foreign Country – Nonparty

404.03(c)(1) Willing Nonparty

The discovery deposition of a natural person who resides in a foreign country, and is not a party, or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party, or a person designated under Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) or 31(a)(3) to testify on behalf of a party, but is willing to appear voluntarily to be deposed, may be taken in the same manner as the discovery deposition of a natural person who resides in a foreign country and who is a party, i.e., in the manner described in TBMP § 404.03(b).⁵³

404.03(c)(2) Unwilling Nonparty

There is no certain procedure for obtaining, in an inter partes proceeding before the Board, the discovery deposition of a natural person who resides in a foreign country, is not a party, or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party, or a person designated under Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) or 31(a)(3) to testify on behalf of a party, and does not agree to appear voluntarily to be deposed. However, a party may be able to obtain the discovery deposition of such a person through the letter rogatory procedure, whereby an unwilling nonparty witness in a foreign country sometimes may be compelled to respond to questions routed through diplomatic channels to an appropriate judicial authority in the foreign country.⁵⁴

The term "Letters rogatory" is defined in Black's Law Dictionary (Fifth Edition 1979) as follows:

A request by one court of another court in an independent jurisdiction, that a witness be examined upon interrogatories sent with the request. The medium whereby one country, speaking through one of its courts, requests another country, acting through its own courts and by methods of court procedure peculiar thereto and entirely within the latter's control, to assist the administration of justice in the former country. The Signe, D.C.La., 37 F. Supp. 819, 820.

A formal communication in writing, sent by a court in which an action is pending to a court or judge of a foreign country, requesting that the testimony of a witness resident within the jurisdiction of the latter court may be there formally taken under its direction and transmitted to the first court for use in the pending action. Fed. R. Civ. P. 28.

This process was also in use, at an early period, between the several states of the Union. The request rests entirely upon the comity of courts towards each other.

While the letter rogatory procedure is usually conducted through the judicial system, because the proceeding is before an administrative body, the Board in this instance would function as the initiating “court” contemplated by the rule.

A party that wishes to have the Board issue a letter rogatory should file a written request therefor with the Board.⁵⁵ The party must also submit an original and two copies of the proposed letter rogatory, and an original and two copies of the questions to be propounded to the nonparty witness. If the official language of the foreign country is not English, the propounding party must submit an original and two copies of the letter rogatory and questions in English, and an original and two copies thereof translated into the official language. In addition, the propounding party must serve on each adverse party a copy of every paper submitted to the Board.⁵⁶

If the request is granted, each adverse party will be given an opportunity to submit cross-questions, a copy of which must also be served on the propounding party. If an adverse party does submit cross questions, the propounding party, in turn, will be given an opportunity to submit redirect questions, a copy of which must be served on each adverse party.⁵⁷ As in the case of the initial questions, an original and two copies of any cross questions and redirect questions must be submitted to the Board; if the official language of the foreign country is not English, an original and two copies of the questions in English, and an original and two copies thereof translated into the official language, must be submitted.

After the original and copies of the letter rogatory, and of all of the questions, have been submitted to the Board, and the letter rogatory has been approved as to form, the letter rogatory will be issued by the Board. The letter rogatory will be signed by the Chief Administrative Trademark Judge; the signature will be authenticated in such a manner as to meet the requirements of the foreign country; and the original and one copy of the letter rogatory and accompanying questions will be forwarded to the United States Department of State with a transmittal letter from the Board (the remaining copy of these papers will be retained in the Board proceeding file). In its transmittal letter, the Board will request, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1781 (which authorizes the Department of State to, inter alia, "receive a letter rogatory issued, or request made, by a tribunal in the United States, to transmit it to the foreign or international tribunal, officer, or agency to whom it is addressed, and to receive and return it after execution"), that the Department of State transmit the letter rogatory to the appropriate judicial authority in the foreign country, and, after execution, receive it back and return it to the Board. Thereafter, the Department of State will transmit the letter rogatory, through diplomatic channels, to the appropriate judicial authority in the foreign country.

The party seeking discovery must pay all fees, including authentication, consular, and foreign government fees, charged in connection with the letter rogatory procedure. The Department of State will require the propounding party to make a deposit to cover the consular and foreign government fees. Payment may be made by certified check or money order made payable to the American Embassy/Consulate [insert the name of the appropriate city, i.e., Paris, Bonn, Tokyo, etc.]. Any unused portion of the deposit will be returned to the depositor after completion of the letter rogatory process.

Further information concerning the letter rogatory process may be obtained from the Office of Citizens Consular Services, Department of State, 2201 C Street N.W., Washington, D.C. 20520.

Once the appropriate foreign judicial authority has received the letter rogatory, it may or may not be executed. As indicated above, the letter rogatory "rests entirely upon the comity of courts towards each other." Some countries refuse or are reluctant to lend assistance in the taking of a discovery deposition in their country through the letter rogatory procedure, and compliance with the procedural requirements for a letter rogatory does not ensure that the requested deposition will be completed.⁵⁸ Before a request for issuance of a letter rogatory is filed with the Board, the requesting party should examine the law and policy of the involved foreign country, and consult with the Office of Citizens Consular Services, Department of State, in order to determine whether the country in question is likely to honor a letter rogatory, particularly a letter rogatory issued by the Board.

Even in those foreign countries that are not reluctant to execute a letter rogatory, the foreign judicial authority may refuse to honor a letter rogatory issued by the Board (an administrative tribunal) rather than by a United States district court. Further, if the foreign country has a "blocking statute" prohibiting its residents from disclosing certain types of information in judicial or administrative proceedings outside of the foreign country, a letter rogatory may not be honored if the foreign judicial authority believes that disclosure of the information requested therein would violate the blocking statute.⁵⁹

If a letter rogatory is honored, its probative value may be limited. In executing the letter rogatory, the foreign judicial tribunal will follow its customary procedures for taking testimony. The fact that these procedures may differ from those normally followed in proceedings before the Board does not mean that the deposition must necessarily be excluded. Rather, any such differences are matters to be considered by the Board in determining the probative value of the deposition.⁶⁰

A party considering the filing of a request for issuance of a letter rogatory should bear in mind not only the complexity and uncertain outcome of the procedure, but also its time-consuming nature. The entire process, from the filing of the initial request for issuance of a letter rogatory, to receipt by the Board either of the completed deposition, or of notification that the letter rogatory will not be honored; will consume months, if not years. During the interim, proceedings in the case before the Board most likely will be suspended pending the execution and return to the Board of the letter rogatory.⁶¹

The Hague Convention on the Taking of Evidence Abroad in Civil or Commercial Matters (commonly known as the "Hague Convention"), opened for signature March 18, 1970, 23 U.S.T. 2555, T.I.A.S. No. 7444, prescribes procedures under which a judicial authority in one member country may request evidence located in another. The Convention offers another possible method by which a party to an inter partes proceeding before the Board may attempt to obtain the discovery deposition of an unwilling nonparty witness residing in a foreign country, if the foreign country is a member of the Convention.⁶²

The Hague Convention provides for the compulsion of evidence (including the deposition of an unwilling witness) in a member country pursuant to a "letter of request," which is very similar in nature to a letter rogatory.⁶³ However, the Board has been advised by the Department of State that foreign countries are more likely to lend assistance in the taking of a discovery deposition if the request therefor is made under the more formal letter rogatory procedure. Before filing a motion for issuance of a letter of request, the moving party should consult with the Office of Citizens Consular Services, Department of State, in order to determine whether the foreign country in question is likely to honor a letter of request, particularly a letter of request issued by the Board.

in the Federal judicial district where the witness resides or is regularly employed, or, if the witness neither resides nor is regularly employed in a Federal judicial district, where the witness is at the time of the deposition. This paragraph does not preclude the taking of a discovery deposition of a foreign party by any other procedure provided by paragraph (c)(1) of this section.

Whenever a natural person who is a foreign party, or an officer, director, or managing agent, of a foreign party, or some other person who consents to testify on a foreign party's behalf, is or will be, during a time set for discovery, present within the United States or any territory which is under the control and jurisdiction of the United States, such party, officer, director, managing agent, or other person may be deposed, while in the United States, by oral examination on notice pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.120(c)(2).⁶⁴ Indeed, this option was available even before the adoption of 37 CFR § 2.120(c)(2).⁶⁵

When the discovery deposition of a foreign party, or an officer, director, managing agent, or other person who consents to testify on behalf of a foreign party, is taken in the United States by oral examination pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.120(c)(2), the deposition must be taken in the Federal judicial district where the witness resides or is regularly employed, or, if the witness neither resides nor is regularly employed in a Federal judicial district, where the witness is at the time of the deposition.⁶⁶

404.03(e) Foreign Person Present Within the United States – Nonparty

If the proposed deponent is a foreign person who is present within the United States but the person is not a party to the proceeding and is not willing to appear voluntarily, it may be necessary to secure the deponent's attendance, if at all, by the procedures set forth in TBMP § 404.03(c).

404.04 Persons Before Whom Depositions May be Taken

Fed. R. Civ. P. 28. Persons Before Whom Depositions May Be Taken

(a) Within the United States. Within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, deposition shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States or of the place where the examination is held, or before a person appointed by the court in which the action is pending. A person so appointed has power to administer oaths and take testimony. The term officer as used in Rules 30, 31 and 32 includes a person appointed by the court or designated by the parties under Rule 29.

(b) In Foreign Countries. Depositions may be taken in a foreign country (1) pursuant to any applicable treaty or convention, or (2) pursuant to a letter of request (whether or not captioned a letter rogatory), or (3) on notice before a person authorized to administer oaths in the place where the examination is held, either by the law thereof or by the law of the United States, or (4) before a person commissioned by the court, and a person so commissioned shall have the power by virtue of the commission to administer any necessary oath and take testimony. A commission or a letter of request shall be issued on application and notice and on terms that are just and appropriate. It is not requisite to the issuance of a commission or a letter of request that the taking of the deposition in any other manner is impracticable or inconvenient; and both a commission and a letter of request may be issued in proper cases. A notice of commission may designate the person before whom the deposition is to be taken either by name or descriptive title. A letter of request may be addressed "To the Appropriate Authority in [here name the country]." When a letter of request or any other device is used pursuant to any applicable treaty or convention, it shall be captioned in the form prescribed by that treaty or convention. Evidence obtained in response to a letter of request need not be excluded merely because it is not a verbatim transcript, because the testimony was not taken under oath, or because of any similar departure from the requirements for depositions taken within the United States under these rules.

(c) Disqualification for Interest. No deposition shall be taken before a person who is a relative or employee or attorney or counsel of any of the parties, or is a relative or employee of such attorney or counsel, or is financially interested in the action.

Discovery depositions in Board inter partes proceedings may be taken before the persons designated by Rule 28 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Thus, in the United States (or in any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States) a Board proceeding discovery deposition "shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States or of the place where the deposition is held, or before a person appointed by the court in which the action is pending."⁶⁷ As a practical matter, Board proceeding depositions taken in the United States are usually taken before a court reporter that is authorized to administer oaths in the jurisdiction where the deposition is taken.

In a foreign country, a Board proceeding discovery deposition may be taken pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 28(b). This means, for example, that a Board proceeding discovery deposition taken of a willing witness in a foreign country usually may be taken on notice before a United States consular official, or before anyone authorized by the law of the foreign country to administer oaths therein. Some countries, however, may prohibit the taking of testimony within their boundaries for use in any other country, including the United States, even though the witness is willing; or may permit the taking of testimony only if certain procedures are followed.⁶⁸ A party which wishes to take a deposition in a foreign country should first consult with local counsel in the foreign country, and/or with the Office of Citizens Consular Services, Department of State, in order to determine whether the taking of the deposition will be permitted by the foreign country, and, if so, what procedure must be followed.

404.05 Notice of Deposition

Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b) Notice of Examination: General Requirements; ...

(1) A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify the person or the particular class or group to which the person belongs. ...

37 CFR § 2.124(b)(2) [Depositions upon written questions] A party desiring to take a discovery deposition upon written questions shall serve notice thereof upon each adverse party and shall file a copy of the notice, but not copies of the questions, with the Board. The notice shall state the name and address, if known, of the person whose deposition is to be taken. If the name of the person is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs shall be stated in the notice, and the party from whom the discovery deposition is to be taken shall designate one or more persons to be deposed in the same manner as is provided by Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(c) Every notice given under the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section shall be accompanied by the name or descriptive title of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken.

In an inter partes proceeding before the Board, the discovery deposition of a natural person who is a party, or who, at the time set for the taking of the deposition, is an officer, director, or managing agent of a party, or a person designated under Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) or 31(a)(3) to testify on behalf of a party may be taken on notice alone.

Prior to the taking of a discovery deposition on notice alone, the party seeking to take the deposition ("the deposing party") must give reasonable notice in writing to every adverse party.⁶⁹ The elements to be included in the notice are specified in Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(1), for a deposition on oral examination, and in 37 CFR §§ 2.124(b)(2) and 2.124(c), for a deposition on written questions.⁷⁰ It is strongly recommended that the deposing party contact the party sought to be deposed (or whose officer, director, etc., is sought to be deposed) well in advance of the proposed deposition in order to arrange a mutually convenient time for the deposition. The deposition must be taken prior to the expiration of the discovery period (unless the parties stipulate that the deposition may be taken outside of the period).⁷¹

In noticing the deposition of a corporation, partnership, association, governmental agency, or other juristic person, the deposing party may, in lieu of naming a person to be deposed, simply name as the deponent the corporation, partnership, association, governmental agency, or other juristic person, and describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. The named organization must, in turn, designate one or more officers, directors, or managing agents, or other persons who consent to testify on its behalf, and may state, for each person designated, the matters on which he or she will testify. Each designated person must testify not only as to those matters within his or her knowledge, but also as to matters known or reasonably available to the organization.⁷²

For information concerning the procedure for combining a notice of taking a discovery deposition with a request for production of documents, see TBMP § 406.01.

404.06 Taking a Discovery Deposition

The manner of taking a discovery deposition in an inter partes proceeding before the Board is very similar to taking a testimony deposition.⁷³

For a discussion of significant differences between discovery depositions and testimony depositions, see TBMP § 404.09. For information concerning the procedure for taking a discovery deposition on written questions, see TBMP § 404.07.

On stipulation of the parties, or on motion granted by the Board, a deposition may be taken or attended by telephone.⁷⁴ A deposition taken by telephone is regarded as taken in the Federal judicial district and at the place where the witness is to answer the questions propounded to him or her.

404.07 Discovery Depositions on Written Questions

Discovery depositions on written questions are taken in the manner prescribed by 37 CFR § 2.124.

404.07(a) Depositions on Written Questions: Before Whom Taken

37 CFR § 2.124(a) A deposition upon written questions may be taken before any person before whom depositions may be taken as provided by Rule 28 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

A deposition on written questions, like a deposition on oral examination, may be taken before the persons described in Fed. R. Civ. P. 28.⁷⁵

404.07(b) Depositions on Written Questions: When Taken

37 CFR § 2.120(a) ... Discovery depositions must be taken, ...on or before the closing date of the discovery period as originally set or as reset.

Discovery depositions must be both noticed and taken during the discovery period.⁷⁶ Thus, it is recommended that a party, which desires to take a discovery deposition on written questions, initiate the procedure early in its discovery period.

⁷⁴ See Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(7), and Hewlett-Packard Co. v. Healthcare Personnel Inc., supra at 1553 (leave to take telephonic depositions should be liberally granted in appropriate cases current federal practice favors use of technological benefits).

404.07(c) Depositions on Written Questions: Place of Deposition

For information concerning the place where a discovery deposition on written questions is taken, see TBMP § 404.03.

404.07(d) Depositions on Written Questions: Notice of Deposition

37 CFR § 2.124(b)(2) A party desiring to take a discovery deposition upon written questions shall serve notice thereof upon each adverse party and shall file a copy of the notice, but not copies of the questions, with the Board. The notice shall state the name and address, if known, of the person whose deposition is to be taken. If the name of the person is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs shall be stated in the notice, and the party from whom the discovery disposition is to be taken shall designate one or more persons to be deposed in the same manner as is provided by Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(c) Every notice given under the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section shall be accompanied by the name or descriptive title of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken.

(d)(1) Every notice served on any adverse party under the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section shall be accompanied by the written questions to be propounded on behalf of the party who proposes to take the deposition. ...

A party that desires to take a discovery deposition on written questions must serve notice thereof on each adverse party and shall file a copy of the notice, but not copies of the questions, with the Board.⁷⁷

The notice must state the name and address, if known, of the person whose deposition is to be taken. If the name of the person is not known, a general description sufficient to identify the person is to be provided so the responding party can designate one or more persons to be deposed. The notice must also be accompanied by the name or descriptive title of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken, and by the written questions to be propounded on behalf of the deposing party.⁷⁸

For further information concerning notices of deposition in general, see TBMP § 404.05.

404.07(e) Depositions on Written Questions: Examination of Witness

37 CFR § 2.124(d)(1) Every notice served on any adverse party under the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section shall be accompanied by the written questions to be propounded on behalf of the party who proposes to take the deposition. Within twenty days from the date of service of the notice, any adverse party may serve cross questions upon the party who proposes to take the deposition; any party who serves cross questions shall also serve every other adverse party. Within ten days from the date of service of the cross questions, the party who proposes to take the deposition may serve redirect questions on every adverse party. Within ten days from the date of service of the redirect questions, any party who served cross questions may serve recross questions upon the party who proposes to take the deposition; any party who serves recross questions shall also serve every other adverse party. Written objections to questions may be served on a party propounding questions; any party who objects shall serve a copy of the objections on every other adverse party. In response to objections, substitute questions may be served on the objecting party within ten days of the date of service of the objections; substitute questions shall be served on every other adverse party.

(2) Upon motion for good cause by any party, or upon its own initiative, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board may extend any of the time periods provided by paragraph (d)(1) of this section. ...

(e) Within ten days after the last date when questions, objections, or substitute questions may be served, the party who proposes to take the deposition shall mail a copy of the notice and copies of all the questions to the officer designated in the notice; a copy of the notice and of all the questions mailed to the officer shall be served on every adverse party. The officer designated in the notice shall take the testimony of the witness in response to the questions and shall record each answer immediately after the corresponding question. The officer shall then certify the transcript and mail the transcript and exhibits to the party who took the deposition.

Within 20 days from the date of service of the notice (25 days, if service of the notice and accompanying questions was made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier,⁷⁹ any adverse party may serve cross questions on the deposing party. A party that serves cross-questions on the deposing party must also serve copies thereof on every other adverse party. Within 10 days from the date of service of the cross questions (15 days, if service of the cross questions was made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier), the deposing party may serve redirect questions on every adverse party. Within 10 days from the date of service of the redirect questions (15 days, if service of the redirect questions was made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier), any party that served cross-questions may serve recross questions on the deposing party. A party which serves recross questions on the deposing party must also serve copies thereof on every other adverse party.⁸⁰

Written objections to questions may be served on the party that propounded the questions. A party that serves objections on a propounding party must also serve a copy of the objections on every other adverse party. In response to objections, substitute questions may be served on the objecting party within 10 days from the date of service of the objections (15 days, if service of the objections was made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier). The substitute questions must also be served on every other adverse party.⁸¹

As all discovery depositions must be completed within the discovery period, including depositions on written questions, on motion for good cause filed by any party, or on its own initiative, the Board may extend any of the time periods specified in 37 CFR § 2.124(d)(1), that is, the time periods for serving cross questions, redirect questions, recross questions, objections, and substitute questions to allow for the orderly completion of the depositions on written questions.⁸²

Within 10 days after the last date when questions, objections, or substitute questions may be served, the deposing party must mail a copy of the notice and copies of all the questions to the officer designated in the notice. A copy of the notice and of all the questions mailed to the officer must also be served on every adverse party. The officer designated in the notice shall take the testimony of the witness in response to the questions, and shall record each answer immediately after the corresponding question.⁸³

404.07(f) Depositions on Written Questions: Objections

37 CFR § 2.124(d)(1) ... Written objections to questions may be served on a party propounding questions; any party who objects shall serve a copy of the objections on every other adverse party. In response to objections, substitute questions may be served on the objecting party within ten days of the date of service of the objections; substitute questions shall be served on every other adverse party.

(g) Objections to questions and answers in depositions upon written questions may be considered at final hearing.

Written objections to questions propounded for a deposition on written questions may be served on the party that propounded the questions. Any party that serves written objections on a propounding party must also serve a copy of the objections on every other adverse party.⁸⁴

Objections to questions and answers in depositions on written questions, as in oral depositions, generally are considered by the Board (unless waived) at final hearing.⁸⁵

For further information concerning the raising of objections to discovery depositions, see TBMP § 404.08. For information concerning the raising of objections to a notice of reliance on a discovery deposition, see TBMP §§ 707.02 and 532.

notice; a copy of the notice and of all the questions mailed to the officer shall be served on every adverse party. The officer designated in the notice shall take the testimony of the witness in response to the questions and shall record each answer immediately after the corresponding question. The officer shall then certify the transcript and mail the transcript and exhibits to the party who took the deposition.

After the officer designated in the notice of deposition has taken a deposition on written questions, the officer must certify the transcript of the deposition. When the transcript has been certified, the officer should mail the transcript and exhibits to the party that took the deposition.⁸⁷

404.07(i) Depositions on Written Questions: Service, Correction, and Making the Deposition of Record

37 CFR § 2.124(f) The party who took the deposition shall promptly serve a copy of the transcript, copies of documentary exhibits, and duplicates or photographs of physical exhibits on every adverse party. It is the responsibility of the party who takes the deposition to assure that the transcript is correct (see § 2.125(b)). If the deposition is a discovery deposition, it may be made of record as provided by § 2.120(j). ...

The party that took the deposition on written questions must promptly serve a copy of the transcript, with exhibits, on every adverse party.⁸⁸ The party that took the deposition must also assure that the transcript is correct.⁸⁹

If the discovery deposition is to be made of record, the same procedures provided by 37 CFR § 2.120(j) are to be followed.⁹⁰

404.07(j) Deposition on Written Questions: Utility

A deposition on written questions is a cumbersome, time-consuming procedure. It requires that cross questions, redirect questions, recross questions, and objections all be framed and served before the questions on direct examination have even been answered.

Moreover, it deprives an adverse party of face-to-face confrontation and the opportunity to ask follow-up questions based on answers to previous questions.⁹¹

Nevertheless, it has some utility. It may be the only means by which a deposition may be taken in a foreign country. Moreover, the deposition on written questions is generally less expensive than the deposition on oral examination, and is usually more convenient for the witness.

404.08 Discovery Deposition Objections

404.08(a) Objections to Notice

Objections to errors and irregularities in a notice of the taking of a discovery deposition must be promptly served, in writing, on the party giving the notice; any such objections that are not promptly served are waived.⁹² For information concerning the raising of objections to a notice of reliance on a discovery deposition, see TBMP §§ 707.02 and 532.

404.08(c) Objections During Deposition

Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(d)(3)(A) Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

(B) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.

Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of discovery deposition testimony "are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time."⁹⁴

In the case of a discovery deposition taken on oral examination, objections to errors and irregularities occurring at the deposition in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of the parties, and objections to errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonably made at the deposition.⁹⁵

For information concerning objections to the form of questions in the case of a discovery deposition on written questions, see TBMP § 404.07(f).

If a party believes that a question propounded at a discovery deposition is improper, it may state its objection thereto. stated an objection to a discovery deposition question, answers the question subject to the objection, and the deposition is subsequently made of record in the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of 37 CFR §§ 2.120(j)(1), (2), (3)(i), and (4), the propriety of the objection will be considered by the Board at final hearing when the objections are preserved and raised in the final briefs; that is, the Board will evaluate the testimony in light of the stated objection.⁹⁷

404.09 Discovery Depositions Compared to Testimony Depositions

A discovery deposition, like a testimony deposition, may be taken either on oral examination or on written questions.⁹⁹ In fact, the actual taking of a discovery deposition is very similar to the taking of a testimony deposition. Nevertheless, there are substantial differences between the two, stemming from the differences between the discovery and trial stages of a proceeding. Some of the most significant differences are discussed below. A discovery deposition is a broad discovery device used by a party to obtain from an adversary information about the adversary's case, or to obtain from a nonparty information that may be helpful to the deposing party's case. The discovery deposition is taken of the adversary or a nonparty, or an official or employee of the adversary or a nonparty. A testimony deposition, on the other hand, is a narrower device used by a party to present evidence in support of its own case. During a party's testimony period, testimony depositions are taken, by or on behalf of the party, of the party himself or herself (if the party is an individual), or of an official or employee of the party, or of some other witness testifying (either willingly or under subpoena) on behalf of the party.¹⁰⁰

Chapter 400 DISCOVERY

The discovery deposition may only be taken during the discovery period, which is ongoing for all parties at the same time.¹⁰¹ A party may only take a testimony deposition during the party's assigned testimony period; each party has an assigned testimony period, and only the party to which a particular testimony period is assigned may take testimony therein.¹⁰²

In a discovery deposition, a party may seek information that would be inadmissible at trial, provided that the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.¹⁰³ In a testimony deposition, a party may properly adduce only evidence admissible under the applicable rules of evidence; inadmissibility is a valid ground for objection.¹⁰⁴

In both types of depositions, questions objected to ordinarily should be answered subject to the objection, but a witness may properly refuse to answer a question asking for information that is, for example, privileged or confidential.¹⁰⁵ Both types of depositions are taken out of the presence of the Board, and if a witness not only objects to, but also refuses to answer a particular question, the propounding party may obtain an immediate ruling on the propriety of the objection only by adjourning the deposition and applying, under 35 U.S.C. § 24, to the Federal district court, in the jurisdiction where the deposition is being taken, for an order compelling the witness to answer.¹⁰⁶

In the case of a discovery deposition, there is also available to the propounding party the simpler and more convenient alternative of completing the deposition and then filing a motion with the Board to compel the witness to answer the unanswered question.¹⁰⁷ A motion to compel is not available, however, in the case of a testimony deposition taken in a proceeding before the Board,

nor is there any other mechanism for obtaining from the Board, prior to final hearing, a ruling on the propriety of an objection to a question propounded during a testimony deposition.¹⁰⁸

Accordingly, in those cases where the witness in a testimony deposition refuses to answer a particular question, no court action is sought, and the Board finds at final hearing that the objection was not well taken, the Board may presume that the answer would have been unfavorable to the position of the party whose witness refused to answer, or may find that the refusal to answer reduces the probative value of the witness's testimony.¹⁰⁹

A discovery deposition does not form part of the evidentiary record in a case unless a party entitled to offer it into evidence files, during the party's testimony period, the deposition together with a notice of reliance thereon.¹¹⁰ That is, the offering of a discovery deposition in evidence is voluntary, not mandatory.¹¹¹ Every testimony deposition taken must be filed, and, when filed, becomes part of the record; a notice of reliance thereon is not necessary.¹¹²

The discovery deposition of an adverse party may be taken on notice alone.¹¹³ However, the testimony deposition of an adverse party, unless obtained voluntarily, may only be taken pursuant to a subpoena issued by a United States district court.¹¹⁴

405 Interrogatories

405.01 When and By Whom Served

During the discovery period in an inter partes proceeding before the Board, any party may serve written interrogatories on any other party.¹¹⁵ Interrogatories may be served on an adversary from the day discovery opens through the last day of the discovery period, even though the answers thereto will not be served until after the discovery period has closed.¹¹⁶

405.02 Scope

Interrogatories may seek any information that is discoverable under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1).¹¹⁷ An interrogatory that is otherwise proper is not necessarily objectionable merely because it requires a party to give an opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact.¹¹⁸

405.03 Limit on Number

405.03(a) Description of Limit

37 CFR § 2.120(d)(1) The total number of written interrogatories which a party may serve upon another party pursuant to Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, in a proceeding, shall not exceed seventy-five, counting subparts, except that the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, in its discretion, may allow additional interrogatories upon motion therefor showing good cause, or upon stipulation of the parties. A motion for leave to serve additional interrogatories must be accompanied by a copy of the interrogatories, if any, which have already been served by the moving party, and by a copy of the interrogatories proposed to be served. ...

The total number of interrogatories which a party may serve on another party, in a proceeding, may not exceed 75, counting subparts, except that the Board, may allow additional interrogatories on motion therefor showing good cause, or on stipulation of the parties.¹¹⁹

405.03(b) Application of Limit: Sets of Interrogatories

The numerical limit of 37 CFR § 2.120(d)(1) pertains to the total number of interrogatories that one party may serve on another party over the course of an entire proceeding, not just per set of interrogatories. Thus, if a party to a proceeding before the Board serves, over the course of the proceeding, two or more separate sets of interrogatories directed to the same party, the interrogatories in the separate sets would be added together for purposes of determining whether the numerical limit specified in the rule has been exceeded.¹²⁰

Accordingly, a party which is preparing a first set of interrogatories should reserve a portion of its allotted 75 interrogatories (counting subparts) to use for follow-up discovery, unless it is sure that it will not be serving follow-up interrogatories.

405.03(c) Application of Limit: Multiple Marks, Etc.

Trademark Rule 2.120(d)(1) does not provide for extra interrogatories in cases where more than one mark is pleaded and/or attacked by the plaintiff (whether in a single proceeding, or in consolidated proceedings), because in such cases, the propounding party may simply request that each interrogatory be answered with respect to each involved mark of the responding party, and the interrogatories will be counted the same as if they pertained to only one mark. Similarly, the rule does not provide for extra interrogatories in cases where there is a counterclaim, because in a proceeding before the Board, the discovery information needed by a party for purposes of litigating the plaintiff's claim usually encompasses the information needed by that party for purposes of litigating a counterclaim. That is, the mere fact that a proceeding involves multiple marks (whether in a single proceeding, or in consolidated proceedings) and/or a counterclaim does not mean that a party is entitled to serve 75 interrogatories, counting subparts, for each mark, or for each proceeding that has been consolidated, or for both the main claim and the counterclaim. Nor does such fact, in and of itself, constitute good cause for a motion for leave to serve additional interrogatories. However, a proceeding with multiple marks and/or a counterclaim may involve unusually numerous or complex issues, and these are factors that will be considered in determining a motion for leave to serve additional interrogatories.¹²¹

405.03(d) Application of Limit: Counting Interrogatories

In determining whether the number of interrogatories served by one party on another exceeds the limit of 37 CFR § 2.120(d)(1), the Board will count each subpart within an interrogatory as a separate interrogatory, regardless of whether the subpart is separately designated (i.e., separately numbered or lettered).¹²²

If an interrogatory includes questions set forth as numbered or lettered subparts, each separately designated subpart will be counted by the Board as a separate interrogatory. The propounding party will, to that extent, be bound by its own numbering system, and will not be heard to complain that an interrogatory, although propounded with separately designated subparts, should nevertheless be counted as a single interrogatory because the interrogatory concerns a single transaction, state of facts, etc., or because the division was made for clarification or convenience.¹²³

On the other hand, if a propounding party sets forth its interrogatories as 75 or fewer separately designated questions (counting both separately designated interrogatories and separately designated subparts), but the interrogatories actually contain more than 75 questions, the Board will not be bound by the propounding party's numbering or designating system. Rather, the Board will look to the substance of the interrogatories, and count each question as a separate interrogatory.¹²⁴ For example, if two or more questions are combined in a single compound interrogatory, and are not set out as separate subparts, the Board will look to the substance of the interrogatory, and count each question as a separate interrogatory.¹²⁵

If an interrogatory contains both an initial question, and follow-up questions to be answered if the first is answered in the affirmative, the initial question and each follow-up question will be counted as separate interrogatories.¹²⁶

Similarly, if an interrogatory begins with a broad introductory clause ("Describe fully the facts and circumstances surrounding applicant's first use of the mark XYZ, including:") followed by several subparts ("Applicant's date of first use of the mark on the goods listed in the application," "Applicant's date of first use of the mark on such goods in commerce," etc.), the Board will count the broad introductory clause and each subpart as a separate interrogatory, whether or not the subparts are separately designated.¹²⁷

If an interrogatory requests information concerning more than one issue, such as information concerning both "sales and advertising figures," or both "adoption and use," the Board will count each issue on which information is sought as a separate interrogatory. In contrast, if an interrogatory requests "all relevant facts and circumstances" concerning a single issue, event, or matter; or asks that a particular piece of information, such as, for example, annual sales figures under a mark, be given for multiple years, and/or for each of the responding party's involved marks, it will be counted as a single interrogatory.¹²⁸

The introductory instructions or preamble to a set of interrogatories will not be counted by the Board as interrogatories or subparts for purposes of determining whether the limit specified in 37 CFR § 2.120(d)(1) has been exceeded. On the other hand, the Board's determination, on a motion to compel, of the adequacy of an interrogatory answer will not be governed by the introductory instructions or preamble; the Board is not bound by the instructions or preamble, and will make its own independent determination of the adequacy of the answer, without regard to the instructions or preamble.¹²⁹

405.03(e) Remedy for Excessive Interrogatories

37 CFR § 2.120(d)(1) ... If a party upon which interrogatories have been served believes that the number of interrogatories served exceed the limitation specified in this paragraph, and is not willing to waive this basis for objection, the party shall, within the time for (and instead of) serving answers and specific objections to the interrogatories, serve a general objection on the ground of their excessive number. If the inquiring party, in turn, files a motion to compel discovery, the motion must be accompanied by a copy of the set(s) of interrogatories which together are said to exceed the limitation, and must otherwise comply with the requirements of paragraph (e) of this section.

If a party on which interrogatories have been served, in a proceeding before the Board, believes that the number of interrogatories served exceeds the limit specified in 37 CFR § 2.120(d)(1), and wishes to object to the interrogatories on this basis, the party must, within the time for (and instead of) serving answers and specific objections to the interrogatories, serve a general objection on the ground of their excessive number.¹³⁰ A party should not answer what it considers to be the first seventy-five interrogatories and object to the rest as excessive.¹³¹

If a general objection on the ground of excessive number is asserted, and the propounding party, in turn, believes that the objection is not well taken, and wishes to obtain an adjudication from the Board as to the sufficiency thereof, the propounding party must file a motion to compel discovery. The motion must be accompanied by a copy of the set(s) of interrogatories which together are said to exceed the limitation, and must otherwise comply with the requirements of Trademark Rule 2.120(e), including the requirement that a motion to compel be supported by a written statement from the moving party that such party or its attorney has made a good faith effort, by conference or correspondence, to resolve with the other party or its attorney the issues presented in the motion and has been unable to reach agreement.¹³² It is further recommended that the moving party set out its counting method showing that the number of interrogatories does not exceed seventy-five.¹³³

If, on determining a motion to compel filed in response to a general objection to interrogatories on the ground of excessive number, the Board finds that the interrogatories are excessive in number, and that the propounding party has not previously used up its allotted 75 interrogatories, the Board normally will allow the propounding party an opportunity to serve a revised set of interrogatories not exceeding the numerical limit. The revised set of interrogatories serves as a substitute for the excessive set, and thus is deemed timely if the excessive set was timely.¹³⁴

However, if the revised set is not served until after the close of the discovery period, the scope of the revised set may not exceed the scope of the excessive set, that is, the revised set may not seek information not sought in the excessive set.¹³⁵

Although there are no limitations on the number of document requests that may be served, a party may properly refuse to respond to a document request seeking all documents identified or referred to in response to interrogatories if the number of interrogatories is believed to be excessive.¹³⁶

¹³² See 37 CFR §§ 2.120(d)(1) and 2.120(e); and Helen R. Wendel, TIPS FROM THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE TTAB: The Burden Shifts: Revised Discovery Practice Under Trademark Rule 2.120(d)(1), supra.

Chapter 400 DISCOVERY

In those cases where a party which has propounded interrogatories realizes, on receipt of a general objection thereto on the ground of excessive number, that the interrogatories are, in fact, excessive in number, it is strongly recommended that the parties voluntarily agree to the service of a revised set of interrogatories, in the manner normally allowed by the Board, instead of bringing their dispute to the Board by motion to compel.¹³⁷

[NOTE: Although some of the cases cited in this TBMP section were decided under an earlier version of 37 CFR § 2.120(d)(1) governing the procedure for objecting to interrogatories on the basis of their excessive number, the decisions are otherwise applicable to the issues which may arise under Rule 2.120(d)(1)].¹³⁸

405.04 Responses to Interrogatories

405.04(a) Time for Service of Responses

Responses to interrogatories must be served within 30 days after the date of service of the interrogatories.¹³⁹ If service of the interrogatories is made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier, the date of mailing or of delivery to the overnight courier is considered to be the date of service, and five extra days are allowed for responding to the interrogatories.¹⁴⁰

A party which fails to respond to interrogatories during the time allowed therefor, and which is unable to show that its failure was the result of excusable neglect, may be found, on motion to compel filed by the propounding party, to have forfeited its right to object to the interrogatories on their merits.¹⁴¹ Objections going to the merits of an interrogatory or other discovery request include claims that the information sought by the request is irrelevant, overly broad, unduly vague and ambiguous, burdensome and oppressive, or not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.¹⁴² In contrast, objections based on claims of privilege or confidentiality or attorney work product do not go to the merits of the request, but instead to a characteristic of the information sought.¹⁴³

405.04(b) Nature of Responses

Ordinarily, a party on which interrogatories have been served should respond to them by stating, with respect to each interrogatory, either an answer or an objection. If an interrogatory is answered, the answer must be made separately and fully, in writing under oath. If an interrogatory is objected to, the reasons for objection must be stated in lieu of an answer.¹⁴⁴ If a responding party believes that the number of interrogatories served exceeds the limit specified in 37 CFR § 2.120(d)(1), and wishes to object to the interrogatories on this basis, the party must, within the time for (and instead of) serving answers and specific objections to the interrogatories, serve a general objection on the ground of their excessive number.¹⁴⁵

The Board prefers that the responding party reproduce each interrogatory immediately preceding the answer or objection thereto.¹⁴⁶

In some cases, the information sought in an interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the business records of the responding party, or from an examination, audit, or inspection of those business records (including a compilation, abstract, or summary thereof) and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the information is substantially the same for the propounding party as for the responding party. In those cases, the responding party may answer the interrogatory by itself providing, in its written answer to the interrogatory, the information sought. Alternatively, the responding party may answer the interrogatory by specifying the records from which the information may be derived or ascertained, and affording to the propounding party reasonable opportunity to examine, audit, or inspect the records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts, or summaries. If the responding party elects to answer an interrogatory by specifying and producing business records, the specification must be in sufficient detail to permit the propounding party to locate and identify, as readily as can the responding party, the records from which the answer may be ascertained.¹⁴⁷

A responding party cannot simultaneously invoke the option to produce business records and claim the protection of a privilege as to the documents.¹⁴⁸

It is generally inappropriate for a party to respond to interrogatories by filing a motion attacking them, such as a motion to strike, a motion to suppress, a motion for a protective order, etc. Rather, the party ordinarily should respond by answering those interrogatories that it believes to be proper and stating its objections to those that it believes to be improper.¹⁴⁹

405.04(c) Signature of Responses

Interrogatories must be answered by the party served. If the party served is a corporation, partnership, association, or governmental agency, the interrogatories must be answered by an officer or agent, who must furnish whatever information is available to the party served.¹⁵⁰

The term "agent" includes an attorney, who may answer even though he has no personal knowledge of the facts stated in the answers; the attorney's answers, like an officer's answers, must contain the information available to the party served.¹⁵¹ However, an attorney who answers interrogatories on behalf of a corporation, partnership, association, or governmental agency may thereafter be exposed to additional discovery and possibly even disqualification.¹⁵² ¹⁴⁷ See Fed. R. Civ. P. 33(d); No Fear Inc. v. Rule, 54 USPQ2d 1551, 1555 (TTAB 2000) (responding party may not merely agree to provide access to voluminous records which may contain responsive information); and Jain v. Ramparts, Inc., 49 USPQ2d 1429, 1435 (TTAB 1998) (identifying prerequisites for exercising the option to produce business records in lieu of answering interrogatories).

Answers to interrogatories must be signed by the person making them, and objections to interrogatories must be signed by the attorney making them.¹⁵³

406 Requests for Production of Documents and Things

406.01 When and By Whom Served

During the discovery period in an inter partes proceeding before the Board, any party may serve requests for production of documents and things on any other party.¹⁵⁴ Requests for production may be served from the day discovery opens through the last day of the discovery period, even though the answers thereto may not be served until after the discovery period has closed.¹⁵⁵

If requests for production are combined with a notice of taking a discovery deposition (i.e., if it is requested that the deponent bring designated documents to the deposition), the requests for production must be served at least 35 days prior to the scheduled date of the deposition if service of the requests for production is made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier, and at least 30 days prior to the deposition if service of the requests for production is made by one of the other methods specified in 37 CFR § 2.119(b).¹⁵⁶

If a discovery deposition deponent is a nonparty witness residing in the United States¹⁵⁷ production of designated documents by the witness at the deposition may be obtained by means of a subpoena duces tecum.¹⁵⁸ A subpoena is unnecessary, however, if the nonparty witness is willing to produce the documents voluntarily.

and copy, any designated documents (including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, phonorecords, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, by the respondent through detection devices into reasonably usable form), or to inspect and copy, test, or sample any tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of Rule 26(b) and which are in the possession, custody or control of the party upon whom the request is served; or (2) to permit entry upon designated land or other property in the possession or control of the party upon whom the request is served for the purpose of inspection and measuring, surveying, photographing, testing, or sampling the property or any designated object or operation thereon, within the scope of Rule 26(b).

The scope of a request for production, in an inter partes proceeding before the Board, is governed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a), which in turn refers to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b).¹⁵⁹

Generally, a party does not have an obligation to locate documents that are not in its possession, custody or control and produce them during discovery.¹⁶⁰

Because proceedings before the Board involve only the right to register trademarks, the request for entry upon land for inspection and other purposes is rarely, if ever, used in Board proceedings.

406.03 Elements of Request for Production; Place of Production

Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(b) Procedure. The request shall set forth, either by individual item or by category, the items to be inspected and describe each with reasonable particularity. The request shall specify a reasonable time, place, and manner of making the inspection and performing the related acts. ...

37 CFR § 2.120(d)(2) The production of documents and things under the provisions of Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will be made at the place where the documents and things are usually kept, or where the parties agree, or where and in the manner which the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, upon motion, orders.

A request for production must include the elements specified in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(b), as set forth above.

¹⁵⁹ For a discussion of the scope of discovery permitted under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b), see TBMP § 402.

¹⁶⁰ See Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(c) for discovery of documents in possession of a third party. See also Harjo v. Pro-Football Inc., 50 USPQ2d 1705, 1715 (TTAB 1999), rev'd on other grounds, 284 F. Supp. 2d 96, 68 USPQ2d 1225 (D.D.C. 2003).

Chapter 400 DISCOVERY

The place of production is governed by 37 CFR § 2.120(d)(2).¹⁶¹ However, in Board cases, parties often extend each other the courtesy of producing requested documents by copying the documents and forwarding them to the requesting party.¹⁶²

On motion pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.120(d)(2), the Board may order the place and the manner in which the documents are to be produced. The Board may, for example, order that the responding party photocopy the documents designated in a request and mail the photocopies to the requesting party when the responding party has unreasonably refused to produce documents.¹⁶³

406.04 Responses to Requests for Production

406.04(a) Time for Service of Responses

Responses to requests for production must be served within 30 days after the date of service of the requests.¹⁶⁴ If service of the requests is made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier, the date of mailing or of delivery to the overnight courier is considered to be the date of service, and five extra days are allowed for responding to the requests.¹⁶⁵

A party which fails to respond to requests for production during the time allowed therefor, and which is unable to show that its failure was the result of excusable neglect, may be found, on motion to compel filed by the propounding party, to have forfeited its right to object to the requests on their merits.¹⁶⁶

406.04(b) Nature of Responses

A response to a request for production of documents and things must state, with respect to each item or category of documents or things requested to be produced, that inspection and related activities will be permitted as requested, unless the request is objected to, in which case the reasons for objection must be stated.¹⁶⁷ If objection is made to only part of an item or category, the part must be specified. A party that produces documents for inspection must produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business, or must organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the request.¹⁶⁸

It is generally inappropriate for a party to respond to requests for production by filing a motion attacking them, such as a motion to strike, a motion to suppress or a motion for a protective order. Rather, the party ordinarily should respond by indicating, with respect to those requests that it believes to be proper, that inspection and related activities will be permitted, and by stating reasons for objection with respect to those requests that it believes to be improper.¹⁶⁹

407 Requests for Admissions

407.01 When and By Whom Served

During the discovery period in an inter partes proceeding before the Board, any party may serve written requests for admissions on any other party.¹⁷⁰ Like interrogatories and requests for production of documents, requests for admission may be served on an adversary from the day the discovery period opens through the last day of the discovery period, even though the answers thereto will not be due until after the discovery period has closed.¹⁷¹

¹⁶⁷ See Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(b) and No Fear Inc. v. Rule, supra at 1555 (a proper response requires stating as to each request either that there are responsive documents and they will be produced (or withheld on a claim of privilege) or stating party has no responsive documents).

¹⁶⁸ See Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(b) and No Fear Inc. v. Rule, supra at 1556, citing 8A Wright, Miller & Marcus, Federal Practice and Procedure: Civil 2d § 2213 (2d ed. 1994) (party may not simply dump large quantities of documents containing responsive as well as unresponsive documents).

407.02 Scope and Nature of Requests for Admission

Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a) Request for Admission. A party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission, for purposes of the pending action only, of the truth of any matters within the scope of Rule 26(b)(1) set forth in the request that relate to statements or opinions of fact or of the application of law to fact, including the genuineness of any documents described in the request. Copies of documents shall be served with the request unless they have been or are otherwise furnished or made available for inspection and copying. ...

Each matter of which an admission is requested shall be separately set forth. ...

The scope and nature of requests for admission, in inter partes proceedings before the Board, are governed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a), which in turn refers to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1).¹⁷²

Requests for admission are particularly useful for determining, prior to trial, which facts are not in dispute, thereby narrowing the matters that must be tried.¹⁷³ These requests are also useful as a means of facilitating the introduction into evidence of documents produced by an adversary in response to a request for production of documents.¹⁷⁴

407.03 Responses to Requests for Admission

407.03(a) Time for Service of Responses

Responses to requests for admission must be served within 30 days after the date of service of the requests.¹⁷⁵ If service of the requests is made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier, the date of mailing or of delivery to the overnight courier is considered to be the date of service, and five extra days are allowed for responding to the requests.¹⁷⁶

If a party on which requests for admission have been served fails to timely respond thereto, the requests will stand admitted unless the party is able to show that its failure to timely respond was the result of excusable neglect¹⁷⁷ or unless a motion to withdraw or amend the admissions is filed pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(b) and granted by the Board.¹⁷⁸

For information concerning motions pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(b) to withdraw or amend admissions, see TBMP § 525.

407.03(b) Nature of Responses

Responses to requests for admission must be made in writing, and should include an answer or objection to each matter of which an admission is requested.¹⁷⁹

The Board prefers that the responding party reproduce each request immediately preceding the answer or objection thereto.¹⁸⁰

An answer must admit the matter of which an admission is requested; deny the matter; or state in detail the reasons why the responding party cannot truthfully admit or deny the matter. *"A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and when good faith requires that a party qualify an answer or deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested, the party shall specify so much of it as is true and qualify or deny the remainder. *knowledge as a reason for failure to admit or deny unless the party states that the party has made reasonable inquiry and that the information known or readily obtainable by the party is insufficient to enable the party to admit or deny."*¹⁸¹

If the responding party objects to a request for admission, the reasons for objection must be stated. If a responding party believes that a matter of which an admission has been requested presents a genuine issue for trial, the party may not object to the request on that ground alone. Rather, the party may deny the matter; alternatively, the party may set forth reasons why it cannot admit or deny the matter.¹⁸²

It is generally inappropriate for a party to respond to requests for admission by filing a motion attacking them, such as a motion to strike, a motion to suppress, a motion for a protective order, etc. Rather, the party ordinarily should respond by answering those requests that it believes to be proper and stating its reasons for objection to those that it believes to be improper.¹⁸³

Answers and objections to requests for admission may be signed either by the responding party, or by its attorney.¹⁸⁴

407.04 Effect of Admission

Any matter admitted (either expressly, or for failure to timely respond) under Fed. R. Civ. P. 36 is conclusively established unless the Board, on motion, permits withdrawal or amendment of the admission.¹⁸⁵

For further information concerning motions to withdraw or amend an admission, see TBMP § 525.

Chapter 400 DISCOVERY

An admission made by a party under Fed. R. Civ. P. 36 is only for the purpose of the pending proceeding. It is not an admission for any other purpose, nor may it be used against that party in any other proceeding.¹⁸⁶

408 Duties to Cooperate, Search Records, Supplement

408.01 Duty to Cooperate

The Board expects parties (and their attorneys or other authorized representatives) to cooperate with one another in the discovery process, and looks with extreme disfavor on those who do not. Each party and its attorney or other authorized representative has a duty not only to make a good faith effort to satisfy the discovery needs of its adversary, but also to make a good faith effort to seek only such discovery as is proper and relevant to the issues in the case.¹⁸⁷

It should be noted, in this regard, that under the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(g)(2), the signature of an attorney or party to a discovery request, response, or objection:¹⁸⁸

. . . constitutes a certification that to the best of the signer's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after a reasonable inquiry, the request, response, or objection is:

(A) consistent with [the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure] and warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law;

(B) not interposed for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation; and

¹⁸⁷ See, for example, Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(g); Johnston Pump/General Valve Inc. v. Chromalloy American Corp., 13 USPQ2d 1719, 1721 n.4 (TTAB 1989); Johnston Pump/General Valve Inc. v. Chromalloy American Corp., 10 USPQ2d 1671, 1675 (TTAB 1988) (in view of parties' impasse, Board was burdened with resolving numerous requests for discovery); Luehrmann v. Kwik Kopy Corp., 2 USPQ2d 1303, 1305 (TTAB 1987) (both parties failed to cooperate, thus saddling Board with needless motions); Sentrol, Inc. v. Sentex Systems, Inc., 231 USPQ 666, 667 (TTAB 1986) (parties must narrow amount of disputed requests to reasonable number); Unicut Corp. v. Unicut, Inc., 222 USPQ 341, 344 (TTAB 1984) (failure to cooperate in discovery resulted in entry of sanctions); Medtronic, Inc. v. Pacesetter Systems, Inc., 222 USPQ 80, 83 (TTAB 1984) (it was clear from number and nature of opposer's discovery requests and applicant's blanket objections thereto that neither party was cooperating). Chapter 400 DISCOVERY

(C) not unreasonable or unduly burdensome or expensive, given the needs of the case, the discovery already had in the case, the amount in controversy, and the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation.

Provision is made, in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(g), for the imposition of appropriate sanctions if a certification is made in violation of the rule.

Because the signature of a party or its attorney to a request for discovery constitutes a certification by the party or its attorney that, inter alia, the request is warranted, consistent with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and not unreasonable or unduly burdensome, a party ordinarily will not be heard to contend that a request for discovery is proper when propounded by the party itself but improper when propounded by its adversary. A contention of this nature will be entertained only if it is supported by a persuasive showing of reasons why the discovery request is proper when propounded by one party but improper when propounded by another.¹⁸⁹

408.02 Duty to Search Records

A party served with a request for discovery has a duty to thoroughly search its records for all information properly sought in the request, and to provide such information to the requesting party within the time allowed for responding to the request. A responding party which, due to an incomplete search of its records, provides an incomplete response to a discovery request, may not thereafter rely at trial on information from its records which was properly sought in the discovery request but was not included in the response thereto (provided that the requesting party raises the matter by objecting to the evidence in question) unless the response is supplemented in a timely fashion pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e).¹⁹⁰

408.03 Duty to Supplement Discovery Response

Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e) Supplementation of ... Responses. A party who has ... responded to a request for discovery with a ... response is under a duty to supplement or correct the ... response to include information thereafter acquired if ordered by the court or in the following circumstances:

* * * *

(2) A party is under a duty seasonably to amend a prior response to an interrogatory, request for production, or request for admission if the party learns that the response is in some material respect incomplete or incorrect and if the additional or corrective information has not otherwise been made known to the other parties during the discovery process or in writing.

¹⁸⁹ See, for example, Miss America Pageant v. Petite Productions, Inc., supra at 1069 (Board was persuaded that certain interrogatories would be unduly burdensome).

¹⁹⁰ See Bison Corp. v. Perfecta Chemie B.V., 4 USPQ2d 1718, 1720 (TTAB 1987).

Chapter 400 DISCOVERY

The duty to supplement discovery responses in proceedings before the Board is governed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e)(2).¹⁹¹ Under that rule, a party that has responded to a request for discovery with a response is under a duty to supplement or correct the response to include information thereafter acquired under the particular circumstances specified in paragraph (e)(2).¹⁹² In addition, a duty to supplement responses may be imposed by order of the Board.¹⁹³

409 Filing Discovery Requests and Responses With Board

37 CFR § 2.120(j) Use of discovery deposition, answer to interrogatory, or admission.

* * * *

(6) Paragraph (j) of this section will not be interpreted to preclude the reading or the use of a discovery deposition, or answer to an interrogatory, or admission as part of the examination or cross-examination of any witness during the testimony period of any party.

* * * *

(8) Requests for discovery, responses thereto, and materials or depositions obtained through the discovery process should not be filed with the Board except when submitted with a motion relating to discovery, or in support of or response to a motion for summary judgment, or under a notice of reliance during a party's testimony period. Papers or materials filed in violation of this paragraph may be returned by the Board.

Discovery requests, discovery responses, and materials or depositions obtained through the discovery process, should not be filed with the Board except when submitted:

- (1) With a motion relating to discovery [e.g., motion to compel, motion to determine the sufficiency of an answer or objection to a request for admission, motion for leave to serve additional interrogatories];
- (2) In support of or in response to a motion for summary judgment;
- (3) Under a notice of reliance during a party's testimony period; or
- (4) As exhibits to a testimony deposition.

Chapter 400 DISCOVERY

Authorities and cases regarding the filing of discovery materials with the Board are cited in the note below.¹⁹⁴

In addition, when a party objects to proffered evidence on the ground that it should have been, but was not, provided in response to a request for discovery, a copy of the pertinent discovery request(s) and response(s) should be submitted in support of the objection.

Discovery papers or materials filed with the Board under circumstances other than those specified above may be returned to the party that filed them.¹⁹⁵

410 Asserting Objections to Requests for Discovery; Motions Attacking Requests for Discovery

The rules governing discovery in proceedings before the Board provide both for the assertion of objections to discovery requests believed to be improper, and a means (namely, the motion to compel, in the case of discovery depositions, interrogatories, and requests for production; and the motion to test the sufficiency of answers or objections, in the case of requests for admission) for testing the sufficiency of those objections. It is generally inappropriate for a party to respond to a request for discovery by filing a motion attacking it, such as a motion to strike, a motion to suppress or a motion for a protective order. Rather, the party ordinarily should respond by providing the information sought in those portions of the request that it believes to be proper, and stating its objections to those that it believes to be improper.¹⁹⁶

North American Chicago Corp.*, 16 USPQ2d 1479, 1480 (TTAB 1990) (regarding combined sets of interrogatories which are subject to a motion relating to discovery); Kellogg Co. v. Pack'Em Enterprises, Inc., 14 USPQ2d 1545, 1549 n.9 (TTAB 1990), aff'd, 951 F.2d 330, 21 USPQ2d 1142 (Fed. Chapter 400 DISCOVERY

Further, if a party on which interrogatories have been served in a proceeding before the Board, believes that the number of interrogatories served exceeds the limit specified in 37 CFR § 2.120(d)(1), and wishes to object to the interrogatories on this basis, the responding party must, within the time for (and instead of) serving answers and specific objections to the interrogatories, serve a general objection on the ground of their excessive number; a motion for a protective order is not the proper method for raising the objection of excessive number.¹⁹⁷

Nevertheless, there are some situations in which a party may properly respond to a request for discovery by filing a motion attacking it. In cases where, for example, a request for discovery constitutes clear harassment, or where a defendant on which a request for discovery has been served is not and was not, at the time of the commencement of the proceeding, the real party in interest, the party on which the request was served may properly respond to it by filing a motion for a protective order that the discovery not be had, or be had only on specified terms and conditions.¹⁹⁸

If the discovery sought is a discovery deposition, and the request therefor constitutes harassment, there is insufficient notice, etc., the party on which the request was served may file either a motion to quash the notice of deposition or a motion for a protective order.¹⁹⁹

411 Remedy for Failure to Provide Discovery

411.01 Interrogatories or Requests for Production

If any party fails to answer any interrogatory, the party seeking discovery may file a motion with the Board for an order to compel an answer. Similarly, if any party fails to produce and permit the inspection and copying of any document or thing, the party seeking discovery may file a motion for an order to compel production and an opportunity to inspect and copy.²⁰⁰

411.02 Requests for Admission

If a party on which requests for admission have been served fails to file a timely response thereto, the requests will stand admitted unless the party is able to show that its failure to timely respond was the result of excusable neglect; or unless a motion to withdraw or amend the admissions is filed pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(b), and granted by the Board.²⁰¹

If a propounding party is dissatisfied with a responding party's answer or objection to a request for admission, and wishes to obtain a ruling on the sufficiency thereof, the propounding party may file a motion with the Board to determine the sufficiency of the answer or objection.²⁰² If the Board determines that an answer does not comply with the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a), it may order either that the matter is admitted or that an amended answer be served. If the Board determines that an objection is not justified, it will order that an answer be served.²⁰³

If a party fails to designate a person pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) or Fed. R. Civ. P. 31(a)(3), or if a party or such designated person, or an officer, director or managing agent of a party, fails to attend a discovery deposition, or fails to answer any question propounded in a discovery deposition, the party seeking discovery may file a motion with the Board for an order to compel a designation, or attendance at a deposition, or an answer.²⁰⁴

A discovery deposition is taken out of the presence of the Board, and if a witness objects to, and refuses to answer, a particular question, and the propounding party wishes to obtain an immediate ruling on the propriety of the objection, it may do so only by adjourning the deposition and applying, under 35 U.S.C. § 24, to the Federal district court, in the jurisdiction where the deposition is being taken, for an order compelling the witness to answer.²⁰⁵ In the absence of a court order compelling an answer, the propounding party's only alternative, if it wishes to compel an answer, is to complete the deposition and then file a motion to compel with the Board.²⁰⁶

411.04 Discovery Sanctions

In inter partes proceedings before the Board, a variety of sanctions may be imposed, in appropriate cases, for failure to provide discovery. The sanctions which may be entered by the Board include, inter alia, striking all or part of the pleadings of the disobedient party; refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses; drawing adverse inferences against uncooperative party; prohibiting the disobedient party from introducing designated matters in evidence; and entering judgment against the disobedient party. However, the Board will not hold any person in contempt, or award any expenses, including attorneys' fees, to any party.²⁰⁷

For further information concerning discovery sanctions and when they are available, see TBMP § 527.01.

412 Protective Orders

37 CFR § 2.120(f) Upon motion by a party from whom discovery is sought, and for good cause, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board may make any order which justice requires to protect a party from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense, including one or more of the types of orders provided by clauses (1) through (8), inclusive, of Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the Board may, on such conditions (other than an award of expenses to the party prevailing on the motion) as are just, order that any party provide or permit discovery.

412.01 In General

On motion, showing good cause, by a party from which discovery is sought, the Board may make any order which justice requires to protect a party from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense, including one or more of the types of orders described in clauses (1) through (8) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c).²⁰⁸

For further information on motions for protective orders, see TBMP § 410 (Motions Attacking Requests for Discovery), TBMP § 412.02 (Protective Order Regarding Confidential and Trade Secret Information) and TBMP § 526 (Motion for a Protective Order).

412.02 Protective Order Regarding Confidential and Trade Secret Information

412.02(a) Upon Motion

When the Board grants a motion for a protective order with respect to confidential or trade secret information, it may direct either the disclosing party, or the parties together, to prepare an order with terms that are mutually agreeable to them.²⁰⁹ Other alternatives involve accepting a protective order proffered by a party, or ordering parties to adhere to Board's standard protective order.²¹⁰ If the Board orders that the parties abide by the terms of this order, the parties may subsequently agree to modifications or additions, subject to Board approval.

412.02(b) Upon Stipulation

Parties to proceedings before the Board may, and often do, enter into stipulated protective orders, that is, agreements as to specified procedures and restrictions that shall govern the disclosure of any confidential or trade secret information.²¹¹ The Board has a standardized protective order which parties are free to use or modify as appropriate. The standardized protective order can be found in the Appendix of Forms in this manual and on the USPTO web site at: www.uspto.gov.

If the parties enter into a stipulated protective order, a copy of the executed agreement should be filed with the Board so that the Board is on notice that confidential material may be filed in connection with the proceeding. The Board will acknowledge receipt of the agreement, but the parties should not wait for the Board's acknowledgement to conduct themselves in accordance with the terms of their agreement. The terms of the agreement are binding as of the date the agreement is signed.²¹²

²⁰⁹ See, for example, Johnston Pump/General Valve Inc. v. Chromalloy American Corp., 13 USPQ2d 1719 (TTAB 1989); and Neville Chemical Co. v. Lubrizol Corp., 183 USPQ 184 (TTAB 1974).

²¹² See TBMP § 412.05 (Signature of Protective Agreement).

Chapter 400 DISCOVERY

Only confidential or trade secret information should be filed pursuant to a stipulated protective order. Such an order may not be used as a means of circumventing paragraphs (d) and (e) of 37 CFR § 2.27, which provide, in essence, that except for matter filed under seal pursuant to a protective order issued by a court or by the Board, the file of a published application or issued registration, and all proceedings relating thereto, are available for public inspection.²¹³

412.02(c) In Camera Inspection

In situations where there is a dispute between the parties to a proceeding as to the relevance and/or confidentiality of a document, or portions thereof, sought to be discovered, and the Board cannot determine from the arguments of the parties, on motion to compel production, whether the document is relevant and/or confidential, the Board may request that a copy of the document be submitted to the Board for an in camera inspection, after which the document will be returned to the party which submitted it.²¹⁴

412.02(d) Contents of Protective Order

Typically, a protective order dealing with confidential or trade secret information contains provisions such as the following:

- (1) A definition of the type of material to be considered confidential or trade secret information.
- (2) A description of the manner in which confidential or trade secret information is to be handled.
- (3) A requirement that a party claiming confidentiality or trade secret designate the information covered by the claim prior to disclosure of the information to the discovering party.
- (4) A provision that a party may not designate information as confidential or trade secret unless the party has a reasonable basis for believing that the information is, in fact, confidential or trade secret in nature.
- (5) A provision that information designated by the disclosing party as confidential or trade secret may not include information which, at or prior to disclosure thereof to the discovering party, is known to or independently developed by the discovering party; or is public knowledge or becomes available to the public without violation of the agreement.

(6) A provision that information designated by the disclosing party as confidential or trade secret may not include information that, after the disclosure thereof, is revealed to the public by a person having the unrestricted right to do so.

(7) A provision that information designated by the disclosing party as confidential or trade secret may not include information which is acquired by the discovering party from a third party, which lawfully possesses the information and/or owes no duty of nondisclosure to the party providing discovery.

(8) A specification of the persons to whom confidential or trade secret information may be disclosed (e.g., outside counsel; house counsel; counsel's necessary legal and clerical personnel).

(9) A provision that all persons to whom confidential or trade secret information is disclosed shall be advised of the existence and terms of the protective order.

(10) A provision that the discovering party will not disclose or make use of confidential or trade secret information provided to it under the order except for purposes of the proceeding in which the information is provided.

(11) A means for resolving disputes over whether particular matter constitutes confidential or trade secret information.

(12) A provision that if material designated as confidential or trade secret is made of record in the proceeding, it shall be submitted to the Board in a separate sealed envelope or other sealed container bearing the proceeding number and name, an indication of the general nature of the contents of the container, and, in large letters, the designation "CONFIDENTIAL."

(13) A statement that at the end of the proceeding, each party shall return to the disclosing party all confidential information and materials, including all copies, summaries, and abstracts thereof.

The Board's standardized protective order can be found in the Appendix of Forms in this manual and on the USPTO web site at: www.uspto.gov.

Chapter 400 DISCOVERY

*For additional information concerning the contents of a protective order, see the cases and authorities cited in the note below.*²¹⁵

412.03 Signature of Protective Order

Stipulated protective orders may be signed either by the parties thereto, or by their attorneys, or by both. However, once a proceeding before the Board has been finally determined, the Board has no further jurisdiction over the parties thereto. Thus, it may be advisable for both the parties and their attorneys to sign a stipulated protective order, so that it is clear that they are all bound thereby; that they have created a contract which will survive the proceeding; and that there may be a remedy at court for any breach of that contract which occurs after the conclusion of the Board proceeding.²¹⁶

Imposition of the terms of a protective order by the Board is indicated by signature of a Board attorney or Administrative Trademark Judge at the conclusion of the order.

The terms of the protective order are binding from the date the parties or their attorneys sign the order, in standard form or as modified or supplemented, or from the date of imposition by a Board attorney or judge.

(e) Anything ordered to be filed under seal pursuant to a protective order issued or made by any court or by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board in any proceeding involving an application or registration shall be kept confidential and shall not be made available for public inspection or copying unless otherwise ordered by the court or the Board, or unless the party protected by the order voluntarily discloses the matter subject thereto. When possible, only confidential portions of filings with the board shall be filed under seal.

37 CFR § 2.126(d) [Form of submissions to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board] To be handled as confidential, submissions to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board that are confidential in whole or part pursuant to § 2.125(e) must be submitted under a separate cover. Both the submission and its cover must be marked confidential and must identify the case number and the parties. A copy of the submission with the confidential portions redacted must be submitted.

Except for materials filed under seal pursuant to a protective order, the files of applications and registrations which are the subject matter of pending proceedings before the Board and all pending proceeding files and exhibits thereto are available for public inspection and copying.²¹⁷ Therefore, only the particular discovery responses, exhibits, deposition transcript pages, or those portions of a brief, pleading or motion that disclose confidential information should be filed under seal pursuant to a protective order. If a party submits any brief, pleading, motion or other such filing containing confidential information under seal, the party must also submit for the public record a redacted version of said papers.²¹⁸

Confidential materials filed in the absence of a protective order are not regarded as confidential and are not kept confidential by the Board.²¹⁹ The mere stamping of “confidential” on documents does not operate in lieu of a protective order or agreement.

In the event that material designated as confidential (including trade secret material) is made of record in the proceeding, it must be submitted to the Board in a separate sealed envelope or other sealed container prominently marked with the word “CONFIDENTIAL.”²²⁰ Many attorneys also like to attach to the sealed envelope or other sealed container a statement, such as the following:

The envelope or other container must also bear information identifying the proceeding in connection with which it is filed (i.e., the proceeding number and name),²²¹ and an indication of the nature of the contents of the container (i.e., "Applicant's Answers to Opposer's Interrogatories 8 and 19," "Pages 22-26 From the Discovery Deposition of John Doe," "Opposer's Exhibits 3-5 to the Discovery Deposition of John Smith," etc.).

412.05 Handling of Confidential Materials By Board

Confidential materials (including trade secret information) filed under seal subject to a protective order are stored by the Board in a secure location, and are disclosed only to the Board and to those people specified in the protective order as having the right to access.²²² After the proceeding before the Board has been finally determined, all confidential materials are returned to the party that submitted them.²²³

413 Telephone and Pre-Trial Conferences

When appropriate and necessary, a motion relating to discovery may be resolved by telephone conference, or by pre-trial conference at the offices of the Board. In either case, the conference will involve the parties or their attorneys and an Attorney-Advisor, or a Member, or the Board.²²⁴

privileged or confidential.²²⁵

(2) In those cases where complete compliance with a particular request for discovery would be unduly burdensome, the Board may permit the responding party to comply by providing a representative sampling of the information sought, or some other reduced amount of information which is nevertheless sufficient to meet the propounding party's discovery needs.²²⁶

(3) The classes of customers for a party's involved goods or services are discoverable. In contrast, the names of customers constitute confidential information, and generally are not discoverable, even under protective order.²²⁷ However, the name of the first customer for a party's involved goods or services sold under its involved mark, and, if there is a question of abandonment, the names of a minimal number of customers for the period in question, may be discoverable under protective order.²²⁸

Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

501 Stipulations

501.01 In General

Subject to the approval of the Board, parties may stipulate to a wide variety of matters. For example, parties may stipulate to extend or reopen times; that the total number of interrogatories which one party may serve upon another party in a proceeding may exceed the limitation specified in 37 CFR § 2.120(d)(1); that the production of documents and things under the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 may be made in a specified place and/or manner;¹ to protective agreements;² to the facts in the case of any party;³ that the testimony of witnesses may be submitted in affidavit form;⁴ that a deposition may be taken at a particular place, or in a certain manner;⁵ that the proceeding shall be ended in a specified way.⁶

501.02 Filing Stipulations

37 CFR § 2.121(d) [Assignment of times for taking testimony] When parties stipulate to the rescheduling of testimony periods or to the rescheduling of the closing date for discovery and the rescheduling of testimony periods, a stipulation presented in the form used in a trial order, signed by the parties, or a motion in said form signed by one party and including a statement that every other party has agreed thereto, shall be submitted to the Board.

Stipulations which require action or consideration by the Board, such as stipulations to extend a defendant's time to file an answer to the complaint, stipulations to extend trial dates, stipulations relating to the form of testimony, stipulations to end a proceeding in a specified way, must be filed with the Board.⁷ Some other types of stipulations, such as stipulations to extend a party's time for responding to a request for discovery, do not necessarily have to be filed with the Board. However, even in the case of a stipulation that does not have to be filed, the better practice is to reduce the stipulation to writing, in order to avoid any misunderstanding between the parties as to the existence and terms thereof.

³ See 37 CFR § 2.123(b).

⁶ See TBMP § 605.03 (Settlement Agreements).

⁷ See, for example, 37 CFR § 2.121(d).

Chapter 500

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

501.03 Form of Stipulations

A stipulation may be signed either by the parties, or by their attorneys, or other authorized representatives.

If parties stipulate to extend or reopen a time or times, the stipulation should specify the closing date for each rescheduled time. For example, if parties stipulate to extend or reopen a defendant's time to file an answer to the complaint, the stipulation should specify the new due date for the answer. A stipulation to extend time to file an answer will be approved only if the proposed new due date for the answer is prior to the close of the discovery period. The time to answer will not be extended beyond the close of the discovery period. Thus, any stipulation, which would reset the time to answer beyond the date presently set for the close of discovery, must also include a request for an extension of the discovery period. If parties stipulate to extend or reopen testimony periods, or the discovery period and testimony periods, the stipulation should be submitted in the form used in a trial order, specifying the closing date for each period to be reset.⁸

The resetting, whether by stipulation or otherwise, of a party's time to respond to an outstanding request for discovery will not result in the automatic rescheduling of the discovery and/or testimony periods--such dates will be rescheduled only upon stipulation of the parties being approved by the Board, or upon motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board.⁹

502 Motions--In General

502.01 Available Motions

There is a wide range of motions which may be filed in inter partes proceedings before the Board. Trademark Rule 2.116(a), 37 CFR § 2.116(a), provides that "[e]xcept as otherwise provided, and wherever applicable and appropriate, procedure and practice in inter partes proceedings shall be governed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure." Thus, many of the motions available under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure are also available in proceedings before the Board.

⁸ See 37 CFR § 2.121(d), and Jan Bell Marketing Inc. v. Centennial Jewelers Inc., 19 USPQ2d 1636 (TTAB 1990).

⁹ See 37 CFR §§ 2.120(a) and 2.121(a), and TBMP § 403.04 (Extensions of Discovery Period and/or Time to Respond to Discovery).

Chapter 500

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

However, because the Board is an administrative tribunal, its rules and procedures, and hence the motions available in proceedings before it, necessarily differ in some respects from those prevailing in the Federal district courts.¹⁰

For example, the Board does not preside at the taking of testimony. Instead, all testimony is taken out of the presence of the Board, and the written transcripts thereof, together with any exhibits thereto, are then filed with the Board.¹¹ Further, for reasons of administrative economy, it is the policy of the Board not to read trial testimony or examine other trial evidence prior to final decision.¹² For this reason, the Board will defer consideration of substantive objections to trial evidence (e.g., on the grounds of hearsay, relevance, or that the evidence constitutes improper rebuttal) until final decision.¹³ Therefore, except for the motions for involuntary dismissal under Trademark Rules 2.132(a) and (b) for failure of the plaintiff to take testimony, the Board will not entertain any motion challenging or otherwise relating to the probative value or sufficiency of a party's trial evidence.¹⁴ Motions that require examination of trial evidence prior to final decision, such as those under Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b) for involuntary dismissal and under Fed. R. Civ. P. 50(a) for judgment as a matter of law (formerly known as a motion for directed verdict), are not available in Board proceedings.¹⁵

Given the broad range of possible motions which might be filed in an inter partes proceeding before the Board, this chapter discusses only the motions which most commonly arise in Board proceedings.

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

502.02 Form of Motions and Briefs on Motions

37 CFR § 2.126 Form of submissions to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

(a) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board on paper where Board practice or the rules in this part permit. A paper submission, including exhibits and depositions, must meet the following requirements:

- (1) A paper submission must be printed in at least 11-point type and double-spaced, with text on one side only of each sheet;*
- (2) A paper submission must be 8 to 8.5 inches (20.3 to 21.6 cm.) wide and 11 to 11.69 inches (27.9 to 29.7 cm.) long, and contain no tabs or other such devices extending beyond the edges of the paper;*
- (3) If a paper submission contains dividers, the dividers must not have any extruding tabs or other devices, and must be on the same size and weight paper as the submission;*
- (4) A paper submission must not be stapled or bound;*
- (5) All pages of a paper submission must be numbered and exhibits shall be identified in the manner prescribed in §2.123(g)(2);*
- (6) Exhibits pertaining to a paper submission must be filed on paper or CD-ROM concurrently with the paper submission, and comply with the requirements for a paper or CD-ROM submission.*

(b) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board on CD-ROM where the rules in this part or Board practice permit. A CD-ROM submission must identify the parties and case number and contain a list that clearly identifies the documents and exhibits contained thereon. This information must appear in the data contained in the CD-ROM itself, on a label affixed to the CD-ROM, and on the packaging for the CD-ROM. Text in a CD-ROM submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced. A brief filed on CD-ROM must be accompanied by a single paper copy of the brief. A CD-ROM submission must be accompanied by a transmittal letter on paper that identifies the parties, the case number and the contents of the CD-ROM.

(c) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board electronically via the Internet where the rules in this part or Board practice permit, according to the parameters established by the Board and published on the web site of the Office. Text in an electronic submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced. Exhibits pertaining to an electronic submission must be made electronically as an attachment to the submission.

(d) To be handled as confidential, submissions to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board that are confidential in whole or part pursuant to §2.125(e) must be submitted under a separate cover. Both the submission and its cover must be marked confidential and must identify the case number and the parties. A copy of the submission with the confidential portions redacted must be submitted.

Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

37 CFR § 2.127(a) Every motion must be submitted in written form and must meet the requirements prescribed in § 2.126. It shall contain a full statement of the grounds, and shall embody or be accompanied by a brief. Except as provided in paragraph (e)(1) of this section, a brief in response to a motion shall be filed within fifteen days from the date of service of the motion unless another time is specified by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or the time is extended by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or upon motion granted by the Board, or upon order of the Board. If a motion for an extension is denied, the time for responding to the motion remains as specified under this section, unless otherwise ordered. The Board may, in its discretion, consider a reply brief. Except as provided in paragraph (e)(1) of this section, a reply brief, if filed, shall be filed within 15 days from the date of service of the brief in response to the motion. The time for filing a reply brief will not be extended. No further papers in support of or in opposition to a motion will be considered by the Board. The brief in support of a motion and the brief in response to the motion shall not exceed twenty-five pages in length, and a reply brief shall not exceed ten pages in length. Exhibits submitted in support of or in opposition to a motion shall not be deemed to be part of the brief for purposes of determining the length of the brief. When a party fails to file a brief in response to a motion, the Board may treat the motion as conceded. An oral hearing will not be held on a motion except on order by the Board.

* * * *

(e)(1)... If no motion under Rule 56(f) is filed, a brief in response to the motion for summary judgment shall be filed within 30 days from the date of service of the motion unless the time is extended by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or upon motion granted by the Board, or upon order of the Board. ... The Board may, in its discretion, consider a reply brief. A reply brief, if filed, shall be filed within 15 days from the date of service of the brief in response to the motion. The time for filing a reply brief will not be extended. No further papers in support of or in opposition to a motion for summary judgment will be considered by the Board.

502.02(a) Form of Motions

Every motion must be submitted in written form and must meet the general requirements for submissions to the Board set forth in 37 CFR § 2.126. The requirements for paper submissions are specified in Rule 2.126(a), the requirements for submissions made on CD-ROM are in 2.126(b), the requirements for electronic submissions over the Internet can be found in 2.126(c), and the requirements for confidential submissions are in 2.126(d).

In addition, a motion should bear the name and number of the inter partes proceeding in connection with which it is being filed, and a title describing the nature of the motion.¹⁶

¹⁶ See TBMP § 106.01 (Identification of Submissions).

Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

A party who files a motion that does not bear the correct proceeding number, runs the risk that the paper will not be associated with the file of the proceeding for which it is intended (and hence may never be considered by the Board).

A motion must be signed by the party filing it, or by the party's attorney or other authorized representative. If a motion is unsigned, it will not be refused consideration if a signed copy is submitted to the Board within the time limit set in the notification of this defect by the Board.¹⁷

The certificate of mailing by first-class mail procedure provided under 37 CFR § 2.197, and the "Express Mail" procedure provided under 37 CFR § 2.198, are both available for the filing of motions.¹⁸

A party should file only one copy of a motion with the Board. Every motion filed with the Board must be served upon every other party to the proceeding, and proof of such service ordinarily must be made before the motion will be considered by the Board.¹⁹

502.02(b) Briefs on Motions

Every motion must embody or be accompanied by a brief.²⁰

Briefs on motions, and any exhibits thereto, must meet the general requirements for submissions to the Board set forth in 37 CFR § 2.126.²¹ In addition, a brief filed on CD-ROM must be accompanied by a single paper copy of the brief.²²

Briefs on motions are also subject to page limitations and time requirements.²³ Briefs in support of and in response to a motion may not exceed 25 pages in length and a reply brief may not exceed 10 pages.²⁴ Exhibits submitted with the brief are not counted in determining the length of the brief.

A brief in response to a motion, except a motion for summary judgment, must be filed within 15 days from the date of service of the motion (20 days if service of the motion was made by first class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier).²⁵ When a motion for summary judgment is filed, a brief in response, or a motion for 56(f) discovery under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, must be filed within 30 days from the date of service of the summary judgment motion (35 days if 37 CFR. § 2.119(c) applies).²⁶ The time for filing a responsive brief may be extended, but the time for filing, in lieu thereof, a motion for 56(f) discovery will not be extended.²⁷

These time periods for responding to motions shall apply unless another time is specified by the Board; or the time is extended by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board or by order of the Board on motion for good cause; or the time is reopened by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board or by order of the Board on motion showing excusable neglect.²⁸ If a motion for an extension of time to respond to a motion is denied, the time for responding to the motion remains as specified under 37 CFR § 2.127(a), unless otherwise ordered.²⁹

The Board may, in its discretion, consider a reply brief in support of a motion.³⁰ A reply brief, if filed, including a reply brief for a summary judgment motion, shall be filed within 15 days from the date of service of the brief in response to the motion (20 days if 37 CFR § 2.119(c) applies). The time for filing a reply brief will not be extended.³¹ No further papers (including surreply briefs) will be considered by the Board, and any such papers filed in violation of this rule may be returned to the filing party.³² The filing of reply briefs is discouraged, as the Board generally finds that reply briefs have little persuasive value and are often a mere reargument of the points made in the main brief.³³ Thus, it remains within the Board's discretion whether to consider a reply brief.³⁴

502.02(c) Confidential Information

Except for materials filed under seal pursuant to a protective order, the files of applications and registrations which are the subject matter of pending proceedings before the Board and all pending proceeding files and exhibits thereto are available for public inspection and copying.³⁵ Therefore, only the particular portion of a motion that discloses confidential information should be filed under seal pursuant to a protective order. If a party submits a motion containing confidential information under seal, the party must also submit for the public record a redacted version of the motion.³⁶

Confidential information filed in the absence of a protective order is not regarded as confidential and will not be kept confidential by the Board.³⁷ To be handled as confidential, and kept out of the public record, submissions to the Board must be filed under a separate cover. Both the submission and its cover must be marked confidential

For further information regarding confidential materials, see TBMP §§ 120.02 and 412.

502.03 Oral Hearings on Motions

An oral hearing is not held on a motion except by order of the Board.³⁹ It is the practice of the Board to deny a request for an oral hearing on a motion unless, in the opinion of the Board, an oral hearing is necessary to clarify the issue or issues to be decided. Ordinarily, arguments on a motion are, and should be, adequately presented in the briefs thereon, and therefore the Board rarely grants a request for an oral hearing on a motion.⁴⁰

502.04 Determination of Motions

37 CFR § 2.127(a) ... When a party fails to file a brief in response to a motion, the Board may treat the motion as conceded. ...

37 CFR § 2.127(c) Interlocutory motions, requests, and other matters not actually or potentially dispositive of a proceeding may be acted upon by a single Member of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board or by an Attorney-Examiner of the Board to whom authority so to act has been delegated.

