Subject: Micro entity question

Hello,

We were wondering (with reference to the micro entity status):

- 1) Will this be available for foreign applicants (assuming they meet all other requirements)?
- 2) 1.29(c) suggests that if their income is not in US Dollars that we should convert their income pursuant to IRS published rates – would we then compare this converted value versus the 3X median household income for the US? Or for the country they live in?

Thank you very much.

Best Regards,

Franklin
