Mark Literal(s) SIMULATORSTUDIOS

Mark Description: The mark consists of a circle made of a neon lime green outer border to an outer ring containing a fifteen-pointed star pattern of two very horizontally thin trapezoid pairs with the left trapezoid of the pairs being the same neon lime green as the circle's outer border in its entirety and the right trapezoid of the pairs bordered with that same neon lime green color but filled with white color on each point of the fifteen-pointed star pattern within the circle's outer ring, which is all overlaid by a ring colored the same neon lime green with the same width as the circle's outer ring's outer border, surrounding the outer ring's inner border of the same neon lime green color and width as the outer ring's outer border, completing the circle's outer ring, which surrounds another ring of this circle with an outer border of the same neon lime green color as the other borders but a very slightly smaller width, with a very slight ash gray color gradient between the inner border of the outer ring and the outer border of the ring surrounded by the outer ring, beginning ash gray at the highest point of the area between the circle's outer ring's inner border and the circle's second outermost ring's outer border and ending a slightly darker ash gray at the lowest point of the circle's outer ring's inner border and the circle's second outermost ring's outer border, marking the beginning of the circle's second outermost ring, which contains a black colored gradient within it beginning black at the top-most point of the circle's middle ring and ash gray at the bottom-most point, with the area of the circle's second outermost ring within its outer and inner borders being separated into six equally spaced section curvatures by six neon lime green lines within the circle's second outermost ring that are all the same width as the circle's second outermost ring's outer and inner borders which are very slightly smaller than the circle's outer ring borders, with each of these lines evenly distributed in increments of sixty degrees and each opposite to another line one-hundred and eighty degrees within the circle's second outermost ring circumference, enclosed with the second outermost ring's inner border, completing the circle's second outermost ring, which surrounds a neon lime green ring with a width slightly thicker than the circle's outer ring's neon lime green borders, with the circle's second outermost ring's inner border and the thick neon lime green ring containing the continuation of the same ash gray color gradient held consistently and layered under all the circle's rings, with the thick neon lime green ring surrounding another ring that is the miniature of the circle's second outermost ring, which closely surrounds a green circle, and the entire circle and its rings and color gradients are overlaid by the text "SIMULATORSTUDIOS", which reaches across the entire diameter of the circle with the first and last letter "S" letters overlaid on the circle's outer ring's outer border and is stylized with a unique font and text borders of the same neon lime green color as the circle's ring borders. Color Drawing Yes Color Claimed. The color(s) neon lime green, ash gray, dark gray, black, and white is/are claimed as a feature of the mark.
