D. CHANGES TO THE DEFINITIONS

Definitions Established

14.1 Discount or incentive (e.g., coupon, rebate, offer, upsale, etc.):
This subclass is indented under subclass 1. Subject matter for price reduction of, or premium credit resulting from, the purchase of a good or service, or a commercial offer to incite, stimulate, or provoke an increase in business, through a commercial transaction.

(1) Note. The recitation of a discount or incentive in name only (e.g., “coupon”, “rebate”, etc.) is insufficient to classify a document in this subclass.

SEE OR SEARCH THIS CLASS, SUBCLASS
14.4, for a display or advertising system.

SEE OR SEARCH CLASS
725, Interactive Video Distribution Systems, subclass 23 for a system for awarding a coupon, token, or credit which can be used to view a video program.

OTHER CLASSIFICATION SYSTEMS
ECLA G06Q 30/00A, for promotions, coupons, services, and market research.

14.11 Trade or exchange of a good or service for an incentive:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter drawn to a user acquiring an inducement that includes swapping an article of merchandise or a provided service (of the type that is normally bought or sold in commerce) with a merchant or service provider.

(1) Note. A simple exchange of currency for an incentive, by itself, does not constitute the swapping of a good or service and is therefore classified elsewhere.

SEE OR SEARCH THIS CLASS, SUBCLASS
14.16, for a referral award system.
14.27, for a frequent usage incentive system (e.g., frequent flyer miles program, point system, etc.).

14.12 Incentive awarded or redeemed in connection with the playing of a video game:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter in which a user participates in a competitive activity according to a set of rules to play a video entertainment involving skill, chance or endurance (i.e., video game) in which a merchant provides a discount or incentive to the user, or an incentive (e.g., points) can be used in order to play a video game.
D. CHANGES TO THE DEFINITIONS

(1) Note. The term “video entertainment” is intended to cover only video games.

463, Amusement Devices: Games, subclass 25 for electronic data processing including means for providing a monetary-type accounting for the purpose of:
(a) payment to start or continue a game; or (b) wagering.

14.13 Determining discount or incentive effectiveness:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter in which an analysis is conducted in order to ascertain the degree to which the intended or expected result of offering a discount or incentive is achieved.

14.14 Chance discount or incentive:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter in which the incentive is the opportunity to participate in a random event (e.g., sweepstakes, jackpots, games, lotteries, etc.) to obtain a reward or prize (e.g., a discount).

SEE OR SEARCH THIS CLASS, SUBCLASS

14.12, for an incentive or award obtained through participation in an electronic game.

273, Amusement Devices: Games, subclasses 236-291 for board games, pieces, or boards per se, for a contest of skill or chance.

283, Printed Matter, subclasses 72-114 for printed matter having revealable concealed information, particularly subclass 94 for printed matter (e.g., a lottery ticket, etc.) with superposed layers, and subclass 903 for a lottery ticket art collection.

463, Amusement Devices: Games, subclasses 1-47, when there is a recitation (according to the (3) Note of the Class 705 Class Definition) of a method or apparatus for moving or processing information specified as game or contest information, especially subclasses 16-22, where game or contest information relates to a chance-type game (i.e., one that involves an award or prize based upon the occurrence of a chance happening or event; e.g., lottery, keno, slot machine, etc.). However, in order for the specified information to be considered significant for placement in Class 463, there must be significant game processing. For example, the mere printing of a selected lottery number is not significant unless there is also included an element of a game for Class 463 (e.g., a determination of whether the number is a winning number, such as by lot matching, a determination of an award or prize value associated with a number, etc.). A "coupon" or price adjustment given to a patron based upon an item purchased or other predetermined or nonrandom criteria is not considered to be a chance event or happening appropriate for Class 463.
D. CHANGES TO THE DEFINITIONS

14.15 Consumer transaction fee:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter wherein a payment from an individual is required to participate in a program to gain an incentive or discount award.

14.16 Referral award system:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter wherein an individual is given an incentive after meeting a predetermined criterion of directing (e.g., inviting, referring, etc.) an individual to a business, program, or product, or service.

14.17 Including financial account:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter wherein the incentive reward is in the form of money or credit applied to a user’s monetary account.

(1) Note. The term “account” is defined as a formal business arrangement providing for regular dealings or services.

14.18 Investment account:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.17. Subject matter wherein an individual has the opportunity to invest a reward provided by the merchant (e.g., money market, stocks etc.) in order to realize a financial gain.

14.19 Giving input on a product or service or expressing a customer desire in exchange for an incentive or reward:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter wherein an inducement is given to an individual for exchanging information with a merchant or third party about a good, or work done or duty performed for the individual or others, or something that the individual wishes for.

(1) Note. This input is often acquired by giving the individual a quiz or having the individual fill out a questionnaire or survey.