Motions fall into three categories: consented, uncontested, and contested. If the nonmoving party has consented to a motion, the motion may be filed either as a stipulation with the signature of both parties, or as a consented motion in which the moving party states that the nonmoving party has given its oral consent thereto (unless written consent is required under the provisions of 37 CFR §§ 2.106(c), 2.114(c), 2.134(a), or 2.135). Ordinarily, the Board will grant a consented motion.

If the nonmoving party has not given its consent to a motion, but does not file a brief in opposition thereto during the time allowed therefor, the Board, in its discretion, may grant the motion as conceded.⁴¹ However, the Board, in its discretion, may also decline to treat an uncontested motion as conceded, and may grant or deny the motion on its merits.⁴²

If a motion is contested by the nonmoving party, the Board will decide the motion on its merits.

Interlocutory motions that are not actually or potentially dispositive of a proceeding may be acted upon by a single Board administrative trademark judge, or by a single interlocutory attorney to whom such authority has been delegated.⁴³ A panel of at least three Board judges determines contested motions that are actually or potentially dispositive of a proceeding.⁴⁴ Stipulations or consented (or uncontested) motions to dispose of the proceeding in a certain manner may be determined under the authority of the Board.

For information concerning the remedies available to a party that is dissatisfied with a decision on a motion, see TBMP § 518. See also TBMP § 905.

When a motion other than a motion to extend has been filed, a party should not presume that the Board would automatically reset trial dates when it determines the pending motion. When the Board determines a pending motion, and there is no motion to extend trial dates, the Board, in the exercise of its discretion, may or may not reset trial dates. A party that wishes to have trial dates reset upon the determination of a particular motion should file a motion requesting such action, and specifying the dates which it wishes to have reset.

502.05 Attorneys' Fees, etc., on Motions

502.06(a) Telephone Conferences

37 CFR § 2.120(i)(1) Whenever it appears to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board that a motion filed in an inter partes proceeding is of such nature that its resolution by correspondence is not practical, the Board may, upon its own initiative or upon request made by one or both of the parties, resolve the motion by telephone conference.

When it appears to the Board that a motion filed in an inter partes proceeding may be resolved by a telephone conference call involving the parties or their attorneys and an interlocutory attorney, or an administrative trademark judge, of the Board, the Board may, upon its own initiative or upon request made by a party, resolve the motion by telephone conference.⁴⁶ Immediately after the resolution of a motion by telephone conference, the Board will issue a written order confirming its decision on the motion.

Board attorneys retain discretion to decide whether a particular matter can be heard or disposed of by telephone. There is no formal limit as to the type of matters that can be handled through telephone conferences,⁴⁷ but the Board will not decide by telephone conference any motion which is potentially dispositive, that is, a motion which, if granted, would dispose of a Board proceeding. The telephone conference procedure is particularly useful for resolving motions where time is of the essence, such as a motion to quash a notice of deposition.⁴⁸

Telephone conferences are not a substitute for stipulated written motions. Parties are encouraged to file stipulated motions rather than call the Board for an order that can be agreed upon without the Board's involvement.⁴⁹ Moreover, telephone conferences may not be used as a means to supplement a motion or a related brief, and are not an opportunity to present oral arguments in support of fully briefed written motions.⁵⁰

Requesting a telephone conference:⁵¹ A party may request a telephone conference from the responsible Board attorney before it files the underlying motion. The initial contact will be limited to a simple statement of the nature of the issues proposed to be decided by telephone conference, with no discussion of the merits. A party served with a written motion may request a telephone conference by contacting the responsible Board attorney soon after it receives the service copy of the motion. A party may not request a telephone conference at or near the end of its time to respond to the motion, so as to avoid or delay its response to the motion.

During the initial contact, the Board attorney will decide whether any party must file a motion or brief or written agenda to frame the issues for the conference and will issue instructions.

When the Board grants a party's request for a telephone conference, the requesting party is responsible for scheduling the conference at a time agreeable to all parties and the Board attorney. The party must arrange the conference call. When the Board initiates a telephone conference, the Board attorney will schedule the conference. If a response to a pending motion has not yet been filed, the non-moving party should be prepared to make an oral response to the motion during the telephone conference. Any other instructions regarding filing of briefs or serving copies will be provided. To expedite matters, the moving party may hand deliver its motion, at the offices of the Board, to the Board attorney to whom the case is assigned. Alternatively, the moving party may call the Board attorney and request permission to fax a copy of the motion to the Board.⁵²

Denial of a request for a telephone conference is without prejudice on the merits of the motion or other matter sought to be heard by telephone. If the request is denied, the Board attorney will provide instructions to the party or parties regarding requirements for filing the motion or briefs required to have the matter decided on the papers.

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

Conduct of conference.⁵³ The telephone conference will be limited to the issues defined by the Board prior to, or at the commencement of, the conference. The Board will not record the conference nor may the parties record the contents of the telephone conference. The Board attorney may make rulings at the conclusion of the conference or may take the parties' arguments under advisement. If the Board attorney determines during the telephone conference that the motion or matter should be decided on the written record, the Board attorney may halt the telephone conference and direct the filing of a motion or response to a motion, or both.

Parties must conduct themselves with appropriate decorum. Interruptions are to be avoided. The Board attorney conducting the conference generally will signal that a party may make an argument or presentation by inviting the party to do so or by inviting a response to an argument or presentation made by another.

Participation.⁵⁴ Failure to participate in a scheduled telephone conference may result in the motion being denied with prejudice or the motion being treated as conceded.

Issuance of Rulings.⁵⁵ The Board attorney may make rulings at the conclusion of a telephone conference or may take the parties' arguments under advisement. In every instance, after the resolution of a motion or matter by telephone conference, the Board attorney will issue a written order containing all rulings. In most instances, the Board's written order will consist of only a brief summary of the issues and the resulting decision; generally, the order will not include a recitation of the parties' arguments. The decision will be forwarded to the parties by fax or mail.

The filing of a request for reconsideration under 37 CFR § 2.127(b) or the filing of a petition under 37 CFR § 2.146(e)(2) will not, in the usual case, result in a stay of proceedings. Any discovery, trial dates, or other deadlines set by the Board will ordinarily remain as set, notwithstanding the request for reconsideration or petition. The Board may, however, reset dates, as appropriate, if either a request for reconsideration or a petition is granted.

502.06(b) Pre-trial Conferences

37 CFR § 2.120(i)(2) Whenever it appears to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board that questions or issues arising during the interlocutory phase of an inter partes proceeding have become so complex that their resolution by correspondence or telephone conference is not practical and that resolution would be likely to be facilitated by a conference in person of the parties or their attorneys with a Member or Attorney-Examiner of the Board, the Board may, upon its own initiative or upon motion made by one or both of the parties, request that the parties or their attorneys, under circumstances which will not result in undue hardship for any party, meet with the Board at its offices for a pre-trial conference.

Because the pre-trial conference procedure necessarily involves expense for the parties, it is rarely used by the Board. However, it may be advantageous in cases where numerous complex motions are pending or where attorneys or parties are unable to work out a resolution of any of their differences.⁵⁶

503 Motion to Dismiss for Failure to State a Claim

503.01 Time for Filing

When the defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted is raised by means of a motion to dismiss, the motion must be filed before, or concurrently with, the movant's answer.⁵⁷ When the motion is directed to an amended pleading, it must be filed before, or concurrently with, the movant's answer to the amended pleading.⁵⁸

The filing of a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted tolls the time for filing an answer.⁵⁹ If the motion is filed before the movant's answer, and is denied, the Board will reset the time for filing an answer.

⁵⁶ See Abraham Bogorad, The Impact of the Amended Rules Upon Discovery Practice Before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, 66 Trademark Rep. 28, 37 (1976).

⁵⁷ See Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b) and Hollowform Inc. v. Delma Aeh, 180 USPQ 284 (TTAB 1973), aff'd, 515 F.2d 1174, 185 USPQ 790 (CCPA 1975). Compare Wellcome Foundation Ltd. v. Merck & Co., 46 USPQ2d 1478 n.1 (TTAB 1998) (untimeliness waived where 12(b)(6) motion filed three weeks after answer, but plaintiff responded to motion on the merits).

⁵⁹ See Hollowform, Inc. v. Delma Aeh, supra (motion for default judgment for failure to answer denied).

Chapter 500

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

The defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted may be raised after an answer is filed, provided that it is raised by some means other than a motion to dismiss. For example, the defense may be raised, after an answer is filed, by a motion for judgment on the pleadings, or by a motion for summary judgment.⁶⁰

503.02 Nature of Motion

A motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted is a test solely of the legal sufficiency of a complaint.⁶¹ In order to withstand such a motion, a pleading need only allege such facts as would, if proved, establish that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought, that is, that (1) the plaintiff has standing to maintain the proceeding, and (2) a valid ground exists for denying the registration sought (in the case of an opposition), or for canceling the subject registration (in the case of a cancellation proceeding).⁶²

Therefore, a plaintiff served with a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted need not respond by submitting proofs in support of its pleading. Whether a plaintiff can actually prove its allegations is a matter to be determined not upon motion to dismiss, but rather at final hearing or upon summary judgment, after the parties have had an opportunity to submit evidence in support of their respective positions.⁶³

⁶⁰ See Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(h)(2), and Wright & Miller, Federal Practice and Procedure: Civil 2d §1357 (1990). See also *DAK Industries Inc. v. Compare, Order of Sons of Italy in America v. Profumi Fratelli Nostra AG, 36 USPQ2d 1221, 1222 (TTAB 1995) (Rule 12(b)(6) permits defendant to assert in answer "defense" of failure to state a claim thereby allowing plaintiff to test sufficiency of defense by moving under 12(f) to strike the defense).

Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

For purposes of determining a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, all of the plaintiff's well-pleaded allegations must be accepted as true, and the complaint must be construed in the light most favorable to the plaintiff.⁶⁴ Dismissal for insufficiency is appropriate only if it appears certain that the plaintiff is entitled to no relief under any set of facts that could be proved in support of its claim.⁶⁵

Whenever the sufficiency of any complaint has been challenged by a motion to dismiss, it is the duty of the Board to examine the complaint in its entirety, construing the allegations therein liberally, as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(f), to determine whether it contains any allegations, which, if proved, would entitle the plaintiff to the relief sought.⁶⁶

503.03 Leave to Amend Defective Pleading

A plaintiff may amend its complaint once as a matter of course at any time before an answer thereto is served, and may amend its complaint thereafter with the written consent of every adverse party or by leave of the Board, which is freely given when justice so requires.⁶⁷ Thus, plaintiffs to proceedings before the Board ordinarily can, and often do, respond to a motion to dismiss by filing, inter alia, an amended complaint. If the amended complaint corrects the defects noted by the defendant in its motion to dismiss, and states a claim upon which relief can be granted, the motion to dismiss normally will be moot.

If no amended complaint is submitted in response to a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, and the Board finds, upon determination of the motion, that the complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, the Board generally will allow the plaintiff an opportunity to file an amended pleading.⁶⁸

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

However, in appropriate cases, that is, where justice does not require that leave to amend be given, the Board, in its discretion, may refuse to allow an opportunity, or a further opportunity, for amendment.⁶⁹

503.04 Matters Outside the Pleading Submitted on Motion to Dismiss

If, on a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are submitted and not excluded by the Board, the motion will be treated as a motion for summary judgment under Fed. R. Civ. P. 56.⁷⁰ Ordinarily, the parties to the proceeding will be notified that the motion to dismiss is being treated as a motion for summary judgment, and the responding party will be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by Fed. R. Civ. P. 56.⁷¹

Such notice may be dispensed with as unnecessary, however, where the parties themselves clearly have treated a motion to dismiss as a motion for summary judgment, and the nonmoving party has responded to the motion on that basis.⁷²

⁶⁹ See, for example, Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a); Institut National des Appellations d'Origine v. Brown-Forman Corp., 47 USPQ2d 1875, 1896 (TTAB 1998) (amendment would be futile because opposers cannot prevail on claim as a matter of law); McDonnell Douglas Corp. v. National Data Corp., 228 USPQ 45 (TTAB 1985) (plaintiff had already been allowed two opportunities to perfect its pleading); and Pure Gold, Inc. v. Syntex (U.S.A.) Inc., supra (amendment would serve no useful purpose).

504 Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings

After the pleadings are closed, but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party to an inter partes proceeding before the Board may file a motion for judgment on the pleadings.⁷³ In Board inter partes proceedings, the taking of testimony depositions during the assigned testimony periods corresponds to the trial in court proceedings, and the trial period commences with the opening of the first testimony period.⁷⁴ Thus, to be timely, a motion for judgment on the pleadings must be filed after the pleadings are closed, but prior to the opening of the first testimony period, as originally set or as reset.⁷⁵

When a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted is filed after the answer, but prior to trial, the motion may be construed by the Board as a motion for judgment on the pleadings.⁷⁶

504.02 Nature of Motion

A motion for judgment on the pleadings is a test solely of the undisputed facts appearing in all the pleadings, supplemented by any facts of which the Board will take judicial notice.⁷⁷

For purposes of the motion, all well pleaded factual allegations of the nonmoving party must be accepted as true, while those allegations of the moving party which have been denied (or which

A judgment on the pleadings may be granted only where, on the facts as deemed admitted, there is no genuine issue of material fact to be resolved, and the moving party is entitled to judgment, on the substantive merits of the controversy, as a matter of law.⁸⁰

A party may not obtain a judgment on the pleadings if the nonmoving party's pleading raises issues of fact, which, if proved, would establish the nonmoving party's entitlement to judgment.⁸¹

504.03 Matters Outside the Pleadings Submitted on Motion for Judgment on Pleadings

Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

Such notice may be unnecessary, however, in those cases where the parties themselves clearly have treated a motion for judgment on the pleadings as a motion for summary judgment, and the nonmoving party has responded to the motion on that basis.⁸⁴

505 Motion for a More Definite Statement

505.01 Nature of Motion

If, in an inter partes proceeding before the Board, a pleading to which a responsive pleading must be made is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, the responding party may move for a more definite statement.⁸⁵ The motion must point out the defects complained of, specify the details which the movant desires to have pleaded, and indicate that the movant is unable to frame a responsive pleading without the desired information.⁸⁶

A motion for a more definite statement is appropriate only in those cases where the pleading states a claim upon which relief can be granted, but is so vague or ambiguous that the movant cannot make a responsive pleading in good faith or without prejudice to itself.⁸⁷ If the movant believes that the pleading does not state a claim upon which relief can be granted, its proper remedy is a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6) to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, not a motion for a more definite statement.⁸⁸

A motion for a more definite statement may not be used to obtain discovery. The only information that a movant may obtain by this motion is that which it needs to make its responsive pleading.⁸⁹

Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

505.02 Time for Filing

A motion for a more definite statement, if filed, must be filed within the time for, and before, the moving party's responsive pleading.⁹⁰ An extension of time to file a responsive pleading automatically extends the time to file a motion for a more definite statement, unless the Board orders otherwise.

505.03 Failure to Obey Order for More Definite Statement

If the Board, upon motion, issues an order for a more definite statement, and the order is not obeyed within the time specified by the Board, the Board may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed, or make such order as it deems just.⁹¹

506 Motion to Strike Matter From Pleading

506.01 Nature of Motion

Upon motion, or upon its own initiative, the Board may order stricken from a pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter.⁹² The Board also has the authority to strike an impermissible or insufficient claim (or portion of a claim) from a pleading.⁹³

Motions to strike are not favored, and matter will not be stricken unless it clearly has no bearing upon the issues in the case.⁹⁴ The primary purpose of pleadings, under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, is to give fair notice of the claims or defenses asserted.⁹⁵ Thus, the Board, in its discretion, may decline to strike even objectionable pleadings where their inclusion will not prejudice the adverse party, but rather will provide fuller notice of the basis for a claim or defense.⁹⁶ A defense will not be stricken as insufficient if the insufficiency is not clearly apparent, or if it raises factual issues that should be determined on the merits.⁹⁷

Nevertheless, the Board grants motions to strike in appropriate cases.⁹⁸

506.02 Time for Filing

A motion to strike matter from a pleading should be filed within the time for, and before, the moving party's responsive pleading.⁹⁹ If a motion to strike matter from a complaint is filed with an answer to the complaint, the motion to strike is construed by the Board as having been filed first.

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

If no responsive pleading is required, the motion should be filed within 20 days after service upon the moving party of the pleading that is the subject of the motion (25 days, if service of the pleading was made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier--see 37 CFR § 2.119(c)).¹⁰⁰

However, the Board, upon its own initiative, and at any time, may order stricken from a pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter.¹⁰¹

Thus, the Board, in its discretion, may entertain an untimely motion to strike matter from a pleading.¹⁰²

506.03 Exhibits Attached to Pleadings

The Board will not strike exhibits submitted with pleadings since they are clearly contemplated by 37 CFR §§ 2.105(c), 2.113(c), and 2.122(c). However, except for status and title copies of a plaintiff's pleaded registrations filed by the plaintiff with its complaint pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.122(d)(1), exhibits attached to pleadings are not evidence on behalf of the party to whose pleading they are attached unless they are identified and introduced in evidence as exhibits during the testimony period.¹⁰³

507.01 In General

Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a) Amendments. A party may amend the party's pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served or, if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted and the action has not been placed upon the trial calendar, the party may so amend it at any time within 20 days after it is served. Otherwise a party may amend the party's pleading only by leave of court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within 10 days after service of the amended pleading, whichever period may be the longer, unless the court otherwise orders.

(b) Amendments to Conform to the Evidence. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure so to amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues. If evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the court that the admission of such evidence would prejudice the party in maintaining the party's action or defense upon the merits. The court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence.

37 CFR § 2.107 Amendment of pleadings in an opposition proceeding.

(a) Pleadings in an opposition proceeding against an application filed under section 1 or 44 of the Act may be amended in the same manner and to the same extent as in a civil action in a United States district court, except that, after the close of the time period for filing an opposition including any extension of time for filing an opposition, an opposition may not be amended to add to the goods or services opposed.

(b) Pleadings in an opposition proceeding against an application filed under section 66(a) of the Act may be amended in the same manner and to the same extent as in a civil action in a United States district court, except that, once filed, the opposition may not be amended to add to the grounds for opposition or to add to the goods or services subject to opposition.

37 CFR 2.115 Amendment of pleadings in a cancellation proceeding. Pleadings in a cancellation proceeding may be amended in the same manner and to the same extent as in a civil action in a United States district court.

The primary purpose of pleadings, under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, is to give fair notice of the claims or defenses asserted.¹⁰⁴ Claims or defenses that are not asserted in the pleadings as originally filed, or as amended or deemed amended, will not be entertained by the Board.¹⁰⁵

Amendments to pleadings in inter partes proceedings before the Board are governed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 15.¹⁰⁶ Amendments in general are governed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a). Amendments to conform the pleadings to trial evidence are governed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(b).

¹⁰⁴ See TBMP §§ 309.03(a) (Substance of Complaint - In General), 311.02 (Substance of Answer), 506.01 (Nature of Motion to Strike Matter from Pleading), and cases cited in the foregoing sections. Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

As a general rule, pleadings in an inter partes proceeding before the Board may be amended in the same manner and to the same extent as in a civil action in a United States district court. The exception to this rule is that an opposition against an application filed under Section 66(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1141f, may not be amended to add a new ground for opposition.¹⁰⁷ Thus, an opposition against a Section 66(a) application may not be amended to add an entirely new claim or a claim based on an additional registration in support of an existing Section 2(d) claim.¹⁰⁸ Other amendments, such as those that would amplify or clarify the grounds for opposition, are not prohibited by this rule.¹⁰⁹

A signed copy of the proposed amended pleading should accompany a motion for leave to amend a pleading.¹¹⁰

507.02 Amendments--General Rule—Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a)

A party to an inter partes proceeding before the Board may amend its pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served. If the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted, it may be amended once as a matter of course at any time within 20 days after it is served.¹¹¹ An amendment filed as a matter of course need not be accompanied by a motion for leave to amend.¹¹²

Thereafter, a party may amend its pleading only by written consent of every adverse party or by leave of the Board; leave must be freely given when justice so requires.¹¹³ In view thereof, the Board liberally grants leave to amend pleadings at any stage of a proceeding when justice so requires, unless entry of the proposed amendment would violate settled law or be prejudicial to the rights of the adverse party or parties.¹¹⁴ This is so even when a plaintiff seeks to amend its

507.02(b) Timing of Motion to Amend to Add Counterclaim

The timing of a motion for leave to amend is particularly important in the case of a motion for leave to amend to assert a counterclaim for cancellation of one or more of the plaintiff's pleaded registrations. Counterclaims to cancel pleaded registrations in Board proceedings are governed by 37 CFR §§ 2.106(b)(2)(i) and 2.114(b)(2)(i).¹²⁵ As provided therein, if grounds for the counterclaim are known to the defendant when its answer to the complaint is filed, the counterclaim should be pleaded with or as part of the answer. If, during the proceeding, the defendant learns of grounds for a counterclaim to cancel a registration pleaded by the plaintiff, the counterclaim should be pleaded promptly after the grounds therefor are learned.¹²⁶

507.03 Amendments to Conform to the Evidence -- Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(b)

507.03(a) During Trial After Objection to Trial Evidence

If evidence is objected to at trial on the ground that it is not within the issues raised by the pleadings, the Board, upon motion, may allow the pleadings to be amended (except as prohibited by 37 CFR § 2.107)¹²⁷ and will do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the case will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the Board that the admission of such evidence would prejudice it in maintaining its action or defense upon the merits.¹²⁸

The motion for leave to amend should be filed promptly after the objection is made.¹²⁹ If the motion is granted, the Board may extend the objecting party's testimony period, or reopen discovery for that party, if necessary, to enable the objecting party to meet the evidence which was the subject of the objection.¹³⁰

507.03(b) To Add Issues Tried by Express or Implied Consent

When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by the express or implied consent of the parties, unless prohibited by 37 CFR § 2.107,¹³¹ the Board will treat them in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Any amendment of the pleadings necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise the unpleaded issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment, but failure to so amend will not affect the result of the trial of these issues.¹³²

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

Implied consent to the trial of an unpleaded issue can be found only where the nonoffering party (1) raised no objection to the introduction of evidence on the issue, and (2) was fairly apprised that the evidence was being offered in support of the issue.¹³³

Inasmuch as the Board does not read trial testimony or examine other trial evidence prior to final hearing, it is the practice of the Board, when confronted with a Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(b) motion to amend the pleadings to include an issue assertedly tried by express or implied consent, to defer determination of the motion until final hearing.¹³⁴

508 Motion for Default Judgment for Failure to Answer

If a defendant fails to file an answer to a complaint during the time allowed therefor, the Board, on its own initiative, may issue a notice of default allowing the defendant 20 days from the mailing date of the notice in which to show cause why default judgment should not be entered against it. If the defendant fails to file a response to the notice, or files a response that does not show good cause, default judgment may be entered against it.¹³⁵

The issue of whether default judgment should be entered against a defendant when it fails to file a timely answer to the complaint may also be raised by means other than the Board's issuance of a notice of default. For example, the plaintiff, realizing that the defendant is in default, may file a motion for default judgment (in which case the motion may serve as a substitute for the Board's issuance of a notice of default); or the defendant itself, realizing that it is in default, may file a motion asking that its late-filed answer be accepted. However the issue is raised, the standard for determining whether default judgment should be entered against the defendant, for its failure to file a timely answer to the complaint, is the Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(c) standard, which requires that the defendant show good cause why default judgment should not be entered against it.¹³⁶

If a plaintiff files a motion for default judgment for failure of the defendant to file a timely answer to the complaint, and the defendant fails to file a brief in opposition to the plaintiff's motion, default judgment may be entered against defendant.¹³⁷

If a defendant files an answer after the due date therefor, but before the issuance by the Board of a notice of default, and also files a motion asking that the late-filed answer be accepted, and the plaintiff fails to file a brief in opposition to the defendant's motion, the motion may be granted as conceded.¹³⁸ neglect; but it may not extend the time for taking any action under Rules ... 60(b) ... except to the extent and under the conditions stated in them.

37 CFR § 2.120(a) [Discovery] In general. ... The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board will specify the opening and closing dates for the taking of discovery. The trial order setting these dates will be mailed with the notice of institution of the proceeding. The discovery period will be set for a period of 180 days. The parties may stipulate to a shortening of the discovery period. The discovery period may be extended upon stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or upon motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board. If a motion for an extension is denied, the discovery period may remain as originally set or as reset. Discovery depositions must be taken, and interrogatories, requests for production of documents and things, and requests for admission must be served, on or before the closing date of the discovery period as originally set or as reset. Responses to interrogatories, requests for production of documents and things, and requests for admission must be served within 30 days from the date of service of such discovery requests. The time to respond may be extended upon stipulation of the parties, or upon motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board. The resetting of a party's time to respond to an outstanding request for discovery will not result in the automatic rescheduling of the discovery and/or testimony periods; such dates will be rescheduled only upon stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or upon motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board.

37 CFR § 2.121(a)(1) [Assignment of times for taking testimony] The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board will issue a trial order assigning to each party the time for taking testimony. No testimony shall be taken except during the times assigned, unless by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or, upon motion, by order of the Board. Testimony periods may be rescheduled by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or upon motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board. If a motion to reschedule testimony periods is denied, the testimony periods may remain as set. The resetting of the closing date for discovery will result in the rescheduling of the testimony periods without action by any party.

(c) A testimony period which is solely for rebuttal will be set for fifteen days. All other testimony periods will be set for thirty days. The periods may be extended by stipulation of the parties approved by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or upon motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board. If a motion for an extension is denied, the testimony periods may remain as set.

(d) When parties stipulate to the rescheduling of testimony periods or to the rescheduling of the closing date for discovery and the rescheduling of testimony periods, a stipulation presented in the form used in a trial order, signed by the parties, or a motion in said form signed by one party

37 CFR § 2.127(a) [Motions] ... If a motion for an extension is denied, the time for responding to the motion remains as specified under this section, unless otherwise ordered.

509.01 Nature of Motions

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b), made applicable to Board proceedings by 37 CFR § 2.116(a), a party may file a motion for an enlargement of the time in which an act is required or allowed to be done.¹³⁹ If the motion is filed prior to the expiration of the period as originally set or previously extended, the motion is a motion to extend, and the moving party need only show good cause for the requested extension. If, however, the motion is not filed until after the expiration of the period as originally set or previously extended, the motion is a motion to reopen, and the moving party must show that its failure to act during the time allowed therefor was the result of excusable neglect.¹⁴⁰

509.01(a) Motions to Extend Time

A motion to extend must set forth with particularity the facts said to constitute good cause for the requested extension; mere conclusory allegations lacking in factual detail are not sufficient.¹⁴¹

Moreover, a party moving to extend time must demonstrate that the requested extension of time is not necessitated by the party's own lack of diligence or unreasonable delay in taking the required action during the time previously allotted therefor.¹⁴² The Board will

New Howmar Boats Corp.*, 59 USPQ2d 1479, 1480 (TTAB 2000) (motion denied where party failed to provide detailed information regarding apparent difficulty in identifying and scheduling its witnesses for testimony and where sparse motion, containing vague reference to possibility of settlement, demonstrated no expectation that proceedings would not move forward during any such negotiations); Instruments SA Inc. v. ASI Instruments Inc., 53 USPQ2d 1925, 1927 (TTAB 1999) (cursory or conclusory allegations that were denied unequivocally by the nonmovant and were not otherwise supported by the record did not constitute a showing of good cause); *Luemme, Inc. v. Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

While the time for filing a brief in response to a motion for summary judgment may be extended, the time for filing, in lieu thereof, a motion for discovery under Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(f) will not be extended.¹⁴⁶

509.01(b) Motions to Reopen Time

509.01(b)(1) In General

Where the time for taking required action, as originally set or as previously reset, has expired, a party desiring to take the required action must file a motion to reopen the time for taking that action. The movant must show that its failure to act during the time previously allotted therefor was the result of excusable neglect. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b).

The analysis to be used in determining whether a party has shown excusable neglect was set forth by the Supreme Court in Pioneer Investment Services Company v. Brunswick Associates Ltd. Partnership, 507 U.S. 380 (1993), adopted by the Board in Pumpkin Ltd. v. The Seed Corps, 43 USPQ2d 1582 (TTAB 1997). These cases hold that the excusable neglect determination must take into account all relevant circumstances surrounding the party's omission or delay, including (1) the danger of prejudice to the nonmovant, (2) the length of the delay and its potential impact on judicial proceedings, (3) the reason for the delay, including whether it was within the reasonable control of the movant, and (4) whether the movant acted in good faith.¹⁴⁷

The "prejudice to the nonmovant" contemplated under the first Pioneer factor must be more than the mere inconvenience and delay caused by the movant's previous failure to take timely action, and more than the nonmovant's loss of any tactical advantage which it otherwise would enjoy as a result of the movant's delay or omission. Rather, "prejudice to the nonmovant" is prejudice to the supra at 1544 (petitioner's testimony period consequently expired where motion to extend testimony period was denied and dates were left as originally set).

Compare C.H. Stuart Inc. v. Carolina Closet, Inc., 213 USPQ 506, 507(TTAB 1980) (three-day testimony period for opposer reset "putting opposer in the same position it would have been in had no motion to compel been filed."). In addition, see Notice of Final Rulemaking, published in the Federal Register on September 9, 1998 at 63 FR 48081, specifically, comments and responses published in the notice at 48091, 1214 TMOG at 149.

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

nonmovant's ability to litigate the case, e.g., where the movant's delay has resulted in a loss or unavailability of evidence or witnesses which otherwise would have been available to the nonmovant.¹⁴⁸

It has been held that the third Pioneer factor, i.e., "the reason for the delay, including whether it was within the reasonable control of the movant," may be deemed to be the most important of the Pioneer factors in a particular case.¹⁴⁹

Additionally, although many excusable neglect decisions which were issued prior to the Board's 1997 Pumpkin decision may no longer be controlling under the somewhat more flexible excusable neglect standard set out in Pioneer and Pumpkin (e.g., decisions holding that a failure to act due to counsel's docketing errors is, per se, not the result of excusable neglect), they nonetheless may be directly relevant to the Board's analysis under the third Pioneer excusable neglect factor.¹⁵⁰

¹⁴⁸ See Pumpkin Ltd. v. The Seed Corps, supra at 1587, citing Pratt v. Philbrook, 109 F.3d 18 (1st Cir. 1997) and Paolo's Associates Ltd. Partnership v. Bodo, 21 USPQ2d 1899, 1904 (Comm'r 1990).

¹⁴⁹ See Pumpkin Ltd. v. The Seed Corps, supra at n.7 and cases cited therein. See also Baron Philippe de Rothschild S.A. v. Styl-Rite Optical Mfg. Co., 55 USPQ2d 1848, 1851 (TTAB 2000) (counsel's press of other business, docketing errors and misreading of relevant rule are circumstances wholly within counsel's control); Gaylord Entertainment Co. v. Calvin Gilmore Productions Inc., 59 USPQ2d 1369 (TTAB 2000) (failed to provide specific reasons for former counsel's inaction); HKG Industries Inc. v. Perma-Pipe Inc., 49 USPQ2d 1156, 1158 (TTAB 1998) (failed to provide evidence linking the reason for the delay with the expiration of movant's testimony period); and Atlanta-Fulton County Zoo Inc. v. De Palma, 45 USPQ2d 1858 (TTAB 1998) (failure to timely move to extend testimony period was due to counsel's oversight and mere existence of settlement negotiations did not justify party's inaction or delay).

¹⁵⁰ See Pumpkin Ltd. v. The Seed Corps, supra at 1586-87 and at n.8. Such pre-Pioneer cases include, e.g., Hewlett-Packard Co. v. Olympus Corp., 931 F.2d 1551, 18 USPQ2d 1710, 1712 (Fed. Cir. 1991) (no excusable neglect where plaintiff's counsel unreasonably relied on defendant's counsel to sign and file plaintiff's proposed stipulated motion to extend trial dates); American Vitamin Products Inc. v. Dow Brands Inc., 22 USPQ2d 1313 (TTAB 1992) (defendant's desire to take follow-up discovery and its uncertainty regarding status of plaintiff's pending motion to strike affirmative defenses did not excuse respondent's neglect in failing to file timely motion to extend discovery); Hobie Designs Inc. v. Fred Hayman Beverly Hills Inc., 14 USPQ2d 2064, 2065 (TTAB 1990) (no excusable neglect where defendant's failure to timely respond to certain discovery requests was due to defendant's oversight or lack of care in reading discovery requests); Consolidated Foods Corp. v. Berkshire Handkerchief Co., Inc., 229 USPQ 619 (TTAB 1986) (no excusable neglect where defendant's failure to timely respond to summary judgment motion was due to counsel's press of other litigation); and Coach House Restaurant, Inc. v. Coach and Six Restaurants, Inc., 223 USPQ 176 (TTAB 1984) (same).

For additional cases involving the excusable neglect standard, see TBMP §§ 534 (Motion for Judgment for Plaintiff's Failure to Prove Case) and 544 (Motion for Relief from Final Judgment).

Chapter 500

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

A party moving to reopen its time to take required action must set forth with particularity the detailed facts upon which its excusable neglect claim is based; mere conclusory statements are insufficient.¹⁵¹

In addition, for purposes of making the excusable neglect determination, it is irrelevant that the failure to timely take the required action was the result of the party's counsel's neglect and not the neglect of the party itself. Under our system of representative litigation, a party must be held accountable for the acts and omissions of its chosen counsel.¹⁵²

509.01(b)(2) To Introduce Newly Discovered Evidence

If a party files a motion to reopen its testimony period to introduce newly discovered evidence, the moving party must show not only that the proposed evidence has been newly discovered, but also that the evidence could not have been discovered earlier through the exercise of reasonable diligence.¹⁵³ However, even if a sufficient showing of due diligence has been made, the Board will not automatically reopen a party's testimony period for introduction of the new evidence. The Board must also consider such factors as the nature and purpose of the evidence sought to be brought in, the stage of the proceeding, and prejudice to the nonmoving party.¹⁵⁴

509.02 Form and Determination of Motions to Extend or Reopen

If a motion to extend or a motion to reopen is made with the consent of the nonmoving party, the motion may be filed either as a stipulation with the signature of both parties, or as a consented motion in which the moving party states that the nonmoving party has given its oral consent thereto. Ordinarily, a consented motion to extend or reopen will be granted by the Board.

A consented motion to extend or reopen testimony periods, or the discovery period and testimony periods, must be filed with the Board and should be submitted in the form used in a trial order, specifying the closing date for each period to be reset.¹⁵⁵ If a consented motion to extend or reopen testimony periods, or the discovery period and testimony periods, specifies only the closing date for the first period to be reset, and the motion is approved, the Board will automatically reschedule the subsequent periods as well.¹⁵⁶ However, receipt by the parties of the Board's action on the motion will be delayed, because the Board will have to prepare an action specifying the closing date for each period being rescheduled.

A stipulation or consented motion to extend time to file an answer will be approved only if the proposed new due date for the answer is prior to the close of the discovery period. The time to answer will not be extended beyond the close of the discovery period. Thus, any extension request, which would reset the time to answer beyond the date presently set for the close of discovery, must also include a request for an extension of the discovery period.

When the Board notes that a consented or stipulated motion to extend time is based on the asserted existence of the parties' settlement negotiations, the Board may suspend proceedings, sua sponte, for six months, to enable the parties to concentrate on settlement and to obviate the filing of numerous extension requests. Such suspension shall be made subject to either party's right to request resumption of proceedings at any time.¹⁵⁷

When a motion to extend, or a motion to reopen, is filed without the consent of the nonmoving party, the Board normally will defer action on the motion until after the expiration of the nonmoving party's time to file a brief in opposition to the motion.¹⁵⁸ If the nonmoving party fails to file a brief in opposition thereto, the Board will normally grant the motion as conceded.¹⁵⁹ If the nonmoving party contests the motion, the Board will decide the motion on its merits.¹⁶⁰ A party has no right to assume that its motion to extend (much less a motion to reopen) made without the consent of the adverse party will always be granted automatically.¹⁶¹ Moreover, while the Board attempts, where possible, to notify the parties of its decision on an unconsented motion to extend, or a motion to reopen, prior to expiration of the enlargement sought, the Board is under no obligation to do so, and in many cases cannot.¹⁶² Therefore, it is preferable, at least where an unconsented motion seeks an extension or a reopening of a testimony period or periods, or of the discovery period and testimony periods, that the motion request that the new period or periods be set to run from the date of the Board's decision on the motion. However, in the event that the motion to extend or reopen time is denied, the time for taking required action may remain as previously set.¹⁶³

The resetting of the closing date for discovery will result in the automatic rescheduling of the testimony periods by the Board. However, the resetting of a party's time to respond to an outstanding request for discovery will not result in the automatic rescheduling of the discovery and/or testimony periods--such dates will be rescheduled only upon stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or upon motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board.¹⁶⁴

When a motion other than a motion to extend has been filed, a party should not presume that the Board will automatically reset trial dates when it determines the pending motion. When the Board determines a pending motion, and there is no motion to extend trial dates, the Board, in the exercise of its discretion, may or may not reset trial dates. A party that wishes to have trial dates reset upon the determination of a particular motion should file a motion requesting such action, and specifying the dates which it wishes to have reset.

Extensions of time to seek judicial review of a final decision of the Board (whether by way of appeal to the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit or by way of a civil action) may be granted

37 CFR § 2.117 Suspension of proceedings.

(a) Whenever it shall come to the attention of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board that a party or parties to a pending case are engaged in a civil action or another Board proceeding which may have a bearing on the case, proceedings before the Board may be suspended until termination of the civil action or the other Board proceeding.

(b) Whenever there is pending before the Board both a motion to suspend and a motion which is potentially dispositive of the case, the potentially dispositive motion may be decided before the question of suspension is considered regardless of the order in which the motions were filed.

(c) Proceedings may also be suspended, for good cause, upon motion or a stipulation of the parties approved by the Board.

37 CFR § 2.120(e)(2) When a party files a motion for an order to compel discovery, the case will be suspended by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board with respect to all matters not germane to the motion, and no party should file any paper which is not germane to the motion, except as otherwise specified in the Board's suspension order. The filing of a motion to compel shall not toll the time for a party to respond to any outstanding discovery requests or to appear for any noticed discovery deposition.

37 CFR § 2.127(d) When any party files a motion to dismiss, or a motion for judgment on the pleadings, or a motion for summary judgment, or any other motion which is potentially dispositive of a proceeding, the case will be suspended by the [Board] with respect to all matters not germane to the motion and no party should file any paper which is not germane to the motion except as otherwise specified in the Board's suspension order. If the case is not disposed of as a result of the motion, proceedings will be resumed pursuant to an order of the Board when the motion is decided.

Trial and Appeal Board shall suspend or reschedule other proceedings in the matter to allow for the orderly completion of the depositions upon written questions.

510.01 In General

Flowing from the Board's inherent power to schedule disposition of the cases on its docket is the power to stay proceedings, which may be exercised by the Board upon its own initiative, upon motion, or upon stipulation of the parties approved by the Board.¹⁶⁶ Some of the most common reasons for suspension are discussed below.

510.02 Suspension Pending Outcome of Another Proceeding; Resumption

510.02(a) Suspension

Whenever it comes to the attention of the Board that a party or parties to a case pending before it are involved in a civil action which may have a bearing on the Board case, proceedings before the Board may be suspended until final determination of the civil action.¹⁶⁷

Most commonly, a request to suspend pending the outcome of another proceeding seeks suspension because of a civil action pending between the parties in a Federal district court. To the extent that a civil action in a Federal district court involves issues in common with those in a proceeding before the Board, the decision of the Federal district court is often binding upon the Board, while the decision of the Board is not binding upon the court.¹⁶⁸

¹⁶⁶ See 37 CFR § 2.117 and Opticians Ass'n of America v. Independent Opticians of America Inc., 734 F. Supp. 1171, 14 USPQ2d 2021 (D.N.J. 1990), rev'd on other grounds, 920 F.2d 187, 17 USPQ2d 1117 (3d Cir. 1990).

Tropicana Products Inc.*, 846 F.2d 848, 6 USPQ2d 1950, 1954 (2d Cir. 1988) (doctrine of primary jurisdiction might be applicable if a district court action involved only the issue of registrability, but would not be applicable where court action concerns infringement where the interest in prompt adjudication far outweighs the value of having the views of the PTO); American Bakeries Co. v. Pan-O-Gold Baking Co., 650 F. Supp. 563, 2 USPQ2d 1208 (D.Minn. 1986) (primary jurisdiction should not be invoked where, inter alia, a stay of the district court action is more likely to prolong the dispute than lead to its economical disposition and where the district court action includes claims which cannot be raised before the Board); and Toro Co. v. Hardigg Industries, Inc., supra at 692.

Chapter 500

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

Further, pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.117(a), the Board may also, in its discretion, suspend a proceeding pending the final determination of another Board proceeding in which the parties are involved,¹⁶⁹ or a civil action pending between the parties in a state court,¹⁷⁰ or a foreign action between the parties, wherein one party challenges the validity of a foreign registration upon which the other party's subject application is based,¹⁷¹ or even another proceeding in which only one of the parties is involved.¹⁷²

Ordinarily, the Board will suspend proceedings in the case before it if the final determination of the other proceeding will have a bearing on the issues before the Board.¹⁷³

Chapter 500

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

Suspension of a Board proceeding pending the final determination of another proceeding is solely within the discretion of the Board; the court in which a civil action is pending has no power to suspend proceedings in a case before the Board,¹⁷⁴ nor do parties or their attorneys.¹⁷⁵ However, if, as sometimes happens, the court before which a civil action is pending elects to suspend the civil action to await determination of the Board proceeding and the Board is so advised, the Board will go forward with its proceeding.¹⁷⁶

When a motion to suspend pending the outcome of a civil action is filed, the Board normally will require that a copy of the pleadings from the civil action be submitted, so that the Board can ascertain whether the final determination of the civil action will have a bearing on the issues before the Board.¹⁷⁷ This requirement ordinarily is waived if the parties stipulate to the suspension.

The Board does not usually require that an issue be joined (that an answer be filed) in one or both proceedings before the Board will consider suspending a Board proceeding pending the outcome of another proceeding.¹⁷⁸ Such a requirement is made only in those cases where there is no stipulation to suspend and it is not possible for the Board to ascertain, prior to the filing of an answer in one or both proceedings, whether the final determination of the other proceeding will have a bearing on the issues before the Board.

If there is pending, at the time when the question of suspension of proceedings before the Board is raised, a motion which is potentially dispositive of the case, the potentially dispositive motion may be decided before the question of suspension is considered.¹⁷⁹ The purpose of this rule is to prevent a party served with a potentially dispositive motion from escaping the motion by filing a civil action and then moving to suspend before the

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

Board has decided the potentially dispositive motion.¹⁸⁰ However, the Board, in its discretion, may elect to suspend without first deciding the potentially dispositive motion.

510.02(b) Resumption

When a proceeding before the Board has been suspended pending the outcome of another proceeding, and that other proceeding has been finally determined, the interested party should notify the Board in writing of the disposition of the other proceeding, and requesting that further appropriate action be taken in the Board proceeding. Usually, the interested party requests, as a result of the decision in the other proceeding, that judgment be entered in its behalf on one or more issues in the Board proceeding. A copy of the decision in the other proceeding should accompany the notification. Absent any such notification as to the final determination of the civil action, cases which have been suspended pending civil action will remain in a suspended status for two years before the Board will issue an order requiring the parties to provide the status of the civil action.

A proceeding is considered to have been finally determined when a decision on the merits of the case (i.e., a dispositive ruling that ends litigation on the merits) has been rendered, and no appeal has been filed therefrom, or all appeals filed have been decided.

510.03 Suspension for Other Reasons; Resumption

510.03(a) Suspension

The Board suspends proceedings in cases before it for a wide variety of reasons including those discussed below.

Upon motion or upon stipulation. Proceedings may be suspended for good cause upon motion or upon stipulation of the parties approved by the Board.¹⁸¹ For example, proceedings may be suspended, upon motion or stipulation under 37 CFR § 2.117(c), for purposes of settlement negotiations, subject to the right of either party to request resumption at any time.¹⁸² In addition, if a motion to extend time indicates that the parties are negotiating for settlement, the Board may, in lieu of granting the requested extension, suspend proceedings for a specified time, usually six months, subject to resumption by either party at any time.¹⁸³ The parties may also agree to suspend proceedings for consideration of a matter by the examining attorney, including the disposition of a party's application before the examining attorney.¹⁸⁴

Bankruptcy. The Board will issue an order suspending proceedings if it comes to the attention of the Board that the defendant has filed a petition for bankruptcy.¹⁸⁵ Under the automatic stay provisions of Section 362 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 362, a petition for bankruptcy (filed under Section 301, 302, or 303 of the Code, 11 U.S.C. § 301, 302, or 303) operates as a stay, inter alia, of the commencement or continuation of a judicial, administrative, or other process against the debtor that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of the bankruptcy case. However, if it is the plaintiff in the Board proceeding, rather than the defendant, which has filed a petition for bankruptcy, the automatic stay provisions do not mandate the suspension of the Board proceeding unless there is a counterclaim in the Board proceeding for cancellation of the plaintiff's registration(s).

Withdrawal of counsel. If, in a Board proceeding, a party's attorney or other authorized representative files a request to withdraw as counsel for the party, and the request is granted, the Board will suspend proceedings and allow the party a stated period of time (usually 30 days) in which to appoint a new attorney or other authorized representative (and inform the Board thereof), or to file a paper stating that it desires to represent itself, failing which the Board may issue an order to show cause why default judgment should not be entered against the party.¹⁸⁶ A party may inform the Board of the appointment of new counsel either by filing written notification thereof (as, for example, by filing a copy of the new appointment), or by having new counsel make an appearance on the party's behalf in the proceeding.¹⁸⁷

Potentially dispositive motion. When a party to a Board proceeding files a motion which is potentially dispositive of the proceeding, such as a motion to dismiss,¹⁸⁸ a motion for judgment on the pleadings, or a motion for summary judgment, the case will be suspended by the Board with respect to all matters not germane to the motion.¹⁸⁹ The filing of such a potentially dispositive motion does not, in and of itself, operate to suspend a case; until the Board issues its suspension order, all times continue to run.¹⁹⁰ However, when issuing its suspension order, the Board ordinarily treats the proceeding as if it had been suspended as of the filing date of the potentially dispositive motion.¹⁹¹ On a case-by-case basis, the Board may find that the filing of a potentially dispositive motion provides a party with good cause for not complying with an otherwise outstanding obligation, for example, responding to discovery requests.¹⁹²

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

Once the Board has suspended proceedings in a case, pending determination of a potentially dispositive motion, no party should file any paper that is not germane to the motion.¹⁹³

Motion to compel. Pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.120(e)(2) (effective October 9, 1998) when a party files a motion to compel discovery, the Board will issue an order suspending the proceeding with respect to all matters not germane to the motion,¹⁹⁴ and no party should file any paper which is not germane to the discovery dispute, except as otherwise specified in the Board's suspension order. However, neither the filing of a motion to compel nor the Board's resulting suspension order tolls the time for parties to respond to any outstanding discovery requests which had been served prior to the filing of the motion to compel, nor does it excuse a party's appearance at any discovery deposition which had been duly noticed prior to the filing of the motion to compel.¹⁹⁵

Petition to the Director. The mere filing of a petition to the Director seeking review of an interlocutory decision or order of the Board¹⁹⁶ will not act as a stay of the Board proceeding pending disposition of the petition. Such a stay must be specifically requested of the Board and granted by the Board.¹⁹⁷ The decision as to whether to grant such a stay is within the Board's discretion. Until and unless the Board issues a suspension order, all times continue to run as previously set or reset by the Board.

Testimony depositions on written questions. Upon receipt of written notice that one or more testimonial depositions are to be taken upon written questions pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.124, the Board will suspend or reschedule other proceedings in the case to allow for the orderly completion of the depositions upon written questions.¹⁹⁸

510.03(b) Resumption

Settlement negotiations. When proceedings are suspended for purposes of settlement negotiations, the Board normally sets a specific period of suspension (up to six months). Each party has the right to request resumption at any time during the suspension period.¹⁹⁹ If no word is heard from either party prior to the expiration of the suspension period, the Board resumes proceedings. When resuming proceedings, if the consented motion or stipulation to suspend does not specify otherwise, the Board will generally issue a new trial order beginning with whatever period was running when the consented motion or stipulation to suspend was filed.²⁰⁰ In addition to, or instead of, resetting trial dates, the Board may reset the time for the parties to take other appropriate action in the case. Until the Board issues an order resuming proceedings and setting new response and/or trial dates, proceedings remain suspended, despite the fact that the suspension period set by the Board has run.

Matter before the examining attorney. If proceedings have been suspended for consideration of a matter by the examining attorney, including the disposition of a party's application before the examining attorney, and the matter does not resolve the case, the Board will issue an order resuming proceedings, and taking further appropriate action.²⁰¹

Bankruptcy. When the Board has suspended proceedings because a defendant in a Board proceeding (or plaintiff whose registration is the subject of a counterclaim) has filed a petition for bankruptcy, the Board periodically (normally, every two years) inquires as to the status of the bankruptcy case. In order to expedite matters, however, when the bankruptcy case has been concluded, or the involved application or registration of the bankrupt party has been transferred to some other person, the interested party should immediately file a paper notifying the Board thereof. Once the Board has been notified of the outcome of the bankruptcy case, and/or of the disposition of the bankrupt's involved application or registration, the Board will resume proceedings and take further appropriate action.

Withdrawal of counsel. If proceedings have been suspended in order to allow a party, whose attorney or other authorized representative has withdrawn, a period of time in which to either appoint new counsel (and inform the Board thereof) or file a paper stating that it desires to represent itself²⁰² and new counsel is appointed (and the Board is informed thereof) during the time allowed, the Board will resume proceedings, and go forward with that person representing the party. If, instead, the party files a paper stating that it desires to represent itself, the Board will resume proceedings and go forward with the party representing itself, but the party may employ a new attorney or other authorized representative at any time thereafter. If the party fails, during the time allowed, to either appoint new counsel (and inform the Board thereof) or file a paper stating that it desires to represent itself, the Board may issue an order noting that the party appears to have lost interest in the case, and allowing the party time in which to show cause why default judgment should not be entered against it.²⁰³ If the party, in turn, files a response indicating that it has not lost interest in the case, default judgment will not be entered against it. If the party fails to file a response to the show cause order, default judgment may be entered against it.

Potentially dispositive motion. When proceedings have been suspended pending determination of a potentially dispositive motion, and the determination of the motion does not dispose of the case, the Board, in its decision on the motion, will issue an order resuming proceedings, and taking further appropriate action.²⁰⁴

511 Motion to Consolidate

Fed. R. Civ. P. 42 (a) Consolidation. When actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions; it may order all the actions consolidated; and it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.

When cases involving common questions of law or fact are pending before the Board, the Board may order the consolidation of the cases.²⁰⁵ In determining whether to consolidate proceedings, the Board will weigh the savings in time, effort, and expense, which may be gained from consolidation, against any prejudice or inconvenience that may be caused thereby.²⁰⁶ Although identity of the parties is another factor considered by the Board in determining whether consolidation should be ordered,²⁰⁷ it is not always necessary.²⁰⁸ Consolidation is discretionary with the Board, and may be ordered upon motion granted by the Board, or upon stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or upon the Board's own initiative.²⁰⁹

Generally, the Board will not consider a motion to consolidate until an answer has been filed (i.e., until issue has been joined) in each case sought to be consolidated. However, the Board may, in its discretion, order cases consolidated prior to joinder of issue.²¹⁰

When cases have been ordered consolidated, they may be presented on the same record and briefs.²¹¹ Papers should only be filed in the "parent" case of the consolidated proceedings unless otherwise advised by the Board, but the caption of each paper filed with the Board should reference the individual proceeding numbers with the parent case listed first.²¹² The oldest (i.e., first-filed) of the consolidated cases is treated as the "parent" case.

When actions by different plaintiffs are consolidated, and the plaintiffs are represented by different counsel, the plaintiffs may be required to appoint one lead counsel to supervise and coordinate the conduct of the plaintiffs' cases.²¹³

Consolidated cases do not lose their separate identity because of consolidation. Each proceeding retains its separate character and requires entry of a separate judgment.²¹⁴ Upon consolidation, the Board will reset trial dates for the consolidated proceeding, usually by adopting the trial dates as set in the most recently instituted of the cases being consolidated.

512 Motion to Join or Substitute

512.01 Assignment of Mark

When there has been an assignment of a mark that is the subject of, or relied upon in, an inter partes proceeding before the Board the assignee may be joined or substituted, as may be appropriate, upon motion granted by the Board, or upon the Board's own initiative.²¹⁵

When a mark that is the subject of a Federal application or registration has been assigned, together with the application or registration, in accordance with Section 10 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1060, any action with respect to the application or registration which may or must be taken by the applicant or registrant may be taken by the assignee (acting itself, or through its attorney or other authorized representative), provided that the assignment has been recorded or that proof of the assignment has been submitted.²¹⁶

NOTE: Section 10 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1060, and part 3 of 37 CFR are not applicable to 66(a) applications and registrations.²¹⁷ Except in limited circumstances,²¹⁸ requests to record assignments of 66(a) applications and registrations must be filed directly with the International Bureau.²¹⁹ The International Bureau will notify the USPTO of any changes in ownership *recorded in the International Register. The USPTO will record only those assignments, or other documents of title, that have been recorded in the International Register.*²²⁰

If the mark in an application or registration which is the subject matter of an inter partes proceeding before the Board is assigned, together with the application or registration, the assignee may be joined as a party (as a party defendant, in the case of an opposition or cancellation proceeding; or as a junior or senior party, as the case may be, in an interference or concurrent use proceeding) upon the filing with the Board of a copy of the assignment. When the assignment is recorded in the Assignment Services Division of the USPTO,²²¹ the assignee may be substituted as a party if the assignment occurred prior to the commencement of the proceeding, or the assignor is no longer in existence, or the plaintiff raises no objections to substitution, or the discovery and testimony periods have closed; otherwise, the assignee will be joined, rather than substituted, to facilitate discovery.²²²

If a mark pleaded by a plaintiff is assigned and a copy of the assignment is filed with the Board, the assignee ordinarily will be substituted for the originally named party if the assignment occurred prior to the commencement of the proceeding, if the discovery and testimony periods have closed, if the assignor is no longer in existence, or if the defendant raises no objection to substitution. Otherwise, the assignee will be joined, rather than substituted, to facilitate the taking of discovery and the introduction of evidence.²²³ The assignment does not have to be recorded with respect to a plaintiff's pleaded application or registration before substitution or joinder (whichever is appropriate) is made. However, recordation in the Assignment Services Division of the USPTO is advisable because it will aid the assignee in its effort to prove ownership of the application or registration at trial.²²⁴

If the mark of an excepted common law user (which is not the owner of an involved application or registration) in a concurrent use proceeding, is assigned, the assignee will be joined or substituted as party defendant upon notification to the Board of the assignment.²²⁵

Alternatively, if there has been an assignment of a mark that is the subject of, or is relied upon in, a proceeding before the Board, and the Board does not order that the assignee be joined or substituted in the proceeding, the proceeding may be continued in the name of the assignor.²²⁶

Further, the fact that a third party related to the plaintiff, such as a parent or licensor of the plaintiff, may also have an interest in a mark relied on by the plaintiff does not mean that the third party must be joined as a party plaintiff.²²⁷ change of name, provided that appropriate evidence thereof is made of record in the proceeding. Such evidence may consist, for example, of a copy of the name change document, or the reel and frame numbers at which such document is recorded in the Assignment Services Division of the USPTO.²²⁸ If no such evidence is made of record in the proceeding, the proceeding may be continued in the party's old name.²²⁹

A name change document does not have to be recorded with respect to a defendant's involved application or registration, or a plaintiff's pleaded application or registration, in order for the Board proceeding title to be changed to reflect the new name. However, recordation is advisable because it facilitates proof of ownership of the application or registration, and because filing for recordation is one of the 37 CFR § 3.85 requirements for an applicant that desires, if it prevails in the proceeding, to have its registration issue in its new name.²³⁰

512.03 Issuance of Registration to Assignee, or in New Name

37 CFR § 3.85 Issue of registration to assignee. The certificate of registration may be issued to the assignee of the applicant, or in a new name of the applicant, provided that the party files a written request in the trademark application by the time the application is being prepared for issuance of the certificate of registration, and the appropriate document is recorded in the Office. If the assignment or name change document has not been recorded in the Office, then the written request must state that the document has been filed for recordation. The address of the assignee must be made of record in the application file.

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

from the application may issue in the name of the assignor unless the assignee complies with the requirements of 37 CFR § 3.85. Specifically, to ensure that the registration will issue in its name, the assignee must file a written request in the application (or in the Board proceeding, if that proceeding has not yet ended), by the time the application is being prepared for issuance of the certificate of registration, that the registration be issued in its name. In addition, an appropriate document must be of record in the Assignment Services Division of the USPTO, or the written request must state that the document has been filed for recordation. Finally, the address of the assignee must be made of record in the application file.

Similarly, even though the title of an inter partes proceeding before the Board may have been changed to reflect a name change of an applicant whose application is the subject of the proceeding, any registration issued from the application may issue in the applicant's original name unless the applicant complies with the requirements of 37 CFR § 3.85.²³²

If an assignment or change of name document is recorded in the Assignment Division well prior to the time the subject application is prepared for issuance of a registration, the registration may issue in the name of the assignee, or in the new name, even if no 37 CFR § 3.85 request is filed. However, the registration may issue in the name of the assignor, or in the old name. The purpose of the written request is to call the attention of the USPTO to the assignment, or change of name, and thus to ensure that the registration issues in the name of the assignee, or in the new name. Accordingly, it is sufficient for the purpose if applicant files a paper referring to the assignment or change of name, and the assignment or change of name document has either been recorded, or applicant states that the document has been submitted for recording.²³³

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

37 CFR § 10.40 Withdrawal from employment. (a) A practitioner shall not withdraw from employment in a proceeding before the Office without permission from the Office (see §§ 1.36 and 2.19 of this subchapter). In any event, a practitioner shall not withdraw from employment until the practitioner has taken reasonable steps to avoid foreseeable prejudice to the rights of the client, including giving due notice to his or her client, allowing time for employment of another practitioner, delivering to the client all papers and property to which the client is entitled, and complying with applicable laws and rules. A practitioner who withdraws from employment shall refund promptly any part of a fee paid in advance that has not been earned.

(b) Mandatory withdrawal. A practitioner representing a client before the Office shall withdraw from employment if:

- (1) The practitioner knows or it is obvious that the client is bringing a legal action, commencing a proceeding before the Office, conducting a defense, or asserting a position in litigation or any proceeding pending before the Office, or is otherwise having steps taken for the client, merely for the purpose of harassing or maliciously injuring any person;*
- (2) The practitioner knows or it is obvious that the practitioner's continued employment will result in violation of a Disciplinary Rule;*
- (3) The practitioner's mental or physical condition renders it unreasonably difficult for the practitioner to carry out the employment effectively; or*
- (4) The practitioner is discharged by the client.*

(c) Permissive withdrawal. If paragraph (b) of this section is not applicable, a practitioner may not request permission to withdraw in matters pending before the Office unless such request or such withdrawal is because:

- (1) The petitioner's client:*
 - (i) Insists upon presenting a claim or defense that is not warranted under existing law and cannot be supported by good faith argument for an extension, modification, or reversal of existing law;*
 - (ii) Personally seeks to pursue an illegal course of conduct;*
 - (iii) Insists that the practitioner pursue a course of conduct that is illegal or that is prohibited under a Disciplinary Rule;*
 - (iv) By other conduct renders it unreasonably difficult for the practitioner to carry out the employment effectively;*
 - (v) Insists, in a matter not pending before a tribunal, that the practitioner engage in conduct that is contrary to the judgment and advice of the practitioner but not prohibited under the Disciplinary Rule; or*
 - (vi) Has failed to pay one or more bills rendered by the practitioner for an unreasonable period of time or has failed to honor an agreement to pay a retainer in advance of the performance of legal services.*
- (2) The practitioner's continued employment is likely to result in a violation of a Disciplinary Rule;*

Chapter 500

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

- (3) The practitioner's inability to work with co-counsel indicates that the best interests of the client likely will be served by withdrawal;
- (4) The practitioner's mental or physical condition renders it difficult for the practitioner to carry out the employment effectively;
- (5) The practitioner's client knowingly and freely assents to termination of the employment; or
- (6) The practitioner believes in good faith, in a proceeding pending before the Office, that the Office will find the existence of other good cause for withdrawal.

A practitioner who wishes to withdraw from employment as the attorney or other authorized representative of a party to a proceeding before the Board must file a request with the Board for permission to do so. The request to withdraw must be based upon one of the grounds for mandatory or permissive withdrawal listed in 37 CFR §§ 10.40(b) and 10.40(c).

Moreover, the practitioner must comply with the requirements of 37 CFR § 10.40(a).²⁴⁰ In accordance with that rule, a request for permission to withdraw should include (1) a specification of the basis for the request; (2) a statement that the practitioner has notified the client of his or her desire to withdraw from employment, and has allowed time for employment of another practitioner; (3) a statement that all papers and property that relate to the proceeding and to which the client is entitled have been delivered to the client; (4) if any part of a fee paid in advance has not been earned, a statement that the unearned part has been refunded; and (5) proof of service of the request upon the client and upon every other party to the proceeding.²⁴¹ The facts establishing these elements should be set out in detail.²⁴² Moreover, a request to withdraw from representation may not be used as a subterfuge to obtain an extension or reopening of time that a party would not otherwise be entitled to.²⁴³

²⁴⁰ See 37 CFR §§ 2.19(b) and 10.40; SFW Licensing Corp. and Shoppers Food Warehouse Corp. v. Di Pardo Packing Limited, 60 USPQ2d 1372 (TTAB 2001) (request to withdraw denied as prejudicial to client where it was filed on last day of client's testimony period, although grounds for withdrawal were known months earlier); Netcore Technologies, Inc. v. Firstwave Technologies, Inc., ___ USPQ2d ___, 2001 WL 243440 (TTAB 2001) (attorney's withdrawal request filed in response to Board's show cause order under Rule § 2.128(a)(3) denied as untimely where attorney assertedly had ceased to represent client months earlier).

Cf. In re Slack, 54 USPQ2d 1504, 1507 (Comm'r 2000) (request to withdraw during ex parte prosecution granted where requirements of 37 CFR § 10.40(a) were satisfied and attorney filed the request within a reasonable time after notifying applicant of his intent to withdraw).

Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

If the request to withdraw is granted, the Board will suspend proceedings and allow the party a stated period of time (usually 30 days) in which to appoint a new attorney or other authorized representative (and inform the Board thereof), or to file a paper stating that it desires to represent itself. If the party fails to take such action, the Board may issue an order to show cause why default judgment should not be entered against the party based on the party's apparent loss of interest in the case.²⁴⁴

A request for permission to withdraw as counsel in an application that is the subject of a potential opposition (i.e., an application as to which a request for extension of time to file an opposition is pending) is determined by the Board, not the examining operation, and it should be filed with the Board to insure prompt processing.²⁴⁵

A party may inform the Board of the appointment of new counsel either by filing written notification thereof (as, for example, by filing a copy of the new appointment), or by having new counsel make an appearance in the party's behalf in the proceeding.²⁴⁶

For information concerning action by the Board after expiration of the time allowed in the suspension order, see TBMP § 510.03(b). For further information concerning withdrawal of counsel, see TBMP §§ 116.02-116.05. Cf. TMEP § 602.03(a).

513.02 Petition to Disqualify

37 CFR § 10.130(b) Petitions to disqualify a practitioner in ex parte or inter partes cases in the Office are not governed by §§ 10.130 through 10.170 and will be handled on a case-by-case basis under such conditions as the Commissioner [Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office] deems appropriate.

If a party to an inter partes proceeding before the Board believes that a practitioner representing another party to the proceeding should be disqualified (due, for example, to a conflict of interest, or because the practitioner may testify in the proceeding as a witness on behalf of his client), the party may file a petition to disqualify the practitioner.

Petitions to disqualify are not disciplinary proceedings and hence are not governed by 37 CFR §§ 10.130-10.170. Rather, petitions to disqualify are governed by 37 CFR § 10.130(b), and are determined in the manner specified in that rule.

²⁴⁵ See TBMP § 212.01 (Jurisdiction to Consider Amendment).

Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

When a petition to disqualify is filed in connection with a proceeding pending before the Board, the Board immediately issues an action suspending proceedings in the case and advising the parties that no additional papers should be filed by the parties until further notice, pending consideration of the petition. After the petition has been determined or dismissed, the Board issues an action resuming proceedings in the case, and taking further appropriate action therein. Petitions to disqualify in matters before the Board are currently determined by the Chief Administrative Trademark Judge under authority delegated by the Director.²⁴⁷

For examples of cases involving petitions to disqualify, see the decisions cited in TBMP § 114.08.

514 Motion to Amend Application or Registration

37 CFR § 2.133(a) An application involved in a proceeding may not be amended in substance nor may a registration be amended or disclaimed in part, except with the consent of the other party or parties and the approval of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or except upon motion.

(b) If, in an inter partes proceeding, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board finds that a party whose application or registration is the subject of the proceeding is not entitled to registration in the absence of a specified restriction to the involved application or registration, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board will allow the party time in which to file a request that the application or registration be amended to conform to the findings of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, failing which judgment will be entered against the party.

(c) Geographic limitations will be considered and determined by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board only in the context of a concurrent use registration proceeding.

514.01 In General

The amendment of any application or registration which is the subject of an inter partes proceeding before the Board is governed by 37 CFR § 2.133. Thus, an application which is the subject of a Board inter partes proceeding may not be amended in substance, except with the consent of the other party or parties and the approval of the Board, or except upon motion ²⁴⁷ With respect to disqualification due to an asserted conflict of interest, see TBMP § 114.08, and authorities cited therein. With respect to disqualification where the attorney is a witness in the case, such as giving testimony on behalf of the client, see 37 CFR § 10.63; Focus 21 International Inc. v. Pola Kasei Kogyo Kabushiki Kaisha, 22 USPQ2d 1316 (TTAB 1992); Allstate Insurance Co. v. Healthy America Inc., 9 USPQ 2d 1663 (TTAB 1988); and Little Caesar Enterprises Inc. v. Domino's Pizza Inc., 11 USPQ2d 1233 (Comm'r 1989). Cf. In re Gray, 3 USPQ2d 1558 (TTAB 1987).

granted by the Board.²⁴⁸ Similarly, a registration which is the subject of a Board inter partes proceeding may not be amended or disclaimed in part, except with the consent of the other party or parties and the approval of the Board, or except upon motion.²⁴⁹

For information regarding amendments to applications that are subject to a pending request for an extension of time to oppose see TBMP § 212. For information concerning amendments to delete one or more classes from a multiple-class application or registration involved in an inter partes proceeding, see TBMP § 602.01.

A proposed amendment to any application or registration which is the subject of an inter partes proceeding must also comply with all other applicable rules and statutory provisions. These include 37 CFR §§ 2.71-2.75, in the case of a proposed amendment to an application; 37 CFR § 2.173 and Section 7(e) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1057(e), in the case of a proposed amendment to a registration, except a 66(a) registration; and 37 CFR § 7.22 in the case of a 66(a) registration.²⁵⁰ Thus, for example, a proposed amendment which involves an addition to the identification of goods or services, or which materially alters the character of the subject mark, or involves an amendment to the mark in a Section 66(a) application or registration,²⁵¹ will not be approved by the Board.²⁵² However, an otherwise appropriate amendment to an application will ordinarily not be rejected by the Board solely on the basis that the amendment would require republication

²⁴⁸ See, e.g., Gallagher's Restaurants, Inc. v. Gallagher's Farms, Inc., 3 USPQ2d 1864 (TTAB 1986) (amendment to named excepted users in a concurrent use application); Giant Food Inc. v. Standard Terry Mills, Inc., 231 USPQ 626 (TTAB 1986) (amendment to identification of goods); and Greyhound Corporation and Armour and Company v. Armour Life Insurance Company, 214 USPQ 473 (TTAB 1982) (amendment to dates of use).

²⁵¹ The mark in a 66(a) application or registration cannot be amended. See 37 CFR § 2.72 providing only for amendments to the mark in Section 1 and 44 applications and the International Bureau's Guide to the International Registration of Marks under the Madrid Agreement and the Madrid Protocol, Para. B.II.69.02 (2002) at www.wip.int/madrid/en/guide. of the mark. Republication may not be available for applications filed under 66(a) of the Act due to the time requirements of the Madrid Protocol.²⁵³

A request to amend an application or registration which is the subject of a Board inter partes proceeding should bear at its top both the number of the subject application or registration, and the Board proceeding number and title. In addition, the request should include proof of service of a copy thereof upon every other party to the proceeding.²⁵⁴ A request to amend an application involved in a Board proceeding must be filed with the Board, not with the Trademark Examining Operation. Similarly, a request to amend a registration involved in a Board proceeding must be filed with the Board, not with the Post Registration Branch or, in the case of a 66(a) registration, not with the International Bureau.²⁵⁵ Failure to file such a request with the Board will result in unnecessary delay and may result in the loss or misplacement of the amendment request. When the Board grants a request to amend a registration that is the subject of a Board inter partes proceeding, except in the case of a 66(a) registration, the file is forwarded to the Post Registration branch of the Office of Trademark Services for entry of the amendment of the registration. The action by the Post Registration branch is limited to the ministerial duty of ensuring that the authorized change to the registration is made.²⁵⁶ Requests to record changes to a 66(a) registration must be filed with the International Bureau.²⁵⁷

514.02 Amendment With Consent

When a request to amend an application or registration which is the subject of a Board inter partes proceeding is made with the consent of the other party or parties, and the proposed amendment is in accordance with the applicable rules and statutory provisions, the request ordinarily will be approved by the Board. However, if the application or registration is the subject of other inter partes proceedings, the consent of the other parties in each of those other proceedings must be of record before the amendment may be approved.²⁵⁸

Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

514.03 Amendment Without Consent

The Board, in its discretion, may grant a motion to amend an application or registration which is the subject of an inter partes proceeding, even if the other party or parties do not consent thereto.²⁵⁹

When a motion to amend an application or registration in substance is made without the consent of the other party or parties, it ordinarily should be made prior to trial, in order to give the other party or parties fair notice thereof; an unconsented motion to amend which is not made prior to trial, and which, if granted, would affect the issues involved in the proceeding, normally will be denied by the Board unless the matter is tried by express or implied consent of the parties pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(b).²⁶⁰

The Board generally will defer determination of a timely filed (i.e., pre-trial) unconsented motion to amend in substance until final decision, or until the case is decided upon summary judgment.²⁶¹

If a defendant, whose application or registration is the subject of a Board inter partes proceeding, wishes to defend by asserting that it is at least entitled to a registration with a particular restriction, the defense should be raised either in the defendant's answer to the complaint, or by way of a timely motion to amend the application or registration to include the restriction.²⁶² The proposed restriction should be described in defendant's pleading, or in its motion to amend, in sufficient detail to give the plaintiff fair notice thereof.²⁶³

If the Board ultimately finds that a defendant is not entitled to registration in the absence of a restriction that was timely proposed by the defendant, the proposed restriction will be approved and entered.²⁶⁴ If a further refinement thereof is found necessary by the Board, and is within the scope of the notice given to plaintiff by defendant, or was tried with the express or implied consent of plaintiff, defendant will be allowed time in which to file a request that its application or registration be amended to conform to the findings of the Board, failing which judgment will be entered against the party.²⁶⁵ If, on the other hand, the Board ultimately finds that defendant is entitled to registration even without the proposed restriction, defendant will be allowed time to indicate whether it still wishes to have the restriction entered.²⁶⁶

Geographic limitations will be considered and determined by the Board only in the context of a concurrent use proceeding.²⁶⁷ Moreover, Section 7(e) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1057(e), and 37 CFR § 2.173 cannot be used to impose concurrent use restrictions on registrations.²⁶⁸ However, an applicant whose geographically unrestricted application is the subject of an opposition proceeding may file a motion to amend its application to one for a concurrent use registration, with the opposer being recited as the exception to the applicant's right to exclusive use. If the proposed amendment is otherwise appropriate, and is made with the consent of the opposer, the opposition will be dismissed without prejudice in favor of a concurrent use proceeding. If the opposer does not consent to the amendment, the amendment may nevertheless be approved and entered, and a concurrent use proceeding instituted, provided that applicant agrees to accept

515 Motion to Remand Application to Examining Attorney

37 CFR § 2.130 New matter suggested by Examiner of Trademarks. If, while an inter partes proceeding involving an application under section 1 or 44 of the Act is pending, facts appear which, in the opinion of the trademark examining attorney, render the mark in the application unregistrable, the facts should be called to the attention of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board. The Board may suspend the proceeding and refer the application to the trademark examining attorney for an ex parte determination of the question of registrability. A copy of the trademark examining attorney's final action will be furnished to the parties to the inter partes proceeding following the final determination of registrability by the trademark examining attorney or the Board on appeal. The Board will consider the application for such further inter partes action as may be appropriate.

37 CFR § 2.131 Remand after decision in inter partes proceeding. If, during an inter partes proceeding involving an application under section 1 or 44 of the Act, facts are disclosed which appear to render the mark unregistrable, but such matter has not been tried under the pleadings as filed by the parties or as they might be deemed to be amended under Rule 15(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure to conform to the evidence, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, in lieu of determining the matter in the decision on the proceeding, may remand the application to the trademark examining attorney for reexamination in the event the applicant ultimately prevails in the inter partes proceeding. Upon remand, the trademark examining attorney shall reexamine the application in the light of the reference by the Board. If, upon reexamination, the trademark examining attorney finally refuses registration to the applicant, an appeal may be taken as provided by §§ 2.141 and 2.142.

If, during the pendency of an opposition, concurrent use, or interference proceeding involving an application under Section 1 or 44 of the Trademark Act, the examining attorney learns of facts which, in his or her opinion, render the mark of the involved application unregistrable, the examining attorney may file a request that the Board suspend the inter partes proceeding, and remand the application to the examining attorney for further ex parte examination.²⁷⁰ An application under Section 66(a) of the Act may not be remanded under 37 CFR § 2.130 or 2.131.²⁷¹

There is no provision under which such a remand may be made upon motion by a party to the proceeding. Moreover, a request to amend an application which is the subject of an inter partes proceeding before the Board is not remanded to the examining attorney for consideration, but rather is considered and determined by the Board.²⁷²

However, if, during the course of an opposition, concurrent use, or interference proceeding, involving an application under Section 1 or 44 of the Act, facts are disclosed which appear to render the mark of the involved application unregistrable, and the matter has not been tried under the pleadings as filed by the parties or as they might be deemed to be amended pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(b), the Board, in its decision in the proceeding, may, in addition to determining the pleaded matters, include a recommendation that in the event applicant ultimately prevails in the inter partes proceeding, the examining attorney reexamine the application in light of the disclosed facts.²⁷³ A 37 CFR § 2.131 remand may be made by the Board upon its own initiative, or upon request granted by the Board. Thus, if a party to the proceeding believes that the facts disclosed therein appear to render the mark of an involved application unregistrable, but the matter was not pleaded or tried by the express or implied consent of the parties pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(b), the party may request that the Board include, in its decision in the proceeding, a 37 CFR § 2.131 remand to the examining attorney. The request may be made in the party's brief on the case, at oral hearing, or by separate motion. An application under Section 66(a) of the Trademark Act may not be remanded under 37 CFR § 2.130 or 2.131.²⁷⁴

516 Motion to Divide Application or Registration

An application which is the subject of an inter partes proceeding before the Board may be physically divided into two or more separate applications upon motion granted by the Board, and payment of the required fee.²⁷⁵

For example, if an application that is the subject of an opposition includes multiple classes, not all of which have been opposed, the applicant may file a motion to divide out the unopposed classes. If applicant seeks to divide out an entire class or classes, a fee for dividing the application must be submitted for each new application to be created by the division.²⁷⁶

Similarly, if an application which is the subject of an opposition includes more than one item of goods, or more than one service, in a single class, and the opposition is not directed to all of the goods or services, the applicant may file a motion to divide out the unopposed goods or services. Applicant must submit both a fee for dividing the application, and an application filing fee, for each new application to be created by the division.²⁷⁷

In both cases, if the motion to divide is granted, the application file is forwarded to the ITU/Divisional Unit for processing of the division. After the applications have been divided, each new application created by the division will be forwarded to issue or, in the case of an intent to use application filed under Section 1(b) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(b), for issuance of a notice of allowance. The original application will be returned to the Board.

Any request to divide an application which is the subject of a Board inter partes proceeding will be construed by the Board as a motion to divide, and every other party to the proceeding will be allowed an opportunity to file a brief in opposition thereto.

A registration that is the subject of an inter partes proceeding before the Board may be divided into two or more separate registrations upon motion granted by the Board, and payment of the required fee, when ownership has changed with respect to some, but not all, of the goods and/or services.²⁷⁸

For further information concerning division of an application, see TMEP § 1110.

517 Motion to Strike Brief on Motion

Specific provision is made in the Trademark Rules of Practice for the filing of a brief in support of a motion, a brief in opposition to a motion, and a reply brief in further support of the motion. No further papers will be considered regarding the motion and any such papers may be returned to the filing party as being filed in violation of the rules.²⁷⁹

Subject to the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 11, a party is entitled to offer in its brief any argument it feels will be to its advantage. Accordingly, when a moving brief, an opposition brief, or a reply brief on a motion has been regularly filed, the Board generally will not strike the brief, or any portion thereof, upon motion by an adverse party that simply objects to the contents thereof. Rather, any objections which an adverse party may have to the contents of such a brief will be considered by the Board in its determination of the original motion, and any portions of the brief that are found by the Board to be improper will be disregarded.

However, if a brief in opposition to a motion, or a reply brief in support of the motion, is not timely filed, it may be stricken, or given no consideration, by the Board.

518 Motion for Reconsideration of Decision on Motion

37 CFR § 2.127(b) Any request for reconsideration or modification of an order or decision issued on a motion must be filed within one month from the date thereof. A brief in response must be filed within 15 days from the date of the service of the request.

A request for reconsideration or modification of an order or decision issued on a motion must be filed within one month from the date of the order or decision.²⁸⁰ Unless the Director, upon petition, waives the time requirement of 37 CFR § 2.127(b), the Board need not consider a request for reconsideration or modification filed more than one month from the date of the order or decision complained of.²⁸¹ Nor does the rule contemplate a second request for reconsideration of the same basic issue.²⁸² However, the Board may, on its own initiative, reconsider and modify one of its orders or decisions if it finds error therein, and the Board may also, in its discretion, consider an untimely request for reconsideration or modification.²⁸³

Any brief in response to a request for reconsideration or modification of an order or decision issued on a motion must be filed within 15 days from the date of service of the request (20 days if service of the request was made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier--see 37 CFR § 2.120(c)).²⁸⁴

When a party upon which a motion has been served fails to file a brief in response, and the Board grants the motion as conceded pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.127(a), the nonresponding party cannot use a request for reconsideration as a second opportunity to file a brief in opposition to the motion.²⁸⁵

Generally, the premise underlying a motion for reconsideration, modification or clarification under 37 CFR § 2.127(b) is that, based on the facts before it and the prevailing authorities, the Board erred in reaching the order or decision it issued. Such a motion may not properly be used to introduce additional evidence, nor should it be devoted simply to a reargument of the points presented in a brief on the original motion. Rather, the motion should be limited to a demonstration that based on the facts before it and the applicable law, the Board's ruling is in error and requires appropriate change.²⁸⁶

An interlocutory motion, request, or other matter which is not actually or potentially dispositive of a proceeding, may be acted upon by a single Board administrative trademark judge, or by a Board interlocutory attorney to whom authority so to act has been delegated.²⁸⁷ When a single Board administrative trademark judge, or a single duly authorized interlocutory attorney, has acted upon an interlocutory motion, request, or other matter not actually or potentially dispositive of the proceeding, and one or more of the parties is dissatisfied with the action, the dissatisfied party or parties may seek review thereof by requesting, under 37 CFR § 2.127(b), the same single Board judge, or the same single interlocutory attorney, to reconsider the action, and/or by filing a petition to the Director for review of the decision under 37 CFR § 2.146(e)(2) (see TBMP § 905). A request that the action of the single Board judge, or single interlocutory attorney, be reviewed by one or more (other) administrative trademark judges of the Board is improper and will be denied. However, at final hearing, the Board panel to which the case is assigned for decision may review an interlocutory ruling and reverse it, if appropriate.²⁸⁸

519 Motion for Leave to Serve Additional Interrogatories

37 CFR § 2.120(d)(1) The total number of written interrogatories which a party may serve upon another party pursuant to Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, in a proceeding, shall not exceed seventy-five, counting subparts, except that the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, in its discretion, may allow additional interrogatories upon motion therefor showing good cause, or upon stipulation of the parties. A motion for leave to serve additional interrogatories must be filed and granted prior to the service of the proposed additional interrogatories; and must be accompanied by a copy of the interrogatories, if any, which have already been served by the moving party, and by a copy of the interrogatories proposed to be served. ...

