Chapter 700 was revised to incorporate a memorandum regarding the recordation of search history data; to reflect recent case law regarding the requirements for a patent to be usable as prior art under pre-AIA 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as of a relied upon provisional application's filing date; to reflect recent case law and guidance relating to patent subject matter eligibility; to add a section directed to rejection of improper "Markush" claims in accordance with Office guidance published in 2011; to update information regarding petitions to make special based on age or health and the requirements for being granted accelerated examination status; to update the guidance on interview practice to be consistent with the forms and tools currently in use in the Office; to add information relating to the timing of applicant's submissions concerning the prior art exception under 35 U.S.C. 102(b)(2)(C) or prior art exclusion under pre-AIA 35 U.S.C. 103(c); and to mention a fact situation where one particular uncorroborated inventor's declaration under 37 CFR 1.132 was recently found by the Federal Circuit to provide insufficient proof of inventorship.

Chapter 800 was revised to limit the discussion of Markush claims to election of species requirements and update the text for consistency with Office guidelines published in 2011; and to rewrite the discussion of provisional nonstatutory double patenting (NDP) rejections for clarification and consolidation of existing Office policies.

Chapter 1800 was revised to add the Intellectual Property Office of Singapore (IPOS) as an International Searching Authority (ISA) available to nationals and residents of the United States; to update information regarding the arrangement between the USPTO and the Israel Patent Office (ILPO); and to provide information about using WIPO’s ePCT system for preparation of the PCT Request, explaining that a foreign filing license from the USPTO does not authorize the export of subject matter into ePCT for generating a PCT Request for filing with the RO/US.

Chapter 2000 was updated to generally reflect duty of disclosure owed to the Office by individuals associated with filing and prosecution of any application; to add text explaining aspects of the duty to disclose in accordance with the America Invents Act (AIA); to add a new section to provide guidance on correction of errors in an application; to limit the applicability of certain MPEP sections to reissue applications filed before September 16, 2012; and to revise guidance pertaining to the duty of disclosure in reexamination (ex parte and inter partes) proceedings for consistency with the language of 37 CFR 1.555.

<td>Subsection I revised to clarify that if an application is claiming the benefit of a provisional application by claiming the benefit of an intermediate copending nonprovisional application, then in the later-filed application, the intermediate application must be clearly identified as claiming the benefit of the provisional application under 35 U.S.C. 119(e). Subsection I also revised to add text explaining that where a design patent application claims benefit under 35 U.S.C. 120 to an intermediate nonprovisional utility patent application that directly claims the benefit of a provisional application, the design application cannot claim the benefit of the filing date of the provisional application. Subsection II revised to add text indicating that if a petition under 37 CFR 1.78 to restore the benefit of a provisional application is granted, a copy of the petition decision should be filed with any application that is entitled to claim benefit under 35 U.S.C. 120, 121, or 365(c) of the application for which benefit of the provisional application was restored; also corrected minor grammatical errors.</td>
</table>
211.01(b)  Revised to add discussion of the 2016 Federal Circuit decision in Immersion Corp. v. HTC Corp., holding that a child application was entitled to the benefit of a parent application where the child application was filed on the same day that a patent issued on the parent application.

—Deleted the citation to and discussion of MOAEC, Inc. v. MusicIP Corp., 568 F. Supp. 2d 978 (W.D. Wis. 2008) and the district court decision Immersion Corp. v. HTC Corp., Civil Action No. 12-259 RGA (D.Del. 2015).

—Added cross-reference to MPEP § 711.03(c) for a discussion of petitions to revive an abandoned application to provide copendency.

211.02  Revised subsection I to clarify that an ADS in compliance with 37 CFR 1.76 (or for applications filed prior to September 16, 2012, an ADS in compliance with pre-AIA 37 CFR 1.76 or a reference in the first sentence(s) of the specification) is necessary to properly claim the benefit of a prior-filed application. Updated form paragraph 2.15 for consistency with changes to the text.