SEE OR SEARCH THIS CLASS, SUBCLASS
14.12, for the chance to obtain a discount or incentive by playing a video game.
14.36, for an individual receiving a discount or incentive for enrolling in a program sponsored by, or for identifying themselves to, a merchant.

14.2 Based on score:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.19. Subject matter wherein an incentive or award is based on an evaluation or grade of a participant’s answer or response.

14.21 Based on funds or budget:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter wherein a discount or incentive for a purchase of a commodity or service is provided to the public based on a monetary limit or cap established by a merchant.
D. CHANGES TO THE DEFINITIONS

SEE OR SEARCH THIS CLASS, SUBCLASS
14.48, for a promotion provided based on budget or funds.

14.22 Re-usable coupon:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter drawn to an offer which can be used more than once to receive a discount or incentive.

14.23 During E-commerce (i.e., online transaction):
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter in which a discount or incentive is provided or redeemed during the course of an electronic transaction.

(1) Note. The term “electronic transaction” covers a transaction wherein the user uses any kind of network having at one end a terminal to execute the transaction consisting of buying or selling goods or services.

SEE OR SEARCH THIS CLASS, SUBCLASS
14.51, for a promotion provided during an electronic transaction.

14.24 Based on inventory:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter wherein a discount or incentive is provided based on a tracking or counting of goods or services available or sold by merchant.

14.25 Based on user history:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter in which a past purchase or interest of an individual is considered to provide a present or future discount or incentive to the individual.

(1) Note. User history may be obtained through cookies, discount cards, user search, etc.

14.26 Avoiding fraud:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter drawn to the prevention of unfair, dishonest, or deceitful action by a consumer to acquire an incentive or discount for a commodity or service.

(1) Note. This subclass provides for methods of preventing fraudulent redemption of coupons or incentives in combination with a nominal recitation of cryptographic methods (e.g., encrypting, scrambling, etc.) or other means such as barcodes, watermarks etc., which may be used to identify the authenticity of an incentive or discount.
D. CHANGES TO THE DEFINITIONS

14.27 Frequent usage incentive system (e.g., frequent flyer miles program, point system, etc.): This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter wherein an individual is given a frequent usage incentive after meeting predetermined criteria for demonstrating loyalty towards a product, merchant or service.

14.28 Frequent usage incentive value reconciliation between diverse systems: This subclass is indented under subclass 14.27. Subject matter wherein a computer system calculates the fair return or equivalent in goods, services or money for a frequent usage incentive in order to make that frequent usage incentive consistent with a frequent usage incentive from a different program.

14.29 On-line clearing house: This subclass is indented under subclass 14.28. Subject matter wherein a computer system on a network is designed for the reconciliation and trading of frequent usage incentive points or miles.

14.3 Multi-merchant loyalty card system: This subclass is indented under subclass 14.27. Subject matter wherein operators of separate retail establishments each operate their own frequent usage incentive system under a single card which certifies customer membership.

14.31 Awarding of a frequent usage incentive independent of the monetary value of a good or service purchased, or distance traveled: This subclass is indented under subclass 14.27. Subject matter wherein a frequent usage incentive (e.g., point, mile, etc.) is awarded on the basis of criteria which are not a function of the monetary amount of merchandise or services bought, or distance traversed.

(1) Note. A frequent usage incentive based on the number of transactions, rather than the monetary amount of transactions, or the number of trips, rather than the distance traveled, is classified here.

14.32 Frequent usage reward other than merchandise, cash, or travel: This subclass is indented under subclass 14.27. Subject matter wherein the frequent usage reward does not come in the form of a commodity or good that is normally bought or sold in the business giving the frequent usage incentive, nor in the form of currency or a check, or free or discounted travel services.
D. CHANGES TO THE DEFINITIONS

(1) Note. For purposes of this subclass definition, cash is paper money, coins or checks.

(2) Note. Gift certificates and gift cards are not considered cash and are therefore included in this subclass.

14.33 Method of redeeming a frequent usage reward:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.27. Subject matter which describes the manner in which a user selects or receives their frequent usage reward.

14.34 Rebate after completed purchase (i.e., post transaction award):
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter wherein, at some time after the purchase of merchandise or services, part of the purchase price paid is returned to the purchaser.

14.35 Including timing (i.e., limited awarding or usage time constraint):
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter in which a discount or incentive is provided or redeemed within limited time constraints.

(1) Note. The term “constraint” is not limited to a time frame or period of time. The term covers at least one of start time, time frame, period of time, end time, etc.

14.36 Incentive or reward received by requiring registration or ID from user:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter in which an individual receives a discount or incentive for enrolling in a program sponsored by, or for identifying themselves to, a merchant.

14.37 At kiosk:
This subclass is indented under subclass 14.1. Subject matter wherein a discount or incentive is provided or redeemed at a small, stand-alone structure.