A motion under 37 CFR § 2.120(d)(1) for leave to serve additional interrogatories must be filed and granted prior to service of the proposed additional interrogatories; and must be accompanied both by a copy of any interrogatories which have already been served by the moving party, and by a copy of the interrogatories proposed to be served.²⁸⁹

Good cause for the service of additional interrogatories will generally be found only where it is shown that there is a legitimate need for further discovery by interrogatories.²⁹⁰ The mere fact that the additional interrogatories may be relevant and narrowly drawn to a single issue, or that they may be easy to answer, is insufficient, in and of itself, to show good cause for the service of additional interrogatories.²⁹¹

For further information concerning good cause for a motion to serve additional interrogatories, see TBMP § 405.03(c). For information concerning the interrogatory limit specified in 37 CFR § 2.120(d)(1), see TBMP § 405.03.

520 Motion to Take Foreign Deposition Orally

37 CFR § 2.120(c)(1) The discovery deposition of a natural person residing in a foreign country who is a party or who, at the time set for the taking of the deposition, is an officer, director, or managing agent of a party, or a person designated under Rule 30(b)(6) or Rule 31(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, shall, if taken in a foreign country, be taken in the manner prescribed by §2.124 unless the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, upon motion for good cause, orders or the parties stipulate, that the deposition be taken by oral examination.

37 CFR § 2.123(a)(2) A testimonial deposition taken in a foreign country shall be taken by deposition upon written questions as provided by §2.124, unless the Board, upon motion for good cause, orders that the deposition be taken by oral examination, or the parties so stipulate.

Ordinarily, the discovery deposition of a natural person who resides in a foreign country, and who is a party or who, at the time set for the taking of the deposition, is an officer, director, or managing agent of a party, or a person designated under Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) or 31(a)(3) to testify on behalf of a party, must, if taken in a foreign country, be taken upon written questions in the manner described in 37 CFR § 2.124.²⁹² Moreover, the Board will not order a natural person residing in a foreign country to come to the United States for the taking of his or her discovery deposition.²⁹³

However, the parties may stipulate, or the Board, upon motion for good cause, may order, that the discovery deposition, when taken in a foreign country, be taken by oral examination.²⁹⁴

Similarly, a testimony deposition taken in a foreign country must be taken by deposition upon written questions in the manner described in 37 CFR § 2.124, unless the Board, upon motion for good cause, orders, or the parties stipulate, that the deposition be taken by oral examination.²⁹⁵ In determining whether good cause exists for a motion to take a foreign deposition orally, the Board weighs the equities, including the advantages of an oral deposition and any financial

521 Motion to Quash Notice of Deposition

A party to an inter partes proceeding before the Board may file a motion, prior to the taking of a noticed discovery or testimony deposition, to quash the notice of deposition. Alternatively, in the case of a notice of discovery deposition and under appropriate circumstances, the party may file a motion for a protective order.²⁹⁷

A motion to quash may be filed on a variety of grounds. For example, a party may move to quash a notice of deposition on the ground that (1) the proposed deposition is untimely;²⁹⁸ or (2) constitutes harassment or is without proper basis;²⁹⁹ or (3) in the case of a discovery deposition to be taken in the United States, the deposition is not scheduled to be taken in the Federal judicial district where the proposed deponent resides or is regularly employed;³⁰⁰ or (4) in the case of a deposition to be taken in a foreign country, the deposition is scheduled to be taken orally in violation of 37 CFR § 2.120(c) or 2.123(a)(2);³⁰¹ or (5) that the deposing party has noticed depositions for more than one place at the same time, or so nearly at the same time that reasonable opportunity for travel from one place of examination to another is not available;³⁰² or

(6) that there was not due (i.e., reasonable) notice of the proposed deposition;³⁰³ or (7) that the taking of the deposition should be deferred until after determination of a certain motion pending before the Board, such as a motion for summary judgment; or (8) that the deposing party improperly seeks to force a foreign natural person to come to the United States for the taking of his or her deposition;³⁰⁴ or (9) that a testimony deposition scheduled to be taken upon written questions should be taken orally (usually, this motion is titled as a motion that a deposition be taken orally).³⁰⁵

However, the Board has no jurisdiction over nonparty depositions, or adverse witness depositions, taken by subpoena, and thus has no authority to quash such subpoenas.³⁰⁶

A motion to quash a notice of deposition should be filed promptly after the grounds therefor become known to the moving party. When time is of the essence, the moving party may telephone the Board attorney to whom the case is assigned and ask that the motion be resolved by telephone conference call.³⁰⁷ Telephone conference procedures are fully discussed in TBMP § 502.06(a).

In an inter partes proceeding before the Board, the place where documents and things are to be produced is governed by 37 CFR § 2.120(d)(2).³⁰⁸

Accordingly, upon motion, the Board, in its discretion, may make any appropriate order concerning the place and/or manner of production of documents and things. specified in the Board's suspension order. The filing of a motion to compel shall not toll the time for a party to respond to any outstanding discovery requests or to appear for any noticed discovery deposition.

In inter partes proceedings before the Board, a motion to compel discovery procedure is available in the event of a failure to provide discovery requested by means of discovery depositions, interrogatories, and requests for production of documents and things.³¹⁰

Alternatively, if a witness objects to, and refuses to answer (or answer adequately), a question propounded during a discovery deposition, the propounding party may obtain an immediate ruling on the propriety of the objection by applying, under 35 U.S.C. § 24, to the Federal district court in the jurisdiction where the deposition is being taken, for an order compelling answer.³¹¹

In accordance with 37 CFR § 2.120(e)(2), when a party files a motion to compel discovery, the Board will issue an order suspending the proceeding with respect to all matters not germane to the motion, and no party should file any paper which is not germane to the discovery dispute, except as otherwise specified in the Board's suspension order. However, neither the filing of a motion to compel nor the Board's resulting suspension order tolls the time for parties to respond to any outstanding discovery requests which had been served prior to the filing of the motion to compel, nor does it excuse a party's appearance at any discovery deposition which had been duly noticed prior to the filing of the motion to compel.³¹²

This rule, in conjunction with 37 CFR §§ 2.120(e)(1) and 2.120(h)(1) which provide, respectively, that a motion to compel must be filed prior to the commencement of the first testimony period as originally set or as reset and that the period between the end of the discovery period and the opening of the first testimony period is increased from thirty to sixty days, is designed to ensure that all discovery disputes are resolved prior to the commencement of trial.³¹³

The motion to compel procedure is not applicable to requests for admission. The procedure to be followed in the case of requests for admission is as set forth in 37 CFR § 2.120(h) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a).³¹⁴

For information concerning the effect of a party's failure to timely respond to interrogatories and document requests, see TBMP §§ 403.03 (regarding time for service of discovery responses), 405.04(a) (regarding time for service of interrogatory responses), and 406.04(a) (regarding time for service of responses to document requests), 523 (regarding motion to compel discovery) and 524 (regarding motion to test sufficiency of responses to admission requests).

523.02 Special Requirements for Motion

37 CFR § 2.120(e) Motion for an order to compel discovery.

(1) ... The motion shall include a copy of the request for designation or of the relevant portion of the discovery deposition; or a copy of the interrogatory with any answer or objection that was made; or a copy of the request for production, any proffer of production or objection to production in response to the request, and a list and brief description of the documents or things that were not produced for inspection and copying. The motion must be supported by a written statement from the moving party that such party or the attorney therefor has made a good faith effort, by conference or correspondence, to resolve with the other party or the attorney therefor the issues presented in the motion and has been unable to reach agreement. If issues raised in the motion are subsequently resolved by agreement of the parties, the moving party should inform the Board in writing of the issues in the motion which no longer require adjudication.

A motion to compel must include a copy of the request for discovery and the response thereto, as specified in 37 CFR § 2.120(e).³¹⁵

523.03 Time for Filing Motion

37 CFR § 2.120(e) Motion for an order to compel discovery.

(1) ... The motion must be filed prior to the commencement of the first testimony period as originally set or as reset. ...

A motion to compel does not necessarily have to be filed during the discovery period.³¹⁸ However, the motion should be filed within a reasonable time after the failure to respond to a request for discovery or after service of the response believed to be inadequate and must, in any event, be filed before the first testimony period opens.³¹⁹ Trial schedules include a 60-day period between the close of discovery and the opening of the first testimony period to allow time for the filing of any necessary discovery motions.

court may permit withdrawal or amendment when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the party who obtained the admission fails to satisfy the court that withdrawal or amendment will prejudice that party in maintaining the action or defense on the merits. Any admission made by a party under this rule is for the purpose of the pending action only and is not an admission for any other purpose nor may it be used against the party in any other proceeding.

Any matter admitted under Fed. R. Civ. The Board, upon motion, may permit withdrawal or amendment of an admission when the presentation of the merits of the proceeding will be subserved thereby, and the propounding party fails to satisfy the Board that withdrawal or amendment will prejudice said party in maintaining its action or defense on the merits.³³⁰ The timing of a motion to withdraw or amend an admission plays a significant role in the Board's determination of whether the propounding party will be prejudiced by withdrawal or amendment.³³¹ burden or expense, including one or more of the types of orders provided by clauses (1) through (8), inclusive, of Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the Board may, on such conditions (other than an award of expenses to the party prevailing on the motion) as are just, order that any party provide or permit discovery.

In inter partes proceedings before the Board, motions for a protective order are governed by 37 CFR § 2.120(f).

It is generally inappropriate for a party to respond to a request for discovery by filing a motion attacking it, such as a motion to strike, or a motion for a protective order. Rather, the party ordinarily should respond by providing the information sought in those portions of the request that it believes to be proper, and stating its objections to those which it believes to be improper.³³²

Moreover, if a party upon which interrogatories have been served believes that the number of interrogatories served exceeds the limitation specified in 37 CFR § 2.120(d)(1), and is not willing to waive this basis for objection, the party must, within the time for (and instead of) serving answers and specific objections to the interrogatories, or a motion for a protective order, serve a general objection on the ground of their excessive number, leaving the inquiring party with the burden of filing a motion to compel if it believes that the objection is not well taken.³³³

Nevertheless, there are certain situations (such as, for example, when a request for discovery constitutes clear harassment, or when a defendant upon which a request for discovery has been served is not and was not, at the time of the commencement of the proceeding, the real party in interest) in which a party may properly respond to a request for discovery by filing a motion for a protective order that the discovery not be had, or be had only on specified terms and conditions.³³⁴

Except in those situations, a motion for a protective order ordinarily should be filed in a Board proceeding only in response to a motion to compel where, for example, matter sought to be discovered assertedly constitutes trade secret or confidential information, or cannot be provided without undue burden or expense.³³⁵

When the Board grants a request for a protective order with respect to confidential or trade secret information, it may direct either the disclosing party, or the parties together, to prepare an order with terms that are mutually agreeable to them.³³⁶ Other alternatives involve accepting a protective agreement proffered by a party or ordering parties to adhere to Board's standard agreement.³³⁷ Parties are encouraged, however, to stipulate to a protective agreement governing the handling of confidential or trade secret information rather than filing a motion for a protective order.

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

If a party fails to comply with an order of the Board relating to discovery, including a protective order or an order compelling discovery, the Board may enter appropriate sanctions, as defined in 37 CFR § 2.120(g)(1).³³⁸ In the case of a protective order, the Board may enter these sanctions against a party if the party or any attorney, agent, or designated witness of the party fails to comply with the protective order.³³⁹

The sanctions which may be entered by the Board include, inter alia, striking all or part of the pleadings of the disobedient party; refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses; prohibiting the disobedient party from introducing designated matters in evidence; and entering judgment against the disobedient party.³⁴⁰ Default judgment is a harsh remedy, but may be justified where no less drastic remedy would be effective and there is a strong showing of willful evasion.³⁴¹ However, the Board will not hold any person in contempt, or award any expenses, including attorneys' fees, to any party.³⁴²

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

The motion for sanctions for failure to comply with an order of the Board lies only when the Board has entered an order relating to discovery (i.e., an order compelling discovery or a protective order) and the order has been violated.³⁴³

The motion for sanctions for failure to comply with an order of the Board relating to discovery does not apply in situations involving requests for admissions. Sanctions in those situations are governed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 36, except that the Board will not award any expenses to any party.³⁴⁴

For information concerning sanctions for failure to respond, or respond properly, to requests for admissions, see TBMP § 527.01(d).

527.01(b) If Party Says It Will Not Respond to Discovery Request

37 CFR § 2.120(g)(2) If a party, or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party, or a person designated under Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure to testify on behalf of a party, fails to attend the party's or person's discovery deposition, after being served with proper notice, or fails to provide any response to a set of interrogatories or to a set of requests for production of documents and things, and such party or the party's attorney or other authorized representative informs the party seeking discovery that no response will be made thereto, the Board may make any appropriate order, as specified in paragraph (g)(1) of this section.

The motion for sanctions under 37 CFR § 2.120(g)(2) is available only for discovery depositions, interrogatories, and requests for production of documents and things, and lies only where the responding party (1) has failed to respond, and (2) has informed the party seeking discovery that no response will be made.

The sanctions which may be entered by the Board include, inter alia, striking all or part of the pleadings of the disobedient party; refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses; prohibiting the disobedient party from introducing designated matters in evidence; and entering judgment against the disobedient party. However, the Board will not hold any person in contempt, or award any expenses, including attorneys' fees, to any party.³⁴⁵

The motion for sanctions under 37 CFR § 2.120(g)(2) does not apply in situations involving requests for admissions. For information concerning sanctions for failure to respond, or respond properly, to requests for admissions, see TBMP § 527.01(d).

527.01(c) Untimely Response to Discovery Requests

A party which fails to respond to a request for discovery (except for a request for admission) during the time allowed therefor, and which is unable to show that its failure was the result of excusable neglect, may be found, upon motion to compel filed by the propounding party, to have forfeited its right to object to the discovery request on its merits.³⁴⁶ Objections going to the merits of a discovery request include claims that the information sought by the request is irrelevant, overly broad, unduly vague and ambiguous, burdensome and oppressive, or not likely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.³⁴⁷ Objections based on claims of privilege or confidentiality or attorney work product do not go to the merits of the request, but instead to a characteristic of the information sought.³⁴⁸

³⁴⁵ See 37 CFR §§ 2.120(g)(1), (2), 2.127(f), and TBMP § 502.05.

³⁴⁶ See No Fear Inc. v. Rule, 54 USPQ2d 1551 (TTAB 2000) (stating that the Board has great discretion in determining whether such forfeiture should be found); Luehrmann v. Kwik Kopy Corp., 2 USPQ2d 1303 (TTAB 1987) (circumstances do not justify waiver of right to object in view of confusion regarding time to respond); Envirotech Corp. v. Arrow-M Corp., 203 USPQ 952, 954 (TTAB 1979) (even where there is complete failure to respond to discovery, party seeking such discovery is required to make good faith effort to determine why no response has been made before filing motion to compel); and Crane Co. v. Shimano Industrial Co., 184 USPQ 691 (TTAB 1975) (waived right to object by refusing to respond to interrogatories, claiming that they served "no useful purpose"). Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

527.01(d) In the Case of Requests for Admission

The entry of sanctions for failure to respond, or respond properly, to requests for admission is governed by 37 CFR § 2.120(h) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 36, except that the Board will not award expenses to any party.³⁴⁹

If a party upon which requests for admission have been served fails to file a timely response thereto, the requests will stand admitted (automatically), and may be relied upon by the propounding party pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.120(j)(3)(i), unless the party upon which the requests were served is able to show that its failure to timely respond was the result of excusable neglect; or unless a motion to withdraw or amend the admissions is filed pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(b), and granted by the Board. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b) and 36(a), and TBMP § 407.03(a). For information concerning motions to withdraw or amend admissions, see TBMP § 525.

If a party upon which requests for admission have been served responds by serving answers and/or objections thereto, and the propounding party believes that one or more of the answers and/or objections is insufficient, the propounding party may file a motion with the Board to determine the sufficiency of the answers and/or objections believed to be insufficient.³⁵⁰ If the Board determines that an answer does not comply with the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a), it may order either that the matter is deemed admitted or that an amended answer be served. If the Board determines that an objection is not justified, it will order that an answer be served.³⁵¹ For information concerning motions to determine the sufficiency of answers or objections to requests for admission, see TBMP § 524.

527.01(e) Estoppel Sanction

A party that responds to a request for discovery by indicating that it does not have the information sought, or by stating objections thereto, may be barred by its own action from later introducing the information sought in the request as part of its evidence on the case, providing that the propounding party raises the matter by objecting to the evidence in question on that ground, and preserves the objection in its brief on the case (it is not necessary that the objecting party file a motion asking for application of this sanction).³⁵²

527.02 Motion for Fed. R. Civ. P. 11 Sanctions

Fed. R. Civ. P. 11...(b) Representations to Court. By presenting to the court (whether by signing, filing, submitting, or later advocating) a pleading, written motion, or other paper, an attorney or unrepresented party is certifying that to the best of the person's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances, --

- (1) it is not being presented for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation;*
- (2) the claims, defenses, and other legal contentions therein are warranted by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law or the establishment of new law;*

(applicant's representations in objecting to interrogatories that facts other than those already litigated in prior proceedings were irrelevant and not discoverable gave rise to equitable estoppel preventing applicant from introducing testimony about those other facts); Super Valu Stores Inc. v. Exxon Corp., 11 USPQ2d 1539, 1543 (TTAB 1989) (party may not refuse to answer interrogatories by claiming confidentiality and then introduce responsive information during its trial period); Presto Products Inc. v. Nice-Pak Products Inc., 9 USPQ2d 1895, 1896 n.5 (TTAB 1988) (trademark search report not produced under attorney-client privilege, albeit rightfully withheld, still cannot be relied upon to support motion for summary judgment); *ConAgra Inc. v. Rivard, 41 USPQ2d 1731, 1733 (TTAB 1996) (no estoppel; where objections that discovery requests are, for example, ambiguous or burdensome, or are otherwise not of a nature which would lead propounding party to believe that the requested information does not exist, party should have filed motion to compel), aff'd, 133 F.3d 1446, 45 USPQ2d 1374 (Fed. Cir. 1994); Seligman & Latz, Inc. v. Bowater Communication Papers Inc., 13 USPQ2d 2040 (TTAB 1989) (in that party need not specify evidence it intends to present, failure to identify witness in response to interrogatory seeking identification of all witnesses who would testify at trial, did not preclude testimony of such witness).

- (4) the denials of factual contentions are warranted on the evidence or, if specifically so identified, are reasonably based on a lack of information or belief.*

(c) Sanctions. If, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to respond, the court determines that subdivision (b) has been violated, the court may, subject to the conditions stated below, impose an appropriate sanction upon the attorneys, law firms, or parties that have violated subdivision (b) or are responsible for the violation.

(1) How Initiated.

(A) By Motion. A motion for sanctions under this rule shall be made separately from other motions or requests and shall describe the specific conduct alleged to violate subdivision (b). It shall be served..., but shall not be filed with or presented to the court unless, within 21 days after service of the motion (or such other period as the court may prescribe), the challenged paper, claim, defense, contention, allegation, or denial is not withdrawn or appropriately corrected. ...

(B) On Court's Initiative. On its own initiative, the court may enter an order describing the specific conduct that appears to violate subdivision (b) and directing an attorney, law firm, or party to show cause why it has not violated subdivision (b) with respect thereto.

(2) Nature of Sanction; Limitations. A sanction imposed for violation of this rule shall be limited to what is sufficient to deter repetition of such conduct or comparable conduct by others similarly situated. Subject to the limitations in subparagraphs (A) and (B), the sanction may consist of, or include, directives of a nonmonetary nature,...

(3) Order. When imposing sanctions, the court shall describe the conduct determined to constitute a violation of this rule and explain the basis for the sanction imposed.

(d) Inapplicability to Discovery. Subdivisions (a) through (c) of this rule do not apply to ... discovery requests, responses, objections, and motions that are subject to the provisions of Rules 26 through 37.

37 CFR § 10.18 Signature and certificate for correspondence filed in the Patent and Trademark Office.

(a) For all documents filed in the Office in patent, trademark, and other non-patent matters, except for correspondence that is required to be signed by the applicant or party, each piece of correspondence filed by a practitioner in the Patent and Trademark Office must bear a signature, personally signed by such practitioner, in compliance with § 1.4(d)(1) of this chapter.

(b) By presenting to the Office (whether by signing, filing, submitting, or later advocating) any paper, the party presenting such paper, whether a practitioner or non-practitioner, is certifying that-

(1) All statements made therein of the party's own knowledge are true, all statements made therein on information and belief are believed to be true, and all statements made therein are made with the knowledge that whoever, in any matter within the jurisdiction of the Patent and Trademark Office, knowingly and willfully falsifies, conceals, or covers up by any trick, scheme, or device a material fact, or makes any false, fictitious or fraudulent statements or representations, or makes or uses any false writing or document knowing the same to contain any false, fictitious or fraudulent statement or entry, shall be subject to the penalties set forth under 18 U.S.C. 1001, and that violations of this paragraph may jeopardize the validity of the application or document, or the validity or enforceability of any patent, trademark registration, or certificate resulting therefrom; and

(2) To the best of the party's knowledge, information and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances, that-

(i) The paper is not being presented for any improper purpose, such as to harass someone or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of prosecution before the Office;

(ii) The claims and other legal contentions therein are warranted by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law or the establishment of new law;

(iii) The allegations and other factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery; and

(iv) The denials of factual contentions are warranted on the evidence, or if specifically so identified, are reasonably based on a lack of information or belief.

(c) Violations of paragraph (b)(1) of this section by a practitioner or non-practitioner may jeopardize the validity of the application or document, or the validity or enforceability of any patent, trademark registration, or certificate resulting therefrom. Violations of any of paragraphs (b)(2)(i) through (iv) of this section are, after notice and reasonable opportunity to respond, subject to such sanctions as deemed appropriate by the Commissioner [Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office], or the Commissioner's [Director's] designee, which may include, but are not limited to, any combination of-

(1) Holding certain facts to have been established;

(2) Returning papers;

(3) Precluding a party from filing a paper, or presenting or contesting an issue;

(4) Imposing a monetary sanction;

(5) Requiring a terminal disclaimer for the period of the delay; or

Chapter 500

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

(d) Any practitioner violating the provisions of this section may also be subject to disciplinary action. See §10.23(c)(15).

The quoted provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 11 are applicable to pleadings, motions, and other papers filed in inter partes proceedings before the Board.³⁵³ Thus, if a paper filed in an inter partes proceeding before the Board violates the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 11, any party to the proceeding may file a motion for the imposition of an appropriate sanction. The Board may find a Fed. R. Civ. P. 11 violation, and impose an appropriate sanction, not only upon motion, but also upon its own initiative, following issuance of an order to show cause and an opportunity for the party to be heard.³⁵⁴

Moreover, Rule 11 certification standards apply to parties as well as attorneys.³⁵⁵

While Fed. R. Civ. P. 11 provides, inter alia, for the imposition of monetary sanctions, the Board will not impose monetary sanctions, or award attorneys' fees or other expenses to any party.³⁵⁶ However, the Board may enter other appropriate sanctions, up to and including the entry of judgment, against a party that violates Fed. R. Civ. P. 11.³⁵⁷

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

A motion for sanctions under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(c) is governed by, and should not be filed in violation of, Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(b). If the Board finds that a motion for Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(c) sanctions itself violates the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(b), an appropriate Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(c) sanction may be entered against the party that filed the motion.

The provisions of 37 CFR § 10.18 largely pattern Federal Rule 11 and are also applicable to pleadings, motions, and other papers filed in inter partes proceedings before the Board. Any practitioner who knowingly violates the provisions of that rule is subject to disciplinary action.³⁵⁸

527.03 Inherent Authority to Sanction

Flowing from the Board's inherent authority to manage the cases on its docket is the inherent authority to enter sanctions against a party.³⁵⁹ The Board's exercise of this authority is clearly permitted in a variety of situations where the conduct in question does not fall within the reach of other sanctioning provisions of the rules.³⁶⁰

For example, when a party to an inter partes proceeding before the Board advises an adverse party that it will not take any further action in the case, the adverse party may file a motion asserting this fact and request entry of judgment in its favor. If, as is usually the case, the motion is uncontested, the Board normally will grant it.³⁶¹

Similarly, if a registrant (having been served by the Board with a copy of a petition to cancel its registration) or any other party to an inter partes proceeding before the Board, relocates, and fails to inform its attorney (if it is represented by an attorney) or the Board or any adverse party of its any other filing deemed frivolous would result in judgment). See also, Alan S. Cooper, The Application of Rule 11 Sanctions in Trademark Cases, supra.

For information concerning disciplinary proceedings, see 37 CFR §§ 10.130-10.170, and TBMP § 115.02 (Disciplinary Proceedings). In addition, conduct in violation of the Canons and Disciplinary Rules set forth in 37 CFR part 10 may be referred to the Office of Enrollment and Discipline for appropriate action. See 37 CFR §§ 10.18(d) and 10.20, et seq.

NASCO, Inc.*, 501 U.S. 32, 111 S.Ct. 2123, 115 L.Ed.2d 27, rehearing denied, 501 U.S. 1269, 112 S.Ct. 12, 115 L.Ed.2d 1097 (1991) (stating that this inherent power "stems from the very nature of courts and their need to be able to manage their own affairs so as to achieve the orderly and expeditious disposition of the cases").

³⁶⁰ See Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., supra (stating that "[i]f in the informed discretion of the court, neither the statute nor the Rules are up to the task, the court may safely rely on its inherent power.") and *Carrini Inc. v. STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS new address, with the result that the party cannot be found, and papers relating to the proceeding cannot be served upon it, any adverse party may file a motion asserting such fact and requesting entry of judgment in its own favor. Again, if the motion is uncontested, the Board normally will grant it. Alternatively, under these or similar circumstances indicating that a party is no longer interested in the case, the Board may, either upon motion by the adverse party or upon its own initiative, issue an order that the party show cause why the Board should not enter judgment in view of the party's apparent loss of interest in the case. If the party files no response to the order, judgment will normally be entered.

*Other circumstances involving the Board's inherent power to sanction are set forth in the cases cited in the note below.*³⁶²

528 Motion for Summary Judgment

Fed. R. Civ. P. 56. Summary Judgment

(a) For Claimant. A party seeking to recover upon a claim [or] counterclaim ... may ... move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in the party's favor upon all or any part thereof.

(b) For Defending Party. A party against whom a claim [or] counterclaim ... is asserted ... may ... move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in the party's favor as to all or any part thereof.

(c) Motion and Proceedings Thereon. ... The adverse party ... may serve opposing affidavits. The judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. ...

(d) Case Not Fully Adjudicated on Motion. If on motion under this rule judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial is necessary, the court ..., by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it ..., shall if practicable ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy and what material facts are actually and in good faith controverted. It shall thereupon make an order specifying the facts that appear without substantial controversy, ... and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. Upon the trial of the action the facts so specified shall be deemed established, and the trial shall be conducted accordingly.

(e) Form of Affidavits; Further Testimony; Defense Required. Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein. Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto or served therewith. The court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions, answers to interrogatories, or further affidavits. When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in this rule, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials of the adverse party's pleading, but the adverse party's response, by affidavits or as otherwise provided in this rule, must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial. If the adverse party does not so respond, summary judgment, if appropriate, shall be entered against the adverse party.

(f) When Affidavits are Unavailable. Should it appear from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that the party cannot for reasons stated present by affidavit facts essential to justify the party's opposition, the court may refuse the application for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.

528.01 General Nature of Motion

The motion for summary judgment is a pretrial device to dispose of cases in which "the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law."³⁶³

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

The purpose of the motion is judicial economy, that is, to avoid an unnecessary trial where there is no genuine issue of material fact and more evidence than is already available in connection with the summary judgment motion could not reasonably be expected to change the result in the case.³⁶⁴

The summary judgment procedure is regarded as "a salutary method of disposition," and the Board does not hesitate to dispose of cases on summary judgment when appropriate.³⁶⁵ A party moving for summary judgment has the burden of demonstrating the absence of any genuine issue of material fact, and that it is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.³⁶⁶ This burden is greater than the evidentiary burden at trial.³⁶⁷

The burden of the moving party may be met by showing (that is, pointing out) "that there is an absence of evidence to support the nonmoving party's case."³⁶⁸

If the moving party meets its burden, that is, if the moving party has supported its motion with affidavits or other evidence which if unopposed would establish its right to judgment, the nonmoving party may not rest on mere denials or conclusory assertions, but rather must proffer countering evidence, by affidavit or as otherwise provided in Fed. R. Civ. P. 56, showing that there is a genuine factual dispute for trial.³⁶⁹ A factual dispute is genuine if sufficient evidence is presented such that a reasonable fact finder could decide the question in favor of the non-moving party.³⁷⁰

In deciding a motion for summary judgment, the function of the Board is not to try issues of fact, but to determine instead if there are any genuine issues of material fact to be tried.³⁷¹ The non-moving party must be given the benefit of all reasonable doubt as to whether genuine issues of material fact exist; and the evidentiary record on summary judgment, and all inferences to be drawn from the undisputed facts, must be viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party.³⁷²

A fact is material if it "may affect the decision, whereby the finding of that fact is relevant and necessary to the proceedings."³⁷³ However, a dispute over a fact that would not alter the Board's decision on the legal issue will not prevent entry of summary judgment.³⁷⁴ Further, even a genuine dispute over a fact relating only to an issue that is not the subject of the summary judgment motion will not preclude determination of the motion.³⁷⁵

Where both parties have moved for summary judgment, the mere fact that they have done so does not necessarily mean that there are no genuine issues of material fact, or authorize the resolution of such issues, or dictate that judgment should be entered in favor of one of them.³⁷⁶

A party moving for summary judgment should specify, in its brief in support of the motion, the material facts that are undisputed. The nonmoving party, in turn, should specify, in its brief in opposition to the motion, the material facts that are in dispute.³⁷⁷

If the Board concludes that there is no genuine issue of material fact, but that the nonmoving party is the one entitled to judgment as a matter of law, the Board may enter summary judgment sua sponte in favor of the nonmoving party.³⁷⁸

Briefs in support of a motion for summary judgment and briefs in response are limited to 25 pages, and a reply brief shall not exceed 10 pages in length. Exhibits submitted in support of or in opposition to the motion are not deemed to be part of the brief for purposes of determining the length of the brief.³⁷⁹ A motion for summary judgment should be filed in single (not multiple) form.

528.02 Time for Filing Motion

37 CFR § 2.127(e)(1) A motion for summary judgment may not be filed until notification of the proceeding has been sent to the parties by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board. A motion for summary judgment, if filed, should be filed prior to the commencement of the first testimony period, as originally set or as reset, and the Board, in its discretion, may deny as untimely any motion for summary judgment filed thereafter. ...

A motion for summary judgment filed in an inter partes proceeding before the Board may not be filed until after the Board notifies the parties of the institution of the proceeding.³⁸⁰

Moreover, the motion for summary judgment should be filed before the opening of the first testimony period, as originally set or as reset. The motion for summary judgment is a pretrial device, intended to save the time and expense of a full trial when a party is able to demonstrate, prior to trial, that there is no genuine issue of material fact, and that it is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.³⁸¹ In inter partes proceedings before the Board, trial commences with the opening of the first testimony period.³⁸² Therefore, a motion for summary judgment should be filed prior to the opening of the first testimony period, as originally set or as reset, and the Board, in its discretion, may deny as untimely any summary judgment motion filed thereafter.³⁸³ If testimony periods are reset prior to the opening of the plaintiff's testimony period-in-chief, a motion for summary judgment filed before such testimony period commences is timely. Once the first testimony period commences, however, any summary judgment motion filed thereafter is untimely, even if technically filed prior to the opening of a rescheduled testimony period-in-chief for plaintiff, and/or even if no trial evidence has actually been adduced by the plaintiff.³⁸⁴

The Board will generally not consider a motion for summary judgment filed after the first testimony period commences unless (1) it involves a matter of res judicata (claim preclusion) or collateral estoppel (issue preclusion), (2) was submitted by agreement of the parties (prior to the taking of any testimony), or (3) was not opposed by the nonmoving party (at least on the basis of its untimeliness).³⁸⁵

When a motion for summary judgment is filed, a brief in response, or a motion under 56(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, must be filed within 30 days from the date of service of the motion. A reply brief, if any, must be filed within 15 days from the service date of the brief in response.³⁸⁶ The time for filing a responsive brief may be extended, but the time for filing a motion under Rule 56(f) in lieu thereof, will not be extended.³⁸⁷

528.03 Suspension Pending Determination of Motion

37 CFR § 2.127(d) When any party files a motion to dismiss, or a motion for judgment on the pleadings, or a motion for summary judgment, or any other motion which is potentially dispositive of a proceeding, the case will be suspended by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board with respect to all matters not germane to the motion and no party should file any paper which is not germane to the motion except as otherwise specified in the Board's suspension order. If the case is not disposed of as a result of the motion, proceedings will be resumed pursuant to an order of the Board when the motion is decided.

Chapter 500

When a party files a timely motion for summary judgment, the Board will suspend proceedings in the case with respect to all matters not germane to the motion³⁸⁸ (if the motion was untimely filed, the Board, in its discretion, may issue an immediate action denying the motion for that reason). The filing of a summary judgment motion does not, in and of itself, automatically suspend proceedings in a case; rather, proceedings are suspended when the Board issues an order to that effect.³⁸⁹ However, on a case-by-case basis, the Board may find that the filing of a motion for summary judgment provides a party with good cause for not complying with an otherwise outstanding obligation, for example, responding to discovery requests.³⁹⁰

Once the Board has suspended proceedings in a case pending the determination of a motion for summary judgment, no party should file any paper that is not germane to the motion.³⁹¹ Examples of papers which are or may be germane to a motion for summary judgment include a brief in opposition to the summary judgment motion, a motion for an extension of time in which to respond to the summary judgment motion, a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(f) for discovery needed to enable the nonmoving party to respond to the summary judgment motion, a cross-motion for summary judgment, and a motion for leave to amend a party's pleading.³⁹²

Extensions of time will not be granted for a motion under 56(f) for discovery or for the moving party to file a reply brief. The Board will consider no further papers beyond a reply brief in support of or in opposition to a motion for summary judgment.³⁹³

If the Board's determination of the summary judgment motion does not dispose of the case, the Board ordinarily will issue an order resuming proceedings.³⁹⁴

528.04 Miscalcaptioned Motion

If, on a motion captioned as a motion to dismiss (for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted), or a motion for judgment on the pleadings, matters outside the pleadings are submitted and not excluded by the Board, the motion will be treated as a motion for summary judgment under Fed. R. Civ. P. 56.³⁹⁵ Ordinarily, the parties to the proceeding will be notified that the motion to dismiss, or for judgment on the pleadings, is being treated as a motion for summary judgment, and they will be given a reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by Fed. R. Civ. P. 56.³⁹⁶ Such notice may be unnecessary, however, in those cases where the parties themselves clearly have treated a motion to dismiss, or a motion for judgment on the pleadings, as a motion for summary judgment, and the nonmoving party has responded to the motion on that basis.³⁹⁷

Tuxedo Monopoly, Inc.*, 225 USPQ 1222 (TTAB 1984) (motion to dismiss treated as one for summary judgment where matters outside the pleadings submitted and cross-motion for summary judgment filed in response).

Cf. Selva & Sons, Inc. v. Nina Footwear, Inc., 705 F.2d 1316, 217 USPQ 641 (Fed. Cir. 1983) (Board improperly treated motion to dismiss as a motion for summary judgment by rendering a decision on the merits without giving plaintiff notice it would treat the motion as such).

Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

Conversely, a motion for summary judgment without supporting evidence is the functional equivalent of a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, or of a motion for judgment on the pleadings.³⁹⁸

528.05 Summary Judgment Evidence

The types of evidence that may be submitted in support of, or in opposition to, a motion for summary judgment include "the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any."³⁹⁹

The evidentiary record upon summary judgment in an inter partes proceeding before the Board also includes, without action by any party, the file of any application or registration which is the subject of the proceeding as provided in 37 CFR § 2.122(b) and a copy of any registration pleaded and made of record by the plaintiff with its complaint, in the manner prescribed in 37 CFR § 2.122(d)(1). In addition, a party may make of record, for purposes of summary judgment, copies of other registrations; documents or things produced in response to a request for production; official records, if competent evidence and relevant to an issue; printed publications, such as books and periodicals, available to the general public in libraries or of general circulation among members of the public or that segment of the public which is relevant under an issue, if the publication is competent evidence and relevant to an issue; and testimony from other proceedings, so far as relevant and material.⁴⁰⁰ A party need not submit these materials under a notice of reliance in order to make them of record for purposes of a summary judgment motion. Rather, the materials may be submitted as attachments or exhibits to a party's brief on the motion.⁴⁰¹

In a Board proceeding, the only evidentiary materials likely to be already of record when a motion for summary judgment is filed are the pleadings; the file of any application or registration that is the subject matter of the proceeding; and any registration pleaded and made of record by the plaintiff with its complaint. Any other evidence, which a party wishes to have considered upon summary judgment, must be submitted in connection with the summary judgment motion.⁴⁰²

Evidence submitted in connection with a motion for summary judgment is ordinarily of record only for purposes of that motion. If the case goes to trial, the summary judgment evidence may not form part of the evidentiary record to be considered at final hearing unless it is properly introduced in evidence during the appropriate testimony period.⁴⁰³ However, the parties may stipulate that any or all of the summary judgment evidence be treated as properly of record for purposes of final decision.⁴⁰⁴ Moreover, the parties may, if they so desire, stipulate that the summary judgment motion and evidence be treated as the final record and briefs in the case.⁴⁰⁵

What follows, in TBMP §§ 528.05(b) through 528.05(f), is a more detailed discussion of some of the types of evidence that may be submitted in connection with a summary judgment motion.

528.05(b) Affidavits and Accompanying Exhibits

Affidavits may be submitted in support of, or in opposition to, a motion for summary judgment provided that they (1) are made on personal knowledge; (2) set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence; and (3) show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein. This is so even though affidavits are self-serving in nature, and even though there is no opportunity for cross-examination of the affiant. However, an adverse party may have an opportunity for direct examination of the affiant, if a Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(f) motion to take the discovery deposition of the affiant is made and granted - see TBMP § 528.06.⁴⁰⁶

The Board may permit affidavits submitted in connection with a summary judgment motion to be supplemented or opposed by depositions, answers to interrogatories, or further affidavits.⁴⁰⁷

Documents submitted with a summary judgment affidavit, but not identified therein, cannot be considered as exhibits to the affidavit.⁴⁰⁸ An affidavit that is not supported by documentary evidence may nevertheless be given consideration if the statements contained in the affidavit are clear and convincing in character, and uncontradicted.⁴⁰⁹ In lieu of an affidavit, a party may submit a declaration meeting the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.20.⁴¹⁰

528.05(c) Discovery Responses

37 CFR § 2.127(e)(2) For purposes of summary judgment only, a discovery deposition, or an answer to an interrogatory, or a document or thing produced in response to a request for production, or an admission to a request for admission, will be considered by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board if any party files, with the party's brief on the summary judgment motion, the deposition or any part thereof with any exhibit to the part that is filed, or a copy of the interrogatory and answer thereto with any exhibit made part of the answer, or a copy of the request for production and the documents or things produced in response thereto, or a copy of the request for admission and any exhibit thereto and the admission (or a statement that the party from which an admission was requested failed to respond thereto).

Cf. 37 CFR § 2.120(j), governing the use of discovery responses as trial evidence, and TBMP §§ 704.09-704.11.

528.05(d) Registrations

37 CFR § 2.122(d)(1) A registration of the opposer or petitioner pleaded in an opposition or petition to cancel will be received in evidence and made part of the record if the opposition or petition is accompanied by two copies (originals or photocopies) of the registration prepared and issued by the Patent and Trademark Office showing both the current status of and current title to the registration. ...

If a plaintiff's registration is pleaded and made of record pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.122(d)(1), the registration is of record for all purposes, including a summary judgment motion.

Alternatively, a plaintiff may make its pleaded registration of record, for purposes of summary judgment only, by filing such a status and title copy with its brief on the summary judgment motion.⁴¹¹ A registration owned by a defendant may be made of record, for purposes of summary judgment only, in the same manner.

A party may make a third-party registration of record, for purposes of summary judgment only, by filing a copy thereof with its brief on the summary judgment motion; the copy need not be a certified copy, nor need it be a status and title copy.⁴¹²

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

For purposes of summary judgment only, a copy of a trademark search report, made of record as an exhibit to an affidavit, or as part of a discovery response, submitted in opposition to a summary judgment motion, may be sufficient to raise a genuine issue of material fact as to the nature and extent of third-party use of a particular designation.⁴¹³

528.05(e) Printed Publications and Official Records

Printed publications, as described in 37 CFR § 2.122(e), include such materials as books and periodicals, available to the general public in libraries or of general circulation among members of the public or that segment of the public which is relevant under an issue in a proceeding.⁴¹⁴ The term "official records," as used in 37 CFR § 2.122(e), refers not to a party's company business records, but rather to the records of public offices or agencies, or records kept in the performance of duty by a public officer.⁴¹⁵

Materials which qualify as printed publications or official records under 37 CFR § 2.122(e) are considered essentially self-authenticating, that is, the nonoffering party is readily able to verify the authenticity of the proffered materials.⁴¹⁶ As such, these materials may be relied on for purposes of summary judgment without further evidence of authenticity.⁴¹⁷ A party may introduce evidence of this nature in connection with a summary judgment motion, if the evidence is competent and relevant, by: specifying the official record or printed publication (including, with respect to the printed publication, information sufficient to identify the source and date of the publication) and the pages to be read; indicating generally the relevance of the material being offered; and including a copy of the proffered material with the party's brief.⁴¹⁸

⁴¹³ See, e.g., Lloyd's Food Products Inc. v. Eli's Inc., 987 F.2d 766, 25 USPQ2d 2027, 2029 (Fed. Cir. 1993). See also, with respect to third-party applications, Interpayment Services Ltd. v. Docters & Thiede, 66 USPQ2d 1463 (TTAB 2003) (third-party applications which were published for opposition, submitted in response to motion for summary judgment, were considered by the Board, but failed to raise a genuine issue of material fact).

⁴¹⁷ See 37 CFR § 2.122(e) and Raccioppi v. Apogee Inc., supra at 1369.

Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

The material need not be submitted under a notice of reliance or in connection with the affidavit or declaration of a witness, and may simply be submitted as an attachment or exhibit to a party's supporting brief.

Internet evidence and other material that is not self-authenticating. The element of self-authentication cannot be presumed to be capable of being satisfied by information obtained and printed out from the Internet.⁴¹⁹ Internet postings are transitory in nature as they may be modified or deleted at any time without notice and thus are not "subject to the safeguard that the party against whom the evidence is offered is readily able to corroborate or refute the authenticity of what is proffered."⁴²⁰ For this reason, Internet printouts cannot be considered the equivalent of printouts from, for example, a NEXIS search where printouts are the electronic equivalents of the printed publications and permanent sources for the publications are identified.⁴²¹

Materials which do not fall within 37 CFR § 2.122(e), that is, materials which are not self-authenticating in nature, may nonetheless be admissible as evidence in connection with a summary judgment motion, if competent and relevant, provided they are properly authenticated by an affidavit or declaration pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(e).⁴²² Such materials, including printouts of articles or information obtained from the Internet may, on summary judgment, be introduced by the affidavit or declaration of a person who can clearly and properly authenticate and identify the materials, including identifying the nature, source and date of the materials.⁴²³

528.05(f) Testimony from Another Proceeding

37 CFR § 2.122(f) Testimony from other proceedings. By order of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, on motion, testimony taken in another proceeding, or testimony taken in a suit or action in a court, between the same parties or those in privity may be used in a proceeding, so far as relevant and material, subject, however, to the right of any adverse party to recall or demand the recall for examination or cross-examination of any witness whose prior testimony has been offered and to rebut the testimony.

Upon motion granted by the Board, testimony taken in another proceeding, or in a suit or action in a court, between the same parties or their privies, may be used in connection with a summary judgment motion in a pending Board proceeding, to the extent that the testimony is relevant and material. The use of such testimony, however, is subject "to the right of any adverse party to recall or demand the recall for examination or cross-examination of any witness whose prior testimony has been offered and to rebut the testimony."⁴²⁵ Any motion made to enter testimony from another proceeding should be accompanied by a copy of the testimony sought to be entered in the record together with clear arguments as to its relevance and materiality. Relevance and materiality frequently hinge upon the marks and goods or services involved in the two proceedings.⁴²⁶

When the Board allows testimony of this nature to be used in connection with a motion for summary judgment, the testimony (and any testimony taken upon recall of the same witness for examination or cross-examination, or in rebuttal thereof) is of record only for purposes of the motion for summary judgment; it will not be considered at final hearing if the case goes to trial, unless it is reintroduced, upon motion granted by the Board, during the appropriate trial period.⁴²⁷

528.06 Request for Discovery to Respond to Summary Judgment

Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(f) When Affidavits are Unavailable. Should it appear from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that the party cannot for reasons stated present by affidavit facts essential to justify the party's opposition, the court may refuse the application for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

37 CFR § 2.127(e)(1) ... A motion under Rule 56(f) of the Federal rules of civil Procedure, if filed in response to a motion for summary judgment, shall be filed within 30 days from the date of service of the summary judgment motion. The time for filing a motion under rule 56(f) will not be extended. ...

A party that believes that it cannot effectively oppose a motion for summary judgment without first taking discovery may file a request with the Board for time to take the needed discovery. The request must be supported by an affidavit showing that the nonmoving party cannot, for reasons stated therein, present by affidavit facts essential to justify its opposition to the motion.⁴²⁸

It is not sufficient that a nonmoving party simply state in an affidavit supporting its motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(f) that it needs discovery in order to respond to the motion for summary judgment; rather, the party must state therein the reasons why it is unable, without discovery, to present by affidavit facts sufficient to show the existence of a genuine issue of material fact for trial.⁴²⁹ If a party has demonstrated a need for discovery that is reasonably directed to obtaining facts essential to its opposition to the motion, discovery will be permitted, especially if the information sought is largely within the control of the party moving for summary judgment.⁴³⁰

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

The motion should set forth with specificity the areas of inquiry needed to obtain the information necessary to enable party to respond to the motion for summary judgment.⁴³¹

In lieu of an affidavit, a party may submit a declaration meeting the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.20.⁴³²

When a request for discovery under Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(f) is granted by the Board, the discovery allowed is limited to that which the nonmoving party must have in order to oppose the motion for summary judgment; this is so even if the nonmoving party had, at the time when the summary judgment motion was filed, requests for discovery outstanding, and those requests remain unanswered.⁴³³

A request for Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(f) discovery, if filed, must be filed within 30 days of the date of service of the summary judgment motion.⁴³⁴ No extensions of time will be granted to file a motion under Rule 56(f). The affidavit in support of the request may be signed either by the requesting party or by its counsel, as appropriate.⁴³⁵

A request for 56(f) discovery should be clearly made, and certainly not buried somewhere in a responsive brief or other paper, and should not be filed as a "throw away" alternative accompanying a response to the motion for summary judgment on the merits.⁴³⁶ Moreover, if a party's request for discovery under Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(f) is granted by the Board, and the party thereafter files a response to the summary judgment without taking the requested discovery, the filing of the Rule 56(f) motion may be viewed as sanctionable conduct under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11.⁴³⁷

528.07 Unpleaded Issue

528.07(a) Not Basis for Entering Summary Judgment

A party may not obtain summary judgment on an issue that has not been pleaded.⁴³⁸ Moreover, at the summary judgment stage of a proceeding before the Board, there has not yet been a trial of any issue, whether pleaded or unpleaded, and therefore the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(b) for an amendment to conform the pleadings to the evidence cannot have been met.⁴³⁹

Generally, a party that seeks summary judgment on an unpleaded issue may move to amend its pleading to assert the matter.⁴⁴⁰ Alternatively, if the parties, in briefing summary judgment motion, have treated an unpleaded issue on its merits, and the nonmoving party has not objected to the motion on the ground that it is based on an unpleaded issue, the Board may deem the pleadings to have been amended, by agreement

528.07(b) Not Defense Against Summary Judgment

A party may not defend against a motion for summary judgment by asserting the existence of genuine issues of material fact as to an unpleaded claim or defense.⁴⁴³

However, a party which seeks to defend against a motion for summary judgment by asserting the existence of genuine issues of material fact regarding an unpleaded claim or defense, may move to amend its pleading to allege the matter.⁴⁴⁴ Alternatively, if a party seeks to defend against a motion for summary judgment by asserting the existence of genuine issues of material fact regarding an unpleaded claim or defense, and the party moving for summary judgment treats the unpleaded matter on its merits, and does not object thereto on the ground that the matter is unpleaded, the Board may deem the pleadings to have been amended, by agreement of the parties, to allege the matter.⁴⁴⁵ However, an opposition against a 66a) application may not be amended (or deemed amended) to assert a new ground for opposition.⁴⁴⁶

528.08 Entry of Summary Judgment in Favor of Nonmoving Party

If the Board concludes, upon motion for summary judgment, that there is no genuine issue of material fact, but that it is the nonmoving party, rather than the moving party, which is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, the Board may, in appropriate cases, enter summary judgment sua sponte in favor of the nonmoving party (that is, enter summary judgment in favor of the nonmoving party even though there is no cross-motion for summary judgment).⁴⁴⁷

529 Motion to Offer Discovery Deposition of Self or Nonparty

37 CFR § 2.120(j) Use of discovery deposition, ... (1) The discovery deposition of a party or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director or managing agent of a party, or a person designated by a party pursuant to Rule 30(b)(6) or Rule 31(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, may be offered in evidence by an adverse party.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (j)(1) of this section, the discovery deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, shall not be offered in evidence unless the person whose deposition was taken is, during the testimony period of the party offering the deposition, dead; or out of the United States (unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition); or unable to testify because of age, illness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or cannot be served with a subpoena to compel attendance at a testimonial deposition; or there is a stipulation by the parties; or upon a showing that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice, to allow the deposition to be used. The use of a discovery deposition by any party under this paragraph will be allowed only by stipulation of the parties approved by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or by order of the Board on motion, which shall be filed at the time of the purported offer of the deposition in evidence, unless the motion is based upon a claim that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice, to allow the deposition to be used, in which case the motion shall be filed promptly after the circumstances claimed to justify use of the deposition became known.

Ordinarily, the discovery deposition of a party (or of anyone who, at the time of taking the deposition, was an officer, director, or managing agent of a party, or a person designated by a party pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) or Fed. R. Civ. P. 31(a)(3)) may be offered in evidence

⁴⁴⁷ See, for example, Accu Personnel Inc. v. Accustaff Inc., 38 USPQ2d 1443, 1446 (TTAB 1996) (nonmovant entitled to summary judgment where question was one of law); The Clorox Company v. Chemical Bank, 40 USPQ2d 1098 (TTAB 1996) (effect of assigning ITU application if statutory exception is not met is one of law and could be decided in nonmovant's favor); Tonka Corp. v. Tonka Tools, Inc., 229 USPQ 857 (TTAB 1986) (granted to nonmovant as to its standing); *Crocker National Bank v. only by an adverse party; a party may not, in the first instance, offer in evidence a discovery deposition taken of itself (or of its officer, director, managing agent, etc.) by an adverse party, except by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or by order of the Board on motion. Similarly, no party may offer into evidence the discovery deposition of a nonparty witness, except by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or by order of the Board on motion.⁴⁴⁸

A motion for leave to offer in evidence a discovery deposition taken by an adverse party of the moving party itself (or of an officer, director, managing agent, etc., of the moving party), or the discovery deposition of a nonparty witness, must show that:

- (1) The person whose deposition was taken is, during the testimony period of the party offering the deposition, dead; or out of the United States (unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition); or unable to testify because of age, illness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or cannot be served with a subpoena to compel attendance at a testimonial deposition; or
- (2) Such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice, to allow the deposition to be used.⁴⁴⁹

A motion based on one of the first grounds listed above must be filed at the time of the purported offer of the deposition in evidence. A motion based on the second ground must be filed promptly after the circumstances claimed to justify use of the deposition become known.⁴⁵⁰

⁴⁴⁹ See Hilson Research Inc. v. Society for Human Resource Management, 27 USPQ2d 1423, 1426 (TTAB 1993) (opposer established that one third-party witness was out of the country during its testimony period but failed to establish that another witness was either a "party" as contemplated by Trademark Rule 2.120(j)(1), at the time of deposition or the existence of exceptional circumstances). STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS far as relevant and material, subject, however, to the right of any adverse party to recall or demand the recall for examination or cross-examination of any witness whose prior testimony has been offered and to rebut the testimony.

The use, in an inter partes proceeding before the Board, of testimony taken in another Board proceeding, or testimony taken in a suit or action in a court, is governed by 37 CFR § 2.122(f).⁴⁵¹

A party may seek, by motion, to use testimony from another proceeding, either as evidence in its behalf upon summary judgment or as part of its evidence on the case.⁴⁵² The Board prefers that a motion for leave to use testimony from another proceeding as evidence on the case be filed during the testimony period of the moving party.⁴⁵³ The better practice is to file the motion early in the testimony period, in order to minimize the resulting delay in the proceeding. If the motion is made without the consent of every adverse party, and the moving party believes that it will need additional time to present evidence if the motion is denied, the moving party should file with its motion under 37 CFR § 2.122(f) a motion to extend its testimony period.

However, 37 CFR § 2.122(f) does not require that a motion for leave to use testimony from another proceeding be filed during the testimony period of the moving party, and it is not unreasonable for a party to want to ascertain, prior to the opening of its testimony period, whether it will be allowed to rely on such testimony. Thus, a motion under 37 CFR § 2.122(f) filed prior to the opening of the moving party's testimony period will not be denied as untimely.⁴⁵⁴

A motion for leave to use testimony from another proceeding should be accompanied by a copy of the testimony, and accompanying exhibits, sought to be introduced. A copy of the motion, testimony, and accompanying exhibits should be served on every other party to the proceeding.⁴⁵⁵

The Board has construed the term "testimony," as used in 37 CFR § 2.122(f), as meaning only trial testimony,⁴⁵⁶ or a discovery deposition which was used, by agreement of the parties, as trial testimony in the other proceeding.

531 Motion That Deposition Upon Written Questions Be Taken Orally

37 CFR § 2.123(a)(1) The testimony of witnesses in inter partes cases may be taken by depositions upon oral examination as provided by this section or by depositions upon written questions as provided by §2.124. If a party serves notice of the taking of a testimonial deposition upon written questions of a witness who is, or will be at the time of the deposition, present within the United States or any territory which is under the control and jurisdiction of the United States, any adverse party may, within fifteen days from the date of service of the notice, file a motion with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, for good cause, for an order that the deposition be taken by oral examination.

A party served with notice of the taking, by an adverse party, of a testimonial deposition upon written questions of a witness who is, or will be at the time of the deposition, present within the United States or any territory which is under the control and jurisdiction of the United States, may, within 15 days from the date of service of the notice (20 days if service of the notice was made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier--see 37 CFR § 2.119(c)), file a motion with the Board, showing good cause, for an order that the deposition be taken by oral examination.⁴⁵⁷

The Board on a case-by-case basis, depending upon the particular facts and circumstances in each case, makes the determination of whether good cause exists for a motion that a testimonial deposition upon written questions instead be taken by oral examination.⁴⁵⁸

532 Motion to Strike Notice of Reliance

During its testimony period, a party may make certain specified types of evidence of record by filing a notice of reliance thereon, accompanied by the evidence being offered. For a discussion of the introduction of evidence see TBMP § 700. Trademark Rule 2.120(j), 37 CFR § 2.120(j), provides for the introduction, by notice of reliance, of a discovery deposition, answer to interrogatory, or admission; but specifically states that documents obtained by production under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 may not be made of record by notice of reliance alone, except to the extent that they are admissible by notice of reliance under the provisions of 37 CFR § 2.122(e). Trademark Rule 2.122(d)(2), 37 CFR § 2.122(d)(2), provides for the introduction, by notice of reliance, of a registration owned by a party to a proceeding. Trademark Rule 2.122(e), 37 CFR § 2.122(e), provides for the introduction, by notice of reliance, of certain specified types of printed publications and official records.⁴⁵⁹

When a notice of reliance under any of the aforementioned rules is filed after the close of the offering party's testimony period, an adverse party may file a motion to strike the notice of reliance (and, thus, the evidence submitted thereunder), in its entirety, as untimely.⁴⁶⁰

An adverse party may also move to strike a notice of reliance, in whole or in part, on the ground that the notice of reliance does not comply with the procedural requirements of the particular rule under which it was submitted. For example, a party may move to strike a Trademark Rule 2.122(e) notice of reliance on a printed publication, on the ground that it does not include a copy of the printed publication, or does not indicate the general relevance thereof,⁴⁶¹ or that the proffered materials are not appropriate for introduction by notice of reliance.⁴⁶² If, upon motion to strike a notice of reliance on the ground that it does not meet the procedural requirements of the rule under which it was filed, the Board finds that the notice is defective, but that the defect is curable, the Board may allow the party which filed the notice of reliance time within which to cure the defect, failing which the notice will stand stricken.⁴⁶³

⁴⁵⁹ See also TBMP §§ 704.03(b) (Applications and Registrations - Not Subject of Proceeding), and 704.07-704.11.

⁴⁶⁰ See TBMP § 707.02(c), and cases cited therein.

⁴⁶¹ See TBMP § 707.02(b)(2), and cases cited therein.

⁴⁶² See TBMP § 707.02(b)(2) (regarding objections to notices of reliance on procedural grounds) and, for example, Boyds Collection Ltd. v. Herrington & Co., 65 USPQ2d 2017, 2019-20 (TTAB 2003) (whether plaintiff's price sheets and catalogs constitute proper subject matter for a notice of reliance is not a substantive issue and may be determined from the face of the notice of reliance).

⁴⁶³ See M-Tek Inc. v. CVP Systems Inc., 17 USPQ2d 1070 (TTAB 1990) (allowed 20 days to correct deficiencies) and Heaton Enterprises of Nevada Inc. v. Lang, 7 USPQ2d 1842, 1844 n.6 (TTAB 1988) (where registrant was given leave to amend notice of reliance to correct deficiencies but failed to do so, documents remained stricken).

Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

Objections to a notice of reliance on substantive grounds, such as objections on the grounds that evidence offered under a notice of reliance constitutes hearsay or improper rebuttal, or is incompetent, irrelevant, or immaterial, normally need not and should not be raised by motion to strike. Rather, such objections should be raised in the objecting party's brief on the case, unless the ground for objection is one that could have been cured if raised promptly by motion to strike.⁴⁶⁴

It is the policy of the Board not to read trial testimony or examine other trial evidence prior to final decision.⁴⁶⁵ Thus, if a motion to strike cannot be resolved simply by reviewing the face of the notice of reliance (and attached documents), but instead would require a review of testimony or other evidence, determination of the motion will be deferred by the Board until final hearing.⁴⁶⁶

Evidence timely and properly introduced by notice of reliance under the applicable trademark rules generally will not be stricken, but the Board will consider any objections thereto in its evaluation of the probative value of the evidence at final hearing.⁴⁶⁷

533 Motion to Strike Trial Testimony Deposition

533.01 On Ground of Untimeliness

37 CFR § 2.121(a)(1) The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board will issue a trial order assigning to each party the time for taking testimony. No testimony shall be taken except during the times assigned, unless by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or, upon motion, by order of the Board. ...

A party may not take testimony outside of its assigned testimony period, except by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or upon motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board.⁴⁶⁸

When there is no such approved stipulation, granted motion, or Board order, and a testimony deposition is taken after the close of the deposing party's testimony period, an adverse party may

533.02 On Ground of Improper or Inadequate Notice

37 CFR § 2.123(c) Notice of examination of witnesses. Before the depositions of witnesses shall be taken by a party, due notice in writing shall be given to the opposing party or parties, as provided in §2.119(b), of the time when and place where the depositions will be taken, of the cause or matter in which they are to be used, and the name and address of each witness to be examined; if the name of a witness is not known, a general description sufficient to identify the witness or the particular class or group to which the witness belongs, together with a satisfactory explanation, may be given instead. ...

37 CFR § 2.123(e)(3) Every adverse party shall have full opportunity to cross-examine each witness. If the notice of examination of witnesses which is served pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section is improper or inadequate with respect to any witness, an adverse party may cross-examine that witness under protest while reserving the right to object to the receipt of the testimony in evidence. Promptly after the testimony is completed, the adverse party, if he wishes to preserve the objection, shall move to strike the testimony from the record, which motion will be decided on the basis of all the relevant circumstances. A motion to strike the testimony of a witness for lack of proper or adequate notice of examination must request the exclusion of the entire testimony of that witness and not only a part of that testimony.

If the notice of examination of witnesses served by a party is improper or inadequate with respect to any witness, such as, does not give due (i.e., reasonable) notice, or does not identify a witness whose deposition is to be taken, an adverse party may cross-examine the witness under protest while reserving the right to object to the receipt of the testimony in evidence. However, promptly after the deposition is completed, the adverse party, if it wishes to preserve the objection, must move to strike the testimony from the record.⁴⁷¹

Strictly of Counsel Chartered*, 21 USPQ2d 1555 (TTAB 1991) (where applicant first raised an untimeliness objection in its brief on the case, objection held waived, since the premature taking of testimony deposition two days prior to opening of testimony period could have been corrected upon seasonable objection).

Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

A motion to strike a testimony deposition for improper or inadequate notice must request the exclusion of the entire deposition, not just a part thereof. The motion will be decided on the basis of all the relevant circumstances.⁴⁷²

533.03 When Motion to Strike Should Not Be Filed

Objections to testimony depositions on grounds other than the ground of untimeliness, or the ground of improper or inadequate notice, generally should not be raised by motion to strike. Rather, the objections should simply be made in writing at the time specified in the applicable rules, or orally "on the record" at the taking of the deposition, as appropriate.⁴⁷³

37 CFR § 2.132 Involuntary dismissal for failure to take testimony.

The party in the position of plaintiff shall have fifteen days from the date of service of the motion to show cause why judgment should not be rendered against him. In the absence of a showing of good and sufficient cause, judgment may be rendered against the party in the position of plaintiff. If the motion is denied, testimony periods will be reset for the party in the position of defendant and for rebuttal.

waiving the right to offer evidence in the event the motion is denied, move for dismissal on the ground that upon the law and the facts the party in the position of plaintiff has shown no right to relief. The party in the position of plaintiff shall have fifteen days from the date of service of the motion to file a brief in response to the motion. The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board may render judgment against the party in the position of plaintiff, or the Board may decline to render judgment until all of the evidence is in the record. If judgment is not rendered, testimony periods will be reset for the party in the position of defendant and for rebuttal.

(c) A motion filed under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section must be filed before the opening of the testimony period of the moving party, except that the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board may in its discretion grant a motion under paragraph (a) even if the motion was filed after the opening of the testimony period of the moving party.

The Trademark Rules of Practice permit the filing of a motion for judgment directed to the sufficiency of a plaintiff's trial evidence in two particular situations, described in 37 CFR §§ 2.132(a) and 2.132(b). Only in these two situations will the Board entertain such a motion.⁴⁷⁴

534.02 Motion for Judgment under Trademark Rule 2.132(a)

The first situation in which a defendant may appropriately file a motion for judgment directed to the sufficiency of a plaintiff's trial evidence, is when the plaintiff's testimony period has passed, and the plaintiff has not taken testimony or offered any other evidence. In such a situation, the defendant may, without waiving its right to offer evidence in the event the motion is denied, move for dismissal for failure of the plaintiff to prosecute.⁴⁷⁵ A motion for judgment under 37 CFR § 2.132(a) should be filed before the opening of the moving party's testimony period, but the Board may, in its discretion, grant the motion even if it was filed thereafter.⁴⁷⁶

Chapter 500

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

When a motion for judgment under 37 CFR § 2.132(a) has been filed by a defendant, the plaintiff has 15 days from the date of service of the motion (20 days, if service of the motion was made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier--see 37 CFR § 2.119(c)) in which to respond and show cause why judgment should not be rendered against it. In the absence of a showing of good and sufficient cause, judgment may be rendered against the plaintiff.⁴⁷⁷

The "good and sufficient cause" standard, in the context of this rule, is equivalent to the "excusable neglect" standard that would have to be met by any motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b) to reopen the plaintiff's testimony period.⁴⁷⁸

For examples of cases involving the question of whether good and sufficient cause has been shown for a plaintiff's failure to offer any evidence, see note below.⁴⁷⁹ For a complete discussion

⁴⁷⁷ See 37 CFR § 2.132(a). See also Hewlett-Packard Co. v. Olympus Corp., supra at 1713 ("While it is true that the law favors judgments on the merits wherever possible, it is also true that the Patent and Trademark Office is justified in enforcing its procedural deadlines") and PolyJohn Enterprises Corp. v. 1-800-Toilets Inc., 61 USPQ2d 1860, 1862 (TTAB 2002) (Board is justified in enforcing procedural deadlines). Cf. Litton Business Systems, Inc. v. JG Furniture Co., 188 USPQ 509, 512 (TTAB 1976) (although no testimony or other evidence was introduced, answer to complaint contained certain admissions which arguably preserved enough of an issue to proceed to final hearing).

Associated Distributors Inc.*, 12 USPQ2d 1649 (TTAB 1989) (showing of good and sufficient cause is equivalent of excusable neglect because it requires the reopening of the testimony period to introduce the evidence).

⁴⁷⁹ Old Nutfield Brewing Company, Ltd. v. Hudson Valley Brewing Company, Inc., 65 USPQ2d 1701 (TTAB 2002) (excusable neglect not found where opposer waited four months after close of testimony period to file motion to reopen and where reason for delay was based on, inter alia, opposer's asserted failure to receive answer to opposition); HKG Industries Inc. v. Perma-Pipe Inc., supra (plaintiff provided no factual details as to the date of counsel's death in relation to plaintiff's testimony period or as to why other lawyers in deceased counsel's firm could not have assumed responsibility for the case); PolyJohn Enterprises Corp. v. 1-800-Toilets Inc., supra (excusable neglect not found where motion to reopen was filed nearly one month after close of testimony period and was based on mistaken belief that extension of time to respond to discovery extended testimony period and on fact that petitioner was gathering information to respond to discovery); Jain v. Ramparts, 49 USPQ2d, 1429, 1431 (TTAB 1998) (pendency of plaintiff's motion to compel and to extend trial dates after ruling on such motion sufficient cause for failure to try case); and Atlanta-Fulton County Zoo Inc. v. De Palma, 45 USPQ2d 1858 (TTAB 1998) (mere existence of settlement negotiations insufficient).

Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

The fact that a defendant may have previously sought judgment under 37 CFR § 2.132(b) does not preclude it from thereafter seeking judgment under 37 CFR § 2.132(a).⁴⁸⁴

534.03 Motion for Judgment Under Trademark Rule 2.132(b)

The second situation in which a defendant may appropriately file a motion for judgment directed to the sufficiency of a plaintiff's trial evidence is when the plaintiff's testimony period has passed, and the plaintiff has offered no evidence other than a copy or copies of PTO records. In such a situation, the defendant may, without waiving its right to offer evidence in the event the motion is denied, move for dismissal on the ground that upon the law and the facts the plaintiff has shown no right to relief.⁴⁸⁵ A motion for judgment under 37 CFR § 2.132(b) must be filed before the opening of the moving party's testimony period.⁴⁸⁶

When a motion for judgment under 37 CFR § 2.132(b) has been filed by a defendant, the plaintiff has 15 days from the date of service of the motion (20 days, if service of the motion was made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier--see 37 CFR § 2.119(c)) to file a brief in response.⁴⁸⁷

In determining a motion under 37 CFR § 2.132(b), the Board may either render judgment against the plaintiff, or decline to render judgment until all of the evidence is in the record.⁴⁸⁸

If a timely motion under 37 CFR § 2.132(b) is denied, testimony periods will be reset for the defendant and for rebuttal.⁴⁸⁹

The purpose of the motion under 37 CFR § 2.132(b) is to save the defendant the expense and delay of continuing with the trial in those cases where plaintiff, during its testimony period, has offered no evidence other than copies of USPTO records, and those records do not make out a prima facie case.⁴⁹⁰ However, the defendant is under no obligation to file such a motion; the motion is optional, not mandatory.⁴⁹¹

The fact that a defendant may have previously sought judgment under 37 CFR § 2.132(a) does not preclude it from thereafter seeking judgment under 37 CFR § 2.132(b).⁴⁹²

534.04 Motion Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b) or 50(a) Not Available

Trial testimony, in Board inter partes proceedings, is taken out of the presence of the Board, and it is the policy of the Board not to read trial testimony, or examine other trial evidence, prior to its final deliberations in the proceeding.⁴⁹³

Accordingly, the only means available for testing the sufficiency of trial evidence in an inter partes proceeding before the Board are the motions described in 37 CFR §§ 2.132(a) and 2.132(b).⁴⁹⁴ The motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b) for involuntary dismissal, and the motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 50(a) for a directed verdict, are not available in Board proceedings.⁴⁹⁵

535 Motion for Order to Show Cause Under Trademark Rule 2.134(b)

37 CFR § 2.134(b) After the commencement of a cancellation proceeding, if it comes to the attention of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board that the respondent has permitted his involved registration to be cancelled under § 8 of the Act of 1946 or has failed to renew his involved registration under § 9 of the Act of 1946, an order may be issued allowing respondent until a set time, not less than fifteen days, in which to show cause why such cancellation or failure to renew should not be deemed to be the equivalent of a cancellation by request of respondent without the consent of the adverse party and should not result in entry of judgment against respondent as provided by paragraph (a) of this section. In the absence of a showing of good and sufficient cause, judgment may be entered against respondent as provided by paragraph (a) of this section.

⁴⁹⁰ See, for example, Syntex (U.S.A.) Inc. v. E.R. Squibb & Sons Inc., 14 USPQ2d 1879, 1880 (TTAB 1990) (marks not identical and the relationship, if any, between the parties' goods not apparent from the face of pleaded registration); Newhoff Blumberg Inc. v. Romper Room Enterprises, Inc., supra (2.132(b) requires decision on merits of the case); and Litton Business Systems, Inc. v. J. G. Furniture Co., Inc., 190 USPQ 431, 434 (TTAB 1976) (Board will not use judicial notice to remedy plaintiff's failure to present adequate evidence).

It is generally the responsibility of a petitioner for cancellation to keep track of the status of the respondent's subject registration, and to file a motion for an order to show cause under 37 CFR § 2.134(b) if such registration is cancelled under Section 8 or 9 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1058 or 1059, after the commencement of the proceeding. However, if the cancellation of the registration under Section 8 or 9 of the Act comes to the attention of the Board in another manner, the Board may issue an order to show cause upon its own initiative.

The purpose of 37 CFR § 2.134(b) is to prevent a cancellation proceeding respondent from being able to moot the proceeding and avoid judgment by deliberately failing to file a required affidavit of use under Section 8 or renewal application under Section 9.⁴⁹⁶

In those cases where the Board finds that respondent has not acted deliberately to avoid judgment and thereby has shown good and sufficient cause why judgment should not be entered against it under 37 CFR § 2.134(b), petitioner will be given time in which to elect whether it wishes to go forward with the cancellation proceeding, or to have the cancellation proceeding dismissed without prejudice as moot. In those cases where the Board enters judgment against the respondent only and specifically on the ground of abandonment, petitioner will be given time in which to elect whether it wishes to go forward to obtain a determination of the remaining issues, or to have the cancellation proceeding dismissed without prejudice as to those issues.⁴⁹⁷

For further information concerning orders to show cause under 37 CFR § 2.134(b), and related orders to show cause in the case of 66(a) applications or registrations, see TBMP §§ 602.01 and 602.02(b).

536 Motion for Order to Show Cause Under Trademark Rule 2.128(a)(3)

37 CFR § 2.128(a)(3) When a party in the position of plaintiff fails to file a main brief, an order may be issued allowing plaintiff until a set time, not less than fifteen days, in which to show cause why the Board should not treat such failure as a concession of the case. If plaintiff fails to file a response to the order, or files a response indicating that he has lost interest in the case, judgment may be entered against plaintiff.

⁴⁹⁶ See, e.g., Marshall Field & Co. v. Mrs. Fields Cookies, 11 USPQ2d 1154, 1156 (TTAB 1989) (failure to file Section 8 occurred prior to commencement of proceeding and therefore not to avoid judgment).

⁴⁹⁷ See TBMP § 602.02(b) (Cancellation Under Section 8 or 71; Expiration Under Section 9 or 70) and cases cited therein.

Chapter 500

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

The principal purpose of 37 CFR § 2.128(a)(3) is to save the Board the burden of determining a case on the merits where the parties have settled, but have neglected to notify the Board thereof, or where the plaintiff has lost interest in the case. It is not the policy of the Board to enter judgment against a plaintiff for failure to file a main brief on the case if the plaintiff still wishes to obtain an adjudication of the case on the merits.⁴⁹⁸ If a show cause order is issued under 37 CFR § 2.128(a)(3), and the plaintiff files a response indicating that it has not lost interest in the case, the show cause order will be considered discharged, and judgment will not be entered against plaintiff for failure to file a main brief. If the plaintiff files no response to the order, or files a response indicating that it has lost interest in the case, judgment may be entered against the plaintiff.⁴⁹⁹

When a plaintiff fails to file a main brief on the case, it is the normal practice of the Board to issue, sua sponte, an order to show cause why the failure to file a brief should not be treated as a concession of the case. If such an order is not issued by the Board sua sponte, or if an adverse party fears that the Board may inadvertently overlook a plaintiff's failure to file a main brief, the adverse party may file a motion for an order to show cause.

When it finds that a 37 CFR § 2.128(a)(3) order to show cause has been discharged, the Board may reset the times for filing remaining briefs on the case. If the plaintiff includes with its response to the show cause order a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b) to reopen its time to file a main brief (see TBMP § 509), and the motion is granted; all times for filing briefs on the case will be reset.

If a 37 CFR § 2.128(a)(3) order to show cause has been discharged, but the record shows that plaintiff failed, during its testimony period, to take any testimony or offer any other evidence in its behalf, the Board, in lieu of resetting the times for filing remaining briefs on the case, may enter judgment against plaintiff for failure to prove its case.⁵⁰⁰

537 Motion for Leave to Exceed Page Limit for Brief on Case

37 CFR § 2.128(b) ... Each brief shall contain an alphabetical index of cited cases. Without prior leave of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, a main brief on the case shall not exceed fifty-five pages in length in its entirety, including the table of contents, index of cases, description

⁴⁹⁸ See Notice of Final Rulemaking published in the Federal Register on May 23, 1983 at 48 FR 23122, 23132, and in the Official Gazette of June 21, 1983 at 1031 TMOG 13, 22; and T. Jeffrey Quinn, TIPS FROM THE TTAB: The Rules Are Changing, 74 Trademark Rep. 269, 275 (1984).

⁴⁹⁹ See, for example, CTRL Systems Inc. v. Ultraphonics of North America Inc., 52 USPQ2D 1300, 1302 (TTAB 1999) (no response filed).

⁵⁰⁰ See Gaylord Entertainment Co. v. Calvin Gilmore Productions Inc., 59 USPQ2d 1369, 1372 (TTAB 2000) (show cause order discharged but plaintiff failed to show excusable neglect to reopen case).

Chapter 500

of the record, statement of the issues, recitation of the facts, argument, and summary; and a reply brief shall not exceed twenty-five pages in its entirety.

Motions for leave to file a brief on the case in excess of the page limit are disfavored by the Board and rarely granted. Because the Board is an administrative tribunal of limited jurisdiction, empowered to determine only the right to register, very few of the cases before it are of such a nature as to require a brief on the case which exceeds the 37 CFR § 2.128(b) page limit. Further, one of the primary purposes of the rule is to assist the Board in managing its workload, and to encourage litigants to focus their arguments and eliminate needless verbiage.⁵⁰¹ Thus, a party seeking leave to file a brief on the case with more than the allowed number of pages must obtain "prior leave" from the Board to do so.⁵⁰² The motion must be submitted on or before the date that the brief is due.⁵⁰³ This is so even in those cases where the motion is filed with the consent of the adverse party or parties. Trademark Rule 2.128(b) is for the benefit of the Board, and it is only with the Board's permission, timely sought, that a brief exceeding the page limit be entertained.

The preferred practice, when a timely motion for leave to exceed the page limit is filed, is that the proposed overlength brief not be filed with the motion. If the moving party refrains from filing its brief with the motion, and the motion is granted, the Board in its decision on the motion will allow time for the filing of the brief and specify the number of additional pages granted. Alternatively, if the motion is denied, the Board, in its decision, will allow time for the filing of a brief that does not exceed the page limit specified in 37 CFR § 2.128(b). On the other hand, if the proposed overlength brief is filed with the motion, and the motion is granted, the Board will accept the brief. If the motion is denied, the overlength brief will be given no consideration, and the Board will allow time for the filing of a brief which conforms to the page limit set out in 37 CFR § 2.128(b).⁵⁰⁴

A timely motion to exceed the specified page limit need not be accompanied by a motion to extend the time for filing the subject brief. As noted in the preceding paragraph, when the Board rules upon the motion to exceed the page limit, it will reset the due date for the brief which is the subject of the motion, along with the due dates for any remaining briefs on the case, whether or not the motion is granted.

⁵⁰¹ Cf. Fleming v. County of Kane, 855 F.2d 496 (7th Cir. 1988).

⁵⁰² See 37 CFR § 2.128(b) and, for example, Boswell v. Mavety Media Group Ltd., 52 USPQ2d 1600, 1604 n.4 (TTAB 1999).

⁵⁰⁴ See United Foods Inc. v. United Air Lines Inc., supra (filing overlength brief with motion is potentially disadvantageous as movant may end up having to redo brief if motion is denied).

Chapter 500

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

If a party files a brief that exceeds the page limit, but does not file a timely motion for leave to file such a brief, the brief will be stricken, without leave to file a substitute brief that meets the limit.⁵⁰⁵

A motion for leave to file a brief exceeding the page limit is evaluated on the basis of the reasonableness of the request in light of such factors as the number of additional pages sought, the novelty and/or complexity of the issues in the case, the extent of the trial record, and any other relevant facts or circumstances which may serve to demonstrate why additional pages are necessary.⁵⁰⁶

For information concerning the parts of a brief that fall within the page limit, see TBMP § 801.03 and authorities cited therein.

538 Motion for Leave to File Amicus Brief

Amicus briefs are neither provided for nor prohibited in the rules governing practice in Board proceedings. Thus, the Board may, in its discretion, entertain an amicus brief if the Board finds that such a brief is warranted under the circumstances of a particular case.⁵⁰⁷

An entity that wishes to file an amicus brief should file a motion with the Board for leave to do so. The motion may be accompanied by the proposed brief. An amicus brief should be filed within the time allowed the party whose position the brief serves to support, unless all parties consent otherwise, or the Board, upon motion for good cause shown, permits a later filing.⁵⁰⁸

A motion for leave to file an amicus brief may not be used as a substitute for a timely notice of opposition or petition for cancellation.

Motions for leave to file an amicus brief are rarely filed in Board proceedings, and the granting thereof by the Board is even rarer. The Board will determine whether the proposed brief will aid the Board in resolving issues of law, whether the moving party is effectively seeking a role in the

539 Motion to Strike Brief on Case

The Trademark Rules of Practice specifically provide for the filing of briefs on the case, namely, the main brief of the party in the position of plaintiff, the answering brief of the party in the position of defendant, and the reply brief of the party in the position of plaintiff.⁵¹⁰

Subject to the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 11, a party is entitled to offer in its brief on the case any argument it believes will be to its advantage. Accordingly, when a brief on the case has been regularly filed, the Board generally will not strike the brief, or any portion thereof, upon motion by an adverse party that simply objects to the contents thereof. Rather, any objections which an adverse party may have to the contents of such a brief will be considered by the Board in its determination of the case, and any portions of the brief that are found by the Board to be improper will be disregarded.

However, if a brief on the case is not timely filed, or violates the length limit or other format requirements specified in 37 CFR § 2.128(b),⁵¹¹ it may be stricken, or given no consideration, by the Board.⁵¹² If a brief is stricken because of a format violation, the Board may, in its discretion, allow the offending party time to submit a substitute brief complying with the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.128(b).⁵¹³

Because the rules do not provide for the filing of a reply or rejoinder brief by a party in the position of defendant, any such brief may be stricken, or given no consideration, by the Board.⁵¹⁴

⁵¹³ But see TBMP § 537 (if a party files a brief which exceeds the page limit without also filing a timely motion for leave to file such a brief, the brief will be stricken, without leave to file a substitute brief that meets the limit).

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

Evidentiary material attached to a brief on the case can be given no consideration unless it was properly made of record during the testimony period of the offering party. If evidentiary material not of record is attached to a brief on the case, an adverse party may object thereto by motion to strike or otherwise.⁵¹⁵

540 Motion for Augmented Panel Hearing

Each case before the Board is heard by a panel of at least three members of the Board (i.e., its statutory members, including administrative trademark judges).⁵¹⁶ However, the Board may use an augmented panel to hear a case.⁵¹⁷ An augmented panel may include any number of Board members exceeding three, that is, from four to the entire body of members. For information concerning the constitution of Patent and Trademark Office Board panels, see In re Alappat, 33 F.3d 1526, 31 USPQ2d 1545, 1547 (Fed. Cir. 1994) (Director has authority to constitute a new panel for purposes of reconsideration).

