The circles are connected to adjacent circles by two lines, one on each opposite side of the diameter of the circles, with the exception of the bottom left circle which is not connected to the circle directly above, and the two circles in the right vertical row which are not connected to each other. Each of the connected circles is also connected by a thin single line oval that stretches between the centers of adjacent circles. The overall impression is that the circles and lines form the overlapping letters "SF". Each of the eight circles is surrounded by a concentric single line circle with vertical and horizontal lines forming a crosshair in the center of each circle. Color Claimed Color is not claimed as a feature of the mark.