—Further revised subsection I to explain that if the Office does not recognize an improper benefit claim as shown by its absence on the first filing receipt, then a petition under 37 CFR 1.78 and the petition fee will be required to correct the claim if the correction is sought after expiration of the time period set in 37 CFR 1.78.

—Revised subsection II to correct the reference to 37 CFR 1.76 to pre-AIA 37 CFR 1.76 in the context of applications filed before September 16, 2012.

—Revised subsection III to replace references to "priority" claims with "benefit" claims in the context of discussions of 35 U.S.C. 119(e).

211.02(a)  Revised subsection I to change "plans to" to "may" in the context of the Office notifying applicants on or with the filing receipt that a benefit claim may not have been recognized because the benefit claim was improper.

211.03  Revised to clarify that the Office will not require a petition and the petition fee under 37 CFR 1.17(m) to correct a benefit claim if such claim was recognized by the Office as shown by its inclusion on the first filing receipt; and to clarify that the Office will require a petition under 37 CFR 1.78 and the petition fee to correct the benefit claim if it was not recognized by the Office as shown by its absence on the first filing receipt and the correction is sought after expiration of the time period set in 37 CFR 1.78.

—Also revised to clarify that an ADS in compliance with 37 CFR 1.76 (or for applications filed prior to September 16, 2012, an ADS in compliance with pre-AIA 37 CFR 1.76 or a reference in the first sentence(s) of the specification) is necessary to properly claim the benefit of a prior-filed application.

211.04  Revised to add explanation that 35 U.S.C. 119(e)(1) no longer requires that the amendment containing the specific reference to the earlier filed provisional application be submitted during the pendency of the application. Therefore, applicant may simply file a petition under 37 CFR 1.78 to accept an unintentionally delayed claim for the benefit of a prior-filed provisional application in the abandoned nonprovisional application, and may correct the benefit claim therein.

211.05  Revised subsection I to replace references to "priority" claims with "benefit" claims in the context of discussions of claiming the benefit of provisional applications under 35 U.S.C. 119(e).

—Added subsection II which cross-references MPEP § 2136.03 and MPEP § 2154.01(b) for discussions of when an issued patent or patent application publication is available as a reference under 35 U.S.C. 102 as of the filing date of a prior provisional or nonprovisional application.

213  Revised to use gender-neutral language.

213.01  In subsection I, updated the table of states with respect to which the right of priority under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d) has been recognized based on their status as party to the PCT or Paris Convention or as members of the WTO. Also updated the name of a business unit to the Office of Policy and International Affairs.