A decision by the Board to use an augmented panel may be made either upon the Board's own initiative, or upon motion filed by a party to the proceeding. A motion requesting that a case be heard by an augmented panel should be filed no later than the time for requesting an oral hearing on the case (i.e., no later than 10 days after the due date for the filing of the last reply brief in the proceeding--see 37 CFR § 2.129(a)).

An augmented panel is used by the Board only in extraordinary cases, involving precedent-setting issues of exceptional importance, or when consideration by an augmented panel is necessary to secure or maintain uniformity of Board decisions.⁵¹⁸

541 Motion to Change Oral Hearing Date; For Additional Time

541.01 Motion to Change Oral Hearing Date

If a party to a proceeding before the Board desires to present oral argument (i.e., oral hearing), at final hearing, the party must file a request therefor, by separate paper, not later than 10 days after the due date for the filing of the last reply brief in the proceeding.⁵¹⁹ When a request for an oral hearing is filed, the Board sets the date and time for the hearing, and sends each party written notice thereof.⁵²⁰ Ordinarily, oral hearings are scheduled on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. It is the normal practice of the Board, in setting an oral hearing, to phone the parties, or their attorneys or other authorized representatives, to determine a convenient date and time for the hearing, following which the written notice formally scheduling the hearing is mailed.

The date or time of an oral hearing may be reset, so far as is convenient and proper, to meet the wishes of the parties and their attorneys or other authorized representatives.⁵²¹ When parties agree to the resetting of an oral hearing, they should determine a new date and time convenient to every party and then contact the Chief Administrative Trademark Judge's secretary by phone, well prior to the scheduled hearing date, to request that the hearing be reset for the new date and time. The parties should also file a written stipulation or consented motion confirming their agreement. If parties agree to the resetting of an oral hearing due to settlement negotiations, they should request that proceedings, including the time for oral hearing, be suspended pending completion of the negotiations.

When one or more of the parties does not consent to the resetting of an oral hearing, the party that wishes to have the hearing reset must file a motion therefor, showing good cause.⁵²² The motion should be filed well in advance of the scheduled hearing date. Further, to ensure that the motion is determined (by telephone conference call, if necessary) prior to the scheduled hearing date, the moving party should either hand deliver its motion, at the offices of the Board, to the Board interlocutory attorney to whom the case is assigned, or, if the motion has been filed with the Board by some other method, telephone the interlocutory attorney handling the case and notify the attorney of the filing of the motion.⁵²³ An unconsented motion to reset an oral hearing should not be filed merely because another date would be more convenient. The process of scheduling an oral hearing is a time-consuming task for the Board. Because of the inherent difficulties in arranging a date for an oral hearing, an unconsented motion to reset the hearing should be filed only for the most compelling reasons. Examples thereof include the onset of serious illness, nonelective surgery, death of a family member and similar unanticipated or unavoidable events.⁵²⁴

Repeated stipulations or consented requests to reset an oral hearing should not be filed.

541.02 Motion for Additional Time for Oral Argument

Ordinarily, each party in a Board inter partes proceeding is allowed 30 minutes for its oral arguments.⁵²⁵ If, because of the novelty or complexity of the issues, the extent of the record, the presence of a counterclaim involving different issues than those involved in the original proceeding, etc., a party feels that it needs more than 30 minutes for oral argument, it may file a request with the Board for additional time.⁵²⁶ If the request is granted, each party will be allowed the same amount of time for oral argument.

When a party decides to request additional time for oral argument, the party should immediately call the Board and notify the Board that it intends to file a request for additional time. Alternatively (and ideally), the request for additional time may be included in the request for oral hearing. This early notification is necessary to ensure that there will be time in the Board's hearing schedule for an extended oral hearing, and also to ensure that the request will be considered and determined prior to the date of the oral hearing.⁵²⁷

542 Motion for Leave to Audiotape Oral Hearing

Upon prior arrangement, the Board will usually permit a party to make an audiotape recording of an oral hearing. However, such a recording is strictly for the party's private use, and is not to be used for purposes of publicity, or as "evidence" in any proceeding (the oral hearing is not part of the evidentiary record in a proceeding before the Board).

Leave to audiotape an oral hearing is secured by filing a motion therefor showing good cause (such as, that the audiotape is desired by the requesting attorney, or the requesting attorney's firm, for personal use in evaluating the performance of the attorney as an advocate). The motion should be filed well in advance of the date set for the oral hearing, so that if an adverse party raises any objections, the Board will have time to rule upon the motion prior to the oral hearing.

Where permission to record an oral hearing is granted, the moving party is responsible for furnishing, operating, and removing its own audiotaping equipment in an unobtrusive manner. A court reporter is distracting and disruptive in the context of an oral hearing before the Board, and therefore may not be used. For the same reason, an oral hearing before the Board may not be videotaped. Any motion for leave to videotape an oral hearing will be denied.

543 Motion for Reconsideration of Final Decision

37 CFR § 2.129(c) Any request for rehearing or reconsideration or modification of a decision issued after final hearing must be filed within one month from the date of the decision. A brief in response must be filed within fifteen days from the date of service of the request. The times specified may be extended by order of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board on motion for good cause.

The filing of a request for rehearing, reconsideration, or modification of a decision issued after final hearing is governed by 37 CFR § 2.129(c).⁵²⁸

There is no requirement that an adverse party file a brief in response to a request for rehearing, reconsideration, or modification of a decision issued after final hearing. However, it is the better practice to do so.⁵²⁹ If a responsive brief is filed, it must be filed within 15 days from the date of ⁵²⁷ Cf. TBMP § 541.01 (Motion to Change Oral Hearing Date).

service of the request (20 days if service of the request was made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier--see 37 CFR § 2.119(c)).

Although 37 CFR § 2.129(c) makes no provision for the filing of a reply brief on a request for rehearing, reconsideration, or modification of a decision issued after final hearing, the Board may, in its discretion, consider such a brief.⁵³⁰

Generally, the premise underlying a request for rehearing, reconsideration, or modification under 37 CFR § 2.129(c) is that, based on the evidence of record and the prevailing authorities, the Board erred in reaching the decision it issued. The request may not be used to introduce additional evidence,⁵³¹ nor should it be devoted simply to a reargument of the points presented in the requesting party's brief on the case. Rather, the request normally should be limited to a demonstration that, based on the evidence properly of record and the applicable law, the Board's ruling is in error and requires appropriate change.⁵³²

If a request for rehearing, reconsideration, or modification of a decision after final hearing is timely filed, the time for filing an appeal, or for commencing a civil action for review of the Board's decision, will expire two months after action on the request.⁵³³

544 Motion for Relief From Final Judgment

Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b) Mistakes; Inadvertence; Excusable Neglect; Newly Discovered Evidence; Fraud, etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or a party's legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59(b); (3) fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party; (4) the judgment is void; (5) ... a prior judgment upon which [the judgment] is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated ...; or (6) any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment. The motion shall be made within a reasonable time, and for reasons (1), (2), and (3) not more than one year after the judgment, order, or proceeding was entered or taken. A motion under this subdivision (b) does not affect the finality of a judgment or suspend its operation. This rule does not limit the power of a court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, order, or proceeding ... or to set aside a judgment for fraud upon the court. ...

Motions to set aside or vacate a final judgment rendered by the Board are governed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b).⁵³⁴ Thus, upon such terms as are just, the Board, on motion, may relieve a party from a final judgment for one of the reasons specified in Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b).

Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b), as made applicable by 37 CFR § 2.116(a), applies to all final judgments issued by the Board, including default and consent judgments, summary judgments, and judgments entered after trial on the merits. As a practical matter, motions to vacate or set aside a final Board judgment are usually based upon the reasons set forth in subsections (1), (2) and/or (6) of Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b).

Chapter 500 STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS

A motion for relief from judgment must be made within a reasonable time; and if the motion is based on reasons (1), (2), and/or (3), it must be filed not more than one year after the judgment was entered.⁵³⁶ The filing of the motion will not affect the finality of the judgment or suspend its operation.⁵³⁷

Relief from a final judgment is an extraordinary remedy to be granted only in exceptional circumstances.⁵³⁸ The determination of whether a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b) should be granted is a matter that lies within the sound discretion of the Board.⁵³⁹

Where a motion for relief from judgment is made without the consent of the adverse party or parties, it must persuasively show (preferably by affidavits, declarations, documentary evidence, etc., as may be appropriate) that the relief requested is warranted for one or more of the reasons specified in Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b).

Because default judgments for failure to timely answer the complaint are not favored by the law, a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(c) and 60(b) seeking relief from such a judgment is generally treated with more liberality by the Board than are motions under Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b) for relief from other types of judgments.⁵⁴⁰ Among the factors to be considered in determining a motion to vacate a default judgment for failure to answer the complaint are (1) whether the plaintiff will be prejudiced, (2) whether the default was willful, and (3) whether the defendant has a meritorious defense to the action.⁵⁴¹

If, in a cancellation proceeding, a petition to the Director is filed concurrently with a Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b) motion to the Board for relief from judgment, and the petition and motion seek the same relief and require review of the same set of facts, the Board will rule first upon the motion for relief from judgment.⁵⁴² If the Board grants the motion, the Director, as a ministerial act, will reinstate the subject registration.⁵⁴³

Where the parties are agreed that the circumstances warrant the vacating or setting aside of a final judgment, a stipulation or consented motion for relief from the judgment should be filed. The Board ordinarily will grant a consented request for relief from judgment.

601.03 Effect of Motion for Judgment

A plaintiff in an opposition or cancellation proceeding may unilaterally withdraw its complaint without prejudice, even in the face of a defendant's adverse motion such as a motion to dismiss, motion for summary judgment, motion for judgment on the pleadings, provided that the withdrawal is filed prior to defendant's answer to the complaint. When a plaintiff unilaterally withdraws its complaint prior to answer, in the face of a defendant's pending motion for judgment, the proceeding will be dismissed without prejudice (unless plaintiff specifies that it is withdrawing with prejudice), and the pending motion will be declared moot.

37 CFR § 2.68 Express abandonment (withdrawal) of application. An application may be expressly abandoned by filing in the Patent and Trademark Office a written statement of abandonment or withdrawal of the application signed by the applicant, or the attorney or other person representing the applicant. Except as provided in §2.135, the fact that an application has been expressly abandoned shall not, in any proceeding in the Patent and Trademark Office, affect any rights that the applicant may have in the mark which is the subject of the abandoned application.

37 CFR § 2.135 Abandonment of application or mark. After the commencement of an opposition, concurrent use, or interference proceeding, if the applicant files a written abandonment of the application or of the mark without the written consent of every adverse party to the proceeding, judgment shall be entered against the applicant. The written consent of an adverse party may be signed by the adverse party or by the adverse party's attorney or other authorized representative.

WITHDRAWAL; SETTLEMENT

An applicant may expressly abandon its application by filing in the Office a written statement of abandonment or withdrawal of the application, signed by the applicant or the applicant's attorney or other authorized representative.⁷

However, after the commencement of an opposition proceeding, if the applicant files a written abandonment of its subject application or mark without the written consent of every adverse party to the proceeding, judgment will be entered against the applicant.⁸ The written consent of an adverse party may be signed by the adverse party itself, or by the adverse party's attorney or other authorized representative.⁹

Chapter 600 WITHDRAWAL; SETTLEMENT

In an opposition to an application having multiple classes, if the applicant files a request to amend the application to delete an opposed class, the request for amendment is, in effect, an abandonment of the application with respect to that class, and is governed by 37 CFR § 2.135.

An abandonment of an opposed application should be filed with the Board, and should bear at the top of its first page both the application serial number, and the opposition number and title.

The abandonment should include proof of service upon every other party to the proceeding.¹¹ If an applicant files an unconsented abandonment after the commencement of an opposition, but before applicant has been notified of the opposition by the Board, applicant will be allowed an opportunity to obtain and submit the written consent of every adverse party, or to withdraw the abandonment and defend against the opposition, failing which judgment will be entered against applicant.¹²

If an opposition and an unconsented abandonment of the opposed application are filed on the same day, the abandonment (unless specifically made with prejudice) is without prejudice to applicant; the opposition will be returned to the opposer; no proceeding will be instituted; and any submitted opposition fee will be refunded.¹³

Abandonment prior to publication. If after an opposition is filed, it comes to the attention of the Board that the opposed application was abandoned prior to its publication for opposition for failure of the applicant to respond to an Office action, the Board will advise the parties that the application is not subject to opposition unless applicant files a petition to revive under 37 CFR § 2.66, and the petition is granted. If a prior abandonment for failure to timely respond comes to the attention of the Board at a time reasonably contemporaneous with the filing of the opposition, and the application is not revived, the opposition will not be instituted, and any submitted opposition fee will be refunded. If the prior abandonment comes to the attention of the Board at a later stage in the opposition, and the application is not revived, the opposition will be dismissed without prejudice.¹⁴

Abandonment for failure to respond to office action after remand. If, during the pendency of an opposition, the Board grants a request by the trademark examining attorney for remand of a Section 1 or 44 application under 37 CFR § 2.130,¹⁵ and the application thereafter becomes abandoned by operation of law for failure of the applicant to respond to an Office action issued by the examining attorney, or because a final refusal to register is affirmed on appeal, judgment under 37 CFR § 2.135 will not be entered against applicant in the opposition. Trademark Rule 2.135 comes into play only when there is a written abandonment by the applicant. However, opposer will be given time to decide whether it wishes to go forward to obtain a determination of the opposition on its merits, or to have the opposition dismissed without prejudice as moot.¹⁶ If, after remand under 37 CFR § 2.130, applicant files a written abandonment of its application without the written consent of every adverse party to the proceeding, judgment will be entered against the applicant pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.135. A 66(a) application may not be remanded under 37 CFR § 2.130.¹⁷

Abandonment of 66(a) application as the result of cancellation of the underlying international registration by the International Bureau. If an international registration is cancelled by the International Bureau for any reason, the IB will notify the USPTO and the USPTO will abandon the corresponding 66(a) application.¹⁸ If a 66(a) application that is the subject of an opposition is abandoned by the Office as the result of cancellation of the underlying international registration, and if judgment under 37 CFR 2.135 is not entered against applicant, opposer will be given time to decide whether it wishes to go forward to obtain a determination of the opposition on its merits, or to have the opposition dismissed without prejudice as moot.

If an applicant whose application is the subject of an opposition files an abandonment of the application with the written consent of the opposer, the opposition will be dismissed without prejudice, and the application will stand abandoned.

If the applicant files an abandonment of the application with the written consent of the opposer, and the opposer files a withdrawal of the opposition, the opposition will be dismissed without prejudice, and the application will stand abandoned.

If the applicant files an abandonment of the application with prejudice with the written consent of the opposer, the opposition will be dismissed without prejudice (and the application will stand abandoned with prejudice to applicant's right to reregister the same mark for the same goods or services), unless the parties specify otherwise in writing.¹⁹

If the applicant files an abandonment of the application with prejudice with the written consent of the opposer, and the opposer files a withdrawal of the opposition with prejudice with the written consent of the applicant, the opposition will be dismissed with prejudice, and the application will stand abandoned with prejudice to applicant's right to reregister the same mark for the same goods or services.

602.02 Withdrawal by Respondent

602.02(a) Surrender or Voluntary Cancellation of Registration

37 CFR § 2.134(a) [Surrender or Voluntary Cancellation of Registration] After the commencement of a cancellation proceeding, if the respondent applies for cancellation of the involved registration under section 7(e) of the Act of 1946 without the written consent of every adverse party to the proceeding, judgment shall be entered against the respondent. The written consent of an adverse party may be signed by the adverse party or by the adverse party's attorney or other authorized representative.

37 CFR § 2.172 Surrender for cancellation. Upon application by the registrant, the Director may permit any registration to be surrendered for cancellation. Application for such action must be signed by the registrant and must be accompanied by the original certificate of registration, if not lost or destroyed. When there is more than one class in a registration, one or more entire class but less than the total number of classes may be surrendered as to the specified class or classes. Deletion of less than all of the goods or services in a single class constitutes amendment of registration as to that class (see § 2.173).

37 CFR § 7.30 Effect of cancellation or expiration of international registration. When the International Bureau notifies the Office of the cancellation or expiration of an international registration, in whole or in part, the Office shall cancel, in whole or in part, the corresponding pending or registered extension of protection to the United States. The date of cancellation of an extension of protection or relevant part shall be the date of cancellation or expiration of the corresponding international registration or relevant part.

A registrant that wishes to voluntarily surrender its registration for cancellation, except a 66(a) registration, may file in the Office a written application, signed by the registrant, or an attorney as defined in 37 CFR § 10.1(c) who has an actual or implied written or verbal power of attorney from the owner,²⁰ and accompanied by the original certificate of registration, if not lost or destroyed.²¹ There is no fee for a voluntary surrender for cancellation.²²

A registrant that wishes to voluntarily cancel²³ its 66(a) registration may do so by filing such request with the International Bureau.²⁴

However, after the commencement of a cancellation proceeding, if the respondent applies for surrender of its subject registration under Section 7(e) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1057(e), or voluntary cancellation of a 66(a) registration, without the written consent of every adverse party to the proceeding, judgment will be entered against the respondent.²⁵ The written consent of an adverse party may be signed by the adverse party itself, or by the adverse party's attorney or other authorized representative.²⁶

For information concerning the effect of a judgment of this type, see TBMP § 602.01, and cases cited therein.

²⁰ See Post Registration: Changes to Requirements for Maintaining Trademark Registrations, in the Official Gazette of November 30, 1999 at 1228 TMOG 187.

²⁴ Section 7(e) of the Trademark Act and corresponding Trademark Rules 2.134 and 2.172 regarding surrender of a registration are not applicable to a 66(a) registration. Requests to record changes to 66(a) registrations must be filed with the International Bureau. See 37 CFR §§ 7.22 and 7.25. Although Trademark Rule 7.25 specifically exempts only a "request for extension of protection" (a 66(a) application) from application of certain rules in part 2 of 37 CFR, including Rule 2.172 (surrender for cancellation), it is clear from the nature of the excepted provisions that Rule 7.25 is intended to apply to a 66(a) registration as well as a 66(a) application. See also Exam Guide 2-03, Guide to Implementation of Madrid Protocol in the United States (part VI.5) (October 28, 2003).

In a cancellation proceeding against a registration having multiple classes, except in the case of a 66(a) registration, if the respondent files a request to amend the registration to delete a class sought to be cancelled, the request for amendment is, in effect, a voluntary surrender of the registration with respect to that class, and is governed by 37 CFR § 2.134(a).

Trademark Rule 2.134 is not applicable to 66(a) registrations. Nevertheless, in a cancellation proceeding against a 66(a) registration, if the respondent requests to amend the registration to delete a class sought to be cancelled, or requests cancellation with the International Bureau as to some of the goods and services in the registration without the written consent of every adverse party to the proceeding, the request is, in effect, a voluntary cancellation of the registration with respect to those goods or services and judgment will be entered against the registrant as to the deleted goods or services.

An application for voluntary surrender of a registration that is the subject of a Board inter partes proceeding should be filed with the Board, and should bear at the top of its first page both the registration number and the inter partes proceeding number and title. The application for voluntary surrender should include proof of service upon every other party to the proceeding.²⁷ In the case of a voluntary cancellation of a 66(a) registration, the registrant should file with the Board and serve upon every other party to the proceeding, a copy of the appropriate notice or request for cancellation that has been filed with the International Bureau.

If a registrant whose registration is the subject of a petition for cancellation files a surrender or voluntary cancellation of the registration with the written consent of the petitioner, the petition for cancellation will be dismissed without prejudice, and the registration will be cancelled.

If the registrant files a surrender or voluntary cancellation of the registration with the written consent of the petitioner, and the petitioner files a withdrawal of the petition for cancellation, the petition for cancellation will be dismissed without prejudice, and the registration will be cancelled.

If the registrant files a surrender or voluntary cancellation of the registration with prejudice with the written consent of the petitioner, the petition for cancellation will be dismissed without prejudice (the registration will be cancelled with prejudice to registrant's right to reregister the same mark for the same goods or services), unless the parties specify otherwise in writing.

If the registrant files a surrender or voluntary cancellation of the registration with prejudice with the written consent of the petitioner, and the petitioner files a withdrawal of the petition for cancellation with prejudice with the written consent of the registrant, the petition for cancellation will be dismissed with prejudice, and the registration will be cancelled with prejudice to registrant's right to reregister the same mark for the same goods or services.

602.02(b) Cancellation Under Section 8 or 71; Expiration Under Section 9 or 70

37 CFR § 2.134(b) After the commencement of a cancellation proceeding, if it comes to the attention of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board that the respondent has permitted his involved registration to be cancelled under § 8 of the Act of 1946 or has failed to renew his involved registration under § 9 of the Act of 1946, an order may be issued allowing respondent until a set time, not less than fifteen days, in which to show cause why such cancellation or failure to renew should not be deemed to be the equivalent of a cancellation by request of respondent without the consent of the adverse party and should not result in entry of judgment against respondent as provided by paragraph (a) of this section. In the absence of a showing of good and sufficient cause, judgment may be entered against respondent as provided by paragraph (a) of this section.

37 CFR § 7.30 Effect of Cancellation or expiration of international registration. When the International Bureau notifies the Office of the cancellation or expiration of an international registration, in whole or in part, the Office shall cancel, in whole or in part, the corresponding pending or registered extension of protection to the United States. The date of cancellation of an extension of protection or relevant part shall be the date of cancellation or expiration of the corresponding international registration or relevant part.

37 CFR § 7.36 Affidavit or declaration of use in commerce or excusable nonuse required to avoid cancellation of an extension of protection to the United States.

(a) Subject to the provisions of section 71 of the Act, a registered extension of protection shall remain in force for the term of the international registration upon which it is based unless the international registration expires or is cancelled under section 70 of the Act due to cancellation of the international registration by the International Bureau.

(b) During the following time periods, the holder of an international registration must file an affidavit or declaration of use or excusable nonuse, or the registered extension of protection will be cancelled under section 71 of the Act:

- (1) On or after the fifth anniversary and no later than the sixth anniversary after the date of registration in the United States; and*
- (2) Within the six-month period preceding the end of each ten-year period after the date of registration in the United States, or the three-month grace period immediately following, with payment of the grace period surcharge required by section 71(a)(2)(B) of the Act and §7.6.*

Chapter 600 WITHDRAWAL; SETTLEMENT

37 CFR § 7.41 Renewal of international registration and extension of protection.

(a) Any request to renew an international registration and its extension of protection to the United States must be made at the International Bureau in accordance with Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol.

* * * *

If it comes to the attention of the Board, during the course of a proceeding, that respondent has permitted its involved registration to be cancelled under Section 8 of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1058, or has failed to renew its involved registration under Section 9 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1059, the Board may issue an order allowing respondent time to show cause why the cancellation, or the failure to renew, should not be deemed to be the equivalent of a cancellation by request of respondent without the consent of petitioner and should not result in entry of judgment against respondent.²⁸

Similarly, in the case of a 66(a) registration, if it comes to the attention of the Board during the course of a proceeding that respondent has allowed its extension of protection to the United States to be cancelled under Section 71, 15 U.S.C. § 1141k,²⁹ or has failed to renew its extension of protection under Section 70, 15 U.S.C. § 1141j,³⁰ the Board may issue an order allowing respondent time to show cause why the cancellation should not be deemed to be the equivalent of a cancellation by request of respondent without the consent of petitioner and should not result in entry of judgment against respondent.³¹

In a cancellation proceeding against a registration having multiple classes, if the respondent permits a class which is the subject of the cancellation proceeding to be cancelled under Section 8 of the Act, or fails to renew the registration under Section 9 of the Act with respect

²⁹ A 66(a) registration is subject to the Section 71 requirements for affidavits of continued use (or excusable nonuse). A Section 71 affidavit is filed with the Office.

to that class, the cancellation or failure to renew with respect to that class is governed by 37 CFR § 2.134(b).

An order to show cause under 37 CFR § 2.134(b) may be issued by the Board upon motion by the petitioner, or (if the failure to file a Section 8 or Section 9 affidavit comes to the attention of the Board in another manner) upon the Board's own initiative.³²

For information concerning motions for an order to show cause under 37 CFR § 2.134(b), see TBMP § 535.

The purpose of 37 CFR § 2.134(b), and the policy underlying the issuance of a show cause order in the case of a 66(a) registration, is to prevent a cancellation proceeding respondent whose subject registration comes due, during the course of the proceeding, for a Section 8 or Section 9 affidavit, or in the case of a 66(a) registration, a Section 71 affidavit or Section 70 renewal, from being able to moot the proceeding, and avoid judgment, by deliberately failing to file the required affidavits or renewal applications.³³ The Board's policy governing application of 37 CFR § 2.134(b) is as follows:

*The paragraph has been modified to provide an opportunity for the respondent in such situation to "show cause" why judgment should not be entered against it. If respondent submits a showing that the cancellation or expiration was the result of an inadvertence or mistake, judgment will not be entered against it. If respondent submits a showing that the cancellation or expiration was occasioned by the fact that its registered mark had been abandoned and that such abandonment was not made for purposes of avoiding the proceeding but rather was the result, for example, of a two-year period of nonuse which commenced well before respondent learned of the existence of the proceeding, judgment will be entered against it only and specifically on the ground of abandonment.*³⁴

WITHDRAWAL; SETTLEMENT

If, in response to an order to show cause a respondent submits a showing that the cancellation of its registration under Section 8 or 71 of the Act, or failure to renew the registration under Section 9 or 70 of the Act, was the result of inadvertence or mistake, judgment will not be entered against it.³⁵

If respondent submits a showing that it permitted its registration to be cancelled under Section 8 or 71 of the Act, or failed to renew the registration under Section 9 or 70 of the Act, because its registered mark had been abandoned, and that the abandonment was not made for purposes of avoiding the proceeding, judgment will be entered against it only and specifically on the ground of abandonment (if abandonment has not been pleaded as a ground for cancellation, plaintiff will be allowed to amend its pleading appropriately).³⁶

In those cases where the Board finds that respondent has shown good and sufficient cause why judgment should not be entered against it, petitioner may be given time to decide whether it wishes to go forward with the cancellation proceeding, or to have the cancellation proceeding dismissed without prejudice as moot.³⁷ In those cases where the Board enters judgment against the respondent only and specifically on the ground of abandonment, petitioner may be given time to decide if it wishes to go forward to obtain a determination of the remaining issues, or to have the cancellation proceeding dismissed without prejudice as to those issues.³⁸

As noted above, the purpose of 37 CFR § 2.134(b) is to prevent a cancellation proceeding respondent from being able to moot the proceeding, and avoid judgment, by deliberately failing to file a required affidavit of use under Section 8, or renewal application under Section 9. The rule provides not that an order to show cause "shall" be issued, but rather that an order "may" be issued. Normally, the Board, in the exercise of its discretion under the rule, does not issue a show cause order in those cases where the failure to file a required affidavit under Section 8, or renewal application under Section 9, occurs after the filing of a petition for cancellation, but before respondent has been notified by the Board.³⁹ Rather, the Board issues an action notifying respondent of the filing of the proceeding, advising both parties that the registration has been cancelled under Section 8, or has expired, and allowing petitioner time to elect whether it wishes to go forward with the cancellation proceeding, or to have the cancellation proceeding dismissed without prejudice as moot.⁴⁰ However, a petitioner which believes that the respondent had knowledge of the filing of the petition to cancel (notwithstanding the fact that respondent had not been notified thereof by the Board), and that respondent deliberately failed to file a required affidavit of use under Section 8, or renewal application under Section 9, in an effort to moot the proceeding, and avoid judgment, may file a motion for an order to show cause under 37 CFR § 2.134(b)⁴¹ stating the reasons for its belief.

While Trademark Rule 2.134 is not itself applicable to 66(a) registrations, the above-stated policy considerations underlying the rule are applicable to cancellation proceedings involving 66(a) registrations.

603 Withdrawal by Interference or Concurrent Use Applicant

37 CFR § 2.68 Express abandonment (withdrawal) of application. An application may be expressly abandoned by filing in the Patent and Trademark Office a written statement of abandonment or withdrawal of the application signed by the applicant, or the attorney or other person representing the applicant. Except as provided in § 2.135, the fact that an application has been expressly abandoned shall not, in any proceeding in the Patent and Trademark Office, affect any rights that the applicant may have in the mark which is the subject of the abandoned application.

Chapter 600 WITHDRAWAL; SETTLEMENT

37 CFR § 2.135 Abandonment of application or mark. After the commencement of an opposition, concurrent use, or interference proceeding, if the applicant files a written abandonment of the application or of the mark without the written consent of every adverse party to the proceeding, judgment shall be entered against the applicant. The written consent of an adverse party may be signed by the adverse party or by the adverse party's attorney or other authorized representative.

After the commencement of an interference or concurrent use proceeding, if an applicant whose application is a subject of the proceeding files a written abandonment of its application or mark without the written consent of every adverse party to the proceeding, judgment will be entered against the applicant.⁴² Any concurrent use proceeding will be dissolved, and registration to applicant will be refused.

If, after the commencement of a concurrent use proceeding involving two or more applicants, one of the applicants files an unconsented abandonment of its application, but not of its use of its mark, judgment will be entered against that applicant with respect to the registration sought by it. However, if the abandoning applicant is specified as an excepted concurrent user in any other application involved in the proceeding, the abandoning applicant will remain a party to the proceeding as a concurrent user, and every other applicant to the proceeding who, in its own application, has listed that party as an excepted user will retain the burden of proving its entitlement to registration in view of the acknowledged rights of the abandoning applicant.⁴³ On the other hand, if a party to a concurrent use proceeding abandons all rights in its mark and in its application (if any), any remaining party that seeks concurrent registration may move to amend its application to delete the abandoning party as an excepted user. If the abandoning party is the only excepted user specified in a remaining party's application, the remaining party may move to amend its application to seek a geographically unrestricted registration.⁴⁴ If the motion is granted, the concurrent use proceeding will be dissolved without prejudice, and the application will be republished, for purposes of opposition, as an application for a geographically unrestricted registration. Republication may not be available for a 66(a) application due to the time requirements of the Madrid Protocol.⁴⁵

If an application which is the subject of an interference or concurrent use proceeding has multiple classes, and the applicant files a request to amend the application to delete a class, the request for amendment is, in effect, an abandonment of the application with respect to that class, and is governed by 37 CFR § 2.135.

An abandonment of an application, which is the subject of an interference or concurrent use proceeding, should be filed with the Board. The top of its first page should list both the application serial number, and the interference or concurrent use proceeding number and title. The abandonment should include proof of service thereof upon every other party to the proceeding.⁴⁶

If, during the pendency of an interference or concurrent use proceeding involving an application under Section 1 or 44 of the Trademark Act, the Board grants a request by the Trademark Examining Attorney for remand under 37 CFR § 2.130⁴⁷ and the application thereafter becomes abandoned by operation of law, for failure of the applicant to respond to an Office action, or because a final refusal to register is affirmed on appeal, judgment under 37 CFR § 2.135 will not be entered against applicant in the interference, or in the concurrent use proceeding. Trademark Rule 2.135 comes into play only when there is a written abandonment by the applicant. If, after remand under 37 CFR § 2.130, applicant files a written abandonment of its application without the written consent of every adverse party to the proceeding, judgment will be entered against the applicant pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.135. An application under Section 66(a) of the Act may not be remanded under 37 CFR § 2.130.⁴⁸

604 Consent to Judgment

If a party to an inter partes proceeding before the Board does not wish to litigate the case, and is willing to accept entry of judgment against itself, the party may file a statement with the Board indicating that it consents to entry of judgment against itself. Upon receipt of such a statement, the Board will enter judgment against the filing party.

Chapter 600 WITHDRAWAL; SETTLEMENT

605.01 In General

A substantial percentage of the inter partes cases filed with the Board are eventually settled. The Board encourages settlement, and several aspects of Board practice and procedure, including its liberal discovery practice (see TBMP chapter 400) and its usual willingness to suspend proceedings in pending cases while parties negotiate for settlement⁴⁹ serve to facilitate the resolution of cases by agreement.

605.02 Suspension for Settlement Negotiations

Parties that are negotiating for settlement, and wish to defer further litigation of the case pending conclusion of their negotiations, should remember to file stipulations to extend or suspend the running of the time periods set in the case.

When the Board is notified that parties are negotiating for settlement, the Board may suspend proceedings for a period of up to six months, subject to the right of either party to request resumption at any time prior to the expiration of the suspension period.⁵⁰ The suspension period may be further extended upon request, or upon notification to the Board that the parties are still engaged in their settlement negotiations. However, once proceedings have been suspended for over a year, the Board may require that the parties submit a report as to the status of their negotiations in order to show good cause for continued suspension. This report should include a summary of the progress of the parties' negotiations and a firm timetable for resolution. Absent such a report, any subsequent motion to extend or suspend for settlement negotiations may be denied, even though agreed to by the parties.⁵¹

605.03 Settlement Agreements

605.03(a) In General

When an inter partes proceeding before the Board is settled, the parties should promptly notify the Board of the settlement. It is not necessary that the parties file a copy of their settlement agreement with the Board. Rather, they may simply file a stipulation stating ⁴⁹ See TBMP §§ 510.03 (Suspension for Other Reasons) and 605.02 (Suspension for Settlement Negotiations).

⁵⁰ See TBMP § 510.03.

⁵¹ Cf. Central Manufacturing Inc. v. Third Millennium Technology Inc., 61 USPQ2d 1210, 121 (TTAB 2001) (where opposer's statements that the parties were engaged in settlement negotiations were found to be false and filed in bad faith, opposer was sanctioned with dismissal). For a discussion of motions to suspend see TBMP § 510.

Chapter 600 WITHDRAWAL; SETTLEMENT

the desired disposition of the proceeding (i.e., "It is hereby stipulated that the opposition be sustained," "It is hereby stipulated that the petition for cancellation be dismissed with prejudice," or the like). If there is a counterclaim, the stipulation should also state the desired disposition of the counterclaim. If, in a proceeding with a counterclaim, the parties stipulate to the disposition of the claim against which the counterclaim was brought, but there is no stipulation to dispose of the counterclaim, and there is no withdrawal of the counterclaim, consent by one party to entry of judgment against itself on the counterclaim, etc., the counterclaim will go forward, notwithstanding the fact that judgment has been entered on the original claim.⁵²

If the proceeding is to be dismissed, the stipulation should specify whether the dismissal is to be with prejudice or without prejudice. If no specification is made, the Board, in its action dismissing the proceeding, will simply state that the proceeding is being dismissed "in accordance with the agreement of the parties." However, if the agreement itself also fails to indicate whether the dismissal is to be with or without prejudice, at some later time a dispute may arise between the parties as to whether they intended the dismissal to be with or without prejudice. A clear specification in the stipulation may avoid future trouble.

A settlement agreement may simply call for a party to withdraw with, or without, prejudice, or with, or without, consent. In such a case, the parties need not file a settlement stipulation, because the withdrawal, when filed, will result in a final disposition of the proceeding.

A settlement stipulation, which is not in accordance with the applicable rules and the statute, will be given no effect by the Board.

605.03(b) With Amendment of Subject Application or Registration

If a settlement agreement is contingent upon amendment of a defendant's subject application or registration, the request for amendment is governed by 37 CFR § 2.133(a)⁵³ and should be filed with the Board. The request should list at the top of the page both the number of the subject application or registration, and the Board proceeding number and title. The request also should include proof of service thereof upon every other party to the proceeding.⁵⁴

⁵² See TBMP § 606 (Effect on Counterclaim).

⁵³ See TBMP § 514 (Motion to Amend Application or Registration).

⁵⁴ See 37 CFR § 2.119(a), and TBMP § 113 (Service of Papers).

WITHDRAWAL; SETTLEMENT

A proposed amendment to a defendant's application or registration must comply with all applicable rules and statutory provisions.⁵⁵ Thus, for example, a proposed amendment to a Section 1 or 44 application or registration that materially alters the character of the defendant's subject mark,⁵⁶ or a proposed amendment to a Section 66(a) application or registration that involves an amendment to the mark at all,⁵⁷ cannot be approved by the Board.⁵⁸ If a settlement agreement calls for an amendment that may amount to a material change in the defendant's mark, the parties may wish to also agree that if a request for amendment of the defendant's subject application or registration is denied by the Board, the defendant will abandon that application, or voluntarily surrender that registration, and file a new application for registration of the altered mark; and that the plaintiff will not oppose the new application or seek to cancel any registration that matures therefrom.⁵⁹

In an opposition to an application having multiple classes, if the applicant files a request to amend the application to delete an opposed class, the request for amendment is, in effect, an abandonment of the application with respect to that class, and is governed by 37 CFR § 2.135. Similarly, in a cancellation proceeding against a registration having multiple classes, except in the case of a 66(a) registration, if the respondent files a request to amend the registration to delete a class sought to be cancelled, the request for amendment is, in effect, a voluntary surrender of the registration with respect to that class, and is governed by 37 CFR § 2.134(a).

Trademark Rule 2.134 is not applicable to 66(a) registrations. Nevertheless, the policy considerations underlying the rule are applicable in a cancellation proceeding against a 66(a) registration. If the respondent requests to amend the registration to delete a class

See 37 CFR § 2.72, providing only for amendments to the mark in Section 1 and 44 applications, and the International Bureau's Guide to the International Registration of Marks under the Madrid Agreement and the Madrid Protocol, Para. sought to be cancelled, or requests cancellation with the International Bureau as to some of the goods and services in the registration, without the written consent of every adverse party to the proceeding, the request is, in effect, a voluntary cancellation of the registration with respect to those goods or services and judgment will be entered against the registrant as to the deleted goods or services.⁶⁰

605.03(c) With Amendment of Plaintiff's Pending Application

The plaintiff in an inter partes proceeding before the Board may own a pending application for registration that has been rejected by the trademark examining attorney in view of the defendant's subject registration, or which is going to be rejected by the examining attorney when and if defendant's subject application matures to registration. In such a case, a settlement agreement may be contingent upon the approval of an amendment to be filed in the plaintiff's application, or acceptance of a consent agreement to be filed therein, and the consequent approval of the application for publication.

The Board has no jurisdiction over a plaintiff's application which is still pending before the trademark examining attorney.⁶¹ Thus, when the plaintiff in an inter partes proceeding before the Board owns an application which is still pending before the trademark examining attorney, and an amendment or consent agreement is filed in the application pursuant to a settlement agreement between the parties, the amendment should be filed with the examining attorney, not with the Board. The examining attorney should consider the amendment or agreement and take appropriate action (including, if the amendment or consent agreement puts the application in condition for publication, approving the application for publication), notwithstanding the fact that action on the application may previously have been suspended pending the final determination of the inter partes proceeding before the Board. Indeed, if settlement of the inter partes proceeding is contingent upon approval of the amendment, or acceptance of the consent agreement, by the examining attorney, proceedings before the Board may be suspended pending action by the examining attorney on the amendment or consent agreement.

605.03(d) Breach of Settlement Agreement

If an agreement settling an inter partes proceeding before the Board is breached by one of the parties, an adverse party's remedy is by way of civil action. The Board has no jurisdiction to enforce such an agreement. However, while the Board does not have jurisdiction to enforce the contract, agreements to cease use of a mark or not to use a

*For information concerning the effect of agreements and judgments resulting therefrom, see cases cited in the note below.*⁶³

605.03(f) Consent Orders

The Board will dismiss, sustain, etc., a Board inter partes proceeding, if the parties so stipulate⁶⁴ and will also enter judgment against a party which submits its written consent to entry of judgment against itself, or which concedes that its case is not well taken. Further, the Board encourages the use of stipulated evidence in Board inter partes proceedings.⁶⁵ However, the Board does not issue advisory opinions. Nor does the Board issue consent orders. That is, the Board does not, based simply upon a joint request by the parties that it does so, enter, approve, or otherwise adopt as its own findings, as if on the merits, stipulated findings of fact and/or conclusions of law, without any consideration by the Board of evidence properly adduced during the course of the proceeding. Rather, the Board makes findings of fact, and conclusions of law, on the merits of the case only as warranted by the evidence of record upon motion for summary judgment or at final hearing.

606 Effect on Counterclaim

If, prior to the determination of a counterclaim, the parties stipulate to the disposition of the claim against which the counterclaim was brought, or the original claim is withdrawn, dismissed for failure to prosecute, or otherwise disposed of, the counterclaim will nevertheless go forward, unless the parties stipulate to its disposition, or it is withdrawn by the counterclaimant, or one party consents to entry of judgment against itself on the counterclaim, etc.⁶⁶

TRIAL PROCEDURE AND INTRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

701 Time of Trial

37 CFR § 2.116(b) The opposer in an opposition proceeding or the petitioner in a cancellation proceeding shall be in the position of plaintiff, and the applicant in an opposition proceeding or the respondent in a cancellation proceeding shall be in the position of defendant. A party that is a junior party in an interference proceeding or in a concurrent use registration proceeding shall be in the position of plaintiff against every party that is senior, and the party that is a senior party in an interference proceeding or in a concurrent use registration proceeding shall be a defendant against every party that is junior.

(c) The opposition or the petition for cancellation and the answer correspond to the complaint and answer in a court proceeding.

(d) The assignment of testimony periods corresponds to setting a case for trial in court proceedings.

(e) The taking of depositions during the assigned testimony periods corresponds to the trial in court proceedings.

37 CFR § 2.121 Assignment of times for taking testimony

(a)(1) The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board will issue a trial order assigning to each party the time for taking testimony. No testimony shall be taken except during the times assigned, unless by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or, upon motion, by order of the Board. Testimony periods may be rescheduled by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or upon motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board. If a motion to reschedule testimony periods is denied, the testimony periods may remain as set. The resetting of the closing date for discovery will result in the rescheduling of the testimony periods without action by any party.

(b)(1) The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board will schedule a testimony period for the plaintiff to present its case in chief, a testimony period for the defendant to present its case and to meet the case of the plaintiff, and a testimony period for the plaintiff to present evidence in rebuttal.

(2) When there is a counterclaim, or when proceedings have been consolidated and one party is in the position of plaintiff in one of the involved proceedings and in the position of defendant in another of the involved proceedings, or when there is an interference or a concurrent use registration proceeding involving more than two parties, the Board will schedule testimony periods so that each party in the position of plaintiff will have a period for presenting its case in chief against each party in the position of defendant, each party in the position of defendant will have a period for presenting its case and meeting the case of each plaintiff, and each party in the position of plaintiff will have a period for presenting evidence in rebuttal.

(c) A testimony period which is solely for rebuttal will be set for fifteen days. All other testimony periods will be set for thirty days. The periods may be extended by stipulation of the parties approved by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or upon motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board. If a motion for an extension is denied, the testimony periods may remain as set.

(d) When parties stipulate to the rescheduling of testimony periods or to the rescheduling of the closing date for discovery and the rescheduling of testimony periods, a stipulation presented in the form used in a trial order, signed by the parties, or a motion in said form signed by one party and including as statement that every other party has agreed thereto, shall be submitted to the Board.

On receipt of a properly filed notice of opposition or petition to cancel (or at the time described in 37 CFR § 2.92 for an interference and 37 CFR § 2.99(c) for a concurrent use proceeding) the Board sends out a notice advising the parties of the institution of the proceeding. The notice includes a trial order assigning each party's time for taking testimony and introducing other evidence in the case.¹ Specifically, the Board schedules a 30-day testimony period for the plaintiff to present its case in chief, a 30-day testimony period for the defendant to present its case and to meet the case of the plaintiff, and a 15-day testimony period for the plaintiff to present rebuttal evidence.² The plaintiff's period for presenting its case in chief is scheduled to open 60 days after the close of the discovery period; the defendant's testimony period is scheduled to open 30 days after the close of the plaintiff's testimony period in chief; and the plaintiff's rebuttal testimony period is scheduled to open 30 days after the close of the defendant's testimony period.³

If there is a counterclaim, or if proceedings have been consolidated and one party is in the position of plaintiff in one of the involved proceedings and in the position of defendant in another, or if there is an interference or a concurrent use registration proceeding involving more than two parties, the Board schedules testimony periods as specified in 37 CFR § 2.121(b)(2), i.e., giving each plaintiff a period for presenting its case in chief as against each defendant, giving each defendant a period for presenting its case and meeting the case of each plaintiff, and giving each plaintiff a period for rebuttal. The testimony periods are separated from the discovery period by a 60-day interval, and from each other by 30-day intervals.⁴ In an interference or concurrent use proceeding, a junior party is in the position of plaintiff and a senior party is in the position of defendant.⁵

A party may not take testimony outside of its assigned testimony period, except by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or, on motion, by order of the Board.⁶

Testimony periods may be rescheduled, extended, or reopened by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or on motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board.⁷ A stipulation or consented motion to extend or reopen testimony periods, or the discovery period and testimony periods, must be submitted to the Board and must be presented in the form used in a trial order, specifying the closing date for each period to be reset.⁸ It is preferable, where an unconsented motion seeks an extension or a reopening of a testimony period or periods, or of the discovery period and testimony periods, that the motion request that the new period or periods be set to run from the date of the Board's decision on the motion.⁹

The resetting of the closing date for discovery results in the automatic rescheduling of the testimony periods, without action by any party. However, the resetting of a party's time to respond to an outstanding request for discovery does not result in the automatic rescheduling of the discovery and/or testimony periods.¹⁰ When a party's time to respond to an outstanding request for discovery is reset, the discovery and/or testimony periods will be rescheduled only on stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or on motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board.¹¹

In Board inter partes proceedings, the taking of testimony depositions during the assigned testimony periods corresponds to the trial in court proceedings, and the trial period commences with the opening of the first testimony period.¹²

702 Manner of Trial and Introduction of Evidence – In General

The introduction of evidence in inter partes proceedings before the Board is governed by the Federal Rules of Evidence, the relevant portions of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the relevant provisions of Title 28 of the United States Code, and the rules of practice in trademark cases (i.e., the provisions of Part 2 of Title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations).¹³

Within the parameters of these rules, there are a number of ways to introduce evidence into the record in a proceeding before the Board. Evidence may be introduced in the form of testimony depositions taken by a party during its testimony period, and documents and other exhibits may be made of record with appropriate identification and introduction by the witness during the course of the deposition.¹⁴ Certain specified types of evidence, including official records and printed publications as described in 37 CFR § 2.122(e) and discovery responses under 37 CFR § 2.120(j), may, but need not be, introduced in connection with the testimony of a witness. Such evidence may instead be made of record by filing the materials with the Board under cover of a notice of reliance during the testimony period of the offering party.¹⁵ In addition, the parties may enter into a wide variety of stipulations concerning the timing and/or introduction of specified matter into evidence.¹⁶ For example, the parties may stipulate that matter otherwise improper for a notice of reliance (such as documents obtained by production under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34) may be introduced in that manner, that testimony may be submitted in the form of an affidavit, that a party may rely on its own discovery responses or that notices of reliance can be filed after the testimony periods have closed. There may also be circumstances where improperly offered or otherwise noncomplying evidence may nevertheless be deemed stipulated into the record where, for example, no objection to the evidence is raised and/or the nonoffering party treats the evidence as being of record.¹⁷

A discussion of the time and manner of taking testimony depositions and introducing evidence is presented in the sections that follow.

Because the Board is an administrative tribunal, its rules and procedures differ in some respects from those prevailing in the Federal district courts.¹⁸ For example, proceedings before the Board are conducted in writing, and the Board's actions in a particular case are based on the written record therein.¹⁹ The Board does not preside at the taking of testimony. Rather, all testimony is taken out of the presence of the Board, and the written transcripts thereof, together with any exhibits thereto, are then submitted to the Board.²⁰

Depositions may be noticed for any reasonable place in the United States.²¹ As a result, parties do not have to travel to the offices of the Board, or to the geographic area surrounding the Board's offices, to take their testimony. A party to a proceeding before the Board need never come to the offices of the Board at all, unless the party wishes to argue its case at oral hearing (and an oral hearing is held only if requested by a party to the proceeding--see 37 CFR § 2.129(a)).

The papers and other materials filed with the Board during the course of an inter partes proceeding are kept, during the course of the proceeding, in the physical possession of the Board.²² However, no paper, document, exhibit, etc. will be considered as evidence in the case unless it has been introduced in evidence in accordance with the applicable rules.²³

703 Taking and Introducing Testimony

703.01 Oral Testimony Depositions

703.01(a) In General

A testimony deposition is a device used by a party to a Board inter partes proceeding to present evidence in support of its case. Testimony is taken out of the presence of the Board, on oral examination or written questions, and the written transcripts thereof, together with any exhibits thereto, are then submitted to the Board.²⁴ During a party's testimony period, testimony depositions are taken, by or on behalf of the party, of the party himself or herself (if the party is an individual), or of an official or employee of the party, or of some other witness testifying (either willingly or under subpoena) in behalf of the party.²⁵

Testimony depositions are the means by which a party may introduce into the record not only the testimony of its witnesses, but also those documents and other exhibits that may not be made of record by notice of reliance.²⁶ However, only evidence admissible under the applicable rules of evidence may properly be adduced during a testimony deposition; inadmissibility is a valid ground for objection.²⁷

703.01(b) Form of Testimony

(1) The testimony of witnesses in inter partes cases may be taken by depositions upon oral examination as provided by this section or by depositions upon written questions as provided by § 2.124. If a party serves notice of the taking of a testimonial deposition upon written questions of a witness who is, or will be at the time of the deposition, present within the United States or any territory which is under the control and jurisdiction of the United States, any adverse party may, within fifteen days from the date of service of the notice, file a motion with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, for good cause, for an order that the deposition be taken by oral examination.

(2) A testimonial deposition taken in a foreign country shall be taken by deposition upon written questions as provided by § 2.124, unless the Board, upon motion for good cause, orders that the deposition be taken by oral examination, or the parties so stipulate.

(b) Stipulations. If the parties so stipulate in writing, depositions may be taken before any person authorized to administer oaths, at any place, upon any notice, and in any manner, and when so taken may be used like other depositions. By written agreement of the parties, the testimony of any witness or witnesses of any party, may be submitted in the form of an affidavit by such witness or witnesses. The parties may stipulate in writing what a particular witness would testify to if called, or the facts in the case of any party may be stipulated in writing.

Ordinarily, the testimony of a witness may be taken either on oral examination pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.123, or by deposition on written questions pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.124.²⁸

However, if a party serves notice of the taking of a testimony deposition on written questions of a witness who is, or will be at the time of the deposition, present within the United States (or any territory that is under the control and jurisdiction of the United States), any adverse party may, within 15 days from the date of service of the notice (20 days if service of the notice was by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier—see 37 CFR § 2.119(c)), file a motion with the Board, for good cause, for an order that the deposition be taken by oral examination.²⁹ What constitutes good cause to take an oral deposition is determined on a case-by-case basis.³⁰

In addition, a testimony deposition taken in a foreign country must be taken by deposition on written questions, unless the Board, on motion for good cause, orders that the deposition be taken by oral examination, or the parties so stipulate.³¹

By written agreement of the parties, the testimony of any witness or witnesses of any party may be submitted in the form of an affidavit by such witness or witnesses.³² The parties may also stipulate in writing the facts in the case of any party, or what a particular witness would testify to if called, or that a party may use a discovery deposition as testimony.³³

Ordinarily, a notice of oral deposition need not be filed with the Board, except as part of the completed deposition.⁴⁴ However, if a certified copy of the notice of deposition is, for some reason, required for use before a Federal district court, the notice of deposition must be filed with the Board for purposes of certification.⁴⁵

For information concerning the raising of an objection to a testimony deposition on the ground of improper or inadequate notice, see 37 CFR § 2.123(e)(3) and TBMP § 533.02.

703.01(f) Securing Attendance of Unwilling Adverse Party or Nonparty

703.01(f)(1) In General

Normally, during a party's testimony period, testimony depositions are taken, by or on behalf of the party, of the party himself or herself (if the party is an individual), or of an official or employee of the party, or of some other witness who is willing to appear voluntarily to testify on behalf of the party. These testimony depositions may be taken, at least in the United States, on notice alone.

However, where a party wishes to take the testimony of an adverse party or nonparty, or an official or employee of an adverse party or nonparty, and the proposed witness is not willing to appear voluntarily to testify, the deposition may not be taken on notice alone. Rather, the party that wishes to take the deposition must take steps, discussed below, to compel the attendance of the witness. If the witness resides in a foreign country, the party may not be able to take the deposition.⁴⁶

703.01(f)(2) Unwilling Witness Residing in United States

If a party wishes to take the trial testimony of an adverse party or nonparty (or an official or employee of an adverse party or nonparty) residing in the United States, and the proposed witness is not willing to appear voluntarily to testify, the party wishing to take the testimony must secure the attendance of the witness by subpoena.⁴⁷

The subpoena must be issued, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 24 and Fed. R. Civ. P. 45, from the United States district court in the Federal judicial district where the witness resides or is regularly employed. Occasionally district courts may request a “matter number” for the issuance of a subpoena. If that is the case, the requesting party should obtain one from the court or determine whether the Board’s proceeding number will satisfy the court. If, for any reason, a certified copy of the notice of deposition is required in connection with the subpoena, such as for purposes of a motion to quash the subpoena, or a motion to enforce the subpoena, the interested party should contact the clerk of the court to determine whether the court will require a formal certified copy (i.e., a certified copy bearing a USPTO seal) of the notice.⁴⁸ A certified copy of a notice of deposition is a copy prepared by the party noticing the deposition, and certified by the USPTO as being a true copy of the notice of deposition filed in the proceeding before the Board. A copy of a notice of deposition cannot be certified by the USPTO unless it has been filed in the Board proceeding.⁴⁹

If a person named in a subpoena compelling attendance at a testimony deposition fails to attend the deposition, or refuses to answer a question propounded at the deposition, the deposing party must seek enforcement from the United States district court that issued the subpoena. Similarly, any request to quash a subpoena must be directed to the United States district court that issued the subpoena. The Board has no jurisdiction over depositions by subpoena.⁵⁰

703.01(f)(3) Unwilling Witness Residing in Foreign Country

There is no certain procedure for obtaining, in a Board inter partes proceeding, the trial testimony deposition of a witness who resides in a foreign country, is an adverse party or a nonparty (or an official or employee of an adverse party or nonparty), and is not willing to appear voluntarily to testify. However, the deposing party may be able to obtain the testimony deposition of such a witness through the letter rogatory procedure or The Hague Convention letter of request procedure.⁵¹

For information concerning these procedures, see TBMP § 404.03(c)(2).

703.01(g) Persons Before Whom Depositions May be Taken

37 CFR § 2.123(d) Persons before whom depositions may be taken. Depositions may be taken before persons designated by Rule 28 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 28. Persons Before Whom Depositions May Be Taken

(a) Within the United States. Within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, depositions shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States or of the place where the examination is held, or before a person appointed by the court in which the action is pending. A person so appointed has power to administer oaths and take testimony. The term officer as used in Rules 30, 31 and 32 includes a person appointed by the court or designated by the parties under Rule 29.

(b) In Foreign Countries. Depositions may be taken in a foreign country (1) pursuant to any applicable treaty or convention, or (2) pursuant to a letter of request (whether or not captioned a letter rogatory), or (3) on notice before a person authorized to administer

⁵⁰ See, for example, In re Johnson & Johnson, 59 F.R.D. 174, 178 USPQ 201, 201 (D.Del. 1973) (no power to grant protective order with respect to depositions taken by subpoena); Luehrmann v. Kwik Kopy Corp., 2 USPQ2d 1303, 1304 n.3 (TTAB 1987) (no authority to quash subpoena); PRD Electronics Inc. v. Pacific Roller Die Co., 169 USPQ 318, 319 n.2 (TTAB 1971) (opposer's allegation in its brief that applicant defied a subpoena to produce witnesses is a matter opposer should have pursued before the court that issued the subpoena); Saul Lefkowitz and Janet E. oaths in the place where the examination is held, either by the law thereof or by the law of the United States, or (4) before a person commissioned by the court, and a person so commissioned shall have the power by virtue of the commission to administer any necessary oath and take testimony. A commission or a letter of request shall be issued on application and notice and on terms that are just and appropriate. It is not requisite to the issuance of a commission or a letter of request that the taking of the deposition in any other manner is impracticable or inconvenient; and both a commission and a letter of request may be issued in proper cases. A notice of commission may designate the person before whom the deposition is to be taken either by name or descriptive title. A letter of request may be addressed "To the Appropriate Authority in [here name the country]." When a letter of request or any other device is used pursuant to any applicable treaty or convention, it shall be captioned in the form prescribed by that treaty or convention. Evidence obtained in response to a letter of request need not be excluded merely because it is not a verbatim transcript, because the testimony was not taken under oath, or because of any similar departure from the requirements for depositions taken within the United States under these rules.

(c) Disqualification for Interest. No deposition shall be taken before a person who is a relative or employee or attorney or counsel of any of the parties, or is a relative or employee of such attorney or counsel, or is financially interested in the action.

Depositions in Board inter partes proceedings may be taken before the persons described in Fed. R. Civ. P. 28.⁵²

Thus, in the United States (or in any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States) a Board proceeding testimony deposition "shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States or of the place where the deposition is held, or before a person appointed by the court in which the action is pending."⁵³ As a practical matter, Board proceeding depositions taken in the United States are usually taken before a court reporter who is authorized to administer oaths in the jurisdiction where the deposition is taken.

In a foreign country, a Board proceeding testimony deposition may be taken pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 28(b). This means, for example, that a Board proceeding testimony deposition taken of a willing witness in a foreign country usually may be taken on notice before a United States consular official, or before anyone authorized by the law of the foreign country to administer oaths therein. Some countries, however, may prohibit the taking of testimony within their boundaries for use in any other country, including the United States, even though the witness is willing; or may permit the taking of testimony only if certain procedures are followed.⁵⁴ A party which wishes to take a testimony deposition in a foreign country should first consult with local counsel in the foreign country, and/or with the Office of Citizens Consular Services, Department of State, in order to determine whether the taking of the deposition will be permitted by the foreign country, and, if so, what procedure must be followed. The testimony of an unwilling adverse party or nonparty witness may be taken in a foreign country, if at all, only by the letter rogatory procedure, or by the letter of request procedure provided under the Hague Convention on the Taking of Evidence Abroad in Civil or Commercial Matters, or by any other procedure provided for the purpose by any future treaty into which the United States may enter.⁵⁵

If the parties so stipulate in writing (and if permitted by the laws of the foreign country, in the case of a deposition to be taken in a foreign country), a deposition may be taken before any person authorized to administer oaths, at any place, on any notice, and in any manner, and when so taken may be used like any other deposition.⁵⁶

703.01(h) Examination of Witnesses

37 CFR § 2.123(e) Examination of witnesses.

(1) Each witness before testifying shall be duly sworn according to law by the officer before whom his deposition is to be taken.

(2) The deposition shall be taken in answer to questions, with the questions and answers recorded in their regular order by the officer, or by some other person (who shall be subject to the provisions of Rule 28 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) in the presence of the officer except when the officer's presence is waived on the record by agreement of the parties. The testimony shall be taken stenographically and transcribed, unless the parties present agree otherwise. In the absence of all opposing parties and their attorneys or other authorized representatives, depositions may be taken in longhand, typewriting, or stenographically. Exhibits which are marked and identified at the deposition will be deemed to have been offered into evidence, without any formal offer thereof, unless the intention of the party marking the exhibits is clearly to the contrary.

(3) Every adverse party shall have full opportunity to cross-examine each witness. If the notice of examination of witnesses which is served pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section is improper or inadequate with respect to any witness, an adverse party may cross-examine that witness under protest while reserving the right to object to the receipt of the testimony in evidence. Promptly after the testimony is completed, the adverse party, if he wishes to preserve the objection, shall move to strike the testimony from the record, which motion will be decided on the basis of all the relevant circumstances. A motion to strike the testimony of a witness for lack of proper or adequate notice of examination must request the exclusion of the entire testimony of that witness and not only a part of that testimony.

(4) All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections.

37 CFR § 2.123(g) Form of deposition. (1) The pages of each deposition must be numbered consecutively, and the name of the witness plainly and conspicuously written at the top of each page. The deposition must be in written form. The questions propounded to each witness must be consecutively numbered unless the pages have numbered lines. Each question must be followed by its answer.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(7) The parties may stipulate in writing or the court may upon motion order that a deposition be taken by telephone or other remote electronic means. For the purposes of this rule and Rules 28(a), 37(a)(1), and 37(b)(1) a deposition taken by such means is taken in the district and at the place where the deponent is to answer questions.

Before testifying, a witness whose testimony deposition is being taken for use in a Board inter partes proceeding must be duly sworn, according to law, by the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken.⁵⁷

The deposition is taken in answer to questions, and the questions and answers are recorded in order by the officer, or by some other person (who is subject to the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 28) in the presence of the officer, except when the officer's presence is waived on the record by agreement of the parties. The testimony is taken stenographically and transcribed, unless the parties present agree otherwise. If no adverse party, or its attorney or other authorized representative, attends the deposition, the testimony may be taken in longhand, typewriting, or stenographically.⁵⁸

The Board does not accept videotape depositions. A deposition must be submitted to the Board in written form.⁵⁹

On stipulation of the parties, or on motion granted by the Board, a deposition may be taken or attended by telephone.⁶⁰ A deposition taken by telephone is taken in the district and at the place where the witness is to answer the questions propounded to him or her.

Exhibits which are marked and identified at the deposition will be deemed to have been offered in evidence, even if no formal offer thereof is made, unless the intention of the party marking the exhibits is clearly to the contrary.⁶¹

Every adverse party must be given a full opportunity to cross-examine the witness. If the notice of deposition served by a party is improper or inadequate with respect to the witness, an adverse party may cross-examine the witness under protest while reserving the right to object to the receipt of the testimony in evidence.⁶²

All objections made at the time of the taking of a testimony deposition as to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, the manner of taking the deposition, the evidence presented, the conduct of any party, or any other objection to the proceedings, are noted by the officer upon the deposition. - (1) A paper submission must be printed in at least 11-point type and double-spaced, with text on one side only of each sheet;*
- (2) A paper submission must be 8 to 8.5 inches (20.3 to 21.6 cm.) wide and 11 to 11.69 inches (27.9 to 29.7 cm.) long, and contain no tabs or other such devices extending beyond the edges of the paper;*
- (3) If a paper submission contains dividers, the dividers must not have any extruding tabs or other devices, and must be on the same size and weight paper as the submission;*
- (4) A paper submission must not be stapled or bound;*
- (5) All pages of a paper submission must be numbered and exhibits shall be identified in the manner prescribed in §2.123(g)(2);*
- (6) Exhibits pertaining to a paper submission must be filed on paper or CD-ROM concurrently with the paper submission, and comply with the requirements for a paper or CD-ROM submission.*

(b) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board on CD-ROM where the rules in this part or Board practice permit. A CD-ROM submission must identify the parties and case number and contain a list that clearly identifies the documents and exhibits contained thereon. This information must appear in the data contained in the CD-ROM itself, on a label affixed to the CD-ROM, and on the packaging for the CD-ROM. Text in a CD-ROM submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced. A brief filed on CD-ROM must be accompanied by a single paper copy of the brief. A CD-ROM submission must be accompanied by a transmittal letter on paper that identifies the parties, the case number and the contents of the CD-ROM.

(c) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board electronically via the Internet where the rules in this part or Board practice permit, according to the parameters established by the Board and published on the web site of the Office. Text in an electronic submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced. Exhibits pertaining to an electronic submission must be made electronically as an attachment to the submission.

TRIAL PROCEDURE AND INTRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

The general requirements for submissions to the Board, including depositions and exhibits thereto, are specified in 37 CFR § 2.126.⁶⁷ The particular requirements for the form of a written deposition are specified in 37 CFR § 2.123(g).

Depositions may be submitted to the Board on paper, CD-ROM, or electronically over the Internet.⁶⁸ The requirements for each form of submission are set out in 37 CFR § 2.126(a), (b) and (c), respectively.

A paper deposition must be 8 to 8.5 inches wide and 11 to 11.69 inches long, and printed in at least 11-point type and double-spaced, with the text on one side only of each sheet. If a paper submission contains dividers, the dividers may not contain tabs or any devices that extend beyond the edges of the paper, and must be on the same size and weight paper as the submission.

In addition, a paper deposition must not be stapled or bound. All paper submissions are scanned electronically into the Board's electronic information system and removing staples or binding prior to scanning is difficult and time-consuming, especially where papers have been bound by machine. Moreover, disassembling stapled or bound papers can damage pages, resulting in misfeeds to the scanning equipment and increasing the likelihood that pages will become disordered during scanning.⁶⁹

CD-ROM submissions are governed by part (b) of 37 CFR § 2.126, and the requirements for electronic submissions over the Internet can be found in part (c) of 37 CFR § 2.126. Submissions over the Internet are made through the Board's electronic filing system, ESTTA which is available on the USPTO web site.⁷⁰

Exhibits to a deposition are also subject to the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.126. If a deposition is submitted on paper, any exhibits pertaining to the deposition must be filed on paper or CD-ROM and comply with the requirements for a paper or CD-ROM submission.⁷¹ Exhibits pertaining to a deposition that is filed electronically must be filed electronically as an attachment to the deposition and conform to the requirements for electronic submissions.⁷² Exhibits that are large, bulky, valuable, or breakable may be photographed or otherwise reproduced so that an appropriate paper or digitized image of the exhibits can be filed with the Board in lieu of the originals. The originals should, of course, be shown to every adverse party. Exhibits consisting of videotapes or audiotapes of commercials, demonstrations, etc., may be transferred to an appropriate electronic format for submission to the Board.

As with any paper submission, paper exhibits may not contain tabs, dividers or any other devices that extend beyond the edges of the paper, and moreover, may not be stapled or bound. However, it would be acceptable to use binder clips, rubber bands, or other such means for containing the materials that would allow for easy separation of the papers for scanning.

Confidential portions of the deposition and confidential exhibits must be submitted in accordance with 37 CFR § 2.126(d). For further information concerning the submission of confidential information, see TBMP §§ 703.01(p) and 703.02(l).

Exhibits must be marked as specified in 37 CFR § 2.123(g)(2). The Board, in its discretion, may refuse to enter and consider improperly marked exhibits.⁷³

For information concerning deposition objections based on errors or irregularities in form, see TBMP § 707.03(c).

703.01(j) Signature of Deposition by Witness

37 CFR § 2.123(e)(5) When the deposition has been transcribed, the deposition shall be carefully read over by the witness or by the officer to him, and shall then be signed by the witness in the presence of any officer authorized to administer oaths unless the reading and the signature be waived on the record by agreement of all parties.

The signature of a deposition by the witness is governed by 37 CFR § 2.123(e)(5). The deposition does not have to be signed in the presence of the officer before whom the deposition was taken. It may be signed in the presence of any officer authorized to administer oaths.

Reading and signature cannot be waived by mere agreement of the witness; the agreement of every party is required.⁷⁴

703.01(k) Certification and Filing of Deposition

37 CFR § 2.123(f) Certification and filing of deposition.

- (1) The officer shall annex to the deposition his certificate showing:
- (i) Due administration of the oath by the officer to the witness before the commencement of his deposition;
 - (ii) The name of the person by whom the deposition was taken down, and whether, if not taken down by the officer, it was taken down in his presence;
 - (iii) The presence or absence of the adverse party;
 - (iv) The place, day, and hour of commencing and taking the deposition;
 - (v) The fact that the officer was not disqualified as specified in Rule 28 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
- (2) If any of the foregoing requirements in paragraph (f)(1) are waived, the certificate shall so state. The officer shall sign the certificate and affix thereto his seal of office, if he has such a seal. Unless waived on the record by an agreement, he shall then securely seal in an envelope all the evidence, notices, and paper exhibits, inscribe upon the envelope a certificate giving the number and title of the case, the name of each witness, and the date of sealing. The officer or the party taking the deposition, or its attorney or other authorized representative, shall then promptly forward the package to the address set out in § 1.1(a)(2)(i). If the weight or bulk of an exhibit shall exclude it from the envelope, it shall, unless waived on the record by agreement of all parties, be authenticated by the officer and transmitted by the officer or the party taking the deposition, or its attorney or other authorized representative, in a separate package marked and addressed as provided in this section.

37 CFR § 2.125 Filing and service of testimony.

- (a) One copy of the transcript of testimony taken in accordance with § 2.123, together with copies of documentary exhibits and duplicates or photographs of physical exhibits, shall be served on each adverse party within thirty days after completion of the taking of that testimony. If the transcript with exhibits is not served on each adverse party within thirty days or within an extension of time for the purpose, any adverse party which was not served may have remedy by way of a motion to the Trademark Trial and Appeal

Board to reset such adverse party's testimony and/or briefing periods, as may be appropriate. If the deposing party fails to serve a copy of the transcript with exhibits on an adverse party after having been ordered to do so by the Board, the Board, in its discretion, may strike the deposition, or enter judgment as by default against the deposing party, or take any such other action as may be deemed appropriate.

(c) One certified transcript and exhibits shall be filed with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board. Notice of such filing shall be served on each adverse party and a copy of each notice shall be filed with the Board.

The certification and filing of a deposition are governed by 37 CFR § 2.123(f).⁷⁵ The certified transcript, with exhibits, should be sent to the Board at its mailing address, i.e., Commissioner of Trademarks, 2900 Crystal Drive, Arlington, Virginia 22202-3514.

The certified transcript and exhibits must be filed with the Board.⁷⁶ The Board will accept transcripts of testimony depositions at any time prior to the submission of the case for final decision.⁷⁷ In addition, a notice of reliance on the deposition transcript need not (and should not) be filed.⁷⁸ However, notice of the filing of the certified transcript, and accompanying exhibits, with the Board must be served on each adverse party. A copy of each such notice must also be filed with the Board.⁷⁹ In addition, one copy of the deposition transcript, together with copies, duplicates, or photographs of the exhibits thereto, must be served on each adverse party within 30 days after completion of the taking of the testimony, or within an extension of time for the purpose.⁸⁰ For information concerning the remedy that an adverse party may have if it is not timely served with a copy of the deposition and exhibits, see TBMP § 703.01(m).

703.01(l) Testimony Deposition Must be Filed

37 CFR § 2.123(h) Depositions must be filed. All depositions which are taken must be duly filed in the Patent and Trademark Office. On refusal to file, the Office at its discretion will not further hear or consider the contestant with whom the refusal lies; and the Office may, at its discretion, receive and consider a copy of the withheld deposition, attested by such evidence as is procurable.

All trial testimony depositions that are taken in a Board inter partes proceeding must be filed with the Board, and, when filed, automatically constitute part of the evidentiary record in the proceeding.⁸¹ If a party which took a testimony deposition refuses to file it, the Board, in its discretion, may refuse to further hear or consider the party, or may receive and consider a copy of the withheld deposition, attested by such evidence as is procurable.⁸²

703.01(m) Service of Deposition

37 CFR § 2.125 Filing and service of testimony. (a) One copy of the transcript of testimony taken in accordance with § 2.123, together with copies of documentary exhibits and duplicates or photographs of physical exhibits, shall be served on each adverse party within thirty days after completion of the taking of that testimony. If the transcript with exhibits is not served on each adverse party within thirty days or within an extension of time for the purpose, any adverse party which was not served may have remedy by way of a motion to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board to reset such adverse party's testimony and/or briefing periods, as may be appropriate. If the deposing party fails to serve a copy of the transcript with exhibits on an adverse party after having been ordered to do so by the Board, the Board, in its discretion, may strike the deposition, or enter judgment as by default against the deposing party, or take any such other action as may be deemed appropriate.

Chapter 700

One copy of the transcript of trial testimony, together with copies of documentary exhibits and duplicates or photographs of physical exhibits, must be served on each adverse party within 30 days after completion of the taking of the testimony, or within an extension of time for the purpose.⁸³

The requirement that a copy of the transcript, with exhibits, be served on every adverse party within the time specified in 37 CFR § 2.125(a) is intended to ensure that each adverse party will have the testimony before it has to offer its own evidence, or, if the testimony in question is rebuttal testimony, to ensure that each adverse party will have the testimony before it has to prepare its brief on the case.⁸⁴ If a copy of the transcript, with exhibits, is not served on each adverse party within that time, any adverse party that was not served may have remedy by way of a motion to the Board to reset its testimony and/or briefing periods, as may be appropriate.⁸⁵

If a party that took a deposition fails to serve a copy of the transcript, with exhibits, on an adverse party after having been ordered to do so by the Board, the Board, in its discretion, may take any of the actions mentioned in 37 CFR § 2.125(a).

703.01(n) Correction of Errors in Deposition

37 CFR § 2.125(b) The party who takes testimony is responsible for having all typographical errors in the transcript and all errors of arrangement, indexing and form of the transcript corrected, on notice to each adverse party, prior to the filing of one certified transcript with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board. The party who takes testimony is responsible for serving on each adverse party one copy of the corrected transcript or, if reasonably feasible, corrected pages to be inserted into the transcript previously served.

A party that takes testimony is responsible for having any errors in the transcript corrected, on notice to each adverse party, prior to the filing of the certified transcript with the Board.⁸⁶

TRIAL PROCEDURE AND INTRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

If the witness, upon reading the transcript, discovers that typographical or transcription errors need to be made, or that other corrections are necessary to make the transcript an accurate record of what the witness actually said during the taking of his or her testimony, the witness should make a list of all such corrections and forward the list to the officer before whom the deposition was taken. The officer, in turn, should correct the transcript by redoing the involved pages. Alternatively, if there are not many corrections to be made, the witness may correct the transcript by writing each correction above the original text that it corrects, and initialing the correction. Although parties sometimes attempt to correct errors in transcripts by simply inserting a list of corrections at the end of the transcript, this is not an effective method of correction. The Board does not enter corrections for litigants, and the list of corrections is likely to be overlooked and/or disregarded. While corrections may be made in a transcript, to make the transcript an accurate record of what the witness said during the taking of his or her testimony, material changes in the text are not permitted--the transcript may not be altered to change the testimony of the witness after the fact.⁸⁷

If corrections are necessary, the party that took the deposition must serve on every adverse party a copy of the corrected transcript or, if reasonably feasible, corrected pages to be inserted into the transcript previously served.⁸⁸

If errors are discovered after the transcript has been filed with the Board, a list of corrections, signed by the witness, should be submitted to the Board (and served on every adverse party), together with a request for leave to correct the errors. Alternatively, the parties may stipulate that specified corrections may be made. If the request is granted, or if the parties so stipulate, the party that took the deposition should send a representative to the offices of the Board to make the listed corrections by writing them above the original text in the transcript.⁸⁹ reply brief overruled since remedy lies in requesting extension of briefing period rather than having Board exclude the evidence).

Kerr*, 225 USPQ 331, 333 n.4 (TTAB 1985) (Board gave no consideration to response or corrected response when the correction, which changed the percentage of opposer's business income derived from licensing, was substantive); Entex Industries, Inc. v. Milton Bradley Co., 213 USPQ 1116, 1117 n.2 (TTAB 1982) (change in testimony from "...designing that type of game..." to "...designing that Simon Says type of game..." was substantive in nature and not permitted).

703.01(o) Objections to Testimony Depositions

For information concerning objections to testimony depositions, see TBMP § 707.03. See also TBMP § 533.

703.01(p) Confidential or Trade Secret Material

37 CFR § 2.125(e) Upon motion by any party, for good cause, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board may order that any part of a deposition transcript or any exhibits that directly disclose any trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information may be filed under seal and kept confidential under the provisions of § 2.27(e). If any party or any attorney or agent of a party fails to comply with an order made under this paragraph, the Board may impose any of the sanctions authorized by § 2.120(g).

37 CFR § 2.126(d) To be handled as confidential, submissions to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board that are confidential in whole or part pursuant to § 2.125(e) must be submitted under a separate cover. Both the submission and its cover must be marked confidential and must identify the case number and the parties. A copy of the submission with the confidential portions redacted must be submitted.

The requirements for confidential submissions are specified in part (d) of 37 CFR § 2.126. To be handled as confidential, and kept out of the public record, submissions to the Board that are confidential must be filed under a separate cover. Both the submission and its cover must be marked confidential and must identify the case number and the parties. A copy of the submission with the confidential portions redacted must also be submitted.⁹⁰

Confidential materials filed in the absence of a protective order are not regarded as confidential and are not kept confidential by the Board.⁹¹ The mere stamping of “confidential” on documents does not operate in lieu of a protective order or agreement.

Except for materials filed under seal pursuant to a protective order, the files of applications and registrations that are the subject matter of pending proceedings before the Board and all pending proceeding files and exhibits thereto are available for public ⁹⁰ See 37 CFR § 2.126(d). See also TBMP § 120.02 (Confidential Materials).

⁹¹ See Harjo v. Pro-Football, Inc., 50 USPQ2d 1705 (TTAB 1999) (Board agreed to hold exhibits marked confidential for thirty days pending receipt of a motion for a protective order but cautioned that in the absence of such motion, the exhibits would be placed in the proceeding file), rev'd on other grounds, 284 F. inspection and copying.⁹² Therefore, only the particular exhibits or deposition transcript pages that disclose confidential information should be filed under seal pursuant to a protective order. If a party submits a transcript or other such filing containing confidential information under seal, the party must also submit for the public record a redacted version of said papers.⁹³

703.02 Testimony Depositions on Written Questions

703.02(a) Depositions on Written Questions: When Available

37 CFR § 2.123(a)(1) The testimony of witnesses in inter partes cases may be taken by depositions upon oral examination as provided by this section or by depositions upon written questions as provided by § 2.124. If a party serves notice of the taking of a testimonial deposition upon written questions of a witness who is, or will be at the time of the deposition, present within the United States or any territory which is under the control and jurisdiction of the United States, any adverse party may, within fifteen days from the date of service of the notice, file a motion with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, for good cause, for an order that the deposition be taken by oral examination.

(2) A testimonial deposition taken in a foreign country shall be taken by deposition upon written questions as provided by § 2.124, unless the Board, upon motion for good cause, orders that the deposition be taken by oral examination, or the parties so stipulate.

(b) Stipulations. If the parties so stipulate in writing, depositions may be taken before any person authorized to administer oaths, at any place, upon any notice, and in any manner, and when so taken may be used like other depositions. By written agreement of the parties, the testimony of any witness or witnesses of any party, may be submitted in the form of an affidavit by such witness or witnesses. The parties may stipulate in writing what a particular witness would testify to if called, or the facts in the case of any party may be stipulated in writing.

Ordinarily, the testimony of a witness may be taken either on oral examination pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.123, or by deposition on written questions pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.124.⁹⁴ For information concerning depositions on oral examination, see TBMP § 703.01.

TRIAL PROCEDURE AND INTRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

However, if a party serves notice of the taking of a testimony deposition on written questions of a witness who is, or will be at the time of the deposition, present within the United States (or any territory which is under the control and jurisdiction of the United States), any adverse party may, within 15 days from the date of service of the notice (20 days if service of the notice was by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier-see 37 CFR § 2.119(c)), file a motion with the Board, for good cause, for an order that the deposition be taken by oral examination.⁹⁵

In addition, a testimony deposition taken in a foreign country must be taken by deposition on written questions, unless the Board, on motion for good cause, orders that the deposition be taken by oral examination, or the parties so stipulate.⁹⁶

37 CFR § 2.124(a) A deposition upon written questions may be taken before any person before whom depositions may be taken as provided by Rule 28 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

A deposition on written questions, like a deposition on oral examination, may be taken before the persons described in Fed. R. Civ. P. 28. See 37 CFR § 2.124(a). For further information, see TBMP § 703.01(g).

703.02(c) Depositions on Written Questions: When Taken

37 CFR § 2.121 Assignment of times for taking testimony. (a)(1) The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board will issue a trial order assigning to each party the time for taking testimony. No testimony shall be taken except during the times assigned, unless by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or, upon motion, by order of the Board. Testimony periods may be rescheduled by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or upon motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board. ...

37 CFR § 2.124(b)(1) A party desiring to take a testimonial deposition upon written questions shall serve notice thereof upon each adverse party within ten days from the opening date of the testimony period of the party who serves the notice. The notice shall state the name and address of the witness. A copy of the notice, but not copies of the questions, shall be filed with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

(d)(2) ... Upon receipt of written notice that one or more testimonial depositions are to be taken upon written questions, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board shall suspend or reschedule other proceedings in the matter to allow for the orderly completion of the depositions upon written question.

A party may take testimony only during its assigned testimony period, except by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or, on motion, by order of the Board.⁹⁷

A party that desires to take a testimony deposition on written questions must serve notice thereof on each adverse party within 10 days from the opening date of the deposing party's testimony period, as originally set or as reset.⁹⁸

On receipt of written notice that one or more testimony depositions are to be taken on written questions, the Board will suspend or reschedule other proceedings in the case to allow for the orderly completion of the depositions on written questions.⁹⁹

For information concerning the time for taking a discovery deposition, see TBMP § 404.01.

703.02(d) Depositions on Written Questions: Place of Deposition

A testimony deposition on written questions may be taken at any reasonable place.¹⁰⁰ An adverse party may attend the taking of the deposition if it so desires, not for the purpose of participating (its participation will have occurred previously, through its service of cross questions, recross questions, and objections, if any, pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.124(d)(1)), but rather merely for the purpose of observing.

