

Second Self-Assessment

Results - Vital Few

- Limited comprehensive analysis of performance data is conducted
- No systematic complaint handling and problem resolution process is in place
- There is limited linkage between strategic and operational goals and individual performance goals
- No systematic process is in place to identify individual training needs or to evaluate training effectiveness