With an arrow pointing upward as the letter "T". The letter "R" is displayed backwards, and raised a little bit above the rest of the word, with a water dripping effect coming down from it. The up and down arrow intersection is either behind certain letters or in front of certain letters. These letters include the arrow going in front of the "I", which has a target symbol above it, behind the first "F" and behind the second "F", behind the "E", behind and the backwards "R", behind the "E", through the "N", and behind the arrow that represents the "T". The up-and-down arrow starts from the right, behind the letter "T" shaped as an upward facing arrow, and culminating to the "I" where there is a target above it.