| 213.02 | Revised to use gender-neutral language. |
| 213.03 | Revised subsection III to add text indicating that a copy of the decision granting the petition under 37 CFR 1.55(c) should be filed with any application claiming the benefit of the subsequent application and the foreign application to ensure that the Office recognizes that the right of priority has been restored. |
| 213.05 | Deleted the phrase "or his or her attorney" as unnecessary and revised to use gender-neutral language. |
| 213.06 | Revised to use gender-neutral language. |
| 214 | Revised to use words for numbers (i.e., "12" to "twelve" and "6" to "six"). |
| 214.02 | Added text explaining that a petition to accept an unintentionally delayed claim for foreign priority is necessary to correct any error in a foreign priority claim if the correction is sought after expiration of the time period set forth in 37 CFR 1.55. |
| 214.03 | Subsection V revised to clarify that a grantable petition to accept an unintentionally delayed claim for priority under 37 CFR 1.55 must include the petition fee. |
| 214.04 | Updated the WIPO tables pertaining to the presentation of application numbers, added a link to the WIPO website for a survey of current practices regarding the numbering of applications, and added a table of countries or organizations not appearing in the aforementioned WIPO tables that participate in the WIPO Digital Access Service. |
| 215 | Revised subsection II to add text explaining that a copy of the certified copy of a priority document will not satisfy the requirement in 37 CFR 1.55(g). |
| | Revised subsections IV and V and form paragraph 2.22 to clarify that a petition to accept an unintentionally delayed claim for priority is filed under 37 CFR 1.55 and must include the petition fee. Also deleted the note previously at the end of subsection IV as unnecessary because the remaining text in the subsection explains the appropriate action to take if a certified priority document is filed but no proper priority claim is made. |
| 215.01 | Revised to replace specifics regarding when the Office will initiate an electronic retrieval attempt with an indication that such an attempt will generally be made when the application is docketed to the examiner. |
| | Deleted paragraph discussing applications that are not PDX eligible; added paragraph indicating that the USPTO will attempt retrieval of foreign applications to which priority is claimed in a U.S. design application where possible, and will automatically attempt retrieval of international applications under specified conditions. |
| 215.03 | Revised to clarify that petitions filed under 37 CFR 1.55(e), (f), and (g) must include the petition fee. Revised final paragraph to specify that the suggestion to add a notation is only applicable when priority papers are not submitted via a priority document exchange program. |
| 216 | Revised to use gender-neutral language. |
| 216.01 | Revised the introductory text, subsection I and subsection II to clarify that, inter alia, a claim to foreign priority benefits cannot be perfected via a certificate of correction where the correction sought would require further examination (e.g., where the foreign application has a pre-March 16, 2013 filing date in a patent that was examined under the first inventor to file (FITF) provisions of the AIA). |

—Subsection II added to provide an overview of proper Markush groupings and to explain that if the examiner determines that one or more claims appear to include an improper Markush grouping the examiner should require the applicant to elect a species.
—Subsection III.A provides an overview of election of species practice for Markush claims, and includes most of the information that appeared in this section prior to the revision. The prior references to the 1978 decisions in In re Weber and In re Haas have been deleted as unnecessary in view of the guidance provided regarding rejections of claims based on improper Markush groupings. The prior information has been substantively revised to add the word "proper" before "Markush group" when indicating that if the members are sufficiently few in number or so closely related that a search and examination of the entire claim can be made without serious burden, the examiner must examine all the members of the Markush group.
—Subsection III.B added to provide additional guidance with regard to the provisional election of species, such as explaining the conditions under which such a requirement is proper, and indicating that a written provisional election of species requirement made prior to a first action of the merits should not include a rejection on the basis of an improper Markush grouping.

—In subsection I.B, introductory text, revised the first sentence to clarify that double patenting issues may occur in two or more copending applications; revised the final sentence to indicate that a provisional double patenting rejection should continue to be made by the examiner until the rejection has been obviated or is no longer applicable except in limited situations.
—In subsection I.B.1, text directed to provisional nonstatutory double patenting (NDP) rejections substantially rewritten for clarification and consolidation of existing Office policies. Revisions include the addition of an explanation of how a NDP rejection can be overcome by the filing of terminal disclaimers where there are three applications containing conflicting (i.e. patentably indistinct) claims; the addition of text to separately address the determination of the earliest effective filing date of conflicting claims (new subheading (a)); and clarification of the procedures to follow when a provisional NDP rejection is the only rejection remaining in an application (new subheadings (b)(i)-(b)(iv)).

804.02 —Added citation to Boehringer Ingelheim Int'l v. Barr Laboratories, 592 F.3d 1340, 93 USPQ2d 1417 (Fed. Cir. 2010), explaining that a terminal disclaimer filed after the expiration of a reference patent is not effective to obviate a nonstatutory double patenting rejection. Also added cross-reference to MPEP § 1490, subsection VI.A.

Further revised to clarify that a reply under 37 CFR 1.111 in response to a second or subsequent non-final rejection filed before or on the same day of a notice of appeal will result in the notice of appeal being found defective if the Office did not consider the reply prior to the filing of the notice of appeal.

