

REVIEW OF PETITIONS FILED UNDER THE LEAHY-SMITH AMERICA INVENTS ACT

Once a petition is uploaded using the Patent Review Processing System (PRPS), a Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB) paralegal will review the petition for compliance with the applicable statutory and regulatory requirements. See, e.g., 35 U.S.C. §§ 312(a), 322(a); 37 C.F.R. part 42. The following are the “Top 5” requirements that trial paralegals will verify for every petition:

- Appropriate fee successfully paid
- Identification of the challenged patent and the specific claim(s) being challenged
- Identification of all real parties in interest
- Copies of the patents and printed publications relied upon in support of the petition
- Certificate of service indicating that the patent owner was served with the petition and any accompanying materials