(e) Within ten days after the last date when questions, objections, or substitute questions may be served, the party who proposes to take the deposition shall mail a copy of the notice and copies of all the questions to the officer designated in the notice; a copy of the notice and of all the questions mailed to the officer shall be served on every adverse party. The officer designated in the notice shall take the testimony of the witness in response to the questions and shall record each answer immediately after the corresponding question. The officer shall then certify the transcript and mail the transcript and exhibits to the party who took the deposition.

A party which desires to take a testimony deposition on written questions must, within 10 days from the opening date of its testimony period, as originally set or as reset, serve notice thereof on each adverse party.¹⁰⁵

The notice must be accompanied by the written questions to be propounded on behalf of the deposing party.¹⁰⁶ A copy of the notice, but not of the questions, must be filed with the Board.¹⁰⁷

Within 20 days from the date of service of the notice (25 days, if service of the notice and accompanying questions was made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier--see 37 CFR § 2.119(c)), any adverse party may serve cross questions on the deposing party. A party that serves cross questions on the deposing party must also serve copies of them on every other adverse party. Within 10 days from the date of service of the cross questions (15 days, if service of the cross questions was made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier), the deposing party may serve redirect questions on every adverse party. Within 10 days from the date of service of the redirect questions (15 days, if service of the redirect questions was made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier), any party that served cross questions may serve recross questions on the deposing party. A party that serves recross questions on the deposing party must also serve copies thereof on every other adverse party.¹⁰⁸

Written objections to questions may be served on the party that propounded the questions. A party that serves objections on a propounding party must also serve a copy of the objections on every other adverse party. In response to objections, substitute questions may be served on the objecting party within 10 days from the date of service of the objections (15 days, if service of the objections was made by first-class mail,

Further, on receipt of written notice that one or more testimony depositions are to be taken on written questions, the Board will suspend or reschedule other proceedings in the matter to allow for the orderly completion of the depositions on written questions.¹¹⁰

Within 10 days after the last date when questions, objections, or substitute questions may be served, the deposing party must mail a copy of the notice and copies of all the questions to the officer designated in the notice. A copy of the notice and of all the questions mailed to the officer must also be served on every adverse party. The officer designated in the notice shall take the testimony of the witness in response to the questions, and shall record each answer immediately after the corresponding question.¹¹¹

An adverse party may attend the taking of the deposition if it so desires, not for the purpose of participating (its participation will have occurred previously, through its service of cross questions, recross questions, and objections, if any, pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.124(d)(1)), but rather merely for the purpose of observing.

If the parties so stipulate in writing, a deposition may be taken before any person authorized to administer oaths, at any place, on any notice, and in any manner. When so taken, the deposition may be used like any other deposition.¹¹² on every adverse party. The officer designated in the notice shall take the testimony of the witness in response to the questions and shall record each answer immediately after the corresponding question. The officer shall then certify the transcript and mail the transcript and exhibits to the party who took the deposition.

The officer before whom a deposition on written questions is taken shall record each answer immediately after the corresponding question.¹¹³

For further information on the form for a deposition taken in an inter partes proceeding before the Board, see 37 CFR §§ 2.123(g), 2.126, and TBMP § 703.01(i) (Form of Deposition and Exhibits).

For information concerning signature of a deposition taken in an inter partes proceeding before the Board, see 37 CFR § 2.123(e)(5), and TBMP § 703.01(j).

After the officer designated in the notice of deposition has taken a deposition on written questions, the officer must certify the transcript of the deposition. See 37 CFR § 2.124(e). For information concerning certification of a deposition taken in an inter partes proceeding before the Board, see 37 CFR § 2.123(f), and TBMP § 703.01(k).

When the transcript has been certified, the officer should mail the transcript and exhibits to the party that took the deposition.¹¹⁴

703.02(i) Depositions on Written Questions: Service, Correction and Filing of Deposition

37 CFR § 2.124(f) The party who took the deposition shall promptly serve a copy of the transcript, copies of documentary exhibits, and duplicates or photographs of physical exhibits on every adverse party. It is the responsibility of the party who takes the deposition to assure that the transcript is correct (see § 2.125(b)). If the deposition is a discovery deposition, it may be made of record as provided by § 2.120(j). If the deposition is a testimonial deposition, the original, together with copies of documentary exhibits and duplicates or photographs of physical exhibits, shall be filed promptly with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

The party that took the deposition on written questions must promptly serve a copy of the transcript, with exhibits, on every adverse party.¹¹⁵ The party that took the deposition must also assure that the transcript is correct.¹¹⁶ For information concerning correction of errors in a deposition taken in a Board inter partes proceeding, see TBMP § 703.01(n).

If the deposition is a testimony deposition, the original, with exhibits, must be filed promptly with the Board.¹¹⁷ By "promptly" the Board means that the transcript, with exhibits, may be filed at any time prior to submission of the case for final decision.¹¹⁸

703.02(j) Testimony Depositions on Written Questions Must be Filed

While the offering of a discovery deposition in evidence is voluntary, all trial testimony depositions that are taken in a Board inter partes proceeding must be filed in the Office, and, when filed, automatically constitute part of the evidentiary record in the proceeding.¹¹⁹

See, with respect to making a discovery deposition of record, 37 CFR § 2.120(j) and TBMP § 704.09.

703.02(k) Depositions on Written Questions: Objections to Deposition

37 CFR § 2.124(d)(1) ... Written objections to questions may be served on a party propounding questions; any party who objects shall serve a copy of the objections on every other adverse party. In response to objections, substitute questions may be served on the objecting party within ten days of the date of service of the objections; substitute questions shall be served on every other adverse party.

(g) Objections to questions and answers in depositions upon written questions may be considered at final hearing.

Written objections to questions propounded for a deposition on written questions may be served on the party that propounded the questions. Any party that serves written objections on a propounding party must also serve a copy of the objections on every other adverse party.¹²⁰

For information concerning the protection of confidential or trade secret material forming part of a deposition transcript or exhibits thereto, see 37 CFR §§ 2.125(e), 2.126(d) and TBMP § 703.01(p).

703.02(m) Depositions on Written Questions: Utility

A deposition on written questions is a cumbersome, time-consuming procedure. It requires that cross questions, redirect questions, recross questions, and objections all be framed and served before the questions on direct examination have even been answered. Moreover, it deprives an adverse party of the right to confront the witness and ask follow-up questions on cross examination.¹²²

Nevertheless, it has some utility. It may be the only means by which a deposition may be taken in a foreign country.¹²³ Moreover, the deposition on written questions is generally less expensive than the deposition on oral examination and is usually more convenient for the witness. Thus, even for a deposition to be taken in the United States, a deposing party may prefer to use the deposition on written questions, particularly in those cases where the testimony will be short, simple, straight-forward, and not likely to be disputed, such as to establish for the record examples of third-party usage.¹²⁴

704 Introducing Other Evidence

704.01 In General

As noted earlier in this chapter (see TBMP § 702) evidence in an inter partes proceeding before the Board can be introduced in a number of ways. The first part of this chapter discussed the introduction of evidence in the form of testimony depositions with accompanying exhibits. The following sections discuss other forms of evidence and the methods available for their introduction.

704.02 Notice of Reliance – Generally

Certain types of evidence, such as official records and printed publications as described in 37 CFR § 2.122(e), need not be introduced in connection with the testimony of a witness but may instead be made of record by filing the materials with the Board under cover of one or more notices of reliance during the testimony period of the offering party. A notice of reliance is essentially a cover sheet for the materials sought to be introduced. This cover sheet is entitled "notice of reliance" and it serves, as the title suggests, to notify opposing parties that the offering party intends to rely on the materials submitted thereunder in support of its case. The notice of reliance must include a description of the proffered materials and, in some instances, must indicate the relevance of those materials to the case. A discussion of the types of evidence that may be submitted by notice of reliance and the requirements for introduction of such evidence by notice of reliance can be found in the sections that follow.

704.03 Applications and Registrations

704.03(a) Subject of Proceeding

37 CFR 2.122(b) Application files.

(1) The file of each application or registration specified in a notice of interference, of each application or registration specified in the notice of a concurrent use registration proceeding, of the application against which a notice of opposition is filed, or of each registration against which a petition or counterclaim for cancellation is filed forms part of the record of the proceeding without any action by the parties and reference may be made to the file for any relevant and competent purpose.

¹²⁴ Cf. Feed Flavors Inc. v. Kemin Industries, Inc., supra.

TRIAL PROCEDURE AND INTRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

(2) The allegation in an application for registration, or in a registration, of a date of use is not evidence on behalf of the applicant or registrant; a date of use of a mark must be established by competent evidence. Specimens in the file of an application for registration, or in the file of a registration, are not evidence on behalf of the applicant or registrant unless identified and introduced in evidence as exhibits during the period for the taking of testimony.

The file of an application or registration that is the subject of a Board inter partes proceeding forms part of the record of the proceeding without any action by the parties, and reference may be made to the file by any party for any relevant and competent purpose.¹²⁵

However, the fact that the subject application or registration file is automatically part of the record in a proceeding does not mean that the allegations made, and the specimens, documents, exhibits, etc., filed therein are evidence on behalf of the applicant or registrant in the inter partes proceeding. Allegations must be established by competent evidence properly adduced at trial. The specimens, documents, exhibits, etc., in an application or registration file are not properly adduced evidence in an inter partes proceeding, on behalf of the applicant or registrant unless they are identified and introduced in evidence as exhibits during the testimony period.¹²⁶

For further information concerning the probative value of applications and registrations, see TBMP § 704.03.

704.03(b) Not Subject of Proceeding – In General

The file of a particular application or registration that is not the subject of a proceeding may be made of record either in connection with testimony or by notice of reliance as described below.

TRIAL PROCEDURE AND INTRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

704.03(b)(1) Registration Not Subject of Proceeding

704.03(b)(1)(A) Registration Owned by Party

37 CFR § 2.122(d) Registrations.

(1) A registration of the opposer or petitioner pleaded in an opposition or petition to cancel will be received in evidence and made part of the record if the opposition or petition is accompanied by two copies (originals or photocopies) of the registration prepared and issued by the Patent and Trademark Office showing both the current status of and current title to the registration. For the cost of a copy of a registration showing status and title, see § 2.6(b)(4).

(2) A registration owned by any party to a proceeding may be made of record in the proceeding by that party by appropriate identification and introduction during the taking of testimony or by filing a notice of reliance, which shall be accompanied by a copy (original or photocopy) of the registration prepared and issued by the Patent and Trademark Office showing both the current status of and current title to the registration. The notice of reliance shall be filed during the testimony period of the party that files the notice.

A party that wishes to rely on its ownership of a Federal registration of its mark that is not the subject of a proceeding before the Board may make the registration of record by offering evidence sufficient to establish that the registration is still subsisting, and that it is owned by the party which seeks to rely on it.¹²⁷ This may be done in a number of different ways.

A Federal registration owned by the plaintiff in an opposition or cancellation proceeding, and pleaded by the plaintiff in its complaint, will be received in evidence and made part of the record in the proceeding if the complaint (either as originally filed or as amended) is accompanied by Matney*, 194 USPQ 438, 440 (TTAB 1977) (pleaded registration was not considered of record where testimony introduced original certificate of registration into evidence but failed to establish current status and title); and Peters Sportswear Co. v. Peter's Bag Corp., 187 USPQ 647, 647 (TTAB 1975) (mere fact that copies show that registration originally issued to opposer does not establish that title still resides in opposer).

A Federal registration owned by any party to a Board inter partes proceeding will be received in evidence and made part of the record in the proceeding if that party files, during its testimony period, a notice of reliance on the registration, accompanied by a copy of the registration prepared and issued by the Office showing both the current status of and current title to the registration.¹³¹

A party's submission, with a notice of reliance on its registration, of an order for status and title copies of the registration is not sufficient to make the registration of record. Although that procedure was once permitted, it is no longer allowed.¹³² The status and title copies themselves must accompany the notice of reliance.¹³³ However, the status and title copies need not be certified.¹³⁴ Additionally, a party need not submit the original status and title copy; a photocopy is sufficient.¹³⁵

The registration copies "prepared and issued by the Patent and Trademark Office showing both the current status of and current title to the registration," as contemplated by 37 CFR § 2.122(d), are printed copies of the registration on which the Office has entered the information it has in its records, at the time it prepares and issues the status and title copies, about the current status and title of the registration. That information includes information about the renewal, cancellation, publication under Section 12(c) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1062(c); affidavits or declarations under Sections 8, 15 and 71 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1058, 1065 and 1141; and recorded documents transferring title.¹³⁶ Plain copies of the registration, and the electronic equivalent thereof, such as printouts of the registration from the electronic records of the Office's trademark automated search system, are not sufficient.¹³⁷

Peter's Bag Corp.*, 187 USPQ 647, 647 (TTAB 1975) (constitutes prima facie showing of status and title).

NOTE: Except under limited circumstances, requests to record an assignment of a 66(a) registration must be filed directly with the International Bureau. See 37 CFR §§ 7.22 and 7.23. The International Bureau will notify the Office of any changes in ownership recorded in the International Register, and the Office will record only those assignments or other documents transferring title that have been recorded in the International Register. See Exam Guide No. 2-03, Guide to Implementation of Madrid Protocol in the United States, (part IV.F.) (October 28, 2003) on the Office web site at www.uspto.gov.

Chapter 700

Although the status and title copies need not be certified (see 37 CFR § 2.122(e)), at present all status and title copies prepared and issued by the Office are certified.¹³⁸ For the cost of a copy of a registration showing status and title, see 37 CFR § 2.6(b)(4).

The issuance date of status and title copies filed with a complaint must be reasonably contemporaneous with the filing date of the complaint. Status and title copies filed under a notice of reliance during the offering party's testimony period must have been issued at a time reasonably contemporaneous with the filing of the complaint, or thereafter.¹³⁹ The fact that there have been no changes in the status and title of a party's registration since the date of its issuance does not mean that a plain photocopy thereof may be used by the party as a substitute for the status and title copy.¹⁴⁰

When it comes to the attention of the Board that there has been an Office error in the preparation of a registration status and title copy made of record in an inter partes proceeding, that is, that the status and title copy does not accurately reflect the status and title information which the Office has in its records, the Board will take judicial notice of the correct facts as shown by the records of the Office.¹⁴¹ Further, when a Federal registration owned by a party has been properly made of record in an inter partes proceeding, and the status of the registration changes between the time it was made of record and the time the case is decided, the Board, in deciding the case, will take judicial notice of, and rely on, the current status of the registration, as shown by the records of the Office.¹⁴²

A Federal registration owned by any party to a Board inter partes proceeding may be made of record by that party by appropriate identification and introduction during the taking of testimony, that is, by introducing a copy of the registration as an exhibit to testimony, made by a witness having knowledge of the current status and title of the registration, establishing that the registration is still subsisting, and is owned by the offering party.¹⁴³

A Federal registration owned by a plaintiff (including a counterclaimant) will be deemed by the Board to be of record in an inter partes proceeding if the defendant's answer to the complaint contains admissions sufficient for the purpose.¹⁴⁴

Similarly, a registration owned by any party to the proceeding may be deemed by the Board to be of record in the proceeding, even though the registration was not properly introduced in accordance with the applicable rules, if the adverse party in its brief, or otherwise, treats the registration as being of record.¹⁴⁵

Finally, a registration owned by any party to the proceeding may be made of record in the proceeding by stipulation of the parties.¹⁴⁶

When a subsisting registration on the Principal Register has been properly made of record by its owner in a Board inter partes proceeding, the certificate of registration is entitled to certain statutory evidentiary presumptions.¹⁴⁷

Making the file history of the registration of record. If a party owns a registration that is not the subject of the proceeding and wishes to make of record the registration file history (rather than just the certificate of registration), or a portion thereof, it may do so by: (1) filing, during its testimony period, a copy of the file history, or the portion it wishes to introduce, together with a notice of reliance thereon as an official record pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.122(e) (see TBMP § 704.05); or (2) appropriate identification and introduction of a copy of the file history, or portion thereof, during the taking of testimony; or (3) stipulation of the parties, accompanied by a copy of the file history, or portion thereof.

The file history of a registration owned by another party, but not the subject of the proceeding, may be made of record in the same manner.¹⁵³ Copies of official records of the Patent and Trademark Office need not be certified.¹⁵⁴ or that segment of the public which is relevant under an issue in a proceeding, and official records, if the publication or official record is competent evidence and relevant to an issue, may be introduced in evidence by filing a notice of reliance on the material being offered. The notice shall specify the printed publication (including information sufficient to identify the source and the date of the publication) or the official record and the pages to be read; indicate generally the relevance of the material being offered; and be accompanied by the official record or a copy thereof whose authenticity is established under the Federal Rules of Evidence, or by the printed publication or a copy of the relevant portion thereof. A copy of an official record of the Patent and Trademark Office need not be certified to be offered in evidence. The notice of reliance shall be filed during the testimony period of the party that files the notice.

A party to an inter partes proceeding before the Board may introduce as part of its evidence in the case, a registration owned by a party not involved in the proceeding.¹⁵⁵

A party that wishes to make such a third-party registration of record in a Board inter partes proceeding may do so by filing, during its testimony period, a plain copy of the registration together with a notice of reliance thereon specifying the registration and indicating generally its relevance.¹⁵⁶

A party to a Board inter partes proceeding may also make a third-party registration of record by introducing a copy of it as an exhibit to testimony, or by stipulation of the parties.

It is not necessary that the copy of the third-party registration submitted with a notice of reliance (or with testimony or a stipulation) be certified, nor need it be a current status and title copy prepared by the Office; a plain

copy (or legible photocopy) of the registration itself, or the electronic equivalent thereof, that is, a printout of the registration from the electronic records of the Office's automated search system is all that is required.¹⁵⁷

As stated in TBMP § 704.03(b)(1) above, a current status and title copy of a registration prepared by the Office (or other appropriate proof of current status and title) is necessary when the owner of a registration on the Principal Register seeks to make the registration of record for the purpose of relying on the presumptions accorded to a certificate of registration pursuant to Section 7(b) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. §1057(b). However, the Section 7(b) presumptions accorded to a registration on the Principal Register accrue only to the benefit of the owner of the registration, and hence come into play only when the registration is made of record by its owner, or when the registration is cited by a trademark examining attorney (in an ex parte case) as a reference under Section 2(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d), against a mark sought to be registered.¹⁵⁸

Thus, when third-party registrations are made of record, the party offering them may not rely on the Section 7(b) presumptions; normally, third-party registrations are offered merely to show that they issued, and a plain copy of the registration is sufficient for that purpose.¹⁵⁹

On the other hand, a party may not make a third-party registration of record simply by introducing a list of third-party registrations that includes it; or by filing a trademark search report in which the registration is mentioned; or by filing a printout, from a private company's data base, of information about the registration; or by filing a notice of reliance together with a reproduction of the mark as it appeared in the Official Gazette for purposes of publication; or by referring to the registration in its brief or pleading. The Board does not take judicial notice of registrations in the Office.¹⁶⁰

Even when a third-party Federal registration has been properly made of record, its probative value is limited, particularly when the issue to be determined is likelihood of confusion, and there is no evidence of actual use of the mark shown in the registration.¹⁶¹ Nevertheless, third-party registrations may be entitled to some weight to show the meaning of a mark, or a portion of a mark, in the same manner as a dictionary definition.¹⁶²

A state registration, whether or not owned by a party, has very little, if any, probative value in a proceeding before the Board.¹⁶³

Making file history of third-party registration of record. The file history of a third-party registration (rather than just the certificate of registration), or a portion thereof, may be made of record by: (1) filing, during the offering party's testimony period, a copy of the file history, or the portion it wishes to introduce, together with a notice of reliance thereon as an official record pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.122(e) (see TBMP § 704.07); or (2) appropriate identification and introduction of a copy of the file history, or portion thereof, during the taking of testimony; or (3) stipulation of the parties, accompanied by a copy of the file history, or portion thereof.

It is not necessary that the copy of the registration file, or portions thereof, be certified.¹⁶⁴ However, third-party registration histories are of very limited probative value.¹⁶⁵

TRIAL PROCEDURE AND INTRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

704.03(b)(2) Application Not Subject of Proceeding

37 CFR § 2.122(e) Printed publications and official records. Printed publications, such as books and periodicals, available to the general public in libraries or of general circulation among members of the public or that segment of the public which is relevant under an issue in a proceeding, and official records, if the publication or official record is competent evidence and relevant to an issue, may be introduced in evidence by filing a notice of reliance on the material being offered. The notice shall specify the printed publication (including information sufficient to identify the source and the date of the publication) or the official record and the pages to be read; indicate generally the relevance of the material being offered; and be accompanied by the official record or a copy thereof whose authenticity is established under the Federal Rules of Evidence, or by the printed publication or a copy of the relevant portion thereof. A copy of an official record of the Patent and Trademark Office need not be certified to be offered in evidence. The notice of reliance shall be filed during the testimony period of the party that files the notice.

A party to a proceeding before the Board may introduce, as part of its evidence in the case, a copy of an application that is not the subject of the proceeding, by filing, during its testimony period, a copy of the application file, or of the portions which it wishes to introduce, together with a notice of reliance thereon specifying the application and indicating generally its relevance.¹⁶⁶ It is not necessary that the copy of the application, or portions thereof, filed under a notice of reliance be certified.¹⁶⁷

An application that is not the subject of the proceeding may also be made of record by appropriate identification and introduction during the taking of testimony, or by stipulation of the parties.

An application made of record in a Board inter partes proceeding, whether owned by a party or not, is generally of very limited probative value.¹⁶⁸ However, if the 37 CFR § 2.122(b) Application files.

(1) The file of each application or registration specified in a notice of interference, of each application or registration specified in the notice of a concurrent use registration proceeding, of the application against which a notice of opposition is filed, or of each registration against which a petition or counterclaim for cancellation is filed forms part of the record of the proceeding without any action by the parties and reference may be made to the file for any relevant and competent purpose.

(2) The allegation in an application for registration, or in a registration, of a date of use is not evidence on behalf of the applicant or registrant; a date of use of a mark must be established by competent evidence. Specimens in the file of an application for registration, or in the file of a registration, are not evidence on behalf of the applicant or registrant unless identified and introduced in evidence as exhibits during the period for the taking of testimony.

While the file of a particular application or registration may be of record in a Board inter partes proceeding, by operation of 37 CFR § 2.122(b) (see TBMP § 704.03(a)) or otherwise (see TBMP § 704.03(b)) the allegations made, and documents and other things filed, in the application or registration are not evidence in the proceeding on behalf of the applicant or registrant.¹⁷⁰ Allegations must be established by competent evidence, properly adduced at trial, and the documents and other things in an application or registration file are not evidence, in an inter partes proceeding, on behalf of the applicant or registrant unless they are identified and introduced in evidence as exhibits during the testimony period.¹⁷¹ This is because the adverse party has a right to confront and cross-examine the person making the allegations, and to question the authenticity of the specimens, documents, exhibits, etc.¹⁷² Thus, for example, the allegation in an application or registration of a date of use is not evidence on behalf of the applicant or registrant in an inter partes proceeding; to be relied on by the applicant or registrant, a claimed date of use of a mark must be established by competent evidence.¹⁷³ Similarly, the allegations of use in a third-party registration do not constitute evidence that the mark shown therein has actually been used.¹⁷⁴ The specimens in the file of an application or registration are registration as an exhibit to its complaint, the registration will be received in evidence and made part of the record without any further action by plaintiff.¹⁸¹

704.05(b) Exhibits to Briefs

Exhibits and other evidentiary materials attached to a party's brief on the case can be given no consideration unless they were properly made of record during the time for taking testimony.¹⁸²

If, after the close of the time for taking testimony, a party discovers new evidence that it wishes to introduce in its behalf, the party may file a motion to reopen its testimony period. However, the moving party must show not only that the proposed evidence has been newly discovered, but also that it could not have been discovered earlier through the exercise of reasonable diligence.¹⁸³

704.06 Statements in Pleadings or Briefs

704.06(a) Statements in Pleadings

Statements made in pleadings cannot be considered as evidence in behalf of the party making them; such statements must be established by competent evidence during the time for taking testimony.¹⁸⁴

However, statements in pleadings may have evidentiary value as admissions against interest by the party that made them.¹⁸⁵

704.06(b) Statements in Briefs

Factual statements made in a party's brief on the case can be given no consideration unless they are supported by evidence properly introduced at trial. Statements in a brief have no evidentiary value, except to the extent that they may serve as admissions against interest.¹⁸⁶

37 CFR § 2.122(e) Printed publications and official records. Printed publications, such as books and periodicals, available to the general public in libraries or of general circulation among members of the public or that segment of the public which is relevant under an issue in a proceeding, and official records, if the publication or official record is competent evidence and relevant to an issue, may be introduced in evidence by filing a notice of reliance on the material being offered. The notice shall specify the printed publication (including information sufficient to identify the source and the date of the publication) or the official record and the pages to be read; indicate generally the relevance of the material being offered; and be accompanied by the official record or a copy thereof whose authenticity is established under the Federal Rules of Evidence, or by the printed publication or a copy of the relevant portion thereof. A copy of an official record of the Patent and Trademark Office need not be certified to be offered in evidence. The notice of reliance shall be filed during the testimony period of the party that files the notice.

A party that wishes to introduce an official record in evidence in a Board inter partes proceeding may do so, if the official record is competent evidence and relevant to an issue in the proceeding, by filing a notice of reliance thereon during its testimony period. The notice of reliance must specify the official record and the pages to be read; indicate generally the relevance of the material being offered; and be accompanied by the official record or a copy thereof whose authenticity is established under the Federal Rules of Evidence.¹⁸⁷

The term "official records" as used in 37 CFR § 2.122(e) refers not to a party's company business records, but rather to the records of public offices or agencies, or records kept in the performance requirements for proper certification. However, a copy of an official record of the USPTO need not be certified to be offered in evidence by notice of reliance.¹⁹¹

In lieu of the actual "official record or a copy thereof," the notice of reliance may be accompanied by an electronically generated document (or a copy thereof) which is the equivalent of the official record, and whose authenticity is established under the Federal Rules of Evidence.¹⁹²

Although official records may be made of record by notice of reliance under 37 CFR § 2.122(e), it is not mandatory that they be introduced in this manner. They may, alternatively, be made of record by appropriate identification and introduction during the taking of testimony, or by stipulation of the parties.¹⁹³ These latter two methods may also be used to introduce types of official records that are not admissible by notice of reliance under 37 CFR § 2.122(e).¹⁹⁴

For information concerning the raising of objections to notices of reliance and materials filed there under, see TBMP §§ 533 and 707.02.

Materials improperly offered under 37 CFR § 2.122(e) may nevertheless be considered by the Board if the adverse party (parties) does not object to their introduction or itself treats the materials as being of record.¹⁹⁵

37 CFR § 2.122(e) Printed publications and official records. Printed publications, such as books and periodicals, available to the general public in libraries or of general circulation among members of the public or that segment of the public which is relevant under an issue in a proceeding, and official records, if the publication or official record is competent evidence and relevant to an issue, may be introduced in evidence by filing a notice of reliance on the material being offered. The notice shall specify the printed publication (including information sufficient to identify the source and the date of the publication) or the official record and the pages to be read; indicate generally the relevance of the material being offered; and be accompanied by the official record or a copy thereof whose authenticity is established under the Federal Rules of Evidence, or by the printed publication or a copy of the relevant portion thereof. A copy of an official record of the Patent and Trademark Office need not be certified to be offered in evidence. The notice of reliance shall be filed during the testimony period of the party that files the notice.

Certain types of printed publications may be introduced in evidence in a Board inter partes proceeding by notice of reliance. Specifically, printed publications, such as books and periodicals, available to the general public in libraries or of general circulation among members of the public or that segment of the public which is relevant under an issue in a proceeding, if the publication is competent evidence and relevant to an issue in the proceeding, may be introduced in evidence by filing a notice of reliance thereon during the testimony period of the offering party.¹⁹⁶ The notice must specify the printed publication, including information sufficient to identify the source and the date of the publication, and the pages to be read; indicate generally the relevance of the material being offered; and be accompanied by the printed publication or a copy of the relevant portion thereof.¹⁹⁷

In lieu of the actual "printed publication or a copy of the relevant portion thereof," the notice of reliance may be accompanied by an electronically generated document which is the equivalent of the printed publication or relevant portion, as, for example, by a printout from the NEXIS computerized library of an article published in a newspaper or magazine of general circulation.¹⁹⁸

In case of reasonable doubt as to whether printed publications submitted by notice of reliance under 37 CFR § 2.122(e) are "available to the general public in libraries or of general circulation among members of the public or that segment of the public which is relevant under an issue" in the proceeding, the burden of showing that they are so available lies with the offering party.¹⁹⁹

Although the types of printed publications described above may be made of record by notice of reliance under 37 CFR § 2.122(e), they may, alternatively, be made of record by appropriate identification and introduction during the taking of testimony, or by stipulation of the parties.²⁰² These latter two methods may also be used for the introduction of printed publications that are not admissible by notice of reliance under 37 CFR § 2.122(e).²⁰³

For information concerning the raising of objections to notices of reliance and materials filed there under, see TBMP §§ 533 and 707.02.

Materials improperly offered under 37 CFR § 2.122(e) may nevertheless be considered by the Board if the adverse party (parties) does not object to their introduction or itself treats the materials as being of record.²⁰⁴

they are considered essentially self-authenticating.²⁰⁵ That is, permanent sources for the publications are identified and the nonoffering party is readily able to verify the authenticity of the documents.²⁰⁶ The element of self-authentication cannot be presumed to be capable of being satisfied by information obtained and printed out from the Internet.²⁰⁷ Internet postings are transitory in nature as they may be modified or deleted at any time without notice and thus are not "subject to the safeguard that the party against whom the evidence is offered is readily able to corroborate or refute the authenticity of what is proffered."²⁰⁸ For this reason, Internet printouts cannot be considered the equivalent of printouts from a NEXIS search where printouts are the electronic equivalents of the printed publications and permanent sources for the publications are identified.²⁰⁹

Materials that do not fall within 37 CFR § 2.122(e), that is, materials that are not self-authenticating in nature and thus not admissible by notice of reliance, may nevertheless be introduced into evidence through the testimony of a person who can clearly and properly authenticate and identify the materials, including identifying the nature, source and date of the materials.²¹⁰ Even if properly made of record, however, such materials, including Internet printouts, would only be probative of what they show on their face, not for the truth of the matters contained therein, unless a competent witness has testified to the truth of such matters.²¹¹

704.09 Discovery Depositions

37 CFR § 2.120(j) Use of discovery deposition, answer to interrogatory, or admission.

(1) The discovery deposition of a party or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director or managing agent of a party, or a person designated by a party pursuant to Rule 30(b)(6) or Rule 31(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, may be offered in evidence by an adverse party.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (j)(1) of this section, the discovery deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, shall not be offered in evidence unless the person whose deposition was taken is, during the testimony period of the party offering the deposition, dead; or out of the United States (unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition); or unable to testify because of age, illness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or cannot be served with a subpoena to compel attendance at a testimonial deposition; or there is a stipulation by the parties; or upon a showing that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice, to allow the deposition to be used. The use of a discovery deposition by any party under this paragraph will be allowed only by stipulation of the parties approved by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or by order of the Board on motion, which shall be filed at the time of the purported offer of the deposition in evidence, unless the motion is based upon a claim that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice, to allow the deposition to be used, in which case the motion shall be filed promptly after the circumstances claimed to justify use of the deposition became known.

(3)(i) A discovery deposition, an answer to an interrogatory, or an admission to a request for admission, which may be offered in evidence under the provisions of paragraph (j) of this section may be made of record in the case by filing the deposition or any part thereof with any exhibit to the part that is filed, or a copy of the interrogatory and answer thereto with any exhibit made part of the answer, or a copy of the request for admission and any exhibit thereto and the admission (or a statement that the party from which an admission was requested failed to respond thereto), together with a notice of reliance. The notice of reliance and the material submitted thereunder should be filed during the testimony period of the party which files the notice of reliance. An objection made at a discovery deposition by a party answering a question subject to the objection will be considered at final hearing.

* * * *

(4) If only part of a discovery deposition is submitted and made part of the record by a party, an adverse party may introduce under a notice of reliance any other part of the deposition which should in fairness be considered so as to make not misleading what was offered by the submitting party. A notice of reliance filed by an adverse party must be supported by a written statement explaining why the adverse party needs to rely upon each additional part listed in the adverse party's notice, failing which the Board, in its discretion, may refuse to consider the additional parts.

* * * *

(6) Paragraph (j) of this section will not be interpreted to preclude the reading or the use of a discovery deposition, or answer to an interrogatory, or admission as part of the examination or cross-examination of any witness during the testimony period of any party.

(7) When a discovery deposition, or a part thereof, or an answer to an interrogatory, or an admission, has been made of record by one party in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (j)(3) of this section, it may be referred to by any party for any purpose permitted by the Federal Rules of Evidence.

(8) Requests for discovery, responses thereto, and materials or depositions obtained through the discovery process should not be filed with the Board except when submitted with a motion relating to discovery, or in support of or response to a motion for summary judgment, or under a notice of reliance during a party's testimony period. Papers or materials filed in violation of this paragraph may be returned by the Board.

The discovery deposition of a party (or of anyone who, at the time of taking the deposition, was an officer, director, or managing agent of a party, or a person designated under Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6) or 31(a)(3) to testify on behalf of a party) may be offered in evidence by any adverse party.²¹²

Otherwise, the discovery deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may not be offered in evidence except in the following situations:

- (1) By stipulation of the parties, approved by the Board.²¹³

(2) By order of the Board, on motion showing that the person whose deposition was taken is, during the testimony period of the party offering the deposition, dead; or out of the United States (unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition); or unable to testify because of age, illness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or cannot be served with a subpoena to compel attendance at a testimonial deposition; or that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice, to allow the deposition to be used. The motion must be filed at the time of the purported offer of the deposition in evidence, unless the motion is based on a claim that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice, to allow the deposition to be used, in which case the motion must be filed promptly after the circumstances claimed to justify use of the deposition became known.²¹⁴

(3) If only part of a discovery deposition is submitted and made part of the record by a party entitled to offer the deposition in evidence, an adverse party may introduce under a notice of reliance any other part of the deposition which should in fairness be considered so as to make not misleading what was offered by the submitting party. In such a case, the notice of reliance filed by the adverse party must be supported by a written statement explaining why the adverse party needs to rely on each additional part listed in the adverse party's notice, failing which the Board, in its discretion, may refuse to consider the additional parts.²¹⁵

A discovery deposition that may be offered in evidence under 37 CFR § 2.120(j) may be made of record by filing, during the testimony period of the offering party, the deposition or any part thereof with any exhibit to the part that is filed, together with a notice of reliance.²¹⁶ The notice of reliance need not indicate the relevance of the deposition, or parts thereof, relied on.²¹⁷ When only part of a deposition is relied on, the notice of reliance must specify the part or parts relied on.²¹⁸

When a discovery deposition has been made of record by one party in accordance with 37 CFR § 2.120(j), it may be referred to by any party for any purpose permitted by the Federal Rules of Evidence.²¹⁹ If only part of a discovery deposition has been made of record pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.120(j), that part only may be referred to by any party for any purpose permitted by the Federal Rules of evidence. If one party has filed a notice of reliance on a discovery deposition or part thereof and an adverse party has based its presentation of evidence on the belief that the deposition or the part thereof is of record, the notice of reliance may not later be withdrawn.²²⁰

A discovery deposition not properly offered in evidence under 37 CFR § 2.120(j) may nevertheless be considered by the Board if the nonoffering party (parties) does not object thereto, or treats the deposition as being of record, or improperly offers a discovery deposition in the same manner.²²¹

Requests for discovery, responses thereto, and materials or depositions obtained through the discovery process should not be filed with the Board except when submitted (1) with a motion relating to discovery; or (2) in support of or response to a motion for summary judgment; or (3) under a notice of reliance during a party's testimony period; or (4) as exhibits to a testimony deposition; or (5) in support of an objection to proffered evidence on the ground that the evidence should have been, but was not, provided in response to a request for discovery. The Board may return discovery papers or materials filed under other circumstances.²²²

Nothing in 37 CFR § 2.120(j) will be interpreted to preclude the reading or the use of a discovery deposition as part of the examination or cross-examination of any witness during the testimony period of any party.²²³ the part that is filed, or a copy of the interrogatory and answer thereto with any exhibit made part of the answer, or a copy of the request for admission and any exhibit thereto and the admission (or a statement that the party from which an admission was requested failed to respond thereto), together with a notice of reliance. The notice of reliance and the material submitted thereunder should be filed during the testimony period of the party which files the notice of reliance. An objection made at a discovery deposition by a party answering a question subject to the objection will be considered at final hearing.

* * * *

(5) An answer to an interrogatory, or an admission to a request for admission, may be submitted and made part of the record by only the inquiring party except that, if fewer than all of the answers to interrogatories, or fewer than all of the admissions, are offered in evidence by the inquiring party, the responding party may introduce under a notice of reliance any other answers to interrogatories, or any other admissions, which should in fairness be considered so as to make not misleading what was offered by the inquiring party. The notice of reliance filed by the responding party must be supported by a written statement explaining why the responding party needs to rely upon each of the additional discovery responses listed in the responding party's notice, failing which the Board, in its discretion, may refuse to consider the additional responses.

(6) Paragraph (j) of this section will not be interpreted to preclude the reading or the use of a discovery deposition, or answer to an interrogatory, or admission as part of the examination or cross-examination of any witness during the testimony period of any party.

(7) When a discovery deposition, or a part thereof, or an answer to an interrogatory, or an admission, has been made of record by one party in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (j)(3) of this section, it may be referred to by any party for any purpose permitted by the Federal Rules of Evidence.

(8) Requests for discovery, responses thereto, and materials or depositions obtained through the discovery process should not be filed with the Board except when submitted with a motion relating to discovery, or in support of or response to a motion for summary judgment, or under a notice of reliance during a party's testimony period. Papers or materials filed in violation of this paragraph may be returned by the Board.

Ordinarily, an answer to an interrogatory, or an admission to a request for admission, may be submitted and made part of the record by only the inquiring party.²²⁴

However, if fewer than all of the answers to a set of interrogatories, or fewer than all of the admissions, are offered in evidence by the inquiring party, the responding party may introduce, under a notice of reliance, any other answers to interrogatories, or any other admissions that should be considered so as to avoid an unfair interpretation of the responses offered by the inquiring party.²²⁵ The notice of reliance must be supported by a written statement explaining why the responding party needs to rely on each of the additional interrogatory answers, or admissions, listed in the responding party's notice, failing which the Board, in its discretion, may refuse to consider the additional responses.²²⁶

An interrogatory answer (including documents provided as all or part of an interrogatory answer), or an admission to a request for admission, that may be offered in evidence under 37 CFR § 2.120(j) may be made of record by notice of reliance during the testimony period of the offering party. The party should file a copy of the interrogatory and the answer thereto, with any exhibit made part of the answer, or a copy of the request for admission and any exhibit thereto and the admission (or a statement that the party from which an admission was requested failed to respond thereto), together with its notice of reliance thereon.²²⁷

The notice of reliance need not indicate the relevance of the discovery responses relied on.²²⁸ Offering interrogatory answers, or admissions, on the record during the taking of a testimony deposition is the equivalent of serving and filing a notice of reliance by mail.²²⁹

An interrogatory answer may also be made of record by stipulation of the parties, accompanied by a copy of the interrogatory and the answer thereto with any exhibit made part of the answer. Similarly, an admission may be made of record by stipulation of the parties, accompanied by a copy of the request for admission and any exhibit thereto and the admission (or a statement that the party from which an admission was requested failed to respond thereto).²³⁰

When an interrogatory answer, or an admission, has been made of record by one party in accordance with 37 CFR § 2.120(j), it may be referred to by any party for any purpose permitted by the Federal Rules of Evidence.²³¹

An interrogatory answer, or an admission, not properly offered in evidence under 37 CFR § 2.120(j) may nevertheless be considered by the Board if the nonoffering party (parties) does not object thereto; and/or treats the answer, or admission, as being of record; and/or improperly offers an interrogatory answer, or an admission, in the same manner.²³²

Requests for discovery, responses thereto, and materials or depositions obtained through the discovery process should not be filed with the Board except when submitted (1) with a motion relating to discovery; or (2) in support of or response to a motion for summary judgment; or (3) under a notice of reliance during a party's testimony period; or (4) as exhibits to a testimony deposition; or (5) in support of an objection to proffered evidence on the ground that the evidence should have been, but was not, provided in response to a request for discovery. The Board may return discovery papers or materials filed under other circumstances.²³³

Nothing in 37 CFR § 2.120(j) precludes reading or using an interrogatory answer, or an admission, as part of the examination or cross-examination of any witness during the testimony period of any party.²³⁴

²³² See, for example, Riceland Foods Inc. v. Pacific Eastern Trading Corp., 26 USPQ2d 1883, 1884 n.3 (TTAB 1993) (no objection to party's reliance on its own answers and moreover the responses set forth facts which were described in the parties' stipulation); Heaton Enterprises of Nevada Inc. v. Lang, 7 USPQ2d 1842, 1844 n.5 (TTAB 1988) (no objection to responding party's notice of reliance on remaining answers and such answers were deemed as explanatory or clarifying); Triumph Machinery Co. v. Clover Club Foods Co., 201 USPQ 308, 310 n.3 (TTAB 1978) (discovery depositions filed without a notice of reliance were treated as being of record where both parties referred to the depositions in their briefs and in view of stipulations concerning marking of exhibits in the depositions); Jerrold Electronics Corp. v. Magnavox Co., 199 USPQ 751, 753 n.4 (TTAB 1978) (both parties relied on answers given by each to the other's interrogatories without objection); *General Electric Co. v. For information concerning the taking of discovery by way of interrogatories, see TBMP § 405. For information concerning the taking of discovery by way of requests for admission, see TBMP § 407. For information concerning the raising of objections to notices of reliance and materials filed there under, see TBMP §§ 532 and 707.02.

NOTE: Some of the cases cited in this section established principles later codified in the cited provisions in current 37 CFR § 2.120(j), or were decided under rules which were the predecessors to such provisions.

704.11 Produced Documents

37 CFR § 2.122(e) Printed publications and official records. Printed publications, such as books and periodicals, available to the general public in libraries or of general circulation among members of the public or that segment of the public which is relevant under an issue in a proceeding, and official records, if the publication or official record is competent evidence and relevant to an issue, may be introduced in evidence by filing a notice of reliance on the material being offered. The notice shall specify the printed publication (including information sufficient to identify the source and the date of the publication) or the official record and the pages to be read; indicate generally the relevance of the material being offered; and be accompanied by the official record or a copy thereof whose authenticity is established under the Federal Rules of Evidence, or by the printed publication or a copy of the relevant portion thereof. A copy of an official record of the Patent and Trademark Office need not be certified to be offered in evidence. The notice of reliance shall be filed during the testimony period of the party that files the notice.

37 CFR § 2.120(j)(3)(ii) A party which has obtained documents from another party under Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure may not make the documents of record by notice of reliance alone, except to the extent that they are admissible by notice of reliance under the provisions of § 2.122(e).

Documents provided as all or part of an answer to an interrogatory may be made of record, as an interrogatory answer, by notice of reliance filed in accordance with 37 CFR §§ 2.120(j)(3)(i) and 2.120(j)(5).²³⁵

However, a party that has obtained documents from another party under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 may not make the produced documents of record by notice of reliance alone, except to the extent that they are admissible by notice of reliance under 37 CFR § 2.122(e) (as official records; or as CVP Systems Inc.*, 17 USPQ2d 1070, 1073 (TTAB 1990), (notice of reliance failed to indicate that documents were being introduced under Rule 2.120(j)(3)(i) by specifying and making of record a copy of the particular interrogatories to which each document was provided in lieu of an interrogatory answer) and *Miles Laboratories Inc. v. printed publications, such as books and periodicals, available to the general public in libraries or of general circulation among members of the public or that segment of the public which is relevant under an issue in the proceeding -- see TBMP §§ 704.07 and 704.08).²³⁶

Listed below are a number of methods by which documents produced in response to a request for production of documents may be made of record:

(1) A party that has obtained documents under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 may serve on its adversary requests for admission of the authenticity of the documents, and then, during its testimony period, file a notice of reliance, under 37 CFR § 2.120(j)(3)(i), on the requests for admission, the exhibits thereto, and its adversary's admissions (or a statement that its adversary failed to respond to the requests for admission). However, if a party wishes to have an opportunity to serve requests for admission after obtaining documents under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34, it must serve its request for production of documents early in the discovery period, so that when it obtains the produced documents, it will have time to prepare and serve requests for admission prior to the expiration of the discovery period.²³⁷

(2) A party that has obtained documents under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 may offer them as exhibits in connection with the taking of its adversary's discovery deposition. Again, however, the request for production of documents must be served early in the discovery period, so that there will still be time remaining, after the requested documents have been produced, to notice and take a discovery deposition.²³⁸

(3) A party that has obtained documents under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 may introduce them as exhibits during the cross-examination of its adversary's witness.²³⁹ This method is available only if the adversary takes testimony and the documents pertain to matters within the scope of the direct examination of the witness.

TRIAL PROCEDURE AND INTRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

(4) A party that has obtained documents under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 may, during its own testimony period, take the testimony of its adversary as an adverse witness and introduce the obtained documents as exhibits during direct examination.²⁴⁰

(5) A party that has obtained documents under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 may, during its own testimony period, make of record by notice of reliance, under 37 CFR § 2.122(e), any of the documents that fall into the category of "printed publications, such as books and periodicals, available to the general public in libraries or of general circulation among members of the public or that segment of the public which is relevant under an issue in a proceeding, and official records, if the publication or official record is competent evidence and relevant to an issue."²⁴¹

(6) A party that wishes to obtain documents under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 may combine its request for production of documents with a notice of taking discovery deposition, and ask that the requested documents be produced at the deposition. However, the combined request for production and notice of deposition must be served well before the date set for the deposition, because a discovery deposition must be both noticed and taken before the close of the discovery period, and because Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(b) allows a party 30 days in which to respond to a request for production of documents (this period is lengthened to 35 days if service of the request is made by first-class mail, "Express Mail," or overnight courier--see 37 CFR § 2.119(c)).²⁴²

(7) Documents obtained under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 may be made of record by stipulation of the parties.

(8) Documents obtained by request for production of documents under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34, and improperly offered in evidence, may nevertheless be considered by the Board if the nonoffering party (parties) does not object thereto; and/or treats the documents as being of record; and/or in the same manner improperly offers documents which it obtained under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34.²⁴³

704.12 Judicial Notice

37 CFR § 2.122(a) Rules of Evidence. The rules of evidence for proceedings before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board are the Federal Rules of Evidence, the relevant provisions of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the relevant provisions of Title 28 of the United States Code, and the provisions of this Part of Title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Fed. R. Evid. 201. Judicial Notice of Adjudicative Facts

(a) Scope of rule. This rule governs only judicial notice of adjudicative facts.

(b) Kinds of facts. A judicially noticed fact must be one not subject to reasonable dispute in that it is either (1) generally known within the territorial jurisdiction of the trial court or (2) capable of accurate and ready determination by resort to sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.

(c) When discretionary. A court may take judicial notice, whether requested or not.

(d) When mandatory. A court shall take judicial notice if requested by a party and supplied with the necessary information.

(e) Opportunity to be heard. A party is entitled upon timely request to an opportunity to be heard as to the propriety of taking judicial notice and the tenor of the matter noticed. In the absence of prior notification, the request may be made after judicial notice has been taken.

(f) Time of taking notice. Judicial notice may be taken at any stage of the proceeding.

In appropriate instances, the Board may take judicial notice of adjudicative facts. See 37 CFR § 2.122(a) and Fed. R. Evid. 201.

704.12(a) Kind of Fact That May be Judicially Noticed

The only kind of fact that may be judicially noticed by the Board is a fact that is "not subject to reasonable dispute in that it is either (1) generally known within the territorial jurisdiction of the trial court or (2) capable of accurate and ready determination by resort to sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned."²⁴⁴

704.12(b) When Taken

The Board will take judicial notice of a relevant fact not subject to reasonable dispute, as defined in Fed. R. Evid. 201(b), if a party (1) requests that the Board do so, and (2) supplies the necessary information.²⁴⁶ The request should be made during the requesting party's testimony period, by notice of reliance accompanied by the necessary information.²⁴⁷ The Board, in its discretion, may take judicial notice of a fact not subject to reasonable dispute, as defined in Fed. R. Evid. 201(b), whether or not it is requested to do so.²⁴⁸

704.12(c) Opportunity to be Heard

A party to a proceeding before the Board is entitled, on timely request, "to an opportunity to be heard as to the propriety of taking judicial notice and the tenor of the matter noticed. In the absence of prior notification, the request may be made after judicial notice has been taken."²⁴⁹ This does not mean, however, that when judicial notice is taken without prior notification, a party is automatically entitled to a hearing on request, even if it makes no offer to show that the taking of judicial notice was improper.²⁵⁰

704.12(d) Time of Taking Notice

Judicial notice may be taken at any stage of a Board proceeding, even on review of the Board's decision on appeal.²⁵¹ However, the Federal Circuit may decline to consider a request for judicial notice made at the late stage of oral argument on appeal.²⁵²

On motion granted by the Board, testimony taken in another proceeding, or testimony taken in a suit or action in a court, between the same parties or their privies, may be used in a pending Board inter partes proceeding, to the extent that the testimony is relevant and material, subject "to the right of any adverse party to recall or demand the recall for examination or cross-examination of any witness whose prior testimony has been offered and to rebut the testimony."²⁵³

The Board has construed the term "testimony," as used in 37 CFR § 2.122(f), as meaning only trial testimony,²⁵⁴ or a discovery deposition which was used, by agreement of the parties, as trial testimony in the other proceeding.

Testimony from another proceeding between the parties or their privies may be used, on motion granted by the Board, as evidence in connection with a motion for summary judgment, or as evidence at trial.²⁵⁵ However, when the Board allows testimony of this nature to be used in connection with a motion for summary judgment, the testimony (and any testimony taken on recall of the same witness for examination or cross-examination, or in rebuttal thereof) is of record only for purposes of the motion; it will not be considered at final hearing if the case goes to trial, unless it is reintroduced, on motion granted by the Board, during the appropriate trial period.²⁵⁶

For information on filing a motion for leave to use testimony from another proceeding, see TBMP § 530.

A testimony deposition from another proceeding may also be made of record in a Board proceeding by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board. The same is true of a discovery deposition.

705 Stipulated Evidence

Subject to the approval of the Board, parties may enter into a wide variety of stipulations concerning the admission of specified matter into evidence. The use of stipulated evidence normally results in savings of time and expense for all concerned. Notwithstanding such a

For example, parties may stipulate that a party may rely on specified responses to requests for discovery, or on other specified documents or exhibits; or that the testimony of a witness may be submitted in the form of an affidavit by the witness; or what a particular witness would testify to if called; or to the facts in the case of any party; or that a discovery deposition may be used as testimony; or that evidence from another proceeding may be used as evidence in the proceeding in which the stipulation is filed.²⁵⁸

the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the relevant provisions of Title 28 of the United States Code, and the provisions of this Part of Title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

The introduction of evidence in inter partes proceedings before the Board is governed by the Federal Rules of Evidence, the relevant portions of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the relevant provisions of Title 28 of the United States Code, and the rules of practice in trademark cases (i.e., the provisions of Part 2 of Title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations).²⁶⁰ A party to a Board inter partes proceeding that believes that proffered evidence should, under these rules, be excluded from consideration, may, raise an objection. The procedure for raising an objection to proffered evidence depends on the nature of the evidence and the ground for objection.²⁶¹

707.02 Objections to Notices of Reliance

During its testimony period, a party may make certain specified types of evidence of record by filing a notice of reliance thereon, accompanied by the evidence being offered.²⁶² Trademark Rule 2.120(j), 37 CFR § 2.120(j), provides for the introduction, by notice of reliance, of a discovery deposition, answer to interrogatory, or admission; but specifically states that documents obtained by production under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 may not be made of record by notice of reliance alone, except to the extent that they are admissible by notice of reliance under the provisions of 37 CFR § 2.122(e). Trademark Rule 2.122(d)(2), 37 CFR § 2.122(d)(2), provides for the introduction, by notice of reliance, of a registration owned by a party to a proceeding. Trademark Rule 2.122(e), 37 CFR § 2.122(e), provides for the introduction, by notice of reliance, of certain specified types of printed publications and official records.²⁶³

Some grounds for objection to a notice of reliance are waived unless promptly made (generally errors of any kind which might be obviated or cured if promptly presented) while other grounds that cannot be cured may be raised at any time. The various grounds for objection to a notice of reliance, and the time and procedure for raising them, are discussed in the sections that follow.²⁶⁴

707.02(b) On Procedural Grounds

Ordinarily, a procedural objection to a notice of reliance should be raised promptly, preferably by motion to strike if the defect is one that can be cured.²⁶⁵ However, if the ground for the objection is one that could not be cured even if raised promptly, the adverse party may wait and raise the procedural objection in or with²⁶⁶ its brief on the case.²⁶⁷

For information concerning motions to strike notices of reliance, see TBMP § 532.

²⁶⁴ See also TBMP § 707.04 (Waiver of Objection).

²⁶⁷ See Beech Aircraft Corp. v. Lightning Aircraft Co., 1 USPQ2d 1290 (TTAB 1986) (defect of failing to append copy of printed publication identified in notice of reliance could have been cured); Board of Trustees of the University of Alabama v. BAMA-Werke Curt Baumann, 231 USPQ 408, 409 n.3 (TTAB 1986) (petitioner's objection that respondent's justification for reliance on its own discovery responses was insufficient raised for first time in petitioner's brief was untimely since defect is one which could have been cured if raised promptly); Colt Industries Operating Corp. v. Olivetti Controllo Numerico S.p.A., 221 USPQ 73, 74 n.2 (TTAB 1983) (objection that items submitted by notice of reliance were neither official records nor printed publications raised in brief sustained); Quaker Oats Co. v. Acme Feed Mills, Inc., 192 USPQ 653, 655 n.9 (TTAB 1976) (objection to notice of reliance as to statement of relevance of third-party registrations untimely); Manpower, Inc. v. Manpower Information Inc., 190 USPQ 18, 21 (TTAB 1976) (objection that notice of reliance failed to indicate relevance of materials was curable and should have been raised when notice was filed); and Johnson & Johnson v. American Hospital Supply Corporation, 187 USPQ 478, 479 (TTAB 1975) (Board, on reconsideration, reversed its decision to treat defendant's objection to notice of reliance as motion to strike since opposer did not file a brief in response to objections but instead intended to argue against the objections in its trial brief).

707.02(b)(1) On Ground of Untimeliness

When a notice of reliance under any of the aforementioned rules is filed after the close of the offering party's testimony period, an adverse party may file a motion to strike the notice of reliance (and, thus, the evidence submitted there under), in its entirety, as untimely.²⁶⁸ Alternatively, an adverse party may raise this ground for objection in its brief on the case.²⁶⁹

707.02(b)(2) On Other Procedural Grounds

An adverse party may object to a notice of reliance, in whole or in part, on the ground that the notice does not comply with the procedural requirements of the particular rule under which it was submitted, as, for example, that a 37 CFR § 2.122(e) notice of reliance on a printed publication does not include a copy of the printed publication, or does not indicate the general relevance thereof,²⁷⁰ or that ²⁶⁸ See, for example, Jean Patou Inc. v. Prince, 200 USPQ 803, 805 n.1 (TTAB 1978) (motion to strike untimely notice of reliance on interrogatory answers and certified copies of corporate records filed with the state granted).

Drost*, 193 USPQ 729, 731 (TTAB 1976) (respondent's objection to untimely notice of reliance raised for the first time in its brief was not waived), pet. to Comm'r denied, 198 USPQ 485 (Comm'r 1977). Cf. Of Counsel Inc. v. Strictly of Counsel Chartered, 21 USPQ2d 1555, 1556 n.2 (TTAB 1991) (where opposer's testimony deposition was taken two days prior to opening of opposer's testimony period, and applicant first raised an untimeliness objection in its brief on the case, objection held waived, since the premature taking of the deposition could have been corrected on seasonable objection).

²⁷⁰ See, for example, Weyerhaeuser Co. v. Katz, 24 USPQ2d 1230, 1233 (TTAB 1992) (motion to strike granted where notice of reliance was filed under inapplicable provision of rules in that items did not constitute discovery materials admissible under 2.120(j)(3) and opposer failed to explain relevance of appended copy of notice of opposition from a different case); M-Tek Inc. v. CVP Systems Inc., 17 USPQ2d 1070, 1073 (TTAB 1990) (notice of reliance failed to indicate that documents were being introduced under Rule 2.120(j)(3)(i) by specifying and making of record a copy of the particular interrogatories to which each document was provided in lieu of an interrogatory answer); Bison Corp. v. Perfecta Chemie B.V., 4 USPQ2d 1718, 1719 n.4 (TTAB 1987) (motion to strike notice of reliance granted where opposer failed to indicate how its own answers clarified rebutted or explained those relied on by applicant); Holiday Inns, Inc. v. Monolith Enterprises, 212 USPQ 949, 951 (TTAB 1981) (motion to strike notice of reliance granted in part where applicant failed to identify specific answers sought to be introduced by answering party or indicate how they explained, clarified or rebutted answers relied on by inquiring party); Johnson & Johnson v. American Hospital Supply Corp., 187 USPQ 478, 479 (TTAB 1975) (applicant's objection to opposer's notice of reliance on letters between applicant and attorneys for third party well taken because such documents were not printed publications or official records and were not properly identified during deposition so as to lay foundation for introduction into evidence); Rogers Corp. v. American Olean Tile Co., 169 USPQ 123, 124 (TTAB 1971) (motion to strike items in applicant's notice of reliance

the proffered materials are not appropriate for introduction by notice of reliance.²⁷¹

When, on a motion to strike a notice of reliance on the ground that it does not meet the procedural requirements of the rule under which it was filed, the Board finds that the notice is defective, but that the defect is curable, the Board may allow the relying party time to cure the defect, failing which the notice will stand stricken.²⁷²

If a motion to strike a notice of reliance raises objections that cannot be resolved simply by reviewing the face of the notice of reliance (and attached documents), the Board will defer determination of the motion until final hearing.²⁷³ When determination of a motion to strike a notice of reliance is deferred until final hearing, the parties should argue the matter alternatively in their briefs on the case.

707.02(c) On Substantive Grounds

An adverse party may object to a notice of reliance on substantive grounds, such as that evidence offered under the notice constitutes hearsay or improper rebuttal, or is incompetent, irrelevant, or immaterial. Objections of this nature normally should be raised in or with²⁷⁴ the objecting party's brief on the case, rather than by motion to strike, stricken as they were either duplicative of evidence already made of record, not deemed to be printed publications in general circulation, or, in view of the purpose stated by applicant in the notice of reliance, hearsay).

²⁷⁴ See Harjo v. Pro Football Inc., 45 USPQ2d 1789, 1792 (TTAB 1998) (motion to strike trial brief as exceeding page limitation denied where evidentiary objections which were not required to be raised immediately were raised in appendices to the brief rather than in text of brief) and Marshall Field & Co. v. Mrs. Fields Cookies, 25 USPQ2d 1321, 1326 (TTAB 1992) (objections to testimony on grounds including relevance and bias of witness, raised a year after depositions were taken and set out in a separate paper from brief were not untimely and paper did not result in violation of page limitation for final briefs).

unless the ground for objection is one that could be cured if raised promptly by motion to strike.²⁷⁵ This is because it is the policy of the Board not to read trial testimony or examine other trial evidence prior to final deliberations in the proceeding.²⁷⁶ If a motion to strike a notice of reliance raises objections that cannot be resolved simply by reviewing the face of the notice of reliance (and attached documents), determination of the motion will be deferred by the Board until final hearing.²⁷⁷

Evidence timely and properly introduced by notice of reliance under the applicable trademark rules generally will not be stricken, but the Board will consider any outstanding objections thereto in its evaluation of the probative value of the evidence at final hearing.²⁷⁸

Because the parties to an inter partes Board proceeding generally will not know until final decision whether a substantive objection to a notice of reliance has been sustained, they should argue the matter alternatively in their briefs on the case.

707.03 Objections to Trial Testimony Depositions

707.03(a) In General

As in the case of an objection to a notice of reliance, an objection to a testimony deposition must be raised promptly if the defect is one that can be obviated or removed, failing which it is waived. The objections, which are waived unless promptly raised, are basically procedural in nature. Objections to testimony depositions are not waived for failure to make them during or before the taking of the deposition, provided that the ground for objection is not one that might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time. These objections are basically substantive in nature. The grounds for objection to testimony depositions and the procedures for raising them are discussed below.

707.03(b) On Procedural Grounds

707.03(b)(1) On Ground of Untimeliness

A party may not take testimony outside of its assigned testimony period, except by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or on motion granted by the Board, or by order of the Board.²⁷⁹

When there is no such approved stipulation, granted motion or Board order, and a testimony deposition is taken after the close of the deposing party's testimony period, an adverse party may file a motion to strike the deposition, in its entirety, as untimely.²⁸⁰ Alternatively, an adverse party may raise this ground for objection in its brief on the case.²⁸¹

On the other hand, when a testimony deposition is noticed for a date prior to the opening of the deposing party's testimony period, an adverse party that fails to promptly object to the scheduled deposition on the ground of untimeliness may be found to have waived this ground for objection, because the premature scheduling of a deposition is an error which can be corrected on seasonable objection.²⁸²

A deposition may not be noticed for a place in a foreign country except as provided in paragraph (a)(2) of this section. No party shall take depositions in more than one place at the same time, nor so nearly at the same time that reasonable opportunity for travel from one place of examination to the other is not available.

(e)(3) Every adverse party shall have full opportunity to cross-examine each witness. If the notice of examination of witnesses which is served pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section is improper or inadequate with respect to any witness, an adverse party may cross-examine that witness under protest while reserving the right to object to the receipt of the testimony in evidence. Promptly after the testimony is completed, the adverse party, if he wishes to preserve the objection, shall move to strike the testimony from the record, which motion will be decided on the basis of all the relevant circumstances. A motion to strike the testimony of a witness for lack of proper or adequate notice of examination must request the exclusion of the entire testimony of that witness and not only a part of that testimony.

Before testimony depositions on oral examination may be taken by a party, the party must give every adverse party due notice in writing of the time when and place where the depositions will be taken, the cause or matter in which they are to be used, and the name and address of each witness to be deposed. If the name of a witness is not known, a general description sufficient to identify the witness or the particular class or group to which the witness belongs, together with a satisfactory explanation, may be given instead.²⁸³

If the notice of examination of witnesses served by a party is improper or inadequate with respect to any witness, such as, does not give due (i.e., reasonable) notice, or does not identify a witness whose deposition is taken, an adverse party may cross-examine the witness under protest while reserving the right to object to the receipt of the testimony in evidence. However, promptly after the deposition is completed, the adverse party, if it wishes to preserve the objection, must move to strike the testimony from the record.²⁸⁴

A motion to strike a testimony deposition for improper or inadequate notice must request the exclusion of the entire deposition, not just a part thereof. The motion will be decided on the basis of all the relevant circumstances.²⁸⁵

For further information concerning the motion to strike a testimony deposition for improper or inadequate notice, see TBMP § 533.02.

707.03(c) On Other Procedural Grounds and on Substantive Grounds

37 CFR § 2.123(e)

(3) Every adverse party shall have full opportunity to cross-examine each witness. If the notice of examination of witnesses which is served pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section is improper or inadequate with respect to any witness, an adverse party may cross-examine that witness under protest while reserving the right to object to the receipt of the testimony in evidence. Promptly after the testimony is completed, the adverse party, if he wishes to preserve the objection, shall move to strike the testimony from the record, which motion will be decided on the basis of all the relevant circumstances. A motion to strike the testimony of a witness for lack of proper or adequate notice of examination must request the exclusion of the entire testimony of that witness and not only a part of that testimony.

(4) All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections.

* * * *

(j) Effect of errors and irregularities in depositions. Rule 32(d)(1), (2), and (3)(A) and (B) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply to errors and irregularities in depositions. Notice will not be taken of merely formal or technical objections which shall not appear to have wrought a substantial injury to the party raising them; and in case of such injury it must be made to appear that the objection was raised at the time specified in said rule.

(k) Objections to admissibility. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (j) of this section, objection may be made to receiving in evidence any deposition, or part thereof, or any other evidence, for any reason which would require the exclusion of the evidence from consideration. Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony must be raised at the time specified in Rule

²⁸⁵ 37 CFR § 2.123(e)(3).

TRIAL PROCEDURE AND INTRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

32(d)(3)(A) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Such objections will not be considered until final hearing.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(d) Effect of Errors and Irregularities in Depositions.

(1) As to Notice. All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is promptly served upon the party giving the notice.

(2) As to Disqualification of Officer. Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.

(3) As to Taking of Deposition.

(A) Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

(B) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.

An adverse party may object to a testimony deposition not only on the grounds of untimeliness²⁸⁶ and improper or inadequate notice,²⁸⁷ but also on the ground that the deposing party has not complied with one or more of the other procedural requirements specified in the rules governing the taking of testimony in Board inter partes proceedings. In addition, objection may be made to a testimony deposition on one or more substantive grounds, such as that the witness is incompetent to testify, or that the testimony is irrelevant or constitutes hearsay or improper rebuttal. The time and procedure for raising these objections is described below.

As noted in TBMP § 707.03, some objections to testimony depositions must be raised promptly, or they are waived. The objections, which are waived unless raised promptly, are basically procedural in nature. They include:

- (1) Objections to errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition (waived unless written objection is promptly served on the party giving the notice,

²⁸⁶ See TBMP § 707.03(b)(1) (Untimeliness).

²⁸⁷ See TBMP § 707.03(b)(2) (Improper or Inadequate Notice).

Chapter 700

TRIAL PROCEDURE AND INTRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

in the case of an objection based on improper or inadequate notice, waived unless the provisions of 37 CFR § 2.123(e)(3) are followed);²⁸⁸

(2) Objections to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken (waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence);

(3) Objections based on errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties; and

(4) Errors of any kind that might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented (waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition).²⁸⁹

Moreover, notice will not be taken of merely formal or technical objections, unless they were timely raised, and appear to have caused substantial injury to the party raising them.²⁹⁰ This applies not only to errors and irregularities in the taking of a deposition, but also in the form of a deposition transcript (such as, improperly numbered pages or questions, improperly marked exhibits, etc.).²⁹¹

Chapter 700

TRIAL PROCEDURE AND INTRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

Other objections to testimony depositions are not waived for failure to make them during or before the taking of the deposition, provided that the ground for objection is not one that might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time. These objections, which are basically substantive in nature, include objections²⁹²

- (1) to the competency of a witness, or
- (2) to the competency, relevance, or materiality of testimony, or
- (3) that the testimony constitutes hearsay or improper rebuttal.

When an objection of this type could not have been obviated or removed if presented at the deposition, the Board will consider it even if the objection is raised for the first time in or with²⁹³ a party's brief on the case.²⁹⁴

Substantive objections to testimony (that is, objections going to such matters as the competency of a witness, or the competency, relevance, or materiality of testimony, or the asserted hearsay or improper rebuttal nature of the testimony) are not considered by the Board prior to final hearing.²⁹⁵ This is because depositions are taken out of the presence of the Board, and it is the policy of the Board not to read trial testimony, or examine other trial evidence offered by the parties, prior to deliberations on the final decision.²⁹⁶ Further, testimony regularly taken in accordance with the applicable rules ordinarily will not be stricken on the basis of a substantive objection; rather, any such objection (unless waived) will be considered by the Board in its evaluation of the probative value of the testimony at final hearing.²⁹⁷

Mrs. Fields Cookies*, 25 USPQ2d 1321, 1326 (TTAB 1992) (objections to testimony on grounds including relevance and bias of witness, raised a year after depositions were taken and set out in a separate paper from brief were not untimely and paper did not result in violation of page limitation for final briefs).

Similarly, if the propriety of a procedural objection to a testimony deposition (such as an objection to the form of a question) cannot be determined without reading the deposition, or examining other trial evidence, it generally will not be considered by the Board until final hearing.²⁹⁸

For the foregoing reasons, the objections described in this section (as opposed to the objection to testimony as late-taken, which may be raised by motion to strike--see TBMP §§ 533.01 and 707.03(b)(1); and the objection based on improper or inadequate notice of the taking of a deposition, which is the subject of the motion to strike procedure described in 37 CFR § 2.123(e)(3), and TBMP §§ 533.02 and 707.03(b)(2)), generally should not be raised by motion to strike. Rather, the objections should simply be made in writing at the time specified in the rules cited above, or orally "on the record" at the taking of the deposition, as appropriate. These objections, if properly asserted and not waived or rendered moot, normally will be considered by the Board in its determination of the case at final hearing.²⁹⁹

Additionally, in order to preserve an objection that was seasonably raised at trial, a party should maintain the objection in its brief on the case.³⁰⁰

TRIAL PROCEDURE AND INTRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

When a deposition is taken on written questions pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.124, written objections to questions (that is, the direct questions, cross questions, redirect questions, and recross questions) may be served on the party propounding the subject questions. A party that serves written objections on a propounding party must also serve a copy of the objections on every other adverse party.³⁰¹ Objections to questions and answers in depositions on written questions generally are considered by the Board (unless waived) at final hearing.³⁰²

Because parties that have raised objections to testimony depositions generally will not know the disposition thereof until final decision, they should argue the matters alternatively in their briefs on the case.

707.03(d) Refusal to Answer Deposition Question

When an objection is made to a question propounded during a testimony deposition, the question ordinarily should be answered subject to the objection. However, a witness may properly refuse to answer a question asking for information that is, for example, privileged or confidential.³⁰³

If a witness not only objects to, but also refuses to answer, a particular question, the propounding party may obtain an immediate ruling on the propriety of the objection only by the unwieldy process of adjourning the deposition and applying, under 35 U.S.C. § 24, to the Federal district court, in the jurisdiction where the deposition is being taken, for an order compelling the witness to answer.³⁰⁴

There is no mechanism for obtaining from the Board, prior to final hearing, a ruling on the propriety of an objection to a question propounded during a testimony deposition.³⁰⁵

TRIAL PROCEDURE AND INTRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

Accordingly, where the witness in a testimony deposition refuses to answer a particular question; no court action is sought; and the Board finds at final hearing that the objection was not well taken, the Board may presume that the answer would have been unfavorable to the position of the party whose witness refused to answer, or may find that the refusal to answer reduces the probative value of the witness's testimony.³⁰⁶

For information concerning refusal to answer a discovery deposition question, see TBMP §§ 404.03(a)(2) regarding deposition of nonparty residing in U.S., 404.08(c) (Objections During Deposition), 404.09 (Discovery Depositions Compared to Testimony Depositions), 411.03 (Discovery Depositions [Remedy for Failure to Provide Discovery]), and 523 (Motion to Compel Discovery).

707.04 Waiver of Objection

A party may waive an objection to evidence by failing to raise the objection at the appropriate time.³⁰⁷

For example, an objection to a notice of reliance on the ground that the notice does not comply with the procedural requirements of the particular rule under which it was submitted generally should be raised promptly. If a party fails to raise an objection of this nature promptly, the objection may be deemed waived, unless the ground for objection is one that could not have been cured even if raised promptly.³⁰⁸

Similarly, an objection to a testimony deposition on the ground that it does not comply with the applicable procedural rules generally is waived if not raised promptly, unless the ground for objection is one which could not have been cured even if raised promptly.³⁰⁹

³⁰⁶ See Levi Strauss & Co. v. R. Josephs Sportswear Inc., 28 USPQ2d 1464, 1467 (TTAB 1993) (where opposer's objections were found to be not well taken, Board presumed that the answers would have been adverse to opposer's position); *Health-Tex Inc. v. TRIAL PROCEDURE AND INTRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

On the other hand, objections to a notice of reliance, or to a testimony deposition, on substantive grounds, such as, that the proffered evidence constitutes hearsay or improper rebuttal, or is incompetent, irrelevant, or immaterial, generally are not waived for failure to raise them promptly, unless the ground for objection is one which could have been cured if raised promptly.³¹⁰

If testimony is submitted in affidavit form by stipulation of the parties pursuant to 37 CFR §2.123(b), any objection, which is waived if not made at deposition, must be raised promptly after receipt of the affidavit submission, failing which it is waived.³¹¹

If a party fails to attend a testimony deposition, any objection, which is waived if not made at the deposition, is waived.³¹²

Additionally, by failing to preserve the objection in its brief on the case, a party may waive an objection that was seasonably raised at trial.³¹³

BRIEFS ON CASE, ORAL HEARING, FINAL DECISION

801 Briefs on the Case

801.01 In General

After the close of all testimony periods in an inter partes proceeding before the Board, the parties are allowed time in which to file briefs on the case. The brief is a party's "opportunity to present, in a systematic and coherent manner, and in a form which is permanent and can be referred to, a discussion of the facts in light of the law," its strongest affirmative arguments, and a rebuttal of its adversary's arguments.¹

Subject to Fed. R. Civ. P. 11, a party is entitled to offer in its brief on the case any argument it feels will be to its advantage. However, the facts and arguments presented in the brief must be based on the evidence offered at trial. A brief may not be used as a vehicle for the introduction of evidence.²

For information concerning briefs and oral hearings in ex parte appeals, see TBMP §§ 1203.01 and 1216, respectively.

801.02 Time for Filing

37 CFR § 2.128(a)

(1) The brief of the party in the position of plaintiff shall be due not later than sixty days after the date set for the close of rebuttal testimony. The brief of the party in the position of defendant, if filed, shall be due not later than thirty days after the due date of the first brief. A reply brief by the party in the position of plaintiff, if filed, shall be due not later than fifteen days after the due date of the defendant's brief.

(2) When there is a counterclaim, or when proceedings have been consolidated and one party is in the position of plaintiff in one of the involved proceedings and in the position of defendant in another of the involved proceedings, or when there is an interference or a concurrent use registration proceeding involving more than two parties, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board will set the due dates for the filing of the main brief, and the answering brief, and the rebuttal brief by the parties.

(3) When a party in the position of plaintiff fails to file a main brief, an order may be issued allowing plaintiff until a set time, not less than fifteen days, in which to show cause why the Board should not treat such failure as a concession of the case. If plaintiff fails to file a response to the order, or files a response indicating that he has lost interest in the case, judgment may be entered against plaintiff.

801.02(a) Plaintiff's Main Brief

The main brief of the party in the position of plaintiff is due not later than 60 days after the date set for the close of the rebuttal testimony period.³

If a party in the position of plaintiff fails to file a main brief, the Board may issue an order allowing plaintiff until a set time, not less than 15 days, in which to show cause why its failure to file a main brief should not be treated as a concession of the case. If the plaintiff fails to file a response to the order, or files a response indicating that it has lost interest in the case, judgment may be entered against the plaintiff.⁴ The purpose of this order to show cause procedure is to save the Board the burden of determining a case on the merits where the parties have settled, but have neglected to notify the Board, or where the plaintiff has lost interest in the case. It is the policy of the Board not to enter judgment against a plaintiff, for failure to file a main brief on the case, where the plaintiff, in its response to the show cause order, indicates that it has not lost interest in the case.⁵

For further information concerning the 37 CFR § 2.128(a)(3) order to show cause procedure, see TBMP § 536.

801.02(b) Defendant's Main Brief

The filing of a brief on the case is optional, not mandatory, for a party in the position of defendant.⁶

However, if a party in the position of defendant wishes to file a brief on the case, the brief is due not later than 30 days after the due date of the plaintiff's main brief.⁷

801.02(c) Plaintiff's Reply Brief

The filing of a reply brief is optional for a party in the position of plaintiff.⁸

However, if a party in the position of plaintiff wishes to file a reply brief, the brief is due not later than 15 days after the due date of the defendant's main brief.⁹

801.02(d) Reply Brief for Defendant Not Permitted

There is no provision for filing a reply brief, rebuttal brief, rejoinder brief, etc. by a party in the position of defendant. If a party in the position of defendant files such a brief, it may be stricken, or given no consideration, by the Board.¹⁰

However, if a defendant has counterclaimed to cancel a registration owned by the plaintiff, the defendant, as plaintiff in the counterclaim, may file a reply brief directed to the counterclaim.¹¹

801.02(e) Special Situations

In certain special situations, the Board will set, by written action, the due dates for the filing of briefs on the case. This occurs when (1) there is a counterclaim, (2) proceedings have been consolidated, and one party is in the position of plaintiff in one of the involved proceedings and in the position of defendant in another, or (3) there is an interference or a concurrent use registration proceeding involving more than two parties.¹²

For example, if there is a counterclaim, the Board will issue an order setting the due dates for plaintiff's main brief in the original proceeding (due the 60th day after the date set for the close of rebuttal testimony); defendant's brief as defendant in the original proceeding and as plaintiff in the counterclaim (due the 30th day after the due date of the plaintiff's main brief); plaintiff's combined reply brief in the original proceeding and its brief as defendant in the counterclaim (due the 30th day after the due date of defendant's brief as defendant in the original proceeding and as plaintiff in the counterclaim); and defendant's reply brief as plaintiff in the counterclaim (due the 15th day after the due date of plaintiff's combined reply brief in the original proceeding and brief as defendant in the counterclaim).¹³

In an interference or concurrent use registration proceeding, the Board will schedule briefing periods so that each party in the position of plaintiff will have a period for filing a main brief on the case, each party in the position of defendant will have a period for filing a main brief in which it may meet the brief of each plaintiff, and each party in the position of plaintiff will have a period for filing a reply brief.¹⁴

801.03 Form and Contents of Brief

37 CFR § 2.126 Form of submissions to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

(a) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board on paper where Board practice or the rules in this part permit. A paper submission, including exhibits and depositions, must meet the following requirements:

- (1) A paper submission must be printed in at least 11-point type and double-spaced, with text on one side only of each sheet;*
- (2) A paper submission must be 8 to 8.5 inches (20.3 to 21.6 cm.) wide and 11 to 11.69 inches (27.9 to 29.7 cm.) long, and contain no tabs or other such devices extending beyond the edges of the paper;*
- (3) If a paper submission contains dividers, the dividers must not have any extruding tabs or other devices, and must be on the same size and weight paper as the submission;*
- (4) A paper submission must not be stapled or bound;*
- (5) All pages of a paper submission must be numbered and exhibits shall be identified in the manner prescribed in §2.123(g)(2);*
- (6) Exhibits pertaining to a paper submission must be filed on paper or CD-ROM concurrently with the paper submission, and comply with the requirements for a paper or CD-ROM submission.*

(b) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board on CD-ROM where the rules in this part or Board practice permit. A CD-ROM submission must identify the parties and case number and contain a list that clearly identifies the documents and exhibits contained thereon. This information must appear in the data contained in the CD-ROM itself, on a label affixed to the CD-ROM, and on the packaging for the CD-ROM. Text in a CD-ROM submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced. A brief filed on CD-ROM must be accompanied by a single paper copy of the brief. A CD-ROM submission must be accompanied by a transmittal letter on paper that identifies the parties, the case number and the contents of the CD-ROM.

(c) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board electronically via the Internet where the rules in this part or Board practice permit, according to the parameters established by the Board and published on the web site of the Office. Text in an electronic submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced. Exhibits pertaining to an electronic submission must be made electronically as an attachment to the submission.

(d) To be handled as confidential, submissions to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board that are confidential in whole or part pursuant to §2.125(e) must be submitted under a separate cover. Both the submission and its cover must be marked confidential and must identify the case number and the parties. A copy of the submission with the confidential portions redacted must be submitted.

37 CFR § 2.128(b) Briefs must be submitted in written form and must meet the requirements prescribed in § 2.126. Each brief shall contain an alphabetical index of cases cited. Without prior leave of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, a main brief on the case shall not exceed fifty-five pages in length in its entirety, including the table of contents, index of cases, description of the record, statement of the issues, recitation of the facts, argument, and summary; and a reply brief shall not exceed twenty-five pages in its entirety.

A brief on the case must be submitted in written form and must meet the general requirements for submissions to the Board specified in 37 CFR § 2.126. A party may file a brief on the case on paper, CD-ROM, or electronically through ESTTA.¹⁵ The requirements for each form of submission are set out in 37 CFR § 2.126(a), (b) and (c), respectively. If the brief is submitted on CD-ROM, a paper copy of the brief must be submitted at the same time.¹⁶

In addition to the general requirements for submissions to the Board, briefs at final hearing are also subject to the page limitations specified in 37 CFR § 2.128(b).¹⁷

As provided in 37 CFR § 2.128(b), without prior leave of the Board, a main brief on the case may not exceed 55 pages in length in its entirety, and a reply brief may not exceed 25 pages in its entirety. The parts of the brief that fall within the length limit include the table of contents, index of cases, description of the record, statement of the issues, recitation of facts, argument, and summary. Extensive single-spaced footnotes may not be used as a subterfuge to avoid the page limit.¹⁸ Exhibits or appendices to a brief, not being part of the brief itself, are not included within the page limit.¹⁹ In addition, evidentiary objections that may properly be raised in a party's brief on the case may instead be raised in an appendix or by way of a separate statement of objections. The appendix or separate statement is not included within the page limit.²⁰

For information concerning motions for leave to file a brief exceeding the page limit, see 37 CFR § 2.128(b) and TBMP § 537.

The brief must contain an alphabetic index of all cited cases. When cases are cited in a brief, the case citation should include a citation to The United States Patent Quarterly (USPQ), if the case has appeared in that publication.

