Description of the Mark The mark consists of a small robot containing a square head resembling a television screen with a single antenna on its head that consists of a line with a circle on top. The robot's face has a bean-shaped oval in the middle with 2 crescent moon shaped eyes. Under the bean-shaped oval, there is a small slightly curved line resembling a closed mouth. In addition, the square head has 2 "D" shaped ears, one on the left and one on the right. The one on the left looks like a teacup handle (a backward D) and the one on the right looks like a normal D but the left upper corner has a gap, so the D shape is not complete. Right below the square head, there is a bat-shaped body with two wings, one on the left and one on the right. In the center of the body, there is a circle with 2 "P"s facing away from each other. The circle has a thick outer layer and a thin inner layer, and the 2 Ps are inside those circles. The center of the body has an upside-down triangle with a division in the middle, very similar to an upside-down candy corn. Finally, the bottom of the robot has an oval shape made to resemble the shadow of the robot.
