The handle is a solid arcuate line and the void formed between the body of the purse and the handle is substantially oval-shaped. The body of the purse is a squat u-shape with the outer, bottom edges depicted as rounded, soft corners. The body of the purse is solid with the exception of included design elements: the silhouette of a firearm is depicted in the lower left corner of the purse body; an etched plant design bearing two leafy bodies begins on the center bottom edge of the purse body and continues branching toward the lower right corner and upper right third of the purse body; circles of various circumference accent the path of the plant design and leafy bodies; and a c-shape is etched in the upper right third of the purse body. |
