Subject: USPTO satellite offices

Hi,
I'd respectfully suggest placing a satellite office in or around Palo Alto, CA, the heart of Silicon Valley. The area creates tremendous innovation that is the fuel of wealth and prosperity for our country, industry and citizens. The faster, more informed and more collaborative we all are, the better we all shall be. Locating an office in Northern California would be fully consistent with the role of the USPTO and the intent of the AIA.

Regards,
Bill