The description of the record should comprise a list of the evidence properly introduced by the parties, such as, "The evidence of record consists of opposer's Registration No. 1,234,567; applicant's answers to opposer's interrogatories; the discovery deposition of Mr. X; and the testimony depositions of opposer's witnesses, Mr. Y and Ms. Z." For each significant fact recited, the recitation of facts should include, a citation to the portion of the evidentiary record where supporting evidence may be found.

If a mark that is the subject of, or is pleaded in, a proceeding includes stylization or a design feature, a reproduction of the mark should be included in the brief on the case.

If a plaintiff files a reply brief, the brief must be confined to rebutting the defendant's main brief.

Confidential information. Except for materials filed under seal pursuant to a protective order, the files of applications and registrations which are the subject matter of pending proceedings before the Board and all pending proceeding files and exhibits thereto are available for public inspection and copying.²¹ Therefore, only the particular portion of a brief that discloses confidential information should be filed under seal pursuant to a protective order. If a party submits a brief containing confidential information under seal, the party must also submit for the public record a redacted version of the brief.²²

Confidential portions of the brief, if any, must be submitted in accordance with 37 CFR § 2.126(d). The requirements for confidential submissions are specified in part (d) of 37 CFR § 2.126. To be handled as confidential, and kept out of the public record, submissions to the Board that are confidential must be filed under a separate cover. Both the submission and its cover must be marked confidential and must identify the case number and the parties. A copy of the submission with the confidential portions redacted must also be submitted.²³

Confidential materials filed in the absence of a protective order are not regarded as confidential and will not be kept confidential by the Board.²⁴

For further information regarding confidential materials, see TBMP §§ 120.02 and 412.

801.04 Amicus Briefs

The Board may, in its discretion, entertain an amicus brief.²⁵ An entity that wishes to file an amicus brief should file a motion with the Board for leave to do so. For information concerning motions for leave to file an amicus brief, see TBMP § 538.

801.05 Motion to Strike Brief on Case

A party may move to strike a brief on the case on a variety of grounds, including that the brief was untimely filed, exceeds the page limit for a brief on the case, violates the format requirements for such a brief, is a brief not provided for by the applicable rules (e.g., is a reply brief filed by the defendant). 802 Oral Hearing

37 CFR § 2.129(a) If a party desires to have an oral argument at final hearing, the party shall request such argument by a separate notice filed not later than ten days after the due date for the filing of the last reply brief in the proceeding. Oral arguments will be heard by at least three Members of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board at the time specified in the notice of hearing. If any party appears at the specified time, that party will be heard. If the Board is prevented from hearing the case at the specified time, a new hearing date will be set. Unless otherwise permitted, oral arguments in an inter partes case will be limited to thirty minutes for each party. A party in the position of plaintiff may reserve part of the time allowed for oral argument to present a rebuttal argument.

(b) The date or time of a hearing may be reset, so far as is convenient and proper, to meet the wishes of the parties and their attorneys or other authorized representatives.

802.01 In General

The oral hearing on the case in an inter partes proceeding before the Board corresponds to the oral summation in court proceedings after all the evidence is in.²⁶

An oral hearing is optional and is scheduled only if a timely request therefor is filed by a party to the proceeding. The oral hearing provides a party with one last opportunity to emphasize its strongest arguments, and to refute its adversary's arguments. It is particularly useful in cases with complex issues or a complex record, or where the defendant needs to respond to arguments in the plaintiff's reply brief.²⁷

Subject to Fed. R. Civ. P. 11, a party is entitled to offer at oral hearing any argument it feels will be to its advantage. However, the facts recited and arguments made at oral hearing must be based on the evidence offered at trial. An oral hearing may not be used as a vehicle for the introduction of evidence.²⁸

²⁶ See 37 CFR § 2.116(f). For information on oral hearings in ex parte cases, see TBMP § 1216.

Chapter 800

BRIEFS ON CASE, ORAL HEARING, FINAL DECISION

802.02 Request for Oral Hearing

A party that wishes to have an oral hearing on the case must file a request, by separate paper (not as part of its brief on the case), not later than 10 days after the due date for filing the last reply brief in the proceeding.²⁹ Any party to the proceeding may request a hearing.

If an oral hearing is not requested, the case will be decided in due course after the due date for filing the last reply brief on the case.

802.03 Time and Place of Hearing

When a timely request for an oral hearing on the case has been filed by a party to an inter partes proceeding before the Board, the Board sets the date and time for the hearing, and sends each party a written notice of hearing specifying the date, time, and location of the hearing.³⁰ Oral hearings are ordinarily scheduled on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. In setting an oral hearing it is the normal practice of the Board, to telephone the parties, or their attorneys or other authorized representatives, to determine a convenient date and time for the hearing. A written notice formally scheduling the hearing is mailed.

Oral hearings are almost exclusively held at the offices of the Board. However, there are two off-site video conference centers available for use for oral hearings. The two video conference centers are located in Sunnyvale, California and Detroit, Michigan. To request a hearing by video conference, a party must make the request in its written request for an oral hearing. When a request is received, the Board will contact the off-site video conference centers to obtain available times and dates, as well as the on-site video conference center for tentative scheduling options that coincide with the off-site video conference center. Once the information is obtained, counsel will be contacted and informed of the nearest center location, the available scheduling dates/times and the fee required by the off-site center. The requesting party is responsible for the fee for the off-site center. Once agreement is made on the conference, the Board will secure the hearing centers and provide written notice to the parties.

Attendance at a scheduled oral hearing is voluntary, not mandatory. If any party appears at the specified time, the party will be heard, whether or not the party that appears is the one that requested the hearing.³¹ If a party elects not to attend a scheduled hearing, the party should notify the Board, well in advance of the scheduled hearing date, that it will not attend the hearing.

³⁰ See 37 CFR § 2.129(a).

³¹ See 37 CFR § 2.129(a).

Chapter 800

BRIEFS ON CASE, ORAL HEARING, FINAL DECISION

If a party that requested an oral hearing fails to appear at the appointed time, without giving prior notice to the Board of nonappearance, the failure to appear will be construed by the Board as a withdrawal of the request for an oral hearing. Any new request for an oral hearing will be granted only upon a showing that the failure to appear was occasioned by extraordinary circumstances.

If the Board is prevented from hearing the case at the time specified in the notice of hearing, a new hearing date will be set.³² The Board will reschedule an oral hearing, at the request of the parties, if there is a reasonable basis for the request. But, absent compelling circumstances, a hearing date will not be changed if the request for rescheduling is made within two weeks of the scheduled hearing date unless both parties agree to the change. When the parties agree to the resetting of an oral hearing, they should determine a new date and time convenient to every party and then contact the Chief Administrative Trademark Judge's secretary by telephone, well prior to the scheduled hearing date, to request that the hearing be reset for the new date and time. The parties should also file a written stipulation or consented motion confirming their agreement. If the parties agree to reset an oral hearing due to settlement negotiations, they should request that proceedings, including the time for oral hearing, be suspended pending completion of the negotiations. If agreement cannot be reached, the party that wishes to have the hearing reset should file a motion therefor.³³ However, parties should not file repeated requests to reset an oral hearing. For information concerning requests to reset an oral hearing, see TBMP § 541.01

802.04 Before Whom Held

An oral hearing is held before a panel of at least three members of the Board (i.e., its statutory members, generally administrative trademark judges).³⁴ Normally, an oral hearing panel consists of only three Board members. If for some reason a member of a panel of three that held the oral hearing is unable to participate in the final decision, another Board member may be substituted at final decision for the missing member, even though the substituted member was not present at the oral hearing; no new oral hearing is necessary.³⁵

The Board may, in its discretion, use an augmented panel to hear a case.³⁶ A decision by the Board to use an augmented panel may be made either upon the Board's own initiative, or upon motion filed by a party to the proceeding.³⁷

For information concerning motions for an augmented panel hearing, see TBMP § 540. For further information concerning the constitution of Board panels, see In re Alappat, 33 F.3d 1526, 31 USPQ2d 1545, 1547 (Fed. Cir. 1994).

802.05 Length of Oral Argument

Ordinarily, each party in a Board inter partes proceeding is allowed 30 minutes for its oral argument. If it so desires, the plaintiff may reserve part of its 30 minutes for rebuttal.³⁸ If there is a counterclaim, the defendant, as the plaintiff in the counterclaim, may also reserve part of its 30 minutes for rebuttal on the counterclaim.

There is no requirement that a party use all of its allotted 30 minutes for oral argument. Often, a case may be presented in considerably less than 30 minutes.

On the other hand, if a party feels that it needs more than 30 minutes for oral argument, it may file a request with the Board for additional time.³⁹ If the request is granted, each party will be allowed the same amount of time for oral argument. For information concerning requests or motions for additional time for oral argument, see TBMP § 541.02.

802.06 Audiotaping and Videotaping

Upon motion showing good cause and with prior arrangement, the Board will usually permit a party to make an audiotape recording of an oral hearing. The recording, when permitted by the Board, is strictly for the party's private use, and is not to be used for purposes of publicity, or as "evidence" in any proceeding (the oral hearing is not part of the evidentiary record in a proceeding before the Board). The motion should be filed well in advance of the date set for the oral hearing, so if an objection is raised, the Board will have time to rule on the matter. For information concerning motions for leave to audiotape an oral hearing, see TBMP § 542.

If permission to record an oral hearing is granted, the moving party is responsible for furnishing, operating, and removing its own audio taping equipment in an unobtrusive manner.

A court reporter is distracting and disruptive in the context of an oral hearing before the Board, and therefore may not be used. For the same reason, *an oral hearing before the Board may not be videotaped.*⁴⁰

802.07 Visual Aids, etc.

The Board will generally allow certain types of materials, such as graphs, large depictions of marks, schedules, charts, etc., to be used at oral hearing, either for clarification or to eliminate the need for extended description, when such materials are based on evidence properly of record.⁴¹

A party may also bring to the oral hearing any materials introduced as exhibits at trial, including audiotapes or videotapes of commercials or demonstrations. A party that introduced an audiotape or videotape as an exhibit at trial, and wishes to play it at the oral hearing, should notify the Board in advance. In addition, a party that wishes to play such a tape at oral hearing is responsible for furnishing, operating, and removing the necessary equipment in an unobtrusive manner.

A party may not, however, use an oral hearing for the purpose of offering new evidence, whether in the form of charts, graphs, exhibits, or other such materials.⁴² Nor may a party submit in writing the text of its oral argument; to allow such a practice would be to permit a party, in effect, to file an additional brief on the case.⁴³

802.08 Nature of Hearing

Prior to an oral hearing, the Board panel members read the briefs on the case and, if necessary, examine the case files. Thus, persons presenting oral arguments should not read from the briefs on the case, except to emphasize an admission contained in an adversary's brief.

Normally, an oral hearing case is not assigned to a particular Board member to draft a final decision until some time after the oral hearing. Thus, the Board member who sits in the middle of the panel of three is not necessarily the person to whom the case will be assigned for decision; rather, the middle panel member is usually (but not always) the senior panel member.

A person presenting oral arguments should be prepared to answer questions from Board panel members at any point in the arguments. If exhibits or visual aids have been brought to the oral hearing, they should be shown to the adversary before they are shown to the Board panel. Further, a person presenting oral arguments should never interrupt the oral arguments of the adversary.

For further information on how to argue a case before the Board, see Saul Lefkowitz, TIPS FROM THE TTAB: Presentation of an Oral Hearing Before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, 67 Trademark Rep. 283 (1977).

803 Final Decision

After an oral hearing has been held in a Board inter partes proceeding, the case is set down for final decision. If no oral hearing is requested, the case is set down for final decision after the due date for filing the last reply brief.

A panel of at least three Board members renders the final decision.⁴⁴ When there has been an oral hearing in a case, the final decision normally is rendered by the panel before which the oral hearing was held. If a member of a panel of three before which an oral hearing was held is unable to participate in the final decision, another Board member may be substituted at final decision for the missing member.⁴⁵

The Board may use an augmented panel at final decision. For information concerning the use of an augmented panel, see TBMP § 540. For further information concerning the constitution of Board panels, see In re Alappat, 33 F.3d 1526, 31 USPQ2d 1545 (Fed. Cir. 1994).

BRIEFS ON CASE, ORAL HEARING, FINAL DECISION

Every member of the panel assigned to decide the case does not read the evidentiary record in a case. Rather, one panel member is assigned to read the testimony and examine the other evidence of record, discuss the case with the other panel members, and then draft a decision and supporting opinion. The draft is circulated to the other panel members for their approval and signature. A panel member who does not agree with the decision may write a dissent. A panel member who agrees with the decision, but disagrees with the reasoning expressed in the opinion supporting the decision, or wishes to express additional reasons, may write a concurring opinion.

When the members of the panel rendering the decision have signed a final decision, a copy is mailed to every party to the proceeding. All final decisions are posted on the USPTO web site as final decisions of the TTAB. The decisions are grouped first by year decided and then by issues. Within the groupings of issues, the decisions are listed by proceeding number.

Section 21 of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1071, and 37 CFR § 2.145 govern any appeal from a final decision of the Board.⁴⁶

804 Request for Rehearing, Reconsideration, or Modification of Final Decision

A party may file a request for rehearing, reconsideration, or modification of a decision issued after final hearing.⁴⁷ The request must be filed within one month from the date of decision and a responsive brief, if any, is due within 15 days of the date of service of the request. For information concerning requests for rehearing, reconsideration, or modification of a decision issued after final hearing, see TBMP § 543.

805 Final Decision Remand to Examining Attorney

37 CFR § 2.131 Remand after decision in inter partes proceeding. If, during an inter partes proceeding involving an application under Section 1 or 44 of the Act, facts are disclosed which appear to render the mark unregistrable, but such matter has not been tried under the pleadings as filed by the parties or as they might be deemed to be amended under Rule 15(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure to conform to the evidence, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, in lieu of determining the matter in the decision on the proceeding, may remand the application to the trademark examining attorney for reexamination in the event the applicant ultimately prevails in the inter partes proceeding. Upon remand, the trademark examining attorney shall reexamine the application in the light of the reference by the Board. If, upon reexamination, the trademark examining attorney finally refuses registration to the applicant, an appeal may be taken as provided by §§ 2.141 and 2.142.

If, during the course of an opposition, concurrent use, or interference proceeding involving an application under Section 1 or 44 of the Trademark Act, facts are disclosed which appear to render the mark of the involved application unregistrable, and the matter has not been tried under the pleadings as filed by the parties or as they might be deemed to be amended pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(b), the Board, in its decision in the proceeding, may, in addition to determining the pleaded matters, remand the application to the trademark examining attorney for further examination in light of the disclosed facts. That is, the Board may include in its decision a recommendation that in the event applicant ultimately prevails in the inter partes proceeding, the examining attorney reexamine the application in light of the disclosed facts.⁴⁸ An application under Section 66(a) of the Act may not be remanded under 37 CFR § 2.131.

If a party to an opposition, concurrent use, or interference proceeding involving a Section 1 or 44 application believes that the facts disclosed therein appear to render the mark of the involved application unregistrable, but the matter was not pleaded or tried by the express or implied consent of the parties pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(b), the party may request that the Board include, in its decision in the proceeding, a 37 CFR § 2.131 remand to the examining attorney. The request may be made in the party's brief on the case, or by separate motion. A 66(a) application may not be remanded under 37 CFR § 2.131.

806 Termination of Proceeding

When an inter partes proceeding before the Board has been finally determined (that is, when the time for filing an appeal from a decision of the Board determining the case has expired, and no appeal has been filed, or when any appeals filed have been determined), the Board takes certain further steps, based on the judgment entered, to close out the proceeding file and give effect to the judgment.⁴⁹ The same is true when a proceeding ends by stipulation of the parties, or by a voluntary withdrawal or consent to judgment by one party.

For example, when a decision of the Board dismissing an opposition becomes final (that is, the time for filing an appeal has expired, and no appeal has been filed), or the opposition is dismissed pursuant to a stipulation of the parties or as the result of a withdrawal by opposer, among other things, the Board normally takes the following steps:

⁴⁸ See 37 CFR § 2.131 and TBMP § 515 (Motion to Remand Application to Examining Attorney) and cases cited therein. Cf. TBMP § 1217 (Final Decision).

⁴⁹ See Notice of Final Rulemaking published in the Federal Register on August 22, 1989 at 54 FR 34886, 34896, and in the Official Gazette of September 12, 1989 at 1106 TMOG 26, 34.

Chapter 800
BRIEFS ON CASE, ORAL HEARING, FINAL DECISION

- (1) The testimony depositions, any discovery depositions made of record in the case, and one copy of each brief on the case (that is, materials which, because of their bulkiness, would not have been kept by the Board in the proceeding file), are all placed in the proceeding file.
- (2) The word "TERMINATED" is stamped on the proceeding file.
- (3) The proceeding file is sent to the USPTO warehouse where terminated proceeding files are stored.
- (4) Exhibits, which, because of their size, were too bulky to put in the proceeding file, and therefore were stored separately by the Board, are returned to the party that filed them.
- (5) Confidential materials filed under protective order are returned to the party that filed them.
- (6) The applicant's subject application is sent to the appropriate section of the Office for further appropriate action, such as, issuance of a notice of allowance under 37 CFR § 2.81(b), in an intent-to-use application for which no amendment to allege use under 37 CFR § 2.76 has been submitted and accepted; issuance of a registration pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.81(a); republication, if necessary for some reason; or reexamination by the trademark examining attorney pursuant to a 37 CFR § 2.131 remand.⁵⁰

Alternatively, if the applicant has abandoned the subject application, the abandoned application is sent to the USPTO warehouse where newly abandoned applications are stored (pending their destruction approximately two years after abandonment).

When a decision of the Board granting a petition for cancellation becomes final, the first five steps listed above are taken, and the subject registration is cancelled by separate order of the Director. When a decision of the Board dismissing a petition for cancellation becomes final, the first five steps are taken, and the file of the registration is returned to the USPTO warehouse where "live" (subsisting) registrations are stored.

Because the Board will take the termination steps described above when a Board decision appears to be final, a party that commences a civil action, seeking review of the Board's decision pursuant to Section 21(b) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1071(b), must file written notice thereof with the Board. Board practice requires that the written notice be filed within one month after the expiration of the time for appeal or civil action. If a party files a civil action, but fails to notify the Board, the Board, believing that its decision has become final, will terminate the proceeding.

⁵⁰ See TBMP § 805 (Final Decision Remand to Examining Attorney).

BRIEFS ON CASE, ORAL HEARING, FINAL DECISION

As a result, a registration may be issued or cancelled prematurely, while the civil action seeking review of the Board's decision is still pending.

807 Status of Application After Proceeding

37 CFR § 2.136 Status of application on termination of proceeding. On termination of a proceeding involving an application, the application, if the judgment is not adverse, returns to the status it had before the institution of the proceedings. If the judgment is adverse to the applicant, the application stands refused without further action and all proceedings thereon are considered terminated.

When an opposition, concurrent use or interference proceeding ends with a judgment which is not adverse to an involved applicant, the application returns to the status it had before commencement of the proceeding, unless the Board indicates in its decision that the application must be republished for some reason, or includes in its decision a 37 CFR § 2.131 remand to the trademark examining attorney.⁵¹

If the proceeding ends with a judgment that is adverse to the applicant, the application stands refused, the file thereof is stamped "ABANDONED," and all proceedings are considered terminated.⁵²

REVIEW OF DECISION OF BOARD

901 Appeals--In General

15 U.S.C. § 1071 [Section 21(a)(1) of the Trademark Act] Review of Director's or Trademark Trial and Appeal Board's Decision

(a)(1) An applicant for registration of a mark, party to an interference proceeding, party to an opposition proceeding, party to an application to register as a lawful concurrent user, party to a cancellation proceeding, a registrant who has filed an affidavit as provided in section 8, or an applicant for renewal, who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Director or Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, may appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit thereby waiving his right to proceed under subsection (b) of this section: Provided, That such appeal shall be dismissed if any adverse party to the proceeding, other than the Director, shall, within twenty days after the appellant has filed notice of appeal according to paragraph (2) of this subsection, files notice with the Director that he elects to have all further proceedings conducted as provided in subsection (b) of this section. Thereupon the appellant shall have thirty days thereafter within which to file a civil action under subsection (b), of this section, in default of which the decision appealed from shall govern the further proceedings in the case.

(2) When an appeal is taken to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, the appellant shall file in the Patent and Trademark Office a written notice of appeal directed to the Director, within such time after the date of the decision from which the appeal is taken as the Director prescribes, but in no case less than 60 days after that date.

* * * *

(b)(1) Whenever a person authorized by subsection (a) of this section to appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit is dissatisfied with the decision of the Director or Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, said person may, unless appeal has been taken to said United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, have remedy by a civil action if commenced within such time after such decision, not less than sixty days, as the Director appoints or as provided in subsection (a) of this section. The court may adjudge that an applicant is entitled to a registration upon the application involved, that a registration involved should be cancelled, or such other matter as the issues in the proceeding require, as the facts in the case may appear. Such adjudication shall authorize the Director to take any necessary action, upon compliance with the requirements of law. However, no final judgment shall be entered in favor of an applicant under section 1(b) before the mark is registered, if such applicant cannot prevail without establishing constructive use pursuant to section 7(c).

(2) The Director shall not be made a party to an inter partes proceeding under this subsection, but he shall be notified of the filing of the complaint by the clerk of the court in which it is filed and shall have the right to intervene in the action.

37 CFR § 2.145 Appeal to court and civil action.

(a) Appeal to U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. An applicant for registration, or any party to an interference, opposition, or cancellation proceeding or any party to an application to register as a concurrent user, hereinafter referred to as inter partes proceedings, who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board and any registrant who has filed an affidavit or declaration under section 8 of the Act or who has filed an application for renewal and is dissatisfied with the decision of the Director (§§ 2.165, 2.184), may appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. . . .

* * * *

(c) Civil Action.

(1) Any person who may appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (paragraph (a) of this section), may have remedy by civil action under section 21(b) of the Act. Such civil action must be commenced within the time specified in paragraph (d) of this section.

(2) Any applicant or registrant in an ex parte case who takes an appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit waives any right to proceed under section 21(b) of the Act.

(3) Any adverse party to an appeal taken to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit by a defeated party in an inter partes proceeding may file a notice with the Office, addressed to the Office of General Counsel, according to part 104 of this chapter, within twenty days after the filing of the defeated party's notice of appeal to the court (paragraph (b) of this section), electing to have all further proceedings conducted as provided in section 21(b) of the Act. The notice of election must be served as provided in § 2.119.

* * * *

(d) Time for appeal or civil action.

(1) The time for filing the notice of appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (paragraph (b) of this section), or for commencing a civil action (paragraph (c) of this section), is two months from the date of the decision of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board or the Director, as the case may be. If a request for rehearing or reconsideration or modification of the decision is filed within the time specified in §§ 2.127(b), 2.129(c) or § 2.144, or within any extension of time granted thereunder, the time for filing an appeal or commencing a civil action shall expire two months after action on the request. In inter partes cases, the time for filing a cross-action or a notice of a cross-appeal expires (i) 14 days after service of the notice of appeal or the summons and complaint; or (ii) two months from the date of the decision of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board or the Director, whichever is later.

(2) The times specified in this section in days are calendar days. The times specified herein in months are calendar months except that one day shall be added to any two-month period which includes February 28. If the last day of time specified for an appeal, or commencing a civil action falls on a Saturday, Sunday or Federal holiday in the District of Columbia, the time is extended to the next day which is neither a Saturday, Sunday nor a Federal holiday.

(3) If a party to an inter partes proceeding has taken an appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit and an adverse party has filed notice under section 21(a)(1) of the Act electing to have all further proceedings conducted under section 21(b) of the Act, the time for filing a civil action thereafter is specified in section 21(a)(1) of the Act. The time for filing a cross-action expires 14 days after service of the summons and complaint.

901.01 Avenues of Appeal

A party to a Board proceeding who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Board is provided, under the Act, with two possible (mutually exclusive) remedies. The dissatisfied party may either:

- (1) Appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, which will review the decision from which the appeal is taken on the record before the Office, or
- (2) Have remedy by civil action (in a United States District Court), in which the court "may adjudge that an applicant is entitled to a registration upon the application involved, that a registration involved should be cancelled, or such other matter as the issues in the proceeding require, as the facts in the case may appear."¹

Clean Air Engineering Inc.*, 60 USPQ2d 1449, 1458 (7th Cir. 2001) (choice of appealing to Federal Circuit on closed record of Board proceedings or a federal district court with the option of presenting additional evidence and raising additional claims); Spraying Systems Co. v. Delavan Inc., 975 F.2d 387, 24 USPQ2d 1181, 1183 (7th Cir. 1992) (appeal to district court is in part an appeal and in part a new action); and *Alltrade Inc. v. Chapter 900

In an inter partes proceeding, if a dissatisfied party chooses to file an appeal to the Federal Circuit, any adverse party may, within 20 days after the filing of the notice of appeal, file notice that it elects to have the appeal dismissed, and to have further proceedings conducted instead by way of civil action.² Within 30 days after the filing of a notice of election by an adverse party, the appellant must commence a civil action for review of the Board's decision, failing which the Board's decision will govern further proceedings in the case.³

901.02 What May be Appealed

901.02(a) Final Decision Versus Interlocutory Decision

The only type of Board decision that may be appealed, whether to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit or by way of civil action, is a final decision, i.e., a final dispositive ruling that ends litigation on the merits before the Board.⁴

Interlocutory decisions or orders, i.e., decisions or orders that do not put an end to the litigation before the Board, are not appealable.⁵

² See Section 21(a)(1) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1071, and 37 CFR § 2.145(c)(3).

Tuxedo Monopoly, Inc.*, 225 USPQ 1222 (TTAB 1984), appeal dismissed, 757 F.2d 254, 226 USPQ 11, 11 (Fed. Israel Military Industries of the Ministry of Defense of the State of Israel*, supra ([Director] is without jurisdiction to certify an order to the Federal Circuit and court is without jurisdiction to hear it).

Chapter 900

REVIEW OF DECISION OF BOARD

Appealability is not limited to decisions issued by the Board after final hearing. Other types of Board decisions are also appealable, in those cases where they put an end to the litigation before the Board.⁶

On the other hand, if the Board resolves a merits issue prior to final hearing, but other merits issues remain, that is, the litigation is still before the Board as a whole, the Board's decision on the merits issue is interlocutory, rather than final, for purposes of judicial review. For example, in a case in which there is a counterclaim, if the Board grants summary judgment only as to the counterclaim, the case is not ripe for appeal until there has been a final decision with respect to the original claim; similarly, if the Board grants summary judgment only as to the original claim, the case is not ripe for appeal until there has been a final decision with respect to the counterclaim.⁷ When the Board, prior to final hearing, issues a decision resolving one or more, but not all, of the merits issues in a case before it, it is the usual practice of the Board to include in its decision the following statement: "This decision is interlocutory in nature. Appeal may be taken within two months after the entry of a final decision in the case."⁸

When an appeal is taken from a decision of the Board, it is the court to which an appeal is taken, not the Board, that determines whether the involved decision is appealable, that is, whether the court has jurisdiction to entertain the appeal.⁹

When a final decision of the Board is reviewed on appeal, interlocutory orders or decisions issued during the course of the proceeding before the Board may also be reviewed if they are "logically related" to the basic substantive issues in the case.¹⁰

A party may obtain review of an order or decision of the Board which concerns matters of procedure (rather than the central issue or issues before the Board), and does not put an end to the litigation before the Board, by timely petition to the Director.¹¹ A party may also file a request with the Board for reconsideration of such an order or decision.¹²

The mandamus procedure may not be used as a substitute for the appeal procedure specified in Section 21 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1071.¹³

901.02(b) Judgment Subject to Establishment of Constructive Use

In an inter partes proceeding before the Board, no final judgment will be entered in favor of an applicant under Section 1(b) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(b), before the mark is registered, if such applicant cannot prevail without establishing constructive use pursuant to Section 7(c) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1057(c).¹⁴ Rather, in those cases where the Board finds that a Section 1(b) applicant is entitled to prevail only if it establishes constructive use, the Board will enter judgment in favor of that applicant, subject to the applicant's establishment of constructive use.¹⁵ If, after entry of that judgment, the Section 1(b) applicant files an acceptable statement of use, and obtains a registration, thus establishing its constructive use, final judgment will be entered in behalf of the Section 1(b) applicant. If, on the other hand, the Section 1(b) applicant fails to establish constructive use, that is, fails to file an acceptable statement of use and obtain a registration, judgment will instead be entered in favor of the adverse party.

When the Board enters judgment in favor of a Section 1(b) applicant subject to that party's establishment of constructive use, the time for filing an appeal or commencing a civil action for review of the Board's decision runs from the date of the entry of judgment subject to establishment of constructive use.¹⁶

902 Appeal to Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit

902.01 Notice of Appeal

15 U.S.C. § 1071(a)(2) [Section 21(a)(2) of the Trademark Act] When an appeal is taken to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, the appellant shall file in the Patent and Trademark Office a written notice of appeal directed to the Director, within such time after the date of the decision from which the appeal is taken as the Director prescribes, but in no case less than 60 days after that date.

37 CFR § 2.145 Appeal to court and civil action.

(a) Appeal to U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. An applicant for registration, or any party to an interference, opposition, or cancellation proceeding or any party to an application to register as a concurrent user, hereinafter referred to as inter partes proceedings, who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board and any registrant who has filed an affidavit or declaration under section 8 of the Act or who has filed an application for renewal and is dissatisfied with the decision of the Director (§§2.165, 2.184), may appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. The appellant must take the following steps in such an appeal:

- (1) In the Patent and Trademark Office give written notice of appeal to the Director (see paragraphs (b) and (d) of this section);*
- (2) In the court, file a copy of the notice of appeal and pay the fee for appeal, as provided by the rules of the Court.*

(b) Notice of appeal.

(1) When an appeal is taken to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, the appellant shall give notice thereof in writing to the Director, which notice shall be filed in the Patent and Trademark Office, within the time specified in paragraph (d) of this section. The notice shall specify the party or parties taking the appeal and shall designate the decision or part thereof appealed from.

¹⁶ See 37 CFR § 2.129(d) and Zirco Corp. v. American Telephone and Telegraph Co., supra.

(2) In inter partes proceedings, the notice must be served as provided in § 2.119.

(3) Notices of appeal directed to the Director shall be mailed to or served by hand on the General Counsel according to part 104 of this chapter, with a duplicate copy mailed or served by hand on the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

37 CFR § 104.2 Address for mail and service; telephone number.

(a) Mail under this part should be addressed to:

*General Counsel, United States Patent and Trademark Office
P.O. Box 15667
Arlington, VA 22215.*

(b) Service by hand should be made during business hours to the:

*Office of the General Counsel
Crystal Park Two Suite 905
2121 Crystal Drive
Arlington, Virginia.*

(c) The Office of the General Counsel may be reached by telephone at 703-308-2000 during business hours.

A party taking an appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit from a decision of the Board must give written notice thereof both to the Director and to the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and pay to the Court the fee required by the Court's rules.¹⁷

Specifically, the original notice of appeal must be filed in the USPTO, within the time required by 37 CFR § 2.145(d) (see TBMP § 902.02).¹⁸ The certificate of mailing and certificate of transmission procedures described in 37 CFR § 2.197, and the "Express Mail" procedure described in 37 CFR § 2.198, are available for filing a notice of appeal. The notice must specify the party or parties taking the appeal and designate the decision or part thereof appealed from. However, reasons for appeal need not be given.¹⁹ A copy of the decision being appealed, and a copy of any decision on reconsideration thereof, should be attached to the notice of appeal.²⁰ If the appeal is taken from a decision of the Board in an inter partes proceeding, a copy of the notice must be served on every other party to the proceeding, in the manner prescribed in 37 CFR § 2.119 (see TBMP § 113).²¹ The written notice, if mailed to the USPTO (rather than hand-delivered to the Office of the General Counsel), must be addressed to General Counsel, United States Patent and Trademark Office, P.O. Box 15667, Arlington, VA 22215.²²

For information concerning the ways (i.e., by hand delivery, first-class mail, etc.) in which a notice of appeal may be filed in the Office, the filing date of a notice of appeal, and the address to be used on a notice of appeal mailed to the Office, see 37 CFR §§ 2.190, 2.195, 2.197, 2.198, and 2.145(b)(3); and Appeals to the Federal Circuit From PTO, 1120 TMOG 22, 24 (November 13, 1990) (NOTE: the 1990 Official Gazette notice must be read in light of subsequent rule amendments--for example, the 37 CFR § 2.197 certificate procedures are now applicable to a notice of appeal from a decision of the Board, but were not in 1990).

For further information concerning how to file a notice of appeal, contact the Office of the General Counsel in the USPTO.

Three copies of the notice of appeal must be filed in the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (NOTE: While 37 CFR § 2.145(a) requires the filing of only one copy of the notice with the Federal Circuit, Fed. Cir. R. 15(a)(1) requires that three copies of the notice be filed with the Federal Circuit), and the appeal fee required by the rules of the Court must be paid to the Court.²³ A copy of the decision being appealed, and a copy of any decision on reconsideration thereof, should be attached to the copy of the notice.²⁴

REVIEW OF DECISION OF BOARD

37 CFR § 2.145(d) Time for appeal or civil action.

(1) The time for filing the notice of appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (paragraph (b) of this section), or for commencing a civil action (paragraph (c) of this section), is two months from the date of the decision of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board or the Director, as the case may be. If a request for rehearing or reconsideration or modification of the decision is filed within the time specified in §§ 2.127(b), 2.129(c) or 2.144, or within any extension of time granted thereunder, the time for filing an appeal or commencing a civil action shall expire two months after action on the request. In inter partes cases, the time for filing a cross-action or a notice of a cross-appeal expires (i) 14 days after service of the notice of appeal or the summons and complaint; or (ii) two months from the date of the decision of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board or the Director, whichever is later.

(2) The times specified in this section in days are calendar days. The times specified herein in months are calendar months except that one day shall be added to any two-month period which includes February 28. If the last day of time specified for an appeal, or commencing a civil action falls on a Saturday, Sunday or Federal holiday in the District of Columbia, the time is extended to the next day which is neither a Saturday, Sunday nor a Federal holiday.

(3) If a party to an inter partes proceeding has taken an appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit and an adverse party has filed notice under section 21(a)(1) of the Act electing to have all further proceedings conducted under section 21(b) of the Act, the time for filing a civil action thereafter is specified in section 21(a)(1) of the Act. The time for filing a cross-action expires 14 days after service of the summons and complaint.

37 CFR § 2.145(e) Extensions of time to commence judicial review. The Director may extend the time for filing an appeal or commencing a civil action (1) for good cause shown if requested in writing before the expiration of the period for filing an appeal or commencing a civil action, or (2) upon written request after the expiration of the period for filing an appeal or commencing a civil action upon a showing that the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect.

The time for filing a notice of appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit is two months from the date of the Board decision which is the subject of the appeal.²⁵ When the Board enters judgment in favor of a Section 1(b), 15 U.S.C. § 1051(b), applicant subject to that party's establishment of constructive use (see TBMP § 901.02(b)), the time for filing an appeal runs from the date of the entry of judgment subject to establishment of constructive use.²⁶

²⁵ See Section 21(a)(2) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1071(a)(2); 37 CFR § 2.145(d)(1); and Appeals to the Federal Circuit From PTO, 1120 TMOG 22, 24 (November 13, 1990).

REVIEW OF DECISION OF BOARD

If a request for rehearing, reconsideration, or modification of the Board's decision is filed within the time specified in 37 CFR §§ 2.127(b), 2.129(c), or 2.144, or within any extension of time granted thereunder, the time for filing an appeal expires two months after action on the request.²⁷

In an inter partes case, the time for filing a notice of cross-appeal expires (1) 14 days after service of the notice of appeal, or (2) two months from the date of the Board decision which is the subject of the appeal, whichever is later.²⁸

The certificate of mailing and certificate of transmission procedures described in 37 CFR § 2.197, and the "Express Mail" procedure described in 37 CFR § 2.198, are available for filing a notice of appeal or a notice of cross-appeal.

If a written request to extend the time for appeal is filed before the expiration of the appeal period, the Director may grant the request on a showing of good cause. If the request is not filed until after the expiration of the appeal period, the Director may grant the request only on a showing that the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect.²⁹ A request for an extension of time to file an appeal should be directed to the attention of the Office of the Solicitor.³⁰

It is the Director, through the Office of General Counsel, not the Board, who determines whether a notice of appeal has been timely filed. If the Director determines that a notice of appeal was not timely, the Director notifies the Clerk of the Federal Circuit thereof. The Clerk in turn issues an order to the appellant to show cause why the appeal should not be dismissed, and refers appellant's response to the Court.³¹

An appellant that has received an order to show cause from the Clerk of the Federal Circuit may file a request under 37 CFR § 2.145(e) for an extension of time to file an appeal, accompanied by a showing that the late filing of the notice of appeal was the result of excusable neglect. The request should be filed in the Office of the Solicitor, which will notify the Clerk of the court of the Director's decision on the request.

Chapter 900 REVIEW OF DECISION OF BOARD

902.03 Appeal to Federal Circuit Waives Appeal by Civil Action

A party which takes an appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit from a decision of the Board thereby waives its right to have remedy by way of civil action under Section 21(b) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1071(b).³²

However, in an inter partes case, if an adverse party, in response to the notice of appeal to the Federal Circuit, files a notice electing to have further proceedings conducted instead by way of civil action, the appeal to the Federal Circuit will be dismissed, and the party that filed the appeal must commence a civil action, within 30 days after the filing of the notice of election, for review of the appealed decision, failing which that decision will govern further proceedings in the case.³³

902.04 Notice of Election to Have Review by Civil Action

15 U.S.C. § 1071(a)(1) [Section 21(a)(1) of the Trademark Act] An applicant for registration of a mark, party to an interference proceeding, party to an opposition proceeding, party to an application to register as a lawful concurrent user, party to a cancellation proceeding, a registrant who has filed an affidavit as provided in section 8, or an applicant for renewal, who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Director or Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, may appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit thereby waiving his right to proceed under subsection (b) of this section: Provided, That such appeal shall be dismissed if any adverse party to the proceeding, other than the Director, shall, within twenty days after the appellant has filed notice of appeal according to paragraph (2) of this subsection, files notice with the Director that he elects to have all further proceedings conducted as provided in subsection (b) of this section. Thereupon the appellant shall have thirty days thereafter within which to file a civil action under subsection (b), of this section, in default of which the decision appealed from shall govern the further proceedings in the case.

37 CFR § 2.145(c)(3) Any adverse party to an appeal taken to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit by a defeated party in an inter partes proceeding may file a notice with the Office, addressed to the Office of the General Counsel, according to part 104 of this chapter, within twenty days after the filing of the defeated party's notice of appeal to the court (paragraph

Cf. Section 21(b)(1) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1071(b)(1) (party dissatisfied with decision of Board may, unless appeal has been taken to the Federal Circuit, have remedy by civil action), and TBMP § 903.05 (Information Concerning Times Specified in 37 CFR § 2.145)

(d)(3) If a party to an inter partes proceeding has taken an appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit and an adverse party has filed notice under section 21(a)(1) of the Act electing to have all further proceedings conducted under section 21(b) of the Act, the time for filing a civil action thereafter is specified in section 21(a)(1) of the Act. The time for filing a cross-action expires 14 days after service of the summons and complaint.

When a defeated party in an inter partes proceeding before the Board takes an appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, any adverse party may, within 20 days after the filing of the notice of appeal, file a notice with the Office electing to have all further proceedings conducted by way of civil action, under Section 21(b) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1071(b), seeking review of the decision that was the subject of the appeal.³⁴ The certificate of mailing and certificate of transmission procedures described in 37 CFR § 2.197, and the "Express Mail" procedure described in 37 CFR § 2.198, are available for filing a notice of election. A copy of the notice must be served on every other party to the proceeding, in the manner prescribed in 37 CFR § 2.119 (see TBMP § 113).³⁵ A copy of the notice must also be filed with the Federal Circuit.³⁶

If an adverse party files a notice electing to have further proceedings conducted by way of civil action under Section 21(b) of the Act, the appeal to the Federal Circuit will be dismissed, (see Fed. Cir. R. 15(e)) and the party that filed the appeal must commence a civil action, within 30 days after the filing of the notice of election, for review of the appealed decision, failing which that decision will govern further proceedings in the case.³⁷ Any cross-action must be filed within 14 days after service of the summons and complaint in the civil action.³⁸ month period which includes February 28. If the last day of time specified for an appeal, or commencing a civil action falls on a Saturday, Sunday or Federal holiday in the District of Columbia, the time is extended to the next day which is neither a Saturday, Sunday nor a Federal holiday.

In 37 CFR § 2.145 (which concerns appeals and civil actions seeking review of Board decisions), the times specified in days are calendar days, while the times specified in months are calendar months (except that one day is added to any two-month period which includes February 28). If the last day of the time allowed for filing an appeal falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday in the District of Columbia, the time for filing an appeal is extended to the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday.³⁹

902.06 Certified List

15 U.S.C. § 1071(a)(3) [Section 21(a)(3) of the Trademark Act] The Director shall transmit to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit a certified list of the documents comprising the record in the Patent and Trademark Office. The court may request that the Director forward the original or certified copies of such documents during pendency of the appeal. In an ex parte case, the Director shall submit to that court a brief explaining the grounds for the decision of the Patent and Trademark Office, addressing all the issues involved in the appeal. The court shall, before hearing an appeal, give notice of the time and place of the hearing to the Director and the parties in the appeal.

When notice is filed in the USPTO of an appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit from a decision of the Board, the Office sends to the Federal Circuit a statement indicating whether the notice of appeal was considered timely filed, and a certified list of the documents comprising the record in the USPTO, i.e., a certified copy of the list of docket entries on the file jacket containing the Office record of the proceeding accompanied by a copy of the decision appealed.⁴⁰ A copy of the certified list is mailed by the USPTO to every party to the proceeding.⁴¹

When the Federal Circuit receives the notice of appeal and the certified list, the Court docket the appeal, and gives notice to all parties of the date of docketing.⁴² The appellant's time in which to file its initial brief runs from the date of service of the certified list or the date of

902.08 Special Provisions for Ex Parte Cases

15 U.S.C. § 1071(a)(3) [Section 21(a)(3) of the Trademark Act] ... In an ex parte case, the Director shall submit to that court a brief explaining the grounds for the decision of the Patent and Trademark Office, addressing all the issues involved in the appeal. The court shall, before hearing an appeal, give notice of the time and place of the hearing to the Director and the parties in the appeal.

37 CFR § 2.145(c)(2) Any applicant or registrant in an ex parte case who takes an appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit waives any right to proceed under § 21(b) of the Act.

If an applicant in an ex parte case takes an appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit from a decision of the Board, the applicant thereby waives its right to proceed by way of civil action under Section 21(b) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1071(b).⁴⁴

903 Appeal by Civil Action

903.01 Notice of Civil Action

37 CFR § 2.145(c)(4) In order to avoid premature termination of a proceeding, a party who commences a civil action, pursuant to Section 21(b) of the Act, must file written notice thereof at the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

A party which commences a civil action, under Section 21(b) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1071(b) seeking review of a decision of the Board should file written notice thereof with the Board within one month after the expiration of the time for appeal or civil action. Failure to notify the Board of the commencement of the civil action may result in premature termination of the proceeding.⁴⁶ That is, if the Board is unaware of the commencement of the civil action, it will treat the Board's decision as governing further proceedings in the case, and will take steps, based on the judgment entered in that decision, to close out the proceeding file and give effect to the judgment.⁴⁷

903.02 Parties to and Service of Civil Action

15 U.S.C. § 1071(b) [Section 21(b) of the Trademark Act]

* * * *

(2) The Director shall not be made a party to an inter partes proceeding under this subsection, but he shall be notified of the filing of the complaint by the clerk of the court in which it is filed and shall have the right to intervene in the action.

(3) In any case where there is no adverse party, a copy of the complaint shall be served on the Director, and, unless the court finds the expenses to be unreasonable, all the expenses of the proceeding shall be paid by the party bringing the case, whether the final decision is in favor of such party or not. . . .

(4) Where there is an adverse party, such suit may be instituted against the party in interest as shown by the records of the Patent and Trademark Office at the time of the decision complained of, but any party in interest may become a party to the action. . . .

When a party to a Board inter partes proceeding appeals a decision of the Board by commencing a civil action seeking review of the decision, the Director shall not be made a party to the civil

The suit may be instituted against the party in interest as shown by the records of the Office at the time of the decision of which review is sought, but any party in interest may become a party to the action.⁴⁹

When an applicant in an ex parte proceeding appeals a decision of the Board by commencing a civil action seeking review of the decision, a copy of the complaint must be served on the Director (who is a party to the proceeding).⁵⁰ Service of a complaint on the Director is governed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(i), “Serving the United States, Its Agencies, Corporations, Officers, or Employees.”⁵¹

903.03 Place of Civil Action

15 U.S.C. § 1071(b)(4) [Section 21(b)(4) of the Trademark Act] Where there is an adverse party, such suit may be instituted against the party in interest as shown by the records of the Patent and Trademark Office at the time of the decision complained of, but any party in interest may become a party to the action. If there be adverse parties residing in a plurality of districts not embraced within the same State, or an adverse party residing in a foreign country, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia shall have jurisdiction and may issue summons against the adverse parties directed to the marshal of any district in which any adverse party resides. Summons against adverse parties residing in foreign countries may be served by publication or otherwise as the court directs.

Generally, a civil action under Section 21(b) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1071(b), may be brought in any Federal district court which has jurisdiction over the person. However, if there are adverse parties residing in a plurality of districts not embraced within the same state, or an adverse party residing in a foreign country, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia has jurisdiction.⁵²

903.04 Time for Filing Civil Action, Cross-Action

15 U.S.C. § 1071(b)(1) [Section 21(b)(1) of the Trademark Act] Whenever a person authorized by subsection (a) of this section to appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit is dissatisfied with the decision of the Director or Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, said person may, unless appeal has been taken to said United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, have remedy by a civil action if commenced within such time after such decision, not less than sixty days, as the Director appoints or as provided in subsection (a) of this section. . . .

37 CFR § 2.145(d) Time for appeal or civil action. (1) The time for filing the notice of appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (paragraph (b) of this section), or for commencing a civil action (paragraph (c) of this section), is two months from the date of the decision of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board or the Director, as the case may be. If a request for rehearing or reconsideration or modification of the decision is filed within the time specified in §§ 2.127(b), 2.129(c) or 2.144, or within any extension of time granted thereunder, the time for filing an appeal or commencing a civil action shall expire two months after action on the request. In inter partes cases, the time for filing a cross-action or a notice of a cross-appeal expires (i) 14 days after service of the notice of appeal or the summons and complaint; or (ii) two months from the date of the decision of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board or the Director, whichever is later.

(e) Extensions of time to commence judicial review. The Director may extend the time for filing an appeal or commencing a civil action (1) for good cause shown if requested in writing before the expiration of the period for filing an appeal or commencing a civil action, or (2) upon written request after the expiration of the period for filing an appeal or commencing a civil action upon a showing that the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect.

The time for commencing a civil action under Section 21(b) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1071(b), is two months from the date of the Board decision of which review is sought.⁵³ A civil action is

If a request for rehearing, reconsideration, or modification of the Board's decision is filed within the time specified in 37 CFR §§ 2.127(b), 2.129(c), or 2.144, or within any extension of time granted thereunder, the time for commencing a civil action expires two months after action on the request.⁵⁶

In an inter partes case, the time for filing a cross-action expires (1) 14 days after service of the summons and complaint, or (2) two months from the date of the Board decision which is the subject of the civil action, whichever is later.⁵⁷

If a written request to extend the time for commencing a civil action is filed before the expiration of the period for commencing a civil action, the Office may grant the request on a showing of good cause. If the request is not filed until after the expiration of the period for commencing a civil action, the Office may grant the request only on a showing that the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect.⁵⁸ A request for an extension of time to file an appeal should be directed to the attention of the Office of the Solicitor.⁵⁹

The times specified herein in months are calendar months except that one day shall be added to any two-month period which includes February 28. REVIEW OF DECISION OF BOARD

In 37 CFR § 2.145 (which concerns appeals and civil actions seeking review of Board decisions), the times specified in days are calendar days, while the times specified in months are calendar months (except that one day is added to any two-month period which includes February 28). If the last day of the time allowed for commencing a civil action falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday in the District of Columbia, the time for commencing a civil action is extended to the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday.⁶⁰

903.06 Civil Action Precluded by Appeal to Federal Circuit

In a proceeding before the Board, a party that is dissatisfied with the decision of the Board may have remedy by way of civil action, unless an appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit has been taken.⁶¹

However, in an inter partes case, if an appeal has been taken to the Federal Circuit, and a party adverse to the appellant files a notice electing to have further proceedings conducted instead by way of civil action, the appeal to the Federal Circuit will be dismissed, and the party which filed the appeal must commence a civil action, within 30 days after the filing of the notice of election, for review of the appealed decision, failing which that decision will govern further proceedings in the case.⁶²

15 U.S.C. § 1071(b)(3) [Section 21(b)(3) of the Trademark Act] In any case where there is no adverse party, a copy of the complaint shall be served on the Director, and, unless the court finds the expenses to be unreasonable, all the expenses of the proceeding shall be paid by the party bringing the case, whether the final decision is in favor of such party or not. In suits brought hereunder, the record in the Patent and Trademark Office shall be admitted on motion of any party, upon such terms and conditions as to costs, expenses, and the further cross-examination of the witnesses as the court imposes, without prejudice to the right of any party to take further testimony. The testimony and exhibits of the record in the Patent and Trademark Office, when admitted, shall have the same effect as if originally taken and produced in the suit.

pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(i), and all the expenses, including expert witness fees and travel, of the proceeding must be paid by the applicant which brought the suit, whether the final decision is in favor of the applicant or not, unless the court finds the expenses to be unreasonable.⁶³

904 Access to Record During Appeal

904.01 Access During Appeal to Federal Circuit

During an appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, from a decision of the Board in an inter partes case, the original USPTO record of the case is kept at the Office of the Solicitor. However, when it deems necessary, the Federal Circuit may, on motion or sua sponte, order transmission (via the Office of the Solicitor) of the original or certified copies of the record, or portions thereof, or the physical exhibits, at any time during the pendency of the appeal.⁶⁴

The Board will permit a party, or its attorney or other authorized representative, to inspect and copy any portions of the record, including papers, transcripts, and exhibits, that are not subject to a protective order. Any portions of the record that are subject to a protective order may be inspected and copied only in accordance with the terms of the protective order, unless the Federal Circuit amends, modifies, or annuls the protective order, in which case access by a party, or its attorney or other authorized representative, to the record will be governed by the Court's order.⁶⁵

During an appeal to the Federal Circuit from a decision of the Board in an ex parte case, the subject application file is kept at the Office of the Solicitor. Any request for access to the application should be directed to the Office of the Solicitor.

904.02 Access During Appeal by Civil Action

During a civil action seeking review of a decision of the Board in an inter partes case, the Board retains the original USPTO record of the case. The Board will release the original record for submission (via the Office of the Solicitor) to the court in which the civil action is pending only upon order of the court.

The Board will permit a party, or its attorney or other authorized representative, to inspect and copy any portions of the record, including papers, transcripts, and exhibits, which are not subject to a protective order. Any portions of the record which are subject to a protective order may be inspected and copied only in accordance with the terms of the protective order, unless the court amends, modifies, or annuls the protective order, in which case access by a party, or its attorney or other authorized representative, to the record will be governed by the court's order.

During a civil action seeking review of a decision of the Board in an ex parte case, the subject application file is kept at the Office of the Solicitor. Any request for access to the application should be directed to the Office of the Solicitor.

905 Petition to the Director

37 CFR § 2.146 Petitions to the Director.

(a) Petition may be taken to the Director: (1) From any repeated or final formal requirement of the examiner in the ex parte prosecution of an application if permitted by § 2.63(b); (2) in any case for which the Act of 1946, or Title 35 of the United States Code, or this Part of Title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations specifies that the matter is to be determined directly or reviewed by the Director; (3) to invoke the supervisory authority of the Director in appropriate circumstances; (4) in any case not specifically defined and provided for by this Part of Title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations; (5) in an extraordinary situation, when justice requires and no other party is injured thereby, to request a suspension or waiver of any requirement of the rules not being a requirement of the Act of 1946.

(b) Questions of substance arising during the ex parte prosecution of applications, including, but not limited to, questions arising under §§ 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 23 of the Act of 1946, are not considered to be appropriate subject matter for petitions to the Director.

(c) Every petition to the Director shall include a statement of the facts relevant to the petition, the points to be reviewed, the action or relief that is requested, and the fee required by § 2.6. Any brief in support of the petition shall be embodied in or accompany the petition. When facts are to be proved in ex parte cases proof in the form of affidavits or declarations in accordance with § 2.20 shall accompany the petition.

(d) A petition must be filed within two months of the mailing date of the action from which relief is requested, unless a different deadline is specified elsewhere in this chapter.

(e)(1) A petition from the grant or denial of a request for an extension of time to file a notice of opposition shall be filed within fifteen days from the date of mailing of the denial of the request. A petition from the grant of a request shall be served on the attorney or other authorized representative of the potential opposer, if any, or on the potential opposer. A petition from the denial of a request shall be served on the attorney or other authorized representative of the applicant, if any, or on the applicant. Proof of service of the petition shall be made as provided by § 2.119(a). The potential opposer or the applicant, as the case may be, may file a response within fifteen days from the date of service of the petition and shall serve a copy of the response on the petitioner, with proof of service as provided by § 2.119(a). No further paper relating to the petition shall be filed.

(2) A petition from an interlocutory order of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board shall be filed within thirty days after the date of mailing of the order from which relief is requested. Any brief in response to the petition shall be filed, with any supporting exhibits, within fifteen days from the date of service of the petition. Petitions and responses to petitions, and any papers accompanying a petition or response, under this subsection shall be served on every adverse party pursuant to § 2.119(a).

(f) An oral hearing will not be held on a petition except when considered necessary by the Director.

(g) The mere filing of a petition to the Director will not act as a stay in any appeal or inter partes proceeding that is pending before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board nor stay the period for replying to an Office action in an application except when a stay is specifically requested and is granted or when §§ 2.63(b) and 2.65 are applicable to an ex parte application.

(h) Authority to act on petitions, or on any petition, may be delegated by the Director.

The only type of Board decision that may be appealed, whether to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit or by way of civil action, is a final decision, i.e., a "final dispositive ruling that ends litigation on the merits" before the Board. Interlocutory decisions or orders, i.e., decisions or orders that do not put an end to the litigation before the Board, are not appealable. Appealability is not limited to decisions issued by the Board after final hearing. Other types of Board decisions are also appealable, in those cases where they put an end to the litigation before the Board.⁶⁶

When a final decision of the Board is reviewed on appeal, interlocutory orders or decisions issued during the course of the proceeding before the Board may also be reviewed if they are "logically related" to the basic substantive issues in the case.⁶⁷

In an inter partes proceeding, a party may obtain review of an order or decision of the Board which concerns matters of procedure (rather than the central issue or issues before the Board), and does not put an end to the litigation before the Board, by timely petition to the Director.⁶⁸

REVIEW OF DECISION OF BOARD

A petition to the Director from an interlocutory order or decision of the Board, in a Board inter partes proceeding, must be filed within 30 days after the mailing date of the order or decision from which relief is requested. Any brief in response to the petition must be filed, with any supporting exhibits, within 15 days from the date of service of the petition. Petitions from an interlocutory order or decision of the Board, responses to such petitions, and any papers accompanying a petition or response, must be served on every adverse party in the manner prescribed in 37 CFR § 2.119(a).⁶⁹

906 Standards of Review of Board Decisions

As stated at the outset of this chapter, after the Board determines and decides “the respective rights of registration” under 15 U.S.C. § 1067, any party dissatisfied with the Board’s decision may appeal either to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit or to a federal district court.⁷⁴

906.01 Appeal to Federal Circuit or by Civil Action

In an appeal to the Federal Circuit, the case proceeds on the closed administrative record and no new evidence is permitted.⁷⁵ In contrast, an appeal to the district court is both an appeal and a new action, which allows the parties to submit new evidence and raise additional claims.⁷⁶

Questions of fact. The district court sits as the appellate reviewer of facts found by the Board and as the fact-finder with respect to new evidence and additional claims.⁷⁷ Both the Federal Circuit and the district court, in reviewing factual findings, will afford deference to those fact-findings.⁷⁸

⁷² See 37 CFR § 2.146(c). See also, for example, Jack Lenor Larsen Inc. v. Chas. O. Larson Co., 44 USPQ2d 1950, 1952 n.2 (TTAB 1997) (respondent’s petition did not specify which subsection of 2.146(a) provided basis for Director’s review).

REVIEW OF DECISION OF BOARD

The degree of deference that the reviewing courts must afford the Board's findings of fact was decided by the U.S. Supreme Court in Dickinson v. Zurko, 527 U.S. 150, 50 USPQ2d 1930 (1999). In that decision the Supreme Court held that the proper standard of judicial review of findings of fact made by the USPTO is not the traditional "clearly erroneous" standard of review but rather the "slightly more" deferential standard of the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), 5 U.S.C. § 706(2).⁷⁹ Thus, whether a party elects direct review by the Federal Circuit or initiates a new action in the district court, the APA standard of review should be applied to the Board's fact-finding.⁸⁰

The Supreme Court did not decide which of the two standards of review under § 706(2) of the APA, the "arbitrary, capricious" test under § 706(2)(A) or the "substantial evidence" test under § 706(2)(E), should be applied.⁸¹ Of the two tests, the Federal Circuit has determined that the "substantial evidence" standard is the appropriate standard of review for USPTO findings of fact.⁸² A number of circuit courts of appeals have also indicated that "substantial evidence" review is appropriate.⁸³

The substantial evidence standard requires the reviewing court to ask whether a reasonable person might accept that the evidentiary record supports the agency's conclusion.⁸⁴ Considered to be less deferential than the "arbitrary, capricious" standard of the APA, "substantial evidence" requires a stricter judicial review of agency fact-finding.⁸⁵ A review for substantial evidence "involves examination of the record as a whole, taking into account evidence that both justifies and detracts from an agency's decision."⁸⁶ Moreover, "the possibility of drawing two

1001 In General

15 U.S.C. § 1066. Upon petition showing extraordinary circumstances, the Director may declare that an interference exists when application is made for the registration of a mark which so resembles a mark previously registered by another, or for the registration of which another has previously made application, as to be likely when used on or in connection with the goods or services of the applicant to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive. No interference shall be declared between an application and the registration of a mark the right to the use of which has become incontestable.

37 CFR § 2.83 Conflicting marks.

(a) Whenever an application is made for registration of a mark which so resembles another mark or marks pending registration as to be likely to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive, the mark with the earliest effective filing date will be published in the Official Gazette for opposition if eligible for the Principal Register, or issued a certificate of registration if eligible for the Supplemental Register.

(b) In situations in which conflicting applications have the same effective filing date, the application with the earliest date of execution will be published in the Official Gazette for opposition or issued on the Supplemental Register.

(c) Action on the conflicting application which is not published in the Official Gazette for opposition or not issued on the Supplemental Register will be suspended by the Examiner of Trademarks until the published or issued application is registered or abandoned.

37 CFR § 2.91 Declaration of interference.

(a) An interference will not be declared between two applications or between an application and a registration except upon petition to the Director. Interferences will be declared by the Director only upon a showing of extraordinary circumstances which would result in a party being unduly prejudiced without an interference. In ordinary circumstances, the availability of an opposition or cancellation proceeding to the party will be deemed to remove any undue prejudice.

(b) Registrations and applications to register on the Supplemental Register, registrations under the Act of 1920, and registrations of marks the right to use of which has become incontestable are not subject to interference.

An interference is a proceeding in which the Board determines which, if any, of the owners of conflicting applications (or of one or more applications and one or more registrations which are in conflict) is entitled to registration.¹ A "conflict" exists, for interference purposes, whenever

"application is made for the registration of a mark which so resembles a mark previously registered by another, or for the registration of which another has previously made application, as to be likely when used on or in connection with the goods or services of the applicant to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive."²

Ordinarily, when conflicting applications are pending, the application with the earliest effective filing date is approved for publication in the Official Gazette for opposition (if the mark is eligible for registration on the Principal Register), or is registered on the Supplemental Register (if the mark is eligible for registration on the Supplemental Register). Action on any later-filed conflicting application is suspended until the earlier-filed application is registered or abandoned. 37 CFR § 2.83 and TMEP § 1208.01.

If the owner of an application which conflicts with one or more pending applications wishes to have the Office set up an interference proceeding between the conflicting applications, rather than have the Office follow the procedure described in 37 CFR § 2.83, that applicant must file a petition to the Director to declare an interference.³

NOTE: Although the Director is authorized by Section 16 of the Act to declare an interference between an application and a registration (except for registrations issued on the Supplemental Register, registrations issued under the Act of 1920, and registrations of marks the right to use of which has become incontestable), it is not the Director's practice to do so.⁴

Director only upon a showing of extraordinary circumstances which would result in a party being unduly prejudiced without an interference. In ordinary circumstances, the availability of an opposition or cancellation proceeding to the party will be deemed to remove any undue prejudice.

(b) Registrations and applications to register on the Supplemental Register, registrations under the Act of 1920, and registrations of marks the right to use of which has become incontestable are not subject to interference.

Under Section 16 of the Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. § 1066, the Director, upon petition showing extraordinary circumstances, may declare that an interference exists when an application conflicts with a registration issued to another, or with an application previously filed by another, that is, "when application is made for the registration of a mark which so resembles a mark previously registered by another, or for the registration of which another has previously made application, as to be likely when used on or in connection with the goods or services of the applicant to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive."

A petition for declaration of an interference will be granted by the Director only if the petition shows "extraordinary circumstances which would result in a party being unduly prejudiced without an interference."⁵ Ordinarily, the availability of an opposition or cancellation proceeding is deemed to prevent any undue prejudice from the unavailability of an interference proceeding.⁶ However, a petition to the Director to declare an interference has been granted where, but for the interference, multiple oppositions would be necessary.⁷

Although the Director is authorized by Section 16 of the Act to declare an interference between an application and a registration (except for registrations issued on the Supplemental Register, registrations issued under the Act of 1920, and registrations of marks the right to use of which has become incontestable⁸ it is not the Director's practice to do so.⁹ This is because a registration will not be cancelled as a result of a decision in an interference proceeding. A formal petition for cancellation must still be filed and granted, and the registration must be cancelled, before any registration will be issued to the applicant.¹⁰ The interference proceeding is superfluous, since the cancellation proceeding by itself will accomplish the same purpose as the two proceedings together.

A petition to the Director to declare an interference should be made by separate paper bearing the title "PETITION TO THE DIRECTOR," and be accompanied by the fee specified in 37 CFR § 2.6. For further information concerning the form for a petition to the Director, see 37 CFR § 2.146(c), TMEP § 1208.03 and TBMP § 905.

A petition to declare an interference should not be filed in an application until the trademark examining attorney has examined the application, and the mark has been found registrable but for the existence of one or more pending conflicting applications. When such a petition is filed, the examining attorney will immediately forward the petition, together with the application file, to the Office of the Commissioner for Trademarks for determination of the petition.¹¹

1003 Institution of Interference

37 CFR § 2.92 Preliminary to interference. An interference which has been declared by the Director will not be instituted by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board until the Examiner of Trademarks has determined that the marks which are to form the subject matter of the controversy are registrable, and all of the marks have been published in the Official Gazette for opposition.

37 CFR § 2.93 Institution of interference. An interference is instituted by the mailing of a notice of interference to the parties. The notice shall be sent to each applicant, in care of the applicant's attorney or other representative of record, if any, and if one of the parties is a registrant, the notice shall be sent to the registrant or the registrant's assignee of record. The notice shall give the name and address of every adverse party and of the adverse party's attorney or other authorized representative, if any, together with the serial number and date of filing and publication of each of the applications, or the registration number and date of issuance of each of the registrations, involved.

An interference proceeding does not commence with the granting of a petition to the Director to declare an interference. Rather, the interference proceeding will not be instituted unless and until the trademark examining attorney has determined that the marks which are to be included in the interference are registrable, but for the interfering marks; and all of the marks have been published (preferably together) in the Official Gazette for opposition, subject to the interference.¹²

If an application published subject to interference is opposed by an entity which is not to be a party to the interference, the opposition may be determined first, following which the interference, if still necessary and appropriate, will be instituted;¹³ alternatively, depending upon the circumstances, the opposition and interference may go forward contemporaneously. If an opposition is filed by an entity that is to be a party to the interference, and the interference is to involve three or more parties, the opposition will be dismissed without prejudice in favor of the interference proceeding, wherein the rights of all parties can be determined in a single proceeding. If an opposition is filed by an entity that is to be a party to the interference, and the interference is to involve only two parties, the rights of the parties will be determined in the opposition, and the interference will not be instituted.

If the marks which are to be included in an interference (1) are found by the trademark examining attorney to be registrable, (2) are published for opposition, and (3) survive the opposition period (as indicated in the preceding paragraph), the interference proceeding will be instituted by the Board.

The Board prepares a "Notice of Interference" notifying the parties that the interference proceeding is thereby instituted, and setting trial and briefing dates in the case. The notice specifies the name and address of each party to the proceeding and of each party's attorney or other authorized representative, if any; the mark of each party; and the serial number, filing date, and publication date of each involved application.¹⁴

An interference proceeding commences when the Board mails the notice of interference to the parties. The notice is mailed to the attorney or other authorized representative of each involved applicant, or, if the applicant does not have an attorney or other authorized representative, to the applicant.¹⁵

It is not the Director's practice to declare an interference with a registration.¹⁶ However, should the Director elect to declare an interference with one or more registrations, the notice of interference would specify the registration number and issuance date of each involved registration, and would be mailed to the registrant or its assignee of record.¹⁷

There are no pleadings in an interference proceeding.¹⁸ The notice of interference takes the place of pleadings, to the extent that it serves to provide each party with information concerning the involved application (or registration, if an interference should be declared with one or more registrations) of every adverse party.

There is no fee for an interference proceeding, beyond the fee required for a petition to the Director to declare an interference.¹⁹

1004 Issues in Interference

37 CFR § 2.96 Issue; burden of proof. The issue in an interference between applications is normally priority of use, but the rights of the parties to registration may also be determined. ... The issue in an interference between an application and a registration shall be the same, but in the event the final decision is adverse to the registrant, a registration to the applicant will not be authorized so long as the interfering registration remains on the register.

Normally, the issue to be determined in an interference proceeding is priority of use. However, such additional issues as the registrability of each mark, and whether there is, in fact, a conflict between the marks involved in the proceeding (i.e., whether the marks do so resemble one another as to be likely, when used in connection with the respective goods and/or services of the parties, to cause confusion, mistake, or deception), are always before the Board in an interference, and may also be determined; there is no requirement that a party file an affirmative pleading of such matters in order to be heard thereon.²⁰

1005 Burden of Proof

37 CFR § 2.96 Issue; burden of proof. ... The party whose application involved in the interference has the latest filing date is the junior party and has the burden of proof. When there are more than two parties to an interference, a party shall be a junior party to and shall have the burden of proof as against every other party whose application involved in the interference has an earlier filing date. If the involved applications of any parties have the same filing date, the application with the latest date of execution will be deemed to have the latest filing date and that applicant will be the junior party. ...

37 CFR § 2.116(b) ... A party that is a junior party in an interference proceeding or in a concurrent use registration proceeding shall be in the position of plaintiff against every party that is senior, and the party that is a senior party in an interference proceeding or in a concurrent use registration proceeding shall be a defendant against every party that is junior.

In an interference proceeding, the party whose involved application has the latest filing date is the junior party. When there are three or more parties to an interference, a party is a junior party to every other party whose involved application has an earlier filing date. If the involved applications of any parties have the same filing date, the application with the latest date of execution is deemed to have the latest filing date, and that applicant is the junior party.²¹

A junior party in an interference proceeding is in the position of plaintiff, and has the burden of proof, as against every party that is senior, that is, as against every party whose involved application has an earlier filing date. Conversely, a senior party is in the position of defendant as against every party that is junior, that is, as against every party whose involved application has a later filing date.²²

1006 Addition of Party

37 CFR § 2.98 Adding party to interference. A party may be added to an interference only upon petition to the Director by that party. If an application which is or might be the subject of a petition for addition to an interference is not added, the examiner may suspend action on the application pending termination of the interference proceeding.

A party may be added to an interference only upon petition to the Director filed, pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.98, by the party to be added.

Chapter 1000 INTERFERENCES

For information concerning joining or substituting a transferee when there has been an assignment of a mark which is involved in an interference proceeding, see TBMP § 512.01.

1007 Conduct of Proceeding

Once commenced,²³ an interference proceeding is conducted in the same general manner as an opposition or cancellation proceeding, except that there are no pleadings,²⁴ and therefore no motions relating to pleadings;²⁵ the issues of priority of use, likelihood of confusion, and registrability are always before the Board,²⁶ a party's burden of proof as against another party to the proceeding depends upon the filing date of its involved application²⁷ and additional parties may be added to the proceeding upon petition to the Director filed by the party to be added.²⁸

In addition, the trial and briefing schedule in an interference involving three or more parties differs, because of the multiplicity of parties, from that in an opposition or cancellation. In the notice of interference that commences an interference proceeding, the Board sets trial and briefing dates in the case.²⁹ Specifically, the Board sets an opening and closing date for discovery and schedules testimony periods so that each party in the position of plaintiff³⁰ will have a period for presenting its case in chief against each party in the position of defendant, each party in the position of defendant will have a period for presenting its case and meeting the case of each plaintiff, and each party in the position of plaintiff will have a period for presenting evidence in rebuttal; the testimony periods are separated from the discovery period and from each other by 30-day intervals.³¹ Similarly, the Board schedules briefing periods so that each party, beginning with the junior-most party and ending with the senior-most party, will have a time for filing its main brief on the case, and each junior party will have a time for filing a reply brief.³²

Use prior to the filing date of any pending application or a registration shall not be required when the owner of such application or registration consents to the grant of a concurrent registration to the applicant. Concurrent registrations may also be issued by the Director when a court of competent jurisdiction has finally determined that more than one person is entitled to use the same or similar marks in commerce. In issuing concurrent registrations, the Director shall prescribe conditions and limitations as to the mode or place of use of the mark or the goods on or in connection with which such mark is registered to the respective persons.*

15 U.S.C. § 1067. In every case of interference, opposition to registration, application to register as a lawful concurrent user, or application to cancel the registration of a mark, the Director shall give notice to all parties and shall direct a Trademark Trial and Appeal Board to determine and decide the respective rights of registration. ...

Chapter 1100 CONCURRENT USE PROCEEDINGS

1101.01 Nature of Proceeding

A concurrent use registration proceeding (hereafter referred to as a "concurrent use proceeding") is an inter partes proceeding in which the Board determines whether one or more applicants is entitled to a concurrent registration, that is, a registration with conditions and limitations, fixed by the Board, as to the mode or place of use of the applicant's mark or the goods and/or services on or in connection with which the mark is used.¹

Section 2(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d), governs the Board's determination of registrability in a concurrent use proceeding. That section provides, in part, that if the Director (acting through the Board--see Section 17 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1067):

... determines that confusion, mistake, or deception is not likely to result from the continued use by more than one person of the same or similar marks under conditions and limitations as to the mode or place of use of the marks or the goods on or in connection with which such marks are used, concurrent registrations may be issued to such persons when they have become entitled to use such marks as a result of their concurrent lawful use in commerce prior to ...

a certain specified date (normally, prior to the earliest application filing date of the application(s), or 1946 Act registration(s) (if any), involved in the proceeding, or prior to July 5, 1947, in the case of an involved registration under the Acts of 1881 or 1905.²

The proviso of Section 2(d) of the Trademark Act sets out two requirements for issuance of concurrent use registration in a proceeding before the Board.³ A concurrent use applicant needs to meet the jurisdictional requirement of use in commerce prior to the applicable date specified

1101.02 Context for USPTO Determination of Concurrent Rights

37 CFR § 2.99(h) The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board will consider and determine concurrent use rights only in the context of a concurrent use registration proceeding.

37 CFR § 2.133(c) Geographic limitations will be considered and determined by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board only in the context of a concurrent use registration proceeding.

Within the USPTO, the Board determines the right to concurrent registration.⁶ Concurrent rights are considered and determined by the Board only in the context of a concurrent use proceeding.⁷

A registration cannot be restricted territorially by amendment under Section 7(e) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1057(e), and 37 CFR § 2.173(a).⁸ Thus, when a registration is the subject of a cancellation proceeding, the proceeding may not be settled by amending the registration to include territorial restrictions.⁹

Moreover, a Section 7(e) amendment may generally not be used to remove a concurrent use restriction from a registration. However, removal of a concurrent use restriction by amendment under Section 7(e) may be permitted where an entity which was the only exception to registrant's right to exclusive use of its registered mark assigns its rights in its mark to registrant, so that all rights in the mark are merged in registrant.¹⁰

1102 Generation of Proceeding

1102.01 Means of Generation

A concurrent use proceeding before the Board may be generated only by way of an application for registration as a lawful concurrent user (hereafter referred to as a "concurrent use application").¹¹ A concurrent use application is an application in which applicant:

- (1) concedes that its use is not exclusive,
- (2) specifies the goods and/or services and area or mode of use for which it desires registration,
- (3) identifies, as exceptions to its claim of exclusive use, one or more persons (unrelated to applicant) which use the same or similar mark, for the same or similar goods or services, concurrently with applicant, and
- (4) provides, to the extent of the applicant's knowledge, certain information concerning use of the mark by each listed concurrent user.¹²

1102.02 Bases for Concurrent Registration – Board Determination; Court Determination

There are two bases upon which a concurrent registration may be issued.

First, a concurrent registration may be issued when the Board has determined in a prior or to-be instituted concurrent use proceeding, that an applicant for concurrent registration is entitled thereto.¹³

Second, a concurrent registration may be issued "when a court of competent jurisdiction has finally determined that more than one person is entitled to use the same or similar marks in commerce."¹⁴

These two types of concurrent use registrations are the only means by which a geographically restricted registration may be obtained.¹⁵ Thus, for example, an applicant may not, by including a geographical restriction in its identification of goods and/or services, obtain a geographically restricted registration without a concurrent use proceeding.¹⁶

If an application seeking concurrent registration on the basis of the Board's decision in a prior concurrent use proceeding meets certain requirements (in addition to those necessary for all concurrent use applications,¹⁷ the registration sought, if otherwise appropriate, will be issued based on the Board's prior decision. A new concurrent use proceeding before the Board will not be necessary, because of the legal principles of res judicata and stare decisis.¹⁸

Similarly, if an application seeking concurrent registration on the basis of a prior court determination of concurrent rights meets certain requirements, in addition to those necessary for

(3)(D) ... except that, in the case of every application claiming concurrent use, the applicant shall –

- (i) state exceptions to his claim of exclusive use; and
- (ii) shall specify, to the extent of the verifier's knowledge --
 - (I) any concurrent use by others;
 - (II) the goods on or in connection with which and the areas in which each concurrent use exists;
 - (III) the periods of each use and
 - (IV) the goods and area for which the applicant desires registration.

prior to the filing date of any pending application or a registration shall not be required when the owner of such application or registration consents to the grant of a concurrent registration to the applicant. Concurrent registrations may also be issued by the Director when a court of competent jurisdiction has finally determined that more than one person is entitled to use the same or similar marks in commerce. In issuing concurrent registrations, the Director shall prescribe conditions and limitations as to the mode or place of use of the mark or the goods on or in connection with which such mark is registered to the respective persons.

37 CFR § 2.42 Concurrent use. An application for registration as a lawful concurrent user shall specify and contain all the elements required by the preceding sections. The applicant in addition shall state in the application the area, the goods, and the mode of use for which applicant seeks registration; and also shall state, to the extent of applicant's knowledge, the concurrent lawful use of the mark by others, setting forth their names and addresses; registrations issued to or applications filed by such others, if any; the areas of such use; the goods on or in connection with which such use is made; the mode of such use; and the periods of such use.

37 CFR § 2.73 Amendment to recite concurrent use.

(a) An application under section 1(a), section 44, or section 66(a) of the Act may be amended to an application for concurrent use registration, provided the application as amended satisfies the requirements of § 2.42. The trademark examining attorney will determine whether the application, as amended, is acceptable.

(b) An application under § 1(b) of the Act may not be amended so as to be treated as an application for a concurrent registration until an acceptable amendment to allege use under § 2.76 or statement of use under § 2.88 has been filed in the application, after which time such an amendment may be made, provided the application as amended satisfies the requirements of § 2.42. The examiner will determine whether the application, as amended, is acceptable.

37 CFR § 2.99 Application to register as concurrent user.

(a) An application for registration as a lawful concurrent user will be examined in the same manner as other applications for registration.

(b) When it is determined that the mark is ready for publication, the applicant may be required to furnish as many copies of his application, specimens and drawing as may be necessary for the preparation of notices for each applicant, registrant or user specified as a concurrent user in the application for registration.

(c) Upon receipt of the copies required by paragraph (b) of this section, the examiner shall forward the application for concurrent use registration for publication in the Official Gazette as provided by § 2.80. If no opposition is filed, or if all oppositions that are filed are dismissed or withdrawn, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board shall prepare a notice for the applicant for concurrent use registration and for each applicant, registrant or user specified as a concurrent user in the application. The notices for the specified parties shall state the name and address of the applicant and of the applicant's attorney or other authorized representative, if any, together with the serial number and filing date of the application.

(d)(1) The notices shall be sent to each applicant, in care of his attorney or other authorized representative, if any, to each user, and to each registrant. A copy of the application shall be forwarded with the notice to each party specified in the application.

(2) An answer to the notice is not required in the case of an applicant or registrant whose application or registration is specified as a concurrent user in the application, but a statement, if desired, may be filed within forty days after the mailing of the notice; in the case of any other party specified as a concurrent user in the application, an answer must be filed within forty days after the mailing of the notice.

(3) If an answer, when required, is not filed, judgment will be entered precluding the specified user from claiming any right more extensive than that acknowledged in the application(s) for concurrent use registration, but the applicant(s) will remain with the burden of proving entitlement to registration(s).

(e) The applicant for a concurrent use registration has the burden of proving entitlement thereto. If there are two or more applications for concurrent use registration involved in a proceeding, the party whose application has the latest filing date is the junior party. A party whose application has a filing date between the filing dates of the earliest involved application and the latest involved application is a junior party to every party whose involved application has an earlier filing date. If any applications have the same filing date, the application with the latest date of execution will be deemed to have the latest filing date and that applicant will be the junior party. A person specified as an excepted user in a concurrent use application but who has not filed an application shall be considered a party senior to every party that has an application involved in the proceeding.

(f) When a concurrent use registration is sought on the basis that a court of competent jurisdiction has finally determined that the parties are entitled to use the same or similar marks in commerce, a concurrent use registration proceeding will not be instituted if all of the following conditions are fulfilled:

- (1) The applicant is entitled to registration subject only to the concurrent lawful use of a party to the court proceeding; and*
- (2) The court decree specifies the rights of the parties; and*
- (3) A true copy of the court decree is submitted to the examiner; and*
- (4) The concurrent use application complies fully and exactly with the court decree; and*
- (5) The excepted use specified in the concurrent use application does not involve a registration, or any involved registration has been restricted by the Director in accordance with the court decree.*

Chapter 1100

CONCURRENT USE PROCEEDINGS

If any of the conditions specified in this paragraph is not satisfied, a concurrent use registration proceeding shall be prepared and instituted as provided in paragraphs (a) through (e) of this section.

(g) Registrations and applications to register on the Supplemental Register and registrations under the Act of 1920 are not subject to concurrent use registration proceedings. Applications to register under section 1(b) of the Act of 1946 are subject to concurrent use registration proceedings only after an acceptable amendment to allege use under § 2.76 or statement of use under § 2.88 has been filed.

(h) The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board will consider and determine concurrent use rights only in the context of a concurrent use registration proceeding.

1103.01 Application Based on Board Determination

1103.01(a) Application Must Assert Use in Commerce

A basic requirement for any concurrent use application (whether it is to be based on a Board determination, through a concurrent use proceeding, of applicant's right to concurrent registration, or whether it is based on a prior court determination of applicant's concurrent use rights) is that it must assert use in commerce of the mark sought to be registered. Section 2(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d), provides, in pertinent part:

[I]f the Director determines that confusion, mistake, or deception is not likely to result from the continued use by more than one person of the same or similar marks under conditions and limitations as to the mode or place of use of the marks or the goods on or in connection with which such marks are used, concurrent registrations may be issued to such persons when they have become entitled to use such marks as a result of their concurrent lawful use in commerce prior to (1) the earliest of the filing dates of the applications pending or of any registration issued under this Act; ... Concurrent registrations may also be issued by the Director when a court of competent jurisdiction has finally determined that more than one person is entitled to use the same or similar marks in commerce.²⁰
(Emphasis added.)

If a concurrent use application is filed as an intent-to-use application under Section 1(b) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(b), rather than as a use application under Section 1(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(a), the applicant may not amend the application to seek concurrent ²⁰ See also 37 CFR § 2.99(g), and Fleming Companies v. Thriftway Inc., 21 USPQ 1451 (TTAB 1991), aff'd, 26 USPQ2d 1551, 1553 (S.D.Ohio 1992) (use must be lawful).

