Description of the Mark
The mark consists of 26 oblong oval shapes, each of which has a rounded end pointing inwards to form a circle and a concave flattened end pointing outwards towards two additional shapes which each have corresponding convex and concave ends such that they appear they would fit together if not for the space between them, all of which is intended to resemble a design that a puffer fish creates in sand. Below the design element are the words "PORTE + HALL", which is surrounded by a rectangular border.
