

From: Reed O'Brien [e-mail redacted]
Sent: Monday, September 27, 2010 11:46 AM
To: Bilski_Guidance
Cc: [e-mail redacted]
Subject: Please stop granting software patents

Software is nothing more than math, which isn't patentable. Please also remember your duty is to protect all citizens, not select citizens or companies; so please stop granting software patents. Software is no more patentable than poetry; the patenting of poetry would be injurious to all citizens as is the patenting of software.

Thanks,
~ro