CONCURRENT USE PROCEEDINGS

use until use is effected.²¹ Thus, an intent-to-use application for an unrestricted registration may be amended to seek concurrent registration when an acceptable amendment to allege use under 37 CFR § 2.76, or an acceptable statement of use under 37 CFR § 2.88, has been filed in the application.²²

An application for registration under the provisions of Section 44 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1126, may not seek concurrent registration unless the application also includes, as a second basis for registration, an allegation of use in commerce pursuant to Section 1(a) of the Act.²³

An application filed under Section 66(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1141f, may not seek concurrent registration unless the application also includes an appropriate allegation of use in commerce.

1103.01(b) Jurisdictional Requirement

An application seeking concurrent registration based on a Board determination, through a concurrent use proceeding, of applicant's right thereto, must allege use in commerce "prior to (1) the earliest of the filing dates of the applications pending or of any registration issued under this Act [of 1946]; (2) July 5, 1947, in the case of registrations previously issued under the Act of March 3, 1881, or February 20, 1905, and continuing in full force and effect on that date; or (3) July 5, 1947, in the case of applications filed under the Act of February 20, 1905, and registered after July 5, 1947."²⁴ As a practical matter, this means that an application seeking concurrent registration through a concurrent use proceeding normally must assert a date of first use in commerce prior to the earliest application filing date of the application(s), or 1946 Act registration(s) (if any), involved in the proceeding (or prior to July 5, 1947, in the case of an involved registration under the Acts of 1881 or 1905).

This requirement is jurisdictional in nature.²⁵ If it is not met, applicant normally is not entitled to a concurrent registration, and the trademark examining attorney in charge of the application should refuse registration.

²¹ See 37 CFR § 2.99(g); TMEP § 1207.04(b).

However, an application for concurrent registration need not meet the jurisdictional requirement, that is, need not assert use in commerce prior to the earliest application filing date of the application(s), or registration(s) (if any), involved in the proceeding if the owner of such application(s) or registration(s) consents to the grant of a concurrent registration to the applicant.²⁶

In addition, the jurisdictional requirement does not apply to an application seeking concurrent registration based on a final determination, by a court of competent jurisdiction, that applicant is entitled to concurrently use its mark.²⁷

1103.01(d) Application Must Identify Nature and Extent of Restriction Sought

1103.01(d)(1) In General

The applicant must:

(1) *State in the application the geographic area, goods and/or services, and (if applicable) mode of use for which applicant seeks registration of the mark.*²⁹

The statement in the application of the area, goods and/or services, and (if applicable) mode of use for which applicant seeks registration serves to give notice, both when the mark is published for opposition (assuming it is approved for publication) and when a concurrent use proceeding is thereafter instituted (if no opposition is filed, or if all oppositions filed are dismissed), of the scope of the registration sought by applicant, and the extent of applicant's acknowledgment of the concurrent rights of others.³⁰

1103.01(d)(2) Geographic Restrictions

The vast majority of concurrent use applications seek a registration that is restricted geographically. The area for which registration is sought is usually more extensive than the area in which the applicant is actually using its mark. Generally, concurrent rights arise when a party, in good faith, and without knowledge of a prior party's use in another geographic area, adopts and uses the same or similar mark for the same or similar goods or services within its own geographic area.³¹ If applicant believes that it is the prior user as against the other party or parties to the proceeding, applicant may, as the prior user, seek registration for all of the United States except for the subsequent user's area of actual use and (possibly) natural expansion.³² If applicant is not the prior user, but believes that the prior user, through its failure to expand over a long period of time, has abandoned its right as prior user to expand into all of the United States except for the subsequent user's area of actual use and natural expansion, applicant may seek registration for all of the United States except for the prior user's area of actual use.³³ If the concurrent use applicant is a subsequent user, it normally will seek registration not only for its area of actual use but also for its area of natural expansion. If another party to the proceeding owns a registration of its mark, the right to use of which has become incontestable, any registration issued to applicant will be limited (even if applicant is the prior user) to applicant's area of actual use prior to actual or constructive notice of registrant's rights, unless the parties stipulate otherwise.³⁴

The description of the geographic area sought by the concurrent use applicant should be sufficiently definite. If the excepted area is less than an entire state, it should be described in terms of counties or in other specific and definite terms.³⁵

Rainbow, Inc., 227 USPQ 879, 884 (TTAB 1985) (primary concern in concurrent use proceeding is the avoidance of likelihood of confusion; here, confusion inevitable; applicant unable to establish its entitlement to registration in area claimed, where senior user was national franchise).

Tacos Ole, Inc.*, 221 USPQ 912, 916 (TTAB 1984) (later user may obtain registration for area of actual use as well as area of natural expansion and later user who adopts in good faith is not necessarily precluded from further expansion after learning of senior user); and *Zimmerman v. 1103.01(d)(3) Mode of Use Restrictions

In very rare instances, a concurrent use applicant may seek concurrent registration based only on conditions or limitations as to the mode of use of its mark or as to the goods and/or services on or in connection with which the mark is used, i.e., a restriction as to the form in which it may use its mark; a limitation as to the trade channels in which its goods are sold; a requirement that the mark always be used in conjunction with a particular trade dress or house mark, or a specified disclaimer of affiliation; etc.³⁶ Usually, "mode of use" cases arise before the Federal district courts, which, for equitable reasons, may permit a continuation of concurrent use even if there is some resulting confusion. Notwithstanding the likelihood of confusion, a party to the court proceeding may obtain concurrent registration on the basis of such a court determination, if its application is otherwise acceptable.³⁷ In contrast, when concurrent registration is sought by way of a concurrent use proceeding before the Board, the Board cannot allow registration if it finds that there would be likelihood of confusion from the continued concurrent use of the marks.³⁸

An applicant seeking registration on the basis of "mode of use" conditions or limitations should request concurrent registration only if its application includes a condition or limitation not capable of being incorporated into the applicant's drawing of its mark and/or identification of goods or services, and into the drawing and/or identification of any conflicting application or registration which may be owned by another.³⁹

Where an applicant seeks registration on the basis of "mode of use" conditions or limitations which are incorporated, or are capable of being incorporated, into the applicant's drawing of its mark and/or identification of goods or services, and into

³⁶ See, for example, Holiday Inn v. Holiday Inns, Inc., 534 F.2d 312, 189 USPQ 630 (CCPA 1976) (restrictions, inter alia, to form of mark and geographic area of use); *Alfred Dunhill of London, Inc. v. the drawing and/or identification of any conflicting application or registration which may be owned by another, a concurrent use proceeding is unnecessary and will not be instituted by the Board. The application should be presented as a regular application, not as a concurrent use application.⁴⁰ If an applicant which has incorporated mode of use conditions or limitations into its drawing and/or identification is unable to obtain a registration in the absence of corresponding conditions or limitations in a conflicting application or registration, and the owner thereof is not willing to amend its application or registration to include the conditions or limitations, applicant's remedy lies in an opposition or a petition for cancellation, respectively, to restrict the application or registration appropriately.⁴¹

For information concerning a claim for partial opposition or partial cancellation, i.e., a request to restrict, see TBMP § 309.03(d).

1103.01(e) Application Must Identify Excepted Users and Their Asserted Rights

In addition to the requirements noted above, the applicant must:

(2) *State in the application, to the extent of applicant's knowledge, the concurrent lawful use of the mark by others, setting forth their names and addresses; their areas of use; the goods and/or services on or in connection with which their use is made; the mode of their use; the periods of their use; and the registrations issued to or applications filed by them, if any.*⁴²

A concurrent use applicant must specify the extent of its knowledge of the concurrent rights of others.⁴³ It is not necessary that an applicant for concurrent registration list, as exceptions to its claim of exclusive use, every entity known to it to be using the same or similar mark for the same or similar goods or services. Rather, applicant's duty is to list any entity known to it to be a senior user of a clearly conflicting mark, as well as any junior user known to it to have clearly conflicting rights which are clearly established, as, for example, by court decree, by settlement agreement, or by a registration.⁴⁴

1103.01(f) Other Requirements

(3) *When it is determined that applicant's mark is ready for publication, applicant may also be required to furnish a copy of its application, specimens and drawing for each applicant, registrant or user specified in the application as a concurrent user.*⁴⁵

The additional application copies required by 37 CFR § 2.99(b) are used by the Board, when it institutes a concurrent use proceeding, to provide each specified concurrent user with information concerning the scope of the concurrent registration sought by each concurrent use applicant, and the extent of each concurrent use applicant's acknowledgment of the concurrent rights of others.⁴⁶

When an application seeking concurrent registration by way of a concurrent use proceeding before the Board is approved for publication, it is marked (by the trademark examining attorney) with the following statement:

1103.02 Application Based on Prior Board Decision

An application seeking concurrent registration on the basis of the Board's final decision in a prior concurrent use proceeding⁴⁷ must assert use in commerce of the mark sought to be registered.⁴⁸ The application must also specify and contain all the elements required by those of the rules of practice in trademark cases preceding 37 CFR § 2.42; and must comply with the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.42 (described in TBMP § 1103.01)), namely, the requirements that applicant state in the application the area, goods and/or services, and (if applicable) mode of use for which applicant seeks registration, and also state, to the extent of applicant's knowledge, the concurrent lawful use of the mark by others, setting forth their names and addresses, their areas of use, the goods and/or services on or in connection with which their use is made, the mode of their use, the periods of their use, and the registrations issued to or applications filed by them, if any.⁴⁹ In addition, the applicant should, of course, submit a copy of the Board decision upon which it relies.

When an application for concurrent registration is based on a final determination by the Board, in a prior concurrent use proceeding, that applicant is entitled to a concurrent registration of its mark, a new concurrent use proceeding will not be instituted, that is, the application (if found otherwise acceptable, published, and not opposed, or opposed unsuccessfully) will be forwarded to issue without having to go through a new concurrent use proceeding, provided that the following conditions are met:

- (1) The applicant is entitled to registration subject only to the concurrent lawful use of a party or parties to the prior concurrent use proceeding; and
- (2) The Board's prior decision specifies applicant's right to concurrent registration; and
- (3) A copy of the Board's prior decision is submitted to the trademark examining attorney; and ⁴⁹ See 37 CFR § 2.42.

(4) The concurrent use application complies with the Board's prior decision (that is, seeks registration for the same or a more limited geographic area, or mode of use, and for substantially the same mark and substantially the same goods and/or services as, or more limited goods and/or services than, those listed in the Board's prior specification of applicant's entitlement to concurrent registration), or seeks registration for the same or a more limited area, or mode of use, than that accorded to applicant in the prior decision, and for a mark and goods and/or services less similar to those of the other party or parties than applicant's mark and goods and/or services in the prior proceeding;⁵⁰ and

(5) The excepted use specified in the concurrent use application does not involve a registration, or any involved registration has been restricted in accordance with the Board's prior decision.

If an application seeking concurrent registration on the basis of the Board's determination in a prior concurrent use proceeding of applicant's entitlement thereto, meets all of the conditions specified above, a new concurrent use proceeding is unnecessary, because of the legal principles of res judicata and stare decisis.⁵¹ If any of the conditions is not satisfied, a new concurrent use proceeding will be prepared and instituted. In the event that the first four conditions are met, but an involved registration, through some happenstance, has not already been restricted in accordance with the Board's prior decision, a new concurrent use proceeding will be instituted solely for the purpose of restricting the involved registration in accordance with the Board's decision. In such cases, the Board sends out, with the notice of institution, an order to the registrant to show cause why its registration should not be restricted in accordance with the Board's prior decision. If no good cause is shown, the registration is ordered restricted, applicant is found entitled to the registration sought, and the concurrent use proceeding is dissolved.

If all of the five conditions specified above are satisfied so that a new concurrent use proceeding is not necessary, there is no need for applicant to furnish the extra copies of its application, specimens and drawing referred to by 37 CFR § 2.99(b).⁵² When and if the application is approved for publication, it is marked (by the trademark examining attorney) with the following statement:

The area specified in the Board's decision as the area for which applicant is entitled to registration is inserted in the first blank, together with any other conditions or limitations imposed by the Board. The second blank is filled in with the number of the prior concurrent use proceeding. The third blank is filled in with the number(s) of the involved application(s) or registration(s) owned by the other party or parties to the prior concurrent use proceeding. If any such party does not own an application or registration of its involved mark, then the name and address of the party is inserted in the third blank space.

If the five conditions are not all satisfied so that a new concurrent use proceeding is necessary, applicant normally will be required, at least if its mark is determined to be ready for publication, to furnish as many copies of its application, specimens and drawing as may be necessary for the preparation of notices for each applicant, registrant or user specified as a concurrent user in the application.⁵³ When and if the application is approved for publication, it is marked (by the trademark examining attorney) with the following statement:

The second blank is filled in with the area for which applicant seeks registration.

The Board does not determine, in a concurrent use proceeding, the right to concurrent registration of a party that is included in the proceeding only as a common law concurrent user, i.e., a party that does not own an involved application or registration.⁵⁴ A party that was included in a prior concurrent use proceeding only as a common law concurrent user may not thereafter obtain a concurrent registration, on the basis of the Board's decision in the prior proceeding, without going through a new concurrent use proceeding.

1103.03 Application Based on Court Determination

An application for concurrent registration that is based on a final determination by a court of competent jurisdiction, must assert use in commerce of the mark sought to be registered.⁵⁵ The application must also specify and contain all the elements required by those of the rules of practice in trademark cases preceding 37 CFR § 2.42; and must comply with the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.42 (described in TBMP §§ 1103.01(c) – (f)), namely, the requirements that applicant state in the application the area, goods and/or services, and (if applicable) mode of use for which applicant seeks registration, and also state, to the extent of applicant's knowledge, the concurrent lawful use of the mark by others, setting forth their names and addresses, their areas of use, the goods and/or services on or in connection with which their use is made, the mode of their use, the periods of their use, and the registrations issued to or applications filed by them, if any.⁵⁶ In addition, the applicant must, of course, submit a copy of the court decree upon which it relies.

When an application for concurrent registration is based on a final determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that applicant is entitled to concurrently use its mark, a concurrent use proceeding will not be instituted, that is, the application (if found otherwise acceptable, published, and not opposed, or opposed unsuccessfully) will be forwarded to issue without having to go through a concurrent use proceeding, provided that all of the following conditions, specified in 37 CFR § 2.99(f), are met:

- (1) The applicant is entitled to registration subject only to the concurrent lawful use of a party or parties to the court proceeding; and
- (2) The court decree specifies the rights of the parties; and
- (3) A true copy of the court decree is submitted to the trademark examining attorney; and
- (4) The concurrent use application complies fully and exactly with the court decree,⁵⁷ and
- (5) The excepted use specified in the concurrent use application does not involve a registration, or, if it does, the involved registration has been restricted by the Director in accordance with the court decree.

If any of the five conditions specified above is not satisfied, a concurrent use registration proceeding will be prepared and instituted.⁵⁸ If the first four conditions are met, but the Director in accordance with the court decree has not already restricted an involved registration, a concurrent use proceeding will be instituted solely for the purpose of restricting the involved registration in accordance with the court decree. In such cases, the Board sends out, with the notice of institution, an order to the registrant to show cause why its registration should not be restricted in accordance with the court decree. If all of the five conditions specified above are satisfied, so that a concurrent use proceeding is not necessary, there is no need for applicant to furnish the extra copies of its application, specimens and drawing referred to by 37 CFR § 2.99(b).⁵⁹ When and if the application is approved for publication, it is marked (by the trademark examining attorney) with the following statement:

If any such party does not own an application or registration of its involved mark, then the name and address of the party is inserted in the third blank space.

If the five conditions are not all satisfied, so that a concurrent use proceeding is necessary, applicant normally will be required, at least if its mark is determined to be ready for publication, to furnish as many copies of its application, specimens and drawing as may be necessary for the preparation of notices for each applicant, registrant or user specified as a concurrent user in the application.⁶⁰ When and if the application is approved for publication, it is marked (by the trademark examining attorney) with the following statement:

If any such party does not own an application or registration of its involved mark, then the name and address of the party is inserted in the first blank space. The second blank is filled in with the area for which applicant seeks registration.

Jurisdictional requirement, and requirement that there be no likelihood of confusion need not be met. An application for concurrent registration on the basis of a court determination of applicant's right to concurrently use its mark in commerce does not need to meet the jurisdictional requirement of use in commerce prior to the applicable date specified in Section 2(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d).⁶¹ Similarly, such an application is not subject to the requirement that the Director determine, prior to issuance of a concurrent registration, that confusion, mistake, or deception is not likely to result from the continued concurrent use by the parties of their marks. These two requirements are conditions precedent to the issuance of a concurrent registration by way of a concurrent use proceeding before the Board, but they are not conditions precedent to the issuance of a concurrent registration on the basis of a court decree. The sentence in Section 2(d) permitting the Director to issue concurrent registrations when a court of competent jurisdiction has finally determined that more than one person is entitled to use the same or similar marks in commerce is wholly independent of these two provisions. Thus, a concurrent registration may (and should, if otherwise appropriate) be issued on the basis of a court decree even though the application for registration does not claim use in commerce prior to the applicable date specified in Section 2(d), and even though there is likelihood of confusion by reason of the concurrent use of the marks of the parties to the court proceeding.⁶²

For information concerning the examination by the trademark examining attorney of a concurrent use application, see TMEP §§ 1207.04(d)(i).

1104 Parties to Proceeding; Involved Applications, Registrations

The parties to a concurrent use proceeding are the concurrent use applicant(s), and all of those persons listed in the concurrent use application(s) as exceptions to applicant's claim of exclusive use. The persons listed as exceptions may themselves own one or more Federal applications (either for concurrent registration, or for an unrestricted registration) or Federal registrations for a conflicting mark, or may simply be common law users of a conflicting mark. Thus, a concurrent use proceeding may involve the concurrent use applicant(s) and one or more other applicants (either for concurrent registration or for unrestricted registration), and/or one or more registrants, and/or one or more common law concurrent users that do not own an involved application or registration. Often, the only parties to a concurrent use proceeding are the concurrent use applicant, and a common law user that does not own an involved application or registration.⁶³

If, after the commencement of a concurrent use proceeding, the concurrent use applicant learns of another person with conflicting concurrent rights, the applicant may file a motion to amend its application to list that person as an additional exception to applicant's claim to exclusive use. If the motion is granted, the person listed in the amendment will be added as a party to the proceeding.⁶⁴ Similarly, if the concurrent use applicant learns that a person listed as an exception to applicant's claim of exclusive use has abandoned its mark, or if the person assigns its rights in its mark to the applicant, the applicant may file a motion to amend its application to delete reference to that person. The motion should include an explanation of the facts that serve as the basis for the motion. If the motion is granted, the amendment will be entered, and the person in question will be dropped as a party to the proceeding.

The applications and/or registrations involved in a concurrent use proceeding include the concurrent use application(s); every conflicting unrestricted application which is identified in the concurrent use application(s) as being owned by a person listed as an exception to the concurrent applicant's claim of exclusive use, and which has a filing date prior to the filing date of the concurrent use application(s); every conflicting registration identified in the concurrent use application(s) as being owned by a person listed as an exception to the concurrent applicant's claim of exclusive use; and every registration claimed by the concurrent use applicant(s) in the concurrent use application(s), unless there is no conflict between the mark(s) in such registration(s) and the mark(s) of the other party or parties to the proceeding.⁶⁵ If any identified application has not yet been published in the Official Gazette, or has been published but has not yet cleared the opposition period, the proceeding will be instituted, with the owner of that application being included as a common law user, rather than as an applicant. The Board may, in its discretion, suspend proceedings in the concurrent use proceeding until the unpublished application either becomes abandoned, or is published in the Official Gazette and survives the opposition period; and then, if the application is published and survives the opposition period, add it to the proceeding, and change the proceeding position of its owner from that of common law user to applicant.⁶⁶ Further, when the Board institutes the concurrent use proceeding, inquiry will be made as to whether any party owns any other application or registration which is for the same or similar mark, and same or similar goods and/or services, and thus should be added to the proceeding. A conflicting application or registration identified in response to this inquiry normally will be added to the proceeding.

However, if a party to the proceeding owns a conflicting application which seeks an unrestricted registration, and which was not filed until after the concurrent use application(s), the trademark examining attorney will suspend action on the subsequent unrestricted application (once the application is otherwise in condition for approval for publication) pending disposition of the concurrent use application(s).⁶⁷ In the event that the concurrent use application(s) matures into concurrent registration(s), the concurrent registration(s) will be cited, under Section 2(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d), as a reference(s) against the subsequent unrestricted application.⁶⁸ Alternatively, if the owner of the subsequent unrestricted application amends it to seek concurrent registration, the application will be published for opposition and, if no opposition is filed, or if all oppositions filed are dismissed, the application will be added to the concurrent use proceeding, if the amendment is filed early enough so that addition to the concurrent use proceeding is feasible, or will be the subject of a new concurrent use proceeding, if the amendment is not filed early enough.⁶⁹

1105 Applications and Registrations Not Subject to Proceeding

37 CFR § 2.73(b) An application under section 1(b) of the Act may not be amended so as to be treated as an application for a concurrent registration until an acceptable amendment to allege use under § 2.76 or statement of use under § 2.88 has been filed in the application, after which time such an amendment may be made, provided the application as amended satisfies the requirements of § 2.42. The examiner will determine whether the application, as amended, is acceptable.

Schilz-Price Enterprises Inc.*, 27 USPQ2d 1224, 1226 (TTAB 1993) (Board has no jurisdiction over user/registrant's application that was pending before examining attorney unless application is amended to seek concurrent use, and is published without successful opposition, and is added to the proceeding), and *Georgia-Southern Oil Inc. v. CONCURRENT USE PROCEEDINGS 37 CFR § 2.99(g) Registrations and applications to register on the Supplemental Register and registrations under the Act of 1920 are not subject to concurrent use registration proceedings. Applications to register under section 1(b) of the Act of 1946 are subject to concurrent use registration proceedings only after an acceptable amendment to allege use under § 2.76 or statement of use under § 2.88 has been filed.

Applications on Supplemental Register. Applications for registration on the Supplemental Register, registrations on the Supplemental Register, and registrations issued under the Act of 1920 are not subject to concurrent use proceedings.⁷⁰

Applications under Section 1(b) of the Trademark Act. Applications to register under Section 1(b) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(b), i.e., intent-to-use applications, are subject to concurrent use proceedings only after an acceptable amendment to allege use under 37 CFR § 2.76, or an acceptable statement of use under 37 CFR § 2.88, has been filed.⁷¹ If a concurrent use application is filed as an intent-to-use application under Section 1(b) of the Act rather than as a use application under Section 1(a) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(a), the applicant may not amend the application to seek concurrent use until use is effected.⁷²

Limitations of rights as against incontestable marks. An "incontestable registration," that is, a registration of a mark the right to use of which has become incontestable pursuant to Section 15 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1065, is subject to a concurrent use proceeding. However, any registration issued to the concurrent use applicant as against the owner of an incontestable registration will be limited (even if applicant is the prior user) to applicant's area of actual use prior to actual or constructive notice of registrant's rights, unless the parties stipulate otherwise.⁷³

The five-year incontestability period for a registration is tolled with respect to an applicant's concurrent rights if, prior to expiration of the five-year period, the applicant files a proper concurrent use application (or an amendment converting its unrestricted application into one seeking concurrent use registration) naming the registrant as the exception to applicant's right of exclusive use.⁷⁴

1106 Commencement of Proceeding

1106.01 Marking of Concurrent Use Application

When an application seeking concurrent registration by way of a concurrent use proceeding before the Board is approved for publication, it is marked (by the trademark examining attorney) with the following statement:

SUBJECT TO CONCURRENT USE PROCEEDING WITH _____.
APPLICANT CLAIMS EXCLUSIVE RIGHT TO USE THE MARK
IN THE AREA COMPRISING _____.

The first blank is filled in with the number(s) of the involved application(s) or registration(s) owned by the other party or parties to the proceeding. If any such party does not own an application or registration of its involved mark, then the name and address of the party is inserted in the first blank space. The second blank is filled in with the area for which applicant seeks registration.

If an application approved for publication seeks concurrent registration on the basis of the Board's determination, in a prior concurrent use proceeding, of applicant's entitlement thereto, and meets the conditions described in TBMP § 1103.02), so that a new concurrent use proceeding is unnecessary, the application is marked with the following statement:

REGISTRATION LIMITED TO THE AREA COMPRISING _____
PURSUANT TO CONCURRENT USE PROCEEDING NO. _____.
CONCURRENT REGISTRATION WITH _____.

The area specified in the Board's decision as the area for which applicant is entitled to registration is inserted in the first blank, together with any other conditions or limitations imposed by the Board. The second blank is filled in with the number of the prior concurrent use proceeding. The third blank is filled in with the number(s) of the involved application(s) or registration(s) owned by the other party or parties to the prior concurrent use proceeding. If any such party does not own an application or registration of its involved mark, then the name and address of the party is inserted in the third blank space.

⁷⁴ See Arman's Systems, Inc. v. Armand's Subway, Inc., 215 USPQ 1048, 1050 (TTAB 1982).

Chapter 1100 CONCURRENT USE PROCEEDINGS

If an application approved for publication seeks concurrent registration on the basis of a court determination of concurrent rights, and meets the conditions of 37 CFR § 2.99(f),⁷⁵ so that a concurrent use proceeding is unnecessary, the application is marked with the following statement:

REGISTRATION LIMITED TO THE AREA
COMPRISING _____ PURSUANT TO THE DECREE OF _____. CONCURRENT REGISTRATION WITH _____

The area granted to applicant by the court is inserted in the first blank, together with any other conditions or limitations imposed by the court. The second blank is filled in with the name of the court, proceeding number, and date of decree. The third blank is filled in with the number(s) of the involved application(s) or registration(s) owned by the other party or parties to the court proceeding. If any such party does not own an application or registration of its involved mark, then the name and address of the party is inserted in the third blank space.

1106.02 Publication of Concurrent Use Application; Opposition Period

The application is then published, with the indicated statement, in the Official Gazette for opposition. If the application seeks concurrent registration on the basis of a court decree, meets the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.99(f), and is not opposed, or all oppositions filed are dismissed, the application goes to issue without a concurrent use proceeding.⁷⁶ Similarly, if the application seeks concurrent registration on the basis of the Board's determination, in a prior concurrent use proceeding, of applicant's entitlement thereto, meets the conditions described in TBMP § 1103.02, and is not opposed, or all oppositions filed are dismissed, the application goes to issue without a new concurrent use proceeding.⁷⁷

If the application seeks concurrent registration by way of a concurrent use proceeding before the Board, and is not opposed, or all oppositions filed are dismissed, a concurrent use proceeding is instituted.⁷⁸ Similarly, if the application seeks concurrent registration on the basis of a court decree but does not meet the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.99(f), or seeks concurrent registration on the basis of the Board's decision in a prior concurrent use proceeding but does not meet the conditions described in TBMP § 1103.02, and the application is not opposed, or all oppositions filed are dismissed, a concurrent use proceeding is instituted.⁷⁹

After the opposition period has expired, and no opposition is filed, or all oppositions filed are dismissed, the file of a concurrent use application that must go through a concurrent use proceeding before the Board is forwarded to the Board for institution of the proceeding. There is no fee for the institution of a concurrent use proceeding.

1106.03 Obtaining Included Application and Registration Files

The Board obtains the files of all of the other applications and registrations, if any, to be included in the proceeding. If any such application has not yet been published in the Official Gazette, or has been published but has not yet cleared the opposition period, the proceeding will be instituted, with the owner of that application being included as a common law user, rather than as an applicant. The Board may, in its discretion, suspend proceedings in the concurrent use proceeding until the unpublished application either becomes abandoned, or is published in the Official Gazette and survives the opposition period; and then, if the application is published and survives the opposition period, add it to the proceeding, and change the proceeding position of its owner from that of common law user to applicant.⁸⁰

1106.04 Preparing Concurrent Use Notices

There is no complaint in a concurrent use proceeding.⁸¹ When the Board has obtained the files of all other applications and registrations, if any, to be included in the proceeding, the Board prepares a notice for each party advising the party that the concurrent use proceeding is thereby instituted; supplying information concerning the filing of an "answer" to the notice and specifying a due date therefor;⁸² setting discovery, trial and briefing periods;⁸³ and allowing the party until a specified time to advise the Board of any relevant, but as yet uninvolved, application(s) and/or registration(s), which should be included in the proceeding. The notice to each party listed as an exception to a concurrent use applicant's claim of exclusive use also specifies the name and address of the concurrent use applicant and the concurrent use applicant's attorney or other authorized representative, if any, together with the concurrent use applicant's mark, goods and/or services, application filing date and serial number, and claimed territory;⁸⁴ the name and address of any other involved applicant or registrant; the name and address of any other involved applicant's attorney or other authorized representative, if any; the mark, goods and/or services, application filing date, application serial number, and claimed territory of any other involved applicant, as reflected in its involved application (if the application is unrestricted, the claimed territory will be described in the notice as "The entire United States"); the mark, goods and/or services, registration filing and issue date, registration number, and claimed territory of any other involved registrant, as reflected in its involved registration; and the name and address of any other involved party which is simply a common law concurrent user, i.e., does not own an involved application or registration of its mark.

The notices are sent to each involved applicant, in care of the applicant's attorney or other authorized representative, if any; to any involved user; and to any involved registrant. If an applicant is not represented by an attorney but the applicant has appointed a domestic representative, the Board will send the notice to the domestic representative unless the applicant has designated in writing another correspondence address.⁸⁵ In the case of an involved registration, the notice is sent to the registrant itself, or to the registrant's domestic representative if one is appointed, even if there is an attorney or other authorized representative of record in the application file after the mark has registered.⁸⁶ A copy of each concurrent use applicant's involved application(s) is forwarded with the notice to each party specified in the concurrent use application as an exception to applicant's claim of exclusive use.⁸⁷

The concurrent use proceeding commences when the Board sends the notices to the parties.⁸⁸

1106.05 Locating Excepted Users

It is the responsibility of the concurrent use applicant, which has the burden of proving its entitlement to concurrent registration, to provide information concerning the current address of each specified excepted user, as well as information concerning each user's use of its particular mark in its particular area or mode of use.⁸⁹ The address used by the Board in mailing the notice to a specified excepted user is the address provided by the concurrent use applicant in its application, unless the user itself owns an involved application or registration which includes an address more current than the one provided by the concurrent use applicant.

If a notice or other communication sent by the Board to a specified excepted user is returned as undeliverable, the concurrent use applicant will be required to investigate further and furnish the correct address. Unless and until the concurrent use applicant does so, the proceeding cannot go forward. Alternatively, if, upon further investigation, the concurrent use applicant learns that a specified excepted user has abandoned its use of its mark, the concurrent use applicant may file a motion to amend its application to delete reference to that user.⁹⁰

If the owner of a registration is listed as an excepted user and the concurrent use applicant is unable, after reasonable investigation, to locate the registrant, applicant may file a petition to cancel the registration owned by the user on the ground of abandonment. The concurrent use proceeding would be suspended pending the outcome of the petition to cancel. Once a petition to cancel is filed, it is the responsibility of the Board to attempt to locate the registrant. If the Board is unable to do so, notice of the filing of the petition to cancel will be published in the Official Gazette. If the registrant fails to appear within the thirty-day period of time allowed by the notice, default judgment will be entered against the registrant and the petition to cancel will be granted. In the event the petition is granted, applicant may file a motion to amend its application to delete reference to registrant as the exception to applicant's exclusive right to use the mark in commerce, and to seek a geographically unrestricted registration of the mark.

1107 Answer; Default

There is no complaint in a concurrent use proceeding.⁹¹ Instead, there is a notice which informs the parties to the proceeding of the institution thereof, supplies information concerning the filing of an "answer" to the notice, and specifies a due date therefor. In addition, the notice, (including the copy of each involved concurrent use application, which is sent with the notice to every person specified in the application) takes the place of a complaint to the extent that it informs every specified person of the scope of the concurrent registration sought by each concurrent use applicant, and the extent of each concurrent use applicant's acknowledgment of the concurrent rights of others--i.e., the essence of what each concurrent use applicant intends to prove at trial.⁹²

⁹⁰ See TBMP § 1104 (Parties to Proceeding).

⁹¹ Cf. TBMP § 1003 (Institution of Interference).

⁹² See TBMP §§ 1103.01(c)-(f) (Requirements) and 1106 (Commencement of Proceeding).

Chapter 1100

CONCURRENT USE PROCEEDINGS

The "answer" in a concurrent use proceeding is a response to the notice. In the "answer," the answering party sets forth its position with respect to the registration(s) sought by the concurrent use applicant(s).⁹³

An answer to the notice is not required of an applicant or registrant whose application or registration is involved in the proceeding,⁹⁴ but such a party may file an answer if it so desires. Any other party specified as a concurrent user in an involved concurrent use application must file an answer to avoid default. Any answer filed must be filed within 40 days after the mailing date of the notice, or within an extension of time for the purpose.⁹⁵

If a party that is required, under 37 CFR § 2.99(d)(2), to file an answer fails to do so, judgment will be entered against that party precluding the party from claiming any right more extensive than that acknowledged in the involved concurrent use application(s). However, each concurrent use applicant still will have the burden of proving its entitlement to the registration(s) sought as against every party specified in its application(s), including any party against which default judgment for failure to answer has been entered. That is, the concurrent use applicant still will have to prove that there will be no likelihood of confusion by reason of the concurrent use by the parties of their respective marks, and, where necessary,⁹⁶ that the parties have become entitled to use their marks as a result of their concurrent lawful use in commerce prior to the applicable date specified in Section 2(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d) [usually, this means use in commerce prior to the earliest application filing date of the application(s), or 1946 Act registration(s) (if any), involved in the proceeding (or prior to July 5, 1947, in the case of an involved registration under the Acts of 1881 or 1905)].⁹⁷ Moreover, if, after the entry of default judgment against a party for failure to answer, the concurrent use applicant seeks to amend its application to narrow the extent of the concurrent rights conceded therein to the defaulting party, the defaulting party will be allowed an opportunity to object thereto. If the amendment is permitted, the defaulting party will be allowed to contest the registration sought by the applicant, to the extent that the applicant claims a greater right, as against the defaulting party, than that previously claimed.

When default judgment for failure to file an answer is entered against a party to a concurrent use proceeding, the Board does not continue to send to that party copies of all of the communications issued by the Board in the proceeding, nor do the other parties to the proceeding need to continue serving on the defaulting party copies of all papers which they file in the proceeding. However, a copy of the Board's final decision in the case is mailed to the defaulting party. Moreover, any request by the concurrent use applicant to amend its application to narrow the extent of the concurrent rights conceded therein to the defaulting party must be served upon that party. If the amendment is permitted, the Board will send a copy of its action on the request, and copies of all further communications issued by the Board in the proceeding, to the defaulting party. Similarly, after approval of such an amendment, copies of all further papers filed by the other parties to the proceeding should be served on the defaulting party.

If a concurrent use proceeding involves only a concurrent use applicant and one or more specified common law concurrent users which do not have an involved application or registration, and default judgment for failure to answer is entered against every specified user, or applicant has entered into a persuasive settlement agreement with every party against which default judgment has not been entered, applicant may prove its entitlement to registration as against the defaulting users by an "ex parte" type of showing. That is, applicant may prove its entitlement to registration by less formal procedures (such as by the submission of affidavit evidence) than those (such as depositions upon oral examination) normally required for the introduction of evidence in an inter partes proceeding.⁹⁸ In such a case, the Board, instead of setting formal trial dates, simply allows the concurrent use applicant time (usually 60 days) in which to submit proof of its entitlement to registration.⁹⁹

1108 Issue in Concurrent Use Proceeding; Burden of Proof

37 CFR § 2.99(e) The applicant for a concurrent use registration has the burden of proving entitlement thereto. A party whose application has a filing date between the filing dates of the earliest involved application and the latest involved application is a junior party to every party whose involved application has an earlier filing date. If any applications have the same filing date, the application with the latest date of execution will be deemed to have the latest filing date and that applicant will be the junior party. A person specified as an excepted user in a concurrent use application but who has not filed an application shall be considered a party senior to every party that has an application involved in the proceeding.

37 CFR § 2.116(b) ... A party that is a junior party in an interference proceeding or in a concurrent use registration proceeding shall be in the position of plaintiff against every party that is senior, and the party that is a senior party in an interference proceeding or in a concurrent use registration proceeding shall be a defendant against every party that is junior.

The issue to be determined in a concurrent use proceeding is the entitlement of the concurrent use applicant(s) to the registration(s) sought, and the extent, if any, to which every other involved application or registration should be restricted as a result thereof. The Board does not determine the right to registration of a party that is included in the proceeding only as a common law concurrent user, i.e., a party that does not own an involved application or registration (for information concerning the parties to a concurrent use proceeding, and the applications and registrations involved therein.¹⁰⁰

Each applicant for concurrent registration has the burden of proving its entitlement thereto as against every other party specified in its application as an exception to its claim of exclusive right to use. That is, a concurrent use applicant must prove that there will be no likelihood of confusion by reason of the concurrent use by the parties of their respective marks, and, where necessary,¹⁰¹ that the parties have become entitled to use their marks as a result of their concurrent lawful use in commerce prior to the applicable date specified in Section 2(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d) [usually, this means use in commerce prior to the earliest application filing date of the application(s), or 1946 Act registration(s) (if any), involved in the proceeding (or prior to July 5, 1947, in the case of an involved registration under the Acts of 1881 or 1905)].¹⁰²

Any other party may attempt to prove any ground for refusal of registration which might be asserted with respect to an application for an unrestricted registration, as well as other matters, such as, that the concurrent use applicant is entitled to a concurrent registration covering only some of the area specified in its application; that the concurrent use applicant is not entitled to registration at all because it is a bad faith junior user; that applicant does not meet the jurisdictional requirement of use of its involved mark prior to the applicable date specified in Section 2(d) of the Act (see TBMP § 1103.01(b)); that applicant's use of its mark is unlawful; etc.¹⁰³ application, shall be considered a party senior to every party that has an application involved in the proceeding.¹⁰⁵

1109 Conduct of Proceeding

Once commenced,¹⁰⁶ a concurrent use proceeding is conducted in the same general manner as an opposition or cancellation proceeding, except that, inter alia, there is no complaint (see TBMP § 1106.04 and 1107), and thus no motions relating to the complaint; the "answer" is not an answer in the usual sense of the word, and is not always required;¹⁰⁷ if an answer, when required, is not filed, default judgment is entered against the non-answering party, precluding that party from claiming any right more extensive than that acknowledged in the involved concurrent use application(s), but each concurrent use applicant will still have the burden of proving its entitlement to the registration(s) sought;¹⁰⁸ the issue is the entitlement of the concurrent use applicant(s) to the registration(s) sought, and the extent, if any, to which every other involved application or registration should be restricted as a result thereof;¹⁰⁹ the order in which the parties offer evidence depends upon whether or not they own an involved application or registration, and, if two or more parties own an involved concurrent use application, the filing dates of such applications;¹¹⁰ and in certain cases, where default judgment is entered for failure to answer, a concurrent use applicant may be permitted to prove its entitlement to registration by less formal procedures than those normally required for the introduction of evidence in an inter partes proceeding.¹¹¹

In addition, the trial and briefing schedule in a concurrent use proceeding involving three or more parties differs, because of the multiplicity of parties, from that in an opposition or cancellation proceeding. Along with the concurrent use notice, the Board sends out an order setting trial and briefing dates in the case. Specifically, the Board sets the opening and closing date for discovery, and schedules testimony periods so that each party in the position of plaintiff will have a period for presenting its case in chief against each party in the position of defendant, each party in the position of defendant will have a period for presenting its case and meeting the case of each plaintiff, and each party in the position of plaintiff will have a period for presenting evidence in rebuttal.¹¹² The testimony periods are separated from the discovery period and from each other by 60-day intervals. Similarly, the Board schedules briefing periods so that each party in the position of plaintiff will have a period for filing a main brief on the case, each party in the position of defendant will have a period for filing a main brief and meeting the main brief of each plaintiff, and each party in the position of plaintiff will have a period for filing a reply brief.¹¹³

Set forth below is a sample trial and briefing schedule for a concurrent use proceeding involving parties A, B, C, D, and E, where A, B, C, and D are all concurrent use applicants, A's application has the latest filing date, B's application has the next-latest filing date, C's application has the next-latest filing date, D's application has the earliest filing date, and E is a specified concurrent user which does not own an involved application or registration (the trial and briefing schedule would look the same if E were a concurrent use applicant whose application had the earliest filing date, or if E owned an involved registration):

REPLY BRIEF FOR D is due	8/23/2005

Set forth below is another sample trial and briefing schedule for a concurrent use proceeding involving parties X, Y, and Z, where X is a concurrent use applicant, Y owns a registration which is involved in the proceeding, and Z is a specified concurrent user which does not own an involved application or registration:

BRIEF FOR Z is due	7/29/2004
REPLY BRIEFS, if any, shall be due as follows:
REPLY BRIEF FOR X is due	8/13/2004

The trial and briefing schedule set forth immediately above would look the same if Y and Z were both specified concurrent users that did not own an involved application or registration. If X, Y, and Z were all concurrent use applicants, there would be a separate testimony period for each party, and X and Y would each have a separate rebuttal testimony period; each party would also be allowed time to file a brief on the case, but only X and Y would be allowed time in which to file a reply brief.

With the exceptions noted above, the practices and procedures for taking discovery, filing motions, introducing evidence, briefing the case, presenting oral arguments at final hearing, and seeking review of a decision of the Board, are essentially the same in a concurrent use proceeding as in an opposition or cancellation proceeding.

Chapter 1100 CONCURRENT USE PROCEEDINGS

1110 Settlement Providing for Concurrent Registration

Most concurrent use proceedings before the Board are not litigated to final decision on the merits, but rather are settled on the basis of an agreement between the parties which provides for the issuance to the concurrent use applicant(s) of the concurrent registration(s) sought. Such an agreement is usually filed by the concurrent use applicant(s) together with a request for issuance of the concurrent registration(s) sought.

The Board will not enter judgment on behalf of the concurrent use applicant(s), and find such applicant(s) entitled to concurrent registration, on the basis of a settlement agreement, unless the terms of the agreement are sufficient to persuade the Board that confusion, mistake, or deception is not likely to result from the continued concurrent use by the parties of their marks.¹¹⁴

If a settlement agreement does not include every party to the proceeding, each concurrent use applicant still will have the burden of proving its entitlement to registration as against every party to the proceeding that is not also a party to the agreement, even if a default judgment for failure to answer has been entered against a non-included party.¹¹⁵

1111 Effect of Abandonment of Involved Application

1112 Effect of Adverse Decision in Opposition or Cancellation

A party which receives an adverse decision, in an opposition, cancellation, or interference proceeding, on the issue of priority of use is not precluded thereby from seeking concurrent registration, unless its first use in commerce was subsequent to the earliest application filing date of any conflicting application or registration owned by another party to the opposition, cancellation, or interference proceeding; that other party does not consent to the grant of a concurrent registration to the applicant; and concurrent registration is sought by way of a concurrent use proceeding before the Board.¹¹⁶

1113 "Conversion" of Opposition or Cancellation Proceeding to Concurrent Use Proceeding

1113.01 Conversion of Opposition Proceeding

In certain situations, an opposition proceeding may be "converted" into a concurrent use proceeding. In these cases, the opposition proceeding is not actually transformed into a concurrent use proceeding. Rather, the opposition is terminated, usually by dismissal without prejudice, in favor of the concurrent use proceeding. The concurrent use proceeding, in turn, is instituted immediately. In fact, notice of the institution of the concurrent use proceeding is normally included in the decision terminating the opposition proceeding.¹¹⁷

An opposition may be terminated in favor of a concurrent use proceeding in the situations described below:

- (1) When an opposition to a concurrent use application is filed by a party specified in the application as an exception to applicant's claim of exclusive use, the opposition may be dismissed without prejudice in favor of a concurrent use

¹¹⁶ See Section 2(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d); U.S. Soil, Inc. v. Colovic, 214 USPQ 471 (TTAB 1982) (opposition cannot proceed where it has been established through prior litigation that applicant has superior rights, and where opposer only alleges that it has rights in certain geographic areas); Home Federal Savings & Loan Ass'n v. Home Federal Savings & Loan Ass'n of Chicago, 205 USPQ 467 (TTAB 1979); Cook's Pest Control, Inc. v. Sanitas Pest Control Corp., 197 USPQ 265 (TTAB 1977); and Chichi's, Inc. v. Chi-Chi's, Inc., 222 USPQ 831 (Comm'r 1984) (a decision in the cancellation proceeding adverse to respondent would not preclude respondent from filing a new application seeking concurrent registration with petitioner). For information concerning the jurisdictional requirement of Section 2(d) of the Act, see TBMP § 1103.01(b).

¹¹⁷ See Janet E. Rice, TIPS FROM THE TTAB: Newest TTAB Rule Changes; More Tips on Concurrent Use Proceedings, 76 Trademark Rep. 252 (1986). Cf. 37 CFR § 2.99(c) (in effect providing, inter alia, that when a concurrent use application has been published in the Official Gazette for opposition, a concurrent use proceeding will not be instituted unless no opposition is filed, or unless all oppositions that are filed are dismissed).

proceeding.¹¹⁸ This action may be taken by the Board upon its own initiative, or upon motion.

(2) When an opposition to a concurrent use application is filed by a party which is not specified in the application as an exception to applicant's claim of exclusive use, the Board may grant a motion to dismiss the opposition without prejudice in favor of a concurrent use proceeding if opposer files an application for concurrent registration, naming applicant as an exception to its claim of exclusive use. However, the opposition will not be dismissed, and the concurrent use proceeding instituted, unless opposer's concurrent use application is published in the Official Gazette for opposition, and no opposition is filed, or all oppositions filed are dismissed.

(3) When an opposition to a concurrent use application is filed by a party which is not specified in the application as an exception to applicant's claim of exclusive use, the Board may grant a motion to dismiss the opposition without prejudice in favor of a concurrent use proceeding if applicant amends its application to specify the opposer as an additional exception to its claim of exclusive use.

(4) When an opposition is filed against an application for an unrestricted registration, the applicant may file a motion to amend its application to one for concurrent registration, reciting opposer as an exception to applicant's claim of exclusive use, together with a motion to terminate the opposition in favor of a concurrent use proceeding. If opposer consents to the amendment, the opposition will be dismissed without prejudice, and the concurrent use proceeding will be instituted. If opposer does not consent to the amendment, but applicant consents to entry of judgment against itself with respect to its right to an unrestricted registration, judgment will be entered against applicant, in the opposition, with respect to applicant's right to an unrestricted registration; the amendment will be approved; and a concurrent use proceeding involving the amended application will be instituted, all in one Board action.¹¹⁹

¹¹⁸ See Inland Oil & Transport Co. v. IOT Corp., 197 USPQ 562 (TTAB 1977) (applicant's motion to dismiss opposition and institute concurrent use granted; party named as exception filed opposition against concurrent use application; by setting forth opposer as exception to applicant's exclusive right to use, applicant has, in effect, admitted that it is not entitled to unrestricted registration).

Chapter 1100 CONCURRENT USE PROCEEDINGS

1113.02 Conversion of Cancellation Proceeding

In appropriate situations, a cancellation proceeding may also be terminated in favor of a concurrent use proceeding, if one party has a concurrent use application reciting the adverse party in the cancellation proceeding as an exception to its claim of exclusive use; the application is published in the Official Gazette for opposition; and no opposition is filed, or all oppositions filed are dismissed.¹²⁰

1114 Alteration of Restrictions on Concurrent Registration

A concurrent registration may be issued only pursuant to the decision of the Board in a concurrent use proceeding, or on the basis of a final determination, by a court of competent jurisdiction, that more than one person is entitled to use the same or similar marks in commerce.¹²¹ A registration cannot be restricted territorially by amendment under Section 7(e) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1057(e), and 37 CFR § 2.173(a).¹²²

Further, a concurrent registrant which wishes to alter the restriction to its registration ordinarily may do so, if at all, only through an appropriate decision in a new concurrent use proceeding before the Board, or a new civil action before a court of competent jurisdiction; a Section 7(e) amendment cannot be used to alter a concurrent use restriction.¹²³

However, removal of such a restriction by amendment under Section 7(e) may be permitted where an entity which was the only exception to registrant's right to exclusive use of its registered mark assigns its rights in its mark to registrant, so that all rights in the mark are merged in registrant.¹²⁴ Requests to record changes to a Section 66(a) registration, 15 U.S.C. §

Chapter 1200 EX PARTE APPEALS

1201 Propriety of Appeal

1201.01 Readiness of Case for Appeal

15 U.S.C. § 1070 [Section 20 of the Trademark Act] Appeal from examiner to Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

An appeal may be taken to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board from any final decision of the examiner in charge of the registration of marks upon the payment of the prescribed fee.

37 CFR § 2.63(b) After reexamination the applicant may respond by filing a timely petition to the Director for relief from a formal requirement if: (1) the requirement is repeated, but the examiner's action is not made final, and the subject matter of the requirement is appropriate for petition to the Director (see § 2.146(b)); or (2) the examiner's action is made final and such action is limited to subject matter appropriate for petition to the Director. If the petition is denied, the applicant shall have until six months from the date of the Office action which repeated the requirement or made it final or thirty days from the date of the decision on the petition, whichever date is later, to comply with the requirement. A formal requirement which is the subject of a petition decided by the Director may not subsequently be the subject of an appeal to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

37 CFR § 2.64(a) On the first or any subsequent reexamination or reconsideration the refusal of the registration or the insistence upon a requirement may be stated to be final, whereupon applicant's response is limited to an appeal, or to a compliance with any requirement, or to a petition to the Director if permitted by § 2.63(b).

37 CFR § 2.64(b) During the period between a final action and expiration of the time for filing an appeal, the applicant may request the examiner to reconsider the final action. The filing of a request for reconsideration will not extend the time for filing an appeal or petitioning the Director, but normally the examiner will reply to a request for reconsideration before the end of the six-month period if the request is filed within three months after the date of the final action. Amendments accompanying requests for reconsideration after final action will be entered if they comply with the rules of practice in trademark cases and the Act of 1946.

37 CFR § 2.141 Ex parte appeals from the Examiner of Trademarks. Every applicant for the registration of a mark may, upon final refusal by the Examiner of Trademarks, appeal to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board upon payment of the prescribed fee for each class in the application for which an appeal is taken. An appeal which includes insufficient fees to cover all classes in the application should specify the particular class or classes in which an appeal is taken. A second refusal on the same grounds may be considered as final by the applicant for purpose of appeal.

EX PARTE APPEALS

37 CFR § 2.146(b) Questions of substance arising during the ex parte prosecution of applications, including, but not limited to, questions arising under §§ 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 23 of the Act of 1946, are not considered to be appropriate subject matter for petitions to the Director.

On the first or any subsequent reexamination or reconsideration of an application for registration of a trademark, the examining attorney may state that the refusal of the registration or the insistence upon a requirement is final.¹ When the examining attorney states that his or her action is final, the applicant's response is limited to an appeal to the Board, or to compliance with any requirement, or to a petition to the Director if a petition is permitted by 37 CFR § 2.63(b).² An applicant may, pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.64(b), file a request for reconsideration, but the submission of such a request does not automatically extend the applicant's time for filing a notice of appeal. Thus, if an applicant submits a request for reconsideration within the six-month time period from the mailing date of the final action, but does not file a notice of appeal within that time period, if the request for reconsideration fails to persuade the examining attorney, and the examining attorney does not issue a new final refusal, the application will be deemed abandoned.³

An applicant may consider a second refusal on the same ground(s), or a repeated requirement, as final for purposes of appeal.⁴ All grounds and/or requirements must be repeated in order for the second refusal to be considered as final.⁵

Thus, an application is ripe for appeal when the examining attorney issues a final action, and an appeal may also be taken from a second refusal on the same ground(s) or from a repeated requirement.⁶ However, an Office action that repeats one or more grounds for refusal or requirements but also raises a new ground or requirement may not be considered as final for purposes of appeal.

1201.02 Premature Final

15 U.S.C. § 1062(b) If the applicant is found not entitled to registration, the examiner shall advise the applicant thereof and of the reason therefor. The applicant shall have a period of six months in which to reply or amend his application, which shall then be reexamined. This procedure may be repeated until (1) the examiner finally refuses registration of the mark or (2) the applicant fails for a period of six months to reply or amend or appeal, whereupon the application shall be deemed to have been abandoned, unless it can be shown to the satisfaction of the Director that the delay in responding was unintentional, whereupon such time may be extended.

A refusal of registration or an insistence upon a requirement may be made final by the trademark examining attorney only on the first or any subsequent reexamination or reconsideration of an application; a refusal or requirement may not be made final in a first action.⁷

An action should not be stated to be final until the applicant has had at least one opportunity to reply to each ground of refusal, and each requirement, asserted by the examining attorney.⁸ Moreover, a final action should not be issued until all matters but for those that are to be the subject of the final action have been resolved, and a clear issue has been developed between the examining attorney and the applicant with respect to each remaining ground of refusal or requirement.⁹ As stated in TMEP § 714.03:

No requirement may be made final, even if it is a repeated requirement, unless the entire action is made final. Thus, if the examining attorney makes a new refusal or requirement in a second or subsequent action, a repeated refusal or requirement may not be made final.

Examples of new issues that would preclude the issuance of a final action until applicant has had an opportunity to respond are amendments to the drawing,¹⁰ and amendments to the Supplemental Register or to assert acquired distinctiveness.¹¹ However, if the amendment is irrelevant to an outstanding refusal or is merely cumulative, it is not deemed to raise a new issue.¹²

If an applicant believes that a refusal to register, or the insistence upon a requirement, has been made final prematurely, applicant may raise the matter by request to the examining attorney for reconsideration or by contacting the managing attorney or senior attorney in the examining attorney's law office. If the examining attorney does not withdraw the finality, the applicant may file a petition under 37 CFR § 2.146.¹³

The prematureness of a final action is not a ground for appeal to the Board.¹⁴ However, if it comes to the attention of the Board, when an appeal has been filed from a final refusal to register or a final requirement, that the final action was issued prematurely, the Board normally will decline to institute the appeal and will forward the case to the examining attorney for appropriate action. That action is generally that the finality of the examining attorney's action is withdrawn and a new nonfinal action is issued. The Board letter will generally indicate that if the examining attorney finds, upon consideration of applicant's response to the new nonfinal action, that the application is in condition for publication (or for registration, if the application seeks registration on the Supplemental Register), the applicant may request a refund of the previously submitted appeal fee; and that if the examining attorney ultimately issues a new final action, and the applicant wishes to appeal, a new notice of appeal should be filed, in which the applicant requests that the previously submitted appeal fee should be applied to the appeal.

1201.03 Premature Appeal

An application is ripe for appeal when the trademark examining attorney issues a final action, and an appeal may also be taken from a second refusal on the same ground(s) or a repeated requirement; an appeal from a first refusal or requirement is premature.¹⁵ All grounds and/or requirements must be repeated in order for the second refusal to be considered as final.¹⁶ If, in response to a final Office action, applicant files a request for reconsideration that raises a new issue, and does not file a notice of appeal, applicant may not then file an appeal until a final Office action issues with respect to the new issue.¹⁷

The Board has no jurisdiction to entertain a premature appeal. Thus, if an appeal is filed prematurely, the Board, in a written action, will notify applicant that the appeal was filed prematurely and forward the application to the trademark examining attorney for further appropriate action. The examining attorney will normally treat the premature notice of appeal as an incomplete response under 37 CFR § 2.65(b) and allow applicant time to submit a complete response. If applicant has also filed a request for reconsideration or an appeal brief, the request for reconsideration or brief may be treated as a response.¹⁸ In the event that the examining attorney ultimately issues a final action, or a second refusal on the same ground(s) or a repeated requirement, and applicant wishes to appeal, applicant should file a new notice of appeal, and request that the appeal fee previously submitted be applied to the new appeal. If, on the other hand, no new appeal is ever filed in the case, applicant may request that the appeal fee submitted with the premature appeal be refunded.

1201.04 Compliance With Requirements Not Subject of Appeal

37 CFR § 2.142(c) All requirements made by the examiner and not the subject of appeal shall be complied with prior to the filing of an appeal.

Prior to the filing of an appeal, the applicant should comply with all requirements that the trademark examining attorney, has made, but which are not the subject of appeal. If an applicant who files an appeal to the Board fails to comply with a requirement not the subject of appeal, the refusal to register may be affirmed by the Board as to that requirement, regardless of the disposition made by the Board of the issue or issues that are the subject of appeal.¹⁹

¹⁷ In re Virshup, 42 USPQ2d 1403, 1404 (TTAB 1997) (after final refusal on Principal Register, applicant amended to Supplemental Register; applicant's appeal of initial refusal on Supplemental Register held premature).

NOTE: A possible alternative approach for use in situations where informalities that are not the subject of the appeal have not been resolved, suggested in In re Variable Speech Control Co., 209 USPQ 431, 433 (TTAB 1980), of including in the Board's decision on the appealed issues a recommendation that no registration be granted to applicant until the informalities have been resolved, is no longer appropriate. This is because (1) the current 37 CFR § 2.142(c), adopted thereafter, provides that all requirements made by the examining attorney and not the subject of appeal shall be complied with prior to the filing of an appeal, and (2) it is now settled that once the Board decides an appeal, the examining attorney is without jurisdiction to take further action in the case, nor may the Board, in its decision on the appealed issues, remand the case for further action on a matter not before it in the appeal. See In re

Thus, an applicant may not defer compliance with an outstanding requirement, such as the submission of a proper drawing or declaration to support substitute specimens, until after the Board rules on any substantive grounds for refusal.

1201.05 Appeal Versus Petition

37 CFR § 2.63(b) After reexamination the applicant may respond by filing a timely petition to the Director for relief from a formal requirement if: (1) the requirement is repeated, but the examiner's action is not made final, and the subject matter of the requirement is appropriate for petition to the Director (see § 2.146(b)); or (2) the examiner's action is made final and such action is limited to subject matter appropriate for petition to the Director. If the petition is denied, the applicant shall have until six months from the date of the Office action which repeated the requirement or made it final or thirty days from the date of the decision on the petition, whichever date is later, to comply with the requirement. A formal requirement which is the subject of a petition decided by the Director may not subsequently be the subject of an appeal to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

37 CFR § 2.64(a) On the first or any subsequent reexamination or reconsideration the refusal of the registration or the insistence upon a requirement may be stated to be final, whereupon applicant's response is limited to an appeal, or to a compliance with any requirement, or to a petition to the Director if permitted by § 2.63(b).

37 CFR § 2.146(a) Petition may be taken to the Director: (1) from any repeated or final formal requirement of the examiner in the ex parte prosecution of an application if permitted by § 2.63(b); (2) in any case for which the Act of 1946, or Title 35 of the United States Code, or this Part of Title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations specifies that the matter is to be determined directly or reviewed by the Director; (3) to invoke the supervisory authority of the Director in appropriate circumstances; (4) in any case not specifically defined and provided for by this Part of Title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations; (5) in an extraordinary situation, when justice requires and no other party is injured thereby, to request a suspension or waiver of any requirement of the rules not being a requirement of the Act of 1946.

(b) Questions of substance arising during the ex parte prosecution of applications, including, but not limited to, questions arising under §§ 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 23 of the Act of 1946, are not considered to be appropriate subject matter for petitions to the Director.

An action taken on a matter arising during the ex parte prosecution of an application for registration may, depending on the nature of the matter and the posture of the case, be reviewable only by appeal to the Board, or only by petition to the Director or by either appeal or petition.

EX PARTE APPEALS

The following discussion contains general guidelines for determining whether a matter is appealable or petitionable.

An appeal to the Board may be taken from any final action, second refusal to register on the same ground(s), or repeated requirement issued by the trademark examining attorney during the ex parte prosecution of an application for registration, whether the matter involved in the examining attorney's action is substantive or procedural in nature, except that a formal requirement which was the subject of a petition decided by the Director may not thereafter be the subject of an appeal to the Board.²⁰

Substantive questions arising during the ex parte prosecution of an application, including, but not limited to, issues arising under Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 23 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1052, 1053, 1054, 1055, 1056, and 1091, are considered to be appropriate subject matter for appeal to the Board (after issuance of a final action, or a second refusal on the same ground(s)),²¹ but not for petition to the Director.²²

A wide variety of matters are petitionable. Petition may be taken to the Director in the following situations:

- (1) From any repeated or final formal requirement made by the trademark examining attorney, during the ex parte prosecution of an application, if (i) the requirement is repeated, but the examining attorney's action is not made final and the subject matter of the requirement is appropriate for petition to the Director;²³ or (ii) the examining attorney's action is made final and is limited to subject matter appropriate for petition to the Director.²⁴ If the petition is denied, the applicant will have six months from the date of the Office action which repeated the requirement or made it final, or 30 days from the date of the Director's decision on the petition, whichever is later, to comply with the requirement. A formal requirement that was the subject of a petition to the Director may not thereafter be the subject of an appeal to the Board.²⁵

(2) In any case for which the Act of 1946, or Title 35 of the United States Code, or Part 2 of 37 CFR (i.e., the rules of practice in trademark cases) specifies that the matter is to be determined directly or reviewed by the Director.²⁶ Insofar as applications for registration are concerned, this includes petitions to review the denial of requests for extensions of time to file statements of use under 37 CFR § 2.89(g), petitions to review the actions of Post Registration examiners under 15 U.S.C. §§ 1057, 1058 and 1059, and petitions to record a document in the Assignment Services Division of the Office.²⁷

(3) To invoke the supervisory authority of the Director in appropriate circumstances.²⁸ Under this provision, an applicant generally may petition to the Director for relief from, inter alia, a nonfinal refusal to register based on a procedural matter, i.e., an alleged failure of the applicant to comply with a technical requirement of the rules of practice governing trademark cases; or an alleged failure of the examining attorney to act in accordance with those rules and/or proper practice thereunder.²⁹

(4) In any case not specifically defined and provided for by Part 2 of 37 CFR (i.e., the rules of practice in trademark cases).³⁰ Under this provision, an applicant may petition the Director with respect to any situation, not covered by the rules, from which applicant seeks relief.³¹

(5) In an extraordinary situation, when justice requires and no other party is injured thereby, to request a suspension or waiver of any requirement of the rules which is not also a requirement of the Act of 1946.³²

However, petition may not be taken to the Director on a question of substance arising during the ex parte prosecution of an application; nor may petition be taken from a final action of the examining attorney, except that an applicant may petition for relief from an action making a formal requirement final if the action is limited to subject matter appropriate for petition to the Director (i.e., involves questions such as the applicant's alleged failure to comply with one or more of the technical requirements of the rules of practice in trademark cases, rather than a question of substance).³³

For examples of matters that are appealable and those that are petitionable, see TMEP §§ 1703 and 1704.

15 U.S.C. § 1070. An appeal may be taken to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board from any final decision of the examiner in charge of the registration of marks upon the payment of the prescribed fee.

37 CFR § 2.141 Ex parte appeals from the Examiner of Trademarks. Every applicant for the registration of a mark may, upon final refusal by the Examiner of Trademarks, appeal to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board upon payment of the prescribed fee for each class in the application for which an appeal is taken. An appeal which includes insufficient fees to cover all classes in the application should specify the particular class or classes in which an appeal is taken. A second refusal on the same grounds may be considered as final by the applicant for purpose of appeal.

37 CFR § 2.142(a) Any appeal filed under the provisions of § 2.141 must be filed within six months from the date of final refusal or the date of the action from which the appeal is taken. An appeal is taken by filing a notice of appeal in written form, as prescribed in § 2.126, and paying the appeal fee.

Chapter 1200 EX PARTE APPEALS

An appeal to the Board from a trademark examining attorney's final action, second refusal on the same ground(s), or repeated requirement, is taken by timely³⁴ filing in the Office both a notice of appeal and the prescribed appeal fee.³⁵ If the notice of appeal and fee are not timely filed, the application will be deemed to have been abandoned, and the Board cannot entertain the appeal unless applicant successfully petitions the Director to revive the application.³⁶

All requirements that have been made by the trademark examining attorney, but which are not to be the subject of appeal, should be complied with prior to the filing of an appeal.³⁷ If an applicant that files an appeal to the Board fails to comply with such a requirement, the refusal to register may be affirmed by the Board for failure to comply with that requirement, regardless of the disposition made by the Board of the issue or issues that are the subject of appeal.³⁸

If an application contains multiple classes, and a final refusal or requirement pertains to some, but not all, of the classes in the application, the applicant has the option of filing an appeal for the application as a whole, or filing a request to divide the application to sever those classes for which there has been no final requirement or refusal. In the former case, the application will not be published for opposition (or a registration will not issue in the case of an application on the Supplemental Register) for those classes for which no refusal or requirement was made final until the appeal is decided. If a request to divide the application is filed,³⁹ the classes for which there is no final requirement or refusal which have been divided out of the application will proceed to publication or registration, as appropriate, and an appeal will be instituted for the remaining classes for which an appeal has been filed.⁴⁰

1202.02 Time for Appeal

An appeal to the Board may be taken from any final action, second refusal on the same ground(s), or repeated requirement issued by the trademark examining attorney during the ex parte prosecution of an application for registration, except that a formal requirement which was the subject of a petition decided by the Director may not thereafter be the subject of an appeal to the Board.⁴¹

Chapter 1200

EX PARTE APPEALS

An appeal to the Board must be filed within six months from the date of the action from which the appeal is taken.⁴² If a notice of appeal is timely filed, but the appeal fee is not, the appeal will be untimely, and the application will be deemed to have been abandoned.⁴³

The notice of appeal to the Board (unlike other correspondence to be filed with the Board) may be filed by facsimile transmission, as well as by any of the ordinary methods for filing correspondence intended for the Board, including electronically through ESTTA in the manner prescribed in 37 CFR § 2.126(c).⁴⁴ The certificate of mailing and certificate of transmission procedures described in 37 CFR § 2.197, and the "Express Mail" procedure described in 37 CFR § 2.198, are available for the filing of an appeal to the Board.⁴⁵

During the period between issuance of a final action and expiration of the time for filing an appeal therefrom, an applicant may file a request for reconsideration, with or without an amendment and/or new evidence.⁴⁶ However, the filing of a request for reconsideration will not serve to stay the time for filing an appeal (or for petitioning the Director, if appropriate.)⁴⁷ If, upon the examining attorney's consideration of the request, all refusals and requirements are not withdrawn, and no appeal or other proper response⁴⁸ to the final refusal has been filed during the six months following issuance of the final action, the application will be abandoned.⁴⁹ Thus, if

It is noted that the examining operation has eliminated the Express Mail procedure, see TMEP § 305.03. However, because the notice of appeal is filed with the Board, rather than the examining operation, the Express Mail procedure is available for such filings.

EX PARTE APPEALS

an applicant who has filed a request for reconsideration of a final action wishes to preserve its right to appeal in the event that the request is unsuccessful, the applicant must file an appeal prior to the expiration of the six-month period following issuance of the final action.

If an appeal is late filed, but applicant timely filed some other response to the appealed action, such as an amendment or request for reconsideration, the Board will issue a written action informing applicant of the lateness of its appeal; stating that the late appeal cannot be entertained by the Board; and forwarding the application to the examining attorney for appropriate action with respect to the document that was timely filed. An applicant may petition the Director to revive an application for failure to file a timely appeal, as an appeal is considered a response to an Office action.⁵⁰

A notice of appeal is a simple statement indicating that applicant appeals from the decision of the trademark examining attorney refusing registration; reasons for appeal need not be given. The notice of appeal should bear at its top the wording "IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD," followed by information identifying the application in which the appeal is being filed, namely, applicant's name, the serial number and filing date of the application, and the involved mark. Only one copy of the notice of appeal should be submitted.

A notice of appeal need not be verified, and it may be signed by the applicant or its attorney or other authorized representative.

Although the notice of appeal must be signed, an unsigned notice of appeal will not be refused consideration if a signed copy is submitted to the Board within the time limit set in the notification of this defect by the Board.⁵¹ The same is true of other unsigned papers filed in an application during an ex parte appeal to the Board.

For further information concerning signature of submissions, see TBMP § 106.02.

The notice of appeal must be filed in written form and must meet the general requirements for submissions to the Board set forth in 37 CFR § 2.126.⁵²

The Board has no printed form for use in filing a notice of appeal. However, as an aid to applicants, the Office has prepared a suggested format for a notice of appeal. A notice of appeal need not follow the suggested format, as long as it includes the necessary information. The suggested format for a notice of appeal can be found in the Appendix of Forms to this manual.

If applicant files a request for reconsideration or amendment along with the notice of appeal, or at the time of filing the notice of appeal applicant had filed a request for reconsideration or amendment which is still pending before the examining attorney, the applicant should indicate this in its notice of appeal so that the Board can obtain the request for reconsideration prior to instituting the appeal.⁵³ However, the request for reconsideration or amendment should not be combined in the body of the notice of appeal.

1202.04 Appeal Fee

37 CFR § 2.85(e) Where the amount of the fee received on filing an appeal in connection with an application or on an application for renewal is sufficient for at least one class of goods or services but is less than the required amount because multiple classes in an application or registration are involved, the appeal or renewal application or petition for cancellation will not be refused on the ground that the amount of the fee was insufficient if the required additional amount of the fee is received in the Patent and Trademark Office within the time limit set forth in the notification of this defect by the Office, or if action is sought only for the number of classes equal to the number of fees submitted.

37 CFR § 2.141 Ex parte appeals from the Examiner of Trademarks.

Every applicant for the registration of a mark may, upon final refusal by the Examiner of Trademarks, appeal to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board upon payment of the prescribed fee for each class in the application for which an appeal is taken. An appeal which includes insufficient fees to cover all classes in the application should specify the particular class or classes in which an appeal is taken. A second refusal on the same grounds may be considered as final by the applicant for purpose of appeal.

An ex parte appeal to the Board is taken by timely filing in the Office both a notice of appeal and the prescribed appeal fee for each class for which the appeal is taken.⁵⁴ If a notice of appeal is timely filed, but the appeal fee is not, the appeal will be untimely, and the application will be deemed to have been abandoned.⁵⁵ In such circumstance, however, the applicant may file a petition to revive.⁵⁶ Further, if a party fails to timely file an appeal fee but has previously given a general authorization to charge all fees that may become due during the pendency of an application to a deposit account, such authorization will be accepted upon petition to the Director.⁵⁷

The amount of the fee required for an ex parte appeal to the Board is specified in 37 CFR § 2.6(a)(18). If an application in which an appeal is filed has more than one class of goods and/or services⁵⁸ the required fee must be paid for each class in which appeal is taken.⁵⁹ If an appeal is taken in, and an appeal fee is submitted for fewer than all of the classes in the application, the class or classes in which the appeal is taken should be specified.⁶⁰ If the final requirement or refusal does not pertain to all classes in the application, the appeal fee need be submitted only for those classes for which a final requirement or refusal has issued.⁶¹

If an applicant timely submits a fee sufficient to pay for an appeal in at least one class, but the fee submitted is less than the required amount because multiple classes in an application are involved, and applicant has not specified the class or classes to which the submitted fee applies, the Board will issue a written notice allowing applicant until a set time in which to submit the required fee or to specify the class or classes appealed. If the required fee is not submitted, or the specification made, within the time set in the notice, the fee submitted will be applied to the classes in ascending order, beginning with the lowest numbered class and including the number of classes in the application for which sufficient fees have been submitted.⁶²

1202.05 Multiple Class Applications

If an application contains multiple classes, and the final refusal or requirement pertains to some but not all of the classes, an applicant may choose to file an appeal for the application as a whole, or it may choose to file a request to divide the application.⁶³ In the former case, the classes for which an appeal has not been taken remain part of the file. After a decision on the appeal is rendered, the classes that were not part of the appeal (and those classes for which the refusal or requirement was reversed) will be published for opposition or, in the case of an application on the Supplemental Register, will proceed to registration. If a request to divide is filed along with a notice of appeal, the appeal will be suspended until action is taken on the request to divide. Those classes for which there is no final requirement or refusal, and which have been divided out, will immediately proceed to publication or, in the case of an application on the Supplemental Register, to registration, and will not be delayed pending a decision on the appeal.

If the final refusals or requirements do not apply to all the classes in a multiple class application, an appeal fee is required only those classes for which the appeal is taken, that is, those classes for which a final refusal or requirement is made. This is true whether or not the applicant requests that the application be divided.

1203 Appeal Briefs

*It should be noted that if the ground or one of the grounds for refusal is likelihood of confusion with a registered mark, it is suggested, before applicant and the examining attorney file their respective briefs, that they check the records of the Office to ascertain whether the cited registration has been cancelled or has expired.*⁶⁴

For information about requesting suspension pending a determination as to whether a cited registration has been cancelled or has expired, see TBMP § 1213.

1203.01 Form of Brief

37 CFR § 2.126 Form of submissions to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

(a) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board on paper where Board practice or the rules in this part permit. A paper submission, including exhibits and depositions, must meet the following requirements:

- (1) A paper submission must be printed in at least 11-point type and double-spaced, with the text on one side only of each sheet;*
- (2) A paper submission must be 8 to 8.5 inches (20.3 to 21.5 cm) wide and 11 to 11.69 inches (27.9 to 29.7 cm.) long, and contain no tabs or other such devices extending beyond the edges of the paper;*
- (3) If a paper submission contains dividers, the dividers must not have any extruding tabs or other devices, and must be on the same size and weight paper as the submission;*
- (4) A paper submission must not be stapled or bound;*
- (5) All pages of a paper submission must be numbered and exhibits shall be identified in the manner prescribed in § 2.123(g)(2);*

⁶⁴ See TBMP § 1212 (Cancellation or Assignment of Cited Registration).

Chapter 1200

EX PARTE APPEALS

(6) Exhibits pertaining to a paper submission must be filed on paper or CD-ROM concurrently with the paper submission, and comply with the requirements for a paper or CD-ROM submission.

(b) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board on CD-ROM where the rules in this part or Board practice permit. A CD-ROM submission must identify the parties and case number and contain a list that clearly identifies the documents and exhibits contained thereon. This information must appear in the data contained in the CD-ROM itself, on a label affixed to the CD-ROM, and on the packaging for the CD-ROM. Text in a CD-ROM submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced. A brief filed on CD-ROM must be accompanied by a single paper copy of the brief. A CD-ROM submission must be accompanied by a transmittal letter on paper that identifies the parties, the case number and the contents of the CD-ROM.

(c) Submissions may be made to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board electronically via the Internet where the rules in this part or Board practice permit, according to the parameters established by the Board and published on the Web site of the Office. Text in an electronic submission must be in at least 11-point type and double-spaced. Exhibits pertaining to an electronic submission must be made electronically as an attachment to the submission.

37 CFR § 2.142(b)(2) Briefs must be submitted in written form and must meet the requirements prescribed in § 2.126. Each brief shall contain an alphabetic index of cited cases. Without prior leave of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, a brief shall not exceed twenty-five pages in length in its entirety, including the table of contents, index of cases, description of the record, statement of the issues, recitation of the facts, argument and summary.

A brief filed in an ex parte appeal to the Board must conform to the requirements of 37 CFR § 2.142(b)(2) as well as the general requirements for submissions to the Board specified in 37 CFR § 2.126.

Only one copy of the brief should be submitted. The twenty-five pages allowed for an appeal brief does not refer to any exhibits attached to the brief. However, material that was not previously made of record should not be submitted with the appeal brief.⁶⁵ Also, the appeal brief is placed in the application file, so papers that are already in the file should not, as a matter of course, be resubmitted as exhibits to the brief. Most appeal briefs are far less than the twenty-five pages allowed by the rule and, given the limited issues and record in an appeal, the Board will rarely grant a motion for leave to exceed the twenty-five page limit.⁶⁶ If an applicant files a brief that exceeds the twenty-five page limit without prior leave of the Board, the brief will not be considered, although the failure to file a conforming brief will not be treated as a failure to file a brief which would result in the dismissal of the appeal.

The brief should indicate that it is an appeal brief, and include information identifying the application in which it is filed, namely, the applicant's name, the serial number and filing date of the application, and the mark sought to be registered.⁶⁷ An appeal brief should include an alphabetic index of cited cases⁶⁸ but need not include the formal requirements, such as a table of contents and description of the record, of a trial brief.⁶⁹

For further information concerning the form and contents of the trademark examining attorney's appeal brief, in particular, see TMEP § 1501.02.

1203.02 Time for Filing Brief

1203.02(a) Applicant's Main Brief

37 CFR § 2.142(b)(1) The brief of appellant shall be filed within sixty days from the date of appeal. If the brief is not filed within the time allowed, the appeal may be dismissed. The examiner shall, within sixty days after the brief of appellant is sent to the examiner, file with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board a written brief answering the brief of appellant and shall mail a copy of the brief to the appellant. The appellant may file a reply brief within twenty days from the date of mailing of the brief of the examiner.

An applicant's main brief in an ex parte appeal to the Board must be filed within 60 days from the date of appeal, or within an extension of time for that purpose. The time for filing the brief is set by rule; therefore, although the Board attempts to send the applicant an acknowledgement of the receipt of the notice of appeal which indicates the date the brief is due, the failure to receive such acknowledgement does not affect the deadline for such filing.⁷⁰ If no brief is filed, the appeal will be dismissed.⁷¹ If the brief is filed late, applicant will be allowed an opportunity to submit an explanation for the late filing; in the absence of an adequate explanation, the appeal will be dismissed. The determination of whether to accept the brief will depend on the circumstances, including the length of time after the due date that the brief is filed.

If the appeal is dismissed for failure to file a timely brief, applicant's recourse is to file a petition to the Director under the provisions of 37 CFR § 2.146(a)(3). Because such a petition invokes the supervisory authority of the Director, it is determined under the clear error/abuse of discretion standard, that is, whether the Board has committed clear error or abused its discretion in its determination not to accept the late-filed brief.⁷² The applicant should not file a petition to the Director until it has first filed with the Board a request/motion to accept the late-filed brief, and that request/motion has been denied.

Further, a petition to revive is not available when applicant has failed to file an appeal brief or has filed its appeal brief late. The petition to revive procedure provided in 37 CFR § 2.66(a) applies only to situations in which the applicant did not timely respond to an Office action or notice of allowance. The filing of an appeal brief is not a response to an Office action. Thus, the "unintentional delay" standard of 37 CFR § 2.66(a) does not apply to the determination of whether a late-filed brief will be accepted.

If a notice of appeal (accompanied by the required fee) is filed with a certificate of mailing by first-class mail pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.197, the date of mailing specified in the certificate will be used for determining the timeliness of the notice of appeal. However, the actual date of receipt of the notice of appeal in the Office will be used for all other purposes, including the running of the time for filing applicant's main brief.⁷³

If an applicant that has filed a timely request for reconsideration of a final action, second refusal on the same ground(s), or repeated requirement, also files a timely appeal, and the examining attorney has not yet considered the request for reconsideration when the appeal is filed, or if applicant files a request for reconsideration along with the notice of appeal, the file of the application, with the appeal and the request for reconsideration, will be forwarded to the Board. However, because papers may become separated, if applicant files a request for reconsideration along with the notice of appeal, it should indicate in the notice of appeal that a request for reconsideration is being filed contemporaneously. Board will acknowledge receipt of the appeal and request, suspend further proceedings (including applicant's time for filing its appeal brief) with respect to the appeal, and remand the application to the examining attorney for consideration of the request. Because proceedings in the appeal are automatically suspended when a request for reconsideration is pending, the applicant should not file its appeal brief within sixty days of the filing of the notice of appeal, as provided by 37 CFR § 2.142(b)(1), even if the Board has not issued its order suspending proceedings prior to the date the appeal brief would otherwise be due. Nor does the applicant need to verify with the Board that the due date for its brief will be changed if necessary.⁷⁴

If, upon the examining attorney's consideration of the request for reconsideration, all refusals and requirements are not withdrawn, and a new final refusal to register is issued (either in the examining attorney's action on the request for reconsideration, or in a subsequent action)⁷⁵ the six-month response clause should be omitted from the paper in which such action is taken; the file of the case should be returned to the Board; proceedings with respect to the appeal will be resumed; and applicant will be allowed time in which to file its appeal brief. If the examining attorney approves the application for publication (or for registration, in the case of a Supplemental Register application), the appeal will be moot. The examining attorney should so notify the applicant either in a written action or by telephone.⁷⁶

1203.02(b) Trademark Examining Attorney's Brief

When the applicant's main appeal brief has been received by the Board and entered in the application file, the Board sends the file to the trademark examining attorney. Within 60 days after the date of the Board's written action forwarding the file to the examining attorney, or within an extension of time for the purpose, the examining attorney must file an appeal brief answering the applicant's main brief.⁷⁷ The examining attorney must also send a copy of his or her brief to the applicant.⁷⁸ If the examining attorney's brief is late filed, the Board may exclude it in the absence of an adequate explanation for the late filing.⁷⁹

If the examining attorney, having received the application for preparation of his or her appeal brief, is persuaded, by applicant's appeal brief, that applicant is entitled to the registration sought, the examining attorney may approve the application for publication (or for registration, in the case of a Supplemental Register application), and the appeal will be moot. The examining attorney should notify the applicant by telephone.⁸⁰ If there is more than one ground of refusal or requirement and the examining attorney determines that one ground or requirement is no longer tenable, the examining attorney should state in his or her appeal brief that the refusal or requirement has been withdrawn. The appeal will then go forward on the remaining ground(s)/requirement(s). NOTE: Even if the examining attorney does not specifically state in the appeal brief that the refusal or requirement has been withdrawn, the Board may treat the refusal/requirement to have been withdrawn if no mention is made of it in the brief.⁸¹

On the other hand, the examining attorney, having received the application for preparation of his or her appeal brief, may decide that registration should be refused on an additional ground, or that a new requirement should be made, or that the application should be suspended. In that event, the examining attorney, during the time for and instead of preparing an appeal brief, should send to the Board a written request that the application be remanded to him or her for further examination.⁸² If the request is denied, the Board will reset the examining attorney's time in which to file an appeal brief.⁸³ If the request is granted, the Board will suspend proceedings with respect to the appeal, and remand the application to the examining attorney for further examination in accordance with the request for remand. If, during the course of the further examination, the application is ultimately approved for publication (or for registration, in the case of a Supplemental Register application), the appeal will be moot. If the examining attorney refuses registration on a new ground, or makes a new requirement, and the new refusal or requirement is ultimately made final, the new final action should not include a six-month response clause; the application should be returned to the Board; and the Board will resume proceedings with respect to the appeal and allow applicant 60 days in which to submit a supplemental appeal brief directed to the new issue or issues, following which the application will be returned to the examining attorney for preparation of his or her appeal brief.

