

Continuation of the Patent Prosecution Highway Pilot Program between the USPTO and IPOS

On February 2, 2009, the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) commenced a Patent Prosecution Highway pilot program (PPH) which enabled an applicant whose claims have been determined allowable/patentable in an application filed in the Intellectual Property Office of Singapore (IPOS) to have the corresponding application filed in the USPTO advanced out of turn for examination. See notice entitled "Patent Prosecution Highway Pilot Program between the United States Patent and Trademark Office and the Intellectual Property Office of Singapore," 1339 Off. Gaz. Pat. Office 160 (February 24, 2009). The USPTO indicated that the pilot program would last for a period of one year ending on February 2, 2010, but may be extended for an additional time period thereafter.

In order to adequately assess the feasibility of the PPH pilot program, the USPTO and IPOS have agreed to extend the pilot in its current state in order to collect more information before any formal decision on the program is made.
