Mark Literal(s) A

Description of the Mark: The mark consists of The image contains a letter "A" that is disconnected on the upper-left side of the letter. This disconnect starts from where the center line begins and ends where the left-slanting line on the right side of the "A" letter begins. The center line is also disconnected from the left-slanting line. The right-slanting line that creates the left side of the "A" letter stops halfway to the top point of the "A" and creates the horizontal center line of the letter. The bottom half of the center line creates a curved arc shape, and the top half remains straight to create a point that is disconnected from the left-slanting line of the "A". All edges are pointed, except for the bottom-left corner of the left-slanting line, which is beveled.