MicroStrategy, Inc., 782
F.3d 671, 114 USPQ2d 1349 (Fed. Cir. 2015); deleted the phrase “including how to program the disclosed computer to perform the claimed function”; and changed the reference to MPEP § 2161.01 to MPEP § 2162.

— In subsection III, in the third paragraph, modified text regarding functional claim language to make it clear that that functional language at issue does not invoke 35 U.S.C. 112(f) and clarify text regarding potential enablement concerns prior to the citation to In re Swinehart.

— Revised to clarify that to comply with the written description requirement, a patent application must disclose sufficient information to demonstrate that the inventor had possession of the invention at the time of filing.

— Throughout the section, minor editorial changes have been made to improve readability.

— In the introductory text of subsection I, revised the first paragraph to indicate that an objective of the written description requirement is to convey to the public what the applicant claims as the invention; revised the second paragraph to delete references to viewpoints in early court opinions that were rejected and to clarify that while a satisfactory description may be found in the originally-filed claims or any other portion of the originally-filed specification, that does not mean that all originally-filed claims have adequate written support.

— In subsection I.A, clarified the example discussing written descriptive support for a claim directed to "A gene comprising SEQ ID NO:1." Also clarified that an invention described solely in terms of a method of making and/or its function may lack written descriptive support where there is no described or art-recognized correlation between the disclosed function and the structure(s) responsible for the function and clarified the associated example.

— In subsection I.B, clarified parenthetical text discussing In re Smith. Added more recent article indicating that sequencing errors are a common problem in molecular biology. Revised text to indicate that where an application as filed references a deposit of sequenced material, an amendment to correct the sequence may be permissible where the amendment conforms the sequence information to the compound described in the specification and covered by the claims. Added citation to, and discussion of, Cubist Pharm., Inc. v. Hospira, Inc., 805 F.3d 1112, 117 USPQ2d 1054 (Fed. Cir. 2015).

Further revised to clarify discussion of Hyatt V. Dudas and Stored Value Solutions, Inc. v. Card Activation Techs. and to correct a typographical error in the citation to AbbVie Deutschland GmbH & Co., KG v. Janssen Biotech, Inc.

— In subsection II.A.3(a), clarified the description of the Lockwood, Eli Lilly, Tronzo v. Biomet, and AbbVie Federal Circuit decisions.

— In subsection II.A.3(b), added a citation to and explanation of Yeda Research and Development Co. v. Abbott GMBH & Co., 837 F.3d 1341, 120 USPQ2d 1299 (Fed. Cir. 2016).

| 2164.05 | Revised to clarify that evidence submitted to the FDA may be submitted to the Office as evidence of enablement, but is not required. Further revised to clarify that the evidence provided to overcome an enablement rejection need not be absolute, but applicant must present argument and/or evidence that the disclosure would have enabled one of ordinary skill in the art to make and use the claimed invention at the time of filing. |
| 2164.05(a) | Revised to clarify that information published for the first time after the filing date generally cannot be used to show what was known at the time of filing, and that if a publication demonstrates that those of ordinary skill in the art would find that a particular invention was not enabled years after the filing date, the publication would be evidence that the claimed invention was not possible at the time of filing. |
| 2164.05(b) | Corrected citation to Ex parte Zechnall. |
| 2164.06(a) | In subsection I, added the Federal reporter citation for MagSil Corp. v. Hitachi Global Storage Technologies and the USPQ reporter citation for Auto. Techs. Int'l, Inc. v. BMW of N. Am., Inc.  |

