MARK INFORMATION
Standard Character Claim  No Mark Drawing Type  2 - AN ILLUSTRATION DRAWING WITHOUT ANY WORDS(S)/ LETTER(S) Description of the Mark  The mark consists of a symbol reminiscent of a blade with a pommel like component that has curves and lines with make up the symmetric left and right designs and a longer component made of curves across from the pommel. The pommel base is made of a circle with two curves which flow off the circle towards the symmetric components. There are three decorative lines which connect the curves to each other as they flow away from the base circle. The symmetric left and right branches are mirror images of each other and are comprised of a longer and a shorter curl which extend away from the pommel curves. There are two swooping curves which lie between the curls. A straight line extends away from the center of the area the pommel curves create. This singular line connects to a circle which continues to flow away from the pommel curves and rejoins on the other side which is exactly the diameter of the circle. This second straight line flows into two swooping curls that face towards the interior of the design. These curls are connected by two curves with the top curve being longer than the bottom curve.