1203.02(c) Applicant's Reply Brief

Within 20 days from the mailing date of the trademark examining attorney's appeal brief, or within an extension of time for the purpose, the applicant may, if it so desires, file a reply brief.⁸⁴ However, the filing of a reply brief is not mandatory.

If the applicant files a reply brief, the Board will notify the trademark examining attorney. If the examining attorney, having read the applicant's reply brief, is persuaded thereby that applicant is entitled to the registration sought, the examining attorney may approve the application for publication (or for registration, in the case of a Supplemental Register application), and the appeal will be moot. The examining attorney should advise the Board (by e-mail to the Board's administrator) that the application is being approved for publication (or registration) as soon as possible after being notified of the reply brief in order to avoid the possibility of the Board's scheduling an oral argument or drafting a decision. The examining attorney should also notify the applicant by telephone.⁸⁵

There is no provision in the rules for the filing by the examining attorney of a written response to the applicant's reply brief. However, if the applicant requests an oral hearing, the examining attorney may respond orally, at the oral hearing, to arguments raised in applicant's reply brief.⁸⁶

1203.02(d) Extension of Time for Filing Brief

An extension of time for filing an appeal brief in an ex parte appeal to the Board may be granted by the Board upon written request showing good cause for the requested extension.⁸⁷ The determination of good cause will be based upon all relevant circumstances, including the length of time of any previously granted extensions. Thus, a reason such as the press of other business, which may be sufficient to show good cause for a first extension of thirty days, may not be sufficient for a second extension of time. Depending on the totality of the circumstances, good cause has been found when there has been an appointment of a new attorney, illness, the need to get instructions from a foreign applicant, and attempting to negotiate a consent agreement. If a request is found not to be sufficient to warrant an extension, the Board may allow applicant a limited period of time, such as ten days, in which to file the appeal brief, or may grant the requested extension, but advise that no further extensions will be granted absent a showing of extraordinary circumstances.

1203.02(e) Material Submitted with Briefs

The record in the application should be complete prior to the filing of an appeal.⁸⁸ Exhibits attached to a brief that were not made of record during examination are untimely, and generally will not be considered.⁸⁹ However, if the examining attorney, in his or her brief, discusses the exhibits attached to the applicant's brief without objecting to them, or if applicant discusses, in its reply brief, exhibits attached to the examining attorney's brief without objection, they will be deemed to have been stipulated into the record and will be considered.⁹⁰

1203.02(g) Waiver of Claim or Requirement in Brief

If applicant, in its appeal brief, does not assert a claim made during prosecution, it may be deemed waived by the Board.⁹² Similarly, if applicant, in its appeal brief, complies with a requirement and the examining attorney does not discuss the requirement, or if the examining attorney does not discuss a ground for refusal in his brief, the requirement or refusal may be deemed withdrawn.⁹³ However, the better practice, if applicant seeks to comply with a requirement, is to request remand rather than simply offering the amendment as part of its brief.⁹⁴

1204 Effect of Request for Reconsideration of Final Action

During the period between issuance of a final action and expiration of the time for filing an appeal therefrom, an applicant may file a request for reconsideration, with or without an amendment and/or new evidence.⁹⁵ However, the filing of a request for reconsideration will not serve to stay the time for filing an appeal (or for petitioning the Director, if appropriate).⁹⁶ If, upon the examining attorney's consideration of the request, all refusals and requirements are not withdrawn, and no appeal or other proper response⁹⁷ to the final refusal has been filed during the six months following issuance of the final action, the application will be abandoned.⁹⁸ Thus, if an applicant who has filed a request for reconsideration of a final action wishes to preserve its right to appeal in the event that the request is unsuccessful, the applicant must file an appeal prior to the expiration of the six-month period following issuance of the final action.

EX PARTE APPEALS

When an applicant files, in response to a final action or a second refusal on the same ground(s), or a repeated requirement, both a request for reconsideration and an appeal, the request for reconsideration should be made by separate submission and should specify the reasons why applicant believes reconsideration is warranted. The request for reconsideration should not be combined in the body of the notice of appeal; however, the applicant should indicate, in the notice of appeal, that a request for reconsideration has also been filed, so that the Board will be alerted to obtain that submission prior to instituting the appeal.⁹⁹

A request for reconsideration filed more than six months from the final refusal is treated by the Board as a request for remand.¹⁰⁰ A request for reconsideration or request for remand should not be combined with the applicant's appeal brief.¹⁰¹

If an applicant which has filed a timely request for reconsideration of a final action, second refusal on the same ground(s), or repeated requirement, also files a timely appeal, and the examining attorney has not yet considered the request for reconsideration when the appeal is filed, the file of the application, with the appeal and the request for reconsideration, will be forwarded to the Board. The Board will acknowledge receipt of the appeal and request, suspend further proceedings (including applicant's time for filing its appeal brief) with respect to the appeal, and remand the application to the examining attorney for consideration of the request. Where an applicant has timely filed both a notice of appeal and a request for reconsideration, but has not heard from the Board within sixty days with regard to the appeal and reconsideration request, the applicant should not file its appeal brief. Rather, it may assume that the Board will institute the appeal, and then suspend proceedings and remand the application to the examining attorney, so that the due date for the appeal brief will be reset in the event that the examining attorney denies the request for reconsideration.¹⁰² The applicant does not need to verify with the Board that the due date for its brief on appeal will be changed if necessary.¹⁰³

In particular, if the request for reconsideration raises a new issue, the examining attorney must give the applicant an opportunity to respond before issuing a new final refusal and returning the file to the Board. New issues are typically raised by a request for reconsideration which amends the application to seek registration under the provisions of Section 2(f) of the Trademark Act, 15

U.S.C. § 1052(f), or to seek registration on the Supplemental Register, or to amend the identification of goods, if a requirement for an acceptable identification of goods was not the subject of the final Office action.¹⁰⁴ If the examining attorney believes that the outstanding issue(s) can be resolved, the examining attorney may contact applicant and attempt to work out a resolution.

Occasionally when an applicant files its notice of appeal and a request for reconsideration at the same time, the papers become separated, and the examining attorney acts on the request for reconsideration before the Board can institute the appeal and remand the application. In that event, the Board will institute the appeal after the examining attorney acts on the request for reconsideration. Depending on the action the examining attorney has taken, the Board will either remand the application to the examining attorney (generally to await the applicant's response to a nonfinal Office action) or, if the examining attorney has denied the request for reconsideration, will proceed with the appeal, and allow applicant 60 days from the mailing date of the Board action in which to file its appeal brief. The date for filing the appeal brief is reset in this situation because the applicant, at the time it filed its notice of appeal and request for reconsideration, had the expectation that the Board would follow its normal procedure and suspend proceedings in the appeal.¹⁰⁵

If, after suspension and remand for consideration by the examining attorney of a timely request for reconsideration, the examining attorney approves the application for publication (or for registration, in the case of a Supplemental Register application), the appeal will be moot. However, the examining attorney should notify the applicant by telephone.¹⁰⁶ If, upon the examining attorney's consideration of the request, all refusals and requirements are not withdrawn, and a new final refusal to register or action maintaining the finality of a prior Office action is issued (either in the examining attorney's action on the request for reconsideration, or in a subsequent action), the six-month response clause should be omitted from the paper in which such action is taken; the file of the case should be returned to the Board; proceedings with respect to the appeal will be resumed; and applicant will be allowed time in which to file its appeal brief. The examining attorney must, prior to returning the file to the Board to resume proceedings in the appeal, issue a written Office action apprising applicant of that fact, indicating the examining attorney's withdrawal and maintenance of any refusals or requirements and acceptance of any amendments; it is not sufficient to make a note in the file and return the file to the Board.

¹⁰⁴ See TMEP § 714.05 and TBMP § 1201.02 for examples of new issues that would preclude the issuance of a final action.

¹⁰⁵ See In re Live Earth Products Inc., supra.

¹⁰⁶ See TMEP § 715.04.

Chapter 1200 EX PARTE APPEALS

If an appeal is late filed, but applicant timely filed a request for reconsideration, the Board will issue an action informing applicant of the lateness of its appeal, stating that the late appeal cannot be entertained by the Board, and forwarding the application to the examining attorney for consideration of the request for reconsideration.¹⁰⁷

A timely request for reconsideration of an appealed action may be accompanied by an amendment and/or by additional evidence. The evidentiary record in an application should be complete prior to the filing of an appeal, and additional evidence filed after appeal normally will be given no consideration by the Board.¹⁰⁸ The Board will regard additional evidence a proper part of the record on appeal if it is submitted, together with a request for reconsideration, before the expiration of the six-month response period, even if it is submitted after the notice of appeal is filed.¹⁰⁹

If the examining attorney, upon consideration of a request for reconsideration (made with or without new evidence), does not find the request persuasive, and issues a new final or nonfinal action, the examining attorney may submit therewith new evidence directed to the issue(s) for which reconsideration is sought. Unless the action is a nonfinal action, the applicant may not submit additional evidence, even in response to evidence submitted by the examining attorney. If the applicant wishes to submit additional evidence, it must file a request for remand.¹¹⁰

1205 Amendment of Application During Appeal

If, within six months following the issuance of a final action, or a second refusal on the same ground(s), or a repeated requirement, applicant files both an amendment to its application and an ex parte appeal to the Board, and the examining attorney has not yet acted on the amendment when the appeal is filed, the file of the application, with the amendment and the appeal, will be forwarded to the Board. However, because of the possibility that papers may be separated, applicant should indicate in its notice of appeal that it has also filed an amendment with the notice of appeal.¹¹¹ The Board will acknowledge receipt of the amendment and appeal, suspend further proceedings (including applicant's time for filing its appeal brief,¹¹² with respect to the appeal, and remand the application to the trademark examining attorney for consideration of the amendment. The Board's remand letter will also include instructions to the examining attorney with respect to the further actions that may and/or should be taken by the examining attorney in conjunction with the examining attorney's consideration of the amendment.¹¹³ Further, if the examining attorney believes that the outstanding issue(s) can be resolved, the examining attorney may contact applicant and attempt to work out a resolution. The examining attorney may not, however, assert a new refusal or requirement or submit evidence unrelated to the amendment or material submitted therewith, unless the examining attorney files with the Board a request under 37 CFR § 2.142(f)(6) for remand to assert the new refusal or requirement or submit additional evidence, and the request is granted.

Where an applicant has timely filed both a notice of appeal and an amendment, but has not heard from the Board within sixty days with regard to the appeal and amendment, the applicant should not file its appeal brief. Rather, it may assume that the Board will institute the appeal, and then suspend proceedings and remand the application to the examining attorney, so that the due date for the appeal brief will be reset in the event that the amendment does not place the application in condition for publication (or registration, in the case of an application on the Supplemental Registration). The applicant does not need to verify with the Board that the due date for its brief on appeal will be changed if necessary.¹¹⁴

If the examining attorney is persuaded, on the basis of the amendment, that applicant is entitled to the registration sought, the examining attorney may approve the application for publication (or for registration, in the case of a Supplemental Register application), and the appeal will be moot. The examining attorney should notify the applicant by telephone.¹¹⁵

If the examining attorney, after consideration of the amendment filed after appeal, accepts the amendment but adheres to the final refusal to register, either because there are other grounds for refusal or requirements which have not been satisfied, or because the amendment, while acceptable, does not obviate the requirement/refusal, the examining attorney should issue a written action to that effect. That is, the Office action should indicate that the amendment has been accepted, and also indicate what refusals/requirements remain. The six-month response clause should be omitted from the paper in which such action is taken; the file of the case should be returned to the Board; proceedings with respect to the appeal will be resumed; and applicant will be allowed time in which to file its appeal brief. If the examining attorney refuses to accept the amendment, and the amendment raises a new issue, the examining attorney must allow applicant an opportunity to respond before issuing a final refusal and returning the file of the application to the Board. Therefore, the first Office action that considers and refuses the amendment must be a nonfinal action, and must include the six-month response clause.¹¹⁶

If an applicant that has filed a timely appeal to the Board files an amendment to its application more than six months after the issuance of the final action, or the second refusal on the same ground(s), or the repeated requirement, from which the appeal was taken, the Board will treat the amendment as a request for remand.¹¹⁷ Such a request will be granted upon a showing of good cause. Good cause will be found, for example, when the amendment is an attempt to comply with a requirement, such as an amendment to the identification of goods in response to a requirement for an acceptable identification, or when the amendment will obviate a ground for refusal, such as an amendment to the Supplemental Register or an amendment to assert a Section 2(f) claim (15 U.S.C. § 1052(f)) in order to avoid or overcome a refusal under Sections 2(e)(1), 2(e)(2) or 2(e)(4) of the Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1052(e)(1), 1052(e)(2) or 1052(e)(4). If the remand is granted, the Board will suspend proceedings with respect to the appeal and remand the application to the examining attorney for consideration of the amendment. The Board's remand letter will also include instructions to the examining attorney with respect to the further actions that may and/or should be taken by the examining attorney in conjunction with the examining attorney's consideration of the amendment. Remand in an ex parte appeal is a matter of discretion with the Board, and the Board may refuse to remand for consideration of an amendment filed more than six months after the date of the action from which the appeal was taken, if, for example, the amendment was filed in bad faith, or would serve no useful purpose. Further, if remand is made, the Board's instructions to the examining attorney concerning the handling of the amendment, and further action in connection therewith, may differ, for an amendment filed more than six months after the date of the action from which the appeal was taken, from those given by the Board for an amendment filed within six months after that date.

If an appeal is late filed, but applicant timely filed an amendment to its involved application, the Board will issue a written action informing applicant of the lateness of its appeal; stating that the late appeal cannot be entertained by the Board; and forwarding the application to the examining attorney for appropriate action with respect to the amendment.

¹¹⁶ See TBMP § 1201.02 (Premature Final) and TMEP § 714.05 regarding amendments which raise new issues.

¹¹⁷ See TBMP § 1209.04 (Remand Upon Request by Applicant).

Chapter 1200

EX PARTE APPEALS

If, at the time applicant files its appeal brief, it also wishes to amend its application in order to, for example, attempt to comply with a final requirement or to overcome a final refusal, the proper procedure is to file a request for remand and a request to suspend proceedings in the appeal pending the Board's decision on the request for remand.¹¹⁸ However, occasionally an applicant will include an amendment as part of its brief. If this amendment is noted by the Board (and frequently it will not be noted if it is not made by a separate paper), the Board will treat the proposed amendment as a request for remand, and consider whether good cause has been shown in determining the request. If the Board does not note the request, but the examining attorney, upon reviewing applicant's appeal brief, considers the amendment and allows it, the amendment will be entered.¹¹⁹

An application that has been considered and decided on appeal may be amended, if at all, only in accordance with 37 CFR § 2.142(g).¹²⁰

1205.02 Request to Divide

An applicant may submit a request to divide the application to divide out goods or classes prior to, with or after the filing of a notice of appeal.¹²¹ An applicant may wish to submit such a request in a situation where a refusal to register applies only to certain classes in a multi-class application or to certain goods or services within a class in either a single-class or multi-class application. If an applicant submits a request to divide along with a notice of appeal, the Board will institute the appeal, suspend proceedings in it, and forward the file to the ITU/Divisional Unit of the Office for action on the request to divide. If a request to divide is pending at the time a notice of appeal is submitted, the Board will await receipt of the divided applications after the ITU/Divisional Unit has acted on the request to divide, and then institute the appeal.

In either situation, after the request to divide has been processed, the Board receives both the original file (parent application) and the new file created by the division (child application). If the appeal applies to only one of the files, the Board will institute the appeal with respect to that file, and allow the applicant 60 days in which to submit its appeal brief. If the appeal applies to both files, the Board will resume action in the appeals with respect to both files. In the latter situation, the Board may consolidate the appeals.

¹¹⁸ See above discussion.

¹¹⁹ See In re Broyhill Furniture Industries Inc., 60 USPQ2d 1511, 1512 n.2 (TTAB 2001) (one ground for refusal was requirement for translation of mark; because applicant offered translation in appeal brief and examining attorney did not address the issue in his brief, Board treated requirement as moot).

¹²⁰ For further information concerning amendment after decision on appeal, see TBMP § 1218 and TMEP § 1501.06.

¹²¹ See generally, TMEP § 1110 regarding requests to divide.

Chapter 1200

EX PARTE APPEALS

If the appeal applies to only one of the files, and if applicant had previously submitted a request for reconsideration or an amendment with respect to this file, the Board will suspend action on the appeal and remand the application to the examining attorney, in the same procedure that is followed for any request for reconsideration or amendment.¹²² The remaining file will be forwarded to the examining attorney for further action, as appropriate. Such action may be approval of the application for publication, or for consideration of a request for reconsideration or amendment. However, unless the examining attorney issues a new final action with respect to that application, applicant may not subsequently submit a notice of appeal.

If a request to divide is submitted after an appeal is instituted, the Board will determine whether to suspend action on the appeal and forward the file to the ITU/Divisional Unit, or defer the processing of the request to divide and continue proceedings in the appeal. Such a determination will be based on such factors as the reason for the request to divide (e.g., if the division will result in the withdrawal of the refusal as to certain of the classes) and the stage of the appeal.

1206 Amendment to Allege Use; Statement of Use

1206.01 Amendment to Allege Use

An amendment to allege use under Section 1(c) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(c), may be filed in an intent-to-use application, i.e., an application under Section 1(b) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(b), at any time between the filing of the application and the date the trademark examining attorney approves the mark for publication. Thereafter, an allegation of use may be submitted only as a statement of use under Section 1(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(d), after the issuance of a notice of allowance under Section 13(b)(2) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1063(b)(2).¹²³ Thus, because an ex parte appeal occurs prior to the approval of a mark for publication, an amendment to allege use filed during the pendency of an ex parte appeal to the Board is timely.¹²⁴

If an applicant that has filed an amendment to allege use during the six-month response period following issuance of a final action also files a timely appeal, and the examining attorney has not yet acted on the amendment to allege use when the appeal is filed, the file of the application, with the appeal and the amendment to allege use, will be forwarded to the Board. The Board will acknowledge receipt of the appeal and amendment to allege use, suspend further proceedings (including applicant's time for filing its appeal brief) with respect to the appeal, and remand the application to the examining attorney for consideration of the amendment to allege use. That is, the amendment to allege use will be handled by the Board in the same manner as any other amendment filed during the six-month response period following issuance of a final action.¹²⁵ Applicant should not file its appeal brief within sixty days of the filing of the notice of appeal, as provided by 37 CFR § 2.142(b)(1), even if the Board has not issued its order suspending proceedings prior to the date the appeal brief would otherwise be due. Nor does the applicant need to verify with the Board that the due date for its brief will be changed if necessary. See TBMP § 1203.02(a). However, because papers may become separated, if applicant files an amendment to allege use along with the notice of appeal, it should indicate in the notice of appeal that an amendment to allege use is being filed contemporaneously.¹²⁶ If, in the course of examination of the amendment to allege use, the application is approved for publication (or for registration, in the case of an application amended to seek registration on the Supplemental Register), or becomes abandoned, the appeal will be moot. The examining attorney should so notify the applicant, by telephone or e-mail, if e-mail communications have been authorized.¹²⁷ If the examining attorney, after consideration of the amendment to allege use, adheres to the final refusal to register, or ultimately issues a new final refusal to register, the six-month response clause should be omitted from the paper in which such action is taken; the file of the case should be returned to the Board; proceedings with respect to the appeal will be resumed; and further appropriate action will be taken therein.¹²⁸

If an applicant which has filed a timely appeal to the Board files an amendment to allege use, in the application which is the subject of the appeal, more than six months after issuance of the appealed action, the Board may, in its discretion, suspend proceedings with respect to the appeal and remand the application to the examining attorney for consideration of the amendment to allege use. Alternatively, the Board may continue proceedings with respect to the appeal, thus deferring examination of the amendment to allege use until after final determination of the appeal. If the final determination of the appeal is adverse to applicant, the amendment to allege use will be moot.

1206.02 Statement of Use

A statement of use under Section 1(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(d), is premature if it is filed in an intent-to-use application, i.e., an application under Section 1(b) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(b), prior to the issuance of a notice of allowance under Section 13(b)(2) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1063(b)(2).¹²⁹

A notice of allowance is not issued in an intent-to-use application (for which no amendment to allege use under Section 1(c) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051(c) has been timely filed and accepted) unless and until the application is approved for publication, and then published in the Official Gazette for opposition; no timely opposition is filed or all oppositions filed are dismissed; and no interference is declared.¹³⁰

Therefore, a statement of use filed during an ex parte appeal to the Board is premature. A premature statement of use will not be considered.¹³¹ Instead, the premature statement of use will be returned to applicant and the fee will be refunded.

1207 Submission of Evidence During Appeal

1207.01 General Rule--Evidence Submitted After Appeal Untimely

37 CFR § 2.142(d) The record in the application should be complete prior to the filing of an appeal. The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board will ordinarily not consider additional evidence filed with the Board by the appellant or by the examiner after the appeal is filed. After an appeal is filed, if the appellant or the examiner desires to introduce additional evidence, the appellant or the examiner may request the Board to suspend the appeal and to remand the application for further examination.

The evidentiary record in an application should be complete prior to the filing of an ex parte appeal to the Board. Additional evidence filed after appeal normally will be given no consideration by the Board.¹³²

However, if the applicant or the examining attorney submits excerpts from articles, the nonoffering party may submit the complete article, even if such submission is made after the appeal is filed.¹³³ If the nonoffering party wishes to have the entire article considered, the better practice is to submit the article with a request for remand. However, because the party submitting the excerpt of the article had the opportunity to review the entire article, if the article is submitted with an appeal brief the Board need not remand the application, and may instead consider the article as part of the record.¹³⁴

EX PARTE APPEALS

A request under 37 CFR § 2.142(d) to suspend and remand for additional evidence must be filed prior to the rendering of the Board's final decision on the appeal.¹³⁶ In addition, the request must include a showing of good cause therefor (which may take the form of a satisfactory explanation as to why the evidence was not filed prior to appeal), and be accompanied by the additional evidence sought to be introduced.¹³⁷ The length of the delay in making the request after the reason for the remand becomes known, or the point in the appeal process at which the request for remand is made, will be considered in the determination of whether good cause exists. Generally, the later in the appeal proceeding that the request for remand is filed, the stronger the reason that must be given for good cause to be found.¹³⁸

Examples of circumstances that have been found to constitute good cause for a remand for additional evidence include the following:

- (1) The evidence was not previously available.¹³⁹ Even if the evidence was not previously available, good cause may not be found if the newly available evidence is merely cumulative in nature. Thus, if the examining attorney requests remand in order to submit an article which was published subsequent to the filing of the appeal, but which is of substantially the same nature as articles previously made of record, the request may be denied. Nor can the examining attorney use the subsequent publication of a single article to make of record articles which were previously available. Similarly, if the applicant requests remand to make of record its most recent monthly sales or advertising figures in support of a Section 2(f) claim, the request may be denied. There is a point at which prosecution or examination must come to an end.
- (2) A new attorney for the applicant, or a new examining attorney, has taken over the case and wishes to supplement the evidence of record. The transfer of a case from one firm member to another is not considered by the Board to constitute good cause for a remand under the "new attorney" rationale. However, the transfer of the case from in-house counsel to an outside firm is treated as a new attorney taking over the case. Similarly, a different examining attorney being assigned to the file is treated as a new attorney taking over the case.

(3) The applicant and examining attorney have agreed to the remand.

In addition, because a consent agreement offered in response to a refusal to register under Section 2(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d)¹⁴⁰ is inherently difficult and time-consuming to obtain, and may be highly persuasive of registrability, the Board will grant a request to suspend and remand for consideration of a consent agreement if the request, accompanied by the consent agreement, is filed at any time prior to the rendering of the Board's final decision on the appeal.

If a request to remand for additional evidence is granted, the nonrequesting party may submit additional evidence in response to the evidence submitted with the request.¹⁴¹

When an applicant's request to suspend and remand for additional evidence is granted, and the application is remanded to the examining attorney for further examination, the examining attorney may approve the application for publication (or for registration, in the case of a Supplemental Register application), or adhere to the action from which the appeal was taken. The examining attorney may also issue a new nonfinal action asserting any new refusal or requirement necessitated by the new evidence. The examining attorney may not, however, assert a new refusal or requirement unrelated to the new evidence, unless the examining attorney files with the Board a request under 37 CFR § 2.142(f)(6) for remand to assert the new refusal or requirement, and the request is granted. If the examining attorney is persuaded, on the basis of the new evidence, that applicant is entitled to the registration sought, and approves the application for publication (or for registration, in the case of a Supplemental Register application), the appeal will be moot. However, the examining attorney should so notify the applicant by telephone.¹⁴² If the examining attorney, after consideration of the new evidence, adheres to the final refusal to register, or ultimately issues a new final refusal to register, the six-month response clause should be omitted from the action; the file of the case should be returned to the Board; proceedings with respect to the appeal will be resumed; and further appropriate action will be taken therein.

EX PARTE APPEALS

When an examining attorney's request to suspend and remand for additional evidence is granted, the Board, in its action granting the request, will allow the examining attorney time in which to issue an Office action (with no six-month response clause) relating to the new evidence to be submitted therewith. After the examining attorney's new action has been issued, the application should be returned to the Board; proceedings with respect to the appeal will be resumed; applicant will be allowed an opportunity to submit, if it so desires, responsive evidence; and further appropriate action with respect to the appeal will be taken. If applicant's appeal brief has already been filed, applicant will be allowed an opportunity, if it so desires, to file a supplemental brief directed to the new evidence submitted by the examining attorney.

1207.03 Evidence Considered Due to Actions of Nonoffering Party

Evidence submitted after appeal, without a granted request to suspend and remand for additional evidence¹⁴³ may be considered by the Board, despite its untimeliness, if the nonoffering party (1) does not object to the new evidence, and (2) discusses the new evidence or otherwise affirmatively treats it as being of record.¹⁴⁴ In such a situation, the Board may consider evidence submitted by the nonoffering party to rebut the untimely evidence.¹⁴⁵

Copies of third-party registrations that are submitted with an applicant's brief may be considered in certain circumstances, even if the examining attorney objects to the registrations or does not discuss them in the examining attorney's brief. If the applicant, during the prosecution of the application, provided a listing of third-party registrations, without also submitting actual copies of the registrations, and the examining attorney did not object or otherwise advise applicant that a listing is insufficient to make such registrations of record at a point when the applicant could cure the insufficiency, the examining attorney will be deemed to have waived any objection as to improper form.¹⁴⁶

1207.04 Evidence Filed With Timely Request for Reconsideration

A timely request for reconsideration of an appealed action may be accompanied by additional evidence, which will thereby be made part of the evidentiary record in the application. There is no need, in such a situation, for a 37 CFR § 2.142(d) request to suspend and remand for additional evidence. Evidence submitted with a timely request for reconsideration of an appealed action, that is, a request filed during the six-month response period following issuance of the appealed action, is considered by the Board to have been filed prior to appeal, even if the notice of appeal was, in fact, filed earlier in the six-month response period than the request for reconsideration.¹⁴⁷

When a timely request for reconsideration of an appealed action is filed (with or without new evidence), the examining attorney may submit, with his or her response to the request, new evidence directed to the issue(s) for which reconsideration is sought. However, the applicant may not submit additional evidence in response to any evidence submitted by the examining attorney unless the examining attorney's action is a nonfinal action to which a response may be filed. Otherwise, if the applicant wishes to submit additional evidence, it must file a request for remand.¹⁴⁸

1207.05 Submission of Evidence Upon Remand for New Refusal

Additional evidence may be submitted, both by the examining attorney and by the applicant, if (1) an appealed application is remanded by the Board for further examination under 37 CFR § 2.142(f) (i.e., sua sponte remand by the Board when it appears to the Board that an issue not previously raised may render the mark of the applicant unregistrable),¹⁴⁹ or under 37 CFR § 2.142(f)(6) (i.e., remand by the Board upon written request by the examining attorney when it appears to the examining attorney that an issue not involved in the appeal may render the mark of the applicant unregistrable),¹⁵⁰ and (2) the examining attorney, upon remand, does, in fact, issue a new refusal to register or requirement.¹⁵¹ If no new refusal or requirement is made, and the examining attorney instead returns the file to the Board, no additional evidence may be submitted.¹⁵²

1207.06 Letter of Protest Evidence

A third party that has knowledge of facts bearing upon the registrability of a mark in a pending application may bring such information to the attention of the Office by filing, with the Office of the Commissioner for Trademarks, a "letter of protest," that is, a letter that recites the facts and which is accompanied by supporting evidence. The Administrator for Trademark Identifications, Classifications and Practice ("Administrator") will determine whether the information should be given to the trademark examining attorney for consideration.¹⁵³ If the examining attorney issues an Office action that includes any materials submitted with the letter of protest, that material becomes part of the record of the file for appeal.¹⁵⁴

Proceedings in an ex parte appeal will not be suspended pending determination by the Commissioner for Trademark's Office of a letter of protest. However, if a letter of protest is granted during the pendency of an ex parte appeal, and the examining attorney, having considered the supporting evidence submitted with the letter of protest, wishes to make that evidence of record in the application, that is, wishes to rely on the evidence to support the appealed refusal of registration, the examining attorney may file a written request with the Board, pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.142(d), to suspend the appeal and remand the application for further examination.¹⁵⁵

The request must be filed prior to the rendering of the Board's final decision on the appeal, and must be accompanied by the additional evidence sought to be introduced.¹⁵⁶ In addition, the request must include a showing of good cause therefor, in the same manner as any other request to remand for additional evidence.¹⁵⁷

EX PARTE APPEALS

Evidentiary value of material submitted by a third party through a letter of protest will depend on whether it meets evidentiary requirements for authentication or foundation, identified as to nature or source and are not self-authenticating.¹⁵⁸

1208 Treatment of Evidence

The Board generally takes a somewhat more permissive stance with respect to the admissibility and probative value of evidence in an ex parte proceeding than it does in an inter partes proceeding. That is, in an ex parte proceeding the Board tolerates some relaxation of the technical requirements for evidence and focuses instead on the spirit and essence of the rules of evidence. The reason for this more relaxed approach in ex parte cases is that in an ex parte proceeding, there is no cross-examination of witnesses or any compelling need for the strict safeguards required in an inter partes proceeding.¹⁵⁹

For example, the Board is somewhat more lenient in its approach in the consideration of surveys in ex parte proceedings than inter partes proceedings.¹⁶⁰ Also, the affidavit or 37 CFR § 2.20 declaration is an established method for the introduction of evidence in an ex parte proceeding.¹⁶¹ In an inter partes proceeding, however, evidence may not be offered in affidavit or 37 CFR § 2.20 declaration form except by agreement of the parties.¹⁶²

It is the better practice to provide evidence as to sales figures and the like by affidavit or declaration. However, representations by applicant's counsel may, in certain circumstances, be accepted.¹⁶³ Affidavits or declarations may have probative value even if they are form documents, or are prepared by applicant's attorney.¹⁶⁴

However, while the evidentiary requirements in an ex parte record are less formal than in an inter partes context, documents submitted by a third party by letter of protest must still comply with inter partes evidentiary requirements of foundation and authentication to have evidentiary value.¹⁶⁵

1208.01 Evidence from NEXIS Database or Publications

Applicant or the trademark examining attorney may submit articles or excerpts from articles taken from periodicals or the NEXIS database as evidence.¹⁶⁷ Such material is evidence of how a term or mark may be perceived, rather than of the truth of the underlying information in the article.¹⁶⁸ Accordingly, stories from newswires or foreign publications are of minimal evidentiary value because it is not clear that such stories have appeared in any publication available to the consuming public.¹⁶⁹ Wire service stories are competent to show how their authors used particular terms, but since they are circulated primarily to newspapers, they are not assumed to have influenced the attitudes of prospective customers.¹⁷⁰

It is not necessary that all NEXIS articles retrieved by a search be submitted and, indeed, the Board discourages such submissions where they are unnecessarily redundant or not probative. Examining attorneys should not submit articles or excerpts that are not relevant.¹⁷¹ However, Compare In re Cell Therapeutics Inc., 67 USPQ2d 1795, 1797 (TTAB 2003) (where the relevant public consisted of highly sophisticated medical doctors and researchers who would have access to news wire stories).

Chapter 1200

EX PARTE APPEALS

examining attorneys should not submit only those articles that support the Office's position, and deliberately not submit those which are helpful to the applicant.¹⁷²

If applicant or the examining attorney submits excerpts from articles, the nonoffering party may submit the complete article, even if such submission is made after the appeal is filed.¹⁷³ If only a portion of an article is submitted, that portion is not thereby insulated from the context from whence it came.¹⁷⁴ If the nonoffering party wishes to have the entire article considered, the better practice is to submit the article with a request for remand. However, because the party submitting the excerpt of the article had the opportunity to review the entire article, if the article is submitted with an appeal brief the Board need not remand the application, and may instead consider the article as part of the record. However, if, after appeal, an applicant attempts to submit a full printout of articles from the NEXIS database which were revealed in an examining attorney's search, but which were not introduced by the examining attorney, such articles are considered to be additional evidence and therefore untimely.¹⁷⁵

1208.02 Third-party Registrations

To make a third-party registration of record, a copy of the registration, either a copy of the paper USPTO record, or a copy taken from the electronic records of the Office, should be submitted.¹⁷⁶ Mere listings of registrations, or copies of private company search reports, are not sufficient to make the registrations of record.¹⁷⁷ There are limited circumstances in which the Board will consider such listings. In particular, if an applicant includes a listing of registrations in a response to an Office action, and the examining attorney does not advise applicant that the listing is insufficient to make the registrations of record at a point when applicant can correct the error, the examining attorney will be deemed to have stipulated the registrations into the record.¹⁷⁸

¹⁷² See In re Trans Continental Records Inc., 62 USPQ2d 1541, 1544 (TTAB 2002) (although the examining attorney described the NEXIS articles which were submitted as a "sample," Board concerned by the fact that the NEXIS search retrieved 441 articles, and the first of the ten stories submitted was number 257).

¹⁷³ See TBMP § 1207.01 for general rule that evidence submitted after appeal is untimely.

Chapter 1200

EX PARTE APPEALS

Similarly, if the examining attorney discusses the registrations in an Office action or brief, without objecting to them, the registrations will be treated as stipulated into the record.¹⁷⁹ However, the Board will not consider more than the information provided by applicant. Thus, if applicant has provided only a list of registrations numbers and/or marks, the list will have very limited probative value.

An improper listing of third-party registrations will not be considered if the list is submitted at a point where applicant cannot correct the format of the submission if the examining attorney does not discuss the registrations or otherwise treat them as of record.¹⁸⁰

Third-party applications, as opposed to registrations, have no probative value other than as evidence that the applications were filed.¹⁸¹

1208.03 Internet Material

Material obtained through the Internet or from websites is acceptable as evidence in ex parte proceedings.¹⁸² Because website contents and search engine results are accessible by the consuming public (although search engine results may be retrieved only if members of the public enter the identical search strategy), they constitute evidence of potential public exposure.¹⁸³ Material obtained from an applicant's website, or that of a third party, may provide information about, for example, products or services, customers, and channels of trade, although their probative value will vary depending on the facts of the particular case. On the other hand, a search result summary from a search engine, such as Yahoo! or Google, which shows use of a phrase as key words by the search engine, is of limited probative value. Such search results do not show use of a term or phrase as a heading, link or content on a website. Use in a search

1209 Remand

1209.01 Upon Board's Own Initiative

37 CFR § 2.142(f)

(1) If, during an appeal from a refusal of registration, it appears to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board that an issue not previously raised may render the mark of the appellant unregistrable, the Board may suspend the appeal and remand the application to the examiner for further examination to be completed within thirty days.

(2) If the further examination does not result in an additional ground for refusal of registration, the examiner shall promptly return the application to the Board, for resumption of the appeal, with a written statement that further examination did not result in an additional ground for refusal of registration.

(3) If the further examination does result in an additional ground for refusal of registration, the examiner and appellant shall proceed as provided by §§ 2.61, 2.62, 2.63 and 2.64. If the ground for refusal is made final, the examiner shall return the application to the Board, which shall thereupon issue an order allowing the appellant sixty days from the date of the order to file a supplemental brief limited to the additional ground for the refusal of registration. If the supplemental brief is not filed by the appellant within the time allowed, the appeal may be dismissed.

(4) If the supplemental brief of the appellant is filed, the examiner shall, within sixty days after the supplemental brief of the appellant is sent to the examiner, file with the Board a written brief answering the supplemental brief of appellant and shall mail a copy of the brief to the appellant. The appellant may file a reply brief within twenty days from the date of mailing of the brief of the examiner.

(5) If an oral hearing on the appeal had been requested prior to the remand of the application but not yet held, an oral hearing will be set and heard as provided in paragraph (e) of this section. If an oral hearing had been held prior to the remand or had not been previously requested by the appellant, an oral hearing may be requested by the appellant by a separate notice filed not later than ten days after the due date for a reply brief on the additional ground for refusal of registration. If the appellant files a request for an oral hearing, one will be set and heard as provided in paragraph (e) of this section.

If, during an ex parte appeal to the Board, it appears to the Board that an issue not previously raised may render the mark of the applicant unregistrable, the Board may issue a written action suspending the appeal and remanding the application to the trademark examining attorney for further examination with respect to that issue.¹⁹² Thus, the Board will not remand an application for consideration of a ground for refusal if the examining attorney had previously refused registration on that ground and then withdrew the refusal.

The Board may also sua sponte remand an application to the examining attorney if, after examination and/or briefing has been completed, a decision is rendered that is likely to have a bearing on the examining attorney's position.¹⁹³ Or the Board may remand an application for clarification of the issues on appeal, where, for example, the examining attorney and the applicant appear to be arguing different grounds of refusal.

The further examination must be completed within 30 days from the date of remand, or within an extension of time for that purpose.¹⁹⁴

If the examining attorney, upon consideration of the issue specified in the Board's remand letter, does not believe that the specified issue renders the mark of the applicant unregistrable, the examining attorney must promptly return the application to the Board with a written statement that further examination did not result in an additional ground for refusal of registration.¹⁹⁵

If the examining attorney returns the remanded application to the Board with a written statement that further examination did not result in an additional ground for refusal of registration, the Board will resume proceedings with respect to the appeal, and take further appropriate action therein. The issues ultimately determined by the Board will be those that were the subject of the appeal; no consideration will be given to the issue that was the subject of the remand.¹⁹⁶

If, on the other hand, the further examination does result in an additional ground for refusal of registration, the examining attorney and applicant should proceed as specified in 37 CFR §§ 2.61 through 2.64.¹⁹⁷ If the additional ground for refusal of registration is ultimately made final, the six-month response clause should be omitted from the paper in which such action is taken; the file of the case should be returned to the Board; proceedings with respect to the appeal will be resumed; and further appropriate action will be taken therein. Specifically, the Board will issue an order allowing applicant 60 days from the date of the order in which to file a supplemental brief directed (solely) to the additional ground for refusal of registration.¹⁹⁸

If applicant fails to file a supplemental brief within the specified 60-day period, or during an extension of time for that purpose, the appeal may be dismissed.¹⁹⁹ If applicant files a supplemental brief, the Board will send the application file, with applicant's supplemental brief entered therein, to the examining attorney. Within 60 days after the date of the Board's written action forwarding the file to the examining attorney, or within an extension of time for that purpose, the examining attorney must file a written brief answering the supplemental brief of the applicant. If the examining attorney had not previously submitted an appeal brief, the written brief may answer not just the applicant's supplemental brief, but also its original appeal brief.²⁰⁰ The examining attorney must also send a copy of his or her brief to the applicant.²⁰¹ If the examining attorney's brief is late filed, the Board may exclude it in the absence of an adequate explanation for the late filing.²⁰² Within 20 days from the date of the examining attorney's brief, or within an extension of time for the purpose, the applicant may, if it so desires, file a reply brief.²⁰³ However, the filing of a reply brief is not mandatory. If the applicant files a reply brief, the Board will notify the examining attorney so that it can be reviewed.

If an oral hearing on the appeal had been requested by applicant prior to the remand of the application, but had not yet been held, the oral hearing will be set after the expiration of applicant's time for filing a reply brief directed to the additional ground for refusal of registration.²⁰⁴ If an oral hearing had been held prior to the remand, or had not previously been requested by applicant, an oral hearing may be requested by applicant by separate paper filed not later than 10 days after the due date for a reply brief on the additional ground for refusal of registration; the oral hearing will be set by the Board upon receipt of the request.²⁰⁵

If the examining attorney is persuaded by applicant's supplemental brief and/or reply brief that the additional ground for refusal of registration should be withdrawn, the examining attorney should issue a written action withdrawing the additional ground, and return the application to the Board for resumption of proceedings with respect to the appeal.

The examining attorney may not, upon remand under 37 CFR § 2.142(f)(1), refuse registration on a new ground not specified in the Board's remand letter. If the examining attorney, upon remand, wishes to refuse registration on a new ground not specified in the Board's remand letter, the examining attorney must file a request with the Board, pursuant to 37 CFR § 2.142(f)(6), for jurisdiction to refuse registration on the new ground. Nor may the examining attorney, upon remand under 37 CFR § 2.142(f)(1), submit evidence relating to a ground not specified in the Board's remand letter.²⁰⁶

EX PARTE APPEALS

1209.02 Upon Request by Trademark Examining Attorney

37 CFR § 2.142(f)(6) If, during an appeal from a refusal of registration, it appears to the examiner that an issue not involved in the appeal may render the mark of the appellant unregistrable, the examiner may, by written request, ask the Board to suspend the appeal and to remand the application to the examiner for further examination. If the request is granted, the examiner and appellant shall proceed as provided by §§ 2.61, 2.62, 2.63 and 2.64. After the additional ground for refusal of registration has been withdrawn or made final, the examiner shall return the application to the Board, which shall resume proceedings in the appeal and take further appropriate action with respect thereto.

If, during an ex parte appeal to the Board, it appears to the trademark examining attorney that an issue not involved in the appeal may render the mark of the applicant unregistrable, the examining attorney may file a written request with the Board to suspend the appeal and remand the application for further examination.²⁰⁷ Such a request may be filed at any point in the appeal prior to the Board's rendering a final decision, including at the point the examining attorney is to submit his appeal brief or supplemental appeal brief.²⁰⁸

Because the mandate of the USPTO is to register only eligible marks, an examining attorney's request for remand will generally be granted unless there is no valid basis for the request, e.g., remand is requested to require a disclaimer of a term which is not part of the mark. If the examining attorney's request for remand is granted, the Board will forward the application to the examining attorney for further examination in accordance with the request. In its action granting the request, the Board will allow the examining attorney a specified time in which to issue an Office action pursuant to the request. Thereafter, the examining attorney and applicant should proceed as provided in 37 CFR §§ 2.61 through 2.64.²⁰⁹

When, upon remand, the examining attorney determines that registration should not be finally refused on the additional ground for refusal of registration mentioned in the request for remand, the examining attorney should issue a written Office action in which the six-month response clause is omitted and return the file of the case to the Board; proceedings with respect to the appeal will be resumed and further appropriate action will be taken therein.²¹⁰ If the examining attorney determines, after considering applicant's response to the nonfinal Office action, that a final refusal on that ground should issue, the examining attorney should issue a new action, omitting the six-month response clause, which makes the refusal final as to both the additional ground and the ground(s) asserted in the previous final action. The file should then be returned to the Board, and proceedings in the appeal will be resumed.²¹¹

The examining attorney may not, upon remand under 37 CFR § 2.142(f)(6), refuse registration on a new ground not mentioned in the examining attorney's request for remand. If the examining attorney, upon remand, wishes to refuse registration on a new ground not mentioned in the request for remand, the examining attorney must file a new request with the Board for jurisdiction to refuse registration on the new ground. Nor may the examining attorney submit evidence that does not relate to the ground mentioned in the request for remand; thus, the examining attorney may not submit evidence that supports the grounds for refusal on which the appeal was originally filed.

For information concerning the submission of new evidence after remand for refusal of registration on an additional ground, see TBMP § 1207.05.

1209.03 Upon Granted Letter of Protest

A third party that has knowledge of facts bearing upon the registrability of a mark in a pending application may bring such information to the attention of the Office by filing, with the Office of the Commissioner for Trademarks, a "letter of protest," that is, a letter that recites the facts and which is accompanied by supporting evidence.²¹² The Administrator for Trademark Identification, Classifications, and Practice ("Administrator") will determine whether the information should be given to the trademark examining attorney for consideration.²¹³

Proceedings in an ex parte appeal will not be suspended pending determination by the Office of the Commissioner for Trademarks of a letter of protest. However, if a letter of protest is granted during the pendency of an ex parte appeal, and the examining attorney, having considered the supporting evidence submitted with the letter of protest, believes that an issue not involved in the appeal may render the mark of the applicant unregistrable, the examining attorney may file a

For information concerning requests for remand for a new refusal or new requirement, and the further proceedings in the case if such a request is granted by the Board, see 37 CFR § 2.142(f)(6), and TBMP § 1209.02.

1209.04 Upon Request by Applicant

A request filed by an applicant to remand the application to the examining attorney that is filed within six months of the issuance of a final Office action is treated as a request for reconsideration, whether it is denominated as such, or is captioned as a request for remand. Requests for reconsideration are granted by the Board as a matter of right.²¹⁴ However, if the request is filed more than six months after the issuance of the final refusal (generally after the filing of the notice of appeal), it will be treated as a request for remand, whether it is captioned as such or is captioned as a request for reconsideration.

Requests for remand are generally filed by applicants because they wish to make additional evidence of record, or because they wish to amend the application. Applicants may also request remand so that the examining attorney can consider a refusal in light of a recently decided case.²¹⁵ No matter what the purpose, the request for remand must include a showing of good cause.²¹⁶ In determining whether good cause has been shown, the Board will consider both the reason given and the point in the appeal at which the request for remand is made.

If applicant has not filed its appeal brief prior to filing the request for remand, it should not do so until the Board has acted on the remand request. If the request is denied, the Board will allow applicant time in which to file its appeal brief. If the request for remand is granted, the Board will suspend proceedings with respect to the appeal, and remand the application to the examining attorney for consideration of the request for remand. The Board's order granting the remand and the directions to the examining attorney contained therein will depend on the nature of the remand request and the circumstances.²¹⁷

²¹⁷ If the request for remand is for the purpose of submitting additional evidence, see generally, TBMP § 1207.02. If the request for remand is for the purpose of submitting an amendment to the application, see generally, TBMP § 1205.

Chapter 1200 EX PARTE APPEALS

1210 Approval for Publication During Appeal

The trademark examining attorney may withdraw an appealed refusal to register, and approve the involved application for publication (or for registration, in the case of a Supplemental Register application), at any time prior to issuance of the Board's decision in the case.²¹⁸ When the examining attorney does so, the appeal becomes moot.

However, the examining attorney should notify the applicant by telephone that the application is being approved for publication (or registration).²¹⁹

1211 Abandonment During Appeal

37 CFR § 2.68 Express abandonment (withdrawal) of application. An application may be expressly abandoned by filing in the Patent and Trademark Office a written statement of abandonment or withdrawal of the application signed by the applicant, or the attorney or other person representing the applicant. Except as provided in § 2.135, the fact that an application has been expressly abandoned shall not, in any proceeding in the Patent and Trademark Office, affect any rights that the applicant may have in the mark which is the subject of the abandoned application.

During an ex parte appeal to the Board, the applicant may expressly abandon its involved application by filing in the Office a written statement of abandonment or withdrawal of the application. The abandonment or withdrawal must be signed by the applicant or its attorney or other authorized representative.²²⁰

The express abandonment, during an ex parte appeal to the Board, of the applicant's involved application will not, in any proceeding in the Office, affect any rights that the applicant may have in the mark that is the subject of the abandoned application.²²¹

In contrast, after the commencement of an opposition, concurrent use, or interference proceeding, if the applicant files a written abandonment of its involved application or mark without the written consent of every adverse party to the proceeding, judgment will be entered against the applicant.²²²

1212 Cancellation or Assignment of Cited Registration

Often, in an ex parte appeal to the Board, the asserted ground (or one of the asserted grounds) for refusal of registration is the Section 2(d), 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d), ground that applicant's mark so resembles a mark registered in the USPTO as to be likely, when used on or in connection with the goods or services of the applicant, to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive.

If, during the pendency of an ex parte appeal involving a refusal to register under Section 2(d) of the Act, the cited registration is cancelled, or is assigned to the applicant, the appeal will be moot insofar as that issue is concerned. If the refusal to register on the basis of the cancelled or assigned registration is the only issue involved in the appeal, the Board will dismiss the appeal as moot, and the application will be sent to the trademark examining attorney for approval for publication (or for registration, in the case of a Supplemental Register application). If the appeal involves additional issues, it will go forward solely on the additional issues.

When an application has been rejected under Section 2(d) of the Act, and the refusal to register has been appealed to the Board, it is recommended that the applicant periodically check the status of the cited registration.²²³ If the applicant learns that the registration has expired or been cancelled, the applicant should immediately notify the Board thereof. Similarly, if the registration is assigned to applicant, the applicant should immediately notify the Board thereof.

1213 Suspension of Appeal

Prior to the issuance of the Board's decision in an ex parte appeal, proceedings with respect to the appeal may be suspended by the Board upon written request by applicant showing good cause for the requested suspension.²²⁴ Examples of situations in which the Board may suspend proceedings in an appeal, at the request of the applicant, are listed below:

- (1) Applicant is involved in a civil action, or a Board inter partes proceeding, that may be dispositive of the issue(s) involved in the appeal--Board may suspend pending final determination of the civil action or Board inter partes proceeding.

²²² See 37 CFR § 2.135, and TBMP §§ 602.01 (Withdrawal by Applicant) and 603 (Withdrawal by Interference or Concurrent Use Applicant).

²²³ See TBMP § 1203 (Appeal Briefs).

EX PARTE APPEALS

(2) Another application that involves the same issue is also on appeal to the Board-- Board may suspend pending final determination of the appeal in the other application.

(3) A registration cited as a reference, under Section 2(d) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d), against applicant's mark is due, or will soon be due, for an affidavit of continued use (or excusable nonuse) under Section 8 or 71 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1058 or 1141k,²²⁵ or for an application for renewal under Section 9 or 70 of the Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1059 or 1141k.²²⁶ The Board may suspend pending determination of whether the registration will continue in existence or will, instead, be cancelled or expire. If an applicant requests suspension based on the possibility that the cited registration may be cancelled for failure to file an affidavit of continued use, the Board will grant such request if the Board acts on the request after the 5th anniversary of the issue date of the registration. If an applicant requests suspension based on the possibility that the cited registration will expire for failure to renew it, the Board will grant such request if the Board acts on the request after the 9th anniversary of the issue date for ten-year term registrations (registrations that issued or were renewed on or after November 16, 1989), or after the 19th anniversary of the issue date for twenty-year registrations (registrations that issued prior to November 16, 1989 and which have not yet been renewed).

If it comes to the attention of the examining attorney, in the case of a refusal based on likelihood of confusion with a registered mark (Section 2(d) of the Trademark Act), that the grace period for filing an affidavit of continued use or an application for renewal for the cited registration has passed, and Office records do not indicate that such paper has been submitted, the examining attorney may request remand so the application can be suspended pending final disposition of the cited registration.²²⁷ In that situation, the Board will issue an order suspending the appeal and remanding the case to the examining attorney. If the cited registration is cancelled or expires, and that registration forms the only basis for refusal, the examining attorney may approve the application for publication (or for registration in the case of a Supplemental Register application), and the appeal will be moot. The examining attorney should so notify the applicant. If the Section 2(d) refusal is only one of the issues of appeal, the examining attorney should notify the Board of the status of the cited registration, and return the file to the Board, which will resume proceedings in the appeal. If an appropriate affidavit or renewal application is filed for the cited registration, the examining attorney should notify the Board, and return the file to the Board. The Board will then resume proceedings in the appeal.

²²⁵ A 66(a) registration is subject to the Section 71 requirements for affidavits of continued use (or excusable nonuse). A Section 71 affidavit is filed with the Office.

²²⁶ A renewal under Section 70 of the Trademark Act refers to a renewal of the international registration underlying a 66(a) registration. A 66(a) registration will be cancelled under Section 70 for failure to renew the international registration on which it is based. Renewals of international registrations are filed directly with the International Bureau, not the USPTO. If the underlying international registration is not renewed, the International Bureau will notify the USPTO that the international registration has expired. The corresponding extension of protection to the U.S. will expire as of the expiration date of the international registration and the 66(a) registration will be cancelled by the Office. See Section 70 of the Trademark Act.

If the grace period for filing the appropriate affidavit or renewal application for the cited registration has not yet expired, the examining attorney may request that the Board suspend proceedings in the appeal. In that case, the Board will issue an action advising the applicant the Board is suspending proceedings in the appeal, and giving the applicant the opportunity to inform the Board if it wishes the appeal to proceed without waiting for a determination as to whether the cited registration will be cancelled or will expire. If the applicant wishes the appeal to proceed, the cited registration will be treated as existing and valid.

The examining attorney may also request suspension if it comes to his or her attention that another application that involves the same issue is on appeal to the Board. In that circumstance, the examining attorney may also request that the appeals be consolidated.²²⁸

A request for suspension of proceedings before the Board in an ex parte appeal must be filed prior to the issuance of the Board's final decision in the case. For example, an applicant that has appealed a refusal to register under Section 2(d) of the Act (i.e., a refusal to register on the ground that applicant's mark so resembles a registered mark as to be likely to cause confusion) may not wait until it receives the Board's decision on appeal and then, if the decision is adverse, file a petition to cancel the cited registration and request suspension of proceedings in the appeal pending the final determination of the cancellation proceeding.²²⁹

When proceedings have been suspended at the request of the applicant in an ex parte appeal to the Board, and the event for which proceedings have been suspended occurs, as, for example, when a civil action for which proceedings have been suspended has been finally determined, the applicant should file a paper notifying the Board thereof as soon as that knowledge comes to applicant's attention. When an appeal has been suspended pending a determination of whether a cited registration will be cancelled or will expire, applicant should monitor the status of the cited registration on a monthly basis and should advise the Board as soon as it ascertains either that the registration has been cancelled or has expired, or that the required document has been accepted by the USPTO.

The Board will then resume proceedings and take further appropriate action in the appeal. If the cited registration has been cancelled or has expired, and it was the only bar to registration, the appeal will be dismissed as moot. If the cited registration formed only one basis of the refusals on appeal, the Board will resume proceedings in the appeal with respect to the remaining issues.

EX PARTE APPEALS

In addition, when the refusal of registration, or one of the grounds of refusal, is based on Section 2(d) of the Act, and it appears that the cited registration will be cancelled for failure to file an affidavit of continued use or will expire for failure to renew, the Board will sua sponte suspend action in the following circumstance. When an ex parte appeal has been assigned to an Administrative Trademark Judge for final decision, the case will be suspended if the due date for filing a affidavit or application for renewal of the cited registration falls on or before the date the case is assigned for decision. The due date is the anniversary date of the registration, and does not include the grace period. In this situation, the applicant will be advised that the Board is suspending proceedings in the appeal, and be given the opportunity to inform the Board if it wishes the Board to render a decision without waiting to determine whether the cited registration will be cancelled or will expire. If the applicant wishes the board to proceed with a decision, the cited registration will be treated as existing and valid.

Proceedings in an ex parte appeal may also be suspended by the Board if the application is remanded to the examining attorney, as, for example, for (1) consideration of an amendment to the application, or (2) consideration of a request for reconsideration of a final action, or (3) assertion of a new ground of refusal, or (4) submission of additional evidence.²³⁰

1214 Consolidation

When an applicant has filed an ex parte appeal to the Board in two or more copending applications, and the cases involve common issues of law or fact, the Board, upon request by the applicant or trademark examining attorney or upon its own initiative, may order the consolidation of the cases for purposes of briefing, oral hearing, and/or final decision.²³¹ The Board may also consider two or more cases in one opinion even if they have not been consolidated.²³² Even if the Board renders its decisions on two appeals in a single opinion, the appeals will not necessarily be consolidated.²³³

Although cases consolidated prior to briefing may be presented on the same brief, they do not have to be. The applicant (and/or the examining attorney) may file a different brief in each case, if the applicant (and/or the examining attorney) so desires. When consolidated cases are to be presented on the same brief, the brief should bear the serial number of each consolidated application, and a copy of the brief should be submitted for each application.

1215 Alternative Positions

Just as the trademark examining attorney may refuse registration on alternative grounds (such as, that applicant's mark, as applied to its goods and/or services, is either merely descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of them within the meaning of Section 2(e)(1) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(e)(1)), so, too, the applicant may, in appropriate cases, take alternative positions with respect to a refusal to register. For example, where registration has been refused on the ground that applicant's mark, as applied to its goods and/or services, is merely descriptive of them, applicant may take the position that its mark is not merely descriptive, and, alternatively, assert a claim, under the provisions of Section 2(f) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(f), that its mark has become distinctive of its goods and/or services in commerce.²³⁴ However, it is applicant's responsibility to make clear that it is taking alternative positions.²³⁵

EX PARTE APPEALS

When an applicant asserts alternative positions, and is not willing to accept registration on the basis of its "fallback" position unless the Board determines, on appeal, that applicant's primary position is not well taken, the applicant should make its wishes clear both to the examining attorney and to the Board. For example, when applicant, in response to a refusal on the ground of mere descriptiveness, has asserted alternatively that its mark is not merely descriptive and that the mark has become distinctive in commerce, but applicant is not willing to accept a registration issued under Section 2(f) on the basis of the claim of distinctiveness unless the Board holds, on appeal from the refusal to register, that the mark is merely descriptive, applicant should clearly so state. Otherwise, if the examining attorney finds applicant's claim of distinctiveness to be persuasive (and there is no other outstanding ground for refusal to register), the examining attorney will approve the application for publication on that basis, and any registration issued to applicant will be issued under the provisions of Section 2(f) of the Act.

If, in an application that is the subject of an ex parte appeal to the Board, the applicant has asserted alternative positions (such as, that its mark is not merely descriptive of its goods and/or services, and that the mark has, in any event, become distinctive of its goods and/or services in commerce; or that its mark has become distinctive of its goods and/or services in commerce, and that the mark is, in any event, registrable on the Supplemental Register), the examining attorney should clearly state his or her position with respect to each of applicant's alternative claims.²³⁶

1216 Oral Hearing

37 CFR § 2.142(e)

(1) If the appellant desires an oral hearing, a request therefor should be made by a separate notice filed not later than ten days after the due date for a reply brief. Oral argument will be heard by at least three Members of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board at the time specified in the notice of hearing, which may be reset if the Board is prevented from hearing the argument at the specified time or, so far as is convenient and proper, to meet the wish of the appellant or his attorney or other authorized representative.

(2) If the appellant requests an oral argument, the examiner who issued the refusal of registration or the requirement from which the appeal is taken, or in lieu thereof another

But see In re Central Sprinkler Co., 49 USPQ2d 1194, 1195 n.3 (TTAB 1998) (Board considered registrability on both Principal and Supplemental Registers even though applicant's amendment to the Supplemental Register was originally not made in the alternative, noting that examining attorney continued to refuse registration on both registers, and subsequent papers of both applicant and examining attorney, including request for reconsideration and decision on that request, discussed the amendment as being in the alternative).

examiner from the same examining division as designated by the supervisory attorney thereof, shall present an oral argument. If no request for an oral hearing is made by the appellant, the appeal will be decided on the record and briefs.

(3) Oral argument will be limited to twenty minutes by the appellant and ten minutes by the examiner. The appellant may reserve part of the time allowed for oral argument to present a rebuttal argument.

For general information concerning oral hearings in proceedings before the Board, see TBMP § 802. What follows below is information pertaining specifically to oral hearings in ex parte appeals to the Board.

An oral hearing is not mandatory in an ex parte appeal to the Board, but will be scheduled if a timely request therefor is filed by the applicant.²³⁷ If the applicant does not request an oral hearing, the appeal will be decided on the record and briefs.²³⁸ An examining attorney may not request an oral hearing. An oral hearing is particularly useful in ex parte cases involving complex issues or where the goods or services identified in applicant's application (or a cited registration) are technical or unfamiliar, or where an issue on appeal is not clearly defined. In addition, the oral hearing sometimes provides an opportunity for the applicant and trademark examining attorney to work out an agreement that results in approval of the application for publication (or for registration, in the case of a Supplemental Register application).

If the applicant desires an oral hearing in an ex parte appeal to the Board, the applicant should file a written request, by separate paper, not later than 10 days after the due date for applicant's reply brief. Only one copy of such request should be submitted. When the applicant has filed a timely request for an oral hearing, the Board sets the date and time for the hearing, and sends the applicant a notice of hearing specifying the date, time, and location of the hearing. Ordinarily, hearings are scheduled on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. In setting the oral hearing, it is the normal practice of the Board to set a time that is convenient for both the applicant and the examining attorney. Hearings are almost exclusively held at the offices of the Board.²³⁹

An oral hearing is held before a panel of at least three members of the Board (i.e., its statutory members, generally administrative trademark judges). The time for oral hearing may be reset if the Board is prevented from holding the hearing at the specified time, or, so far as is convenient and proper, to meet the wishes of the applicant (or the applicant's attorney or other authorized representative) or the examining attorney.²⁴⁰ Board practice in such a situation is to reschedule an oral hearing, either by postponing the date or by moving it forward, but, absent compelling circumstances, not to change a hearing date if the request for rescheduling is made within two weeks of the scheduled hearing date, unless both the applicant and the examining attorney agree to the change. Therefore, if applicant requires a rescheduling of the oral hearing, it should inform the Board by telephoning the secretary to the Chief Judge, and by a follow-up facsimile transmission, not later than two weeks prior to the scheduled hearing date. If circumstances arise that prevent applicant from providing such notice, applicant should inform the Board as soon as the circumstances become known. Although the Board will allow the cancellation of the oral hearing by the applicant at any point, the Board will consider the circumstances in determining whether it will grant a request by applicant to reschedule the oral hearing, or whether it will decide the case on briefs without oral hearing.²⁴¹

If the applicant requests an oral hearing, the examining attorney who issued the Office action from which the appeal was taken, or another examining attorney from the same USPTO law office who has been designated for the purpose by the managing attorney of that law office, must appear at the hearing and present an oral argument.²⁴² If the examining attorney requires a rescheduling of the oral hearing, he or she should advise the secretary to the Chief Judge of the Board, by telephone and e-mail, not later than two weeks prior to the scheduled hearing date. If circumstances arise which prevent the examining attorney from providing such notice, another examining attorney should be designated by the managing attorney of the law office to appear at the oral hearing. In the rare instances in which the applicant appears but the examining attorney does not, the oral hearing will be held without the examining attorney; only the applicant will present its oral argument.

The applicant is allowed 20 minutes for its oral argument, and the examining attorney is allowed 10 minutes. If the applicant so desires, it may reserve a portion of its 20 minutes to use for rebuttal argument.²⁴³ There is no requirement that the applicant and the examining attorney use all of their allotted time. Often, an ex parte appeal to the Board is of such nature that oral arguments thereon may be presented in considerably less than the allotted time. On the other hand, if, because of the complexity or novelty of the issues, an applicant feels that it needs more than 20 minutes for oral argument, it should file a written request with the Board for additional time.²⁴⁴ If the request is granted, the examining attorney will also be allowed additional time.

For information concerning audiotaping, visual aids, videoconferencing and the nature of an oral hearing before the Board, see TBMP §§ 802.06, 802.07, 802.03 and 802.08, respectively.

The oral hearing is not an opportunity to present new evidence to the Board. Documents offered at the hearing that were not properly made of record will not be considered.²⁴⁵

1217 Final Decision

For general information concerning final decisions in proceedings before the Board, see TBMP § 803. What follows below is information pertaining specifically to final decisions in ex parte appeals to the Board.

In determining an ex parte appeal, the Board reviews the appealed decision of the trademark examining attorney to determine if it was correctly made. The Board need not find that the examining attorney's rationale was correct in order to affirm the refusal to register, but rather may rely on a different rationale.²⁴⁶ Thus, while the examining attorney may not raise a new ground for refusal of registration during appeal, except upon remand by the Board for the purpose,²⁴⁷ the examining attorney is not precluded from raising, during appeal, new arguments and/or additional case citations in support of a ground for refusal which was timely raised and is a subject of the appeal.²⁴⁸

When the Board has issued its final decision in an ex parte appeal, the examining attorney is without jurisdiction to take any further action therein.²⁴⁹ Similarly, the Board has no authority, either in its final decision on appeal or thereafter, to remand the case to the examining attorney for further examination. A case that has been considered and decided on appeal to the Board may be reopened only as provided in 37 CFR § 2.142(g), as discussed below.²⁵⁰ That is, while the Board, in its final decision in an opposition, concurrent use, or interference proceeding, may include a remand of the application (except a 66(a) application)²⁵¹ to the examining attorney for further examination with respect to a matter which appears to render the mark of an applicant unregistrable but which was not tried under the pleadings in the case²⁵² the Board cannot include such a remand in its final decision in an ex parte appeal.

However, if, at final decision in an ex parte appeal, it appears to the Board that an issue not previously raised may render the mark of the applicant unregistrable, the Board may, without deciding the issue(s) on appeal, suspend the appeal and remand the application to the examining attorney for further examination.²⁵³ Alternatively, if the issue not previously raised is an application defect that can easily be corrected by the applicant, the Board may elect to decide the issue(s) on appeal, and include in its decision a recommendation that applicant voluntarily correct the defect if it prevails on the appealed issue(s).²⁵⁴

Once an application has been considered and decided by the Board on appeal, applicant's course of action normally is limited to a request for reconsideration of the Board's decision, and/or the filing of an appeal therefrom, either by way of an appeal to the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, or by way of a civil action seeking review of the Board's decision.²⁵⁵ An application

When a decision of the Board affirming a refusal to register in an ex parte case has been appealed to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, the Court, during the pendency of the appeal, may remand the application for further examination and the submission of additional evidence.²⁵⁹

1219 Review of Final Decision

1219.01 By Request for Reconsideration

37 CFR § 2.144 Reconsideration of decision on ex parte appeal.

Any request for rehearing or reconsideration, or modification of the decision, must be filed within one month from the date of the decision. Such time may be extended by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board upon a showing of sufficient cause.

For general information concerning requests for rehearing, reconsideration, or modification of a final decision of the Board, see TBMP §§ 543 and 544. What follows below is information pertaining specifically to requests for rehearing, reconsideration, or modification of a final decision of the Board in an ex parte appeal.

An applicant that has filed an ex parte appeal to the Board, received a final decision therein from the Board, and is dissatisfied with that decision, may file a request for rehearing, reconsideration, or modification of the decision. The applicant must file the request within one month from the date of the decision. The time for filing the request may be extended by the Board upon a showing of sufficient cause.²⁶⁰

The Board may also rehear, reconsider, or modify its final decision, in an ex parte appeal, at the request of the trademark examining attorney.²⁶¹ The examining attorney must file the request within one month of the date of the final decision, unless the time is extended by the Board upon a showing of sufficient cause.²⁶²

EX PARTE APPEALS

If a request for rehearing, reconsideration, or modification of the Board's final decision in an ex parte appeal is timely filed, applicant's time for filing an appeal, or for commencing a civil action for review of the Board's decision, will expire two months after action on the request.²⁶³

1219.02 By Appeal

An applicant that has filed an ex parte appeal to the Board, received a final decision therein from the Board, and is dissatisfied with that decision, may have remedy by way of an appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, or by way of a civil action for review of the decision of the Board.²⁶⁴

For information concerning the taking of an appeal from a final decision of the Board, see TBMP §§ 901-903.

When a decision of the Board affirming a refusal to register in an ex parte case has been appealed to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, the Court, during the pendency of the appeal, may remand the application for further examination and the submission of additional evidence.²⁶⁵

²⁶³ See 37 CFR § 2.145(d)(1).

Terms of Suggested Protective Agreement upon Stipulation

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD

Plaintiff

Proceeding No.

v.

Defendant

PROVISIONS FOR PROTECTING CONFIDENTIALITY OF INFORMATION REVEALED DURING BOARD PROCEEDING

Information disclosed by any party or non-party witness during this proceeding may be considered confidential, a trade secret, or commercially sensitive by a party or witness. To preserve the confidentiality of the information so disclosed, either the parties have agreed to be bound by the terms of this order, in its standard form or as modified by agreement, and by any additional provisions to which they may have agreed and attached to this order, or the Board has ordered that the parties be bound by the provisions within. As used in this order, the term "information" covers both oral testimony and documentary material.

Parties may use this standard form order as the entirety of their agreement or may use it as a template from which they may fashion a modified agreement. If the Board orders that the parties abide by the terms of this order, they may subsequently agree to modifications or additions, subject to Board approval.

Agreement of the parties is indicated by the signatures of the parties' attorneys and/or the parties themselves at the conclusion of the order. Imposition of the terms by the Board is indicated by signature of a Board attorney or Administrative Trademark Judge at the conclusion of the order.

APPENDIX OF FORMS

If the parties have signed the order, they may have created a contract. The terms are binding from the date the parties or their attorneys sign the order, in standard form or as modified or supplemented, or from the date of imposition by a Board attorney or judge.

TERMS OF PROTECTIVE ORDER

1) Classes of Protected Information.

The Rules of Practice in Trademark Cases provide that all inter partes proceeding files, as well as the involved registration and application files, are open to public inspection. The terms of this order are not to be used to undermine public access to files. When appropriate, however, a party or witness, on its own or through its attorney, may seek to protect the confidentiality of information by employing one of the following designations.

Confidential—Material to be shielded by the Board from public access.

Highly Confidential—Material to be shielded by the Board from public access and subject to agreed restrictions on access even as to the parties and/or their attorneys.

Trade Secret/Commercially Sensitive—Material to be shielded by the Board from public access, restricted from any access by the parties, and available for review by outside counsel for the parties and, subject to the provisions of paragraph 4 and 5, by independent experts or consultants for the parties.

2) Information Not to Be Designated as Protected.

Information may not be designated as subject to any form of protection if it (a) is, or becomes, public knowledge, as shown by publicly available writings, other than through violation of the terms of this document; (b) is acquired by a non-designating party or non-party witness from a third party lawfully possessing such information and having no obligation to the owner of the information; (c) was lawfully possessed by a non-designating party or non-party witness prior to the opening of discovery in this proceeding, and for which there is written evidence of the lawful possession; (d) is disclosed by a non-designating party or non-party witness legally compelled to disclose the information; or (e) is disclosed by a non-designating party with the approval of the designating party.

3) Access to Protected Information.

The provisions of this order regarding access to protected information are subject to modification by written agreement of the parties or their attorneys, or by motion filed with and approved by the Board.

Judges, attorneys, and other employees of the Board are bound to honor the parties' designations of information as protected but are not required to sign forms acknowledging the terms and existence of this order. Court reporters, stenographers, video technicians or others who may be employed by the parties or their attorneys to perform services incidental to this proceeding will be bound only to the extent that the parties or their attorneys make it a condition of employment or obtain agreements from such individuals, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 4.

Parties are defined as including individuals, officers of corporations, partners of partnerships, and management employees of any type of business organization.

Attorneys for parties are defined as including in-house counsel and outside counsel, including support staff operating under counsel's direction, such as paralegals or legal assistants, secretaries, and any other employees or independent contractors operating under counsel's instruction.

Independent experts or consultants include individuals retained by a party for purposes related to prosecution or defense of the proceeding but who are not otherwise employees of either the party or its attorneys.

Non-party witnesses include any individuals to be deposed during discovery or trial, whether willingly or under subpoena issued by a court of competent jurisdiction over the witness.

Parties and their attorneys shall have access to information designated as confidential or highly confidential, subject to any agreed exceptions.

Outside counsel, but not in-house counsel, shall have access to information designated as trade secret/commercially sensitive.

Independent experts or consultants, non-party witnesses, and any other individual not otherwise specifically covered by the terms of this order may be afforded access to confidential or highly confidential information in accordance with the terms that follow in paragraph 4. Further, independent experts or consultants may have access to trade secret/commercially sensitive information if such access is agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Board, in accordance with the terms that follow in paragraph 4 and 5.

4) Disclosure to Any Individual.

Prior to disclosure of protected information by any party or its attorney to any individual not already provided access to such information by the terms of this order, the individual shall be informed of the existence of this order and provided with a copy to read. The individual will then be required to certify in writing that the order has been read and understood and that the terms shall be binding on the individual. No individual shall receive any protected information until the party or attorney proposing to disclose the information has received the signed certification from the individual. A form for such certification is attached to this order. The party or attorney receiving the completed form shall retain the original.

5) Disclosure to Independent Experts or Consultants.

In addition to meeting the requirements of paragraph 4, any party or attorney proposing to share disclosed information with an independent expert or consultant must also notify the party which designated the information as protected. Notification must be personally served or forwarded by certified mail, return receipt requested, and shall provide notice of the name, address, occupation and professional background of the expert or independent consultant.

The party or its attorney receiving the notice shall have ten (10) business days to object to disclosure to the expert or independent consultant. If objection is made, then the parties must negotiate the issue before raising the issue before the Board. If the parties are unable to settle their dispute, then it shall be the obligation of the party or attorney proposing disclosure to bring the matter before the Board with an explanation of the need for disclosure and a report on the efforts the parties have made to settle their dispute. The party objecting to disclosure will be expected to respond with its arguments against disclosure or its objections will be deemed waived.

6) Responses to Written Discovery.

Responses to interrogatories under Federal Rule 33 and requests for admissions under Federal Rule 36, and which the responding party reasonably believes to contain protected information shall be prominently stamped or marked with the appropriate designation from paragraph 1. Any inadvertent disclosure without appropriate designation shall be remedied as soon as the disclosing party learns of its error, by informing all adverse parties, in writing, of the error. The parties should inform the Board only if necessary because of the filing of protected information not in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 12.

7) Production of Documents.

If a party responds to requests for production under Federal Rule 34 by making copies and forwarding the copies to the inquiring party, then the copies shall be prominently stamped or marked, as necessary, with the appropriate designation from paragraph 1. If the responding party makes documents available for inspection and copying by the inquiring party, all documents shall be considered protected during the course of inspection. After the inquiring party informs the responding party what documents are to be copied, the responding party will be responsible for prominently stamping or marking the copies with the appropriate designation from paragraph 1. Any inadvertent disclosure without appropriate designation shall be remedied as soon as the disclosing party learns of its error, by informing all adverse parties, in writing, of the error. The parties should inform the Board only if necessary because of the filing of protected information not in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 12.

8) Depositions.

Protected documents produced during a discovery deposition, or offered into evidence during a testimony deposition shall be orally noted as such by the producing or offering party at the outset of any discussion of the document or information contained in the document. In addition, the documents must be prominently stamped or marked with the appropriate designation.

During discussion of any non-documentary protected information, the interested party shall make oral note of the protected nature of the information.

The transcript of any deposition and all exhibits or attachments shall be considered protected for 30 days following the date of service of the transcript by the party that took the deposition. During that 30-day period, either party may designate the portions of the transcript, and any specific exhibits or attachments that are to be treated as protected, by electing the appropriate designation from paragraph 1. Appropriate stampings or markings should be made during this time. If no such designations are made, then the entire transcript and exhibits will be considered unprotected.

9) Filing Notices of Reliance.

When a party or its attorney files a notice of reliance during the party's testimony period, the party or attorney is bound to honor designations made by the adverse party or attorney, or non-party witness, who disclosed the information, so as to maintain the protected status of the information.

10) Briefs.

When filing briefs, memoranda, or declarations in support of a motion, or briefs at final hearing, the portions of these filings that discuss protected information, whether information of the filing party, or any adverse party, or any non-party witness, should be redacted. The rule of reasonableness for redaction is discussed in paragraph 12 of this order.

11) Handling of Protected Information.

APPENDIX OF FORMS

Disclosure of information protected under the terms of this order is intended only to facilitate the prosecution or defense of this case. The recipient of any protected information disclosed in accordance with the terms of this order is obligated to maintain the confidentiality of the information and shall exercise reasonable care in handling, storing, using or disseminating the information.

12) Redaction; Filing Material With the Board.

When a party or attorney must file protected information with the Board, or a brief that discusses such information, the protected information or portion of the brief discussing the same should be redacted from the remainder. A rule of reasonableness should dictate how redaction is effected.

Redaction can entail merely covering a portion of a page of material when it is copied in anticipation of filing but can also entail the more extreme measure of simply filing the entire page under seal as one that contains primarily confidential material. If only a sentence or short paragraph of a page of material is confidential, covering that material when the page is copied would be appropriate. In contrast, if most of the material on the page is confidential, then filing the entire page under seal would be more reasonable, even if some small quantity of non-confidential material is then withheld from the public record. Likewise, when a multi-page document is in issue, reasonableness would dictate that redaction of the portions or pages containing confidential material be affected when only some small number of pages contain such material. In contrast, if almost every page of the document contains some confidential material, it may be more reasonable to simply submit the entire document under seal. Occasions when a whole document or brief must be submitted under seal should be very rare.

Protected information, and pleadings, briefs or memoranda that reproduce, discuss or paraphrase such information, shall be filed with the Board under seal. The envelopes or containers shall be prominently stamped or marked with a legend in substantially the following form:

CONFIDENTIAL

This envelope contains documents or information that are subject to a protective order or agreement. The confidentiality of the material is to be maintained and the envelope is not to be opened, or the contents revealed to any individual, except by order of the Board.

13) Acceptance of Information; Inadvertent Disclosure.

Acceptance by a party or its attorney of information disclosed under designation as protected shall not constitute an admission that the information is, in fact, entitled to protection. Inadvertent disclosure of information, which the disclosing party intended to designate as protected, shall not constitute waiver of any right to claim the information as protected upon discovery of the error.

14) Challenges to Designations of Information as Protected.

If the parties or their attorneys disagree as to whether certain information should be protected, they are obligated to negotiate in good faith regarding the designation by the disclosing party. If the parties are unable to resolve their differences, the party challenging the designation may make a motion before the Board seeking a determination of the status of the information.

A challenge to the designation of information as protected must be made substantially contemporaneous with the designation, or as soon as practicable after the basis for challenge is known. When a challenge is made long after a designation of information as protected, the challenging party will be expected to show why it could not have made the challenge at an earlier time.

The party designating information as protected will, when its designation is timely challenged, bear the ultimate burden of proving that the information should be protected.

15) Board's Jurisdiction; Handling of Materials After Termination.

The Board's jurisdiction over the parties and their attorneys ends when this proceeding is terminated. A proceeding is terminated only after a final order is entered and either all appellate proceedings have been resolved or the time for filing an appeal has passed without filing of any appeal.

The parties may agree that archival copies of evidence and briefs may be retained, subject to compliance with agreed safeguards. Otherwise, within 30 days after the final termination of this proceeding, the parties and their attorneys shall return to each disclosing party the protected information disclosed during the proceeding, and shall include any briefs, memoranda, summaries, and the like, which discuss or in any way refer to such information. In the alternative, the disclosing party or its attorney may make a written request that such materials be destroyed rather than returned.

16) Other Rights of the Parties and Attorneys.

This order shall not preclude the parties or their attorneys from making any applicable claims of privilege during discovery or at trial. Nor shall the order preclude the filing of any motion with the Board for relief from a particular provision of this order or for additional protections not provided by this order.

(Identification of person signing)⁽³⁾

⁽¹⁾ The required fee must be submitted for each class for which an appeal is taken. If an appeal is taken for fewer than the total number of classes in the application, the classes in which the appeal is taken should be specified.

⁽²⁾ The notice of appeal may be signed by the applicant or by the applicant's attorney or other authorized representative. If an applicant signing for itself is a partnership, the signature must be made by a partner; if an applicant signing for itself is a corporation or similar juristic entity, the signature must be made by an officer of the corporation or other juristic entity who has authority to sign for the entity and whose title is given.

⁽³⁾ State the capacity in which the signing individual signs, e.g., attorney for applicant, applicant (if applicant is an individual), partner of applicant (if applicant is a partnership), officer of applicant identified by title (if applicant is a corporation), etc.
