

From: Jeff Israel
Sent: Saturday, June 18, 2011 12:22 AM
To: reexamimprovementcomments
Subject: Software Patents

Software patent are a very bad idea and should be removed from patent law. Software changes too quickly and patents given are too broad, to allow inovation or even blocking natural evolution on products. Software patents like the one the one given to Eolas for browser plugins, was patenting a common sense idea.

Software patents should end.

Thank you,
Jeff Israel
2900 E Aurora Ave
Apt 146
Boulder CO 80303

<http://www.happytrees.org> : My Homepage