| 2173.05(g) | Added the USPQ reporter citation for K-2 Corp. v. Salomon S.A., Phillips v. AWH Corp. and In re Schreiber. |
—Subsection I rewritten for consistency with the discussion regarding Markush groups in the Supplementary Examination Guidelines for Determining Compliance with 35 U.S.C.
112 and for Treatment of Related Issues in Patent Applications "Supplementary Guidelines"), —Added paragraph explaining that if a Markush grouping requires a material selected from an open list of alternatives (e.g., selected from the group "comprising" or "consisting essentially of" the recited alternatives), the claim should generally be rejected under 35
U.S.C. 112(b) as indefinite because it is unclear what other alternatives are intended to be encompassed by the claim. Added citation to Abbott Laboratories v. Baxter Pharmaceutical Products Inc., 334 F.3d 1274, 67 USPQ2d 1191 (Fed. Cir. 2003) for suggested language when a Markush group is intended to encompass combinations or mixtures of the alternatives.
Moved discussion of the test for the propriety of a Markush grouping to new MPEP § 706.03(y), and revised that discussion for consistency with the Supplementary Guidelines.
—Added citation to and discussion of Eli Lilly & Co. v. Teva Parenteral Meds., 845 F.3d 1357, 121 USPQ2d 1277 (Fed. Cir. 2017) with regard to double inclusion of alternatives.
—Deleted paragraph pertaining to subgenus claims as unnecessary because it is longstanding Office practice that Markush claims are not rejected merely because there are genus claims that encompass the Markush claims.
—Information previously in Subsection II pertaining to "or" terminology moved to subsection
I because any list of alternatives from which a selection is to be made is considered a Markush group, including those that use "or" terminology.
—Subsection III redesignated as subsection II and "or pre-AIA 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph," deleted in the last sentence.

2173.05(i)
—Added a citation to and explanation for Inphi Corporation v. Netlist, Inc., 805 F.3d 1350, 116 USPQ2d 2006 (Fed. Cir. 2015).

2173.05(p)
—In subsection I, added a citation to Purdue Pharma v. Epic Pharma, 811 F.3d 1345, 117 USPQ2d 1733 (Fed. Cir. 2016).

—In subsection I, added the USPQ reporter citation for Greenberg v. Ethicon Endo-Surgery and Caterpillar Inc. v. Detroit Diesel Corp.
—In subsection II.B, in the second to last paragraph, corrected "35 U.S.C. 112(f)" to "35 U.S.C. 112(b)".
—In subsection III, added the USPQ reporter citation for Wenger Mfg., Inc. v. Coating Mach. Sys., Inc.
—In subsection V, revised the first paragraph by moving the citation to and explanation of In re Hyatt to later in the subsection and removing the reference to Donaldson. Added text to discuss the difference between claims that recite multiple functional limitations and claims that recite a single element in means-plus-function terms and how multiple functional limitations occur in computer-implemented inventions, including an example.

—Added citation to and explanation of In re Spada, 911 F.2d 705, 15 USPQ2d 1655 (Fed.
Cir. 1990) and a cross reference to MPEP § 2114, subsection I.

—Corrected the citation to Warner-Jenkinson Co. v. Hilton Davis Chemical Co.

—In item (B), deleted the phrase "including how to program the disclosed computer to perform the claimed function" and inserted references to MPEP § 2161.01 and MPEP § 2181, subsection IV, in its place.
—In item (C), deleted the citations to Biomedino, LLC v. Waters Technology Corp., 490
F.3d 946, 83 USPQ2d 1118 (Fed. Cir. 2007) and In re Dossel, 115 F.3d 942, 42 USPQ2d
1881 (Fed. Cir. 1997). Added citations to Noah Systems v. Intuit, 675 F.3d 1302, 102
USPQ2d 1410 (Fed. Cir. 2012); In re Aoyama, 656 F.3d 1293, 99 USPQ2d 1936 (Fed. Cir.
2011); and Finisar Corp. v. DirecTV Group, Inc., 523 F.3d 1323, 86 USPQ2d 1609 (Fed. Cir. 2008).

