

From: Matthew Brown
Sent: Saturday, January 05, 2013 11:48 PM
To: SoftwareRoundtable2013
Subject: Abolish software patents

Patent was meant to encourage the creators of tangible inventions. Software is not such a thing. Copyright was meant to protect less tangible works of art, and is the appropriate venue for software makers to protect their creations.

Matthew Brown
Owner of Computer Wizard
525 W. 5th St. STE 237
Covington, KY 41011