For Machines, namely, machines for the development, production and transformation of base metals and their alloys, casting machines, continuous casting machines; aligned machines for continuous wire and metal strip processing, namely, wire coiling machines and wire welding machines; aligned machines for thermal, chemical and electrochemical processing, namely, electro-chemical discharge machine tools for metalworking; continuous wire and metal strip coating devices, namely, coating machines for continuous coating of metal strips and wire; machine tools for metalworking, cutting or welding or milling or levelling or cleaning or pickling or coating or shaping or finishing metals or other materials, namely, powered machines; electric welding machines, flash welders being electric resistance welding machines, rotary printing presses, roller bearings for machines, cylinders for machines with collapsible jackets, rolling mills, rolling mill cylinders for metalworking, machines for metal working and shaping, cylinders for machines, feeders being parts of machines, namely, metal feeders for metal working machines, machine parts, namely, guides; trueing machines, namely, truing machines, for metal working; pressure regulators being parts of machines, regulators being parts of machines; speed governors for machines, engines and motors; paper machines, namely, industrial paper cutting machines, paper reeling machines; paper making machines; loading ramps, namely, slides in the nature of powered ramps, conveyors being machines; control mechanisms for machines, namely, mechanical or motorized control mechanisms, motors or engines; hydraulic controls for machines, motors and engines; pneumatic controls for machines, motors and engines; driving chains other than for land vehicles; transmission chains other than for land vehicles; cutters, namely, laser or mechanical based cutters for cutting metals, cutting machines, electric knives, electric shears, electric scissors being machines; chisels for machines; dividing machines being machines for dividing metal, swaging machines, foundry machines, namely, metal casting machines, casting machines, drilling machines, milling machines, gas-operated cutting blow pipes, gas-operated soldering blow pipes, degreasers, namely, degreasing machines for use on metal surface; industrial manipulators for processing machines, ore treating machines; high pressure cleaning apparatus, namely, machines for cleaning surfaces using high pressure water; steam cleaning apparatus, namely, steam cleaning machines; electrical machines and apparatus for cleaning, namely, chemicals or mechanicals based cleaning machines for cleaning metal products and machines processing said metal; roller bridges, being machine parts, namely, roll mill bearings, printing machines for use on sheet metal; platen presses, extruders, being machines for industrial use, namely, metal extrusion presses; roller levellers, being metal working machinery for metal sheets and strips, planing machines; electric apparatus for welding, namely, electric welding machines; welding electrodes; electric welding apparatus, namely, electric arc welding apparatus, mash-lap welding apparatus, laser welding apparatus, electric soldering irons

For Ovens, other than for experimental purposes, namely, convention ovens for industrial purposes relating to the metal industry, smelting furnaces, galvanizing furnaces, annealing furnaces, reheating furnaces, hearths, namely fireplace hearths, furnaces, other than for experimental purposes International Classes  11 - Primary Classes US Classes  13, 21, 23, 24, 31, 34 International Class Title Environmental Control Apparatus

For Electric apparatus and instruments for guiding metal making, namely, for controlling a metal processing machine; producing and transforming machines, namely, electric transformers, milling, cutting or welding transformers; electric apparatus and instruments for regulating metal development, production and transformation processes, namely, electric transformers, milling, cutting or welding transformers; apparatus for adjusting, measuring and controlling the thickness of coatings, namely, metal or metal alloys coatings; instruments for adjusting, measuring and controlling the thickness of galvanized coatings, namely, metal strip stabilizing apparatus; heat regulating apparatus, namely, thermal inductors; apparatus and devices for measuring, controlling and adjusting the thickness of sheet metal for continuous rolling and casting, namely, surface inspection machines, 3D- or 2D-profilometers; measuring instruments, recorders and pressure measuring apparatus, namely, pressure sensors or gauges, surface inspection machines; fault monitoring systems, namely, an electronic signaling system for detecting ground faults, metal defect detectors, automatic surface inspection machine; controlling, measuring and adjusting apparatus for smelting, galvanizing, annealing and reheating furnaces, namely, volume or distance measuring detectors, thickness detectors, thermal detectors; remote control apparatus, namely, telemetering apparatus, remote control apparatus for controlling metal processing machines, namely, portable control unit, mobile communication set or interface; flatness measuring and adjusting apparatus for continuous rolling and casting, namely, straight edge instruments, automatic surface inspection machines, levelers, mill stands; automatic adjusting apparatus for sections and stress distribution for levelers, mill stands, and metal cutters; magnetic recording media, namely, blank digital storage media; data processing equipment; computers; recorded computer operating software; data processing apparatus; printers, namely, laser document printers; storage devices, namely, blank flash drives and computer peripheral devices; computer processors being central processing units; recorded and downloadable calculation software for operating measuring and regulating apparatus; recorded and downloadable calculation software for operating automatic adjusting apparatus for sections and stress distribution for rolled products; apparatus for controlling electric welding machines, namely, electronic control systems for welding machines; cathodic apparatus for rust prevention, electric installations for the remote control of industrial operations, furnaces and ovens for laboratory experimentation, pressure indicator plugs for valves; automatic regulators and downloadable operating software for electric smelting, galvanizing, annealing and reheating furnaces, quantity, temperature, vacuum and speed indicators, speed measuring, flatness measuring apparatus and instruments, namely, profilometers or distance sensors or pressure sensors or surface inspection instruments for measuring flatness

International Classes 9 - Primary Classes US Classes 21, 23, 26, 36, 38