2186 —Corrected the citation to Warner-Jenkinson Co. v. Hilton Davis Chemical Co.
CHAPTER 2200:

| Passim | —In subsections with a "[R-08.2017]" revision indicator, revised text, including form paragraphs, to be gender-neutral.
|        | —Changed "Certificate of Correction" to "certificate of correction." |
| 2202   | —Corrected the reproduction of 37 CFR 1.502 to be consistent with current language in the regulation by changing "terminated" to "concluded by the issuance and publication of a reexamination certificate." |
| 2206   | —Revised section title to include "Submission and" prior to "Handling". Added a new first paragraph stating what mechanism (mail, hand-delivery, or electronic filing) can be used to file a submission under 37 CFR 1.501 and under what circumstances. For example, the new paragraph explains why submissions under 37 CFR 1.501 cannot be electronically filed as a follow-on paper because such submissions need to be reviewed for compliance before being entered into the patent file.
|        | —In subsection I.A.1, added "and proof of service on the patent owner" in the parenthetical listing and deleted "immediately" before "entered."
|        | —In subsection I.A.2, revised text to clarify that a 37 CFR 1.501 submission must include a proof of service to be proper, and that a proper 37 CFR 1.501 submission is not entered into the patent file after an order for reexamination was been granted and the reexamination proceeding is pending. Deleted text that permitted alternative procedures if a proof of service is not included with the 37 CFR 1.501 submission because proof of service is required by 37 CFR 1.501(e).
|        | —In subsection II.A, at the end of the first paragraph, added text to explain that if the 37 CFR 1.501 submission is filed via the electronic filing system, the third party submitter or the patent owner may request to be notified if the submission is improper.
|        | —In subsections II.A.1, 2, and 3, deleted the phrase "or satisfactory showing that none of the modes of service set forth in 37 CFR 1.248(a) are practicable," because proof of service is required by 37 CFR 1.501(e). |
| 2208   | —In the last paragraph, deleted the phrase "or satisfactory showing that none of the modes of service set forth in 37 CFR 1.248(a) are practicable" because proof of service is required by 37 CFR 1.501(e). |
| 2210   | —Added a new paragraph stating what mechanism (mail, hand-delivery, or electronic filing) can be used to file a request for reexamination and under what circumstances. For example, the new paragraph explains that reexamination requests must be electronically filed as a "new" proceeding and not as a follow-on paper. |
| 2214   | —Updated form PTO/SB/57. |
| 2224   | —In the second sentence of the paragraph beginning with "Effective July 9, 2007…", added "proper" before "reexamination" and added a cross-reference to MPEP § 2267. These changes were made to clarify that only proper "follow-on" papers are permitted to be electronically filed in a reexamination proceeding. |
| 2227   | —In subsection A.2, changed the title of form PTOL-2079 to "Notice of Termination of Preprocessing of Ex Parte Reexamination Request" to reflect its current title. |
| 2242   | —In subsections I and II, revised text about issues involving 35 U.S.C. 325(d) to state that examiner must bring such issues to the attention of the appropriate SPRS or the Director of the CRU and that public inquiries about such issues should be referred to OPLA. |
| 2248   | —In the paragraph beginning with "37 CFR 1.515(c) applies…", modified text by changing "denying of" to "refusing" and added a new second sentence to clarify that a petition under 37 CFR 1.515(c) may be filed to challenge any refusal to reexamine a requested claim or a claim based on a requested basis. |
—Deleted "by telephone" and two occurrences of "telephone" because Office personnel may use other means of communication (e.g., email) if proper authorization is of record.

—In subsection II, added "PTAB trial certificate" to the listing of changes made by post-patent proceedings.
—In subsection IV, added text that examiners may accept status identifiers even if the identifier used is not one listed in 37 CFR 1.530(d)(2) or 1.121(c) (three occurrences). In "(E) Amendment of New Claims," added an example of an amendment. In subsection V, item (E), added new text regarding amendments in a pending reexamination proceeding when a PTAB trial certificate has issued. Relabeled former item (E) as a new item (F).

—In subsection III, changed "the claims" to "a claim" so the quoted language corresponds to the current text of 35 U.S.C. 305.
In subsection III.C, revised form paragraph 22.11 by changing "any claim" to "each and every claim."

—In item (B), deleted the first occurrence of the paragraph beginning with "The following guidelines … with the Portola Packaging decision." The second occurrence of the same paragraph was unchanged.

—In subsection I, modified text to include changes made to 37 CFR 1.55 that requires a petition under 37 CFR 1.55(f) or (g) or a petition for an unintentionally delayed priority claim under 37 CFR 1.55(e). Such changes were made in the final rule implementing the Hague Agreement, which was effective May 13, 2015. In item (c) in subsection I.B.1 and 2, changed "an exception in 37 CFR 1.55(h), (i), or (j) applies" to "the exception in 37 CFR 1.55(h) is applicable" because the exceptions in 37 CFR 1.55(i) and (j) would not be applicable in a reexamination proceeding.
—In subsection II, modified text to include changes made to 37 CFR 1.78 that requires a petition for an unintentionally delayed priority claim under 37 CFR 1.78(e). Such changes were made in the final rule implementing the Hague Agreement, which was effective May 13, 2015.

—In the paragraph starting with "Current procedures permits…", changed "telephone" to "contact" because Office personnel may use other means of communication (e.g., email) if proper authorization is of record.

—In the paragraph starting with "In the very unusual situation…", revised text to state that notification should first be made by telephone, or by email if authorized and contact could not be made by telephone. Also, the last sentence was revised to state "If the examiner is not successful in contacting the patent owner" instead of "When notification by telephone is not possible." These changes were made because Office personnel may use other means of communication (e.g., email) if proper authorization is of record.

—In the paragraph starting with "Any paper for which proof…", deleted "by telephone" because Office personnel may use other means of communication (e.g., email) if proper authorization is of record.

—Added two occurrences of "[sic]" in 37 CFR 41.39 because the words "of this" are repeated twice in the official version of 37 CFR 41.39(b)(1) and (2). Updated text of 37 CFR 41.39(b)(2) to correspond to current rule language.
—In the last paragraph, revised text to clarify that after receipt of a compliant reply brief or expiration of the time to file a reply brief, jurisdiction over the appeal passes to the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (Board). The Board may remand the appeal to the examiner to furnish a substitute examiner's answer or the Director may remand the appeal under 37 CFR 41.35(c). Except for these situations, a substitute examiner's answer is not permitted.

—After the first paragraph, added text from MPEP § 1214.06 pertaining to treatment of claims after an appeal is decided. The text from MPEP § 1214.06 was revised to account for differences in procedures in treating claims in reexamination versus in application prosecution. For example, Examples 3 and 4 in subsection II result in the allowance of dependent claim 2 in a reexamination proceeding but in a pending application under examination, dependent claim 2 would be cancelled or require an amendment to make the claim independent.

| 2280 | —In the second to last paragraph, corrected the reference to "37 CFR 1.52(b)" to "37 CFR 1.56(b)" (two occurrences). |
| 2287 | —In subsection I, in the paragraph beginning with "The examiner should inspect…", changed "37 CFR 3.73(b)" to "37 CFR 3.73" and added a sentence that if communication could not be made by telephone, the examiner could use email (if authorized) to contact the patent owner. —In subsection II, in the second paragraph, added a sentence that if communication could not be made by telephone, the examiner could use email (if authorized) to contact the patent owner. In the second to last paragraph, changed "reached by telephone" to "contacted" because Office personnel may use other means of communication (e.g., email) if proper authorization is of record. |
| 2288 | —In the penultimate paragraph, added a cross reference to MPEP § 1449.01, subsection I.A. |
CHAPTER 2300:

—Revised to add "pre-AIA" to references 35 U.S.C. 135(a) and 35 U.S.C. 135(b) as appropriate.
—Revised to replace "Interference Practice Specialist" and "IPS" with "Technology Center Practice Specialist" and "TCPS," respectively.
—Revised "Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences" to read "Board."
—Corrected minor grammatical and typographical errors.
—Revised title of chapter to "Interference and Derivation Proceedings."
